Notes for James Harvey Sanders:

James Harvey Sanders was born October 9, 1832 in Union County, Ohio, the ninth of thirteen children born to Henry Sanders and Martha Johnston "Patsy" Ralston. Shortly after his birth, the family moved east to neighboring Delaware County.

On March 23, 1854 in Delaware County, Ohio, James married Martha Rodgers. Nine children were born to their union. Four children died as infants or in early childhood.

James was a banker and publisher of the Wester Stock Journal. About 1875, James moved the family to Chicago. In 1881 he began publishing the Breeders Gazette, and his son, Alvin, became co-editor. In 1898, Martha, his wife of 44 years, preceded him in death on July 17, 1898.

On December 10, 1898 in Chicago, James posted a letter to his aunt, Mrs. Hattie M. Ralston, in Hyattsville, Maryland:

Dear Aunt

Your letter of Dec. 2nd. found me sick in bed at my Iowa home at Sigourney, Iowa, but I am here now and expect to remain here during the winter. I cannot give you much information concerning our Ralston ancestors. I know that they emigrated originally from Scotland into northern Ireland. I don't remember that I ever heard the name of the County into which they went from Scotland except on one occasion. Uncle Neely Ralston once, in my hearing, when I was a small lad, named the County and if my recollection is not at fault, it was County Atrim. My grandfather Ralston's name was John. The immediate branch of the family from which he was descended settled and lived for some time in Pennsylvania, and emigrated thence to Kentucky. I have always understood that the family traced its genealogy to McDuff of Scotland, but I never took enough interest in such matter while my parents were living to get any more exact facts that I have given you in the foregoing. I presume if you would write to Dr. W. C. Ralston, of Evanston, Ind. you might obtain further particulars. I think, if my memory is not at fault, his father was a brother to my grandfather, John Ralston. Judge Neely of this city is also a descendent of the same family. His grandmother whose maiden name was Elizabeth Neely.

I should be pleased to know what further information you are able to obtain upon this point.

I was exceedingly glad to hear from you and to renew an acquaintance which was a very intimate one years ago. I buried my wife in July last, after a long painful and helpless illness of nearly seven years. Since then I have heard but little from the members of our family who are scattered in various parts of the country. I had a very kind, sympathetic letter from Cousin Ida Ralston, of Washington, D. C. written shortly after the death of my dear wife. I answered her letter very soon after its receipt, and asked her for a reply, giving me information as to herself and family from whom I had not heard anything within four or five years past, but to this letter I have received no reply. It is my present intention to spend most of the coming winter at the "Pennoyer Sanitarium," Kenosha, Wis., but it is quite possible that I may decide to go to California for the winter early in January. I have practically retired from business myself, and my sons are conducting the business here in this city quite independent of me. My enforced retirement consequent upon the helpless condition of my wife during the past six and one-half years, has caused me to drop entirely out of the procession, and I don't feel like making any efforts to overtake it.

You must excuse my use of an amenuensis for I am really just recovering from a very severe illness, resulting from serious congestion of the liver, and I do not feel quite equal to the task of writing a long letter.

Should you meet Cousin Ida very soon, Kindly say to her that I have often wondered why she did not answer my letter written soon after my wife's death, in reply to the one she had sent me.

I am pleased to hear of Cousin Jack's success in his profession, and wish to be kindly remembered to him, as well as to other friends in Washington. With best wishes for yourself, I am.

Most affectionately your nephew,
J. H. Sanders

James, 67, committed suicide on December 22, 1899 in Memphis, Shelby County, Tennessee. He was buried in the Graceland Cemetery in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois.

Chicago Daily Tribune, December 23, 1899, page 5

J. H. Sanders Kills Himself

Former Chicago Man, Editor of the Live Stock Paper, Commits Suicide at Memphis, Tenn.

Memphis, Tenn, Dec. 22 - [Special] - J. H. Sanders, formerly of Chicago committed suicide here last night at his room in the Peabody Hotel by shooting himself... The body was found at noon. On the table in the room was a note written in pencil, which read:

"Telegraph Sanders, 358 Dearborn street, Chicago. Good-by."

Mr. Sanders came here five days ago. He stated the purpose of his visit was to locate the grave of his brother, who had been killed in the civil war and was supposed to have been buried in the National Cemetery here. He spent most of his time visiting the cemetery, and yesterday found the grave. [It was actually his brother-in-law, Archibald Steele Irwin, husband of his then deceased sister, Martha Ellen, who was killed in battle in 1864 and buried in the Memphis National Cemetery.]

The matter seemed to touch him deeply, and when he returned to the hotel last evening he was visibly affected. The pistol used was a .22 and of a cheap type. The smallness of the weapon may account for the fact that no report was heard.

... For several years he had been in ill-health, and on the death of his wife a few months ago his mind partly failed. He went south on the advice of his physician a few weeks ago. Besides the son, Alvin H., he leave two other sons, H. P. Sanders and R. H. Sanders of Chicago, and a daughter, Mrs. John Homan [Hohmann] of Oak Park. He was 68 years old.

Notes for Martha Rodgers:

Martha Rodger was born July 15, 1836 in Wayne County, Ohio, the daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth B. Rodgers. The family was enumerated in the 1850 census of Scioto Township of Delaware County, Ohio:

Benjamin Rogers	M	54	Virginia [surname later found as Rodgers]
Elizabeth Rogers	F	53	Pennsylvania
William F Rogers	M	24	Ohio

On March 23, 1854 in Delaware County, Ohio, Martha married James Harvey Sanders. Six children were born to their union. After the birth of their first child, Martha and her husband, as well as Martha's parents, removed to Iowa. About 1875, after the death of Martha's mother, the family moved to Chicago, Cook County, Illinois.

Although the couple lived in Chicago, Martha returned to Iowa, perhaps to visit relatives, and died there on July 17, 1898 at the age of 62. Her place of burial is unknown.

James Harvey Sanders and Martha Rodgers had the following children:

- i. MINERVA ELLA<sup>6</sup> SANDERS was born on 04 Nov 1854 in Delaware Co., Ohio. She died on 24 Apr 1890 in Chicago, Cook Co., Ill. (age 35).

Notes for Minerva Ella Sanders:

Minerva Ella Sanders was born November 4, 1854 in Delaware County, Ohio, the eldest of nine children born to James Harvey Sanders and Martha Rodgers. She was the granddaughter of Henry Sanders and Martha Johnston "Patsy" Ralston. Shortly after her birth, the family removed to Iowa. About 1875, her father moved the family to Chicago, where they were enumerated in the 1880 census. Ella grew to adulthood but never married.

"Ella Nu Sanders," age 35 and born in Ohio, died April 22, 1890 in Cook County, Illinois, and was buried in the Graceland Cemetery in Chicago. It is not known if this is the same Ella Sanders.

- ii. HENRY PITTMAN SANDERS was born on 18 Aug 1856 in Oskaloosa, Mahaska Co., Iowa. He died on 25 Jan 1945 in Chicago, Cook Co., Ill. (age 88). He married (1) ANNA MILLER, daughter of August F. Miller and Laititea Elizabeth Kehm, on 11 Oct 1905 in Oak Park, Cook Co., Ill.. She was born on 27 Jan 1882 in Oak Park, Cook Co., Ill.. She died on 01 Aug 1929 in Oak Park, Cook Co., Ill. (age 47). He married (2) ELIZABETH after 1930 in Illinois. She died after 1945.

Notes for Henry Pittman Sanders:

Henry Pittman "Pitt" Sanders was born August 18, 1857 in Oskaloosa, Mahaska County, Iowa, the second of nine children born to James Harvey Sanders and Martha Rodgers. Henry was the grandson of Henry Sanders and Martha Johnston "Patsy" Ralston. About 1875, his father moved the family to Chicago. Like his father and brother, Henry grew up to work in the publishing business.

Little is known of Henry's early adulthood. Henry married at least twice. On October 11, 1905 in Oak Park, Cook County, Illinois, Henry married Anna Miller. No children are known to have been born to the couple. Anna died in 1929. In 1930, the widowed Henry was living with his sister, Mrs. Martha Hohamann, in Oak Park, Cook County, Illinois.

Sometime after 1930 Henry married a woman named Elizabeth. Although enumerated as married in 1940, his wife was not present.

Henry, 88, died January 25, 1945 in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, and was buried in the Forest Home Cemetery in Forest Park, Cook County, Illinois. His wife Elizabeth was the informant on Henry's death certificate.

- iii. MARY ROSETTA SANDERS was born on 03 Aug 1858 in Keokuk Co., Iowa. She died on 02 Nov 1859 in Iowa (age 14 mos.).
- iv. ALVIN HOWARD SANDERS was born on 08 Sep 1860 in Talleyrand, Keokuk Co., Iowa. He died on 17 Jul 1948 in Radnor, Delaware Co., Penn. (age 87). He married Elizabeth Augusta Hildebrand on 25 Apr 1882 in Cook Co., Ill.. She was born on 14 Oct 1861 in Sycamore Co., Ill.. She died on 17 Dec 1946 in Wayne Co., Penn. (age 85).

Notes for Alvin Howard Sanders:

Alvin Howard Sanders was born September 8, 1860 in Talleyrand, Keokuk County, Iowa, the fourth of nine children born to James Harvey Sanders and Martha Rodgers. Alvin was the grandson of Henry Sanders and Martha Johnston "Patsy" Ralston. About 1875, his father moved the family to Chicago. From 1878 to 1879, Alvin attended the Cornell University in Ithaca, New York. He returned to Illinois where he graduated from the Union College of Law.

On April 25, 1882 in Cook County, Illinois, Alvin married Elizabeth A. Hildebrand. Three children were born to their union:

- i. Mrs. Elizabeth Dow Sanders Trayner, born 12 Apr 1883; died on 8 Sep 1968.
- ii. Marjorie Louise Sanders, born on 28 Dec 1884 in Chicago, Cook Co., IL.; died in Jul 1968 in New Bedford, MA.
- iii. Alva May Sanders, born on 23 Feb 1890 in Chicago, Cook Co., IL.; died on 4 Nov 1992 in Silver Spring, MD.

Alvin joined his father in the publishing business, later forming his own journal, The Breeder's Gazette. He retired in 1927, leaving Chicago after 1930, removed to Delaware County, Pennsylvania.

Alvin, 87, died July 17, 1948 in Radnor, Delaware County, Pennsylvania, and was buried in the Washington Memorial Chapel Churchyard cemetery in Valley Forge, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.

Guide to the Alvin Howard Sanders Papers, circa 1839-1925:

Alvin Howard Sanders (1860-1948) was the son of James Harvey Sanders, a renowned livestock author and founder of the leading livestock journal, The Breeder's Gazette. Alvin attended Cornell University in Ithaca, New York from 1878 to 1879. His father, then editor of the National Livestock Journal in Chicago called upon his son to help him in the editorial office. In 1881, Alvin graduated from the Union College of Law and received his license from the state of Illinois in 1882.

James Sanders founded The Breeder's Gazette in Chicago on December 1, 1881. Alvin decided to join his father in his new endeavor and was employed on the staff as co-editor. He married Elizabeth A. Hildebrand of Chicago on April 25, 1882. By 1892, Alvin had become editor and owner of The Breeder's Gazette.

On February 20, 1900, the Senate confirmed the appointment of Alvin Sanders as a member of the American delegation to the Paris Exposition.

After the Union Stock Yards opened in Chicago, Arthur G. Leonard, Robert Ogilvie, and Alvin Sanders formed the Saddle and Sirloin Club located at the Stockyard Inn in 1903. On the club walls were portraits of the important persons in the livestock movement. In Alvin's book, At the Sign of the Stock Yard Inn, he wrote about the lives of Robert Bakewell, Thomas Bates, Amos Cruickshank and others.

On August 16, 1905, a convention was held at the Illinois Theater in Chicago which was attended by leading commercial and agricultural organizations. It was here that the American Reciprocal Tariff League was formed. Alvin was elected chairman and held this position until 1909. During his service, he corresponded with President Theodore Roosevelt regarding foreign trade agreements with the United States.

President William Taft appointed a Tariff Board in September 1909 which included Henry C. Emery, professor at Yale; James B. Reynolds, Assistant Secretary of Treasury; and Alvin Sanders.

Alvin wrote many livestock books which included such works as A History of Aberdeen-

Angus Cattle, Red White and Roan, Short-Horn Cattle, and The Story of the Herefords. In 1917, he published in collaboration with Wayne Dinsmore, A History of the Percheron Horse. The French government awarded him with the Cross of Officer Merite Agricole in appreciation for his work.

Over the years, he was awarded many awards and honors. He received the degree of Doctor of Agriculture from the University of Illinois in 1906. In 1911, he was presented with the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws from Kenyon College. Alvin was also awarded the Chevalier of the Order of Leopold from the King of Belgium for his contribution in promoting interest in scientific stock breeding.

He was a member of many different agricultural organizations. He was made president of the Saddle and Sirloin Club in 1915. Governor Frank O. Lowden appointed him a member of the Illinois Board of Agricultural Advisors in 1917.

Alvin Sanders retired from The Breeder's Gazette journal in 1927. The livestock journal continued to be published by different editors until it went out of business in 1964.

Notes for Elizabeth Augusta Hildebrand:

Three children were born to the couple; only one is known:

Alva Sanders Carpenter (~1886-????)

Daughter Alva, age 50, was divorced and living with her parents in 1940.

On August 29, 1860 in Keokuk County, Iowa, Charles married Caroline W. Sanders. Caroline's sister, Samantha, had married Harlin Artemas Herrick, Charles's first cousin. Two children were born Charles and Caroline.

Charles, 28, preceded his wife in death on October 1, 1864 in Keokuk County, Iowa, and was buried in the Talleyrand Cemetery in Keokuk County, Iowa. Besides his wife, Charles was survived by their two daughters.

Charles C. Herrick and Caroline W. Sanders had the following children:

- i. GERTRUDE ANN<sup>6</sup> HERRICK was born on 20 Aug 1862 in Iowa. She died on 26 Sep 1930 in Portland, Multnomah Co., Ore. (age 68). She married Edgar Lash Brobst, son of Flavius Josphus Brobst and Sylvia Aurelia Jay, on 06 Oct 1881 in Marion Co., Iowa. He was born on 08 Dec 1859 in Knoxville, Marion Co., Iowa. He died on 14 Dec 1943 in Portland, Multnomah Co., Ore. (age 84).

Notes for Gertrude Ann Herrick:

Gertrude "Gertie" Ann Herrick was born August 20, 1862 in Iowa, the elder of two daughters born to Charles C. Herrick and Caroline W. Sanders. She was the granddaughter of Henry Sanders and Martha Johnston "Patsy" Ralston. Gertrude's father died in 1864. Gertrude and her sister were enumerated with their maternal aunt in the 1880 census of Knoxville, Marion County, Iowa:

Wm Black	Self	M	58	Ireland
M J Black	Wife	F	45	Ohio, United States
Gertie Herrick	Niece	F	17	Iowa, United States
Josie Herrick	Niece	F	16	Iowa, United States

On October 6, 1881 in Marion County, Iowa, Gertrude, age 20, married Edgar Lash Brobst, age 22. Three children are known to have been born to the couple. Their first child was born in Marion County, Iowa in 1883. The family moved to Oregon where two more children were born. The family then moved to Washington where their eldest daughter [Grace Carrol Brobst 1883 - 1895] died at the age of 12. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of Chehalis, Lewis County, Washington:

E L Brobst	Head	M	41	Iowa

- ii. ZOE C. HERRICK was born in Feb 1864 in Sigourney, Keokuk Co., Iowa. She died on 23 Mar 1928 in Redlands, San Bernardino Co., Calif. (age 64).

Notes for Zoe C. Herrick:

Zoe C. Herrick was born in February of 1864 in Sigourney, Keokuk County, Iowa, the younger of two sisters born to Charles C. Herrick and Caroline W. Sanders. She was the granddaughter of Henry Sanders and Martha Johnston "Patsy" Ralston. Her father died in 1864. In 1880 Zoe and her sister Gertie were enumerated with their maternal aunt, Mrs. Mary Jane Black, in Knoxville, Marion County, Iowa.

Zoe never married. Zoe was enumerated with her mother in the 1885 Iowa State Census of Knoxville, Marion County, Iowa. Zoe worked as a school teacher in Iowa and again in California when she and her mother moved to Redlands in San Bernardino County. Her mother died in 1902. Zoe remained in Redlands, and in 1910 she was living with her maternal widowed aunt, Mrs. Mary J. Black:

Mary J Black	Head	F	75	Ohio (widowed)
Zoe C Herrick	Niece	F	44	Iowa

Her aunt died in 1914, and Zoe likely remained living there after her aunt's death. By 1920 Zoe had retired from teaching.

Zoe, 64, died March 23, 1928 in Redlands, San Bernardino County, California, and joined her mother in the Hillside Memorial Park cemetery in Redlands.

Notes for Virgil Young Ralston:

Virgil Young Ralston was born July 16, 1828 in Vanceburg, Lewis County, Kentucky, the only child born to Dr. Joseph Neely Ralston and his first wife, Nancy Grant. Virgil may have had two siblings that died young. Virgil's mother died in 1832 or 33, and his father married Sarah Grant, believed to have been Virgil's mother's sister. No children were born from his father's second marriage. His stepmother died in 1836 or 37. His father married a third time, and from that union, Virgil had five half-sisters.

In 1846, Virgil attended Illinois College in Jacksonville, Illinois, then studied the law under O. H. Browning in Quincy becoming an attorney. He removed to California in 1852, leaving in 1855.

On November 5, 1855 in New York, Virgil married Charlotte "Lottie" Taylor. Two sons were born from their union. In 1855, Virgil bought one-half interest in the Quincy Daily Whig and was its editor for two years. His wife died in February of 1859, a month after giving birth to their second child. After his wife's death, he left his children in New York and returned to Illinois.

In Macomb, Illinois, Virgil was a newspaper editor from 1860 to 1861. Then he volunteered for the army, becoming captain of Company A of the 16th Illinois Infantry. After enduring some unpleasant exchanges with his regimental commander, Virgil resigned his commission. A short time later, using the alias Jesse J. Grant [Grant being his mother's maiden name], he enlisted in the 9th Iowa Calvary, as the regimental quartermaster.

Virgil, suffering from disease, was sent to a hospital in Saint Louis, Missouri, where he died April 19, 1864 at the age of 35. His body was taken to Quincy, Adams County, Illinois, where he was buried in the family plot in the Woodland Cemetery.

Notes for Charlotte Taylor:

Charlotte "Lottie" Taylor was born February 28, 1837 in White Creek, Washington County, New York, the daughter of William Taylor and Mary Elizabeth Barber.

Virgil Young Ralston and Charlotte Taylor had the following children:

- i. JOSEPH W.<sup>6</sup> RALSTON was born on 02 Dec 1856 in New York. He died on 28 Dec 1861 in New York (age 5).
- ii. CHARLES TAYLOR RALSTON was born on 02 Jan 1859 in Cambridge, Washington Co., N.Y.. He died on 15 Jul 1910 in Spuyten Duyvil, Bronx Co., N.Y. (age 51). He married Sarah Catharine Vischer, daughter of Garrett Vischer and Lany Ann Slade, about 1887. She was born on 10 Jan 1858 in Watervliet, Albany Co., N.Y.. She died on 28 May 1899 in North Adams, Berkshire Co., Mass. (age 41).

Notes for Charles Taylor Ralston:

Charles Taylor Ralston was born January 2, 1859 in Cambridge, Washington County, New York, the younger of two sons born to Virgil Young Ralston and Charlotte "Lottie" Taylor. His mother, Charlotte, died a month after Charles was born. Charles's older brother died in 1861 at the age of 5. Then Charles's father died in 1864. Who raised Charles is unknown; he was not found in the 1870 census.

Like his father, Charles wanted to become a lawyer. In the 1880 census of Cambridge, New York, Charles was enumerated as a Law Student. He was living with Thomas and Julia Livingston, relatives of his deceased mother.

Thom Livingston	Self	M	54	New York
Julia A Livingston	Wife	F	54	New York
Julia Livingston	Daughter	F	28	New York
Charles T Ralston	Nephew	M	21	New York

Charles did not become a lawyer, but like his father, he began a career in the newspaper business. According to the 1910 census, he was a newspaper clerk.

About 1887, Charles married Sarah Catharine Vischer. Three sons were born to the couple, but their first child died in infancy in 1890. Charles's wife died in May of 1899. In the fall of 1898, Charles had been arrested for forgery and was serving a two-year sentence at the time of her death. In the 1900 census Charles was enumerated in the Brookshire County Jail. In 1910 Charles was an inmate of the Seton Hospital in the Spuyten, Bronx County, New York.

Charles, 51, died July 15, 1910 in Spuyten Duyvil, Bronx County, New York. He is assumed to have died in the Seton Hospital. Charles was buried in the Woodlands Cemetery in Cambridge, Washington County, New York. He was survived by his sons, Jackson and Paul.

Notes for Sarah Catharine Vischer:

Sarah C. Vischer was born January 10, 1858 in Watervliet, Albany County, New York, the daughter of Garrett Vischer and Lany Ann Slade.

About 1887, Sarah married Charles Taylor Ralston. Three children were born to their union; the first dying in infancy. In 1898 her husband was arrested for forgery and began a two-year sentence in January of 1899.

Sarah, who had suffered from heart troubles, died May 28, 1899 in North Adams, Berkshire County, Massachusetts, at the age of 41 and was buried in the Woodlands Cemetery in Cambridge, Washington County, New York. With her husband still in jail, the two children were sent to live with relatives.

Notes for Emilie Josephine Ralston:

Emilie Josephine Ralston was born April 17, 1840 in Quincy, Adams County, Illinois, the eldest of five daughters born to Dr. Joseph Neely Ralston and Margaretta Hall Mitchel. Emilie's father was previously married and twice widowed. From his first union Emilie had one half-brother.

On May 30, 1861 in Quincy, Adams County, Illinois, Emilie married Jacob White Caldwell. The couple resided in Quincy where five children were born to their union; their third child dying young. Her husband, Joseph, died in 1876. Emilie and the four surviving children were enumerated in the 1880 census of Quincy, Illinois:

Emilie Caldwell	Self	F	40	Illinois (widowed)
Joseph R Caldwell	Son	M	17	Illinois
James W Caldwell	Son	M	16	Illinois
Orville B Caldwell	Son	M	9	Illinois
Harry H Caldwell	Son	M	7	Missouri

Emilie was enumerated twice in the 1900 census. Once at home in Quincy and again in Hastings, Dakota County, Minnesota, where she had gone to help her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Caldwell, with a new born child. In 1910 Emilie was enumerated with her youngest sister, Mrs. Mary Hayden, in Keokuk, Lee County, Iowa. Also living with the family was Emilie's widowed sister, Mrs. Margaretta Charles. In the 1915 Iowa State Census, Emilie was noted as having four years of college.

Emilie, age 76, died February 8, 1917 in Keokuk, Lee County, Iowa, and was buried in the Woodland Cemetery in Quincy, Adams County, Illinois.

The Quincy Daily Journal, Saturday, February 10, 1917, page 6.

Mrs. Emily Caldwell Dead Final Summons for Former Quincy Woman- Burial Sunday in This City

The remains of Mrs. Emily Ralston Caldwell, who died in Keokuk, Thursday night, will be brought to this city, Sunday, for interment in Woodland cemetery.

Mrs. Caldwell made her home with her sister, Mrs. Phil C. Hayden of Keokuk. She was an old resident of Quincy, having been born in this city 77 years ago on April 17. She was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Ralston. After spending most of her life in Quincy, she went to Keokuk with the Hayden family in 1900 where she lived since. Her birthplace was a frame house, on the site of the present city water works office. Decedent had been ill since Thanksgiving.

She is survived by three sons, J. R. Caldwell of Albert Lea, Minn., J. W. Caldwell of Chicago and Harry H. Caldwell of New York City. The latter was with Dewey at Manila bay in 1898.

Miss Emilie Ralston married Jacob White Caldwell, 5/30/1861 in Quincy. Mr. Caldwell died in St. Louis

12/16/1878. Jacob was the nephew of Mrs. Elizabeth Caldwell Browning, the wife of Orville Hickman Browning. The Brownings and Abraham and Mary Todd Lincoln were close friends during the Brownings time in Washington.

Jacob White Caldwell and Emilie Josephine Ralston had the following children:

- i. JOSEPH RALSTON<sup>6</sup> CALDWELL was born on 20 Oct 1862 in Quincy, Adams Co., Ill.. He died on 23 Apr 1953 in Dunkirk, Jay Co., Ind. (age 90). He married Anna M. Hyatt on 18 Sep 1889 in Adams Co., Ill.. She was born on 19 Apr 1869 in Illinois. She died on 21 Apr 1935 in Madison, Dane Co., Wisc. (age 66).

Notes for Joseph Ralston Caldwell:

Joseph Ralston Caldwell was born October 20, 1862 in Quincy, Adams County, Illinois, the eldest of five children born to Jacob White Caldwell and Emilie Josephine Ralston. One of Joseph's siblings died in infancy and another in early childhood.

On September 18, 1889 in Adams County, Illinois, Joseph married Anna M. Hyatt. The couple lived in Illinois, probably in Quincy, until about 1895. They moved to Hastings, Dakota County, Minnesota, where Joseph worked in a flour mill. The family resided there before the 1900 census and the birth of their fourth child:

Joseph R Caldwell	Head	M	37	Illinois
Anna H Caldwell	Wife	F	31	Illinois
Henry Hyatte Caldwell	Son	M	10	Illinois
Josephine E Caldwell	Daughter	F	8	Illinois
John C Caldwell	Son	M	6	Illinois
James R Caldwell	Son	M	4/12	Minnesota
Emily Caldwell	Mother	F	60	Illinois (widowed)

Joseph's mother had come up from Quincy, Illinois, to help with the newborn child. Daughter, Josephine, remained living with her parents; enumerated with them in 1930. Anna, Joseph's wife of some 46 years, died in 1935. Daughter Josephine remained home with her father. In 1940 at the age of 77, Joseph was still working as an accountant.

Joseph, 90, died April 23, 1953 in Dunkirk, Jay County, Indiana. His body was returned to Wisconsin and buried next to his wife in the Forest Hill Cemetery in Madison, Dane County, Wisconsin.

Harry, 66, died April 27, 1939 in Brooklyn, New York, and was buried in the Arlington National Cemetery. He was survived by his wife and their son. Also surviving were his three brothers, Joseph, James, and Orville.

Biography on Find-A-Grave:

Harry Caldwell was born on February 5, 1873 in St. Louis, Missouri. He was the fourth of five children. Graduating from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland in 1891, Caldwell went on to serve as Admiral Dewey's flag secretary aboard the Cruiser Olympia. As the Spanish American War became imminent in 1898, Dewey moved the Asiatic Squadron to Mirs Bay. However, Caldwell remained behind to maintain communications with the U.S. It was Caldwell who received the notification that the war had be declared. Ensign Caldwell travelled to Mirs Bay where he delivered this critical piece of information to Dewey. Caldwell was present aboard OLYMPIA during the naval Battle of Manila Bay where he volunteered for and was assigned to a subdivision of the 5-inch battery.

Returning the the U.S., Caldwell witnessed the trials of the experimental submaribe

HOLLAND on the Potomac River on March 14, 1900, and was later granted permission to go down in the submarine as an observer. When the U.S. Navy purchased the HOLLAND, Caldwell was given its command, a position he would hold until November 25, 1902. On September 25, 1900, Caldwell led a successful simulation of a torpedo attack on the battleship KEARSARGE during wargames held off the coast of Newport, Rhode Island.

Caldwell retired from the Navy in 1909 and joined the reserves, attaining the rank of commander. He returned to active duty during World War I and commanded the AMPHITRITE in New York harbor. Following the war, Harry Caldwell became a writer and editor of movies. At age 48, he married Katherine Clark. Together, they were involved in about 75 movies including "Ben Hur" and "Seventh Heaven."

Notes for Katherine Clark:

According to her marriage record, Katherine was born in Spokane, Washington.

236. IDA ANN<sup>5</sup> RALSTON (Joseph Neely<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup> Rolston, John<sup>2</sup> Rolston, William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 19 Dec 1842 in Quincy, Adams Co., Ill.. She died on 08 Apr 1903 in Chicago, Cook Co., Ill. (age 60). She married Edgar Robbins Morris, son of Isaac Newton Morris and Mary Ann Robbins, on 31 May 1864 in Adams Co., Ill.. He was born on 01 Jan 1838 in Adams Co., Ill.. He died on 20 Jun 1880 in Seymour, Baylor Co., Texas (age 42).

Notes for Ida Ann Ralston:

Ida Ann Ralston was born December 19, 1842 in Quincy, Adams County, Illinois, the second of five daughters born to Dr. Joseph Neely Ralston and Margaretta Hall Mitchel. Ida's father was previously married and twice widowed. From his first union Ida had one half-brother. Her half-brother died in 1864.

On May 31, 1864 in Adams County, Illinois, Ida married Judge Edgar Robbins Morris. The couple farmed. In 1866 the first of two sons was born. Their second son was born in 1869. After 1870, the family removed to Texas, where her husband became a county judge and was murdered in June of 1880. After his death, Ida and her sons returned to Illinois. Ida was enumerated in the 1900 census of Chicago with her son Joseph:

Ike Morris' Mother Dead

Passed Away in Chicago This Morning - Remains to be Brought Here for Burial Friday

Mrs. Ida Ralston Morris, widow of the late Judge E. R. Morris and mother of Joseph R. Morris and Isaac N. Morris, of Chicago, died this morning, at 5 o'clock at her home No. 4552 Oakenwald avenue, Chicago.

The remains will be brought to Quincy, and the funeral service will be held at the Church of the Good Shepherd on Friday morning. The exact hour will be announced later.

Notes for Edgar Robbins Morris:

At 10:30 in the morning, the Commissioners Court in session to consider the letter of a contract for the building of a jail and other purposes, W.A. Taylor, the keeper of the only saloon in Seymour, entered the court room, which is a 20x25 feet square, and after passing into the clerk's room, a small apartment cut off by partition in one corner of the court room, made some inquiries of the clerk, then returning to the court room quietly took a seat near the front door and not more than 12 feet from County Judge E.R. Morris, while presiding at the court.

Seizing upon a favorable opportunity, Taylor fired the fatal shot from a pistol that took effect in the head of Judge Morris, the ball entering above the left temple in the edge of the hair. A jerk and a few gasps and Judge Morris was dead, without speaking.

Taylor ran to his horse and rode away in a northwest direction. No one was prepared to follow. The rangers, Corp. Rush and four men had received marching orders and had started for their headquarter camp, Blanco canyon, 24 hours before. Sheriff Cunningham had left earlier in the week. Before leaving, Sheriff Cunningham had deputized Will Elkins. Elkins started in pursuit of Mr. Taylor arresting Mr. Taylor.

Judge Morris' remains were followed to the grave the next day by almost the entire population of the town. Business men closed their places of business. After his death, his family moved back to Illinois.

Survived by his wife; two sons - Joseph and Isaac Morris.

Edgar Robbins Morris and Ida Ann Ralston had the following children:

- i. JOSEPH RALSTON<sup>6</sup> MORRIS was born on 25 Nov 1866 in Quincy, Adams Co., Ill.. He died on 08 Apr 1922 in Neuilly-sur-Seine, France (age 55). He married Anna Barnett on 27 Mar 1906 in Chicago, Cook Co., Ill..

Notes for Joseph Ralston Morris:

Joseph Ralston Morris was born November 25, 1866 in Quincy, Adams County, Illinois, the eldest of two sons born to Judge Edgar Robbins Morris and Ida Ann Ralston. The family removed to Texas, where Joseph's father became a judge and was murdered in June of 1880. After his father's death, his mother moved the family back to Illinois. In 1880, Joseph was enumerated with his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Morris, in Ellington Township of Adams County, Illinois. Joseph, his mother, and his maternal widowed aunt, Mrs Margaret Charles, were enumerated together in the 1900 census of Chicago. Joseph was working as an agent for a gas company. Joseph's mother died in 1903 and his younger brother Isaac in New York City in 1905.

On March 27, 1906 in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, Joseph, age 39, married Anna Barnett. Children from their union, if any, are unknown. By 1920 the couple had divorced. Sometime between 1915 and 1920, Joseph moved to Annapolis, Maryland, where he was a farmer. During WWI, Joseph worked for the American Red Cross.

Joseph, 55, died April 8, 1922 in Neuilly-sur-Seine, France. His body was returned to the United States where he joined his mother in the Woodland Cemetery in Quincy, Adams County, Illinois.

- ii. ISAAC NEWTON MORRIS was born in 1869 in Quincy, Adams Co., Ill.. He died on 11 Oct 1905 in N.Y., N.Y. Co. (Manhattan), N.Y. (age 36). He married (1) MIRIAM MANSFIELD, daughter of Ward Mansfield and Ellen F. Warner, before 1898. She was born on 13 Oct 1870 in Saginaw, Saginaw Co, Mich.. She died on 14 Mar 1940 in Los Angeles Co., Calif. (age 69). He married (2) HANNAH SARGENT, daughter of Harry J. Sargent and Hannah Elizabeth Bailey, on 26 Dec 1904 in Manhattan, N.Y. Co., N.Y.. She was born on 09 Sep 1876 in Providence, Providence Co., R. I..

Notes for Isaac Newton Morris:

Isaac "Ike" Newton Morris was born in 1869 in Quincy, Adams County, Illinois, the younger of two sons born to Judge Edgar Robbins Morris and Ida Ann Ralston. The family removed to Texas, where Joseph's father became a judge and was murdered in June of 1880. After his father's death, his mother moved the family back to Illinois. Isaac was educated at the Emerson Institute in Washington, D.C. and later at the Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore.

For about two years, Isaac became a reporter for the Quincy Journal and then became co-owner of the Quincy Herald along with his brother for about two years. The brothers sold the Herald, and Isaac moved to New York, where he became a playwright. Isaac served in the Spanish-American War of 1898.

Isaac was twice married. His first wife was Miriam. They had one daughter who died in

Sudden Death of Ike Morris

In New York this Morning

Will be Buried in Quincy

Was Born Here

And Did Newspaper Work on Both The Journal and the Herald-Of Late Years He Had Been Writing Plays, and Had Attained Considerable Fame as a Playwright-Leaves Many Friends Here.

Milton Weems received a dispatch this morning from Joe Morris In Chicago to the effect that his brother, Isaac, died suddenly In New York this morning. The dispatch contained the further announcement that the burial would take place in Quincy.

We have no information as to the ailment of which Ike died, but on account of his death being so sudden, we suspect it was heart disease, as he had been more or less bothered with that trouble for some years.

Ike, as everybody in Quincy called him, and as we shall call him in this article, was born in Quincy about 37 years ago. His father was Edgar R. Morris, and his mother was Ida R. Morris, a daughter of Dr. Ralston.

Ike's father was killed the tenth day of June, 1880, in the court room in Seymour, Texas. He was a circuit Judge at the time and had rendered a decision on a ' local' option question, which was repugnant to the liquor interests of the county, and was shot by a saloonkeeper in the court room.

Some time after the death of Judge Edgar R. Morris, his wife moved to Washington and went into the government service there. Ike went through the public schools of Washington, and then attended Emerson Institute there for a time. From that institution he went to Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore. He attended that school, as nearly as we can remember, about three years, but he did not graduate there . He lacked about a year of going through that university. As schools go, Ike was a well educated man.

Shortly after Ike left Johns Hopkins University, he came to Quincy, and went to work as a reporter on The Quincy Journal, where he proved himself to be one of the . brightest and most capable and trenchant writers that has ever done work upon this newspaper. Ike made a friend of every one on the paper.

He quit The Journal, after working on it a little less than two years, to go to work on the Quincy Herald, he and his brother Joe having bought that property. Our recollection is that he and his brother conducted the Herald for about two years, when they sold it to the present proprietors.

After he quit the Herald he went East and took up the business of playwriting, at which he attained a pretty fair measure of success.' Among his successful plays are: "The Usurper," "Jim Bludsoe," and "The Last Stroke."

"The Last Stroke" is a Cuban play, and Ike got the plot of it in Cuba. He went to Cuba as a soldier during the Cuban war and while there picked up the characters of the play. "Jim Bludsoe" was based on John Hay's "Pike county ballads," and into the play Ike wove a good many of the Pike county characters. When "Jim Bludsoe" was put on in New York, Secretary John Hay and his son went over to see it, and the elder Hay was much pleased with it. "Jim Bludsoe" and "The Last Stroke" were Ike's big money makers.

Last January Isaac married a member of Nat Goodwin's "The Usurper" company. She went by the name of Miss Sergeant, but she was a widow with one child. Her home was in New York. The married couple went to Nassau on their wedding trip. Ike left no children. Last June Ike went to Europe, to Italy, and Sicily among other places, where he was getting material for a new play on which he was at work.

Ike was a descendant of two old and honored Quincy families. He is a grandson of Hon. I. N. Morris on his father's side and of Dr. Ralston on his mother's side. He left many friends here who will be very sorry to learn of his too early death. He was a young man of many loveable traits of character. Ike was a nephew of Mr. T. L. Morris of this city, the only living member of the immediate Morris family, aside from his brother Joe of Chicago.

Notes for Miriam Mansfield:

Miriam Mansfield was born October 13, 1870 in Saginaw, Saginaw County, Michigan, the daughter of Ward Mansfield and Ellen F. Warner.

When she married Isaac "Ike" Newton Morris is unknown. The couple had two children. Their first child, a daughter, died in July of 1898, the day after her birth. The couple divorced sometime after 1902. Miriam and son were enumerated with her mother in the 1910 census of Manhattan, New York County, New York:

Ellen F Mansfield	Head	F	67	Michigan (1/1) (widowed)
Miriam M Morris	Daughter	F	39	Michigan (2/1) (widowed)
Eugene Morris	Grandson	M	8	England

On October 14, 1913 in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, Miriam married George P. Soyer. By 1920, they had divorced or her husband had died. Miriam was enumerated with her mother in the 1920 census of Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, California.

Miriam, 69, died March 14, 1940 in Los Angeles County, California. Her place of burial is unknown.

Notes for Mary Neely Ralston:

Mary Neely "Minnie" Ralston was born October 12, 1859 in Quincy, Adams County, Illinois, the youngest of five daughters born to Dr. Joseph Neely Ralston and Margaretta Hall Mitchel. Mary's father was previously twice married and widowed. From his first union Mary had one half-brother. Her half-brother died in 1864.

Mary's father died in 1876. Three years later, her sister Theresa died. After her father's death, Mary's mother operated a boarding house. Mary was enumerated there in 1880. Her mother died in July of 1885.

On October 12, 1885 in Illinois, Mary married Phillip Cady Hayden. Two sons are known to have been born to the couple. The family and Mary's two widowed sisters were enumerated in the 1910 census of Keokuk, Lee County, Iowa:

Philip C Hayden	Head	M	55	Canada English

Margaretta Charles	Sister-in-law	F	65	Illinois (widowed)

Mary, 63, died July 24, 1923 in Keokuk, Lee County, Iowa. Her body was returned to Illinois and buried in the family plot in the Woodland Cemetery in Quincy, Adams County, Illinois. Mary was preceded in death by her parents, all of her sisters and a half-brother.

Notes for Phillip Cady Hayden:

Born one of nine children.

Phillip Cady Hayden and Mary Neely Ralston had the following children:

- i. JOSEPH RALSTON<sup>6</sup> HAYDEN was born on 24 Sep 1887 in Quincy, Adams Co., Ill.. He died on 19 May 1945 (age 57). He married Elizabeth Olivia Hall, daughter of Louis Phillips Hall Sr. and Elizabeth C. Douglas, on 25 Aug 1917 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co., Mich.. She was born on 12 Nov 1895 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co., Mich.. She died on 14 Feb 1986 (age 90).

Notes for Joseph Ralston Hayden:

Dr. Joseph Ralston Hayden, PhD was born September 24, 1887 in Quincy, Adams County, Illinois, the elder of two sons born to Phillip Cady Hayden and Mary Neely Ralston. In the 1915 census Joseph's occupation was listed as "At School." He had already completed high school and four years of college.

On August 25, 1917 in Ann Arbor, Michigan, Joseph, age 29, married Elizabeth O. Hall, age 21. Three children were born to the couple. Joseph was a professor at the University of Michigan.

On October 26/27, 1926 Joseph arrived at the Port of Seattle, Washington, on the S.S. President Jackson that had sailed from Manila, Philippines Islands. In January of 1936 Joseph returned via the Port of New York aboard the S.S. Europa from Cherbourg, France.

In 1942 Joseph took a leave from the University of Michigan to work as the Coordinator of Information in Washington, D. C. during WWII.

Joseph, 57, died May 19, 1945 and was buried in the Forest Hill Cemetery in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw County, Michigan.

Biography {Michigan Historical Collections, Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan}

Joseph Ralston Hayden was born on September 24, 1887 in Quincy, Illinois. He received his B.S. from Knox College in 1910, then his M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of Michigan in 1911 and 1915 respectively. From 1910 to 1912, while a student, Hayden was an assistant in American history at the University of Michigan. In 1912, he became a member of the university's department of political science, where he remained, except for his service with the government, until his death on May 19, 1945.

During World War I, Hayden was a lieutenant in the Michigan Naval Militia serving as senior officer of the University of Michigan division. He was in active service from April 1917 to February 1919. Following the war, Hayden returned to the University of Michigan.

Hayden was a recognized authority on the Philippine Islands. In this, Hayden was carrying on a tradition begun by Dean C. Worcester, who, like Hayden, was both on the faculty of the University of Michigan and called to public service in the Philippine Islands because of his expertise and experience. In 1922-23, Hayden was an exchange professor at the University of the Philippines; in 1930-31, he was the Carnegie Visiting Professor in the State University of the Philippines. In 1922-23, 1926, and 1930-31, Hayden was special correspondent in the Far East for the Christian Science Monitor. Hayden used each of these opportunities to travel in the islands, to study, and to make contacts with Philippine citizens, both government officials and private citizens.

In recognition of his learning and wide experience in Philippine matters, President Franklin Roosevelt appointed Hayden to serve as vice governor of the Philippines and secretary of public instruction. His choice for governor general, Frank Murphy, though possessing administrative skills and political charm, was coming to the Philippines without any real knowledge of the actualities of Filipino life and custom, and thus Roosevelt's reasoning for pairing Hayden with the former Detroit mayor. Hayden responded admirably to his selection by the president, performing his duties efficiently, even serving as acting governor general when Murphy returned to the United States for a six-month period.

With the establishment of the Philippine Commonwealth in 1935, Hayden returned to the University of Michigan, where he taught and worked on what would be his classic work, The Philippines: A study in national development (1941). Following his return, Hayden was named James Orin Murfin Professor of Political Science and chairman of the department.

Hayden returned to public service with the outbreak of World War II, where his knowledge of the Philippines proved invaluable. From 1941 to 1945, he worked with the U.S. Office of the Coordinator of Information and, after June 1942, with its successor organization, the Office of Strategic Services. From 1943 to 1945, Hayden was named civil adviser and consultant on Philippine affairs with the U.S. War Department, attached to the staff of General Douglas MacArthur. As part of this later activity, Hayden developed and headed up as chief a special staff section of the United States Armed Forces for the Far East - the Philippine Research and Information Section. The role he envisioned for the Philippine Research and Information Section was three-fold: to prepare reports and studies about the Philippines; to distribute information about the Philippines as needed; and to collect books, magazines, newspapers, and printed and manuscript materials about the Philippines with a view to their "effectiveness in furthering the prosecution of the war."

Notes for Elizabeth Olivia Hall:

Elizabeth Olivia Hall was born November 12, 1895 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw County, Michigan, the youngest of four children born to Louis Phillips Hall, Sr. and Elizabeth C. Douglas. Elizabeth's middle name was that of her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Olivia Bigelow Hall. Elizabeth and the family was enumerated in the 1910 census of Ann Arbor:

Louis P Hall	Head	M	49	Ohio
Elizabeth B Hall		Wife	F	47 Michigan
Douglas Hall	Son	M	24	Michigan
Louis P Hall Jr.	Son	M	20	Michigan
Richard M Hall	Son	M	15	Michigan [Richard Neville Hall 1894-1915]
Elizabeth O Hall		Daughter	F	14 Michigan

On August 25, 1917 in Ann Arbor, Elizabeth married Joseph Ralston Hayden. Three children, two daughters and a son, were born to their union. Her husband was a professor at the University of Michigan and recognized authority on the Philippine Islands. The family traveled abroad on numerous occasions and spent some time in the Philippine Islands.

In the 1940 census Elizabeth and her daughter "May" [Mary] were entered and lined through, giving no age or place of birth. Elizabeth and her youngest daughter, Mary, may have been in the Philippine Islands.

Her husband preceded her in death in 1945.

He died on 27 Apr 1905 in Huntingdon, Carroll Co., Tenn. (age 83). He married Justina Melrose Ott on 17 Aug 1847 in Murfreesboro, Rutherford Co., Tenn.. She was born on 05 Aug 1825 in Murfreesboro, Rutherford Co., Tenn.. She died on 12 Jun 1901 in Carroll Co., Tenn. (age 75).

Notes for Alvin T. Hawkins:

Gov. Alvin T. Hawkins was born December 2, 1821 in Bath County, Kentucky, the eldest of thirteen sons born to John Milton Hawkins and Mary Graham "Polly" Ralston. About 1825 the family removed to a farm in Carroll County, Tennessee. Alvin did not become a farmer. Educated at McLemoresville Academy and Bethel College, Alvin studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1843.

On August 17, 1847 in Murfreesboro, Rutherford County, Tennessee, Alvin married Justina Melrose Ott. The couple resided in Huntingdon, Carroll County, Tennessee, where Alvin practiced law. Six children were born to the couple; the four younger children all died in childhood.

In 1853, as a member of the Whig Party, Alvin ran for the Tennessee House of Representatives. He was not elected. He ran again in 1853, was elected, but did not seek re-election and served but one term.

Alvin did not serve during the Civil War. He was pro-union, but the Whig party supported the Confederacy. In 1862 Alvin was elected to the 9th congressional district of the House of Representatives, but the House refused to seat him.

In 1864, he was appointed United States Attorney for West Tennessee by President Abraham Lincoln. In 1865 Alvin was appointed, by then Governor William G. Brownlow, as an Associate Justice of the Tennessee Supreme Court. He served in this position until his resignation in 1868. He then briefly served as U.S. Consul to Havana, Cuba. Running as a Republican, Alvin was elected to the court, serving until 1870. He then returned to his law practice in Huntingdon. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Huntingdon, Carroll County, Tennessee:

Alvin Hawkins	Self	M	58	Kentucky

In 1880 Alvin's younger brother Albert, also a lawyer, was living next door.

Alvin was elected as the 22nd Governor of Tennessee, serving from 1881 to 1883. His wife died in 1901.

Alvin, 83, died of pneumonia on April 27, 1905 in Huntingdon, Carroll County, Tennessee, and was buried in the Hawkins Cemetery in Carroll County. Alvin was survived by his two eldest sons. Also surviving were five brothers; James, Joseph, William, Alber and Camillus.

Alvin T. Hawkins and Justina Melrose Ott had the following children:

- i. ERNEST H.<sup>6</sup> HAWKINS was born on 13 Dec 1848 in Tennessee. He died on 22 Apr 1933 in Nashville, Davidson Co., Tenn. (age 84). He married (1) LULA MAY COCHRAN on 26 Oct 1873. She was born on 08 Feb 1851. She died on 07 Jul 1877 in Carroll Co., Tenn. (age 26). He married (2) JOSEPHINE E. MCCALL on 04 Apr 1883 in Carroll Co., Tenn.. She was born on 09 Jan 1862 in Carroll Co., Tenn.. She died on 04 Jun 1956 in Jackson, Madison Co., Tenn. (age 94).

Notes for Ernest H. Hawkins:

Ernest H. Hawkins was born December 13, 1848 in Tennessee, the eldest of six children born to Alvin T. Hawkins and Justina Melrose Ott. His younger four siblings all died during the years of the Civil War. Ernest was the grandson of John Milton Hawkins and Mary Graham "Polly" Ralston. Like his father, Ernest became a lawyer. In 1900 he was working as a druggist but returned to his law practice by 1910.

Ernest was twice married. On October 26, 1873, Ernest married his first wife, Lula May Cochran. The couple had one child, daughter Earnestine Love Hawkins, born in August of 1876. Steele Enterprise - Steele, Missouri - Friday, March 28, 1958

Probate Judge N.C. Hawkins, 80, died early Wednesday morning at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis where he had been a patient for about a month. It was thought that he was recovering, but he suffered a lung hemorrhage and death came suddenly.

A graduate of Cumberland University, he came to Caruthersville from Lake County, Tenn. in 1906, to practice law. He has served as probate judge for eight years and was a candidate for re-election this fall.

Survivors are his wife and one son, Julian C., also a brother J.C. all of Caruthersville. He was a member of the Eastwood Methodist Church.

Democrat Argus - Caruthersville, Missouri - Friday, April 4, 1958

Funeral services were held in this city, from the Methodist church, Friday, afternoon for Probate Judge Noah Case Hawkins and interment followed in Little Prairie Cemetery with LaForge service. Judge Hawkins, 80, died the preceding Tuesday, between 11 and 12 p.m. in Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, where he had been a patient for some weeks. He had about recovered from his long illness, members of the family state, when a blood clot developed in his lungs, causing his death a few hours later.

Judge Hawkins was born in Lake county, Tenn., on October 13, 1877. He attended the Huntingdon Normal School and later was graduated from Cumberland University School of Law and was admitted to the bar shortly afterward. He was the son of Dr. James N. Hawkins and Matilda Harris Hawkins, a well known family in that area.

He came to Caruthersville in 1906, having previously practiced law for a short while in Denver, Colo. and having also been associated briefly with his brother, Senator C.P. Hawkins of Kennett, in the legal practice.

In 1909 he was married to Miss Julia Caswell, a teacher here and she and their son, Julian C. Hawkins, are the only survivors in his immediate family. He leaves one brother, Joseph C. Hawkins, of this city and several nieces and nephews.

Mr. Hawkins joined the Methodist Church when he was 12 years old. He was superintendant of the Sunday School of the Methodist Church here (to which he transferred his membership) at the time of his marriage and subsequently taught a class for 28 years.

Carrying on in the practice of law up to eight years ago, he was elected Probate Judge in 1948 and again in 1952, having served almost two full terms at the time of his death. He had planned to be a candidate again this year. He was a long-time member of the Masonic Lodge and had received his 50-year membership pin in the local lodge a few years ago.

William E. Hawkins was born September 23, 1863 in Greenwood, Louisiana. His father, who had been a chaplain in the Confederate army, moved the family to Texas immediately following the war and became a circuit-riding Methodist preacher in East Texas. William Hawkins ran the family farm and held other jobs while he was growing up, including a stint as a printer's apprentice. He attended Tulane University for a year beginning in 1881 before transferring to Southwestern University in Georgetown, where he earned a B.S. degree in 1884. Hawkins then studied law in Dallas under Judge Seth Shepard and was admitted to the bar in 1887. He was married in Dallas in 1886, and the couple had four children.

Hawkins practiced law in Dallas until 1905 and served as assistant county attorney there briefly. In 1905 he was appointed first assistant attorney general, serving under attorney general R. V. Davidson. He held this post for four years. In 1910 he was appointed commissioner of insurance and banking by Gov. Thomas Campbell, but a controversy over enforcement of insurance rates led the governor to ask the senate in a special session not to confirm the appointment. Two years later, Hawkins was elected to an unexpired two-year term on the supreme court in a landslide election. He was reelected two years later and served a total of eight years as an associate justice.

Following his court service, Hawkins practiced law for a number of years in Breckenridge with his son, Lyndsay D. Hawkins. He spent two years from 1928 to 1930 in Honduras settling the mining estate of a client. When he returned, he moved to Abilene, where he practiced law for the remainder of his life. He died in Abilene July 23, 1937.

ALBERT S. HAWKINS, attorney at law, a member of the firm of Hawkins & Hawkins [the junior partner is his cousin Lindsay Hawkins, son of W. E Hawkins], of Phoenix, is best known locally through the excellent record as attorney, District Attorney, Member of the House and Senate, which preceded him from Texas, his former home. Mr. Hawkins was born in Fannin County, that state, in 1868. He is the son of Reverend S. J. Hawkins, deceased, of North Texas, and Mrs. E. M. Hawkins, now of Dallas, Texas, and is a nephew of ex-Governor Alvin Hawkins, of Tennessee. His early education was received in the public schools, and he afterwards attended Southwestern University, Georgetown, Texas. Having been admitted to the practice of law at Gatesville, he followed this profession for about 23 years at Midland and Abilene, and throughout West Texas is well known as an attorney. In 1893 Mr. Hawkins was elected to the House of Representatives to represent Midland and 29 other counties and during the term was author of the law creating the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas, which has been productive of very good results. He was later District Attorney of the 32nd Judicial District. In 1901 he was again elected member of the House of Representatives, and in the same year became known as the author of the School Land Law, which opened up the western part of the state to settlers, thereby furnishing homes to thousands of families and adding millions of dollars to the tax rolls of the state. Mr. Hawkins' political record is a most unique one in that he has never taken advantage of a political position to secure a further grip on public patronage and has always refused to allow his name to be used as candidate to succeed himself. In 1904 he was elected to the State Senate from the Abilene District, and was the author of the law providing for state and county depositories, which keeps the state funds in circulation and each year yields a revenue more than sufficient to pay the expenses of the Treasury Department. He was thereafter spoken of as The Financier of the Senate. Although Mr. Hawkins became an Arizonan just about a year ago, when he took up his residence in Phoenix, he has already become thoroughly imbued with the spirit of the new state. A true Southern Democrat, his interests affiliated with that party here it would seem that his years of experience in legal and legislative work in the State of Texas would prove a boon to Arizona, for he has already, by means of valuable suggestions, been of material aid to her worthy legislators. In 1904, the year in which he was elected Senator, Mr. Hawkins was married to Miss Sallie W. Bell, of Marshall, Texas.

Notes for Sallie W. Bell:

1930 census of Marshall, Harrison County, Texas:

Mrs. Callie F Bell	Head	F	81	Alabama [Anna]
Sallie B Hawkins	Daughter	F	53	Texas (widowed)

Notes for Alethia Jackson Deaver:

Alethia "Letha" Jackson Deaver was born March 19, 1883 in Virginia, the daughter of William O. Deaver and Rachael A. Harris. About 1884, the family removed to Missouri.

Letha married William Ollo Haberman. The couple was enumerated in the 1910 census of Abernathy, Clackamas County, Oregon:

William O Haberman	Head	M	24	Nebraska
Alethia J Haberman		Wife	F	26	Virginia
Rachel A Haberman	Daughter	F	5/12	Oregon

The couple operated a grocery store in Oregon. The family then removed to Arizona. The couple is believed to have divorced. On March 31, 1918 in Phoenix, Maricopa County, Arizona, Letha married Alber S. Hawkins. One child was born to the couple. Mr. Hawkins preceded her in death in 1920. The widowed Letha Hawkins was enumerated in the 1940 census of San Francisco, San Francisco County, California:

Emma, 91, died June 15, 1962 in Kerrville, Kerr County, Texas, and was buried in the Masonic Cemetery in Gatesville, Coryell County, Texas. Death certificate give date of birth as November 26, 1870.

Notes for Hardy Reynolds Van Tine:

Hardy and Emma divorced sometime after the 1910 census, and she remarried. Hardy was enumerated with his eldest son in the 1930 census of Dallas County, Texas:

Elmer H Vantine	Head	M	33	Texas
Elizabeth Vantine	Wife	F	28	Texas
Billie J Vantine	Son	M	7	Texas
Jack A Vantine	Son	M	7	Texas
Hardy R Vantine	Father	M	65	Vermont (widowed)

Enumerated as widowed, his exwife was still living.

Death certificate states that he was buried in the Dallas Cemetery.

Pioneer Woman Lawyer, Suffragist. She was the first woman attorney in the state of Nevada. She moved to Virginia City, Nevada with her father, attorney Marcellus Crane Tilden, by 1880. She never attended college or law school; rather, she studied in her father's law office starting in 1889. In January 1893 she is credited with framing, presenting and helping to pass a Nevada statute which gave women the same rights as men to become attorneys. In July 1893, she was the first woman in Nevada to pass the exam to become an attorney, although there is no record of her ever practicing there. In 1894 she was practicing in Sacramento, California, and won her first case at the Sacramento Supreme Court. The case was closely covered by newspapers, since the public wanted to know how she would handle herself. She was the only woman practicing law at that time in Sacramento. It was stated in the Sacramento Bee that she was "young and rather pretty. She has a clear, pleasing voice which was distinctly heard throughout the Courtroom." In 1894 she was the first President of the Sacramento Women's Suffrage Association. In 1898 a brief marriage to druggist Fred Ray ended when he tried to kill her, and was subsequently declared insane. In September 1901 she moved to Denver, Colorado, and in 1916, to Montrose, Colorado, practicing law in both cities. A second marriage, to Walter Curtis Wilson, ended in divorce. She died from injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

Josephine, 64, died November 15, 1920 in Indiana, and joined her husband in the Union Chapel Cemetery in Morton, Putnam County, Indiana.

Notes for Charles S. McCray:
Obituary, undisclosed source:

Charles McCray died Monday morning June 3, 1907, at his home in Roachdale, after a few hours of suffering from appendicitis. Deceased was the son of William and Nancy McCray was born in Putnam County, Indiana, February 1, 1856, being at the time of his death 52 years, 4 months, and 2 days old. He was married to Patsy J. Frank August 10, 1875. To this union were born 11 children, seven daughters and four sons, two sons having preceded the father, one dying in infancy and the other at the age of 14 years.

He united with the M. E. Church at Brick Chapel, Ind., in the year 1885 under the ministry of Rev. Claypool. He afterwards moved his membership to Union Chapel where he remained a faithful member until death. He was a good husband, a true and loving father, always instructing his children in the way they should go, teaching them of higher and nobler things than earthly pleasures, urging them by example to do noble things - not dream them all day long - and so make life, death and that vast forever one grand sweet song. He leaves to mourn his loss, a father, three sisters, six brothers, a dear and lovely wife, seven daughters and two sons, and a host of friends. Though he has gone from us, and while we cannot call him back into our midst, yet we can go to him by so living and doing the will of our Father, that when our little boats shall have been anchored may we be prepared to give a good account of ourselves at the Bar of the Great Judge before whom we must all appear.

The funeral services were held at the home Wednesday morning at 8:20 a.m. conducted by Rev. O. T. Martin, pastor of the M. E. Church of Roachdale. The remains were then taken to Union Chapel where short services were held. Rev. Martin being assisted by Rev. Swank pastor of that place and Rev. Ed. Day of Brazil. Burial at Union Chapel Cemetery.

Indianapolis News, June 2, 1900

GREENCASTLE, Ind., June 2.--Walter Cooper, thirty-eight years old, died to-day in this city of Bright's disease. He had been suffering with it during twenty-four hours only, and his death was a shock to his friends. He was born in this county, and was the senior member of the hardware firm of Cooper Brothers. He belongs to the Knights of Pythias and Modern Woodman, and to the Greencastle City Band.

- x. AARON WARD COOPER was born on 25 Dec 1869 in Morton P.O., Clinton Twp., Putnam Co., Ind.. He died on 18 Jul 1931 in Rockville, Park Co., Ind. (age 61). He married Mattie M. Johnson on 11 Dec 1894 in Parke Co., Ind.. She was born in Nov 1873 in Indiana. She died on 22 Apr 1946 in Parke Co., Ind. (age 72).

Notes for Aaron Ward Cooper:

Aaron Ward Cooper was born December 25, 1869 in Clinton Township of Putnam County, Indiana, the tenth of thirteen children born to George Harris Cooper and Margaret Thomas. Aaron was the grandson of Elzeaphus Thomas and Ruth A. Ralston.

On December 11, 1894 in Parke County, Indiana, Aaron married Mattie M. Johnson. No children were born to the couple. Aaron and his brothers, George and Charles, owned the Cooper Brothers hardware store. His brother, George, died in June of 1900. After his brother's death, Aaron went into farming.

Aaron, 61, died July 18, 1931 in Rockville, Park County, Indiana, and was buried in the Rockville Cemetery in Rockville.

Obituary, undisclosed source:

Aaron Wood Cooper was born on Dec. 25, 1869, on the farm in Putnam county, Indiana, which was for many years the homestead of his parents, George H. and Margaret Thomas Cooper. He received his education in the common schools of his community, afterward attending the Terre Haute Teachers college and teaching several terms in rural schools. In his young manhood he settled in Greencastle where he was in business for ten years. [Cooper Brothers Hardware with his brothers George and Charles] He then returned to the country and became a farmer of the best type, following the profession of agriculture with the keen interest and loving faithfulness to which the earth so well responds. Failing health made it necessary for him to give up active work three years ago, and his last month were spent quietly in Rockville where his life came to a peaceful close on Saturday, July 18. On December 1, 1894, he was married to Mattie M. Johnson who survives him. Besides his devoted wife three sisters. Mrs. Harvey O'Hair of Greencastle, Mrs. E. E. Lloyd of Altoona, Kan., and Mrs. G. H. Hillis of Roselawn, Ind., two brothers, Charles E. Cooper of Greencastle and Chauncey Cooper of Redmon, Ill., and several nieces and nephews remain of his family.

Thus briefly may be stated the facts of Aaron Cooper's life. To this summary every man, woman and child add much testimony. There is a peculiar charm which emanates from a thoroughly honest, sincere and kind man. It makes even casual acquaintances feel an affection for him and between friends of years standing it forms a tie stronger than that of blood. It is the essence of goodness and integrity and it was Aaron Cooper's birthright. Because he possessed it, scores of people, who have known him long and well, mourn his passing. Because he possessed it, the people of Rockville have felt during his residence here a keen sense of loss that his physical infirmity denied them the privilege of knowing him better. They truly understand and sympathize with the bereavement of those nearer to him. Mr. Cooper was baptized into the Methodist church in infancy, formally uniting with that denomination at the age of 14. His membership at the time of his death was in the Brick Chapel church in Putnam county. Thus the highest encomium possible to be given any man may he fittingly bestowed upon him the title, Christian gentleman.

- xi. CHARLES E. COOPER was born on 13 Jun 1872 in Clinton Twp., Putnam Co., Ind.. He died on 28 Aug 1954 in Warren, Ind. (age 82). He married Minnie N. Nelson on 06 Oct 1896 in Putnam Co., Ind.. She was born on 20 Jan 1874 in Indiana. She died on 27 Jul 1954 in Warren, Ind. (age 80).

Joseph Andrew Thomas, named after his paternal uncle, was born in 1863 in Clinton Township of Putnam County, Indiana, the eldest of seven children born to James Neely Thomas and Sarah Ann Marshall. Joseph was the grandson of Elzeaphus Thomas and Ruth A. Ralston. He was most often known by his middle name, Andrew.

On March 15, 1899 in Putnam County, Indiana, Joseph married Harriet "Hattie" E. McCray. No children were born to the couple. The couple was enumerated in the 1900 census of Greencastle, Putnam County, Indiana:

Andrew J Thomas	Head	M	37	Indiana
Hattie E Thomas	Wife	F	40	Indiana (0/0)
William Mccray	Father-in-law	M	82	Kentucky (widowed)
Arty Jackson	Roomer	M	37	Indiana

Joseph worked as a delivery clerk. After the death of Hattie's father, the couple moved to Monroe Township of Putnam County, where they farmed. By 1930, the couple had returned to the city of Greencastle, where they remained until their deaths.

Joseph, 77, preceded his wife in death on May 7, 1941 in Greencastle, Putnam County, Indiana, and was buried as "J. Andrew Thomas" in the Little Walnut Cemetery in Greencastle.

Notes for Hattie E. McCray:

Harriet "Hattie" E. McCray was born March 18, 1860 in Indiana, the daughter of William McCray and Nancy Rogers. She was known by her nickname, Hattie, throughout her adult life. The family was enumerated in the 1870 census of Monroe Township of Putnam County, Indiana:

On October 11, 1867 in Putnam County, Indiana, Joseph married Nancy Catherine Burkett. The couple farm in Clinton Township of Putnam County. Three children were born to the couple. Their only daughter, Zoe, died in 1897 at age 19. Their son Ottis was single and lived at home with his parent; he married the month before his mother's death. Nancy, Joseph's wife of 43 years, died in 1911.

Joseph, 74, died August 9, 1917 in Morton, Putnam County, Indiana, and was buried in the Union Chapel Cemetery in Morton. He was survived by his sons, Alva and Ottis.

Notes for Nancy Catherine Burkett:
Greencastle Herald, July 13, 1911.

Nancy C. Burkett, daughter of Benton and Rebecca Burkett, was born July 30, 1817, On October 31, 1867, she was united in marriage to Joseph A Thomas, to which union three children were born: Alva, Ottis and Zoe. The latter preceded her to the glorious beyond, Nov. 2, 1897. December 5, 1897, she became a member of the Universalist church at Fincastle. Having lived in Morton for thirty years she was known throughout the entire community, as a woman of sterling worth, possessed of a retiring, dignified manner, extremely loving, affectionate, and devoted to her family.

One of the greatest sorrows of her life was the loss of her daughter. She was favored as comparatively few of this world are, by living always within driving distance of her eight sisters and two brothers, she being the oldest and the first to receive her reward. On Sunday evening, January 22nd, last, she received the first call of the messenger and continued very ill until the last two months, when she rallied and hopes were entertained for her recovery, until the final summons, Sunday, June 25th, which was answered Saturday July 1, 1911 at the age of 63 years, 11 months and 1 day. The surviving brothers and sisters are: Rudy Burkett. Sarah Bowen. Rachal Bales, Mollie Crodian, Sophia Goslin, Marlon Burkett. Dalcenia Skillman, Edna Obenchaln, Effie Shannon, and Oliva Gardner.

The funeral services were conducted at the home Monday, July 3rd at 10 a m Rev. Alrhart and Rev Miles officiating. Music by the Fincastle and Union Chapel church choirs. Interment at the Union Chapel cemetery.

Notes for Zoe Thomas:

In Memoriam. Zoe, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Thomas, was born in Morton, Putnam county, Ind., July 28, 1875,
27 Dec 2017 Page 6 Modified Register for Elzeaphus THOMAS
Departed this life Nov. 2, 1897, at place of birth, age 19 years, 3 months and 14 days. Zoe, as she was called by all who knew her, was a kind, affectionate and obedient child. A thoughtful and loving sister, a true friend and one who greatly appreciated her friends. She was blessed with a bright and cheerful disposition. She had an ambition to become a thorough scholar. In an effort to attain to this accomplishment she entered upon the course of study in the DePauw university the fall of 1895, pursuing her work with great dilligence and commendable success. It was while there engaged the first approach of her sickness was noticed, which after months of suffering called her hence. During the long months of her sickness her suffering at times was intense which she bore without murmerings and was each day hopeful of a speedy recovery. Her parents and two brothers did all that money and care could do to save their loved one, employing skilled physicians at home and specialists abroad, her father and mother putting aside every care and business interest, devoting to their daughter each moment, day and night. In addition to this, Zoe's neighbors, young and old, rich and poor manifested the greatest possible interest, each in turn giving some token of sympathy and affection, but all to no physical relief, for unrelenting was the destroying(?) hand of sickness and death. A few days before the end she said to her family that she would like to live, but if she must die she was prepared and in all her life she had not done anything of which she was now ashamed. A few subsequent days, in compliance with her desire, she became a member of the Union Chapel M. E. church and at that time gave to all who stood by her bedside the assuring evidence that all was well. Surely a precious one from us has gone. The funeral was conducted by the undersigned, assisted by the Rev. J. J. Claypool, at Union Chapel, Wednesday, Nov. 3 at 2:30 p.m. In death as in life, Zoe received the most endearing affections that could be bestowed. A large congregation, many of whom were relatives, expressed their sympathy by attending the funeral and burial. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. We would commend unto them the Great Burden Bearer, who said, "Let not your heart be troubled" and the inspiring words of the poet. "No night shall be in Heaven; no darkened room, No bed of death, no silence of the tomb, But breezes ever fresh with love and truth, Shall brace the frame with

Notes for Eugene Jackson Ralston:

Eugene Jackson Ralston was born January 8, 1894 in Rialto, San bernardino County, California, the youngest of five children born to James Hervey Ralston and Melinda Ann McCracken. Eugene had two younger siblings that died. Eugene was still a young child when the family moved to Kansas. His parents and older siblings had lived there before coming to California, so it was a return trip for everyone except Eugene. As a young man, Eugene moved out on his own, living in Kansas City, Missouri, where he worked as a salesman for a mail order company in 1920.

About 1922 in Missouri, Eugene married Edna M. Horne. No children were born to their union. The couple moved to Oakland, Alameda County, California, where Eugene worked as an office manager. Living with the couple in 1930 was Eugene's widowed father, James Ralston, age 83. His father moved out soon after. By 1940 Eugene had become a police officer for the state of California. In 1942 Eugene was working for the University of California at Berkley; his line of work was not disclosed on his WWII Draft card. Later the couple returned to Missouri, where, with his police experience, Eugene was elected judge. His wife died of cancer in 1966.

James Parr	Son	S	Male	W	28	IN	Farmer	TN	KY

Andrew, 67, died January 6, 1880 in Lucas County, Iowa and buried on his homestead (Jim Parr's farm) in Lucas County, Iowa. The cemetery is now known as the ParrWheeler Pioneer Cemetery.

Andrew Jackson Parr and Rose Eleanor Curry had the following children:

- i. JOHN WILLIAM<sup>6</sup> PARR was born on 31 Mar 1837 in Johnson Co., Indiana. He died on 02 Jun 1912 in Mills Co., Iowa (age 75). He married Nancy Harlan, daughter of Aron Harlan and Jemminmia Springer, about 1866 in Iowa. She was born on 07 May 1843 in Indiana. She died on 26 Nov 1924 in Mills Co., Iowa (age 81).

Notes for John William Parr:

John William Parr was born March 31, 1837 in Johnston County, Indiana, the eldest of eight children born to Andrew Jackson Parr and Rose Eleanor Curry. He was the great-grandson of Nicholas Curry and Eleanor Rolston. John's father moved the family to Iowa sometime prior to the 1860 census.

John served in Company D of the 39th Regiment of the Iowa Infantry from 1862 to 1863.

About 1866 in Iowa, John married Nancy Harlan. Seven children were born to the couple; two had died prior to the 1900 census. The family lived in Mills County, Iowa.

John, 75, died June 2, 1912, probably in Mills County and was buried in the Glenwood Cemetery in Glenwood, Mills County, Iowa. He was survived by his wife Nancy.

Notes for Nancy Harlan:

Born in Indiana, her family moved to Iowa when she was about two years old.

Dave Parr of Glenwood, Iowa was the informant on her death certificate. He is assumed to have been her son.

Memphis Review

Orville H. Curry, an old and highly esteemed citizen of this county, died of heart trouble and other complications at his home north of Arbela January 17, 1906, after a long illness, aged 72 years, 4 months and 22 days.

Deceased was of stalwart frame, prepossessing in appearance, fine sensibility, pleasing address and was always most courteous and cordial to greeting his fellow man. Better still, he was as kind and tender hearted as he was big. The writer knew him intimately from the day he settled in that part of the county down the day of his death. When we were a lad in Johnson Township he was our ideal of a perfect type of manhood. Honest, generous, hospitable, sympathetic and courtly in all the walks of life he made friends wherever he was known. Possessing the strength and stature of a giant in those days he was as gentle and sweet spirited as a woman. He had a sunny disposition. Never allowed himself to live on the darkside or dwell among the shadows. He preferred to scatter sunshine wherever he went. Such a life is worth something as an example and is a blessed heritage to the children who now mourn his death. The removal of such a man is a positive loss to the county and state.

Deceased was born in Johnson County, Indiana, August 26, 1833. He was united in marriage with Rachel C. Harris, of Johnson County, Indiana, September 2, 1854. They moved from there to Lucas County, Iowa in 1856, and from there to Scotland County, Missouri in 1859, where his wife passed away August 6, 1885. Eleven children were born of this union, viz: James H., Martha J., Mary E., John W., Margaret E., Chas. A., Lewis H., Dillard T., Tisdale E., and Wm. T. All are living except an infant son and Dillard T., who preceded him to the spirit land. Of the surviving children James H., John W., Wm.T., Mrs. Mary Adams and Mrs. Margaret McClellan live in this county near Abela [sic] and Granger, Mrs. Martha Hohstadt and Charles A. live at Ayon [sic], Colorado, Lewis H. at Ft. Madison and Tisdale E. at Ottumwa, Iowa.

The funeral services were held at Black Oak Baptist church, January 19, Rev. W. H. F. Jones, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, officiating, after which all that was mortal of our old friend was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery. Peace to his ashes and condolences to those who mourn the loss of a good father.

Orville H. Curry and Rachel Clarice Harris had the following children:

- i. JAMES H.<sup>6</sup> CURRY was born on 19 Feb 1855 in Indiana. He died on 28 Apr 1930 in Granger, Scotland Co., Mo. (age 75). He married Lizzie Alice Cain, daughter of Reuel Cain and Sarah Elizabeth Power, about 1880. She was born on 03 Nov 1861 in Iowa. She died on 07 Mar 1951 in Granger, Scotland Co., Mo. (age 89).

Notes for James C. Alexander Adams:

John [James] A. Adams, living three miles north of Arbela, died suddenly Sunday morning at about 7 o'clock. Saturday he had complained of not feeling well, Sunday morning he had gone to the barn to do his chores when he fell over. Mrs. Adams heard him and rushed to his side to find him gasping. She endeavored to telephone for help, but could not get through, so started to a neighbor but met a man in a wagon and he notified the neighbors, who soon arrived, but Mr. Adams had passed beyond. Following is the obituary read at the funeral:

James Alexander Adams who lives three miles north of Arbela, Missouri, son of John McKinney Adams and Elizabeth Adams, was born in Jennings County, Indiana, April 3, 1849, and died March 25, 1928, being 78 years, 11 months, and 22 days old.

He came with his parents to Scotland County, Missouri, in 1853, to the home farm where he has lived his entire life time. On January 3, 1879, he was united in marriage to Mary F. Curry. To this happy union were born four children. One infant son and the only daughter, Daisy May, preceded him in death a number of years ago.

Besides his wife he leaves to mourn two sons, Stephen C. of Memphis. John William at the home farm, two grandsons, Olin and Stanley C. and one granddaughter, Velma Louise, one sister, Mrs. Drusie Moore of Kahoka, and one half brother, Lewis Adams, and one half sister, Mrs. Mary Riebel, both of Arbela, Missouri, besides a number of other relatives and a host of friends.

He was one of the pioneers of this community, a lover of his home and its surroundings, a worthy son of a great state, who has contributed a long and useful life in the tilling of the soil and service to his fellow man. His personal manner was charming, always kindly disposed, and a great lover of children. He was a strong advocate of high ideals and honest principles, honest and honorable in all of his dealings, and a forceful examiner of right living. He was a devoted husband, a noble father, and a splendid citizen. The community has lost an able and efficient servant, and the family has lost a true friend. He was genial, companionable, and above all, in rock-ribbed fortified character, outstanding in this community.

The funeral service was rendered from the home to the Methodist Church in Arbela, Tuesday, March 27, at 2 p.m. in the presence of the largest congregations, many of whom were unable to gain admission for lack of room. Rev. Arthur S. Olsen, pastor of the Methodist Church in Memphis, officiating, assisted by Revs. Kapfer, the pastor of Granger and George Miner, former pastor. The floral offerings were large and beautiful as a mark of esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. Interment was in Black Oak Cemetery (north of Granger) where the body was tenderly laid to rest. May God bless and comfort the bereaved family, who has the sympathy of their many friends.

The pallbearers were W. H. and W. T. McClellan, W. T. and Dillard Curry, James Fitch and George Adams.

- iv. JOHN W. CURRY was born on 18 Apr 1861 in Scotland Co., Mo.. He died on 25 Apr 1940 in Scotland Co., Mo. (age 79). He married Mary Isabelle Americus on 01 Jan 1890. She was born on 24 Apr 1866 in Scotland Co., Mo.. She died on 30 Apr 1954 in Scotland Co., Mo. (age 88).

- ix. DILLARD T. CURRY was born on 04 Aug 1873 in Scotland Co., Mo.. He died on 18 Jan 1894 in Scotland Co., Mo. (age 20).

Notes for Dillard T. Curry:

Dillard T. "Tobe" Curry was born August 4, 1873 in Scotland County, Missouri, the ninth of twelve children born to Orville H. Curry and Rachel Clarice Harris. He was the great grandson of Nicholas Curry and Eleanor Rolston.

Dillard, 20, died January 18, 1894 in Scotland County, Missouri and was buried in the Black Oak Cemetery in Granger, Scotland County, Missouri.

The Farmers' Union, Memphis, Missouri, January 25, 1894

Dillard T. Curry died of pneumonia at 4 o'clock, Thursday morning, January 18, 1894; at the home of his father, O. H. Curry, living 3 miles north of Arbela; aged 20 years 5 months and 14 days. Deceased was born Aug 4, '73, and spent his entire life in this immediate neighborhood. Tobe, as he was commonly called, was a large, stout young man, whose steady, quiet, unassuming traits of character, won the respect of all who knew him, and those who knew him best appreciated him most.

During his two weeks' illness and intense though patient suffering, he had the kindest of care and best of medical assistance and few realized that the Death Angel was hovering so near. On Wednesday, when it became generally known that he was expected to live but a short time at most, a gloom was cast over the entire community and the school, of which he had been a regular attendant, realized that they were soon to lose [sic] one of their much respected members. On the following morning, ere the dawn of day, he heard the summons: "Thy work is done, your suffering is 'oer; thy journey on life's rugged pathway is ended." Quietly and peacefully, as he had lived, he answered the call and with a mere struggle of the body, his spirit took its flight on angel wings to the realms of light, where a fond mother was waiting to welcome home her boy. On Friday at 11 o'clock funeral services were conducted at the Black Oak Church by the Rev. John Boon, after which the body was laid to rest.

Rest on, dear one, thy work is done,
Wear the crown thy victory's won;
Sing the songs of the Angel Band;
In that fair celestial land.

Her husband preceded her in death in January of 1884.

Sarah, according to a family Bible, died April 13, 1893 at the age of 78. The Illinois Death Record, shows her death as May 14, 1893 in Chicago. She was buried in the Patton Cemetery in La Porte, La Porte County, Indiana. Photos of her tombstone show her death as May 14, 1893.

August 26, 2010

Dear Gordon -

I recently saw your extensive Rolston family history on line when trying to trace my g-g-grandmother Sarah Ann Griffith Hosmer who according to a family Bible was b. Feb. 10, 1815, d. Apr. 13, 1893. She was married in LaPorte County IN to Jackson Hosmer who was a farmer/IN state representative. I have several records which claim she was born in Wood County VA, now WVA, so I wondered if she might be a part of the family #31 you have listed for Nancy Rolston and John Griffith. Also, in the Miriam Benedict Memorial Cem. in Westville, LaPorte Co, IN where a number of Hosmers are buried, there is a very worn headstone for Nancy, wife of J. or L. Griffith b. Dec. 25, 1784, d. Oct. 19, 1852 or 1857 and record of Daniel Griffith, d. 1845, 22 yrs. 5 mo. (no census record of Nancy or Daniel that I have found).

I would so much appreciate hearing from you if you have information that would either confirm or eliminate the possibility of Sarah Ann being one of the unnamed female children of your family #31!

Thank you,

who settled in New Durham township in 1835, and are among the oldest living pioneers of the county. He fills the office of County Commissioner, and was elected to the Legislature in 1876, was re-elected in 1878 and has always borne an active part in the public interest of the county. The subject of this sketch was for many years engaged in teaching public schools in various States of the West, and in 1876 was appointed County Superintendent to fill a vacancy. In 1879 he was re-appointed to the same position, which he has filled to the entire satisfaction of the people. Probably there is no office in the county service who is held in higher esteem than W. A. Hosmer. Politically he bears the standard of the old-time and honored Democracy.

About 1881 in La Porte County, Indiana, Warren married Agnes Margaruth Tracy. Three sons were born to their union.

Warren, 50, preceded his wife in death on September 25, 1901 and was buried in the Patton Cemetery in La Porte, La Porte County, Indiana.

- iii. ANN BELLE HOSMER was born on 20 Dec 1853 in La Porte Co., Ind.. She died on 10 Jul 1887 (age 33). She married NIXON.

Notes for Ann Belle Hosmer:

Ann "Annie" Belle Hosmer was born December 20, 1853 in La Porte County, Indiana, the youngest of three children and only daughter born to Jackson Hosmer and Sarah Ann Griffith. She was the granddaughter of John Griffith and Nancy Ann Rolston. Ann grew up in La Porte County where she was last enumerated in the census of 1870 at the age of 17.

Ann married a Mr. Nixon. The couple was not enumerated in the 1880 census, and children from their union, if any, are unknown.

Ann, 33, died July 10, 1887 and was buried in the Patton Cemetery in La Porte, La Porte County, Indiana, where Ann's mother and brother Warren were later buried. Her father had preceded her in death. The family has one large marker, one side for each of the family members except brother Charles who out-lived his parents and siblings.

270. JANE ELIZABETH<sup>5</sup> GRIFFITH (Nancy Ann<sup>4</sup> Rolston, William<sup>3</sup> Rolston, David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 21 Mar 1827 in Wood Co., Va. Edwin was born in Hebron, Porter County, Indiana, a neighboring county just to the west of La Porte County. By 1880, the family had left La Porte County and moved to neighboring Porter County. Edwin's father died in 1891 and his mother in 1892. Edwin, perhaps with his brother Alton, left Indiana and removed to Virginia where he farmed.

On April 28, 1897 in Hanover County, Virginia, Eddy, age 30, married Eoline J. Purcell, age 24. Five children are known to have been born to the couple. In 1900 Edwin's brother Alton was living with them on the family farm. By 1910, Edwin had become a grocer. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of the Richmond Clay Ward of Richmond, Henrico County, Virginia:

Edw G Garner	M	52	Indiana
Eulan J Garner	F	38	Virginia (5/5)
Grace H Garner	F	13	Virginia [b. Sept 1898]
Gladys Garner	F	11	Virginia [b. May 1900 (m 1919) James A. Browne]
Purcell G Garner	M	5-4/12	Virginia (1904-1947)
Edna B Garner	F	3-4/12	Virginia
Daniel Garner	M	6/12	Virginia [John Daniel Garner, b. Dec. 1909]
Myrtle Harris	F	14	Virginia (servant)

By 1930 he had starting using Edward as his given name. The family was enumerated in the 1930 census, once again, in the Richmond Clay Ward of Richmond, Henrico County, Virginia:

Edward G Garner	M	75	Indiana
Eoline Garner	F	58	Virginia
Purcell Garner	M	23	Virginia [Purcell Griffith Garner]
Goldie Garner	F	22	Virginia [daughter-in-law] (Purcell's wife)
John Garner	M	20	Virginia

Edwin, 76, died August 13, 1933 in Richmond and was buried as Edward G. Garner in the Riverview Cemetery in Richmond, Henrico County, Virginia.

Notes for Julia Ann Rolston:

Julia Ann Rolston was born July 10, 1810 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the eldest of nine children born to Benjamin Rolston and Anna Duryea. Julia was about two years old in 1812 when her parents left Wood County and moved to Walnut Township of Pickaway County, Ohio. She resided in Pickaway County for at least the next ten years.

On March 23, 1828 in Pickaway County, Ohio, Julia, age 17, married Newton R. Elzay, age 25. Julia and her husband followed her family to Champaign County where Julia and Newton remained when Julia's father moved away. Julia and Newton's seven children were born in Champaign County. Sometime after 1842 and the birth of their last child, the family moved to Hancock County. Newton, Julia's husband of 25 years, died in Hancock County on April 23, 1853 at the age of 50. Julia was in her late 40's at the time of her husband's death. She did not remarry.

In 1874 Julia's daughter, Mrs. Harriet Anderson, gave birth to a set of twins and died shortly after their birth. Harriet's husband brought the twin daughter Mary to Julia to care for. It is not known how long her granddaughter Mary stayed with the family. Julia, her two sons, Moses and Benjamin, and her granddaughter Mary Anderson were residing in Orange, Hancock County, Ohio where they were enumerated during the 1880 census.

Hancock. Julia remained in Hancock County and was living in Jackson Township at the time of her death on March 2, 1896 at the age of 85. She was buried in the Canonsburg Cemetery in Union Township, Hancock County, Ohio, joining her husband who had died 42 years earlier. The given name on her headstone is "Julianna." Julia was survived by six of her seven children; her daughter Mrs. Harriet Elzay Anderson had preceded her in death.

Julia, age 85, died of pneumonia on March 2, 1896 in Jackson Township of Hancock County, Ohio, and was buried as Julianna Elzay in the Canonsburg Cemetery in Untion Township of Hancock County, Ohio.

The Hancock County, Ohio, death records show Julia as having died January 6, 1896, and not March 2, 1896 as shown on her tombstone. This record also shows her as being born in Pickaway Co., Ohio; however, she was enumerated with her parents in the 1810 census of Wood County, Virginia, now West Virginia.

Notes for Newton R. Elzay:

Newton R. Elzay was born August 1, 1802 in Virginia, the son of William Elsea and Mary E. Vorhire. When the family removed to Ohio is unknown.

On March 23, 1828 in Pickaway County, Ohio, Newton, age 25, married Julia Ann Rolston, age 17. Seven children were born from their union.

Notes on Elzay surname from Elzay's granddaughter Joyce Gamble (Feb. 9. 99): "... On my grandfather's death certificate is was first written Elzy and then crossed out and written Elzea at time of certificate.... On his application for Civil War Pension Alpheus spells it Elzay. My Grandmother Keller wrote out the names of both sets of their parents and all their children's names for me about 50 years ago and she spelled it Elza...."

Newton, 49, preceded his wife in death on April 23, 1852 in Hancock County, Ohio, and was buried in the Canonsburg Cemetery in Union Township of Hancock County, Ohio.

Newton R. Elzay and Julia Ann Rolston had the following children:

- i. DAVID<sup>6</sup> ELZAY was born on 16 Aug 1829 in Champaign Co., Ohio. He died on 29 Jan 1899 in Cannonsburg, Orange Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio (age 69). He married (1) MARGARET KATHERINE KELLER, daughter of Frederick Keller Sr. and Catherine Court, on 22 Apr 1851 in Union Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. She was born on 24 Mar 1834 in Beaver Co., Pennsylvania. She died on 02 Mar 1918 in Findlay, Hancock Co., Ohio (age 83). He married (2) CLARISSA ELIZABETH YOUNG on 31 Dec 1894 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She was born in Mar 1852 in Indiana. She died after 1900.

Notes for David Elzay:

David Elzay was born August 16, 1829 in Champaign County, Ohio, the eldest of seven children born to Newton R. Elzay and Julia Ann Rolston. Sometime after 1842, his father moved the family north to Hancock County. In Hancock County.

On April 22, 1851 in Union Township of Hancock County, Ohio, David, age 21, married Margaret Katherine Keller, age 17. The couple farmed and raised a family of twelve children. Their last child was born in 1875. David and his family were enumerated in the 1880 census of Orange Township in Hancock County, Ohio:

David and Margaret later divorced. On December 31, 1894 in Hancock County, David married Clarissa E. Terflinger, the former Miss Clarissa Elizabeth Young. She was twice married and had two surviving adult children from her previous marriages.

Five years later, David, 69, died on January 29, 1899 in Cannonsburg, Orange Township of Hancock County, Ohio. He was interred in the Canonsburg Cemetery in Union Township of Hancock County. Three of his twelve children had preceded him in death.

Notes for Margaret Katherine Keller:

Margaret Katherine Keller was born March 24, 1834, the daughter of Frederick Keller, Sr. and Catherine Court. Her place of birth is uncertain. Some report her birth as Portage County, Ohio and others as Beaver County, Pennsylvania. Her parents were both natives of Pennsylvania.

On April 22, 1851 in Union Township, Hancock County, Ohio, Margaret married David Elzay. Eleven children were born to the couple. By 1894 the couple had divorced, and her former husband remarried. Margaret lived with her eldest child, Mrs. Julia Roach in 1910. In the 1900 and 1910 censuses Margaret did not provide information on the number of children born and living.

Margaret, 83, died March 2, 1918 in Findlay, Hancock County, Ohio, and was buried as Margaret Elzay in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Findlay, Hancock County, Ohio.

Notes for Clarissa Elizabeth Young:

Clarissa Elizabeth [Young or Caneda] was born in March of 1852 in Indiana (or Hancock Co., Ohio). Her parentage is unknown. [Her maiden name appears as Young on son William's death certificate and Caneda on his birth record.]

About 1869 in Ohio, Clarissa married Martin V. Cook. The couple was enumerated in the 1870 census of Waynesfield P.O., Wayne Township of Auglaize County, Ohio:

Martin V Cook	M	20	Ohio
Clarrasi E Cook		F	18 Ohio
William F Cook	M	5/12	Ohio

The couple later divorced, and Clarissa married a Mr. Terflinger. Nothing is known of her second husband. According to the 1900 census, Clarissa had four children; two survived. By which husband(s) the children were born is unknown. What became of Mr. Terflinger is unknown.

On December 31, 1894 in Hancock County, Ohio, Clarissa married the widower David Elzay. No children were born to their union. He preceded her in death in 1899. Clarissa and her first known child were enumerated in the 1900 census of North Baltimore (village), Henry Township of Wood County, Ohio:

Clarisa E Elzay	Head	F	48	Indiana (4/2) widowed)
William F Cook	Son	M	30	Ohio [Jan 1870 - May 1944]

Clarissa was a Saloon Keeper and her son the saloon clerk. Nothing is known of Clarissa after the 1900 census.

- ii. WILLIAM ELZAY was born on 18 Sep 1831 in Urbana, Champaign Co., Ohio. He died on 25 Apr 1915 in Orange Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio (age 83). He married Margaret Markley, daughter of Solomon Markley and Elizabeth Salsbury, on 28 Aug 1861 in Putnam Co., Ohio. She was born on 23 Sep 1841 in Richland Co., Ohio. She died on 17 Jan 1916 in Orange Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio (age 74).

Notes for William Elzay:

William Elzay was born September 18, 1831 in Urbana, Champaign County, Ohio, the second of seven children born to Newton R. Elzay and Julia Ann Rolston. Sometime after 1842, his father moved the family north to Hancock County.

On August 28, 1861 in Putnam County, Ohio, William married Margaret Markley. The couple resided in Hancock County where they farmed and their eight children were born. William and his family were enumerated in the 1880 Census of Orange Township, Hancock County, Ohio:

Wm. Elzay	Self	M	Male	W	48	OH	Farmer	VA	VA

William, 83, died April 25, 1915 in Orange Township in Hancock County, Ohio and was buried in the Canonsburg Cemetery in Union Township of Hancock County, Ohio. He was survived by his wife and their eight children. Also surviving were two sisters: Mrs. Aryalina Keller and Mrs. Mary Vermillion.

Notes for Margaret Markley:

Margaret Markley was born September 23, 1841 in Richland County, Ohio, one of seven children known to have been born to Solomon Markley and Elizabeth Salsbury. He father died in 1853, days before Margaret's twelfth birthday.

- iii. ARYALINA ANGELINE ELZAY was born on 20 Oct 1833 in Champaign Co., Ohio. She died on 14 Nov 1923 in White Co., Ind. (age 90). She married Alpheus Keller, son of Frederick Keller Sr. and Catherine Court, on 20 Dec 1852 in Hancock Co., Ohio. He was born on 09 Dec 1831 in Beaver Co., Pennsylvania. He died on 28 Nov 1908 in White Co., Ind. (age 76).

Notes for Aryalina Angeline Elzay:

Aryalina Angeline Elzay was born October 20, 1833 in Champaign County, Ohio, the third of seven children born to Newton R. Elzay and Julia Ann Rolston. Sometime after 1842, her father moved the family north to Hancock County.

According to the research of Dr. Richard P. Elzay, Angeline, like her brother Moses, was blind.

On December 20, 1852 in Hancock County, Ohio, Aryalina, age 19, married Alpheus Keller. Her father died the following year. Aryalina and her husband lived in Hancock County until sometime after 1876. Twelve children were born to the couple, of which nine appear in the 1880 census of Washington Township, Hardin County, Ohio:

Aryalina and her husband lived in White County, Indiana in the later years of their life. It is not known when they left Hancock County for Indiana. Aryalina and her husband were enumerated in the 1900 census of Liberty Township of White County, Indiana:

Alpheus Keller	Head	M	69	Ohio
Angeline Keller	Wife	F	67	Ohio (12/8)
Milton Keller	Son	M	28	Ohio (single)
Cleo Keller	Grandson	M	7	Indiana

Edith Keller	Granddaughter	F	2	Indiana
Infant Keller	Granddaughter	F	2/12	Indiana		[Mildred G. Keller]

Of their twelve children, four had died and only son Milton, who was single, was still living at home. Daughter-in-law Maggie, wife of son Ora, and her two young children, Edith and an unnamed infant daughter, and grandson Cleo were also residing with the family. Grandson Cleo was not Maggie's child, and he was not Milton's son.

Aryalina's husband preceded her in death on November 28, 1908 at the age of 76. After her husband's death, Aryalina lived with her son Milton.

Aryalina, 90, died November 14, 1923 in White County, Indiana and joined her husband in the Riverview Cemetery in Monticello, White County, Indiana. Her tombstone, shared with her husband Alpheus, was not inscribed with her date of death. Aryalina was survived by five of her twelve children: sons Newton, Isaac, Milton and Ora, and daughter Mrs. Julia Waters.

Notes for Alpheus Keller:

Alpheus Keller was born December 9, 1831 in Beaver County, Pennsylvania, the son of Frederick Keller (Sr.) and Catherine Court.

On December 20, 1852 in Hancock County, Ohio, Alpheus married Aryalina Angeline Elzay. From their union, twelve children were born. Family life and farming was interrupted by the Civil War, and Alpheus served in the 25th Ohio Infantry. The 1880 census enumerated Alpheus and his family in Washington Township of Hardin County, Ohio. In the 1890's the family removed to White County, Indiana, where they remained.

Alpheus, 76, preceded his wife in death on November 28, 1908 in White County, Indiana and was buried in the Riverview Cemetery just east of Monticello in White County, Indiana.

- iv. MOSES B. ELZAY was born on 07 Aug 1835 in Champaign Co., Ohio. He died on 11 Aug 1909 in Liberty Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio (age 74).

Notes for Moses B. Elzay:

Moses B. Elzay was born August 7, 1835 in Champaign County, Ohio, the fourth of seven children born to Newton R. Elzay and Julia Ann Rolston. Sometime after 1842, his father moved the family north to Hancock County. Moses was blind and never married. He was still single and living at home at the age of 40. In 1900 he was enumerated in Orange Township of Hancock County, Ohio with his brother Benjamin.

Moses, 74, died August 11, 1909 in Liberty Township of Hancock County, Ohio and was buried in the Canonsburg Cemetery in Union Township of Hancock County. He was preceded in death by his parents, brothers David and Benjamin, and his sister Harriet.

- v. MARY ELIZABETH ELZAY was born on 14 Apr 1837 in Champaign Co., Ohio. She died on 02 Jun 1925 in Hancock Co., Ohio (age 88). She married Isaac Ford Vermillion, son of Charles Vermillion and Ann King, on 03 May 1860 in Hancock Co., Ohio. He was born on 20 Feb 1836 in Union Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 16 Mar 1880 in Orange Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio (age 44).

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Elzay:

Mary Elizabeth Elzay was born April 14, 1837 in Champaign County, Ohio, the fifth of seven children born to Newton R. Elzay and Julia Ann Rolston. Sometime after 1842, her father moved the family north to Hancock County. He died there in 1853 a week after Mary's sixteen birthday.

On May 3, 1860 in Hancock County, Ohio, Mary married Isaac Ford Vermillion. Nine children were born to the couple; two died in infancy. Mary's husband Isaac died in 1880 at the age of 44. Mary was enumerated as a widow residing in Orange Township in Hancock County, Ohio during the 1880 census, and six of their children were still living at home:

Mary Vermillion	Self	W	Female	W	43	OH	Keeping House	VA	VA
Elizabeth Vermillion	Dau	S	Female	W	17	OH	At Home	OH	OH
Harriet Vermillion	Dau	S	Female	W	16	OH	At Home	OH	OH

Daniel E. Vermillion	Son	S	Male	W	10	OH	At School	OH	OH
Wm. A. Vermillion	Son	S	Male	W	3	OH	At Home	OH	OH

Mary's youngest son, Turley, died in May of 1900, before the 1900 census. In the 1900 and 1910 census, Mary reports of having given birth to nine children, six of which were still living. In the 1910 census of Orange Township, daughter Harriet and son James were still living at home and both are single. In addition to these two children was granddaughter Emma V., age 5. She was the daughter of Mary's son Daniel who's wife had died. In the 1920 census, Mary's son James was head of the house.

Mary, 88, died June 2, 1925 in Hancock County, Ohio and was buried in the Canonsburg Cemetery in Union Township of Hancock County, Ohio.

Notes for Isaac Ford Vermillion:

Isaac Ford Vermillion was born February 20, 1836 in Union Township, Hancock County, Ohio, one of eleven children known to have been born to Charles Vermillion and Ann King. In about the mid-1850's, his parents moved to Dallas County, Iowa.

Isaac remained in Hancock County where on May 3, 1860, he married Mary Elizabeth Elzay. Nine children were born to the couple.

Isaac, 44, died March 16, 1880 in Orange Township of Hancock County, Ohio and was buried in the Cannonsburg Cemetery in Union Township of Hancock County. Two of the couple's children, their names unknown, preceded Isaac in death.

- vi. HARRIET ELZAY was born on 30 Jan 1840 in Champaign Co., Ohio. She died on 04 Sep 1874 in Hancock Co., Ohio (age 34). She married Robert Harrison Anderson, son of William Anderson and Sarah Jane Thom, on 12 Nov 1867 in Hancock Co., Ohio. He was born on 29 May 1840 in New Lisbon, Columbiana Co., Ohio. He died on 06 Mar 1914 in Hancock Co., Ohio (age 73).

Notes for Harriet Elzay:

Harriet Elzay was born January 30, 1840 in Champaign County, Ohio, the sixth of seven children born to Newton R. Elzay and Julia Ann Rolston. Sometime after 1842, her father moved the family north to Hancock County. In 1853 when Harriet was thirteen, her father died.

On November 12, 1867 in Hancock County, Ohio, Harriet, age 27, married Robert Harrison Anderson. He was known by his middle name, Harrison. Harriet and Harrison had been married for seven years, but only three children are known to have been born. Her first known surviving child was born about 1872, after five years of marriage. One child, an infant son, is said to have been born and died in 1869 and buried in the Thompson Cemetery in Orange Township of Hancock County, Ohio.

Harriet, 34, died September 4, 1874 in Hancock County, Ohio, probably shortly after giving birth to daughter Mary. She was buried in the Cannonsburg Cemetery in Union Township of Hancock County, Ohio. Besides her husband and two children, Harriet was survived by her four brothers, David, William, Moses and Benjamin and two sisters, Mrs. Angeline Keller and Mrs. Mary Vermillion.

Notes for Robert Harrison Anderson:

Robert Harrison Anderson was born May 29, 1840, the second of five children known to have been born to William Anderson and Sarah Jane Thom. According to his death certificate, he was born in New Lisbon, Columbiana County, Ohio.

On November 12, 1867 in Hancock County, Ohio, Harrison married Harriet Elzay. Harrison and Harriet had two children. Harriet died in 1874, shortly after giving birth to their second child. Harrison left their infant daughter, Mary, with Harriet's mother.

Harrison remarried about 1876 to Mrs. Rebeca Margaret (Rambo) Allison. Three children were born to their union; their first child died at birth. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Orange Township in Hancock County, Ohio:

Harrison Anderson		Self	M	40	Ohi
Rebeca M Anderson	Wife	F	38		Pennsylvania
Anna J Anderson		Daughter		F	9	Ohio
Mary R Anderson		Daughter		F	6	---
Wm P Anderson		Son	M	3		Ohio [child with Rebecca]
Jas W Allison		Stepson	M	16		Iowa
Alive Allison		Stepdaughter	F	14		Iowa

At the time of the 1900 census of Orange Township of Hancock County, Ohio, Harrison and his family were residing next door to his cousin, John David Anderson. In the 1910 census of Hancock County, granddaughter Ina M. Bliss was living with them.

Harrison, 73, died March 6, 1914 in Hancock County, Ohio and was buried in the Thompson Cemetery of Hancock County.

- vii. BENJAMIN KEENER ELZAY was born on 10 Jun 1842 in Champaign Co., Ohio. He died on 18 May 1902 in Orange Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio (age 59). He married Minerva Ann Stover, daughter of Daniel Stover and Catherine Clabaugh, on 18 Jan 1883 in Putman Co., Ohio. She was born on 16 Sep 1849 in Ripley Twp., Putnam Co., Ohio. She died on 25 Apr 1915 in Orange Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio (age 65).

Notes for Benjamin Keener Elzay:

Benjamin Keener Elzay was born June 10, 1842 in Champaign County, Ohio, the youngest of seven children born to Newton R. Elzay and Julia Ann Rolston. The source of Benjamin's middle name, Keener, is unknown, probably the surname of a family friend.

Sometime after Benjamin's birth, his father moved the family north to Hancock County. Benjamin's father died there in 1853, a few months before Benjamin's eleventh birthday. 23 years later, Benjamin was running the family farm with the help of his older brother

Moses. Neither Benjamin nor Moses had married. Enumerated with them during the 1880 census was their mother, Julia, who was 68, and niece, Mary Anderson, age 6. Mary was the daughter of Benjamin's sister, Mrs. Harriet Elzay Anderson, who had died six years earlier.

On January 18, 1883 in Putnam County, Ohio, Benjamin, age 40, married Minerva Ann Stover. Five children were born from their union, but their only two sons died as infants. Benjamin and his family were enumerated in the 1900 census of Orange Township in Hancock County, Ohio. Living with him was his blind brother, Moses, and his widowed mother-in-law, Mrs. Catherine B. Stover.

Benjamin, 59, died on May 18, 1902 in Orange Township, Hancock County, Ohio, and was buried in the Cannonsburg Cemetery in Cannonsburg, Hancock County, Ohio. He was survived by his wife Minerva and daughters Anna, Julia, and Leah. He was preceded in death by his parents, brother David and sister, Mrs. Harriet Anderson.

Notes for Minerva Ann Stover:

Minerva Ann Stover was born September 16, 1849 in Ripley Township, Putnam County, Ohio, the eighth of nine children born to Daniel Stover and Catherine Clabaugh. As a young child she was known as Matilda Ann Stover.

On January 18, 1883 in Putnam County, Ohio, Minerva married Benjamin Keener Elzay. Five children are known to have been born to the couple; two had died by 1900. In 1900, Minerva's widowed mother was living with the family.

Benjamin, Minerva's husband of 18 years, preceded her in death on May 18, 1902 at the age of 59. In the 1910 census Minerva and daughter Leah, with her husband and their child, are residing in Liberty Township of Hardin County, Ohio.

Minerva, 65, died April 25, 1915 in Orange Township of Hancock County, Ohio was buried next to her husband in the Cannonsburg Cemetery in Cannonsburg, Hancock County, Ohio.

Notes for Charles Duryea Rolston:

Charles Duryea Rolston was born March 18, 1815 in Walnut Township, Pickaway County, Ohio, the third of nine children and the first son born to Benjamin Rolston and Anna Duryea. Charles was named after Charles Duryea, his maternal grandfather. Like his father, Charles became a farmer.

On December 17, 1840 in Hancock County, Ohio, Charles married Mary Ann Ivers. They lived next door to his father in the 1850 census. Charles maintained close ties to his father, and when his father Benjamin moved west, Charles picked up his family and followed. By 1854 Charles had left Ohio. Mary was pregnant and gave birth to their ninth child in McLean County, Illinois. How long the family resided in Illinois is unknown. They continued their travels west until they reached the Nebraska Territory by 1856 where they would reside near his father's farm.

Charles and Mary had eleven children, 4 boys and 7 girls. Of some interest is the observation that male children, with the exception of Thomas, their first born, did not survive to adulthood. Even son Thomas eventually die prematurely. If it were a genetic defect, it did not commonly appear among the female members or their offspring; however, in a letter dated May 17, 1899 from Charles's daughter Laura to her sister Louisa (Lois), Laura comments that three of her children had heart disease. The children were in their early to mid-twenties at the time.

Charles, 53, died February 17, 1868 in Nemaha County, Nebraska. Like many of his children, his cause of death was likely from heart disease. Charles was buried in the Karn Cemetery in Peru, Nemaha

County, Nebraska. He was survived by Mary, his wife of 27 years. Of his eleven children, he was survived by one son, Thomas, and all seven of his daughters.

Notes for Mary Ann Ivers:

Mary Ann Ivers was born February 17, 1820 in Muskingum County, Ohio, the seventh of eight children born to William and Rachel Ivers. Some oral history says that the Iver family were formerly known as Mclvers or Maclvers and were descended from a line of pirates. To escape their association with their more infamous family members, the family shortened the surname from Mclvers to Ivers.

Mary married Charles Duryea Rolston on December 17, 1840 in Hancock County, Ohio. Eleven children were born to the couple, but all four of their male children died in infancy, early childhood, or, as with their eldest son, died as young adults. Mary's husband preceded her in death on February 17, 1868, at the age of 52. After her husband's death, Mary lived with her daughter Mrs. Elizabeth Rolston Neal in Lancaster County, Nebraska.

From the family oral history, Charles and Mary Ann were not known to have had any religious leanings. After her husband's death and the children grown, the Methodists started an evangelistic campaign. Mary Ann started attending but only had an old bonnet to wear. Feeling a bit ashamed of the old bonnet, she sat far in the back until one evening when ... "God got a hold of her and she forgetting about the bonnet, went stomping to the front to pray for salvation." She was converted to Christ.

Mary, 79, died February 26, 1899 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, and was buried in the Karn Cemetery in Peru. She was survived by her seven daughters. All four of her sons had preceded her in death.

Charles Duryea Rolston and Mary Ann Ivers had the following children:

- i. THOMAS JEFFERSON<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 22 Feb 1842 in Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 06 May 1875 in Nemaha Co., Neb. (age 33). He married Phebe Hester Neal, daughter of William Neal and Abigail Clark, on 13 Sep 1866 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. She was born in Aug 1840 in Ohio. She died on 17 Mar 1914 in Pierce Co., Wash. (age 73).

Notes for Thomas Jefferson Rolston:

Thomas Jefferson "Jeff" Rolston was born February 22, 1842 in Hancock County, Ohio, the eldest of eleven children born to Charles Duryea Rolston and Mary Ann Ivers. Thomas was the only one of the four male children to survive to adulthood. Thomas resided in Hancock County until 1854. He was twelve years old when his father moved the family from Ohio through Illinois to Nemaha County, Nebraska. They lived there near Thomas's paternal grandparents, Benjamin and Anna Rolston.

On September 13, 1866 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, Thomas, age 24, married Phebe Hester "Hettie" Neal. Sometime after the birth of their first child in 1867, Thomas and his wife moved northwest to near Lincoln, Lancaster County, Nebraska. They resided there at the time of the 1870 census next door to his sister Lois and her husband John Blevins. Next door was Thomas's sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Neal. Residing with the Neal family was Thomas and Elizabeth's widowed mother, Mary, and their two youngest sisters, Emma and Alzera.

Thomas returned the family to Nemaha County the following year where Phebe gave birth to their second child in 1871. A third child is believed to have been born about 1873 but died soon after birth.

Thomas, 33, died May 6, 1875 in Nemaha County, Nebraska and was buried as T. J. Rolston at the Karn Cemetery in Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska. He left behind a wife and two small children. Although the cause of his death is unknown, the male family members had a history of early deaths. Later generations would make note of heart conditions, and it is assumed that Thomas, like many of his family, died of a genetic heart condition.

Notes for Phebe Hester Neal:

Phebe Hester "Hettie" Neal was born in August of 1840 in Ohio, probably in Champaign County, the fifth of nine children born to William Neal and Abigail Clark. Phebe was enumerated with her family in the 1850 census of Urbana, Champaign County, Ohio. By 1860 her father had moved the family to Iowa. Sometime in the early 1860's, her parents left Iowa and moved to Nebraska.

On September 13, 1866 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, Phebe married Thomas Jefferson Rolston. The couple remained in Nemaha County initially but moved to Lincoln, Nebraska, sometime before the 1870 census. Their stay there was brief as they returned to Nemaha County the following year.

On May 6, 1875 Phebe's husband of eleven years died, leaving her with two young children. However, the fate of their first child, a son, is not known. In 1880 Phebe, age 40, and her daughter Blanche, age 9, were living in Peru. They rented out rooms to two girls, Ida and Cora Adams who were listed as students. Son Leon, who would have been age 13, is not present and is assumed to have fallen to the family curse of heart disease.

On March 25, 1883 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, Phebe, age 43, married her second husband, the widower William J. Abrams, age 49. Sometime before 1900 her husband became hospitalized at the "Western Branch, National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers" in Lansing, Leavenworth County, Kansas. Phebe and her daughter, Blanche Rolston, remained in Peru during his stay and were enumerated there during the 1900 census. In the society section of the local paper, "Mrs. Abrams and daughter, Blanche Rolston, left yesterday for the mountains." {Peru Pointer, August 23, 1900}

By the 1910 census, Phebe and her husband had reunited and were residing together in the Indiana State Soldiers Home in Tippecanoe County, Indiana. During this census, Phebe discloses that she has had three children, of which, only one (daughter Blanche) is living. The father of her third child is unknown but was probably from her first husband Thomas Rolston, deceased. Phebe and her 2nd husband, William Abrams, remained at the Indiana State Soldiers Home until his death in June of 1910. After her husband's death, Phebe removed to Washington.

Phebe, 73, died March 17, 1914 in Pierce County, Washington, and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Puyallup, Pierce County, Washington.

- ii. ELIZABETH ANN ROLSTON was born on 15 Apr 1843 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 28 Mar 1910 in Alberta, Canada (age 66). She married William Henry Harrison Neal, son of William Neal and Abigail Clark, on 25 Dec 1866 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. He was born on 11 Dec 1841 in Champaign Co., Ohio. He died on 13 Nov 1921 in Alberta, Canada (age 79).

Notes for Elizabeth Ann Rolston:

Elizabeth "Lizzie" Ann Rolston was born April 14, 1843 in Hancock County, Ohio, the second of eleven children born to Charles Duryea Rolston and Mary Ann Ivers. Descendants in later generations refer to Elizabeth as Sarah Anne Elizabeth Rolston. Some years after the 1850 census, her father moved the family west. In 1854 the family was residing in McLean County, Illinois and may have lived there several years. By 1856, at the age of about 13, her father moved the family to Nemaha County, Nebraska, where the family would reside in the area around the town of Peru.

On December 25, 1866, Christmas Day, in Nemaha County, Nebraska, Elizabeth, age 23, married William Henry Harrison "Harris" Neal. In 1870 Elizabeth and her husband were residing near Lincoln in Lancaster County, Nebraska. Married nearly four years, they had no children. Living with them were Elizabeth's widowed mother, Mary, and Elizabeth's younger sisters, Emma and Alzera. Next door was her brother Benjamin with his family and her sister, Mrs. Lois Blevins, with her family.

Elizabeth and William had but one child, son Harry, born in Nebraska in 1875. The family left Nebraska and Elizabeth's mother returned to Peru, Nebraska. Elizabeth's family moved to Tarkio Township, Atchison County, Missouri, where they were enumerated in the 1880 census. The couple had been married fourteen years, and their only child, Harry, was five years old. In 1893 Elizabeth's husband moved the family from the United States to the Northwest Territory of Canada where they would reside in Alberta. Son Harry, about age 17, went with them.

Elizabeth was referred to as Aunt Lizzie by the Rolston family. A letter from Elizabeth's mother, Mrs. Mary Rolston, dated January 25, 1893, mentions getting a letter from Lizzie and that they have sold the farm and intend to move west to the coast in three to four weeks. Where the family was residing in early 1893 is unknown. Canadian records indicate that the Neal family immigrated to Canada in 1893. A letter from Mary, dated August 15, 1893, mentions receiving a letter from [grandson] Harry where Harry says, "They are way out in the Wilderness." A letter from Elizabeth to sister Lois, dated June 1, 1899, is post marked Fairfield, Alberta, Canada.

According to the McAdams family Bible, Elizabeth died March 28, 1910 in Alberta, Canada at the age of 66. Her son had preceded her in death five months earlier. She was survived by her husband. Elizabeth was buried in the Tofield Cemetery in Tofield, Alberta, Canada, where her son had been buried.

Obituary, undisclosed source:

The sympathy of the entire community will again go out in full measure to Mr. W.H. Neal who suffered the loss by death of his wife last Monday morning at 7 o'clock. The deceased had not enjoyed good health for many years and the loss of their only son a few months ago undoubtedly weighed heavily with her. Mrs. Neal was a most pleasant character and it was a pleasure for all her acquaintances to know her for with all her suffering she was a noncomplaining person and always had a pleasant smile for all. To Mr. Neal who is so well and favorably known throughout the length and breadth of the Beaver Lake district, the hearts of all will go out in deep sympathy in his sad bereavement. The funeral took place to Tofield cemetery on Wednesday at 2 P.M.

Notes for William Henry Harrison Neal:

William Harrison "Harris" Neal was born December 11, 1841 in Champaign County, Ohio, the sixth of nine children born to William Neal and Abigail Clark. William was enumerated with his family in the 1850 census of Urbana, Champaign County, Ohio.. William was sometimes known by "William Henry Harrison Neal" or "W. H. H. Neal." By 1860 his parents had moved the family to Iowa. Sometime in the early 1860's the family moved to Nebraska.

On Christmas Day, 1866 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, William, age 22, married Elizabeth Ann Rolston, age 21. The couple remained in Nebraska until sometime after 1875 and the birth of their son Harry. The family then moved to Missouri where they were enumerated in the 1880 census of Tarkio Township, Atchison County, Missouri. When the family arrived in Missouri is unknown. William then moved the family to Canada in February or March of 1893. They lived around the small town of Tofield in Alberta, Canada. Their son William died in 1909, and Harris's wife Elizabeth died in 1910. Harris and two of his granddaughters from son William were enumerated in the 1916 census of Alberta, Canada:

William H Neil	Self	Male	72	United States (widowed)
Burthy Neil	Granddaughter	Female	14	Alberta
Dorothy Neil	Granddaughter	Female	12	Alberta

William, 79, died November 13, 1921 in Alberta, Canada, and was buried as W. H. H. Neal in the Tofield Cemetery in Tofield, Alberta, Canada.

Tales of Tofield, Tofield Historical Society, 1969, First Edition, Chapter 12, pages 298-299, THE NEAL FAMILY:

William Henry Harrison Neal, his wife (Sarah Anne Elizabeth Rolston), and their son Harry came to the Tofield area in 1894. They had come to Canada from Auburn and Lincoln, Nebraska.

Mr. W.H.H. Neal and his son Harry filed on homesteads south of Tofield near the quarter homesteaded by the late Mr. Peter Lee. This land was later given up and the family moved to another homestead situated about half a mile west of the land ....

Mrs. W.H.H. Neal passed away in 1907 following a lengthy illness; Mr. Harry Neal in 1909; Mr. W.H.H. Neal in 1921. (Note: The date of death for Mrs. Neal in this biography is three years earlier than the date found in the McAdams Bible.)

- iii. RACHEL ROLSTON was born on 30 Aug 1844 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 08 Feb 1918 in Tarkio, Atchison Co., Mo. (age 73). She married William Montgomery McAdams, son of William S. McAdams and Eleanor McNeal, on 11 Jun 1865 in Peru, Nemaha Co., Neb.. He was born on 05 Nov 1838 in Washington Co., Tenn.. He died on 08 Feb 1917 in Tarkio, Atchison Co., Mo. (age 78).

Notes for Rachel Rolston:

Rachel Rolston was born August 30, 1844 in Hancock County, Ohio, the third of eleven children born to Charles Duryea Rolston and Mary Ann Ivers. She was named after her maternal grandmother Rachel Ivers. In the early 1850's her father moved the family west. In 1854 they resided in McLean County, Illinois. In 1856, at the age of about 12, her father moved the family to Nemaha County, Nebraska, where the family lived in the area around the town of Peru.

On June 11, 1865 in Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska, Rachel, age 20, married William Montgomery McAdams. Eight sons were born. The couple moved to Atchison County, Missouri where they farmed. The youngest of their eight sons died in 1888 at the age of one. Six years later (1894) her eldest son died at the age of 28. William, Rachel's husband of over 50 years, preceded her in death on February 8, 1917 at the age of 78.

Rachel, 73, died, a year later to the day, of heart failure on February 8, 1918 in Tarkio, Atchison County, Missouri, and joined her husband in the Home Cemetery in Tarkio. She was survived by six of her eight sons. Sons Thomas and Eugene had preceded her in death.

In an 1918 letter from Rachel's son Bertel to his cousin Bee states that "... mother failed rapidly last year, but died almost instantly of heart failure, sitting talking to Aunt Emma and Aunt Allie." {source: Al McAdams}

Notes for William Montgomery McAdams:

William Montgomery "Gum" McAdams was born November 5, 1838 in Washington County, Tennessee, the son of William S. McAdams and Eleanor McNeal. When William removed from Tennessee is unknown. The family was enumerated in Missouri in 1860. William's father was deceased.

On June 11, 1865 in Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska, William, age 26, married Rachel Rolston, age 21. The couple left Nebraska soon after marriage and removed to Atchison County, Missouri, where they farmed. Eight children, all sons, were born to the couple. Their youngest son Eugene died in 1888 at the age of one. Six of their eight children were enumerated in the 1880 census of Tarkio, Atchison County, Missouri:

Wm. McAdams	Self	M	Male	W	42	TN	Farmer	TN	TN
Rachel McAdams	Wife	M	Female	W	35	OH	Keeping House	VA	OH

Their eldest son, Thomas, died in 1894.

William, 78, preceded his wife in death on February 8, 1917 in Tarkio, Atchison County, Missouri and was buried in the Home Cemetery in Tarkio. Besides his wife, William was survived by six of his eight sons. His eldest and youngest sons had both preceded him in death.

- iv. SARA HELEN ROLSTON was born on 20 Jan 1846 in Orange Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 07 Jul 1933 in Brock, Nemaha Co., Neb. (age 87). She married James Addison Faulkner, son of Robert Faulkner and Sarah A, on 20 Sep 1864 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. He was born on 17 Feb 1843 in Illinois. He died on 05 Jul 1872 in Lancaster Co., Neb. (age 29).

Notes for Sara Helen Rolston:

Sara Helen Rolston was born January 20, 1846 in Orange Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the fourth of eleven children born to Charles Duryea Rolston and Mary Ann Ivers. In 1856, at the age of about 10, Sara and family removed to Nemaha County, Nebraska, where the family resided in the area around the town of Peru.

On September 20, 1864 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, Sara, age 18, married James Addison Faulkner. The couple farmed. Four children were born to the couple. The family moved to Nebraska where her husband James preceded her in death in July of 1872. Sara, 26 at the time of her husband's death, never remarried. Her eldest child and daughter, Florence, died in 1878. Sara returned home to Peru with three of her four children. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska:

Sarah Faulkner	Self	F	34	Ohio (widowed)
Charles Faulkner	Son	M	12	Nebraska
Maude Faulkner	Daughter	F	10	Nebraska
Mary Faulkner	Daughter	F	8	Nebraska

In 1890 Sara was living with her daughter, Mrs. Maud Faulkner Horn, in Brock Village, Nemaha County, Nebraska. She was enumerated during that census as Helen Faulkner, mother-in-law. The widowed Sara was enumerated by herself in the 1910 census of Brock Village, Nemaha County, Nebraska. She was not found in the 1920 nor 1930 census.

Sara, 87, died July 7, 1933 in Brock, Nemaha County, Nebraska and was buried in the Lafayette Cemetery in Brock.

Notes for James Addison Faulkner:

James Addison Faulkner was born February 17, 1843 in Illinois, the second of seven children born to Robert and Sarah Faulkner. He was a young lad when his father moved the family to Indiana. The family then removed to Gentry County, Missouri; enumerated there in 1860. The family then pushed onto Nebraska in the early 1860's. [Note; his younger siblings' places of birth seemed to change with each census.]

On September 20, 1864 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, James married Sara Helen Rolston. In 1870 the family resided near Lincoln P.O., Lancaster County, Nebraska. In February of 1872 their fourth child, May, was born, probably in Lancaster County.

James, 29, died July 5, 1872 in Lancaster County, Nebraska and was buried in the Kramer Community Cemetery in Kramer, Lancaster County, Nebraska. He was survived by his wife and their four children.

- v. BENJAMIN F. ROLSTON was born on 27 Dec 1847 in Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 29 Mar 1854 in McLean Co., Ill. (age 6).

Notes for Benjamin F. Rolston:

Benjamin F. Rolston was born December 27, 1847 in Hancock County, Ohio, the fifth of eleven children born to Charles Duryea Rolston and Mary Ann Ivers. The family left Ohio in the early 1850's, following Benjamin's grandparents to McLean County, Illinois.

Benjamin, age 6, died March 29, 1854 in McLean County, Illinois and was buried in the Scrogin Cemetery in Lexington, McLean County, Illinois. His tombstone is inscribed:
Benjamin F Rolston d. Mar 29, 1854 age 6yrs son of C and M A.

About 1856, the Rolston families left Illinois and moved onto a destination in Nebraska.

- vi. (MALE) ROLSTON was born on 17 Jan 1850 in Orange Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. He died in Jan 1850 in Orange Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio (infant).
- vii. LOIS GRIZZELDA ROLSTON was born on 14 Feb 1851 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 20 Apr 1910 in Woodbine, Harrison Co., Iowa (age 59). She married (1) JOHN BLEVINS, son of Jonathan Juber Blevins and Ann, on 27 Aug 1868 in Sonora, Atchison Co., Mo.. He was born on 09 Nov 1839 in Wayne Co., Ky.. He died on 06 Jan 1878 in Atchison Co., Mo. (age 38). She married (2) JOHN WESLEY CROSON on 23 May 1880 in Atchison Co., Mo.. He was born about 1851 in Missouri. He died after 1902.

Notes for Lois Grizzelda Rolston:

Lois Grizzelda Rolston was born February 14, 1851 in Hancock County, Ohio, the seventh of eleven children born to Charles Duryea Rolston and Mary Ann Ivers. Lois was only a few years old when the family began its move west, stopping in McLean County, Illinois around 1854. By 1856, at the age of about 5, her father had moved the family to Nemaha County, Nebraska.

On August 27, 1868 in Sonora, Atchison County, Missouri, Lois, age 17, married John Blevins. Considering her age and the location of their marriage, the couple may have eloped. The couple had been married nine years when John died on January 6, 1878 at the age of 38. Lois was expecting their fifth child at the time of his death and gave birth to son Johnny a month later. Johnny, perhaps John Junior, died that same year.

Lois remained in Atchison County where on May 23, 1880, she married John Wesley Croson. The couple was enumerated in the 1880 census of Nishnabotona Township of Atchison County, Missouri with Lois's four children from her first marriage:

Jno. Croson	Self	M	Male	W	29	MO	Farmer	---	---
Louis Croson	Wife	M	Female	W	29	OH		OH	OH
Atlanta Blevins	Dau	S	Female	W	11	MO		KY	OH
Claud Blevins	Son	S	Male	W	7	NE		KY	OH
Bertha Blevins	Dau	S	Female	W	6	NE		KY	OH
Edward Blevins	Son	S	Male	W	4	MO		KY	OH

Later, two sons were born to the couple.

By 1900 her husband John had died, and the widowed Lois was living with her sons Claude, Edward and Homer, and daughter Bertha in Allen Township of Harrison County, Iowa.

Lois wanted to apply for pension benefits for her late husband's service. She wrote John's brother, Jonathan Blevins in Newell Pulaski County, Kentucky. Johnathan replied in a letter dated August 6, 1903:

Miss Lois Blevins

Dear Sister,

Johanthan Blevens

Lois and son Ned were enumerated together in the 1910 census of Boyer Township in Harrison County, Iowa. The census was dated April 21, the day after Lois's death:

Mrs. Blevins	Head	F	65	Ohio (widowed)
Ned Blevins	Son	M	34	Missouri (divorced)

Lois, 59, died April 20, 1910 in Woodbine, Harrison County, Iowa, and was buried as Lois Blevins Croson in the High Creek Cemetery in Rock Port, Atchison County, Missouri. She was buried with her infant son Jonny who died in 1878. Lois was survived by three of her five children from her first marriage and one of two children from her second marriage.

Twiner, Woodbine, Iowa, May 6, 1910

Lois Grizelda Rolston was born in Hancock County, Ohio on February 14, 1851, being 59 years, 2 months and 6 days of age.

She moved with her parents to Peru, Nebraska, in 1856. In August 1868, she was united to John Blevins in Atchison County, Missouri. To this union five children were born, of which three survive. Her husband died January 6, 1878.

She was again united in marriage to John Croson in May, 1880, two children were born to this union, one of which survives.

She was united with the Methodist Church in 1887 at Martin's Chapel, in Mills County, Iowa. At the time of her death she was a member of the M.E. Church in Woodbine.

She was a patient sufferer for several years. She departed this life April 20, 1910. The remains were taken to Watson, Missouri and laid to rest beside her husband in the High Creek Cemetery.

Notes for John Blevins:

John Blevins was born November 9, 1839 in Wayne County, Kentucky, the son of Johathan Juber and Ann Blevins. In 1861 he joined the Union Army. He contracted the measles during his military service and never returned to his former state of health. John moved west to Missouri.

On August 27, 1868 in Sonora, Atchison County, Missouri, John married Lois Grizzelda Rolston. The couple farmed and raised a family of four children.

John, 38 died January 6, 1878 in Atchison County, Missouri. His wife was eight months pregnant with their fifth child when he died. John was buried in Sonora **, Atchison County, Missouri, but due to flooding from the Missouri River, his remains were later removed to the High Creek Cemetery in Rock Port, Atchison County, Missouri.

** Sonora was established in 1846 next to the Missouri River and was formally incorporated in 1855. The town flourished during the late 1850's, only to whither away in the years following the Civil War.

Notes for John Wesley Croson:

John Wesley Croson was perhaps the son of Zachariah Croson and Sarah England. Their son, John W. Croson, was born about 1847 in Missouri. They were enumerated in the 1850 and 1860 censuses of Schuyler County, Missouri. John and family in the 1850 census:

Zachariah Croson		M	41	Virginia
Sarah Croson	F	36		Kentucky
Charles Croson		M	19	Virginia
George Croson	M	15		Virginia
Julia A Croson	F	13		Missouri
Priscilla Croson		F	11	Missouri
Nancy Croson	F	9		Missouri
Thomas Croson		M	7	Missouri
John W Croson		M	3	Missouri
Charity C Croson		F	1	Missouri

On May 23, 1880 in Atchison County, Missouri, John Wesley Croson married the widow Mrs. Lois Rolston Blevins. Two sons were born to the couple. No further records have been found of John after 1891. Lois' application for a pension to support minor children of John Blevins, her first husband, was denied as her second husband, John Croson, was not dead nor were they divorced. This suggests that John Croson may have deserted the family prior to Lois's move to Mills City, Iowa, after 1891; however, a family legend passed down through the generations says that second husband, John Croson, made some sort of advances towards Lois' 16 year old daughter, Bertha, from Lois's first marriage. Bertha's brothers, Ned and Claud, so goes the story, asked step-father John to leave. {source: Mrs. Marilyn Blevins Wanamaker}

On November 20, 1894 in Andrew County, Missouri, John W. Croson married Sarah Simerly. It is uncertain if this is the same John W. Croson. [No other records found] viii. (MALE) ROLSTON was born on 14 Mar 1853. He died in 1853 in as infant.

Notes for (Male) Rolston:

This male child, the eighth of eleven children born to Charles Duryea Rolston and Mary Ann Ivers, was born on March 14, 1853, and died that same year, probably of heart disease as did all his brothers. His place of birth is uncertain. Perhaps he was born in Hancock County, Ohio, and died there as well, but in 1854 the family was known to have been residing in McLean County, Illinois. As the family's date of arrival in Illinois is unknown, this male child could have been born and/or died there. The child's place of burial is unknown and could have died during the time the family was traveling from Ohio to Illinois.

In the Scrogin Cemetery in Lexington, Lexington Township, Warren County, Illinois, is an undated tombstone for a Benjamin Rolston. There is also an undated stone for a Russell Rolston, who could be this Benjamin's uncle. The cemetery was established in 1850.

- ix. LAURA ROLSTON was born on 05 Mar 1854 in McLean Co., Ill.. She died on 29 Jul 1935 in Walla Walla Co., Wash. (age 81). She married Edward Cornwell on 14 Dec 1869 in Atchison Co., Mo.. He was born in Dec 1840 in Illinois. He died on 23 Nov 1923 in Umatilla Co., Ore. (age 82).

Notes for Laura Rolston:

Laura Rolston was born March 5, 1854 in McLean County, Illinois, the ninth of eleven children born to Charles Duryea Rolston and Mary Ann Ivers. In 1856, at the age of about 5, her father moved the family to Nemaha County, Nebraska.

At the age of 15, Laura eloped to Atchison County, Missouri, where on December 14, 1869 she married Edward Cornwell, age 29. The couple returned to Nebraska where the first two of their eight children were born. About 1875 the family moved to Washington state where the remaining six children were born. Their youngest child was born after 1900 and had died prior to 1910.

Family oral history from Rex Blevins: The Cornwall family moved to Washington where Laura "... was learning to bake bread. The dough would not look right and she would throw it out and bury it ... a bit here and a bit there. That was OK until the ground warmed up in spring. Then the ground heaved here and there" (from the buried dough).

1899 Letter from Laura to sister Lois:

Wallsburg, Wash.
May 17-99

Dear Sister Lois

After such a long I will try to answer your letter which I recieved about the middle of March containing the sad news of Mothers death. It was a shock although according to nature I could not have expected it to have been otherwise and the bitterest part of it all to me is that I have not written to her but once since I came from there and have not been able to help her any this winter after I was there Edd almost died with the fever and he has never been able to do hard work since and Clyde had to run the farm and make the living for the family and you know he was only a little boy of sixteen and while we would have cared for mother in every way if she could have been with us it seemed that we never had any money to send her. And I kept thinking we surely would have some money for her and was ashamed to write until I did have and so the time passed and with it her life Surely our loved one's on the other shore know and understand all things. If we did not think so our sorrow would be unbearable

Yes I believe Mother is one of the saved When I was there it seemed to me that I never saw any one seem to realize the nearness of God as she did. Wicked sinner that I was I could feel that He was very near when she would pray I did not recieve any package of mothers things. It may have been lost on the way I would like to have some little thing of hers to keep in remembrance of her No Dear Lois I did not hear of your dear little Herbie's death until you wrote me But I can sympathise with you as only [a] mother can who has herself gone down to the very edge of that Dark Valley of the Shadows of death with a dear little one and be unable to help or save But dear sister we have this consolation While they can not return to us we may go to them. God grand that we may so live that it may be so. Of course there must have been expenses attending Mother's last illness and death. Did she have anything that could be used to fray such expenses. If not let me know and I will pay what I can as soon as I can. You did not say where you lived now Does Attie live in the same place I recieved letters from Attie Claude Bertha and Ned after we came home but I was taking care of Nethie who was sick at that time and I could not answer then and Edd took sick immedately after and did not get out of danger all the next year and so I neglected to answer But tell them to write again I get so hungry to hear from home All my children are at home exept Nettie she is married and living in Walla Walla she has two children both boys Vinnie will be twenty five in June but shes such a giggle head that she does not look it She is often asked which is the older she or Gertrude who is five years younger Clyde is twenty two and I think he is a model boy is industrious and has'nt a bad habit. Gertie is next and is twenty I still think of her as a little school girl. Vinnie Clyde and Gertrude have been going to Witman College for the last three years or a part of that time [as] their health and pocket book would permit Vinnie is studying music Gertrude and Clyde were taking a scientific course they both miss about half the time neither have very good health They two and Nettie have heart disease. Dick is our next will soon be eighteen but is not much bigger than Roy he had inflamitory rheumatism this winter and it has left him very stiff but I hope when warm weather comes he will get over it Roy and Ned are fourteen and twelve respectfully so you see my babies are almost grown How old is you little Homer I have forgotten I often think of him saying There was a big bull snake a crawling upon the stringer and making a nest. He and Herbie were so cute [illegible] long [illegible] the little block of patch work that Herbie sewed together and gave Aunt Laura

Is Claude still such a sober boy and is Ned such a chatter box as he used to be And is Bertha and Atta still so pretty. Now Lois write to me often and tell me all the news for I don't get any letters from any of the rest and you don't know how glad I am to hear from you all

*Good By and my love to you all
Your Sister
Laura Cornwell*

In the 1900 census Laura states that she has had seven children and seven are living. In the 1910 census Laura states that she has had eight children, one had died. Sometime after 1910 Laura and her husband moved to Pendleton, Umatilla County, Oregon. Sons Richard and Edward were living with them along with a grandson, Enois Huffman, son of their daughter Mrs. Nettie Huffman who died in 1914.

Edward, her husband of nearly 46 years, died November 23, 1923 at the age of 82. They were probably still residing in Oregon at the time of his death. In 1925, Son Richard died, and Laura, if she had not already done so, moved in with her daughter Mrs. Gertrude Ingram. By 1930 she had moved to Idaho, living with her son Edward.

Laura, 81, died July 29, 1935 in Walla Walla County, Washington, was buried in the Mountain View Cemetery in Walla Walla County.

The obituary from the Daily Bulletin (Walla Walla, Washington) says that Laura died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. O.L. [Gertrude] Ingram, after being ill for several months. Survived by daughter and son E.R. [Edward R.].

Notes for Edward Cornwell:

Edward "Edd" Cornwell was born in December of 1840 in Illinois. His parentage is unknown. He may be the son of Peyton Cornwall, a hatter enumerated in the 1850 census of Pittsfield, Pike County, Illinois. Edward moved to Missouri, perhaps as a young man. He served as a sargent in the Missouri infantry during the Civil War. After the war, Edward moved to Nebraska.

On December 14, 1869, Edward, age 29, and Laura Rolston, age 15, residents of Nebraska, eloped to Atchison County, Missouri where they married. The couple returned to Nebraska where the first two of their eight children were born. About 1875, the family moved to the state of Washington where the remaining five of their eight children were born. Their youngest child died in infancy or early childhood. The family lived and farmed in Walla Walla County, Washington. They remained in Walla Walla County until sometime after 1910. By 1920 they had taken up residence in Pendleton, Umatilla County, Oregon.

Edward, 82, died November 23, 1923 in Umatilla County, Oregon and was buried in the Mountain View Cemetery in Walla Walla County, Washington. Edward was survived by Laura, his wife of 53 years, and four of his eight children.

- x. EMMA JANE ROLSTON was born on 06 Jan 1858 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. She died on 16 Apr 1935 in Lancaster, Grant Co., Wisc. (age 77). She married Judge Paxton Cohoe, son of Asa Cohoe and Margaret, on 17 Mar 1880 in Peru, Nemaha Co., Neb.. He was born on 03 Mar 1851 in Upslum Co., Ohio. He died on 22 Feb 1933 in Lancaster, Grant Co., Wisc. (age 81).

Notes for Emma Jane Rolston:

Emma Jane Rolston was born January 6, 1858 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, the tenth of eleven children born to Charles Duryea Rolston and Mary Ann Ivers. Her father died in 1868. Sometime before 1870, Emma's mother moved the family to Lancaster County, Nebraska, where they lived with their older sister Mrs. Elizabeth Neal. Nearby were brother Thomas Rolston and sister Mrs. Lois Blevins. Their brother Thomas returned to Peru the following year, and Emma and her mother returned as well.

On March 17, 1880 in Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska, Emma, age 22, married Judge Paxton Cohoe. Judge was his given name and not a title. Five children were born to the couple. There is an unexpected eight-year gap between the last two children, but in the 1900 census Emma states five children were born and five are living. Emma and her husband moved about Nebraska until sometime after 1895 when they removed to Wisconsin. They resided in Lancaster, Grant County, Wisconsin in the 1930's and perhaps before. There, on February 22, 1933, Emma's husband of over 50 years preceded her in death at the age of 81.

Emma, 77, died two years later on April 16, 1935 in Lancaster, Grant County, Wisconsin, and joined her husband in the Hillside Cemetery in Lancaster. She was buried as Emma Ralston Cohoe.

Emma's great granddaughter, Mrs. Janet Eagan, inherited the family Bible in 2007.

Grant County Herald, Lancaster, Wisc., April 18, 1935 (a weekly publication)

Mrs. Emma J. Cohoe, widow of the late J.T. Cohoe, died at her home in Lancaster Tuesday afternoon at the age of 77 years. She is survived by two sons; William and Charles, this city; and two daughters; Mrs. C.S. Steele, Lancaster, and Mrs. R.L. Dailey, Grand View, WA. Another son, LeRoy, Glen Haven, died a year ago. Funeral arrangements had not been made at this writing.

Grant County Herald, Lancaster, Wisc., April 25, 1935

Funeral services were conducted from the Goble-Weeden Funeral Home Friday afternoon at 3:30 for Mrs. Emma J. Cohoe who died Tuesday of last week at her home at the age of 77. The Rev. J.A. Vincent officiated. Burial was in Hillside cemetery. She is survived by two sons: Charles and William, this city; and two daughters: Mrs. C.S. Steele, Lancaster, and Mrs. R.L. Dailey, Grand View, WA.

Notes for Judge Paxton Cohoe:

Judge Paxton "Jay" Cohoe was born March 3, 1851 in Upslum County, Ohio, the youngest son of Asa and Margaret Cohoe. J.P.'s parents named all their children with given names normally associated with titles. Judge as a given name created some confusion among later generations as they were under the belief that he was court judge. His real occupation was painter and paper hanger. The family was enumerated in the 1860 census of Dallas Township in DeKalb County, Missouri:

Asa Coho	M	47	Pennsylvania
Margaret Coho	F	44	Pennsylvania
Squire H Coho	M	18	Indiana
Doctor W Coho	M	15	Indiana
Bishop R Coho	M	12	Ohio
Judge P Coho	M	9	Ohio

In the 1900 census his birth was reported as July 1846.

Judge married Emma Jane Rolston on March 17, 1880 in Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska. The couple was enumerated there in the 1880 census where Judge states his occupation as painter. Five children were born to their union.

Judge, 81, preceded his wife in death on February 22, 1933 in Lancaster, Grant County, Wisconsin, and was buried in the Hillside Cemetery in Lancaster. His tombstone lists his year of birth as 1850.

Obituary, undisclosed source:

Judge Paxton Cohoe, 83 year old resident of Lancaster, Wi. died of pleural pneumonia at his home on February 22. He was born in Upshon, Peeble County, Ohio, on February 3, 1850. In 1880 he married Miss Emma Jane Ralston of Peru, Nebraska. They made their home in that state until April 1922, when they moved to Lancaster. The funeral was held the 24th from the Goble-Weeden funeral home at 2:30. The Reverend Henry of the Methodist Church officiated. Interment was made at Hillside. He is survived by his widow, three sons: William and Charles of Lancaster and Roy of Glen Haven, and two daughters: Mrs. C.S. Steele of Lancaster and Mrs. R.L. Dailey of Grandview, WA.

- xi. ALZERA ROLSTON was born on 08 Mar 1860 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. She died on 27 Jan 1941 in Watson, Nishnabotna Twp., Atchison Co., Mo. (age 80). She married (1) AMBROSE B. MOATS, son of John Star Moats and Eunice A. Vandever, on 14 Oct 1877. He was born on 06 Apr 1854 in Ritchie Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 22 Oct 1887 in Atchison Co., Mo. (age 33). She married (2) EDWARD F. ADAMS, son of George Washington Adams and Esther Ann, on 15 Nov 1890 in Missouri. He was born on 20 Aug 1855 in Hancock Co., Ill.. He died on 16 Sep 1929 in Watson, Nishnabotna Twp., Atchison Co., Mo. (age 74).

Notes for Alzera Rolston:

Alzera "Allie" Rolston was born March 8, 1860 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, the youngest of eleven children born to Charles Duryea Rolston and Mary Ann Ivers. Her father died in 1868. Sometime before 1870, Alzera's mother moved the family to Lancaster County, Nebraska, where they lived with Alzera's older sister Mrs. Elizabeth Neal. Nearby were brother Thomas and sister Mrs. Lois Blevins. Her brother Thomas returned to Peru the following year, and Alzera, along with sister Emma, and their mother returned as well.

On October 14, 1877, Alzera, age 17, married Ambrose B. Moats. Ambrose was a farmer. The couple had four children. In the 1880 census they lived next door to her sister, Mrs. Louis Croson. They remained in Nishnabotna Township of Atchison County, Missouri, where in 1887 their fourth child, a son, was born in September of that year. The following year Ambrose, her husband of ten years, died.

On November 15, 1890 in Missouri, the widowed Alzera, age 30, married the widower, Edward F. Adams, and became the stepmother to his children. Edward and Alzera had six children. The family was enumerated in the 1920 census of Atchison County, Missouri:

Edward Adams	Head	M	64	Illinois
Allie Adams	Wife	F	59	Nebraska

Bert Moats	Stepson		M	38	Missouri
Luther Linzony	Hired man	M	47		Missouri

Edward, her husband of 28 years, died on September 16, 1929 at the age of 74. In the 1930 census Alzera had son Bert Moats and daughter, Mrs. Blanche Robinette, and family living with her. In the 1940 census the widow "Allie Adams" was enumerated with her daughter, Mrs. Eunice (Moats) Million.

Alzera, 80, died January 27, 1941 in Watson, Atchison County, Missouri, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Million. Alzera was buried in High Creek Cemetery in Watson.

Notes for Ambrose B. Moats:

Ambrose B. "Bo" Moats was born April 6, 1854 in Ritche County, Virginia (now West Virginia) the son of John and Eunice A. Moats. His family left Ritche County and were residents of Des Moines County, Iowa during the 1860 census.

On October 14, 1877, Ambrose married Alzera "Allie" Rolston. The couple lived and farmed in Atchison County, Missouri. The couple was blessed with four children.

Their forth child was born in September of 1887, and Ambrose died the following month on October 22, 1887 in Atchison County, Missouri, at the age of 33. He was buried in the High Creek Cemetery in Watson, Atchison County, Missouri.

Notes for Edward F. Adams:

Edward F. Adams was born August 20, 1855 in Hancock County, Illinois, the son of George Washington Adams and Esther Ann, maiden name unknown. He was also known as Edgar.

On February 14, 1877, Edward married Sarah T. Baxter, the first of two wives. Four children are known to have been born to the couple. His wife Sarah died in 1887.

On November 15, 1890 in Missouri, the widowed Edward married the widow Mrs. Alzera Moats, the former Miss Alzera Rolston. She had four children from her previous marriage. Edward, Alzera and children were enumerated in the 1900 census of Watson, Atchison County, Missouri. Four of the couples' six children had been born. Edward's daughter Minnie and three of Alzera's children were living at their home. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of Nishnabotna Township in Atchinson County, Missouri:

E F Adams	Head	M	54	Illinois
Allie Adams	Wife	F	30	Nebraska (10/10)
Richard Adams	Son	M	18	Missouri

Ruth Adams	Daughter	F	14	Missouri
Mary Adams	Daughter	F	12	Missouri
Billie Adams	Son	M	9	Missouri
Helen Adams	Son	M	7	Missouri
Burt Moats	Stepson	M	28	Missouri

Edward, 74, preceded his wife in death on September 16, 1929 in Watson, Atchison County, Missouri and was buried as Edgar F. Adams in the High Creek Cemetery in Watson.

273. THOMAS D.<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Benjamin<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 03 Aug 1820 in Pickaway Co., Ohio. He died on 19 Nov 1854 in Dallas Co., Iowa (age 34). He married Sarah E. Payton, daughter of John N. Payton and Sarah, on 10 Sep 1845 in Pickaway Co., Ohio. She was born on 04 Oct 1822 in Vermillion Co., Ohio. She died on 04 Oct 1903 in Colfax Twp., Dallas Co., Iowa (age 81).

Notes for Thomas D. Rolston:

Thomas D. Rolston was born August 3, 1820 in Pickaway County, Ohio, the fourth of nine children born to Benjamin Rolston and Anna Duryea. Thomas's middle name may have been Duryea, his mother's maiden name.

Around 1829, Thomas's father and family moved to Champaign County, Ohio. They remained there until around 1837 when the family moved north to Hancock County. Thomas would have lived with the family during this period. Shortly before 1850, he struck out on his own, and Thomas was enumerated in the 1850 census of Pickaway County, Ohio. In the mid-1850's his father, along with the majority of Thomas's siblings, moved west to Illinois and later onto the Nebraska Territory.

On September 10, 1845 in Pickaway County, Ohio, Thomas married Sarah Payton. The couple had five children, the first three born in Ohio. Thomas moved the family to Illinois in the early 1850's and then onto Dallas County, Iowa.

Thomas, 34, died on November 19, 1854 in Dallas County, Iowa, and was buried in the Panther Cemetery in Dallas County, Iowa. His cause of death is unknown. Thomas was survived by his wife Sarah and their four children. Their fifth child may have been born after his death.

Thomas was noted as deceased in the July 19, 1880 probate record of his sister Mary's estate. The probate lists John, Catherine, Ann and Benjamin as his minor children. Catherine may be the couple's second child who is found as Nancy and may have been born as Nancy Catherine or Catherine Nancy. The couple's fifth child was also known as Nancy, but she was found as Nancy E., probably Nancy Elizabeth.

Notes for Sarah E. Payton:

Sarah E. Payton was born October 4, 1822 in Vermillion County, Ohio, the daughter of John N. and Sarah Payton.

On September 10, 1845 in Pickaway County, Ohio, Sarah, age 23, married Thomas D. Rolston. Five children were born to the couple. The family moved to Illinois in the early 1850's and then onto Dallas County, Iowa, where Sarah's husband died November 19, 1854 at the age of 34.

The following year, on April 5, 1855 in Dallas County, Iowa, Sarah married the widower John Smith Cave. He had 13 children from his previous marriage. Five children were born to Sarah and John; one died in childhood. The combined families were enumerated in the 1860 census of the Union Township of Dallas County, Iowa:

John S Cave	M	59	Va
Sarah Cave	F	39	Ohio
Hudson Cave	M	22	Mo [John's children from his first wife]
Madison Cave	M	19	Mo
Albert Cave	M	17	Mo
Oliver P Cave	M	11	Iowa
Caroline Cave	F	4	Iowa [eldest child of John and Sarah's]
Marion Cave	M	2	Iowa
Samantha A Rotston	F	14	Ohio [eldest child from Sarah's 1st husband]
Benjamin F Rotston	M	10	Ohio
John N Rotston	M	7	Ill
Nancy E Rotston	F	5	Iowa

Her second husband preceded her in death on May 29, 1891 at the age of 89. Sarah was enumerated in the 1895 census of Dallas County, Iowa, with her son Francis and his wife Nancy.

Sarah died twelve years later on October 4, 1903, the day of her 81st birthday, at the home of her son, Benjamin R. Rolston in Colfax Township of Dallas County, Iowa. She was buried in the Panther Cemetery in Dallas County, Iowa.

Cave. Deceased was born in Vermillion county, Ohio, October 4, 1822, having died on the anniversary of her birth at the ripe age of 81 years. She was married in 1854 [typo, should be 1845] to Thomas Ralston and moved to Iowa in the 50's. To this union were born five children, one dying in infancy. The others are Mrs. Ann Watkins of Lorimer, John R. of Manilla, Mrs. Nancy Lakey of Topeka, Kan., and Ben. F. of Colfax township. Subsequently occurred the death of her husband, later her marriage to John G. Cave (Uncle Johnny, as he was known by every body.) To this marriage was born five children, viz: Mrs. Carrie Naylor and Edgar of Decatur county, Marion and Granville of Dallas and one that died in childhood. Mrs. Cave united with the Christian church at this place in the 60's, remaining a member in good standing until about twelve years ago, when she transferred her membership to the U.B. church at Panther Creek, of which she was a member at the time of death. Her last husband, Mr. Cave, preceded her in death June 1, 1891. The sons and daughters were all present but two to witness the burial of their beloved and aged mother. The funeral was conducted from the Panther Creek church by the pastor, assisted by Rev. Wm. Hooks, and the body laid to rest in Panther Creek cemetery, to await the call of the arch angel to come up higher. A large congregation was present to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed one.

Thomas D. Rolston and Sarah E. Payton had the following children:

- i. SAMANTHA ANN<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born in Oct 1846 in Pickaway Co., Ohio. She died in 1933 in Union Co., Iowa (age ~86). She married (1) HUDSON CAVE, son of John Smith Cave and Eva Michael, on 31 Mar 1861 in Dallas Co., Iowa. He was born about 1838 in Missouri. He died in Iowa. She married (2) SYLVIAS H. WATKINS on 12 Mar 1868 in Iowa. He was born on 27 Apr 1840 in Kalamazoo, Kalamazoo Co., Mich.. He died on 22 Mar 1901 in Pierce Co., Neb. (age 60).

Notes for Samantha Ann Rolston:

Samantha Ann Rolston was born in October of 1846 in Pickaway County, Ohio, the eldest of five children born to Thomas D. Rolston and Sarah Payton. She was known as Ann or Anna, named after her paternal grandmother, Anna Duryea Rolston. Samantha's father died in 1854, and her mother remarried the following year to the widower John S. Cave. From her mother's second marriage, Samantha had one half-sister and four half-brothers.

On March 31, 1861 in Dallas County, Iowa, Samantha, age 16, married her step-brother Hudson Cave. Two children were born to the couple. What became of Hudson is unknown, perhaps a casualty of the Civil War.

On March 12, 1868 in Iowa, Samantha married Sylvias H. Watkins. One child, a son, was born to the couple. The family was enumerated during the 1880 Census of Monroe Township, Madison County, Iowa:

Sylvias H Watkins	Self	M	40	Michigan
Samantha Watkins	Wife	F	33	Ohio
Sarah Cave	Stepdaughter	F	18	Iowa
Nelson Cave	Stepson	M	16	Iowa
Thester O Watkins	Son	M	3	Iowa

Samantha's brother John was living nearby during the 1880 census.

In the July 19, 1880, probate record of her paternal Aunt Mary's, Anna was listed as a minor child of Thomas Rolston (dec'd).

By 1900 the family had moved to Pierce County, Nebraska. Samantha, husband Sylvias, their son Thester and his wife and children were enumerated on the family's farm. Sylvias died in 1901. Samantha was enumerated in the 1910 census of Union County, Iowa. Living with her were her two grandchildren, children of son Thester Watkins. By the 1930 census Samantha was living with her son Thester.

Samantha, about age 87, died in 1933 in Union County, Iowa, and was buried in the Lorimor Cemetery in Lorimor, Union County, Iowa. Her grandson Otis Watkins placed a common tombstone for his "Mother Edith" (1878-1905), "Sister Alta" (1897-1914) and "Grandmother Ann" (1846-1933).

Notes for Hudson Cave:

Hudson Cave was born about 1838 in Missouri, the son of John Smith Cave and Eva Michael. His father moved the family to Iowa. The family was enumerated in the 1850 census of Polk County, Iowa:

John S Cave	M	50	Virginia
Eve Cave	F	50	Virginia
Sarah Cave	F	20	Ohio
Margaret Cave	F	17	Ohio
Elizabeth Cave	F	14	Missouri
Hudson Cave	M	12	Missouri
Madison Cave	M	11	Missouri
Albert Cave	M	7	Missouri
Marshal Cave	M	1	Iowa
Solomon Dixon	M	22	Missouri
John Cave	M	5	Missouri

His mother died in 1853 when Hudson was about 10 years old.

In 1855 his father married the widow Mrs. Sarah Payton Rolston. From his father's second marriage, Hudson had a half-brother and a half-sister. His stepmother had children from her previous marriage who lived with the family. One of these children was Samantha Ann Rolston.

Hudson married his step-sister Samantha Ann Rolston on March 31, 1861 in Dallas County, Iowa. Hudson was about 22 years old and Samantha was about 16. Two children were born to the couple.

What became of Hudson is unknown. Hudson N. Cave appears in the Civil War records, a member of the Union Cavalry, Company G, 2nd Regiment, Missouri Cavalry (Merrill's Horse). It is uncertain if this is the same Hudson Cave.

In 1876 Hudson's wife remarried; Hudson is assumed to have been deceased.

Notes for Sylvias H. Watkins:

Sylvias H. Watkins was born April 27, 1840 in Kalamazoo, Kalamazoo County, Michigan; his parentage is unknown.

On March 12, 1868 in Iowa, Sylvias married the widow Mrs. Samantha Cave, the former Miss Samantha Ann Rolston. From their union one child, a son, was born. Sometime after 1895 the family removed from Madison County, Iowa to a farm in Pierce County, Nebraska where they were enumerated in the 1900 census.

Sylvias, 60, died at his home on March 22, 1901 in Pierce County, Nebraska and was buried in the Prospect View Cemetery in Pierce, Pierce County, Nebraska. He was survived by his wife and their son, Thester.

Pierce County Call, Pierce, Pierce County, Nebraska, March 29, 1901

manhood. From there he went to New York state to reside. At that time the civil war broke out and young Watkins, like many other true and noble men, offered his services to his country by enlisting as a volunteer in the 9th N. W. Cavalry, company H. He was honorably discharged Dec. 19th 1863, at Culpepper, Va. By reason of re-inlistment (sic) he was appointed Commissary Seargent (sic) under the commanding officer Wm. Sackett, where he served through the remainder of the war. He was then honorably discharged from the service of the United States at Elmira, N. Y., the 30th day of May, 1865. He then took a course of study at the Lowell Commercial College of Binghamton, N. Y., graduating Dec. 14, 1866. He soon afterward came west as far as Iowa, where in 1868 he was married to Mrs. Ann Cave and where they afterwards lived until two years ago when they came to Pierce county, Nebraska where they purchased a farm 9 miles southwest of Pierce. The deceased was a kind and living husband and father; also an honest and upright neighbor in every respect. The bereaved ones have the heartfelt sympathy of their neighbors and friends. Mr. Watkins was a member of the Church of Christ and passed quietly and peacefully away to the other land.

The funeral services were conducted Sunday at the house by the Rev. M. Inhelder, of Pierce, after which the I. O. O. F. Lodge of Meadow Grove took charge of the burial, the remains being interred in Prospect View Cemetery south of Pierce. To the bereaved ones we would say:

When thy hopes seem all forsaking, And they very heart seems breaking; Look beyond the cloud of darkness, With its gleaming, silvery sheen, Newer hope take for the morrow, God will help them bear thy sorrow. Go buy it so deeply that 'twill never come between, Thy plans for future gladness, for 'twere folly verged on madness, To grope to hopeless darkness, There is sunshine to be seen.

- ii. NANCY CAROLINE ROLSTON was born on 21 Apr 1848 in Pickaway Co., Ohio. She died on 14 Jan 1853 in McLean Co., Ill. (age 4).

Notes for Nancy Caroline Rolston:

Nancy Caroline Rolston was born April 21, 1848 [calculated from her age at death] in Pickaway County, Ohio, the second of five children born to Thomas D. Rolston and Sarah Payton. Nancy was enumerated in the 1850 of Pickaway County, Ohio. The family then removed to Illinois.

Nancy, 4, died January 14, 1853 in McLean County, Illinois and was buried in the Scrogin Cemetery in Lexington, McLean County, Illinois. Her tombstone is inscribed: "Nancy Rolston d. Jan 14, 1853 age 4-8-24, dau of T D & S." There were epidemics of Typhoid Fever and Cholera at the time of her death.

- iii. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN ROLSTON was born on 21 Aug 1850 in Pickaway Co., Ohio. He died on 07 Apr 1928 in Redfield, Dallas Co., Iowa (age 77). He married Nancy Victoria Tice, daughter of Daniel Tice and Delaney Smith, on 08 Apr 1871 in Dallas Co., Iowa. She was born on 12 Mar 1845 in New York. She died on 26 Jan 1924 in Redfield, Dallas Co., Iowa (age 78).

Notes for Benjamin Franklin Rolston:

Benjamin "Ben" Franklin Rolston was born August 21, 1850, in Ohio, the second of five children born to Thomas D. Rolston and Sarah Payton. He was named after his paternal grandfather. The family left Ohio, stayed for some time in Illinois before moving onto Dallas County, Iowa where Benjamin's father died in 1854. Benjamin's mother remarried the following year to John S. Cave. From his mother's second marriage, Benjamin had one half-sister and four half-brothers.

On April 8, 1871 in Dallas County, Iowa, Benjamin married Nancy Victoria Tice. Four children are known to have been born to the couple. All four of their children preceded them in death, their first child was born in April of 1874 and died at 8 months in January of 1875.

In the July 19th, 1880 probate record of his paternal Aunt Mary's, Benjamin was listed as a minor child of Thomas, deceased.

Around 1885 Benjamin moved his family to Kansas. They remained there but two years before returning to Iowa. In 1900 Benjamin and his family were enumerated in Dallas County, Iowa and were farming in Colfax Township. Their younger two daughters both died in the 1900's: Mrs. Minnie Sharp died in 1902, and Mrs. Lilla Newell died in 1909. Benjamin and his wife Victoria appear in the 1916 farmer's atlas with 120 acres. Their farm was in the postal area of Adel. Their son Burt, their only remaining child, was also listed. In 1917, Burt, the second of their four children, and only son, died at the age of 41. On January 26, 1924, Victoria, his wife of 52 years, preceded him in death at the age of 78.

Benjamin, 77, died of a heart attack four years later on April 7, 1928 in Redfield, Dallas County, Iowa and joined his wife in the Panther Cemetery in Dallas County, Iowa. He was survived by one sister, Mrs. Samantha Watkins, his brother John, and two half-brothers. He was preceded in death by his wife, all four of their children, his parents, and two sisters.

B. F. ROLSTON DIED AT HOME FROM HEART ATTACK

Well Known Farmer Passed Away Saturday Night - Funeral Services Held Monday Afternoon

B. F. Rolston, one of the best known farmers of the community west of Adel, passed away at his home on Saturday evening, following a heart attack. The funeral services were held at the Panther Creek U. B. church Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. R. A. Lewis, assisted by Rev. W. W. Vine, pastor of the church. Interment was beside the wife at Panther Creek cemetery.

The following obituary [tells] the story of a life of usefulness a life which was spent almost [entirely] in this neighborhood:

Benjamin Franklin Rolston, son of Thomas D. and Sarah Rolston, was born Aug. 21, 1850 near ...leville, Pickaway County, Ohio, and passed away at his home near Redfield on Saturday evening, April 7, 1928, at the age of 77 years, 7 months and 17 days.

He came to Iowa with his parents when a small boy and was raised to manhood near Redfield. Here he met and married Nancy Victoria Tice, on April 8th, 1871. To this union were born four children, Vernie, who died in infancy; Bert Rolston, Mrs. Minnie Sharp and Mrs. Lillie Newell, who all have preceded their parents in death.

Shortly after their marriage he and his bride started out with all their earthly possessions in a lumber wagon for O'Brien County, no home awaited their arrival so they had to live with a neighbor until they could get the house partly built, then they moved in and here they resided for the next twelve years.

In 1884 they moved to Kansas but after two years they returned to Dallas County, Iowa and purchased a tract of land northeast of Redfield which has been their constant home for over forty years. Upon the death of Mrs. Rolston in January, 1924, he continued to maintain his home with the faithful assistance of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Carrie Rolston.

Mr. Rolston was a member of the Panther Creek U. B. church, a good neighbor and faithful friend. never refusing to help anyone in need, he was a loving husband and father and no one could have been more fond of a grandchild than he.

He always led an active life, even up to the last hour of his life, when he was stricken with heart trouble.

He is survived by his grandson, Carl A. Rolston, Adel, Iowa, a great granddaughter, Freda Arlene Rolston, Adel, Iowa, a sister and brothers, Mrs. Anna Watkins, Lorimor, Iowa; John Rolston, Denver, Colo.; two half brothers, Granville Cave, Redfield, Iowa; Edgar Cave, Lamoni, Iowa and many other relatives and friends.

One sister, a half sister and half brother preceded him in death.

Notes for Nancy Victoria Tice:

Nancy Victoria Tice was born March 12, 1845 in New York, one of nine children born to Daniel Tice and Delaney Smith. The family moved to Michigan early in her childhood and then to Iowa around the beginning of the Civil War.

On April 8, 1871 in Dallas County, Iowa, Victoria married Benjamin Franklin Rolston. Four children were born to the couple. Their first child, daughter Vern, died in 1875 at the age of eight months. The family left Iowa in 1884, removing to Kansas. They returned to Iowa in 1886. Their younger two daughters both died in the 1900's: Mrs. Minnie Sharp died in 1902, and Mrs. Lilla Newell died in 1909. Their second child, and only son, died in 1917 at the age of 41.

Victoria, 78, preceded her husband in death on January 26, 1924 in Redfield, Dallas County, Iowa and was buried in the Panther Cemetery in Dallas County, Iowa. All four of her children had preceded her in death.

- iv. JOHN NELSON ROLSTON was born on 26 Aug 1852 in Illinois. He died on 10 Dec 1935 in Bell, Los Angeles Co., Calif. (age 83). He married Elizabeth S. Thompson, daughter of William Thompson and Lucinda, on 07 Apr 1871 in Dallas Co., Iowa. She was born on 24 Sep 1852 in Pennsylvania. She died on 19 Dec 1902 in Shelby Co., Iowa (age 50).

Notes for John Nelson Rolston:

John Nelson Rolston was born August 26, 1852, in Illinois, the fourth of five children born to Thomas D. Rolston and Sarah Payton. The family moved to Dallas County, Iowa, where John's father died in 1854 when John was two years old. His mother married John Smith Cave the following year. From his mother's second marriage, John had one half-sister and four half-brothers.

On April 7, 1871 in Dallas County, Iowa, John, age 18, married Elizabeth "Libbie" S. Thompson, also age 18. Three children were born to the couple; their third child dying in infancy. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Monroe Township, Madison County, Iowa:

John Rolston    Self    M    Male       W    27    IL    Farmer       OH    OH

May Rolston	Dau	S	Female	W	8	IA		IL	PA
Annie Rolston	Dau	S	Female	W	6	IA		IL	PA

At the time of the 1880 census, John's older sister, Mrs. Samantha Rolston Cave Watkins, lived close by. John's stepfather died, and his mother, enumerated as Mrs. Libby Cave, lived with him and his family at the time of the 1885 Iowa census.

From the "1889 Biographical History of Shelby County, Iowa," pp. 603-604:

"JOHN N. RALSTON has been a resident of Shelby County during the last five years. He was born in Illinois, August 26, 1852, and is the son of Thomas and Sarah (Peyton) Ralston, who removed to Iowa when our subject was two years of age, and settled in Dallas County; there the father died at the age of thirty years; the mother still resides in Dallas County, at the age of sixty-six years. They were the parents of five children -- Samantha Ann, the wife of H. Watkins; Caroline (deceased), Benjamin F., John N., and Jennie, the wife of George Saky. John N. began to support himself at the age of fourteen years. April 7, 1871, he was married to Miss Libbie, daughter of William and Lucinda Thompson. She is a native of Pennsylvania, and was born September 4, 1852. For three years after his marriage Mr. Ralston rented and farmed his mother's land in Dallas County. He then bought eighty acres of wild land in Madison County, Iowa, which he improved and made his home for seven years. At the end of that time he sold out and came to Shelby County, and rented until the fall of 1888, when he bought eighty acres of improved land in section 2, Washington Township. Mr. Ralston has been politically identified with his township as trustee, and is the present assessor; the township assesses $180,000. He is a member of the Democratic party. Mr. and Mrs. Ralston have had born to them two children -- May, born September 15, 1872, and Anna, the wife of Patrick Buckley, born December 15, 1874. Mrs. Ralston is a teacher, and had the advantages of a good education. May is also a teacher; she was graduated from the classical course at St. Mary's Academy, Council Bluffs, in 1887. "

Elizabeth, John's wife of 31 years, died December 19, 1902, at the age of 50. After his wife's death, John went into Real Estate, working in Council Bluffs, Pattawattamie County, Iowa. John is said to have been a resident of Denver, Denver County, Colorado in 1928, perhaps moving there and living with or near his daughter May. About 1929, John removed to California. In 1930, John was residing in Huntington Park, Los Angeles County, California with his daughter, Mrs. May R. Halladay.

John, 83, died December 10, 1935 in Bell, Los Angeles County, California, and was buried in the Inglewood Park Cemetery in Inglewood, Los Angeles County, California.

Notes for Elizabeth S. Thompson:

Elizabeth S. "Libbie" Thompson was born September 24, 1852, in Pennsylvania, the daughter of William and Lucinda Thompson. When she moved to Iowa is unknown.

On April 7, 1871 in Dallas County, Iowa, Libbie, age 18, married John Nelson Rolston, age 18. Two daughters were born to the couple within a few short years. By 1885, Elizabeth had taken up teaching. Thirteen years after the birth of her second child, Elizabeth gave birth to the couple's third child, an unnamed son who died in infancy.

Elizabeth, 50, preceded her husband in death on December 19, 1902 in Shelby County, Iowa and was buried as Libbie S. Rolston in the Washington Township Cemetery in Panama, Shelby County, Iowa, sharing a tombstone with her infant son.

- v. NANCY E. ROLSTON was born about 1855 in Dallas Co., Iowa. She died between 1920-1928. She married George W. Lakey, son of Jacob Lakey and Nancy Holeman, on 28 Jan 1875 in Madison Co., Iowa. He was born on 10 Oct 1852 in Illinois. He died on 31 Dec 1898 in Kansas (age 46).

Notes for Nancy E. Rolston:

Nancy E. "Jennie" Rolston was born about 1855 in Iowa, the youngest of five children born to Thomas D. Rolston and Sarah Payton. Her father died in 1854, perhaps before Nancy's birth. Nancy's mother remarried the following year to John S. Cave. From her mother's second marriage, Nancy had one half-sister and four half-brothers.

In the July 19, 1880, probate record of her paternal Aunt Mary's, there is no listing of a "Nancy." The probate record lists Catherine a minor child of Thomas, and this may have been a reference to Nancy (dec'd), the second child born to Thomas and Sarah.

On January 28, 1875 in Madison County, Iowa, Nancy married George W. Lakey. Marriage record transcripts list her as Nancy J.. In the biography of her brother John, she was listed as "Jennie, the wife of George Saky." Three children were born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Monroe Township of Madison County, Iowa:

George Lakey	Self	M	Male	W	27	IN	Farmer	IN	IN
Jennie Lakey	Wife	M	Female	W	26	IA	Keeping House	IL	OH
Marvin Lakey	Son	S	Male	W	5	IA		IN	IA
Bertie L. Lakey	Son	S	Male	W	1	IA		IN	IA

Sometime after 1880 the family moved to Kansas, There, her husband died in 1898. In 1903, at the time of her mother's death, Nancy was residing in Topeka, Shawnee County, Kansas. "Jennie" was enumerated in the 1910 census of Topeka, Shawnee County, Kansas. Although widowed, he was enumerated as married. The columns for the number of children born and living were left blank.

The widowed Jennie was enumerated with her daughter, Mrs. Eva Oliver, in the 1920 census of Fairfax, Atchison County, Missouri:

John Oliver	Head	Male	48	Missouri
Eva Oliver	Wife	Female	34	Iowa
Ethel Oliver	Daughter	Female	12	Kansas
Jennie Lackey	Mother-in-law	Female	65	Iowa (widowed)

Nancy's date and place of death and burial are unknown. She was deceased prior to the death of her brother Benjamin who died in April of 1928.

Notes for George W. Lakey:

George W. Lakey was born October 10, 1852 in Illinois, the son of Jacob Lakey and Nancy Holeman. George's father is thought to have died when George was very young and his mother remarried to a Mr. Shoemaker. From that union George had two half-sisters. This family was enumerated in the 1860 census of Van Buren Township of Clay County, Indiana:

Nancy Shoemaker		Female	32	Tennessee
William Lakey	Male	14	Indiana
George W Lakey	Male	8	Illinois
Sarah Shoemaker		Female	5	Indiana
Mary Shoemaker		Female	1	Illinois

On January 28, 1875 in Madison County, Iowa, George married Nancy E. "Jennie" Rolston. From their union two sons and a daughter are known to have been born. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Monroe, Madison County, Iowa:

George Lakey	Self	Male	27	Indiana [both parents born in Indiana]
Jennie Lakey	Wife	Female	26	Iowa
Marvin Lakey	Son	Male	5	Iowa
Bertie L Lakey	Son	Male	1	Iowa

Sometime after 1880 the family moved to Kansas. The family was enumerated in the 1895 census of Jefferson, Montgomery County, Kansas:

G W Lakey	Male	42	Illinois
Jennie Lakey	Female	40	Iowa
Roy Lakey	Male	17	Iowa [Robert]
Etta Eva Lakey	Female	8	Iowa

George, 46, died Dec 31, 1898 in Kansas and was buried in the Oak Ridge Cemetery in Perry, Jefferson County, Kansas.

Notes for Benjamin F. Rolston:

Benjamin F. Rolston was born in 1822 in Pickaway County, Ohio, the fifth of nine children born to Benjamin Rolston and Anna Duryea. His middle initial "F" may have been Franklin as many people named their children after famous political figures such as Benjamin Franklin (1706-1790). By 1837 Benjamin's father had moved the family to Hancock County.

On April 1, 1847 in Hancock County, Ohio, Benjamin married Rachel McKinley. The first of their five children was born the following year. In November of 1850 Benjamin purchased land in Orange Township from his father, Benjamin. His father moved west to Illinois and then pushed on to the Nebraska Territory. Young Benjamin soon followed.

In 1856 Benjamin was enumerated in Brownville, Nemaha County during the Nebraska Territory Census along with his father, Benjamin. It was this year that an election was held at the house of Lawrence Kinnison, in the Kinnison District (Precinct) in Nemaha County, Nebraska Territory on the 4th day of November, 1856. At the Mount Vernon Precinct (now Peru), Jeremiah Lyons, William Tate and B. F. Rolston served as election Judges. Benjamin left the area before the 1860 census. The early history of northwestern Nebraska has mention of a B.F. Ralston and is quite likely a reference to this Benjamin as he and his family continued to migrate west, arriving in California by the mid-1860's.

In the 1870 census Benjamin and his two daughters, Lydia and Mary, were enumerated in Yreka, Siskiyou County, California. The town of Yreka was one of the Gold Rush towns of 1851. His wife Rachel was not present during the census and is assumed to be deceased. Later in 1880 he listed himself as widowed. His sons John and Russel were not living at home, and their whereabouts in California in 1870 are unknown. Benjamin later left Yreka, removing east to neighboring Modoc County.

In July of 1880, Benjamin was mentioned as an heir of his sister Mary's estate. His sister Mary had been living in Nemaha County, Nebraska since 1856. Benjamin was living by himself in South Fork, Modoc County, California. In the 1880 census he listed himself as a farmer, but he was likely still a farm laborer as he notes that he was out of work for six months during the past year.

On October 19, 1888 in Modoc County, California, Benjamin was granted a homestead patent on 160 acres. Benjamin and sons, John and Russell, each make homesteads at this location as well as daughter Mary I. "Dora." Within these homestead records the family surname was found as Ralston and may indicate a shift in the spelling from Rolston to Ralston for the generations that followed.

Benjamin, age about 68, died on March 6, 1890 in Canyon Creek, Modoc County, California and was buried as B. F. Ralston in the Centerville Cemetery in Centerville, Modoc County, California.

Modoc State of California Probate ... Benjamin F. Ralston Deceased

WH Salisbury the administrator of the estate of Benjamin F. Ralston deceased having on the 28th day of November 1890 filed in this court his petition .... that the said Benjamin F. Ralston died intestate leaving him surviving his five children viz. Harriet E. Salisbury, John R. Ralston, Russell H. Ralston, Jane Watson and Mary J. Walker.

Notes for Rachel Ann McKinley:

Rachel Ann McKinley was born September 12, 1829 in Trumbull, Ashtabula County, Ohio, the sixth of eleven children born to John McKinley and Mary Marshall. Although having the same surname as President McKinley, who was likewise born in Ohio, no relationship between Rachel and the presidential McKinley's has been found. Rachel's parents lived in Trumbull until sometime after 1833 and moved to Hancock County by 1835.

On April 1, 1847 in Hancock County, Ohio, Rachel married Benjamin F. Rolston. The first three of their five children was born there. Her husband moved the family, following his father, to Nebraska. Her last two children were born in the Nebraska Territory. Sometime in the 1860's the family left Nebraska and headed west to California. Rachel was not present when her husband and the youngest two daughters were enumerated during the 1870 census of California. She is believed to be deceased prior to 1870, and husband Benjamin lists himself as widowed in the 1880 census.

There are, however, reports of Rachel's death as being October 9, 1892, some thirty years after she was last found with husband Benjamin. Her place of death was not reported. If true, Rachel and Benjamin had divorced and perhaps Rachel remarried. Rachel's place of death and burial are unknown.

Benjamin F. Rolston and Rachel Ann McKinley had the following children:

- i. HARRIET ELIZABETH<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 25 Sep 1848 in Orange Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 13 Jan 1933 in Alturas, Modoc Co., Calif. (age 84). She married (1) JOSEPH R. LAYTON, son of James Layton and Ann, on 05 May 1864 in California. He was born about 1834 in Ohio. He died on 07 Apr 1882 in Alturas, Modoc Co., Calif. (age ~48). She married (2) WILLIAM AUSTIN SALISBURY, son of William Salisbury and Sylva Attrill, on 14 Mar 1885 in Alturas, Modoc Co., Calif.. He was born on 18 Jul 1838 in Ghent Dist., Bath Twp., Summit Co., Ohio. He died on 16 Jul 1915 in Alturas, Modoc Co., Calif. (age 76).

Notes for Harriet Elizabeth Rolston:

Harriet Elizabeth Rolston was born September 25, 1848 in Hancock County, Ohio, the eldest of five children born to Benjamin F. Rolston and Rachel Ann McKinley. At the age of 21, Harriet was still living at home with her parents in Hancock County, Ohio. The family soon moved west as Harriet's father following his father to Nebraska. The family remained in Nebraska a few years before pushing further west in 1862 to the San Joaquin Valley in California.

On May 5, 1864 in California, Harriet married Joseph R. Layton. The couple lived in Butte Township, Siskiyou County California where they were enumerated under the surname of Leighton. Harriet and Joseph later removed to Modoc County, California where Harriet gave birth to the last four of their six children. Their six known children were daughter Emma and then five sons: William H., Andrew Franklin "Frank", John B., Archibald "Art" H. and Leroy "Roy" J.. Four years passed between the couple's marriage and their first known child. One or more children may have been born and died during that four year period. In the 1880 census of Hot Spring, Modoc County, California, the family was enumerated under the surname of Laton. Daughter Emma had died between 1870 and 1880. Two years later, Joseph, Harriet's husband of nearly 18 years, died April 7, 1882. Harriet was 33 years old at the time of his death.

On March 14, 1885 in Alturas, Modoc County, California, Harriet married William Austin Salisbury. The couple had three children, two sons and one daughter, all born at Granger Mills in Modoc County. Their daughter, Lois, died in 1889 at the age of six months. In the 1900 census of Alturas Township, Harriet was enumerated with William, her husband of 15 years, their two sons Weller and Herbert, and three sons: Frank, Art and Roy Layton from her late husband. Her oldest boy had just married. In the census Harriet states that she has given birth to nine children, of which seven were living.

In both the 1880 and 1910 census of Modoc County, Harriet claims that her father was born in Kentucky and her mother in Ohio. Both her mother and father had both been born in Ohio. Why the discrepancy is not known.

On July 16, 1915 William, her husband of 30 years, preceded her in death. On January 18, 1917 public records list a land transaction for William and Harriet Salisbury. In 1930 Harriet and her son Herbert were enumerated with Harriet's sister, the widow Mrs. Lydia J. Watson, in Alturas Township of Modoc County, California:

Lydia J Watson Head	F	72	Nebraska (widowed)
Harriett E Salisbury	Sister	F	81 Ohio (widowed)
Herbert Salisbury	Nephew	M	38 California

Harriet lived with her sister until her death.

Harriet, 84, died January 13, 1933 in Alturas, Modoc County, California, and was buried as Harriet Layton Salisbury in the Alturas Cemetery in Alturas. She was survived by four of her nine children and two of her sisters, including Lydia, with whom she had been living with at the time of her death.

Pioneer Woman Buried Sunday

The funeral of Mrs. Harriet Elizabeth Ralston Salisbury, 84, pioneer resident of Modoc county took place last Sunday afternoon from the Kerr funeral chapel. Interment was in the Alturas cemetery.

Mrs. Salisbury died on January 13. She was a native of Ohio and came to California in the early days, settling in Modoc county in 1873. Her husband was the late Squire William A. Salisbury.

Surviving are four sons, Arthur H. Layton, Weller Salisbury and Herbert Salisbury of Alturas, John B. Layton of Susanville, and two sisters, Lydia Jane Waston and Mrs. W. N. Walker.

[same page has her obituary]

Harriet E. Ralston, daughter of Rachel and Ben Ralston, was born in the state of Ohio September 25, 1848. When eight years of age, she moved with her parents to Nebraska. She crossed the plains in a covered wagon from Nebraska and settled in 1862 in the San Joaquin Valley in California.

On May 5, 1864, she was married to Joseph Layton, the couple choosing as their home Siskeyou county. To this union were born three children. In 1873 after the family had moved to Modoc county, three more children were born, Josph Layton died April 7, 1882.

On March 14, 1885, Mrs. Layton married Squire William A. Salisbury and made her home in Alturas. Mr. Salisbury died July 16, 1915.

Mrs. Salisbury met with many hardships. She tended the sick and those in need, many times went on horseback or in cart, overt streams so dangerous that she swam her horse to carry some message or do an errand. She had the honor of being one of the charter member of the Eastern Star Chapter of Alturas, and for nearly 35 years has tried to live an honest Christian life. When she was well enough she was a fine helper in the Christian church.

Notes for Joseph R. Layton:

Joseph Layton was born between 1835 and 1837 in Ohio, the son of James and Ann Layton. His surname is also found as Leighton. The family had moved to Iowa prior to the 1850 census. Sometime before 1864 Joseph had moved to California and was residing in the Butte District of Siskiyou County.

On May 5, 1864 in California, Joseph married Harriet Elizabeth Rolston. The couple was enumerated during the 1870 census in Butte Township, Siskiyou County, California, under the surname of Leighton. Two children, daughter Emma and son Andrew, had been born to the couple. In the 1880 census of Hot Spring, Modoc County, California, the family was enumerated under the surname of Laton; daughter Emma was deceased:

On May 10, 1884 Joseph and wife Harriet were issued land patents on two parcels of land in Modoc County.

Joseph, about age 48, died on April 7, 1882 in Alturas, Modoc County, California, and was buried in the Centerville Cemetery in Alturas. He was survived by his wife and five sons. Although his cause of death is unknown, he is believed to have suffered from a genetic defect. This appears to have been passed onto three of his five sons as they also die in their late 40's or early 50's.

Notes for William Austin Salisbury:

William Austin Salisbury was born July 18, 1838 in Ghent District of Bath Township in Summit County, Ohio, the son of William and Sylva Salisbury. He was enumerated at the age of 13 in the 1850 census of Bath Township with his parents and four of his siblings. William had left home by 1860, his whereabouts unknown. He moved to Modoc County, California sometime before or in early 1880. On January 20, 1880 William purchased land in Modoc County. He was enumerated in the 1880 census of Modoc County in the town of Adin at the age of 42. William worked as a sawier and lists himself as single.

On March 14, 1885 in Alturas, Modoc County, California, William, age 46, married the widow Mrs. Harriet Rolston Layton, age 36. Three children were born to the couple. Their second child and only daughter, Lois May, died in 1889 at the age of six months. William was a sawier until sometime after 1900 when he took up farming.

William preceded his wife in death on July 16, 1915 in Alturas, Modoc County, California at the age of 76 (two days before his 77th birthday) and was buried in the Alturas Cemetery in Alturas. Besides his wife, William was survived by his two sons, Oliver and Herbert.

- ii. JOHN R. ROLSTON was born on 13 Dec 1851 in Orange Twp, Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 14 Aug 1913 in Modoc Co., Calif. (age 61).

Notes for John R. Rolston:

John R. Rolston was born December 13, 1851 in Hancock County, Ohio, the second of five children born to Benjamin F. Rolston and Rachel Ann McKinley. He was little more than three years old when his father moved the family from Ohio to Nebraska. They moved there along with John's grandfather, Benjamin Rolston, and various aunts and uncles, children of Benjamin. It is not known just how long John's father and the family remained in Nebraska before pushing further west into California.

John reached the age of majority in 1872, but he never married. In every census in which he was enumerated, he was enumerated as a single male. On October 30, 1877, John Rolston purchases two lots of land in Modoc County, California. On May 10, 1884 in Modoc County, California, John receives a patent on 240 plus one portion of acres he had homesteaded. These deeds, as do the censuses, record his surname as Ralston.

In 1900, John lived a few houses away from his sister Harriet's son, William Layton. John was single and living alone. In the 1910 census of Modoc County, John R. Rolston, age 68, appears as the "partner" to a David Essex, age 30. John was listed as single, and some years older than he should be. This John R. Rolston claims to have been born in Missouri, according to the census, with his father from Kentucky and mother from Virginia; however, he is believed to be the same John R. Rolston.

John, 61, died August 14, 1913 (from obituary) in Modoc County, California, where he had lived most of his adult life and was buried as John R. Rolston in the Alturas Cemetery in Modoc County. (tombstone gives date of death as Aug. 18, 1913) He was survived by his brother Russell and three sisters: Mrs. Harriet Layton Salisbury, Mrs. Lydia McGirr Watson, and Mrs. Mary Walker.

John Ralston Passes Away - Found Unconscious in Corral at his Ranch

Last Thursday morning death claimed the spirit of John R. Ralston whom we mentioned on our last issue as being critical ill. He had been taken to the county hospital the preceding Tuesday for treatment, having been found unconscious at his home near Canby, but he did not regain consciousness and gradually drifted away to the last long sleep while loving family watched over by relatives and friends.

When Mr. Ralston was first discovered it was thought that he was suffering from a stroke of paralysis, but from surrounding _____ it was later decided that he was perhaps kicked by a horse, which produced concussion of the brain.

It seems like Mr. Ralston had been living alone on a ranch in Canby and among other work had the care of a stallion. On Tuesday of last week, a small Shepard dog which had been Mr. Ralston's inseparable companion, appeared at D. R. Kanes' home at Canby, and managed to make it known that something was wrong. Mr. Kane at once went to investigate and found Mr. Ralston lying unconscious in the corral. An open pocketknife lay beside him and pieced of cut rope was hanging on the stallions Halter. I was thought that the unfortunate man perhaps became tangled in the rope and had managed to cut himself loose before becoming unconscious.

Dr. Copedge was called, and had the patient removed to the hospital for treatment.

The funeral took place from the Baptist Church at 11 o'clock Friday morning, and was attended by a large number of friends and relations.

The deceased leaves a brother, R.H. Ralston of Centerville, and two sisters, Mrs. W. A. Salisbury of Joseph Creek, and Mrs. Will Walker of Canby to mourn his loss.

Mr. Ralston was one of the pioneer residents of this county, and was highly respected and well liked by all who knew him.

- iii. RUSSELL HOLMES ROLSTON was born on 16 Dec 1854 in Orange Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 12 May 1921 in Modoc Co., Calif. (age 66). He married Addie F. Clark, daughter of James Perrin Clark and Marion Trunkey, in Jul 1889 in California. She was born in Oct 1859 in Iowa. She died in 1932 in Alturas, Modoc Co., Calif. (age 72).

Notes for Russell Holmes Rolston:

Russell "Rus" Holmes Rolston/Ralston was born December 16, 1854 in Orange Township, Hancock County, Ohio, the third of five children known to be born to Benjamin F. Rolston and Rachel Ann McKinley. He was known as Rus and spelled his surname as RALSTON. He was named after his paternal uncle, Russell Rolston. At the age of 2, Russell moved with his parents to the Nebraska Territory and the family resided there between 1856 and 1861 before moving further West into California in 1862. During the 1870 census of Butte, Siskiyou County, California, Russell was 15 and a farm worker for Daniel Dye. Butte may have been a part of Klamath County at that time; Klamath County was dissolved in 1874. Sometime after 1870, Russel moved some 100 miles East to Modoc County where he remained for the rest of his life.

On November 25, 1879, in Modoc County, California, Russell received a patent on 160 acres he had homesteaded, and on August 13, 1889, Russell received a second patent on 160 acres he had homesteaded in Modoc County. These are in the same region as the lands of his father, Benjamin, and brother, John. Both of these deeds record his surname as Ralston.

In July of 1889 in California, Russell married Addie F. Clark. Russel was about 45 at this time, and this may not have been his first marriage. Russell and Addie had no children.

In January of 1890 his sister Dora Ralston was deeded land near Russell. Her property was located in the same township (0410N), range (100E), and section (003) as Russell's. In the 1900 census, Russel and Addie state they have been married for eleven years, and no children had been born to the couple.

A newspaper article from THE NEW ERA, Alturas, Modoc County, California, Wednesday, March 1, 1911: "Russell Ralston came in this week from Centerville. Mr. Ralston is having a very unfortunate time with his foot, which was crushed last fall. He can not use it yet and suffers much on account of it."

In 1920 Russell was residing in Alturas in Modoc County.

Russell, 66, died May 12, 1921 in Modoc County, California where he had resided since 1884. He was buried as a "RALSTON" in the Alturas Cemetery. He was survived by his wife Addie and his three sisters. His only brother, John, had preceded him in death.

New Era, Alturas, Modoc County, California, Friday, May 13, 1921

Another Pioneer Passes

Wednesday night Russell Holmes Ralston, another of Modoc's pioneer citizens, loved and respected by all, passed away to his final award. The summons was not unexpected by either family or friends as he had long been in the remorseless grip of an incurable disease, cancer of the stomach. And yet knowing this, the news was received by all with deep and sincere regret.

"Rus" Ralston, as he was familiarly known, was born in Ohio Dec. 16, 1854, and crossed the plains to California in 1862. In 1874 he came to Modoc county and was married in July 1889, and here he resided continuously, honored, loved and respected, until called hence by the remorseless minister of death. He leaves a widow to mourn his untimely passing, besides some other relatives, and a host of friends. To all these the New Era extends sincere sympathy.

The funeral will take place from the Baptist Church tomorrow, May 14th, at 3 o'clock P.M. with interment at the cemetery. Friends and citizens are invited to be present.

Notes for Addie F. Clark:

Addie F. Clark was born in October of 1859 in Iowa, the eldest of nine children born to James Perrin (or Paron) Clark and Marion "Mary" Trunkey. The family moved to California where she was enumerated with her family in the 1880 census of Brighton Township of Sacramento County, California:

In July of 1889 in California, Addie, age 29, married Russell "Rus" Holmes Rolston, probably in Modoc County, California, where the couple would reside. The couple never had children. In the 1900 census, they had been married for eleven years with no children reported as being born. In the 1910 census, each indicates that this is their first marriage.

On May 12, 1921, Russell, her husband for over 30 years, died at the age of 66 from stomach cancer. Addie was 62 years old at that time and did not remarry. The widowed Addie was enumerated in the 1930 census of Alturas City, Modoc County, California. Living with her at that time was her younger brother, William Clark, age 65.

Addie was married twice? The first marriage, according to her statement during the 1930 census, occurred about 1883 when she was 24 years old. Nothing is known of her first marriage, and there are no known children from her first union.

Addie, 72, died in 1932 in Alturas, Modoc County, California, and was buried in the Alturas Cemetery in Alturas, Modoc County, California. She was buried under the surname of Ralston.

- iv. LYDIA JANE ROLSTON was born on 14 Nov 1857 in Nebraska Territory. She died on 06 Sep 1943 in Burney, Shasta Co., Calif. (age 85). She married (1) JAMES MCGIRR about 1875 in California. He was born in 1849 in Ireland. He died in Jun 1883 in California (age ~34). She married (2) MILTON CHARLES WATSON about 1888 in California. He was born on 08 Jan 1852 in Virginia (now W.V.). He died on 06 Jan 1923 in Chico, Butte Co., Calif. (age 70).

Notes for Lydia Jane Rolston:

Lydia Jane Rolston was born November 14, 1857 in the Nebraska Territory, the fourth of five children born to Benjamin F. Rolston and Rachel Ann McKinley. Rachel may have named her daughter Lydia after Rachel's sister Lydia who died at the age of 15.

Sometime after 1861 the family moved to California. In the 1870 census Lydia, age 12, and her father and sister were enumerated in Yreka, Siskiyou County of California. Lydia's mother was deceased. By the 1880 census the family had moved onto South Fork in Modoc County, California, but Lydia was not enumerated with the family.

About 1875 or later in California, Lydia married James McGirr by which three children are known to have been born. Their eldest known child was born in 1877. The family was not enumerated in the 1880 census. Her husband died in 1883.

About 1888 in California, Lydia married Milton Charles Watson. He was a farmer. Three children are known to have been born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of Lassen County, California. Lydia and Milton had been married for 12 years. In the census, Lydia states that she had seven children, of which, six were living. It is not known by which husband the seventh child was born. Living with Lydia and her husband Milton in the 1900 census were three children from their union and daughter Rachel McGirr from Lydia's first marriage. Lydia and her husband were once again enumerated in Lassen County during the 1910 census. Sons Benjamin and Ellsworth were still living at home.

Lydia's brother John died in 1913. Although Lydia was living, she was not mentioned as one of her brother's surviving sisters. On January 6, 1923, Lydia's second husband preceded her in death at the age of about 68. Their residence at the time of his death is unknown. In the 1930 census of Alturas Township of Modoc County, California, Lydia's widowed sister was living with her:

Lydia J Watson	Head	F	72	Nebraska (widowed)
Harriett E Salisbery	Sister	F	81	Ohio (widowed)
Herbert Salisbery	Nephew	M	38	California

At the time of the 1940 census the widow Lydia (L. J. Watson), age 82, was residing in Chico Township of Butte County, California with the widow Mr. W. N. Walker, age 79. Although she was enumerated as Mr. Walker's sister, she was not a blood relative. Lydia's sister, Mary Isadora, had married Mr. William Napoleon Walker who died in 1939. The Mr. W. N. Walker with which Lydia was living is assumed to have been related to Lydia's sister's deceased husband.

Lydia, 85, died September 6, 1943 in Burney, Shasta County, California. She was buried next to Milton, her second husband, in the Chico Cemetery in Chico, Butte County, California. Her death certificate identifies her mother's middle name as Ann.

Chico Enterprize - 7 September 1943

Mrs. L. J. Watson Dies in Burney

Lydia Jane Watson, a resident of this community for the past thirty years, and a resident of California for more than eighty years, died early yesterday morning a her daughter, Mrs. Rachel McCrary in Burney, Calif.

She was born November 14, 1857, in Nebraska, and, at the age of five crossed the plains with her parents in a covered wagon, settling first near Bakersfield, later moving to Modoc county, and then later to Chico. Her husband, who died in 1923 followed ranching -- extensively in this and other communities.

Surviving Mrs. Waston are six children, Robert McGirr of Wyoming, Nettie McKenzie of Bieber, Rachel Ann McCrary of Burney, Mrs. Blanche Snyder of Alden, George E. Waston of Berkely, and Benjamin Waston of Chico. Several grandchildren and great grandchildren also survive.

Friends are invited to attend funeral services to be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the Brusie, Black and Johnson Funeral Home with Rev. Harris Pillsbury officiating and internment to follow in the family plot of Chico Cemetery.

Notes for James McGirr:

James McGirr was born in 1849 in Ireland. His parentage is unknown.

About 1875 in California, James married Lydia Jane Rolston. They had three children and possibly a four child who died in infancy.

James, about age 34 years, died in June of 1883 in California, probably in Lassen County as his obituary was published there. He was buried in the Halcumb Cemetery in the town of Montgomery Creek, Shasta County, California.

Notes for Milton Charles Watson:

Milton Charles Watson was born January 8, 1852 in Virginia, now West Virginia. His parentage is unknown.

When Milton moved to California in the 1880's. He is thought to have been previously married. Nothing is known of an earlier marriage nor children from that union.

About 1888 in California, Milton, about age 36, married the widow Mrs. Lydia McGirr, the former Miss Lydia Jane Rolston. The couple farmed in Lassen County, California. At least three children were born to the couple. Lydia reports in the 1900 census that she has had seven children, six of which were still living. Three children are known from her first marriage.

Milton preceded his wife in death on January 6, 1923 in Chico, Butte County, California, two days before his 71st birthday. He was buried in the Chico Cemetery in Chico.

- v. MARY ISADORA ROLSTON was born on 11 Jul 1860 in Nebraska Territory. She died on 27 Apr 1943 in Chico, Butte Co., Calif. (age 82). She married William Napoleon Walker, son of George Walker and Margaret Carpenter, on 01 Dec 1886 in Modoc Co., Calif.. He was born on 16 Sep 1857 in Yreka, Siskiyou Co., Calif.. He died on 13 Mar 1939 in Chico, Butte Co., Calif. (age 81).

Notes for Mary Isadora Rolston:

Mary Isadora "Dora" Rolston (Ralston) was born July 11, 1860 in the Nebraska Territory, the youngest of five children born to Benjamin F. Rolston and Rachel Ann McKinley. Rachel may have named her daughter Mary after Rachel's sister Mary who died at the age of 12 days.

About 1862, the family left the Nebraska Territory and moved to the San Joaquin Valley in California. The family then moved north where Mary was enumerated in the 1870 census of Yreka, Siskiyou County, California, at the age 9, living with her father. Her mother was deceased. By the 1880 census the family had moved to South Fork in Modoc County, California, but Mary, who would have been 19 years of age by this time, was no longer residing with the family.

On December 1, 1886 in Modoc County, California, Dora married William "Billie" Napoleon Walker. Two sons were born to the couple.

On October 19, 1888 in Modoc County, California, her father Benjamin was granted a homestead patent on 160 acres. Her brothers, John and Russell, each made homesteads at this location as well as did Dora. Within these homestead records the family surname is found as Ralston and may indicate a shift in the spelling from Rolston to Ralston for the generations that followed.

Dora's son Eugene, age 18, drowned in 1921. William, Dora's husband of 52 years, died in March of 1939.

Mary, 82, died April 27, 1943 in Chico, Butte County, California, and joined her husband in the Alturas Cemetery in Alturas, Modoc County, California. She was survived by her eldest son, James Walker.

Prolonged Illness Ends in death of Mrs. Dora Walker

A prolonged illness ended yesterday in the death of Mrs. Dora R. Walker, a Chico resident for the past 20 years. She was 82.

Mrs. Walker and her husband, the late William Walker, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary six years ago. Walker, an Alturas and Durham rancher, died shortly thereafter.

She leaves two children, James Walker of New Pine Creek, Oregon, and Mrs. Jane Watson of Chico. [note: The obituary is in error. Jane Watson was Dora's sister, not her child]

In earlier days the Walkers lived on and operated what is now known as the Romero Ranch, near Likely. They sold the ranch to Charlie Williams, father of Wade and Miss Anna Williams, local residents.

It has been announced that the funeral services will be held at the Kerr Chapel in Alturas this afternoon at 2 p.m.

Notes for William Napoleon Walker:
Alturas Plaindealer, Thursday, March 16, 1939, page 1:

W N WALKER DIES AT CHICO - Former Modoc Rancher Buried Here Today

Last Monday Wm. N. "Billy" Walker, former rancher of Modoc County passed away in Chico. His remains were brought to Alturas and funeral services were held this afternoon from the Kerr Chapel.

William N. Walker was born on September 16, 1857, at Yreka, California, and died at Chico, California March 13, 1939 at the age of 81 years, 5 months and 27 days.

Mr. Walker was married at Squire Salisbury's sawmill at Canyon Creek near Alturas to Mary Isadora Ralston on December 1, 1886. Two sons were born to this union, the older, James C. Walker, a well-known resident of Alturas, and the younger Eugene Walker who passed on in 1921.

Mr. Walker was engaged in ranching and stock raising in the south Folk county near Likely until in 1917 when he and his family moved to Sacramento Valley where they were engaged in ranching near Durham, California for a few years and then settled in Chico where they were residing at the time of his death.

Two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Walker celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary with a Large number of relatives and friends.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Dora Walker, the one son, James C. Walker, three grandsons, Melvin, Mervyn and Donald, all of Alturas, one brother, Albert Walker of Montague, Calif., and on half-brother, Joe Free of Santa Rosa, California, besides a host of other relatives and friends who mourn the passing of a very kind man from our midst.

275. NANCY JANE<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Benjamin<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 30 Nov 1832 in Champaign Co., Ohio. She died on 06 Jan 1885 in Nemaha Co., Neb. (age 52). She married William Edwards, son of John Edwards and Sarah Harness, on 18 Nov 1854 in Lexington, McLean Co., Ill.. He was born on 05 Oct 1833 in Indiana. He died on 27 Jun 1919 in Wymore, Gage Co., Neb. (age 85).

Notes for Nancy Jane Rolston:

Nancy Jane Rolston was born November 30, 1832 in Champaign County, Ohio, the eighth of nine children born to Benjamin Rolston and Anna Duryea. She was also known by her middle name, Jane. Nancy and her family resided in Champaign County until 1837. In that year they moved to Hancock County where they would remain until at least 1851. Then her father moved the family west to Illinois.

On November 18, 1854 in McLean County, Illinois, Nancy married William Edwards. Little is known of Nancy and William's first few years of marriage. The first two of their seven children were probably born in Illinois. Nancy's father moved the family to the Nebraska Territory, and Nancy and her husband followed. Their first two children, Ida and James, died not long after their arrival in Nebraska and were buried in the Karn Cemetery. The family was enumerated in the 1880 Census of Glen Rock, Nemaha County, Nebraska:

Nancy, 52, died January 6, 1885 in Nemaha County, Nebraska was buried in the Karn Cemetery in Peru, Nemaha County. She was survived by her husband and five of her seven children. All would later be buried in the same cemetery.

Notes for William Edwards:

William Edwards was born October 5, 1833 in Indiana, the eldest of nine children born to John Edwards and Sarah Harness. Shortly after his birth the young family removed to McLean County, Illinois where the remainder of William's siblings were born.

On November 18, 1854 in Lexington, McLean County, Illinois, William married Nancy Jane Rolston. William followed his father-in-law to Nemaha County, Nebraska. In the 1860 census of Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska, William, his wife, and sons John and Benjamin were residing next door to his in-law's, Benjamin and Anna Rolston. William's occupation was laborer, and he is presumed to be working on his father-in-law's farm. As the years past, William and Nancy had seven children. Two of the seven died at the age of one and were buried in the Kern Cemetery near Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska.

On September 21, 1867, Benjamin Rolston sold a 40-acre plot to his daughter, Mary. On the following day, September 22, 1867 Benjamin sold an 80 acre plot, less some portion of an acre, to his son-in-law, William Edwards. Edwards would later purchase the 40 acres from Mary's estate.

Nancy, William's wife of 30 years, preceded him in death on January 6, 1885 at the age of 52 in Nemaha County, Nebraska. William eventually sold the farm and retired. Sometime after 1910, William moved to Wymore, Gage County, Nebraska where he probably lived with his son John.

William, 85, died June 27, 1919 in Wymore, Gage County, Nebraska and was buried in the Karn Cemetery in Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska.

- i. JAMES<sup>6</sup> EDWARDS was born about 1855 in Nemaha Co., Nebraska Territory. He died about 1856 in Nemaha Co., Nebraska Territory (age 1).

Notes for James Edwards:

James Edwards was born sometime after 1854 in Nemaha County of the Nebraska Territory, the eldest or second of seven children born to William Edwards and Nancy Jane Rolston.

James died at the age of 1 year and was buried in the Karn Cemetery in Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska where he shares a tombstone with his sister Ida who died at the age of 1 year and 3 months. James and Ida were said to have been twins.

- ii. IDA EDWARDS was born about 1855 in Nemaha Co., Nebraska Territory. She died about 1856 in Nemaha Co., Nebraska Territory (age 1 year, 3 mos.).

Notes for Ida Edwards:

Ida Edwards was born sometime after 1854 in Nemaha County of the Nebraska Territory, the eldest or second of seven children born to William Edwards and Nancy Jane Rolston.

Ida died at the age of 1 year and 3 months and was buried in the Karn Cemetery in Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska, where she shares a tombstone with her brother James who died at the age of 1 year. Ida and James are said to have been twins.

- iii. JOHN FRANKLIN EDWARDS was born on 06 Nov 1857 in Peru, Nemaha Co., Neb.. He died on 08 Dec 1928 in Huntington Park, Los Angeles Co., Calif. (age 71). He married Mary Lucinda Hadden, daughter of Jacob Hadden and Martha J. Saxton, on 19 Aug 1886 in Beatrice, Gage Co., Neb.. She was born on 09 Feb 1870 in Iowa. She died on 10 Jun 1939 in California (age 69).

John Franklin Edwards

John Franklin Edwards was born at Peru, Nebraska, November 6, 1857, where he spent his boyhood days. He came to Wymore to make his home in 1883. In 1885 he was united in marriage to Mary Lucile Hadden. To this union were born fourteen children, six of which preceded him in death.

The greater part of his life was spent in Wymore. September 3, 1928 he went west to make his home with his family in Huntington Park, Calif., where he became ill and passed away Saturday morning, December 8, 1928, at 9 o'clock, at the age of 71 years, 1 month and 2 days.

He leaves to mourn his death his wife, Mrs. Mary L. Edwards, four daughters, Mrs. Edna Sphan, Huntington Park, Calif., Mrs. Nellie Spoon, Huntington Park, Calif., Mrs. Florence Linton, Huntington Park, Calif., Mrs. Viola Warden, Huntington Park, Calif.; four sons, John Edwards, Falls City, Nebr., Fred Edwards, Sioux City, Iowa, Clarence Edwards, Huntington Park, Calif., Claude Edwards, Wymore, Nebr.; two sisters, Mrs. Howard Blankenship, Peru, Nebr., Mrs. Mildrion Reamis, Stockton, Calif.; and one brother, Thomas Edwards, Colorado Springs, Colo. Also a number of other close relatives and may friends.

Funeral services were held from the First Christian church at Wymore, conducted by Rev., E. E. Powell and interment was made in the Wymore cemetery.

Notes for Mary Lucinda Hadden:

Mary Lucinda Hadden was born February 9, 1870 in Iowa, the fourth child born to Jacob and Martha Hadden.

On August 19, 1886 in Beatrice, Gage County, Nebraska, Mary married John Franklin Edwards. Fourteen children were born to the couple; six died in childhood. There may have been a fifteenth child. Edna Mae Edwards, born and died January 27, 1923. This child, like the rest of their deceased children, was buried in the Wymore Cemetery.

In early 1928 the family removed to Huntington Park, Los Angeles County, California, where Mary's husband preceded her in death in December of that year. The widowed Mary was enumerated in the 1930 census of Huntington Park:

Mary, 69, died June 10, 1939 in California and joined her husband in the Wymore Cemetery in Sicily Township of Gage County, Nebraska.

- iv. BENJAMIN R. EDWARDS was born on 18 Mar 1860 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. He died on 10 Jan 1921 in El Paso Co., Co. (age 60). He married Nancy Ann Roper, daughter of Elijah Roper and Sarah Albertine Rickman, about 1891 in El Paso Co., Co.. She was born on 19 Mar 1872 in North Carolina. She died on 23 May 1930 in El Paso Co., Co. (age 58).

Notes for Benjamin R. Edwards:

Benjamin R. Edwards was born March 18, 1860 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, the fourth of seven children born to William Edwards and Nancy Jane Rolston. His middle initial "R" was probably Rolston or Ralston, as he was named after his maternal grandfather, Benjamin Rolston. Benjamin had twin siblings who died in infancy before he was born.

Sometime before 1880 Benjamin was out on his own. He was enumerated in Glen Rock, Nemaha County, Nebraska in 1880 working as a farm laborer for Thomas Heale. By 1890 he had moved west to El Paso County, Colorado, where he farmed.

About 1891 in El Paso County, Colorado, Benjamin married Nancy Ann Roper. Four children, three sons and a daughter, were born to the couple. Sometime after 1910 Benjamin gave up farming, and he and son Charles worked as contract teamsters. Son Charles had married and his wife and daughter lived with Benjamin in 1920.

Benjamin, 60, preceded his wife in death on January 10, 1921 in El Paso County, Colorado and was buried in the Evergreen Cemetery in Colorado Springs, El Paso County, Colorado. Besides his wife, children and grandchildren, he was survived by two brothers: John Franklin and Thomas Jefferson, and two sisters: Mrs. Anna Edwards Reimers and Mrs. Sarah Edwards Blankenship.

- v. ANNA SAMILDA EDWARDS was born on 01 Jan 1865 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. She died on 30 May 1941 in Stockton, San Joaquin Co., Calif. (age 76). She married William L. Reimers, son of R. Reimers and Sarah J, between 1880-1884 in Nebraska. He was born about 1861 in Illinois. He died in 1921 in California (age 60).

Notes for Anna Samilda Edwards:

Anna Samilda "Milda" Edwards was born January 1, 1865 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, the fifth of seven children born to William Edwards and Nancy Jane Rolston.

In the early 1880's in Nebraska, Milda married William L. Reimers, a farmer. Two sons were born to the couple. The family removed to Kansas by 1910 and then onto California a few years later. In 1918 Milda was institutionalized in the Stockton State Hospital for the Insane, enumerated there from 1920 to 1940. Even after twenty years in the institution, she was still listed as married, eventhough her husband had died in 1921. In the 1928 obituary of her brother John, she was listed as Mrs. Milderios Reamis of Stockton, California.

During the last seven years of her life, Milda suffered from tuberculosis.

Milda, 76, died of heart disease on May 30, 1941 in the Stockton State Hospital in Stockton, San Joaquin County, California, and was buried in the Mountain View Cemetery in Fresno, Fresno County, California. Her death certificate states that her husband was W. L. Reimers (deceased).

Obituaries, undisclosed source:

MONDAY Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Monday at the Jay chapel for Mrs. Milma Reimers, mother of E. F. Reimers of Madera, who passed away last night. Interment will be in Mountain View cemetery Fresno.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. M. REIMERS Rites Observed Today From Chapel

Funeral services for Mrs. Milda Reimers, 76, who died at a Stockton hospital Friday, were observed this morning from the R. S. Jay chapel. Rev. Aaron King officiated and interment followed in the Mountain View cemetery in Fresno. A native of Nebraska, she is survived by two sons, E. F. Reimers and T. W. Reimers both of Madera.

Notes for William L. Reimers:

William L. Reimers was born about 1861 in Illinois, the younger of two sons born to R. Reimers. His mother died and his father married a woman named Sarah. From their union, William is known to have had two half-sisters. The family was enumerated in the 1870 census of the Glenrock Precinct of Nemaha County, Nebraska:

R Reimers	M	31	Holstein
Sarah J Reimers		F	21 Ohio [William's stepmother]
Alonzo Reimers		M	10 Illinois
William Reimers		M	8 Illinois
Francis E Reimers		M	4 Nebraska
Joseph C Reimers		M	1 Nebraska

Sometime in the early 1880's in Nebraska, William married Anna Samilda "Milda" Edwards. Two sons are known to have been born to their union. The family removed to Kansas by 1910 and then onto California where they operated a fruit farm. In 1918 Milda was committed to the Stockton State Hospital for the Insane. William and sons were enumerated on the family farm in the 1920 census of Wolters Precinct of Fresno County, California:

William L Reimers	Head	M	59	Illinois (married)
Troy Reimers	Son	M	32	Nebraska
Ernest Reimers	Son	M	27	Nebraska

William, 60, died in 1921 in California. His place of burial is unknown.

- vi. THOMAS JEFFERSON EDWARDS was born on 11 May 1865 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. He died on 09 Sep 1936 in Colorado Springs, El Paso Co., Co. (age 71). He married Gladys M about 1902 in Colorado. She was born on 20 Oct 1875 in Missouri. She died on 18 Oct 1969 in Colorado Springs, El Paso Co., Co. (age 93).

Notes for Thomas Jefferson Edwards:

Thomas Jefferson Edwards was born May 11, 1865 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, the sixth of seven children born to William Edwards and Nancy Jane Rolston. Being named after a President such as Thomas Jefferson was a common practice. Thomas had a first cousin who was also named Thomas Jefferson Rolston. Thomas left Nebraska sometime after 1880 and moved to Colorado.

About 1902 in Colorado, Thomas married Mrs. Gladys M. Martin. Gladys had two children from her previous marriage. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of Pueblo, Pueblo County, Colorado with the two children from Gladys's previous marriage and their daughter Caroline, age four; Caroline would be their only child. Thomas worked as a conductor for the rail road. By 1920 the family had moved to Colorado Springs, El Paso County, Colorado where Thomas retired from the Rail Road sometime after 1930.

Thomas, 71, died September 9, 1936 in Colorado Springs, El Paso County, Colorado and was buried in the Evergreen Cemetery in Colorado Springs.

Notes for Gladys M:

Gladys, maiden name unknown, was born October 20, 1875 in Missouri. Her parents were both natives of that state.

About 1895, Gladys married a Mr. Martin. The couple lived in Colorado where Gladys gave birth to two children: Margaret and Clarence. What became of Mr. Martin is unknown.

About 1902 in Colorado, Gladys married Thomas Jefferson Edwards. One child, daughter Caroline, was born to the couple.

On September 9, 1936, Thomas, Gladys's husband of some 34 years, preceded her in death. After her husband's death, Gladys moved to Denver, Denver County, Colorado where she was enumerated with her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Martin Wilcoxon, in 1940:

Hoyt E Wilcoxon	Head	M	48	West Virginia
Margaret Wilcoxon	Wife	F	42	Colorado
Hoyt E Wilcoxon	Son	M	19	Colorado
Robert Wilcoxon	Son	M	18	Colorado
Gladys M Edward	Mother-in-law	F	63	Missouri (widowed)
Charlene Edward	Sister-in-law	F	33	Colorado [Margaret's half-sister]

Gladys, 93, died October 18, 1969 in Colorado Springs, El Paso County, Colorado and was buried with her second husband, Thomas Edwards, in the Evergreen Cemetery in Colorado Springs.

- vii. SARAH MATILDA EDWARDS was born on 16 Feb 1870 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. She died in 1962 in Nebraska (age ~92). She married Charles Howard Blankenship, son of James William Blankenship and Martha S. Lawler, on 14 Sep 1893 in Otoe, Nemaha Co., Neb.. He was born in Mar 1867 in Nebraska. He died in 1937 in Nebraska (age ~70).

Notes for Sarah Matilda Edwards:

Sarah Matilda "Tilda" Edwards was born February 16, 1870 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, the youngest of seven children born to William Edwards and Nancy Jane Rolston. Matilda's mother died in 1885 when Matilda was 15 years old.

On September 14, 1893 in Otoe, Nemaha County, Nebraska, Matilda, age 23, married Charles Howard Blankenship, age 26. The couple farmed in Peru Village where one child was born between 1900 and 1910 but died within that same period. During that time, Sarah's widowed father-in-law, James William Blankenship, moved in with them. The couple retired from farming but remained in Peru Village. In the 1930 census the couple was enumerated with an adopted son, Thomas Petterson, age 19.

Sarah's husband preceded her in death in 1937. Matilda and her foster son were enumerated in the 1940 census of Glen Rock Precinct of Nemaha County, Nebraska:

Tillie Blankenship	Head	F	70	Nebraska (widowed)
Thomas Patterson	Foster-son	M	29	Missouri [Thomas B. Patterson 1911-1951]

Although Thomas had three years of college, according to the 1940 census, he was working as a farm laborer at the time of the census. Thomas preceded Matilda in death in 1951.

Sarah, about age 92, died in 1962 and was buried as Matilda Blankenship in the Mt. Vernon Cemetery in Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska. Sarah was preceded in death by her husband, her child, her foster son, her parents, and all her siblings.

Notes for Charles Howard Blankenship:

Charles Howard Blankenship was born in March of 1867 in Nebraska, the fifth of seven children born to James William Blankenship and Martha S. Lawler. He had two brothers, three sisters and another sibling that died early in life. Charles' family was enumerated in the 1870 census of Peru, Nebraska, where Charles was 3 years old. Charles, "C. H.", his parents and siblings, were enumerated in the 1880 census of Peru Precinct of Nemaha County, Nebraska:

J. W. Blankenship - [James]	Self	M	Male	W	42	IN	Farmer	---	--

As an adult Charles was known by his middle name, Howard.

On September 14, 1893 in Otoe, Nemaha County, Nebraska, Howard married Sarah Matila Edwards. The couple farmed around the town of Peru. Between 1900 and 1910, one child was born to the couple but died as an infant or young child.

Howard, about age 70, preceded his wife in death in 1937 and was buried as Howard C. Blankenship in the Mt. Vernon Cemetery in Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska.

Notes for Harriett Rolston:

Harriett Rolston was born March 10, 1835 in Champaign County, Ohio, the youngest of nine children born to Benjamin Rolston and Anna Duryea. Harriett was about two, when her father moved the family to Hancock County, Ohio where they would remain until 1851. They left Ohio and resided in McLean County, Illinois in 1854. By 1856 the family had settled in the Nebraska Territory.

On November 16, 1856 in Nemaha County of the Nebraska Territory, Harriett, age 21, married John Wesley Horn, age 21. The couple farmed near her brother Charles. Harriett and John had eleven children, four of which died in infancy or early childhood. In the 1870 census her parents were living with her. Also residing with the family was Harriett's older spinster sister, Mary Rolston. Harriett's parents lived with her until their deaths in 1873; they died within two days of one another.

Harriett, 68, died May 8, 1903 at her home in Brock, Nemaha County, Nebraska, and was buried in the Lafayette Cemetery in Nemaha County, Nebraska. She was survived by John, her husband of 48 years, and seven of their eleven children.

Mrs. J. W. Horn died at her residence in Brock May 8th, aged 68 years. Deceased had been in poor health for several months. The funeral services were conducted from the Methodist church Sunday at 11:00 a.m. and the remains were laid to rest in Lafayette cemetery. An unusually large crowd attended. A husband and large family of grown children are left to mourn her loss.

Nemaha County Herald, May 15, 1903

Mrs. Horn, wife of J. W. Horn died in Brock May 8, being 68 years of age. Deceased was most highly esteemed in this community where she had resided for over twenty years. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Calvert in the Methodist church May 10th, at 11 o'clock, there being present one of the largest congregations assembled in Brock.

Notes for John Wesley Horn:

John Wesley "Chase" Horn was born July 4, 1835 in Jacksonville, Morgan County, Illinois, the fourth of eight children born to Joel Horn and Emily N. Paschall. John and family removed from Illinois to Nebraska sometime after the 1850 census

On November 16, 1856 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, John married Harriett Rolston. Eleven children were born to the couple, only eight are known by name. Four of the eleven children died in infancy or early childhood. Farm life was interrupted by the Civil War, and John served in Company C of the 5th Cavalry. After the war, John returned to Nemaha County, Nebraska and continued farming until he retired. Harriett, John's wife of 46 years, died May 8, 1903.

The following year on August 28, 1904 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, John married the widow Mrs. Julia A. Cook. No children were born to their union. They divorced before the 1910 census; however, John was enumerated as widowed in the 1920 census.

John, 89, died July 19, 1924 Nemaha County, Nebraska and was buried in the Lafayette Cemetery in Nemaha County.

John Wesley Horn and Harriett Rolston had the following children:

- i. EMILY ANN<sup>6</sup> HORN was born on 15 Sep 1857 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. She died on 17 Mar 1935 in Nemaha Co., Neb. (age 77). She married (1) JOHN B. BRANSTITER, son of Henry Branstiter and Eliza Adams, on 13 Apr 1879 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. He was born on 26 Feb 1853 in Illinois. He died on 05 Feb 1888 in Nemaha Co., Neb. (age 34). She married (2) FRANK M. GREEN, son of Ephraim Green, on 18 Nov 1890 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. He was born in Oct 1869 in Ohio.

Notes for Emily Ann Horn:

Emily Ann Horn was born September 15, 1857 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, the eldest of eleven children born to John Wesley Horn and Harriett Rolston. Three of her siblings are not known by name and likely died in infancy.

On April 13, 1879 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, Emily married John B. Branstiter. {Nemaha Co. Marriage, Book 2.5, p. 460} Six children were born to the couple. Emily's husband died on February 5, 1888 at the age of 34, and one of their children died the following year.

On November 18, 1890 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, Emily married her second husband, Frank M. Green. {Nemaha Co. Marriage, Book 4, p. 270} Five children are believed to have been born from this union. In the 1910 census Emily reports having had eleven children, six of which were still living. By the 1920 census the family had moved to Montana where they were enumerated in Powder River County with their youngest son Loyd. How long they lived there is not known, but by 1930 Emily and her husband had returned to Nemaha County, Nebraska. Their son Loyd remained in Montana.

Emily, 77, died March 17, 1935 in Nemaha County, Nebraska and was buried at the Camp Creek Cemetery in Otoe County, Nebraska, where her first husband had been laid to rest.

Notes for John B. Branstiter:

Six children were born to their union. Their third child, daughter Maud, died in 1889 at the age of six.

John, 34, died February 5, 1888 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, leaving behind his wife and their five children. He was buried in the Camp Creek Cemetery in Otoe County, Nebraska. John's father died weeks later on the 24th of February.

Notes for Frank M. Green:

Frank M. Green was born in October of 1869 in Ohio. His parentage is unknown.

On November 18, 1890 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, Frank married the widow, Mrs. Emily Horn Branstiter. She had five children from her previous marriage. Three sons were born to Frank and Emily, and a fourth child died in May of 1899 and was buried in the Camp Creek Cemetery on May 9th of that year. The couple lived in Nebraska except for a period around 1920 when they resided in Montana. Emily, Frank's wife of nearly 45 years, died in 1935.

Frank's date and place of death are unknown.

- ii. HENRY A. HORN was born on 28 Dec 1859 in Peru, Nemaha Co., Neb.. He died between 1860-1870 in Nebraska (age <10).

Notes for Henry A. Horn:

Henry A. Horn and his twin sister Mary were born December 28, 1859 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, the second and third of eight children born to John Wesley Horn and Harriett Rolston.

Henry was not enumerated with the family during 1870 census where he should have appeared at the age of ten. He had died sometime between 1860 and 1870. His place of burial is unknown.

- iii. MARY ALICE HORN was born on 28 Dec 1859 in Peru, Nemaha Co., Neb.. She died on 07 Jun 1936 in Custer Co., Neb. (age 76). She married Daniel Marion Branstiter, son of Henry Branstiter and Eliza Adams, on 29 Aug 1880 in Nebraska. He was born on 16 Jan 1858 in Morgan Co., Illinois. He died on 01 May 1915 in Custer Co., Neb. (age 57).

Notes for Mary Alice Horn:

Mary Alice Horn and her twin brother, Henry, were born December 28, 1859 in Nemaha County, Nebraska, the second and third of eight children born to John Wesley Horn and Harriett Rolston. Her twin brother, Henry, died in childhood.

On August 29, 1880 in Nebraska, Mary married Daniel Marion Branstiter. Her older sister had married Daniel's older brother the previous year. Nine children are attributed to Mary and Daniel's union. Mary's husband Daniel died May 1, 1915. According to her obituary, ten children were born to their union, but in the 1900 and 1910 census she claimed 8 born and 8 living. In the History of Custer County, Nebraska, page 506, published 1919: "Mrs.

Alice Branstiter is widowed, and she resides at Lomax, Custer County." Her son Charles was a resident of Lomax at that time.

Mary, 76, died June 7, 1936 in Custer County, Nebraska, and joined her husband in the Lomax (now Viola) Cemetery in Oconto, Nebraska.

Obituary; unknown publisher:

Mrs. Daniel M. Branstiter

nee Mary Alice Horn, the daughter of John and Sarah Horn, she was born in Nemaha County, Nebraska near Peru, on December 28, 1859 and she passed away on June 7, 1956 at the age of 76 years, 5 months and 10 days.

On August 28, 1880, she was united in marriage to Daniel M. Branstiter, who preceded her in death on May 1, 1915. To this union were born ten children, two having passed away in infancy. Those surviving to mourn her departure are Mrs. Ethel Van Houten of Alliance, Nebraska, John Branstiter of Brock, Nebraska, William of Pasadena, California, Daniel of Shelby, Iowa, and Edgar, Claude, Jake and Mrs. Florence McGuigan, all of Oconto, Nebraska. She also leaves 5 brothers, Charles G. Horn, J. Milton Horn, Ulysses S. Horn, Elsie F. and A. Richard Horn; also 19 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren, a number of nieces and nephews and a host of friends. An only sister, Mrs. Ann Green, preceded her in death only a year ago.

Her home was in Nemaha County, Nebraska until the year of 1908, when she with her husband and family came to Custer County, Nebraska, where she has since resided, and her departing will be keenly felt. She was a most kind and loving mother, a generous, thoughtful neighbor, and a friend to everyone whom she knew.

At an early age, she united with the United Brethren church at Peru, Nebraska and remained true to her faith during her lifetime.

She led a very active life until she suffered a stroke of paralysis eight years ago, from which she never fully recovered, but remained cheerful and patient, centering her life on her loved ones, her reading, her flowers and her home, where her daughter, Mrs. Florence McGuigan, husband and son, tenderly cared for her.

Funeral services were held in the Evangelical church on Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. G. Hulsebus of Eddyville, Nebraska in charge, assisted by Rev. R. W. Garrison. The pall bearers were the six sons of the deceased, who lovingly carried their mother to her last resting place.

Music was furnished by a ladies quarter composed of Miss Helen Paine, Mrs. R. W. Garrison, Mrs. Roy Walker and Mrs. Rena Kenyon, with Miss Velda Studley presiding at the piano. Burial was made in the Lomax Cemetery, by the side of her departed husband.

Those present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Branstiter and Mr. and Mrs. Gail Meyers of Shelby, Iowa; William Branstiter of Pasadena, California; Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Horn and John Branstiter of Brock, Nebraska; Ted Huffaker of Broken Bow, Nebraska; Mrs. George Martin of Lexington, Nebraska; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Horn of Lexington, and Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson of Callaway, Nebraska.

Notes for Daniel Marion Branstiter:

Daniel Marion Branstiter was born January 16, 1858 in Morgan County, Illinois, the third of five children known to have been born to Henry Branstiter and Eliza Adams. The family removed to Nebraska in the late 1860's where Daniel's mother died in 1870. His father remarried, and from that marriage, Daniel had one half-brother and two half-sisters at the time of the 1880 census.

On August 29, 1880 in Nebraska, Daniel married Mary Alice Horn. Daniel's older brother, John, had married Mary's older sister. Eight children are attributed to Daniel and Mary's union. The family farmed in Nemaha County for some twenty years before moving to Custer County.

Daniel, 57, died of a stroke on May 1, 1915 in Custer County, Nebraska and was buried in the Lomax (now Viola) Cemetery in Oconto, Custer County, Nebraska. He was survived

Sudden Death of D. M. Branstiter

The death of D. M. Branstiter, a well-known resident of this part of the county occurred very suddenly on last Saturday as the result of a stroke of paralysis. Death came as a great shock to his many friends and acquaintances, as he had been sick only a short time, and not considered dangerously ill. Mr. Branstiter was well liked by all who knew him and many and sincere were the expressions of regret that he should thus be taken when having scarcely reached the zenith of a very useful life.

Funeral services were conducted from Evangelical Church at Lomax, Nebr Monday afternoon at 1:30. Charles A. Shook, minister of the Christian Church at Eddyville officiating, assisted by Rev. Richards of Lomax, after which interment was made in the Lomax Cemetery.

- iv. CHARLES LESLEY HORN was born on 10 May 1864 in Peru, Nemaha Co., Neb.. He died on 16 Sep 1951 in Lexington, Dawson Co., Neb. (age 87). He married Maud Faulkner, daughter of James Addison Faulkner and Sara Helen Rolston, on 21 Dec 1887 in Nemaha Co., Neb.. She was born on 29 Oct 1869 in Lancaster Co., Neb.. She died on 02 Jan 1960 in Nebraska (age 89).

Notes for Charles Lesley Horn:

The Custer County Chief, Monday, July 23, 1951

John Milton Horn, 80

Father of 17 children, came in 1906 to ranch in Custer County.

Funeral services for John Milton Horn, who died July 15, 1951 at a hospital here in Broken Bow, Nebraska, were held on Tuesday afternoon, July 17, 1951 at the Schneringer and Johnson Funeral Home, conducted by Rev. Albert C. Monkman of the Methodist Church here.

Singers were Mrs. Leslie Horn and Mrs. Wilber Horn, accompanied by Mrs. Austin Sleicher.

Pall bearers were Austin Sleicher, Gus Molar, Bob Weatherly, Phil Tierney, Leonard Glendy and George Wallace. Burial was at Cumro, Nebraska.

The son of Harriet and John Horn, John Milton Horn was born on February 4, 1871 at Brock, Nebraska.

He moved to Custer County, Nebraska in 1906, and he had lived for nearly 40 years near Oconto, Nebraska. His entire life was devoted to farming and ranching.

In 1894 at Brock, Nebraska, he had married to Caroline Walter. They had four children, two of whom are dead. She died in September of 1901.

In 1907, he married Mable Gertrude Mason who died in June of 1931. They had 12 children: Homer Horn of Oconto, Nebraska, Mrs. Earl Mowrey of Oconto, Nebraska, Lyle Horn of Broken Bow, Nebraska, Mrs. Fred Howell of Broken Bow, Mrs. Kenneth Seriff of North Platte, Nebraska, Gerald Horn of Lexington, Nebraska, Mrs. Al Walmer of Pratt, Kansas, Arlie Horn of Tacoma, Washington, Mrs. William Allie of Puyallup, Washington, John Horn of Lusk, Wyoming, Mrs. William Wade of Kemmerer, Wyoming and Mrs. Ted (Harriett) Huffaker now of Tacoma, Washington; by 34 grandchildren; also by two brothers, Charlie Horn of Lexington, Nebraska and U. S. Horn of Eddyville, Nebraska.

Two daughters, Mrs. James C. Huffaker and Mary Alice Horn, and 3 sons, Edward, Herbert and Albert Horn, preceded him in death. His niece, Mrs. John (Gertrude Horn) French died only this July 10, 1951.

Notes for Caroline A. Walter:

Caroline, her mother, and many of Caroline's siblings died at an early age.

Notes for Mable Gertrude Mason:

Mable is said to have been in poor health for some time prior to her death on the farm. The obituary printed in the Custer County Chief states that she committed suicide. From the wording of the obituary it appears that she did not die immediately as two doctors from neighboring towns were summoned to the Horn's farm.

Custer County Shief

Mrs. J. M. Horn who resided six miles southeast of Callaway, Nebraska, about, on a farm in the Lodi area, committed suicide, about 4 p.m. Monday afternoon on the farm. She had been in poor health for some time. Her husband reached her, but too late, even though Dr. Wade, Oconto, and Dr. Roy Bryson of Callaway, were called. She was the mother of ten children and about middle-age.

nee Mable Gertrude Mason, she was born on March 9, 1886 at Beatrice, Nebraska, and she departed this life on June 1, 1931, at the age of 45 years, two months and 22 days.

She lived with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren T. Mason of Cumro, Custer County, Nebraska, until the date of marriage, and when a child, she moved to Cumro with them. She was loved by everyone.

On March 10, 1907, she was united in marriage to John Milton Horn, aslo of Cumro, where they lived until six years ago, when with his family, they moved to the home where they now resided at Lodi. To this union ten children were born, Gerald E. Horn, Irma, Mrs. Eloise Hyland, John, Lyle, Dick, Lita, Betty, Martha Jean and JoAnn, all of whom are still living.

She became an active member of the Baptist Church near Cumro, and she was still a member at the time of her death. Only those who are mothers and those who really knew Elzy, 69, died May 23, 1943 at his home in the Buckeye community south of Broken Bow in Custer County, Nebraska and was buried as "Elsy F. Horn" in the Lafayette Cemetery in Brock, Nemaha County, Nebraska.

The Custer County Chief, Thursday, May 27, 1943

Elzy F. Horn

Elzy F. Horn, 69, farmer residing several miles south of Broken Bow in the Buckeye community, passed away at his home early Sunday morning from injuries received about noon Friday of last week when the tractor he was operating went over a 20 foot embankment. Mr. Horn had been a resident of the county since 1939.

Just what caused the tragic accident is not known. Will Horn, a nephew, was listing corn in the same field but apparently did not see the accident occur. He found his uncle at the bottom of the embankment, badly injured, when he went to investigate.

Elzy Floyd Horn was born April 15, 1874, at Peru, Nebraska. On September 20, 1896, he was united in marriage to Miss Laura Sapp. They made their home in the eastern part of the state until 1939 when they moved to this part of Nebraska. They resided on a farm a few miles southwest of Anselmo until moving to the farm south of Broken Bow this spring.

Four children were born to this union: Gertrude Mae, Elzy Everett, Gladys Viola who passed away in 1917, and Edgar Charles who died in infancy.

Mr. Horn spent his entire life in farming. In 1901, he united with the Christian Church at Brock, Nebraska, and for the past 50 years he was a member of the Masonic Lodge at Brock.

Surviving, besides his wife, are his two children, Mrs. Gertrude Mae French of Hastings and Elzy Everett, who is in the service and located in Alaska; one granddaughter, Mrs. Vilola Savidge of Los Angeles, California; four brothers, Charles of Lexington, U. S. Horn and Richard Horn of Eddyville and Milt of Broken Bow.

Funeral services were conducted at the Schneringer & Johnson Funeral Home on Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. Lester Guldner, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, 277. MARY ANN<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (William L.<sup>4</sup> Jr., William<sup>3</sup>, David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born about 1818 in Harrison Co., Va. (now Taylor Co., W.V.). She died after 1880. She married Solomon Ryan, son of Thomas Ryan and Hannah Harris, on 03 Oct 1839 in Harrison Co., Va. (now W.V.). He was born on 24 Jun 1815 in Harrison Co., Va. (now Taylor Co., W.V.). He died on 01 Dec 1856 in Taylor Co., Va. (now W.V.) (age 41).

Notes for Mary Ann Rolston:

Mary Ann Rolston was born about 1818 in Harrison County, Virginia (now Taylor County, West Virginia) the elder of two children and only daughter born to William L. Rolston Jr. and Druzilla Anna Coplin. On October 6, 1823 Mary's father died; she was but five years old. Her mother and the family remained in Harrison County.

On October 3, 1839 in Harrison County, Virginia (now Taylor County, West Virginia), Mary Jane Rolston married Solomon Ryan. Seven children were born to the couple. In 1844, portions of Harrison County became part of the newly formed Taylor County. Mary, her husband, and their four children were enumerated in the 1850 census of Taylor County of then Virginia. Six years later, Mary's husband died on December 1, 1856 in Taylor County at the age of 41. Mary was pregnant with the couple's seventh child at the time of his death.

Mary remained in Taylor County, living there through the Civil War, and watching West Virginia become the 35th state of the union on June 20, 1863. In the 1870 census, Mary was the head of the household. Her oldest son Thomas had married, and there was one grandchild along with four other of her own

Mary is assumed to have remained in Taylor County, West Virginia; her date and place of death and burial are unknown. She is thought to have been buried in the Middleville Cemetery in Middleville, Taylor County, West Virginia.

Notes for Solomon Ryan:

Solomon Ryan was born June 24, 1815 in Harrison County, Virginia (now Taylor County, West Virginia), the sixth of seven children born to Thomas Ryan and Hannah Harris.

On October 3, 1839 in Harrison County, Virginia (now West Virginia), Solomon married Mary Ann Rolston. The couple farmed. Six children were born to the couple. The area of Harrison County where the family resided became part of the newly formed Taylor County in 1844.

Solomon, 41, preceded his wife in death on December 1, 1856 in Taylor County, Virginia (now West Virginia), and was buried in the Middleville Cemetery in Middleville, Taylor County, West Virginia. Mary was pregnant with their seventh child at the time of Solomon's death.

Solomon Ryan and Mary Ann Rolston had the following children:

- i. HANNAH J.<sup>6</sup> RYAN was born on 15 Dec 1841 in Harrison Co., Va. (now Taylor Co., W.V.). She died on 06 Jul 1878 in Harrison Co., W.V. (age 36). She married John B. Golden, son of Willis W. Golden and Margaret McCann, on 15 Mar 1870 in Taylor Co., W.V.. He was born on 31 Oct 1826 in Harrison Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 17 Mar 1904 in Knox Co., Mo. (age 77).

Notes for Hannah J. Ryan:

Hannah J. Ryan was born December 15, 1841 in Harrison County, Virginia (now Taylor County, West Virginia), the eldest of seven children born to Solomon Ryan and Mary Ann Rolston. In 1844, portions of Harrison County became part of the newly formed Taylor County. Hannah's father died in 1856, shortly before Hannah's 15th birthday. In 1863 Taylor County, Virginia became West Virginia.

On March 15, 1870 in Taylor County, West Virginia, Hannah married the widower Rev. John B. Golden. Five children are attributed to their union.

Hannah, 36, preceded her husband in death on July 6, 1878 in Harrison County, West Virginia, dying a year after the birth of her fifth child. Her place of burial is unknown.

Notes for John B. Golden:

Rev. John B. Golden was born October 31, 1826 in Harrison County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the youngest of three sons known to have been born to Willis W. Golden and Margaret McCann. His mother died shortly after John's birth or within the next two years, and his father remarried in 1828. Half-siblings from his father's second marriage are unknown.

John was twice married. On March 11, 1860 in Harrison County, Virginia (now West Virginia), John married Virginia Eleanor Ryan. Children from their union are unknown. His wife Eleanor died on January 17, 1868 at the age of 33.

On March 15, 1870 in Taylor County, West Virginia, John married Hannah J. Ryan. Hannah was likely a cousin of his 1st wife. From their union, six children were born. John and family were enumerated in the 1870 census of Simpson Township in Harrison County, Virginia. Living with the family was Asenith Golden, age 93, born about 1777 in Virginia. Although her relationship to John is unknown, Asenith is assumed to have been his aunt.

John's second wife, Hannah, died in 1878 after the birth of their sixth child. The widowed John and his children were enumerated in the 1880 census of Simpson Township, Harrison County, West Virginia:

Jno. B. Golden	Self	W	Male	W	53	VA	Minister Gospel	VA	IRE

About 1885, the Rev. Golden moved the family to Knox County, Missouri.

John, 77, died March 17, 1904 in Knox County, Missouri, and was buried in the Harmony Grove Church cemetery in Gorin, Scotland County, Missouri.

- ii. THOMAS BENTON RYAN was born on 16 Mar 1844 in Virginia (now W.V.). He died on 24 Oct 1883 in Taylor Co., W.V. (age 39). He married Rebecca Ann McDonald, daughter of John McDonald and Nancy Vartlett, on 10 Oct 1867 in Taylor Co., W.V.. She was born in 1844 in Virginia (now W.V.). She died in 1878 in Taylor Co., W.V. (age ~34).

Notes for Thomas Benton Ryan:

Rev. Thomas Benton Ryan was born March 16, 1844 in Taylor County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the second of seven children and eldest son born to Solomon Ryan and Mary Ann Rolston. Thomas was about twelve years old in 1856 when his father died. Working the family farm fell on his shoulders along with his mother's and perhaps his younger brother, William, who was but nine or ten years old. The Civil War broke out in 1861, and Thomas was a sergeant in Company C of the 4th West Virginia Infantry. On June 20, 1863 West Virginia became the 35th state of the Union.

On October 10, 1867 in Taylor County, West Virginia, Thomas married Rebecca Ann McDonald, and the couple resided on his mother's farm. By the 1870 census, the couple had had one child, a daughter named Gladys, age 2. All but two of Thomas's six siblings were still living at home. Sisters Hannah and Emiline were not present and are assumed to have married. Three more children were born to the couple.

Thomas's wife died in 1878, and Thomas sent their four children to live with their maternal grandparents, John and Nancy McDonald. In the 1880 census of Booths Creek in Taylor County, West Virginia, Thomas was a 35 year old widower. Thomas, along with his mother, were residing with his youngest sister, Mrs. Frances Curry, and her husband James P. Curry. Thomas and Rebecca's four children were also residing in Booths Creek but with their maternal grandparents. Thomas was a farmer and preacher.

Thomas, 39, died October 24, 1883 in Taylor County, West Virginia, and joined his wife in the Middleville Cemetery in Middleville, Taylor County, West Virginia.

Notes for Rebecca Ann McDonald:

Rebecca McDonald was born in 1844 in Virginia (now West Virginia), the daughter of John McDonald and Nancy Bartlett.

- iii. WILLIAM L. RYAN was born on 03 Sep 1846 in Taylor Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 01 Aug 1889 in Knox Co., Mo. (age 42). He married Nancy Elizabeth Stark, daughter of William Stark and Sarah, on 04 May 1871 in Taylor Co., W.V.. She was born on 21 May 1843 in Virginia (now W.V.). She died on 09 Oct 1915 in Scotland Co., Mo. (age 72).

Notes for William L. Ryan:

William L. [Love?] Ryan was born September 3, 1846 in Taylor County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the third of seven children born to Solomon Ryan and Mary Ann Rolston. He was probably named after his maternal grandfather, William L. Rolston. William's father died in 1856 when William was about ten years old. William was enumerated during the 1870 census of Taylor County, West Virginia. He was 23 years old, single, and still living at home.

On May 4, 1871 in Taylor County, West Virginia, William married Nancy Elizabeth Stark. Three children were born to their union. The family remained in Taylor county until sometime after 1877 and the death of wife Nancy's father, Mr. William Stark. By 1880 they had removed to northeast Missouri where the family was enumerated on their farm in the 1880 census of the Sand Hill Township of Scotland County, Missouri:

Wm. L. Ryan	Self	M	Male	W	33	WV	Farmer	WV	WV
Nancy E. Ryan	Wife	M	Female	W	37	WV	Keep House	WV	WV

Sarah A Ryan	Dau	S	Female	W	5	WV		WV	WV
Wm. T. Ryan	Son	S	Male	W	4	WV		WV	WV

The family then removed to Knox County, Missouri.

William, age 42, died on August 1, 1889 in Knox County, Missouri, and was buried in the Harmony Grove Cemetery in Knox County. He was survived by his wife and their three children.

Notes for Nancy Elizabeth Stark:

Nancy Elizabeth Stark was born May 21, 1843 in Virginia (now West Virginia), the third of seven children known to have been born to William and Sarah Stark. The family was enumerated in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia) in 1850 and neighboring Pleasants County in 1860. By 1870 the family had moved to Taylor County.

On May 4, 1871 in Taylor County, West Virginia, Nancy married William L. Ryan, by which three children were born. Sometime after the birth of their third child, the family moved to Scotland County, Missouri where they were enumerated in the 1880 census. The family removed to Knox County where her husband died in 1889. Nancy and the two younger children were enumerated in the 1900 census of Benton Township in Knox County, Missouri. Nancy listed herself as married eventhough her husband was deceased. In the 1910 census she was enumerated as widowed.

Nancy, 72, died October 9, 1915 in Scotland County, Missouri of chronic interstitial nephritis (inflammation of the kidney) from which she had suffered for six months. She was buried with her husband in the Harmony Grove Cemetery in Knox County, Missouri.

- iv. EMILINE VIRGINIA RYAN was born on 24 Jul 1848 in Taylor Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died on 22 Jan 1889 in Meadland, Taylor Co., W.V. (age 40). She married George Lyons Hertzog, son of Andrew Hyson Hertzog and Elizabeth Lyons, on 24 Dec 1868 in Taylor Co., W.V.. He was born on 12 May 1846 in Taylor Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 09 Jul 1927 in Shinnston, Harrison Co., W.V. (age 81).

Notes for Emiline Virginia Ryan:

Emiline "Emma" Virginia Ryan was born July 24, 1848 in Taylor County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the fourth of seven children born to Solomon Ryan and Mary Ann Rolston.

On Christmas Eve 1868 in Taylor County, West Virginia, Emiline married George Lyons Hertzog. The couple remained in Taylor County after their marriage, and five children had been born to the couple by the time they were enumerated during the 1880 census. Emiline was 31 years of age at the time of the census. Her sixth child was born the following year.

In 1883 Mrs. E.V. Hertzog, sister, reported the death of her brother, Thomas B. Ryan.

According to the Taylor County, West Virginia death records (page 22, line 37) "Emma Hertzog" died in Meadland, West Virginia at the age of 42 on January 22, 1889 of consumption, a disease she had suffered with for the previous 20 years. She was buried in the Hepzibah Cemetery in Taylor County, West Virginia. Emma's age at death, according to her death record, was 42 years, 5 months and 28 days; she was actually 40 years old at the time of her death.

Notes for George Lyons Hertzog:

George Lyons Hertzog was born May 17, 1846 in Taylor County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the son of Andrew Hyson Hertzog and Elizabeth Lyons, both born in Pennsylvania.

On Christmas Eve, 1868 in Taylor County, West Virginia, George married Emiline "Emma" V. Ryan of Taylor County, West Virginia. The couple farmed in Taylor County. In the 1870 census they were residing next door to George's parents. Six children were born to their union. The family was enumerated on their farm in the 1880 census of Booths Creek Township in Taylor County, West Virginia:

George Hertzog	Self	M	Male	W	34	WV	Farmer		PA	PA
Emeline Hertzog		Wife	M	Female	W	31	WV	Keeping House	WV	WV

Virginia and was buried in the Hepzibah Cemetery in Taylor County, West Virginia. His death was reported by Clyde Hertzog, his youngest son from his first wife.

- v. ELIZABETH A. RYAN was born about 1852 in Taylor Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died after 1880. She married Archibald R. Hopkins, son of James Hopkins and Elizabeth Ann Copeland, on 28 Sep 1873 in Taylor Co., W.V.. He was born in Nov 1845 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 25 Feb 1911 in Chicago, Cook Co., Ill. (age 65).

Notes for Elizabeth A. Ryan:

Elizabeth A. Ryan was born about 1852 in Taylor County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the fifth of seven children born to Solomon Ryan and Mary Ann Rolston. Her father died when she was a young child. In 1863 Taylor County became part of the newly formed state of West Virginia. Elizabeth was enumerated at the age of 18 during the 1870 census of Taylor County, West Virginia.

On September 28, 1873 in Taylor County, West Virginia, Elizabeth married Archibald R. Hopkins, a second cousin, once removed. Their daughter, Estella, was born in 1875 in Taylor County, West Virginia. The family removed to Three Oaks Township of Berrien County, Michigan where Elizabeth was enumerated in the 1880 census at the age of 28. He husband is known to have moved to Indiana. It is not known if Elizabeth and their daughter moved with him.

Elizabeth is assumed to have died soon after the 1880 census; however, there is the possibility that the couple simply divorced. Her husband remarried in 1883 in Indiana.

Notes for Archibald R. Hopkins:

Archibald R. Hopkins was born in November of 1845 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the younger of two children known to have been born to James Hopkins and Elizabeth Ann Copeland.

The family was enumerated in the 1850 census of Rockingham County; living with the family was Archibald's Uncle David Hopkins. Archibald's father died, and the family was enumerated in the 1860 census of Kankakee Township in La Porte County, Indiana:

Elizabeth A Hopkins	F	53	Virginia
Josephine V Hickman	F	26	Virginia
Archibald R Hopkins	M	15	Virginia
Elizabeth Hickman	F	1	Indiana

On September 28, 1873 in Taylor County, West Virginia, Archibald, about age 28, married Elizabeth A. Ryan, his second cousin, once removed. The couple and their child removed to Michigan where they were enumerated on their farm in the 1880 census of Three Oaks Township of Berrien County, Michigan:

Archibale Hopkins	Self	M	35	Virginia

Archibald remained in Chicago through the 1910 census and died February 25, 1911 in Chicago at the age of 65 and was buried in Mount Hope Cemetery in Chicago. He was survived by his third wife; the widow Belle Hopkins died in the following month in Chicago.

- vi. ALICE A. RYAN was born on 28 Jul 1856 in Taylor Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died after 1870.

Notes for Alice A. Ryan:

Alice A. Ryan was born July 28, 1856 in Taylor County, Virginia, the sixth of seven children born to Solomon Ryan and Mary Ann Rolston. Her father died when she was four months old. In 1863 Taylor County become part of the newly formed state of West Virginia. Alice was last found at the age of 16 with her widowed mother during the 1870 census of Taylor County, West Virginia.

What became of Alice after 1870 is unknown. She may have reached adulthood and married and/or may have died before the 1880 census. [no marriage or death record found]

- vii. FRANCES M. RYAN was born on 23 Jan 1857 in Taylor Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died on 19 Mar 1886 in Taylor Co., W.V. (age 29). She married James Philander Currey, son of Nathan Currey and Elizabeth Dunkqur, on 15 Feb 1880 in Taylor Co., W.V.. He was born on 26 Feb 1855 in Taylor Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 07 Jan 1924 in Parsons, Tucker Co., W.V. (age 68).

Notes for Frances M. Ryan:

Frances M. [Mariah?] Ryan was born January 23, 1857 in Taylor County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the youngest of seven children born to Solomon Ryan and Mary Ann Rolston. [date of birth calculated from age at death] Frances was about nine months old when her father died in December of 1857.

On February 15, 1880 in Taylor County, West Virginia, Frances married James Philander Currey. They were enumerated in the 1880 Census of Booths Creek, Taylor County, West Virginia. Resideing with Frances and her husband was her widowed mother and one of Frances's older brothers.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Strusons. James and his wife Mary were enumerated in the 1900 census. His son Carl from his first wife was living with them; James and Mary had been married for twelve years but had no children.

James, 68, died January 7, 1924 in Parsons, Tucker County, West Virginia, and was buried in the Hepzibah Cemetery in Taylor County, West Virginia. James was survived by his second wife Mary, who died in December of that same year, and his son Carl, born by his first wife.

278. WILLIAM LATIMER<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (William L.<sup>4</sup> Jr., William<sup>3</sup>, David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born about 1824 in Harrison Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 27 Dec 1876 in Harrisburg, Saline Co., Ill. (age ~54). He married Maria Ellen Goslee, daughter of Job Goslee and Elizabeth Messick, on 27 Aug 1846 in Champaign Co., Ohio. She was born on 11 Sep 1823 in Champaign Co., Ohio. She died about 1874 in Harrisburg, Saline Co., Ill. (age ~51).

Notes for William Latimer Rolston:

William Latimer Rolston/Ralston was born about 1824 in Harrison County, Virginia (now West Virginia) the younger of two children and only son born to William L. Rolston Jr. and Druzilla Anna Coplin. William's father died October 6, 1823, perhaps before his son William's birth. Since his father died, William was not known as William Latimer Rolston, III. William, his sister, and his mother remained in Harrison County. About 1844, William moved to Ohio.

On August 27, 1846 in Champaign County, Ohio, William married Maria Ellen Goslee. The couple along with their first child were enumerated in the 1850 census of Shelby County, Ohio. William operated a tavern. Living with them at the time of the 1850 census was an orphaned cousin of William's wife, Spencer Messick, age 5. Over the course of the next ten years the couple had six children, one of which died in infancy.

Moving was something that William appeared to do frequently. Birth and marriage records for his children indicate that William lived in Auglaize, Champaign, Darke, Logan, and perhaps other counties in west-central Ohio before moving to Illinois sometime between 1871 and 1873.

According to the oral history passed down from Ira Bickham (Sr.) to his son Ira (Jr.), William Rolston was a teacher in the small town of West Liberty. West Liberty is located in south-central Logan County, Ohio, just a few miles north of the Champaign County line. They also lived around Alger in Hardin County, Ohio, according to this oral history. His residence in Logan County is confirmed by a property deed showing that William purchased land in West Liberty in 1863. William retained the deed to this property even after he moved away; selling it in 1874, about the time of his wife's death and only two years before his own death.

Rockingham County, Virginia, Deed Book 9, page 623, dated June 3rd, 1873, shows "Wm L. Ralston of Saline Co., Ill, late of Darke Co., O. the son of Wm Ralston dec'd...." This deed sold to cousin David H. Ralston interests William inherited from his father (also named William) from his brother Archibald Ralston; Archibald being this William's uncle.

William, about age 54, died December 17, 1876 in Harrisburg, Saline County, Illinois, and was buried some where in Saline County. The tombstone for William was found in a small cemetery in Saline County, Illinois, in 1922 by his grandson, Ira Bickham Sr. (1881-1973). The name of the cemetery is unknown. William's tombstone recorded his surname as RALSTON.

Notes for Maria Ellen Goslee:

Maria Ellen Goslee was born September 11, 1823 in Champaign County, Ohio, the third of ten children born to Job Goslee and Elizabeth Messick.

On August 27, 1846 in Champaign County, Ohio, Maria married William Latimer Rolston. Six children were born from their union. In addition to their children, for a period of years they raised Maria's younger first cousin, Spencer Messick, who had been orphaned at the age of three. Maria and the family lived in Ohio until shortly after 1870 when they removed to Harrisburg, Saline County, Illinois.

Maria preceded her husband in death about 1874 in Harrisburg, Saline County, Illinois. Her place of burial is unknown.

William Latimer Rolston and Maria Ellen Goslee had the following children:

- i. DRUZILLA ANN<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born about 1848 in Ohio. She died after 1887. She married (1) GEORGE W. HAVENS, son of John Havens and Elizabeth Pebbles, on 29 Feb 1872 in Darke Co., Ohio (S. J. Houston, J.P.). He was born in Jan 1847 in Ohio. He died on 13 Apr 1921 in Battle Creek, Calhoun Co., Mich. (age 74). She married (2) THOMAS GULLEY on 26 Mar 1879 in Saline Co., Ill.. He was born on 24 May 1804 in Tennessee. He died on 05 Sep 1887 in Mitchellsville, Saline Co., Ill. (age 83). She married (3) EDWARD KANE on 20 Nov 1887 in Saline Co., Ill..

Notes for Druzilla Ann Rolston:

Druzilla Ann Rolston was born about 1848 in Champaign or Shelby County, Ohio, the eldest of six children born to William Latimer Rolston and Maria Ellen Goslee. Druzilla was named after her paternal grandmother, Druzilla Anna Coplin. Druzilla was also known by her middle name, Ann or as Anna. She was the first born child, but the 1880 census places her birth year around 1853. Druzilla, about age 22, was not enumerated with her parents in 1870, her whereabouts unknown.

On February 29, 1872 in Darke County, Ohio, "Anna Rolston," about age 24, married George W. Havens, the first of three known husbands. It is not known how long she and husband George lived together before the couple divorced.

In 1873 Druzilla's father moved the family to Saline County, Illinois. Druzilla may have gone with the family or followed later, with or without husband George.

On March 26, 1879 in Saline County, Illinois, Druzilla married Thomas Gulley, her second husband. They were enumerated together in the 1880 census; she was age 27 and Thomas Gulley was age 74. The couple was living in Independence, Saline County, Illinois. Thomas was of advanced age and died in September of 1887.

On November 20, 1887 in Saline County, Illinois, Druzilla, about age 39, married Edward Kane, age unknown. He was her third husband. No children are known from any of Druzilla's marriages.

Nothing is known of Druzilla after her 3rd marriage.

Notes for George W. Havens:

George W. Haven was born in January of 1847 in Ohio, the son of John Havens and Elizabeth Pepple. George was enumerated in the 1870 census of Wabash Township, Darke County, Ohio, as a laborer, age 23, born in Ohio. He was living with Adam Cottrel, a carpenter, residing near the home of William L. Rolston and his family.

On February 29, 1872 in Darke County, Ohio, George married Druzilla Ann Rolston. No children are known to have been born to the couple. The couple later divorced.

On October 22, 1884 in Jay County, Indiana, George married Esther Burk. One child is known to have been born to their union. The couple was enumerated in the 1900 census of Pennville, Jay County, Indiana:

George Havens	Head	M	53	Ohio
Ester Havens	Wife	F	55	Indiana
William E Havens	Son	M	8	Indiana [William Elroy Havens Nov. 14, 1892 Westchester, Ind.]
William Havens	Brother	M	50	Ohio

George, 74, died April 13, 1921 in Battle Creek, Calhoun County, Michigan. His place of burial is unknown.

Notes for Thomas Gulley:

Thomas Gulley was born May 24, 1804 in Tennessee, the son of Thomas Wilson Gulley and Minerva A. Sanders.

On October 27, 1832 in Gallatin County, Illinois, Thomas married Permelia Cotton. A daughter is known to have been born to their union. Permelia is presumed to have died sometime after 1870.

On March 26, 1879 in Saline County, Illinois, Thomas married Druzilla Ann Rolston. She was previously married. They were enumerated in the 1880 census of the Independence Precinct of Saline County, Illinois:

Thomas Gulley	Self	M	74	Tennessee
Drusilla Gulley	Wife	F	27	Ohio

From the 1880 census, Thomas could read but not write.

Thomas was some 47 years Druzilla's senior and preceded her in death on September 5, 1887 in Mitchellsville, Saline County, Illinois, at the age of 83 years, 3 months and 12 days. He was buried in the Gulley Cemetery in Mitchellsville.

Notes for Edward Kane:

Nothing is known of Edward Kane beyond his 1887 marriage to the widowed Mrs. Druzilla Gulley, the former Miss Durzilla Ann Rolston. He was her third husband. The Illinois marriage record did not provide age nor place of birth for either party.

- ii. ELIZABETH JANE ROLSTON was born on 06 Aug 1850 in Shelby Co., Ohio. She died in 1918 in Logan Co., Ohio (age ~68). She married Robert J. Crockett, son of Cartmill C. Crockett and Celia Baird, on 25 Feb 1869 in Champaign Co., Ohio. He was born on 05 Sep 1845 in Ohio. He died on 17 Jun 1921 in Harrison Twp., Champaign Co., Ohio (age 75).

Notes for Elizabeth Jane Rolston:

Elizabeth Jane "Jennie" Rolston was born August 6, 1850 in Shelby County, Ohio, the second of six children born to William Latimer Rolston and Maria Ellen Goslee. Her date of birth comes from her tombstone, but she was likely born some months later as she was not enumerated with her parents in the 1850 census, taken on September 16, 1850. Shelby County birth records were not kept until 1867. Most of Elizabeth's childhood was spent in Logan County, Ohio. The family moved to Champaign County shortly before 1870.

On February 25, 1869 in Champaign County, Ohio, Elizabeth, age 18, married Robert J. Crockett. In the 1870 census Elizabeth and her husband were residing next door to her maternal uncle, George Goslee. Five children were born to the couple, but one died in early adulthood. The family was enumerated in Huntsville, McArthur Township, Logan County, Ohio, during the 1880 census. Sometime after the birth of daughter Bessie in 1881 and before the 1900 census, Elizabeth and her husband divorced. In 1900 Elizabeth was residing in Bellefontaine, Logan County, Ohio.

Jennie, about 68 years of age, died in 1918 in Logan County, Ohio, and was buried in the Greenwood Cemetery in De Graff, Logan County, Ohio.

Notes for Robert J. Crockett:

Robert J. Crockett was born September 5, 1845 in Ohio, the youngest of five children known to have been born to Cartmill C. Crockett and Celia Baird.

On February 25, 1869 in Champaign County, Ohio, Robert married Elizabeth Jane Rolston. The couple farmed. Five children were born to their union. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Huntsville, Logan County, Ohio:

Robert Crockett	Self	M	Male	W	35	OH	Works On A Farm	---	---
Jennie Crockett	Wife	M	Female	W	30	OH	Keeping House	VA	OH

Sometime after 1880 but before 1900, Robert and Elizabeth divorced. Neither remarried. Their eldest child, Minnie, died in 1895.

Robert was enumerated with his nephew in the 1910 census of Harrison Township of Champaign County, Ohio:

William B Crockett	Head	M	45	Ohio
Mary B Crockett	Wife	F	28	Ohio (1/1)
Robert Crockett	Uncle	M	69	Ohio (divorced)
Archie C Crockett	Setpson	M	13	Ohio

In the 1920 census of Logan County, Ohio, Robert was enumerated with his daughter, Mrs. Zoe Dillon.

Robert, 75, died June 17, 1921 in Harrison Township of Champaign County, Ohio, and was buried in the West Liberty Cemetery in Logan County, Ohio. The cemetery is now known as the Fairview Cemetery.

- iii. MARY CATHARINE ROLSTON was born on 26 Sep 1852 in Logan Co., Ohio. She died on 31 Jan 1912 in McDonald Twp., Hardin Co., Ohio (age 59). She married David Lawrence Bickham, son of George Washington Bickham and Deborah Cochran, on 21 Jan 1880 in Logan Co., Ohio. He was born on 07 Aug 1850 in McArthur twp., Logan Co., Ohio. He died on 14 May 1928 in Bellefontaine, Logan Co., Ohio (age 77).

Notes for Mary Catharine Rolston:

Mary "Mollie" Catharine Rolston was born September 26, 1852 in Logan County, Ohio, the third of six children born to William Latimer Rolston and Maria Ellen Goslee. In later years, Mary was known as Molly or Aunt Molly. Mary is not shown living with her family in the 1870 census in Darke County, Ohio. She would have been about eighteen at this time. It is not know where or with whom she was living with during this census period.

On January 21, 1880 in Logan County, Ohio, Mary, age 27, married David Lawrence Bickham, age 29. They were both natives of Logan County, Ohio. The couple farmed and raised a family of seven children. Their first child died at birth and another died at age 3. Nothing is known of the other deceased child. The remaining four children grew to adulthood.

A photograph taken of Mary reveals that she had dark curly hair and light colored eyes (probably blue).

Mary, 59, died of Chylous Ascites on January 31, 1912 in Hardin County, Ohio, and was buried in the Roundhead Cemetery in Roundhead, Hardin County, Ohio. She was survived by her husband and four of their seven children.

Notes for David Lawrence Bickham:

David Lawrence Bickham was born August 7, 1850 in McArthur Township, Logan County, Ohio, the fourth of seven children born to George Washington Bickham and Deborah Cochran. David and his brothers were tall and lean. Unlike his brothers, David lost the majority of his hair by age 50 and only had hair on the sides of his head.

On January 21, 1880 in Logan County, Ohio, David, age 29, married Mary Catharine Rolston, age 27. The couple farmed in Logan County and had seven children. Their first child, an unnamed son, died at birth. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of Logan County, Ohio, living next door to his brother Albert (Alfred). Living with his brother was their widowed mother, Mrs. Deborah Bickham. Mary, David's wife of nearly 32 years, died January 31, 1912 at the age of 59.

On April 20, 1918 in Bellefontaine, Logan County, Ohio, David, age 67, married the widowed Mrs. Mary E. Hill, the former Miss Mary Elizabeth Bushong. Mary was about 66, well past her childbearing years, and no children were born to the couple. David retired from farming.

On May 13, 1928, David suffered a cerebral hemorrhage. He died the following afternoon in Bellefontaine, Logan County, Ohio, and was buried as D. L. Bickham in the Roundhead Cemetery in Roundhead, Hardin County, Ohio. The Certificate of Death notes a "Clinical History" concerning high blood pressure. According to his grandson, Ira Bickham Jr., the Bickhams had a family history of high blood pressure. David was survived by four of his seven children.

- iv. MARGARET JOSINA ROLSTON was born on 26 Jul 1855 in Auglaize Co., Ohio. She died on 01 Mar 1939 in Elwood, Madison Co., Ind. (age 83). She married William H. Trissell, son of Joseph Trissel and Rachel Garwood, on 04 Sep 1871 in Darke Co., Ohio. He was born on 14 Jun 1848 in Montgomery Co., Ohio. He died on 29 Oct 1926 in Muncie, Delaware Co., Ind. (age 78).

Notes for Margaret Josina Rolston:

Margaret "Magge" Josina Rolston was born July 26, 1855 in Auglaize County, Ohio, the fourth of six children born to William Latimer Rolston and Maria Ellen Goslee. Later in life she was known as Aunt Mag. Her parents resided in Logan County, Ohio at the time of Margaret's birth, and it is not know why she was born in neighboring Auglaizo County, Ohio. Margaret lived with her family in Logan County until 1870 when they moved to Darke County, some 100 miles west of Logan County.

The following year, on September 4, 1871 in Darke County, Ohio, Margaret married William H. Trissell. Margaret's family moved onto Illinois in 1873, but Margaret and her husband remained in Darke County until sometime between 1881 and 1884, when they also removed to Illinois. The youngest two of their six children where born there. Sometime after 1888 the couple moved to Indiana where they remained until their deaths. William, Margaret's husband of 55 years, died October 29, 1926 at the age of 84. In the 1930 census the widowed Margaret was enumerated with her son Fredinand in Muncie, Delaware County, Indiana.

Margaret, 83, died March 1, 1939 in Elwood, Madison County, Indiana, and was buried in the Elwood Cemetery in Elwood.

Notes for William H. Trissell:

William H. Trissel was born June 14, 1848 in Montgomery County, Ohio, the third of eleven children born to Joseph Trissel and Rachel Garwood. William's father was a carpenter and wagon builder. His father passed down his carpentry skills to his son William. His father moved the family to Darke County, Ohio, sometime after 1850. William was enumerated there during the 1870 census, living next door is his Uncle David Trissel.

On September 4, 1871 in Darke County, Ohio, William married Margaret Josina Rolston. The couple had six children. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Twin Township in Darke County, Ohio:

William Trisel VA	Self OH	M	Male	W	31	OH	Cabinet Maker
Margret Trisel VA	Wife PA	M	Female		W	23	OH Keeping House

Between 1881 and 1884 the family removed to Illinois and later moved to Indiana where they were enumerated in the 1900 census of Elwood, Madison County, Indiana.

William, 78, preceded his wife in death on October 29, 1926 in Muncie, Delaware County, Indiana, and was buried in the Beech Grove Cemetery in Muncie. His tombstone gives his year of birth as 1847.

- v. FLORENCE ADA ROLSTON was born about 1856 in Auglaize Co., Ohio. She died before 1860 in Auglaize Co., Ohio.

Notes for Florence Ada Rolston:

Florence Ada Rolston was born about 1856 in Auglaize County, Ohio, the fifth of six children born to William Latimer Rolston and Maria Ellen Goslee.

Florence, who would have been about 4 years of age, was not enumerated in the 1860 census with the rest of the family, and it is presumed that she was deceased.

- vi. NANCY AUGUSTA ROLSTON was born on 01 Sep 1857 in Auglaize Co., Ohio. She died on 14 Jan 1936 in Chicago, Cook Co., Ill. (age 78). She married Fredrick Julius Stahl about 1877 in Saline Co., Illinois. He was born on 25 Mar 1847 in Germany. He died on 31 Aug 1912 in Chicago, Cook Co., Ill. (age 65).

Notes for Nancy Augusta Rolston:

Nancy Augusta Rolston was born September 1, 1857 in Auglaize County, Ohio, the youngest of six children born to William Latimer Rolston and Maria Ellen Goslee. She was known by her middle name, Augusta. Her great nephew Ira R. Bickham, Jr. (born 1929), remembers Nancy as Aunt Gus, obviously a nickname taken from Augusta, her middle name. Her parents moved the family to Illinois where both died in the mid-1870's. Nancy was about 15 years old when her parents died, and with whom she stayed after their deaths is unknown.

About 1877 in Saline County, Illinois, Nancy married Ferdinandus (AKA Fredrick or Ferdinand) Julius Stahl. The couple and their first child were enumerated in the 1880 census of the 6th Ward of Rockford, Winnebago County, Illinois, west of Chicago:

F. J. Stahl	Self	M	Male	W	33	GER	Wood Carver	GER	GER
Augusta Stahl	Wife	M	Female	W	22	OH	Keeps House	VA	OH
Charles Stahl	Son	S	Male	W	2	IN		GER	OH

Six children were born to the couple. Two died before 1900. One son and three daughters survived to adulthood. The three daughters were born in Tennessee and Kentucky. In their later years the family lived in Chicago. During the 1910 census of Chicago Cook County, Illinois, Augusta was enumerated with her daughters Tennessee and Mable. Although her husband was still living, Augusta was enumerated as widowed; a common practice among divorced women.

Augusta Stahl	Head	F	40	Ohio (widowed)
Tennessee Stahl	Daughter	F	24	Tennessee (single)
Mable Stahl	Daughter	F	18	Kentucky (single)

Her daughter Tennessee remained at home until Augusta's death.

Augusta, 78, died January 14, 1936 in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, and was buried as Augusta Stahl in the Oak Woods Cemetery in Chicago.

home in Chicago. Funeral and burial services were held there last week.

Mrs. Stahl, who was formerly a resident of this city, is survived by a son, William L. Stahl of Tennessee; and two daughters, Mrs. Josephine Rush, and Miss Mabel Stahl.

Notes for Fredrick Julius Stahl:

Ferdinandus Julius (AKA Fredrick or Ferdinand) Stahl was born in March of 1847 in Germany, the son of William Stahl. His parents were both German. When the family immigrated to the U.S. is not known. He served during the Civil War from 1863 to 1865 as a seaman aboard the USS Curlew, a gunboat that patrolled the Mississippi River.

In the 1870 census, Private Frederick Stahl, age 24, was enumerated in the Army barracks in Fort Riley, Davis County, Kansas. He served in Company K of the 1st U.S. Artillery. He finished his military service in 1874.

About 1877 in Saline County, Illinois, Fredrick married Nancy August Rolston. Fredrick was a wood carver by trade. Six children were born to the couple; two died before 1900. The family lived in Kentucky and Tennessee for a period of time. Their later years were spent in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois where he and his wife separated and divorced between 1900 and 1910.

Fredrick, 65, died August 31, 1912 in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois and was buried in the Oak Woods Cemetery in Chicago.

Notes for Archibald Rufus Rolston Sr.:

Archibald Rufus Rolston Sr. was born August 26, 1818 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the eldest of eight children born to Nathan Rolston and Sarah Harness. He was a lifelong resident of the Wood County area.

On January 9, 1842 in Wood County, Virginia, Archibald, age 23, married Maria Ambler. The couple remained in Wood County where Archibald made his livelihood as a farmer. In the 1850 Wood County census Archibald and his family were living next door to his father. Their only child, son John, was age 5. This would put son John's, birth at 1845; however, John H. was born in 1843 according to his gravestone.

Archibald was enumerated in the 1860 census for Wood County, West Virginia as Rufus Rolston with son John H., age 14, two house-keepers / servants, one farm laborer, and an elder lady of 84 years named Nancy Shultz. The farm was located next to that of his father's, Nathan Rolston. Maria was not present during this census and is presumed to be deceased although there is no record of her death. In 1863 Archibald registered for the Civil War draft. He was 44 and single.

On April 5, 1867 in Pleasants County, West Virginia, Archibald married Mrs. Theresa G. (Irvin) Core, widow of attorney C. W. Core. A son was born to the couple in 1869. Theresa died March 31, 1870 of consumption, and Archibald was once again a widower. Archibald, age 51, and sons John H., age 24, and Archibald Jr., age 9 months, were enumerated in the 1870 census of the Union District of Wood County, West Virginia, along with their housekeeper, Aldrelda Conkle, age 38.

Wm. Conkle, alias Swench, the man who, says the Marietta Times, it is charged made a cannon out of a piece of well tubing and fired a half peck of [peck=8 quarts] slugs and bolts through Rufus Rolston's house, near the mouth of Bull Creek, a few weeks since, was indicted by the Grand Jury.

William Conkle is assumed to have been related to Aldrelda Conkle, the Rolston family's housekeeper.

Archibald, 64, died April 24, 1883 in the Union District of Wood County, West Virginia. His place of burial is unknown but would have been somewhere in the Waverly area in Wood County. He was survived by his two sons, his father, two sisters and four brothers.

Notes for Maria Ambler:

Maria Ambler was born about 1821 in the state of New York. Her parentage is not known nor the circumstances of her move to Wood County, Virginia.

On January 9, 1842 in Wood County, Virginia, Maria married Archibald Rufus Rolston. The couple had one child. In the 1850 census of Wood County, Virginia, Nancy Shultz, age 70 and born in New York, was living with the family. Nancy's relationship to Maria, if any, is unknown.

It is not known what became of Maria. She was enumerated in the 1850 census but was not present in the household during the 1860 census. There is no known record of her death between these two dates.

In the 1860 census of Wood County, Nancy Shultz, age 84, was still residing with Archibald, but she [Mrs. Nancy Schultz, the former Miss Nancy De La Van] died in May of the following year.

Archibald Rufus Rolston Sr. and Maria Ambler had the following child:

- i. JOHN HENRY<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 09 May 1843 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 07 Feb 1921 in Willow Island, Pleasants Co., W.V. (age 77). He married Harriett Mari Irwin, daughter of James Irwin and Alvira Johnson, on 01 Sep 1870 in Pleasants Co., W.V.. She was born on 14 Aug 1848 in Pleasants Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died on 13 Jan 1919 in Willow Island, Pleasants Co., W.V. (age 70).

Notes for John Henry Rolston:

John Henry Rolston was born May 9, 1843 in Wood County, Virginia, the son and only child of Archibald Rufus Rolston and Maria Ambler. John's mother died sometime between 1850 and 1860. His father would take a second wife in 1867 and, John would have one half-brother. The 1850 Wood County census shows John, age 5. This would put John's birth at 1845; however, John H. was born in 1843 according to his son James' Bible and this year also appears on his tombstone. John resided in Wood County during his childhood.

On September 1, 1870 in Pleasants County, West Virginia, John married Harriett Mari Irwin. The couple lived in Pleasants County. Like most who lived in the area, John was a farmer, but he may not have been a prosperous farmer in the earlier days. In the 1880 census of Pleasants County, West Virginia, John, wife Harriett and their two sons were enumerated with his father-in-law, James Irwin. Harriett gave birth her third and last child, another son, in 1881. They later adopted a girl known as Ella.

In March of 1897, John and Harriet along with W.F. Curtis and Mary A. Curtis leased land to Thomas Campbell for $235 for the purpose of oil and gas operations in Pleasants county.

Harriett, John's wife of forty years, died January 13, 1919.

John, 74, died February 7, 1921 at his home in Willow Island, Pleasants County, West Virginia and was buried in the Johnson Cemetery in Pleasants County. His obituary did not mention surviving family members. He was survived by his three sons. What became of his adopted daughter is unknown. Also surviving was John's half-brother, Archibald.

St. Marys Oracle, Thursday, February 10, 1921, page five.

JOHN H. ROLSTON

John H. Rolston, aged 74 years, died at his home at Willow Island on Sunday, February 6. The funeral will be held today at the Johnson Cemetery. The deceased had been in poor health for several years. He was one of the leading citizens of Grant district and very highly regarded by his neighbors.

Notes for Harriett Mari Irwin:

Harriett "Hattie" Mari Irwin was born August 14, 1848 in Pleasants County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the eldest and only surviving child of the three children known to have been born to James Irwin and Alvira Johnson. Harriett's date of birth is uncertain. Census records show her as born in August of 1850. Death records confirm this year by her age at the time of death. 1850, however, is believed to be incorrect as it precedes the birth of Harriett's sister by only 5 months. Cemetery records show her birth year as 1845 and, the family Bible of her grandson, James Rufus Rolston, Jr., list her this year of birth as 1846, almost a year before the marriage of her parents.

On September 1, 1870 in Pleasants County, West Virginia, Harriett married John Henry Rolston of Pleasants County. Harriett was already related to the Rolston family by marriage. Her paternal Aunt Agnes (Agnes Polly Irwin) married George Wilson Rolston. Harriett and John were lifelong residents of the county, raising four children. They had three sons and then adopted a girl named Ella who was born in Maine.

According to the death records of Pleasants County, Harriett, 68, died of paralysis on January 13, 1919 at her home in Willow Island, Pleasants County, West Virginia. She was buried in the Johnson Cemetery in Pleasants County, West Virginia.

St. Marys Oracle, January 23, 1919, page five.

HARRIET M. IRWIN ROLSTON

Harriett M. wife of John H. Rolston, died at her home at Willow on Monday, January 13, at the age of 67 years. Rev. S. Scollay Moore of Parkersburg conducted the funeral services on Thursday, January 16, and the remains were interred in the Willow Island Cemetery. The deceased was a member of the Episcopal Church and a lifelong resident of Grant district.

She is survived by her husband and three sons Hugh I. Rolston of St. Marys and J. R. And W. C. Rolston of Willow.

Notes for Theresa G. Irwin:

Theresa G. Irwin was born in 1832 in Maryland, one of twelve children known to have been born to William Irwin and Euphemai "Fanny" Murray. The family was enumerated in the 1850 census of District 65 of Wood County, Virginia (now W.V.):

Wm Irwin		M	58	Ireland
Fanny Irwin	F	54		Scotland
Theresa Irwin	F	18		Maryland
William Irwin	M	14		Virginia
Maria Irwin	F	13		Virginia
Melissa Irwin	F	8		Virginia
Francis Irwin	M	6		Virginia
Tabitha Irwin	F	4		Virginia

Theresa, age 23, married Christian W. Core, age 27, on October 7, 1856 in Pleasants County, Virginia (now West Virginia). C. W. Core was an attorney. Two sons were born to the couple, but their first born died at ten days. The 1860 census of Pleasants County, Virginia (now West Virginia) enumerated Theresa and husband with their second son:

C W Core	M	31	Pennsylvania
Therissa G Core		F 26	Maryland
Clarence F Core	M	1	Virginia

Mr. Core died sometime after 1860. It is not known what became of their son Clarence Core.

On April 5, 1867 in Pleasants County, West Virginia, the widowed Theresa married the widower Archibald Rufus Rolston. One son, Archibald Jr., was born to the couple in 1869.

Theresa, 38, died of consumption on March 31, 1870 in Wood County, West Virginia. Her place of burial is unknown.

Archibald Rufus Rolston Sr. and Theresa G. Irwin had the following child:

- ii. ARCHIBALD RUFUS ROLSTON JR. was born in Sep 1869 in Wood Co., W.V.. He died in 1939 in Oklahoma (age ~69). He married (1) HONORA JANETTA INGRAHAM, daughter of Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza Alcinda Rolston, about 1897. She was born on 06 Jul 1872 in Wood Co., W.V.. She died on 19 Jul 1945 in Williamstown, Wood Co., W.V. (age 73). He married (2) MAUDE MARY MOORE, daughter of C. J. Moore and Lodiski, in 1919 in Woodward, Woodward Co., Ok.. She was born on 19 Mar 1876 in Henry Co., Mo.. She died on 12 Apr 1959 in Laverne, Harper Co., Ok. (age 83).

Notes for Archibald Rufus Rolston Jr.:

Archibald Rufus Rolston Jr. was born in September of 1869 in Wood County, West Virginia, the son and only child of Archibald Rufus Rolston Sr. and Theresa G. Irwin. This was his father's second marriage, and Archibald Junior had an older half-brother named John Henry Rolston. His mother was also previously married. From her previous marriage, Archibald had two half-brothers, both had died in childhood before Archibald was born.

Archibald Junior was not even a year old when his mother died. The Rolston family had a housekeeper, Aldrelda Conkle, who surely acted as young Archibald's nanny. Aldrelda remained in the employee of the family until the death of Archibald Senior in 1883.

Archibald Junior's whereabouts after the death of his father are unknown. He was 14 years of age at the time of his father's death in 1883 and most likely would have been taken in by his older half-brother John who was living in Wood County at that time. Junior does not appear in the 1890 Census for Wood County. It was about this time that he married his 1st cousin, Honora "Nora" Janetta Ingraham. She was the daughter of Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza A. Rolston. No children were born to their union.

Archibald was an independent oil promoter, buying and selling oil leases. Not all of his adventures went well. What appears to have been a joint venture between himself, half-brother John and a lawyer named James M. Gallahan, went bad and prompted a lawsuit filed by John against Archibald & others. Except for a portion of the land which was sold and the proceeds divided, the majority of the land was partitioned with 1/6 going to John, 3/6 to Archibald and 2/6 to Mr. Gallahan. The court order was recorded in the Wood County Deed Book No. 25, pages 317 & 318. In February of 1897 Archibald leased the oil and gas rights from Ammiel Johnson. Two months later in April of that year, Archibald conveyed this lease to the Henry Oil Company.

After some ten years of marriage, his wife Honora "Nora" filed for divorced. On December 12, 1911 the Wood County Circuit Court granted the divorce, and ordered Archibald, the defendant, to cease any claims to the real estate acquired by the plaintive. Archibald appears to have left Wood County after the divorce and likely traveled to other areas of the country where there were oil interests. One of these places was Rosston, Harper County, Oklahoma.

It was in Rosston that he met the recently widowed Mrs. Maude Rathbun, wife of the late Jesse Perkins Rathbun and the former Miss Maude Mary Moore. Archibald and Maude married in 1919 in Woodward, Woodward County, Oklahoma.

Archibald was now going by his middle name, Rufus. In the 1920 census "Rufus" was living in Black Pond, Oregon County, Missouri, with his second wife, Maud. He traveled around frequently in the oil business but was not always accompanied by his wife. During the 1930 census of Rosston, Harper County, Oklahoma, Mrs. Maud Rolston was enumerated at home, but Rufus was not present.

Rufus, about age 69, died in 1939, probably in Oklahoma, and was buried in the Pleasant Ridge Cemetery near Rosston, Harper County, Oklahoma, as Rufus A. Rolston (1870-1939). He was survived by his second wife. He had no children by either of his wives. His half-brother, John, had preceded him in death.

Notes for Honora Janetta Ingraham:

Honora "Nora" Janetta Ingraham was born July 6, 1872 in Wood County, West Virginia, the youngest of eight children born to Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza Alcinda Rolston. Nora's father died in 1897, and her share of the estate, $4,375.00, was a substantial amount for that period in history.

About 1897, probably late in the year, in Wood County, West Virginia, Nora married Archibald Rufus Rolston, Jr., her first cousin. There is no marriage record for the couple in West Virginia, and they may have married out of state. The couple had no children. In the 1900 census they were living next door to Nora's mother. By 1910 the couple had separated. Nora was enumerated in the 1910 census of Williams (now Williamstown), Wood County, West Virginia with Mary Wingrove:

Nora J Rolston	Head	F	37	West Virginia (married)
Mary Wingrove	Companion	F	21	West Virginia (single)

In 1911 in Wood County, West Virginia, Nora filed for divorce, and on December 12, 1911, the Chancery heard the case between Nora J. Rolston, plaintiff, vs. Archibald Rufus Rolston, defendant. The court found for the plaintive, granting the divorce, and further ordered the defendant to cease any claims to the real estate acquired by the plaintive. Archibald also had to repay Nora for the court costs. Nora never remarried. After her sister Kate's death in 1938, Nora occupied the family home of her parents.

Nora, 73, died July 19, 1945 in Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia, and was buried as Nora J. Rolston in the Riverview Cemetery in Williamstown next to her father and mother.

Notes for Maude Mary Moore:

Maude Mary Moore was born March 19, 1876 in Henry County, Missouri, the daughter of C. J. Moore and his wife Lodiski. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Drywood Township of Vernon County, Missouri:

C J Moore	Self	M	43	Virginia
Lodiski Moore	Wife	F	39	Missouri
Romeo Moore	Son	M	17	Missouri
Wm P Moore	Son	M	14	Missouri
Hariett Moore	Daughter	F	10	Missouri
Edward W Moore	Son	M	8	Missouri
Mary M Moore	Daughter	F	4	Missouri
Lisa A Moore	Daughter	F	1	Missouri

In 1896 in Missouri, Maude, age 22, married Jesse "Jessie" Palmer Rathbun with which she had one child. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of Kiawa Township of Harper County, Oklahoma:

Jesse P Rathbun	Head	M	40	Missouri
Mary M Rathbun	Wife	F	34	Missouri (1/1)
Preston M Rathbun	Son	M	10	Missouri

Her husband Jesse died April 26, 1911.

In 1919 in Oklahoma, Maude married Archibald Rufus Rolston Jr.. He had been divorced by his wife in 1911. During the 1920 census the couple was enumerated in Black Pond, Oregon County, Missouri. In the 1930 census of Rosston (District 15), Harper County, Oklahoma, Maude was enumerated with one boarder residing with her. Rufus was not home at the time of the enumeration. Maude's parents, according to this census, were born in Virginia (father) and Missouri (mother). In 1939 Maude's husband "Rufus" died, and she was widowed for the second time. She buried her husband as Rufus A. Rolston. After her husband's death, Maude moved in with her sister, Hattie D. Moore, and brother, William P. Moore. The trio was enumerated in the 1940 census of Laverne, Harper County, Oklahoma:

Hattie D Moore	Head	F	70	Missouri
William P Moore	Brother	M	74	Missouri
Maude M Rolston	Sister	F	64	Missouri (widowed)

Maude, 83. died April 12, 1959 in Laverne, Harper County, Oklahoma, and was buried in the Pleasant Ridge Cemetery near Rosston, Harper County, Oklahoma where both of her husbands had been buried.

Harper County Journal, Buffalo, Oklahoma, Thursday, April 16, 1959

Early Postmaster Buried at Rosston

Mrs. Maude Rolston, 83, Laverne, died Monday of a heart attack. Funeral for the pioneer woman was held at 2 p. m., Wednesday in the Laverne Christian church with Rev R. E. Black officiating. Burial was made in the Pleasant Ridge cemetery near Rosston under direction of Byron Mason Funeral home.

Maude M. Moore was born March 19, 1876, in Missouri. She was married at Milo, Mo., to J. P. Rathbun in 1896, and they moved to old Woodward county in 1902, settling four miles northeast of the present town of Rosston, and at Readout. Mrs. Rathbun petitioned for a post office at Readout and was postmaster there until the M-K-T railroad was put through in 1912 and the town moved to its present location and was renamed Rosston. Mrs. Rathbun continued helping in the post-office, and worked in the bank as well as in a mercantile store she owned with other members of her family. She and her husband, who died in 1910, also had a store at Readout.

Mrs. Rathbun and Rufus Rolston were married at Woodward in 1919. He died in 1938. An only son, Preston Rathbun, died April 4, 1946. Mrs. Rolston was a member of the Christian church.

Surviving Mrs. Rolston are a brother, E. Eugene Moore of Laverne, and a sister, Mrs. Anna L. Ross of Arnett.

280. MARY CATHERINE<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Nathan<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 06 Jan 1820 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died after Jun 1900 in West Virginia (age 80+). She married Thomas C. Thorniley, son of John Thorniley and Mary Compton, on 19 Apr 1841 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). He was born on 24 Jan 1815 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio. He died on 17 Mar 1850 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio (age 35).

Notes for Mary Catherine Rolston:

Mary Catherine Rolston was born January 6, 1820 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the second of eight children born to Nathan Rolston and Sarah Harness.

Mary resided in Wood County until her marriage to Thomas C. Thorniley on April 19, 1841. After their marriage, the couple lived across the Ohio River in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio. Four children were born to the couple. Mary had been married for nine years when her husband died March 17, 1850 at the age of 35. In the late 1870's or early 1880's when Hardesty was interviewing early residents of Wood County, Mary was reported as living in Washington County, Ohio. She and her daughter Sarah were enumerated there during the 1880 census. Mary is assumed not to have remarried.

Mary's daughters, Matilda and Sarah, moved west to Kansas, residing in Reno County, and her son, George, moved to Colorado.

In an undated photograph thought to have been taken around 1890, shortly after her daughter Sarah's marriage, Mary appears in front of Nathan's home in Waverly along with her sister Eliza, sister-in-law Honora Ingraham, brother Granville Harness and his son John William and daughter Ida Mariah. Also among them was Adelbert David Hess, the husband of Mary's daughter, Mrs. Sarah Hess. Sarah, known to have been a photographer, likely took the photo.

Mary was residing in the Union District of Wood County, West Virginia, at the time of the 1900 census. Living next door was her niece, Mrs. Maud McDowney, and Maud's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Rolston, the widow of George Wilson Rolston, Mary's brother-in-law. Mary, occupation farmer, was 80 years old at the time of the 1900 census.

Mary died sometime after the 1900 census. Her date and place of death and burial are unknown.

Notes for Thomas C. Thorniley:

Thomas C. Thorniley was born January 24, 1815 in Marietta Township, Washington County, Ohio, the son of John Thorniley and Mary Compton.

On April 19, 1841 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), Thomas married Mary Catherine Rolston. The couple lived in Marietta Township of Washington County, Ohio and raised a family of four children.

Thomas, 35, died March 17, 1850 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio. "He is buried in Valley Cemetery, Marietta Township, Washington County. Valley was the family burial ground on the farm. It grew into the local Cemetery. Since the 1960's it has been owned by Eastlawn Memorial." {source: Anne Wickham}

Thomas C. Thorniley and Mary Catherine Rolston had the following children:

- i. NATHAN DEWITT<sup>6</sup> THORNILEY was born on 13 Jan 1842 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio. He died on 02 Sep 1863 in Nashville, Davidson Co., Tenn. (age 21).

Notes for Nathan Dewitt Thorniley:

Nathan DeWitt Thorniley was born January 13, 1842 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, the eldest of four children born to Thomas C. Thorniley and Mary Catherine Rolston. His given name was likely in honor of his maternal grandfather Nathan Rolston. Nathan was eight years old when his father died March 17, 1850. Nathan, age 18, was enumerated in the 1860 census of Marietta Township in Washington County, Ohio, working on the family farm.

When Civil War broke out between the North and the South, Nathan joined the Union Army. He served in Company F of the 92nd Ohio Volunteer Infantry as a private.

Nathan, age 21, died of consumption on September 4, 1863 in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee. His body was returned to Ohio and buried in the East Lawn Memorial Park cemetery in Reno, Washington County, Ohio.

- ii. MATILDA M. THORNILEY was born on 15 Jan 1843 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio. She died on 28 Mar 1917 in Reno Co., Kan. (age 74). She married Clark C. Miller, son of (Unknown) Miller and (Unknown), on 17 Dec 1874. He was born in Oct 1849 in Ohio. He died between 1920-1930 in Reno Co., Kan..

Notes for Matilda M. Thorniley:

Matilda "Tillie" M. Thorniley was born January 15, 1843 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, the second of four children born to Thomas C. Thorniley and Mary Catherine Rolston. Matilda was seven years old when her father died in March of 1850. Her eldest brother died of consumption while serving in the Civil War.

On December 17, 1874, Matilda, age of 31, married Clark C. Miller. The couple likely married in Ohio and then removed to Kansas. Five children were born to the couple. In 1880 they were residing in Reno County, Kansas. Their first two children had died in infancy, and Matilda was soon to give birth to her third child. Her third child died at the age of 6. Her youngest two children, son Eugene and daughter Katherine, lived to adulthood.

Matilda, 74, preceded her husband in death on March 28, 1917 in Reno County, Kansas. Her place of burial is unknown. Besides her husband, Matilda was survived by her son Eugene and daughter Katherine. Also surviving was her sister Mrs. Sarah Hess and brother George Thorniley.

Notes for Clark C. Miller:

Clark C. Miller was born in October of 1849 in Ohio. His parentage is unknown. He is known to have had a younger brother.

Clark married Matilda M. Thorniley on December 17, 1874. Five children were born to the couple; the three oldest children died in childhood. In the 1880 census, the couple was residing in Valley, Reno County, Kansas. Their first two children were deceased and Matilda was expecting their third child:

Clark C. Miller	Self	M	Male	W	30	OH	Farmer	OH	MD

place of burial is unknown.

- iii. SARAH J. THORNILEY was born on 07 Jan 1846 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio. She died on 26 Feb 1932 in Hutchinson, Clay Twp., Reno Co., Kan. (age 86). She married Adelbert David Hess, son of Zachariah Peter Hess and Harriett Ann Dodge, on 02 Jan 1890 in Hutchinson, Reno Co., Kan.. He was born on 24 Jan 1855 in Schuyler, Herkimer Co., N.Y.. He died on 23 Jul 1918 in Hutchinson, Clay Twp., Reno Co., Kan. (age 63).

Notes for Sarah J. Thorniley:

Sarah J. "Sallie" Thorniley was born January 7, 1846 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, the third of four children born to Thomas C. Thorniley and Mary Catherine Rolston. Sarah was four years old when her father died on March 17, 1850. Sarah, 33 and single, was living at home with her mother during the 1880 census. Sarah then ventured west to Reno County, Kansas where her sister, Mrs. Matilda "Tillie" Miller, was residing.

On January 2, 1890 in Hutchinson, Reno County, Kansas, just days before her 44th birthday, Sarah married the widower Adelbert David Hess and became the stepmother of his two sons. According to the Hess family's oral history, Sarah and the two stepsons did not get along. Sarah and Adelbert did not have children of their own. Soon after their marriage, Sarah and her husband traveled to West Virginia. Mr. Hess was photographed in front of the home of Nathan Rolston in Waverly along with Rolston family members: Sarah's mother, an aunt, an uncle and two cousins. Sarah's Grandfather Nathan Rolston died in December of 1890, and they may have returned for his funeral.

During the 1900 census Sarah and her husband were enumerated in Blue Grass Township, Beaver County, in the Panhandle region of the Oklahoma Territory. In the census Sarah claims to have been born in January of 1853 and not January of 1846, her actual birth date. The couple also stated that they been married 22 years and not 10 years. Her stepson Merritt was still living at home. They left Oklahoma and returned to Reno County, Kansas sometime before 1910. On July 23, 1918 Adelbert, Sarah's husband of 28 years, died at the age of 63.

Sarah, 86, died February 26, 1932 in Hutchinson, Reno County, Kansas, and was buried in the Fairlawn Cemetery in Hutchinson. All of her siblings had preceded her in death.

Notes for Adelbert David Hess:

Adelbert David Hess was born January 24, 1855 in Schuyler, Herkimer County, New York, the son of Zachariah Peter Hess and Harriett Ann Dodge. "His parents left New York between 1855-1859 in a covered wagon, no doubt due to the westward expansion. They travelled through Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnewota, Kansas, and on to "No Man's Land" in the panhandle of Oklahoma. Adelbert and Clara were married in Hutchinson, Reno, Kansas in 1877. Their two children were born in the Topeka area in 1879 and 1880." {source: Nancy Sheperd}

Adelbert and his first wife were enumerated in the 1880 census of Douglas Township of Jackson County, Kansas. Enumerated with the couple was their first-born son, Harry, and Clara's widowed father.

Adelbert B. Hess	M	25	New York
Clara Hess	F	22	Wisconsin
Harry C. Hess	M	1	Kansas
Sewal Elsworth	M	64	Maine (widowed)

[Nancy Sheperd's narative continues:] "Clara died in Blue Grass, Beaver, OK. Adelbert then married Sallie J. Thornley [January 2, 1890] in Hutchinson, Reno, Kansas. Family tradition has it that Sallie did not get along with Harry and Merritt, probably because she was 20 yrs old when married and the boys were 10 and 11 yrs. old. Adelbert and Sallie moved to Reno county, Kansas where they purchased 160 acres of land for $7,000 July 10, 1906. Note that Z.P. [Adelbert's father] and M.C. also purchased land in Reno County. Adelbert died in 1918 (cemetery records list cause of death as peritonitis) and Sallie in Adelbert, 63, died July 23, 1918 in Hutchinson, Reno County, Kansas and was buried in the Fairlawn Cemetery in Hutchinson.

- iv. GEORGE C. THORNILEY was born on 17 May 1848 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio. He died on 30 Aug 1928 in California Mesa Twp., Montrose Co., Co. (age 80). He married Safronia Mayfield, daughter of William L. Mayfield and T., on 24 Oct 1882 in Pueblo Co., Co.. She was born in Jul 1862 in Kentucky. She died on 16 Jan 1938 in California Mesa Twp., Montrose Co., Co. (age 75).

Notes for George C. Thorniley:

George C. Thorniley was born May 17, 1848 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, the youngest of four children born to Thomas C. Thorniley and Mary Catherine Rolston. George was not yet two years old when his father died in March of 1850. In 1863 his older brother died of Tuberculosis while serving in the Civil War. As a young man, George moved west, perhaps following one of his two sisters to Kansas.

George was enumerated in the 1880 census of Gothic, Gunnison County, Colorado, as George Ghornly, age 32, prospector. Gothic was a mining town that existed from 1879 to 1914. George was a sheriff in San Juan County, then moving to Delta County.

On October 24, 1882 in Pueblo County, Colorado, George married Safrona Mayfield. Three children were be born to the couple. Their first child, daughter Maud, died in 1900 at the age of 16. The family resided on their farm in California Mesa Township, Montrose County, Colorado from 1900 to 1920. George was 71 at the time of his enumeration in 1920.

George, 80, died on August 30, 1928 in California Mesa Township, Montrose County, Colorado, and was buried in the Mountain View Cemetery in Pueblo, Pueblo County, Colorado. George was survived by his wife, son Franklin, and daughter Mrs. Cecil Thorniley McKnight. Also surviving was his sister, Mrs. Sarah Hess.

Olathe Criterion, Number 32, Olathe, Montrose County, Colorado, Thursday, September 6, 1928, page 1:

Death of George Thornily.

The community was saddened Thursday on learning of the death of Mr George Thornily of the Pea Green district. Mr Thornily has been ill for a month and his death was not unexpected. He is survived by his wife, one son, Hi Thornily, a daughter Mrs George McKnight, and one grandson and a number of relatives. Funeral services were held at the Delta funeral parlor and were conducted by Rev Peters. Mr Thornily was 80 years, 3 months, and 13 days of age. The family came from Irington 30 years ago and have since lived on California Mesa where they have built up a beautiful home. The pallbearers were James and William Meldrum, Lee Price, Smith Wagner, William Jeffers, Howard Lathorp and Coy Powell. The body was taken to Pueblo where services were held Saturday. Deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.

Notes for Safronia Mayfield:

Safronia Mayfield was born in July of 1862 in Kentucky, the daughter of William F. Mayfield and his wife. When Safronia came to Colorado is unknown. She and her parents were enumerated in the 1880 Census of Granite, Chaffee County, Colorado:

William Mayfield	M	Male	40	KY	Miner
T. Mayfield	M	Female	36	VA
Sophronia Mayfield	S	Female	17	MO

On October 24, 1882 in Pueblo County, Colorado, Saphrona, age 19, married George C. Thorniley, age 34. By 1900 Safrona and her husband had settled in California Mesa Township, Montrose County, Colorado. In the 1900 census Safrona states that she had had three children, two of which were still living. Their eldest child, daughter Maud, died at the age of 16 in early 1900 before the census was taken. In the 1910 census her father, William Mayfield, was living with them. Her husband George died in Montrose County in August of 1928. In 1930 Safrona, age 67, was living with her son Franklin.

Notes for George Wilson Rolston:

George Wilson Rolston was born January 26, 1823 in Wood County, Virginia, now West Virginia, the third of eight children born to Nathan Rolston and Sarah Harness. George lived in Wood County until sometime after 1848.

On January 2, 1848 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), George married Agnes Polly Irwin. The couple was not among those enumerated during the 1850 census of Wood County, but they are believed to have resided in that part of Wood County that would become Pleasants County in 1851. George made his living by farmed and raising livestock. George and Agnes had been married for 20 years when she died February 29, 1868. The couple had no children. On May 16, 1872 in Pleasants County, West Virginia, George married his second wife, Elizabeth Biddle. The couple had three children of which only one would survive to adulthood. Their first child, an unnamed daughter, died April 23, 1873 shortly after birth, and their third child died August 22, 1878 at the age of one.

George, 72, died of heart failure on November 13, 1895 in Willow Island, Pleasants County, West Virginia and was buried in the Bethel Presbyterian Cemetery where he shares a monument with his father, Nathan, grandfather, William, and other Rolston family members. He was survived by his second wife, Elizabeth, and their daughter Maud.

A deed dated September 1896 concerns the sale by nephew Archibald Rolston, Junior, of one-ninth interest in a plot of land originally owned by the Irwin estate. This land was previously conveyed to Agnes P. Rolston and, upon her death, to husband George W. Rolston on May 19, 1868 [Pleasants County Deed Book No. 23, page 123.] On January 23, 1896, after George's death, the property was conveyed to Archibald by Maud B. Rolston, daughter and "heir-at-law" and her mother, Elizabeth, George's widow. Recorded in Pleasants County Deed Book No. 24, page 143. The subsequent sale by Archibald was recorded in Wood County Deed Book No. 25, pages 213 & 214.

GEORGE W. ROLSTON - was born in Wood county, West Virginia, January 26, 1823. In Pleasants county, May 16, 1872, he was united in the bands of matrimony with Elizabeth Biddle, daughter of Lloyd and Frances Biddle, and three children were born of the union, as follows: An infant daughter, born April 23, 1878, died same day; Maud, May 22, 1874; Harry, October 5, 1876, died August 22, 1878. The parents of George W. Rolston were Nathaniel and Sarah (Harness) Rolston, his father being the son of William Rolston, who settled in Union district, this county, in 1804. At that time Pleasants county was in its primeval condition of solitude save for an occasional clearing, and the usual pioneer life of deprivation was experienced, an interesting account of which will be found elsewhere in this volume, in the personal history of Nathaniel Rolston. Nathaniel Rolston, himself, father of George W., served under Harrison in the 1812 war. George W. Rolston has been twice married, his first wife, Agnes P. Irwin, whom he married January 2, 1848, dying February 29, 1868. Mr. Rolston is engaged in farming and stock-raising in Grant district, and his post office address is Willow Island, Pleasants county, West Virginia. (transcribed by Linda Fluharty)

Notes for Agnes Polly Irwin:

Agnes Polly Irwin was born in 1825 in Maryland, the daughter of William Irwin and Euphemai Murray. In the Pleasants County, West Virginia, death records Agnes's husband, George, erroneously reports her as being born in Ireland; however, Agnes was born in Maryland where her parents were married. Her father, however, was born in Ireland, and her mother was born in Scotland.

On January 2, 1848 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), Agnes married George Wilson Rolston. They were married for twenty years but had no children. At the time of the 1850 census, she and her husband were living with her husband's father, Nathan Rolston.

Agnes, age 42, died of bronchitis on February 29, 1868 in Cincinnati, Hamilton County, Ohio. George and Agnes had celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary only months before her death. As her family was known to have once lived in Cincinnati, it is assumed that Agnes was visiting relatives in Cincinnati at the time of her death. Agnes does not appear to have been buried in Pleasants County and is thought to have been interred in Cincinnati, Ohio, where she died.

Notes for Elizabeth Biddle:

Elizabeth "Betsy" Biddle was born about 1834 in Virginia, perhaps in Ohio or Marshall counties, the daughter of Lloyd and Frances Biddle. Sometime between 1860 and 1870 Elizabeth's father moved the family to Pleasants County, West Virginia. Elizabeth appears in the 1870 Pleasants County, West Virginia census as "Besta", 36 years old and single. Along with her and her parents were brother Samuel, age 35, and sister Susan, age 37; and they both were also still single. The Biddle family was residing with John S. Harness, his wife Elizabeth, and their five children. Mrs. Elizabeth Harness was also a daughter of Lloyd and Frances Biddle and older sister to Betsy.

On May 16, 1872 in Pleasants County, West Virginia, Betsy, age 38, married George Wilson Rolston. They had three children, of which only the second child survived to adulthood. Their first child was either stillborn or died shortly after birth. The third child and only son died at the age of one. Elizabeth appears as Betsy in the birth records for Pleasants County, West Virginia, in 1874 and 1876. Elizabeth was widowed November 13, 1895 when her husband George died at the age of 72. Sometime after the death of her husband, Elizabeth moved in with her daughter Mrs. Maud Meeks. Two years later in April of 1897, Elizabeth and daughter Maud leased land to R.H. Ross for oil and gas development.

Elizabeth, age about 69, died in 1903 in Pleasants County, West Virginia and was buried in the Bethel Presbyterian Cemetery in Wood County, West Virginia, near her husband George.

Pleasants County, West Virginia Biographies from Hardesty's History of Pleasants County, West Virginia - GRANT DISTRICT.

GEORGE W. ROLSTON - was born in Wood county, West Virginia, January 26, 1823. In Pleasants county, May 16, 1872, he was united in the bands of matrimony with Elizabeth Biddle, daughter of Lloyd and Frances Biddle, and three children were born of the union, as follows: An infant daughter, born April 23, 1878, died same day; Maud, May 22, 1874; Harry, October 5, 1876, died August 22, 1878.

George Wilson Rolston and Elizabeth Biddle had the following children:

- i. (DAUGHTER)<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 23 Apr 1873 in Pleasants Co., W.V.. She died on 23 Apr 1873 in Pleasants Co., W.V..

Notes for Maud Bessie Rolston:

Maud Bessie Rolston was born May 22, 1874 in Willow Island, Pleasants County, West Virginia, the second of three children born to George Wilson Rolston and Elizabeth Biddle. Maud' was the only one of the three siblings to survive to adulthood. Her older sister, the first born, died at birth, and her younger brother died shortly before his second birthday.

On May 3, 1897 in Pleasants County, West Virginia, Maud married Dr. Hugh Francis McEldowney in Pleasants County, West Virginia. In the 1900 census Maud reports one child born, none living; however, they had a daughter born in 1899 in Wetzel County, West Virginia, still living, that was not enumerated with the couple.

Their marriage dissolved some time after 1900.

On July 20, 1906 in Waverly, West Virginia, Maude B. McEldowney married Brady Luther Meeks. He had been previously married. Maud and Brady had two daughters: Imogene Louise and Geraldine Roberta. In the 1910 census Maud states she has had three children and three living. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of Junction City, Perry County, Ohio:

Brady L Meeks	Head	M	33	West Virginia
Maud P Meeks	Wife	F	35	West Virginia
Elizebeth V Meeks	Daughter	F	11	West Virginia **
Amogene M Meeks	Daughter	F	2	West Virginia **
(not named) Meeks	Daughter	F	2/12	Ohio  [Geraldine]

** enumerated as stepdaughters in the 1920 census. Only Elizabeth was Brady's stepdaughter; Imogene and Geraldine were Brady's biological children.

Mr. Meeks preceded her in death in 1951.

Maud, 86, died of heart disease on November 8, 1960 in the St. Josephs Hospital in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia, and was buried along side Brady, her second husband, in the Willow Island Baptist Church Cemetery in Pleasants County, West Virginia. Both of their daughters would later be buried there.

Notes for Hugh Francis McEldowney:

Hugh Francis McEldowney was born October 22, 1876 in Wetzel County, West Virginia, the son of John Cochrane McEldowney and Susan Virginia Hill. He was enumerated with his parents and siblings in the 1880 census of Wetzel County:

Other than the time spent attending dental college in Kansas City, he was a lifelong resident of West Virginia.

Hugh married Maud Bessie Rolston in Pleasants County on May 3, 1897. One child was born to the couple but died in infancy. Their marriage later ended in divorce.

In the 1906 Wetzel County Directory, Hugh is listed as residing at 603 Maple Avenue (in New Martinsville). His occupation was listed as dentist. In the 1910 census Hugh was enumerated as divorced and living with his father in New Martinsville, Wetzel County, West Virginia. He was still living with his father in 1920.

On March 15, 1924 Hugh married the widow, Mrs. Emma Neely, formerly the Miss Emma Blaine Loveall. One child is known to have been born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1940 census of New Martinsville, Wetzel County, West Virginia:

Hugh Mceldowney	Head	M	64	West Virginia
Emma Mceldowney	Wife	F	54	West Virginia
Ella T Mceldowney	Daughter	F	14	West Virginia

Hugh, 69, died July 4, 1946 in Lewis County, West Virginia and was buried in the Williams Cemetery in New Martinsville, Wetzel County, West Virginia.

Notes for Brady Luther Meeks:

Brady Luther Meeks was born October 4, 1876 in Pleasants County, West Virginia. His parentage is unknown.

Brady was married twice. On January 27, 1899 in Pleasants County, West Virginia, Brady L. Meeks, age 21, married Georgia A. Ingram, age 21. Georgia had a daughter, Beulah, who was born out of wedlock. Georgia used the Meeks surname and even list him as her father, but it is uncertain if Brady was her biological father. Brady and Georgia had one daughter, Elizabeth. Then the couple divorced. Daughter Elizabeth remained with her father, and Beulah remained with her mother.

On July 20, 1906 in Waverly, Wood County, West Virginia, Brady married Mrs. Maud B. McEldowney, the former Miss Maud Bessie Rolston. Two daughters, Imogene and Geraldine, were born to the couple. Brady, Maud, and the three daughters were enumerated in the 1910 census of Junction City in Jackson Township of Perry County, Ohio. The family lived there for some period of time but had returned to the Wood County area of West Virginia by 1918.

In 1947 Brady's daughter (or stepdaughter) from his first wife, Mrs. Beulah Mezingo, preceded him in death.

Brady, 75, died October 15, 1951 in Waverly, Pleasants County, West Virginia, and was buried in the Willow Island Cemetery in Pleasants County. He was survived by Maud, his wife of 45 years, their two daughters, Mrs. Imogene Satterfield and Mrs. Geraldine Young, and Mrs. Elizabeth Eyler, his daughter from his first wife.

- iii. HARRY ROLSTON was born on 05 Oct 1876 in Pleasants Co., W.V.. He died on 22 Aug 1878 in Pleasants Co., W.V. (age 22 mos.).

Notes for Harry Rolston:

Harry Rolston was born October 5, 1876 in Pleasants County, West Virginia, the youngest of three children born to George Wilson Rolston and Elizabeth Biddle.

Harry died August 22, 1878, a month and a few days short of his second birthday. His death was reported by his mother, Elizabeth, and she listed him as age 2 and having died from "flucks" (sic). Flux was a medical term used at that time to describe diarrhea.

Although buried somewhere in Pleasants County, the site of his grave is unknown. He may have been buried on the family's farm along with the infant child that died in 1873.

Notes for Granville Harness Rolston:

Granville Harness Rolston was born May 17, 1825 in Waverly, Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia) the fourth of eight children born to Nathan Rolston and Sarah Harness.

According to accounts given by his grandson, Julian Kenneth Rolston, and recorded by Dr. Lawrence H. Rolston, Granville attended the academy that would later become Marietta College, paying most of his tuition by building fires and performing other duties at the school. In the early 1850's Granville operated a general store at Williamsport, Virginia (now Williamstown, West Virginia).

On June 10, 1855 in Racine, Meigs County, Ohio, Granville married Mary Adaline Sarber. How the couple came to meet is not known. Ten children were born to the couple with only six surviving to adulthood.

In 1861 when "oil fever" struck Burning Springs in Wirt County, Virginia (now West Virginia), Granville sold his mercantile business and, with Frank S. Hovey of Marietta, he invested his entire capital in a store-boat on the Little Kanawha River at the site of the oil boom. On May 9, 1863, Confederate General Jones and his troops burned the oil town destroying over 150,000 barrels of oil and with it, the store-boat of Granville and partner Frank Hovey. Granville returned home to Williamsport.

Later in 1863, going deeply into debt, Granville purchased 630 acres of land on Worthington Creek at a cross roads called Ogden in present day Wood County, West Virginia. Here, in a story-and-a-half hewn log house, he and his wife Mary reared their family. Granville paid off his debt by operating a saw mill, a cooper shop, a blacksmith shop, a drayage service and by farming. (Granville practice vertical integration before economists invented the term.) The apples grown on his farm were packed in barrels made in his cooper shop and hauled to the river port of Waverly by his drayage service. In 1882 with affluence, Granville built a new large two-story wood frame house for his family that was still standing and serviceable in 2009. The home is located on Carpenters Run just outside the unincorporated township of Ogden.

G.H. Rolston is shown as an enlisted man in the combined listing of the Wood County Regiments for the 10th and 113th of the Union Army. There seems to be little other evidence of his service which may then lend some credence to the oral family history passed down by Granville's grandson, Forrest Rolston. Forrest claimed that one of the Rolston ancestors paid for a replacement of himself to serve during the Civil War.

The 1880 Census of the Union District of Wood County enumerated Granville, age 55, with his wife "Adalin" and five of the children, Ida M., William, Charles, Della & Bertie, still living at home. Mary died September 26, 1887 at the age of 52.

Granville, in his later years, was said to have suffered from hand tremors, a palsy like dysfunction known as essential tremors. This would prove to be a common trait among many of his descendants in their senior years.

Births, marriages and deaths for all the children were recorded in the family Bible. Granville's own death is recorded in his Bible; there is no record of his death in the Wood County court records.

Granville, 81, died August 7, 1906 in Waverly, Wood County, West Virginia and was buried in the Williamstown Cemetery, Wood County, West Virginia. It is engraved with "Granville H Rolston son of Nathan & Sarah Harness Rolston & grandson of William & Mary Hopkins Rolston." The engraving is shallow and deteriorating but still legible in July of 2002 when it was photographed. The stone is shared by his wife Mary and sons, Nathan and George, who died in childhood.

Notes for Mary Adaline Sarber:

Mary Adaline Sarber was born July 14, 1835 in Warren, Trumbull County, Ohio, the daughter of Abraham Sarber and Margaret Barackman. Mary was five years old when her father died in 1841. Her mother died six years later in 1847 when Mary was eleven. Mary and her siblings were split up, living with family friends or relatives in Meigs County, Ohio. Where Mary was residing in 1850 is unknown.

Mary married Granville Harness Rolston in Racine, Meigs County, Ohio on June 10, 1855. Over the course of their marriage, Mary had ten children, seven boys and three girls. Four of the boys did not reach adulthood. Unnamed twin sons were stillborn in 1861. Brothers Nathan, age 10, and George, age 1, died within days of each other in July of 1869.

Mary had contracted tuberculosis from which she died on September 26, 1887 in the Union District of Wood County, West Virginia, at the age of 52. She was buried in the Williamstown Cemetery in Wood County.

Granville Harness Rolston and Mary Adaline Sarber had the following children:

- i. IDA MARIAH<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 11 May 1856 in Ogden, Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died on 15 May 1937 in Williamstown, Wood Co., W.V. (age 81). She married William B. Pollock, son of Samuel Pollock and Esther McNary, on 04 Sep 1895 in Wood Co., W.V.. He was born on 26 May 1843 in North Strabane Twp., Washington Co., Penn.. He died on 21 Nov 1935 in Murry Hill, Washington Co., Penn. (age 92).

Notes for Ida Mariah Rolston:

Ida Mariah Rolston was born May 11, 1856 in Ogden, Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia) the eldest of ten children born to Granville Harness Rolston and Mary Adaline Sarber. She was often known by her middle name, Mariah or Maria.

Mariah kept a diary between the years of January of 1881 and February of 1884. According to Maria's grand-niece, Mrs. Jacquie Klimek, who had the opportunity to read the diary before it was destroyed, Maria's diary often said that she had gone to the sanitarium. The diary entries never mentioned whom she was going to visit; however, it can be speculated that she was visiting her mother Mary who would die from consumption in 1887. The sanitarium she spoke of was probably the Rose Hill Sanitarium located in the Washington District of Pleasants County, West Virginia.

On September 4, 1895 in Wood County, West Virginia, Mariah, age 39, married the widower William B. Pollock. It is not known just how they met, but as both families were in the stock raising business, they may have met during the course of buying or selling cattle. After their marriage, she moved to the Canonsburg area in Pennsylvania where her husband William farmed and raised livestock. There she raised the three children from William's first marriage. Mariah and William never had any children of their own, but in the early months of 1921 they took in the four orphaned children of Ida's deceased brother, Charles Granville Rolston Sr.. This took place a few months after the death of Ann, Charles' second wife and widow. Ida and her husband were in their mid-60's at this time and well set in their ways when the four children arrived. Niece Marvel remembers Ida and William as being very strict with her, making her wear "old fashion" clothes. Nephew Charles did not recall them as being unusually strict, perhaps they were more lenient with the three boys.

After husband William's death in November 21, 1935, Ida returned to live near Ogden in Wood County, West Virginia.

Ida, 81, died May 15, 1937 at her home in Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia, and was buried in the K of P (Knights of Pythias) Cemetery in Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia.

Ida had inherited her father Granville's home in Waverly. In turn, the old family home was then left to nephew Charles Granville Rolston Junior, that she had cared for when he was orphaned.

Notes for William B. Pollock:

"William B. Pollock, the third son of Samuel and Esther [McNary] Pollock, was born May 26, 1843, in the old log house built by Judge McDowell, the house in which the first sermon, preached west of the Alleghany [sic] mountains, was delivered by Rev. John McMillan in August 1775, in North Strabane township, Washington County, Pennsylvania. He received his education in the grade schools of Canonsburg and Duff's Commercial College, Pittsburgh, from which latter he graduated with honors in 1869.

On February 11, 1875, at 6:30 A. M., he was united in marriage by Rev. W. L. Wallace, D. C., with Miss Hettie Alverta Murray, daughter of Capt. James and Mary C. (Johnston) Murray, a sketch of whose family follows. Six children were born to this union -- three living and three buried in Oak Spring Cemetery, namely: Mary Johnston, born November 19, 1875, died April 16, 1876; Samuel Murray, born May 20, 1877, attending school at Canonsburg, and a member of the U. P. Church; Cleonie Estella, born October 3, 1881; Ariadne, born February 19, 1884, died August 26, 1887; Rose, born September 20, 1886, died May 15, 1890; and Clara Jennie, born February 15, 1889.

Mr. and Mrs. Pollock are members of the Canonsburg United Presbyterian Church, in which Mr. Pollock was elected a ruling elder December 22, 1892. He has held various local offices of trust in the township, but aspires to no political position, preferring a life of domestic felicity. He is a stockholder in the First National Bank at Canonsburg, also in the Western Pennsylvania Agricultural Association at Washington. He is a member and treasurer of the National Delaine Merino Sheep Association of Washington county; elected treasurer 1891. In that year he was appointed as a committee to represent the association at Chicago, Ill., at the Columbian Exposition commission, to arrange for the World's Fair of 1893. He was sent to meet with the United States Association in 1890, at Steubenville, Ohio, also to meet the same association at the same place in 1892. He lived three years in the old Olome Institute building, in Canonsburg, which was a gift to him from his father. On the Murray Hill farm, on which he now resides with his family, Mr. Pollock built a fine residence, and in addition to this farm of 270 acres, he owns one of 100 acres on Plum run, in Chartiers township, known as the "Old Hayes farm." In connection with general agriculture, he is engaged in the raising of fine-bred sheep and cattle, making a specialty of American Red-Polled cattle, and National Delaine Merino sheep. Mr. Pollock ranks among the leading business men of the country, and is respected and honored by all." {source: Beers, J. H. and Co., Commemorative Biographical Record of Washington County, Pennsylvania (Chicago: J. H. Beers & Co., 1893), p. 605 }

His wife, Hettie Alverta Murray died in 1893.

On September 4, 1895 in Wood County, West Virginia, William married Ida Mariah Rolston. Ida became the stepmother to the children of his first wife, but William and Ida did not have children of their own.

William's farm was on West Murray Road just northeast of Canonsburg in Washington County, Pennsylvania. William, 92, died November 21, 1935 at his home in Murray Hill and was buried at the Oak Spring Cemetery near Canonsburg in Washington County, Pennsylvania.

- ii. NATHAN DEVOL ROLSTON was born on 03 Aug 1858 in Williamsport, Wood Co., Va. (now Williamstown, Wood Co., W.V.). He died on 23 Jul 1869 in Williamstown, Wood Co., W.V. (age 10).

Notes for Nathan Devol Rolston:

Nathan Devol Rolston was born August 3, 1858 in Williamsport, Wood County, Virginia

(now Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia), the second of ten children born to Granville Harness Rolston and Mary Adaline Sarber. Nathan was the couple's first son, and he was named after his paternal grandfather Nathan Rolston. Nathan's middle name, Devol, was the name of his maternal uncle, Devol J. Sarber. His middle name appears as "Devole" in some documents.

Nathan, 10, died of "brain inflammation" on July 23, 1869 in Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia. The illness, an unknown epidemic, claimed the life of his older brother George four days later. They were both buried in the Williamstown Cemetery in Wood County, West Virginia.

- iii. INFANT ROLSTON was born on 03 Jul 1861 in Williamsport, Wood Co., Va. (now WV.). He died on 03 Jul 1861 in Williamsport (now Williamstown) , Wood Co., Va. (now WV.) ((stillborn)).

Notes for Infant Rolston:

The third child born to Granville Harness Rolston and Mary Adaline Sarber was a stillborn son, July 3, 1861 in Williamsport, Wood County, Virginia (now Williamstown, West Virginia). He had a twin brother that was also stillborn. Neither the infant's birth or death were recorded in the family's Bible. The infant was buried in what is now the Williamstown Cemetery in Wood County, West Virginia.

Other sources say this child was born and died on July 24, 1857.

- iv. INFANT ROLSTON was born on 03 Jul 1861 in Williamsport, Wood Co., W.V.. He died on 03 Jul 1861 in Williamsport (now Williamstown), Wood Co., WV. ((stillborn)).

Notes for Infant Rolston:

The fourth child born to Granville Harness Rolston and Mary Adaline Sarber was a stillborn son, born July 3, 1861 in Williamsport, Wood County, Virginia (now Williamstown, West Virginia). He had a twin brother that was also stillborn. Neither the infant's birth or death were recorded in the family's Bible. The infant was buried in what is now the Williamstown Cemetery in Wood County, West Virginia.

- v. JOHN WILLIAM ROLSTON was born on 07 Sep 1862 in Williamsport, Wood Co., Va. (now Williamstown, Wood Co., W.V.). He died on 08 Feb 1948 in Ogden, Wood Co., W.V. (age 85). He married Gertrude Alexandria Ingraham, daughter of William McAtee Ingraham and Martha E. Sharp, on 08 Oct 1891 in Wood Co., W.V.. She was born on 25 May 1866 in Bull Creek (Waverly), Wood Co., W.V.. She died on 10 May 1948 in Ogden, Wood Co., W.V. (age 81).

Notes for John William Rolston:

John William Rolston was born September 7, 1862 in Williamsport, Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the fifth of ten children to be born to Granville Harness Rolston and Mary Adaline Sarber. Williamsport has since been renamed to Williamstown. John was a thin, dark complexioned man, with dark eyes and in later years an imposing white mustache. He was soft spoken and chuckled pleasantly when amused.

"In the 1880's, along with quite a number of cousins and other contemporaries, John fell in with the wave of western homesteaders then attempting to populate western Kansas and Nebraska. Many of these homesteaders remained, but [as did John] probably as many returned. Sod houses, buffalo chips for firewood, and sand-swept plains ... were in no way comparable to good oak and poplar planking, pine-knot and hickory firewood, and the forested hills and well watered bottom land to which they were accustomed. Ironically, the claims they left 'unproven', to be taken up by others less pessimistic, now are a significant part of the nation's grainery." {These comments and account of John William Rolston was given by his son Julian Kenneth Rolston and recorded by Dr. Lawrence H. Rolston.}

On October 8, 1891 in Wood County, West Virginia, John married Gertrude "Gertie" Alexandria Ingraham. Four children were born to their union. Their only daughter died as an infant, but the three boys all grew to adulthood. John worked as a Superintendent for the Mountain State Gas Company until 1907. After 1907 he turned to farming and raised fruit.

John and his wife Gertie lived much of their lives in a small frame house on Rolston Hill in Ogden near his father's home. In 1900 his brother Lewis A. Rolston lived only a couple houses away. In their declining years John and Gertie lived with his sons Granville Arthur and William Garland Rolston in the house in Ogden built by their father, Granville Harness Rolston. The postal address for the house was Waverly, West Virginia.

On February 8, 1948 in Ogden, Wood County, West Virginia, John suffered a heart attack and died. According to the family oral history, John died at the age of 85 while in the barn milking a cow. However, the truth of the matter was that John was not all that impressed with "indoor plumbing" and preferred to do his business in the barn. The boys wanted to leave him out there because he was such a mean spirited person. They had a conversation about it and decided that since they had to do chores in the barn and he would start to stink that they better call and have him taken out. They moved him into the house until his body was taken away.

John was buried in the IOOF Cemetery (now Parkersburg Memorial Gardens) in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia. John was survived by his wife and his three sons.

Notes for Gertrude Alexandria Ingraham:

Gertrude "Gertie" Alexandria Ingraham was born May 25, 1866 in the area known as Bull Creek, now known as Waverly, Wood County, West Virginia, the sixth of eight children born to William McAtee Ingraham and Martha E. Sharp. A small controversy arose in later years as to Gertrude's maiden name. Gertrude's grandchildren remember her maiden name as Ingram, but in an autograph book belonging to her cousin Granville "Gran" Ingraham, Gertrude signs the book on April 2, 1886, as "Your Cousin Gertie Ingraham" giving her address as "Bull Creek, Wood Co., West Va.." Published listings of Wood County births do show her as Gertrude Ingram. She was enumerated in the 1880 census of the Union District of Wood County, West Virginia with her parents and siblings:

On October 8, 1891 in Wood County, West Virginia, Gertrude married John William Rolston. The couple had four children, one daughter and three boys. The daughter died as an infant. Gertie and her husband lived much of their lives in a small frame house on Rolston Hill in Ogden near her father-in-law Granville Harness Rolston's home. In their declining years Gertie and John lived with their sons Granville Arthur and William Garland Rolston in the house in Ogden built by Granville Harness Rolston. Gertrude's husband died February 8, 1948 in Ogden at the age of 85. The couple had been married nearly 50 years.

Gertrude, 81, died three months later on May 10, 1948 in Ogden, Wood County, West Virginia, and joined her husband in the IOOF Cemetery (now Parkersburg Memorial Gardens) in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia.

- vi. CHARLES GRANVILLE ROLSTON was born on 12 Mar 1865 in Ogden, Wood Co., W.V.. He died on 08 Nov 1918 in Fort Worth, Tarrant Co., Texas (age 53). He married (1) ADDIE JONES, daughter of Lewis Harvey Jones and Adelia J. Reitz, on 17 Aug 1903 in Ritchie Co., W.V.. She was born in 1881 in Ritchie Co., W.V.. She died on 14 Jun 1908 in Asheville, Buncombe Co., N.C. (age ~27). He married (2) ANNA PEARL JONES, daughter of Lewis Harvey Jones and Adelia J. Reitz, on 30 Nov 1909 in Huntington, Cabell Co., W.V.. She was born in Nov 1886 in Ellenboro, Ritchie Co., W.V.. She died on 25 Dec 1920 in Colorado Springs, El Paso Co., Co. (age 34).

Notes for Charles Granville Rolston:

Charles Granville Rolston was born March 12, 1865 in Ogden, Wood County, West Virginia, the sixth of ten children born to Granville Harness Rolston and Mary Adaline Sarber. Charles spent his childhood in Odgen. As a young adult he went into the oil business.

On August 17, 1903 in Ritchie County, West Virginia, Charles married Addie Jones. The following year Addie gave birth to twin sons, Ralph and Lewis. Addie suffered from tuberculosis and died June 14, 1908, leaving Charles with two four-year-old boys. Addie's younger sister, Anna Jones, moved in to care for the two boys. On November 30, 1909 in Huntington, Cabell County, West Virginia, Charles and Anna married and two more children were born.

Charles was in Texas on oil business, about October 31 of 1918, when he was involved in an automobile accident. Ten days later, on Friday, November 8, 1918, Charles, 53, died in the hospital with his wife Anna and one of his three sisters by his side. Which of his three sisters was present at the hospital is not known, but sister Mrs. Della May Southworth, lived in New Mexico and sister Fannie may have lived in Tulsa, Oklahoma at the time. As sister Fannie would have had at least one young child at that time, it is speculated that Charles sister, Mrs. Della May Rolston Southworth who had no children, would most likely have been the one to be there with Charles at the time of his death. His body was transported from Fort Worth to Wichita, Sedgwick County, Kansas where services were conducted at his home. Charles was buried Monday the 11th of November in section E, Lot 52, Grave 8 in Maple Grove Cemetery in Wichita, Sedgwick County, Kansas. He was survived by his four children and his second wife Anna.

In August of 1921, after the death of his second wife, a probate hearing was held in Eddy County, New Mexico, naming Charles' two sons, Ralph Harness Rolston and Lewis Harold Rolston. The younger two children were not noted. As Eddy County, New Mexico was the home of Charles' sister, Mrs. Della May Rolston Southwick, it seems most likely that she was the sister who was with him at the time of his death.

Notes for Addie Jones:

Addie Jones was born in 1881 in Ritchie County, West Virginia, the second of seven children born to Dr. Lewis Harvey Jones and Adelia J. Reitz. She was also found as Attie. She was not enumerated with her parents in the 1900 census.

On August 17, 1903 in Ritchie County, West Virginia, Addie, age 23, married Charles Granville Rolston. The following year in Oklahoma, Addie gave birth to twin boys. It is not know if they were identical twins.

Addie suffered from tuberculosis, as did most of her siblings, and succumbed to the disease June 14, 1908, leaving Charles with two 4-year-old boys. Addie died in Asheville, Buncombe County, North Carolina. North Carolina Death Records report her ("Attie Ralston") place of burial as Parkersburg, West Virginia.

Notes for Anna Pearl Jones:

Anna Pearl Jones was born in November of 1886 in Ellenboro, Ritchie County, West Virginia, the fifth of seven children born to Dr. Lewis Harvey Jones and Adelia J. Reitz.

In 1908, after the death of her older sister Addie, Anna moved in with her widowed brother-in-law, Charles Granville Rolston, to care for her four year-old twin nephews. A year later, on November 30, 1909 in Huntington, Cabell County, West Virginia, and shortly after her father's death, Anna married Charles. Charles' work moved the family about the country. Anna and Charles had two children, daughter Marvel and son Charles. In 1918 they were living in Wichita, Sedgwick County, Kansas, when Addie received word that her husband had been in a serious automobile accident. He died on November 8, 1918.

Anna had contracted tuberculosis, as did nearly all her sisters. It is unknown as to when she contracted this disease but, she was likely already ill at the time of husband Charles' death. Soon after Charles' death, Anna and the four children moved to Colorado Springs, El Paso County, Colorado where Anna stayed in a sanitarium for persons afflicted with tuberculosis. The twins, Ralph and Lewis, now 14, Marvel, 6, and Charles Jr., 3, had little contact with their step/mother due to the risk of contracting the disease. At some point during the stay Anna was joined by her sister Beatrice, and the two moved into a house together.

Two years later on Christmas Day, 1920 in Colorado Springs, Anna died in the sanitarium, orphaning the four children. The four children were moved from the sanitarium to a nearby orphanage until relatives could be contacted. Anna was buried in the Evergreen Cemetery in Colorado Springs, El Paso County, Colorado.

- vii. GEORGE EVERETT ROLSTON was born on 25 Jan 1868 in Ogden, Wood Co., W.V.. He died on 27 Jul 1869 in Williamstown, Wood Co., W.V. (age 1).

Notes for George Everett Rolston:

George Everett Rolston was born January 25, 1868 in Ogden, Wood County, West Virginia, the seventh of ten children born to Granville Harness Rolston and Mary Adaline Sarber.

George died July 27, 1869 in Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia, at the age of one and a half years. His death was only four days after that of his older brother Nathan. He was buried in the Williamstown Cemetery in Wood County, West Virginia. His cause of death was listed as "convulsion."

- viii. LEWIS ALBERTO ROLSTON was born on 03 Apr 1870 in Ogden, Wood Co., W.V.. He died on 02 Jun 1925 in Lakeland, Jefferson Co., Ky. (age 55). He married Margaret Griffith Jones, daughter of Samuel Eli Jones and Drusilla Kinnaid, on 10 Jan 1893 in Wood Co., W.V.. She was born on 23 Sep 1869 in Williamstown, Wood Co., W.V.. She died on 10 May 1956 in Parkersburg, Wood Co., W.V. (age 86).

Notes for Lewis Alberto Rolston:

Lewis Alberto "Bert" Rolston and his twin sister, Della May Rolston, were born April 3, 1870 in Ogden, Union Township of Wood County, West Virginia, the eighth and ninth of ten children born to Granville Harness Rolston and Mary Adalin Sarber. As a child he was known as Bertie. Lewis' middle name was recorded as 'Alberto' in the Family Bible of his father, Granville. The Register of Birth lists him as Alberta (female) along with his twin sister. Lewis's grandson, Dr. Lawrence Rolston, considered the Bible spelling as "... the work of some prankster."

On January 10, 1893 Lewis married Margaret "Maggie" Griffith Jones, and the couple had three sons. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia:

Lewis A Rolston	Head	M	40	West Virginia
Maggie Rolston	Wife	F	40	West Virginia
Forest H Rolston	Son	M	14	West Virginia

Clifford A Rolston	Son	M	11	West Virginia
Charles C Rolston	Son	M	8	West Virginia
Stella Little	Servant	F	17	West Virginia

Biographical notes on Lewis Alberto Rolston as related by his son Forrest Hubert Rolston to his son, Dr. Lawrence Hubert Rolston:

"Lewis Albert Rolston, known to his contemporaries as Bert, had a general store at two locations in Ogden (Wood County, West Virginia). The first was in the "mill lot" on his father's farm, across route 31 from his father's (Granville) house. The second store was across route 31 from the school and church. He sold the store and worked in the oil fields around Ogden, excepting for ten months spent at Ft. Monroe, Virginia, where the federal government was attempting to obtain fresh water by drilling. Lewis Albert suffered from some respiratory problem that regressed at Ft. Monroe, and because of the relief he talked of moving to that area of Virginia. Instead, the family moved to Parkersburg in 1907 and he and a Mr. Crane became partners in wildcatting in Ohio. This enterprise prospered at first, then failed."

Son, Forrest, recalls the events surrounding the re-roofing of the barn when the family was living in Ogden near the home of Granville. The barn roof consisted of wooden shingles typical of that era. Bert hired an elderly roofer for the repair but dismissed him after the roofer had completed one side of the barn. From the inside the barn a lot of light showed through the new roof, raising a strong suspicion in Bert's mind that the roof would leak. The younger replacement for the old roofer seemed to do much better work, no light showed through his side of the roof. However, the first good rain told a different story. The old roofer's side leaked not a drop while the young man's side leaked copiously. {source: oral family history as recalled by Dr. Lawrence H. Rolston}

The marriage between Lewis and Maggie was not one of bliss according to the oral history passed down from Lewis's nephew, Julian K. Rolston. In the later years of their marriage Lewis was often on the road tending to his oil business, but when he was home, his wife would not sleep with him. As a result, Lewis found his pleasure at the Palace Motel on Market Street in Parkersburg, a place known for prostitution at that time. It was to be Lewis's misfortune to be there one evening when the motel was raided by the police. Lewis was found in the nude, arrested, and carted off to jail. This is thought to have occurred about 1911. Shortly after this incident, Lewis signed over all his property to his wife, Maggie Griffith Jones, and they separated. The family seemed to consider them as divorced, but no legal record of a divorce has been found, and Lewis was listed as married on his death certificate. Lewis left his wife with the three boys and the income from oil interests that would later decline according to his grandson Lawrence.

Some years after the separation Bert contracted syphilis which lead to his hospitalization at the Central State Hospital in Lakeland, Jefferson County, Kentucky, and his eventual death on June 2, 1925 at the age of 55. The death certificate states that he died from a General Paralysis of the Insane. The condition was further stated as having had a duration of 1 year, 8 months and 10 days preceding his death. Secondarily, the right leg and foot contained a major infection. These symptoms are typical of one who has reached the third stage of the disease where the brain and the nervous system are affected.

That Lewis died of syphilis was a closely guarded secret within the Rolston family. One of his sons, either Clifford or Charles, visited Lewis in the hospital shortly before his death. In the case of son Forrest, he seemed to disbelieve this account and typically responded that his father Lewis was killed in an oil field accident in Kentucky. Lewis's body was returned to West Virginia and was said, by his son Forrest, to have been buried in an unmarked grave in Williamstown, West Virginia. The grave was rediscovered in the Williamstown Cemetery in 1999 by Lewis's grandson, Ralph Lewis Rolston. The headstone was sparsely engraved, having only "L.A. Rolston 1870 - 1925" as the inscription. It is suspected that the remains of Lewis were indeed laid to rest without a headstone, and the headstone was added some time later when either his wife (or former wife), Maggie, or one of his sons had money to purchase the modest headstone.

Notes for Margaret Griffith Jones:

Margaret "Maggie" Griffith Jones was born September 23, 1869 in Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia, the eldest of four children born to Rev. Samuel Eli Jones and Drusilla Kinnaird. Margaret was her given name, but she was known by family and friends as Maggie. Griffith was the maiden name of her paternal grandmother, Hannah Griffith. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Williams Township of Wood County, West Virginia:

Samuel E Jones	Self	M	39	Ohio
Drusilla Jones	Wife	F	35	Virginia
Maggie G Jones	Daughter	F	10	West Virginia
Rufus K Jones	Son	M	9	West Virginia
Bettie C Jones	Daughter	F	6	West Virginia
Hanna L Jones	Daughter	F	1	West Virginia
Samuel D Jones	Other	M	73	Pennsylvania [Maggie's grandfather]

The family was of the Methodist faith. Maggie's father was a farmer. He later became a minister of the Methodist Church, and Maggie's sister Elizabeth became a deaconess.

On January 10, 1893 in Wood County, West Virginia, Maggie married Lewis Alberto "Bert" Rolston. She had three children by her husband Lewis before their separation in 1911. There is some speculation that Maggie knew of her husband's visits to the local bordello and, along with Lewis's sister Della, may have played some part in his arrest. For a period of time after their separation, Maggie was a cook at the YMCA in Parkersburg.

On June 2, 1925 in Kentucky, her husband Lewis died. Margaret and Lewis had been separated for the past fourteen years but had never formally divorced. She paid to have the body of her husband, Lewis, returned to West Virginia for burial. She could not afford the luxury of a headstone until some time later; hence the story from her son Forrest that his father was buried in an unmarked grave.

During the 1940's and 50's, Maggie owned a duplex home on Lawrence Street in Parkersburg, West Virginia. Her son Forrest and his family lived in half of the duplex on one or more occasions. At one time, her grandson Lawrence and his family lived in the same duplex. Great grandson David Rolston recalls her having a gold tooth which she removed and placed on the table next to her before eating, then putting it back in after she completed her meal.

Grandson Lawrence describes his Grandmother Maggie as "...a medium-height, black-eyed, wiry woman with a dry humor and quick wit. An uncompromising product of a long line of preachers, she was taciturn, undemonstrative, frugal and independent, supporting herself by working as a cook. She seems to have been greatly respected, even admired, but not greatly loved." Some would refer to her as being cantankerous.

Maggie was a dedicated Christian and attended the St. Andrews Methodist Church in Parkersburg.

Maggie, 86, died May 10, 1956 at a nursing home in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia. She was buried in the International Order of Odd Fellows cemetery in Parkersburg next to the graves of her parents and sister, Elizabeth. The IOOF cemetery was renamed in the late 1990's to Parkersburg Memorial Gardens. Maggie was survived by her three sons, Forrest, Clifford, and Charles.

Notes for Della May Rolston:

Della May Rolston and her twin brother, Lewis Alberto Rolston, were born April 3, 1870 in Ogden, Union Township of Wood County, West Virginia, the eighth and ninth of ten children born to Granville Harness Rolston and Mary Adaline Sarber. Her mother died in September of 1887 when Della was 17.

Della lived at home until 1900. She was enumerated in the 1900 census of Wood County at the age of 30. She left West Virginia by train shortly after the census. From her venture West it is obvious that Della May was an independent and self-reliant lady. Unfortunately, most all of the oral family history of Della's life were from her declining years.

Accounts of Della May by family members:

Della May, as personally described by her grand nephew, Ralph Lewis Rolston, was short in stature, about 5'4", with brown hair, and brown eyes. Little is recorded of her youth, but in 1900 Della May and a friend decided that they would venture West by train to California to prospect for gold. They made it as far as New Mexico where they found that land was being offered for homesteading. Della May and her friend decided to forgo the lure of gold, and each homesteaded one hundred and sixty acres in Eddy County, New Mexico. Before the farm became self-sustaining, Della obtained a job at the Artesia Post Office.

Sometime after her arrival in Artesia, Della met Highland G. Southworth, and they married on April 14, 1909, in Artesia. No children were born to their union. On March 21, 1912 the 160 acre homestead was proven and the property patented to Della M. Southworth. The couple grew cotton and later leased oil rites.

In early 1921 Della and Highland went to Colorado Springs, Colorado, to see Della's brother Charles' four orphaned children. The purpose of this visit is not known. Not having any children, they may have contemplated adoption, or being the closest member of the Rolston family, they were asked to check into the status of the children. In either case, the Southworth's, bringing toys and candy, stayed only for some portion of the day before returning home to New Mexico.

Della May and husband, Highland, returned to the Wood County, West Virginia, by car for a visit on one occasion. Grand nephew, Lawrence Hubert Rolston, remembers meeting Della May briefly at this time. "...She looked the outdoor type and had a finger crushing handshake."

Della and sister-in-law Maggie Griffith Jones Rolston, the wife of Della's twin brother Lewis, were essentially the same age and had become great friends during the period prior to Della's move to New Mexico. The separation of Lewis and Maggie around 1911 did not adversely impact this friendship. Maggie was well liked by the Rolston family, and estranged husband, Lewis, became an outcast from his own family after the separation. After her children had grown, Maggie had a desire to travel to New Mexico to visit Della but did not care to travel alone. Maggie enlisted her seventeen year old grand nephew, Ralph Lewis Rolston, to accompany her by bus from West Virginia to New Mexico in the summer of 1948.

Grand nephew Ralph recalls that the farm had a fair sized shed there in which Della and Highland keep all of their empty cans from vegetables and other canned foods which they purchased. Ralph inquired as to why they bothered to save the cans, and Della replied, "You never know when there is going to be another war." Having lived through two world wars, there was no reason for Della not to expect a third.

Della and Highland built a new house. Even with substantial property, somehow they managed to have the house built too near to their property line. This was a costly mistake according to grand nephew Ralph. This error was likely still being negotiated when her grand nephew Charles Granville Rolston Jr. went to visit. As Charles would later recount to his daughter, Jacquie, "They [Della and Highland] were living in a converted chicken coop even though there was a house on the property."

In 1953 nephew Forrest H. Rolston and his family visited the Southworth's. Grand-niece Ruth Helen Rolston, who was age eleven at the time, recalls this visit. The house that Della and Highland lived in was new but very small. Della was very proud of the new home and the bath tub. The bath tub had yet to be used as it still had the manufacturer's paper sticker pasted on the inside. The house smelled of sulfur due to the numerous oil wells on the surrounding property. The house was not air-conditioned but, the Southworth's kept the windows closed even during the heat of summer.

Ruth believes that Della's mental condition was questionable at this time. During the visit Della went to change into clean clothes; however, when she emerged, she had simply placed a clean dress over the dirty one instead of removing it. By the bedroom door there was a davenport in which Della slept at night. Della told Ruth that at bedtime she pulled the davenport in front of the bedroom door such that her husband, Highland, could not get out and 'run around' without her knowledge.

When Highland died on January 25, 1957, his estate was inherited by his wife Della; probate court record number 2270. Grand nephew Charles Granville Rolston Jr. did not believe that Della was of sound mind at the time of Highland's death.

Della, 88, died two months later, intestate, on March 30, 1959 in Artesia, Eddy County, New Mexico, just four days before her 89th birthday. She joined her husband in the Restlawn Memorial Park cemetery in Artesia. The cemetery has since been renamed and is now known as Twin Oaks Memorial Park.

rites set for Mrs. Della Southworth

Mrs. Della M. Southworth, approximately 88 years of age, died at 7:10 last night at her home on East Mosley. Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Friday in the Paulin Chapel with the Reverend Fred Klerekoper officiating. Burial will be in Restlawn Memorial Park. Mrs. W.S. Larrabee, Tulsa, Oklahoma, Mrs. R. E. Stewart, Amarillo, Texas, Ralph Ralston, Tulsa and Harold Ralston, Kansas City., Missouri, will arrive in Artesia Thursday for the services. All were nieces and nephews.

Notes:

In the settlement of her estate, Eddy County probate court record 2490, some $50,000 and the mineral rights for forty acres of property were divided into strips among the heirs of Della's family. Sister Mrs. Ida Maria (Rolston) Pollock, deceased, never had any children and thus no heirs. Brothers Nathan and George both had died during childhood. This left only four groups of heirs for the estate: heirs of brothers John William, Charles Granville, and Lewis Alberto, and heirs of sister Fannie Mertle (Mrs. Headley). Each 1/4 share was subsequently divided among the heirs of that strip. Mineral rights are still held by various descendants.

Notes for Highland Gessner Southworth:

Highland Gessner Southworth was born July 31, 1877 in Lake County, California, the son of Franklin P. Southworth and Anna L. Green. His place of birth is probably the township of Big Valley in Lake County, California, where he was enumerated at the age of 2 during the 1880 census. The given name of Highland is also found spelled as Hilan or Hiland.

New Mexico land records show Highland's father, Franklin P. Southworth, registered to homestead one of the 160 acre plots but no patent was ever issued. Franklin died in 1898, and Highland along with his sister went to live with their paternal uncle, Hiland Southworth, and Aunt Ella in Abilene, Dickinson County, Kansas. Highland, age 22, and his sister Elaie were both attending school there during the 1900 census.

In 1902, Highland returned to Artesia, Eddy County, New Mexico, where he met and later married Della May Rolston on April 14, 1909. The Southworth's, who never had children, were a frugal and eccentric couple. Della wore long dresses with tennis shoes and kept her money pinned to the inside hem of her dress. Highland also carried a fair size roll of cash with him. Grand nephew Ralph Rolston recalls that during his visit in 1948, he and his uncle had gone to the store. While in the store a traveling salesman pulled into the parking lot well behind them. Highland did not notice the salesman's vehicle as he was backing out and collided with the parked vehicle. Not wanting Della to find out he backed into someone's car, Highland asked the salesman how much the damage was to his vehicle and paid him cash on the spot. The salesman pocketed the cash, and a few weeks later the company for the salesman sent Highland a bill for the repairs to the vehicle.

The prosperous Southworth farm produced alfalfa and cotton. Mexicans were hired to pick the cotton and were paid by the pound. One of the regular employees typically took advantage of Highland by including the husk of the cotton during her picking as it added to the weight and thus her wages. Along with this deception she would often complain that she had picked more than was recorded. Highland, who apparently had no desire to confront his worker's deceptive practices, would simply pay her the additional money.

Highland, 79, died January 25, 1957 in Artesia, Eddy County, New Mexico, and was buried in the Restlawn Memorial Park (now Twin Oaks Memorial Park) in Artesia. He was survived by Della, his wife of 47 years.

Southworth Rites Set For Monday

Funeral services for H.G. Southworth, long-time area resident, are scheduled for 10 a.m. Monday in Pauline Funeral Home chapel with the Rev. Fred Kierekoper officiating. Burial will be in Restlawn Memorial Park. Southworth died in his home on East Mosley Friday after an extended illness. He was 78. Southworth came to Artesia in 1902 and farmed land east of Artesia. He is survived by the widow.

- x. FANNIE MERTLE ROLSTON was born on 26 Feb 1873 in Ogden, Wood Co., W.V.. She died in Feb 1959 in Tulsa, Tulsa Co., Ok. (age 85). She married Leroy R. Headley, son of Thomas Headley and Elvira Pride, on 05 May 1898 in Wood Co., W.V.. He was born on 21 Jul 1868 in Union Dist., Wood Co., W.V.. He died in Sep 1926 in Oklahoma (age 58).

Notes for Fannie Mertle Rolston:

Fannie Mertle Rolston was born February 26, 1873 in Ogden, Wood County, West Virginia, the youngest of ten children born to Granville Harness Rolston and Mary Adalin Sarber. Her mother died September 26, 1887 when Fannie was nine years old. Fannie's older sister Della May still lived at home and helped raise her until she became a young adult.

On May 5, 1898 in Wood County, West Virginia, Fannie, age 25, married Leroy R. Headley. The marriage was not recorded in Wood County where Fannie lived. In 1900 Leroy worked as a merchant, and they living next door to Fannie's brother, Lewis A. Rolston, also a merchant. The couple had two children, both daughters born in West Virginia. Fannie's husband went into the oil business, and the left West Virginia for Kansas and then onto Oklahoma. Leroy died in September of 1926 and was buried in Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma. After her husband's death, Fannie lived with her daughter, Mrs. Shala Larrabee, in Tulsa. The 1958-1959 city directories for Tulsa, Oklahoma, listed Fannie as the widow of Leroy Headley.

Fannie, 85, died in February of 1959 in Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, and was buried February 16th in the Eastlawn, Rose Hill Cemetery in Tulsa.

Fannies' sister Della May died two months later. Fannie was an heir to her sister's estate which included a share of the oil rights from the Southworth's property. Being deceased at the time of her sister's death, this share was divided among Fannie's two daughters.

Notes for Leroy R. Headley:

Leroy R. Headley was born July 1868 in West Virginia, one of six children born to Thomas Headley and Elvira Pride. Often known only as L. R. Headley, but he was also known as LeRoy or just Roy.

On May 5, 1898 in Wood County, West Virginia, Leroy married Fannie Mertle Rolston. The marriage was not recorded in Wood County where Fannie live. The couple lived in the Union District of Wood County, West Virginia during the 1900 census and not far from Leroy's parents and Fannie's brothers, Lewis and John. Leroy worked as a merchant in Wood County, West Virginia for a number of years before moving to Kansas and then onto Oklahoma where he is said to have been in the oil business.

Leroy, 58, died in September of 1926 in Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, and was buried September 9th in the Eastlawn section of the Rose Hill Cemetery in Tulsa. He was survived by his wife and their two daughters.

Notes for David Compton Rolston:

David Compton Rolston was born December 17, 1827 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the fifth of eight children born to Nathan Rolston and Sarah Harness. David's middle name of Compton reflects a longtime family friendship with the Compton family and their descendants.

On June 12, 1851 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), "David C. Rollston" (sic) was appointed constable for district #2 of Pleasants County. It is not known for how long he held this position.

On April 14, 1852 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), David married Eliza E. Ingraham. The couple had two children. Sometime after 1855, in the later years of the '49 California Gold Rush, David left for California, leaving his wife and two children behind. David was mentioned in the 1883 will of his father, Nathan Rolston, as an heir "...if living..." David's daughter, Viola, was mentioned as an heir, but David's son, Abraham, was already deceased by the time Grandfather Nathan's will was written.

David and brothers Solomon William, John Tyler, and perhaps brother Granville Harness traveled together to California. Granville returned home. His brothers Solomon and John lived near Sacramento; brother John eventually removed the Arizona Territory. By 1866 David had moved onto Marin County, north of San Francisco and later moving south to Santa Clara County.

David, 41, died of Typhoid Fever on August 7, 1869 in the area of Santa Clara & Redwood Townships in Santa Clara County, California [death notice, The Sacramento Bee], and was buried as D. C. Raulston in the paupers section of the Mission City Memorial Park cemetery in Santa Clara, Santa Clara County, California. His death was some eleven years prior to his father's will being written. David's father's 1883 will indicates that David's fate was unknown to the family, but it is noted that David's wife remarried in 1875, six years after his death.

Notes for Eliza E. Ingraham:

Eliza E. Ingraham was born January 11, 1831 in the Union District of Wood County, Virginia [now West Virginia], the fifth of eight children born to Abraham Freel Ingram [Ingraham] and Nancy Alinda McAtee.

Eliza married David Compton Rolston on April 14, 1852 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), and the couple had two children. She and the children remained in the area when David ventured off to California. He would never return. It has been speculated that Eliza may have eventually filed for divorce from David Compton Rolston on the grounds of desertion, but there is no record of a divorce. On December 2, 1874 in Wood County, West Virginia, about three years after husband David's death, Eliza married the widower Rev. Hubbard Martin Prince, a minister and farmer. Eliza, her two children, and the Rev. Hubbard Prince later move to Eau Gallie, Brevard County, Florida.

In the 1885 census of Brevard County, Florida, Eliza and her second husband, the Rev. Prince, were residing in Malabar. Residing next door were Eliza's three grandchildren, children of her daughter Viola. Eliza's husband died about 1889 at the age of 71. The widowed Eliza, age 68, was enumerated in the 1900 census of Eau Gallie Township and reports that both of her two children were deceased. Eliza was enumerated in the 1910 census of Eau Gallie at the age of 78. She made her living as a dressmaker.

Eliza likely remained in Eau Gallie until her death. Her date and place of death and burial are unknown.

David Compton Rolston and Eliza E. Ingraham had the following children:

- i. ABRAHAM FREEL<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 14 Aug 1853 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 13 Apr 1882 in Minneapolis, Hennepin Co., Minn. (age 28). He married Unknown before 1882.

Notes for Abraham Freel Rolston:

Abraham Freel Rolston was born August 14, 1853 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia) the elder of two children and only son born to David Compton Rolston and Eliza E. Ingraham. Abraham was named after his maternal grandfather, Abraham Freel Ingram, whose mother was Catherine Nancy Freel. Abraham was little more than two or three years old when his father left the family behind to seek his fortunes in California. His father died in 1872 in California, but the family may not have known of his death. His mother remarried but did not have children from her second union.

Abraham was enumerated twice in 1870. Once with his mother and secondly with his maternal grandparents. Sometime after the 1870 census, Abraham set out on his own, ending up in Minnesota.

Abraham, 28, died of Typhoid Fever on April 13, 1882 in Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minnesota, and was buried in the Minneapolis Pioneers and Soldiers Memorial Cemetery in Minneapolis. His grave is no longer marked. He was survived by his sister, Mrs. Viola Kinnaird, and their mother, Mrs. Eliza Prince.

Although he died and was buried in Minnesota, Abraham's death was recorded in Wood County, West Virginia. According to his death record, Abraham was married at the time of his death. Abraham was not mentioned in the will of his paternal grandfather, Nathan Rolston, as the will was written in June of 1884, two years after Abraham's death. No children from Abraham were mentioned in the Nathan's will, and it is presumed that none existed at the time of his death.

Notes for Unknown:

According to Abraham's death certificate, he was married at the time of his death. The date and place of his marriage is unknown but probably in Minnesota. His wife's name is unknown. No children were born to their union.

- ii. LOISE VIOLA ROLSTON was born on 22 Sep 1855 in Bull Creek, Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died between 1885-1900. She married Sardis Rufus Kinnaird, son of Paschal Kinnaird and Frances M. Dunaway, on 18 Jun 1872 in Wood Co., W.V.. He was born on 29 Nov 1854 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 21 Jul 1935 in Wood Co., W.V. (age 80).

Notes for Loise Viola Rolston:

Loise Viola Rolston was born September 22, 1855 in the area known as Bull Creek, Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the younger of two children and only daughter born to David Compton Rolston and Eliza E. Ingraham. She was always known by her middle name, Viola.

Viola never knew her father. Before or soon after her birth, her father left for California where he died in 1872. In 1875 her mother married the Rev. Hubbard Martin Prince, who became her stepfather. No children were born to Viola's mother and the Reverend.

On June 18, 1872 in Wood County, West Virginia, Viola married Sardis Rufus Kinnaird, and three children were born to their union. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia:

Sardis R Kinnaird	Self	M	27	Virginia
Viola Kinnaird	Wife	F	24	Virginia
Eugene Kinnaird	Son	M	7	West Virginia
Bulia Kinnaird	Daughter	F	5	West Virginia
Laurie Kinnaird	Daughter	F	1/12	West Virginia

The couple divorced sometime after 1880, and by 1885 Viola and the three children had moved to Eau Gallie (now Melbourne), Brevard County, Florida, along with her mother and stepfather.

Viola was mentioned as an heir in the 1883 will of her paternal grandfather, Nathan Rolston. Sometime after the divorce, she appears to have returned to her maiden name. L.V. Ralston was enumerated in the 1885 Florida State Census of Sebastian, Brevard County. She was listed as 29 years old when the census was taken on June 1, 1885. She was a fruit grower born in West Virginia. During this same census, Viola's three children were residing in Malabar, Florida with a Mr. E.L. Cecil, a fruit grower. Living next door to the children was Rev. & Mrs. H. M. Prince, Viola's mother and stepfather.

Viola is said to have moved to Canada with daughter Lennie where she is believed to have died between 1890 and 1900. Viola's daughter Linnie died in New York in 1898. Linnie's death record refers to her mother as Loise Viola. In the 1900 census Viola's mother, Mrs. Eliza Prince, reported that both of her children were dead.

Notes for Sardis Rufus Kinnaird:

Sardis Rufus Kinnaird was born November 29, 1854 Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the son of Paschal Kinnaird and Miss Dunaway.

On June 18, 1872 in Wood County, West Virginia, Sardis married Loise Viola Rolston. Three children, a son and two daughters, were born to the couple. (Their son spelled the surname as Kinniard.) Sardis worked as an engineer on river boats that ran up and down the Ohio River. The couple divorced sometime after 1880, and his wife took the three children to Florida.

About 1886 in West Virginia, Sardis married Ida Hulderman. They were enumerated in the 1910 census of Wood County, West Virginia along with their two daughters.

Sardis, 80, died July 21, 1935 in Wood County, West Virginia and was buried in the Riverview Cemetery in Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia.

Notes for Eliza Alcinda Rolston:

Eliza Alcinda Rolston was born December 11, 1830 in the Union District of Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the sixth of eight children to born to Nathan Rolston and Sarah Harness. She was a lifetime resident of Wood County.

On October 11, 1854 in Williamsport, Wood County, Virginia, Eliza married Rufus P. Ingraham. (Williamsport, Wood County, Virginia is now Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia). The marriage license record for Rufus P. Ingraham and Eliza shows her middle name as "Ann". Birth records for Wood County in 1855 indicate that Eliza may have gone by the name of Alvira E. Ingram for some period of time. 1861 Wood County birth records show her back to using Eliza A. but now as Ingraham and not Ingram. The couple had eight children.

Eliza and husband Rufus owned a farm on Worthington Creek near the home of Eliza's brother, Granville Harness Rolston. In 1890 the Ingraham's purchased a home in Waverly that overlooked the Ohio River. Her father, Nathan, died later that year. Eliza was the only child of her father Nathan that was not named in his will dated February 5, 1883, nor in any of the two codicils that would follow. The significance of this omission is not known for certain, but it is believed that she was omitted from the will only because she was already financially secure due to her marriage to Rufus Ingraham. Husband Rufus died seven years later on April 28, 1897. They had been married for 42 years. Her husband left no will. The majority of the estate was divided equally among the children. Part of the estate settlement required each of the children to pay their mother $100 a year for the remainder of her life. Eliza remained living at this Waverly home until her death.

Eliza, 91, died of pneumonia on May 15, 1922 in Waverly, Wood County, West Virginia. She was buried in the Knights of Pythias Cemetery in Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia. The cemetery is now known as the Riverview Cemetery.

Son Granville was the executor of Eliza's estate. The estate, valued at $7,887.80, was settled on 1 July 1923. The sale of the property was recorded in the Wood County, West Virginia, Deed book number 181, pages 145 & 146.

MRS. R. P. INGRAM DIES AT WAVERLY

One of the oldest residents of the county succumbs to illness

Death came on Monday evening to one of Wood county's oldest citizens when Mrs. R. P. Ingram of Waverly, passed away at the age of 91 years, five months and four days. Mrs. Ingram was a daughter of Nathan Rolston and her husband died some 25 years ago. Surviving her are four sons and four daughters as follows: A. S. Ingram, of Broken Bow, Neb.; James F., Newport, Ohio; F. E., Marietta; Granville H., Oklahoma; Mrs. V. H. Wingrove, Waverly; Mrs. F. C. Jones, Oakmont, Pa.; Mrs. Nora J. Rolston, Williamstown, and Miss Kate Rolston, of Waverly. Funeral services will be held at the late home on this afternoon at 12:30 and interment will be made in the Knights of Pythias cemetery at Williamstown.

Notes for Rufus Putnam Ingraham:

Rufus Putnam Ingraham was born September 26, 1826 in the Union District of Wood County, Virginia, (now West Virginia) the third of eight children born to Abraham Freel Ingram (Ingraham) and Nancy Alinda McAtee.

The Ingraham surname has been a source of some controversy as it seemed unclear as to whether it was properly spelled as 'Ingram' or as 'Ingraham.' Public records have done little to quell this dispute as the records show Rufus was born with the surname of Ingram. He continued to be shown as using this surname until some time after the birth of his daughter in August of 1855. The next Wood County birth record in July of 1861 shows Rufus going by the surname of Ingraham. The problem appears to stem from the enunciation of the surname by the Ingraham family. The 'h' is pronounced softly leading the listener to interpret the surname as Ingram and not as Ingraham.

On October 11, 1854 in Williamsport, Wood County, Virginia (now Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia), Rufus married Eliza Alcinda Rolston. Eight children were born to the couple. Rufus was a prosperous farmer. His farm was located on Worthington Creek in Wood County. In 1890 Rufus purchased a home in Waverly and retired from farming.

Rufus, 70, died April 28, 1897 in Waverly, Wood County, West Virginia. He was survived by his wife and presumably their eight children. His remains are located in the Riverview Cemetery, but this was not the original burial location. Rufus' remains were relocated some 25 years after his death to the Riverview Cemetery around the time of his wife's death in 1922.

RUFUS P. INGRAHAM DEAD

One of the Oldest and Wealthiest Citizens of the County
His Estate Valued at Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars - Leaves a Large Family

Rufus P. Ingraham, one of Wood county's oldest and wealthiest inhabitants, passed away at his home in Waverly last night. Mr. Ingraham, although past 70 years of age, had always enjoyed exceptionally good health and his death was due to a sudden attack of heart trouble. Mr. Ingraham leaves a wife, five daughters and five sons, all of whom are grown. The deceased was one of the largest land owners in this county, his estate being valued at several hundred thousand dollars. Up till the time of the Waverly and Ogdin oil excitement his estate was valuable one but since the mineral wealth, which has been discovered under it has been developed it has been greatly enhanced in value. The funeral arrangements have not yet been decided upon as some of the children of the deceased live in the west. The news of Mr. Ingraham's death was great shock to his many friends in this city who were pained to learn of his sudden demise.

Note: The obituary was in error as Rufus had four daughters and four sons, not five of each.

Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza Alcinda Rolston had the following children:

- i. LORENDA ARMANDA<sup>6</sup> INGRAHAM was born on 28 Aug 1855 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died on 03 Oct 1934 in Waverly, Union Dist., Wood Co., W.V. (age 79). She married David Hazelton Wingrove, son of William H. Wingrove and Margaret Boston, on 23 Dec 1875 in Washington Co., Ohio. He was born on 29 Apr 1854 in Belmont Co., Ohio. He died on 07 Jun 1942 in Waverly, Wood Co., W.V. (age 88).

Notes for Lorenda Armanda Ingraham:

Lorenda Armanda Ingraham was born August 28, 1855 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the eldest of eight children born to Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza Alcinda Rolston. The family sometimes used the surname of Ingram.

On December 23, 1875 in Washington County, Ohio, Lorenda married David Hazelton Wingrove. The couple lived and farmed in the Union District of Wood County, West Virginia. Seven children, six daughters and one son, were born to the couple. Their sixth child, daughter Stella, died in 1894 at the age of two months. Daughter Abigail died in 1912 at the age of 22, and in 1931 daughters Sarah and Eliza died.

Lorenda, 79, preceded her husband in death on October 3, 1934 in Waverly, Wood County, West Virginia and was buried in the Riverview Cemetery in Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia. Besides her husband, she was survived by three of her seven children.

Notes for David Hazelton Wingrove:

David Hazelton Wingrove was born April 29, 1854 in Belmont County, Ohio, the eldest of eight children born to William H. Wingrove and Margaret Boston. At the close of the 1860's, his father moved the family to Wood County, West Virginia where David grew to adulthood.

On December 23, 1875 in Washington County, Ohio, David, age 21, married Lorenda Armanda Ingraham. The couple farmed in the Union District of Wood County, West Virginia and raised a family of eight children, seven daughters and one son. Four of their six daughters preceded them in death.

Lorenda, David's wife of nearly 60 years, preceded him in death in 1934.

Daivid, 88, died June 7, 1942 in Waverly, Wood County, West Virginia and was buried in the Riverview Cemetery in Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia.

- ii. ALONZO FREEL INGRAHAM was born on 05 Oct 1857 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 19 Mar 1933 in Broken Bow, Custer Co., Neb. (age 75). He married Susan M. Cowles, daughter of William W. Cowles and Delia L, on 05 Dec 1888 in Thedford, Thomas Co., Neb.. She was born on 14 Aug 1855 in Belchertown, Hampshire Co., Mass.. She died on 01 Jul 1939 in Broken Bow, Custer Co., Neb. (age 83).

Notes for Alonzo Freel Ingraham:

Alonzo Freel Ingraham was born October 5, 1857 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia) the second of eight children born to Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza Alcinda Rolston. He was known by his middle name Freel. In 1882 Freel and his younger brother Granville headed west to Nebraska and resided in the town of Lincoln in Lancaster county. The following year they moved to Broken Bow in Custer county. In the 1885 census, Alonzo was enumerated with 50 acres of tilled land and 110 acres of unimproved land.

On December 5, 1888, in neighboring Thomas County, Freel married Susan M. Cowles. His brother Granville married the following year, but his brother Granville, wife and child returned to West Virginia in the 1890's. Freel, however, remained in Nebraska. Freel and Susan farmed and were considered as pioneers of the area. Two children, a daughter and a son, were born to the couple.

The following excerpt is from a letter written on August 21, 1927 from his home in Broken Bow. Within this letter Freel reminisces of his move to Nebraska and how things have changed over the past forty years:

Just now I am reminded of my school boy days with all those happy, joyful memories with all cares forgotten. I am wondering where all those companions and school mates are. May of them we have met for the last time on earth, very many have been called away by death, others have wandered away from the old hearth-stone to all parts of the globe never to return to child-hood scenes and home folks.

I am reminded of two lads leaving their W.Va. homes and what a friendly gathering we had the night before their departure. As I remember, these lads journeyed westward into Neb. the golden rod state. We stopped at Lincoln for about one year.

On the tenth day of April 1883 they left Lincoln bound for Custer Co. Neb. This county had been organized in 1877 and at this time only six years old.

We went from Lincoln to Kearney, Neb. over the Burlington R.R. From this town we traveled over the Union Pacific railroad and left the train at Gothenburg, then just a siding, now a very flourishing town. No depot, one grocery store, a livery stable, and a small hotel at that time. There we engaged a driver with his team to take us over to Arnold a distance of thirty-five miles. We never saw a man, house, or tree till we reached Arnold. All we found there was a post office and a cattle corral. We could find no lodging place in the town so our driver took us down the South Loup river about three miles to a ranchman, here we found a place to stay over night and also get the team fed. The following morning we started for Broken Bow now our county seat -- this was a distance of forty miles not seeing any people or houses until near Broken Bow. When we arrived here we found one grocery store, a small hotel, one frame building which contained the land office, a sod printing office and not more than one dozen dwelling houses. Today we have about three-thousand population, nine miles of paving, seven Protestant churches, one high school, one Junior high, and two grade school buildings. We have seven garages, six oil stations and same number of repair shops all doing a big business in their line.

At the time I began my story there was not a R.Road or a laid out road anywhere in Custer Co., and I doubt if there was even a school-house or church in the county. Now we have two railroads running through with more miles and better dirt roads than any county in the state. And I believe I am safe in saying as many school houses as any county in the state. When I wrote about the roads I omitted to say we have gravelled roads most of the way from Lincoln to Broken Bow a distance of two hundred miles. In Broken Bow school district last year (1926 & 1927) the number of pupils enrolled were:

*High School ..... 265
Junior High ..... 182
2 Grade Schools ..... 387*

I venture to say that no one but a homesteader or a pioneer can realize what it takes to subdue a wild prairie county eighty miles from a railroad where everything had to be freighted by team. Nothing on the land but the native sod to make any improvements with on the homestead. In the canyons we could find a few poles on government land. The first settlers used the brush over the poles as rafters, then used thin sod to shingle with, afterwards using clay on top of the roof to seal the cracks that would turn an ordinary shower. Whew -- when there came a genuine old soaker you had to hunt up all the old pans, deep or shallow, then distribute them about the shack to keep the babies from drowning.

I well remember my first night I spend on the homestead in just such a house as I have described -- All alone, without even a bed of any kind except a pile of straw. I did own a good rubber coat, no light, and with a pouring rain. I stood up in the corner and just let it rain -- What else could I do?

When we made a trip to the railroad we took a provision box and horse feed - it usually took me four days to make the round trip all depending upon the weather. We had no roads. We picketed our teams out on the prairie or tied them to the wagon while we slept under it. And how wonderfully glad and happy we were to get back to the little sod house on the claim. No place like home, be it every so soddy.

I just wish to say a few words about the country as it was forty four years ago last spring as compared with it today. All the country between Broken Bow and Arnold, no blossoms with fertile fields, fine frame houses and barns and were it used to take a whole day to drive from Arnold to our county seat any one can drive in one hour now. We drove from our house to Arnold a few days ago in 1 hr. 20 mins. we were in no hurry. A wonderful highway all the way.

Forty-five years have come and gone so many, many scenes and faces as it were just a memory, joy and sadness, prosperity and adversity, smiles and tears through it all. But then how one loves to think of the far away past and the future - Ah, what of that?

Here's to a wonderful time at the annual re-union. I would like to have you remember me just as one in the little old sod house now gone to decay you remember me as there in the years of long ago.

*Your -- a pioneer
Freel*

Six years after writing this letter, Freel, 75, preceded his wife in death on March 19, 1933 in Broken Bow, Custer County, Nebraska and was buried in the Broken Bow Cemetery in Broken Bow.

COMPENDIUM OF HISTORY, REMINISCENCE AND BIOGRAPHY, page 1038:

"ALONZO FREEL INGRAHAM.

Alonzo Freel Ingraham, now living retired from more active life, at Broken Bow, Nebraska, is a prosperous and successful man of affairs, owning considerable well improved land and fine stock and being interested in various business enterprises. He is one of the early settlers of his region and has been all interested witness of the great changes wrought by settlement and progress in central Nebraska, since locating there in 1883. Mr Ingraham was born in Wood county, West Virginia, October 5, 1857, and is a son of Rufus P. and Eliza (Ralston) Ingraham being second of their eight children. He has two sisters in West Virginia; one sister in Cincinnati, another in Pittsburg; two brothers in Washington county, Ohio, and one in West Virginia. Rufus P. Ingraham, also born in Wood county, was of German and English extracation and died in West Virginia in April, 1897. The mother, also born in West Virginia, is of Irish extracation [sic] and still lives in the old home in her native state.

After being educated in the school of his native state, Alonzo F Ingraham engaged in farming there. In the spring of 1882 he made a trip west in search of a desirable location, made a short stay in Lancaster county, Nebraska, coming on to Custer county in the following spring. He secured a homestead of one hundred and sixty acres of land near Broken Bow, and this place, which was the southeast quarter of section twenty-two, township seventeen, range twenty-one, was the home of the family for many years. He was married in Thomas county, Nebraska, December 5, 1888, to Miss Susan M. Cowles, who was born in Massachusetts, and for sometime taught school in Illinois. She also homesteaded in Custer county. Her father, William W. Cowles, was born in Belchertown, Massachusetts, served in the civil war as a member of Company M, Fourteenth Illinois Cavalry for four years, and now lives in Peoria., Illinois. The mother, whose maiden name was Lucy C. Wood, was a native of the same place as her husband and still survives, living in Illinois, and two daughters are living in that state. Two children were born to Mr. Ingraham and wife: Cordelia E. and Alonzo Fred, both at home.

In 1901 Mr Ingraham left the farm and brought his family to Broken Bow, where he owns seven acres of land and a nice home, their house being modern and fitted with many conveniences and comforts. The family stand well in social circles and have a wide circle of friends. They are interested in various public measures and have the welfare of their county and state at heart. Mr Ingraham is a member of the Royal Highlanders and of the Tribe of Ben Hur."

Notes for Susan M. Cowles:

Susan "Sue" M. Cowles was born August 14, 1855 in Belchertown, Hampshire County, Massachusetts, the daughter of William W. and Delia L. Cowles. Her father moved the family to Illinois where they were enumerated in the 1880 census of Brimfield Township, Peoria County, Illinois:

William W. Cowles MA CT	Self	M	Male	W	49	MA	US Post Master
Delia L. Cowles Wife MA MA	M		Female	W	45	MA	Keeping House
Sussie M. Cowles Post Mistress MA	Dau	S	Female	W	24	MA	Asst.
Ellen D. Cowles MA MA	Dau	S	Female	W	18	IL	At Home
Charles T. Cady CT NY	Other	S	Male	W	25	IL	At School

They later removed to Custer County, Nebraska.

On December 5, 1888 in Thedford, Thomas County, Nebraska, Susan married Alonzo Freel Ingraham. Two children are known to have been born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of Custer County, Nebraska where her widowed father was residing with them. Alonzo, Susan's husband of 45 years, preceded her in death in March of 1933 at the age of 74.

Susan, 83, died July 1, 1939 in Broken Bow, Custer County, Nebraska and joined her husband in the Broken Bow Cemetery in Broken Bow.

- iii. SARAH TABITHA INGRAHAM was born on 14 Jul 1861 in Worthington Creek, Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died on 12 Aug 1935 in St. Petersburg, Pinellas Co., Fla. (age 74). She married Frank Croco Jones, son of Henry Wilkinson Jones and Catharine Croco, on 18 Oct 1882 in Wood Co., W.V.. He was born on 25 Oct 1858 in Pennsylvania. He died in 1915 in Pennsylvania (age ~56).

Notes for Sarah Tabitha Ingraham:

Sarah Tabitha Ingraham was born July 14, 1861 in Worthington Creek, Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia) the third of eight children born to Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza Alcinda Rolston. She spent her early life in Waverly, Wood County, West Virginia.

On October 18, 1882 in Wood County, West Virginia, Sarah married Frank Croco Jones. The couple lived in Pittsburg, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, where they raised their family of five children.

In 1915, Frank, Sarah's husband of some 23 years, died. Sarah remained in Pennsylvania for a period of years before removing to St. Petersburg, Pinellas County, Florida, where she resided with her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Anderson.

Sarah, 74, died in Saint Petersburg, Pinellas County, Florida, on August 12, 1935. Her body was returned to Wilksburg, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania and buried next to her husband in the Woodlawn Cemetery.

Notes for Frank Croco Jones:

Frank Croco Jones was born October 25, 1858 in Pennsylvania, the third of ten children born to Henry Wilkinson Jones and Catharine Croco. The family removed to West Virginia after the Civil War.

On October 18, 1882 in Wood County, West Virginia, Frank married Sarah Tabitha Ingraham. The couple moved to Pennsylvania where they were enumerated in the 1900 census of Vandergrift Borough in Allegheny Township of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, with their five children. Frank's widowed father was living with them.

Frank, about age 57, preceded his wife in death in 1915 and was buried in the Woodlawn Cemetery in Wilksburg, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania. (tombstone has year of birth as 1859)

- iv. JAMES FRANKLIN INGRAHAM was born on 22 Apr 1863 in Ogden, Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 23 Jul 1939 in Newport Twp., Washington Co., Ohio (age 76). He married (1) CARRIE ELZEDA JONES on 26 Apr 1888 in Wood Co., W.V. (R. L. Woodyard). She was born on 24 Feb 1867 in Wood Co., W.V.. She died on 18 Jul 1891 in Union Dist., Wood Co., W.V. (age 24). He married (2) RACHEL MAY HENDERSHOT, daughter of George Madison Davis Hendershot and Nancy Elizabeth Richardson, on 22 Sep 1892 in Wood Co., W.V.. She was born on 07 Jul 1870 in Ogden, Wood Co., W.V.. She died on 09 Jan 1949 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio (age 78).

Notes for James Franklin Ingraham:

James Franklin "Frank" Ingraham was born April 22, 1863 in Ogden, Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia) the fourth of eight children born to Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza Alcinda Rolston.

James married twice. On April 26, 1888 in Wood County, West Virginia, James, age 25, married Carrie Elzada Jones, age 21. The couple had one child, a son, before Carrie's death from consumption on July 18, 1891.

On September 22, 1892 in Wood County, West Virginia, the widowed James married Rachel May Hendershot. Eight children are attributed to the couple; one child dying at the age of three. A few years prior to the 1900 census, James moved the family across the Ohio River into Newport Township of Washington County, Ohio where the family farmed for the next forty years.

James, 76, died of prostate cancer on July 23, 1939 in Newport Township of Washington County, Ohio, and was buried in the Barker Cemetery in Newport Township. Surviving was his wife and seven of their eight children. Also surviving was his son Richard from his first marriage, and James' youngest sister, Ms. Honora "Nora" Rolston.

Notes for Carrie Elzada Jones:

Carrie's death was reported on August 8, 1891. In that report, her death was recorded as July 18, 1891. Her tombstone, however, gives her date of death as July 19, 1891, a day later than her death record.

- v. GRANVILLE HARNESS INGRAHAM was born on 22 Apr 1865 in Worthington Creek, Ogden, Wood Co., W.V.. He died on 03 Oct 1928 in Mt. Clemens, Macomb Co., Mich. (age 63). He married Mary Rachel Cowley on 18 Dec 1889 in Broken Bow, Custer Co., Neb.. She was born in Jul 1864 in Illinois. She died on 24 May 1944 in Galesburg, Knox Co., Ill. (age 79).

Notes for Granville Harness Ingraham:

Granville "Gran" Harness Ingraham was born April 22, 1865 at Worthington Creek, Ogdin, Wood County, West Virginia the fifth of eight children born to Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza Alcinda Rolston. He was known as 'Gran' to his family, friends and cousins. He was named after his maternal uncle, Granville Harness Rolston. His date of birth is also found as February 2, 1865. In 1882, like many of his era, Granville moved to Nebraska to homestead with his brother Freel. He homesteaded 160 acres in 1886, living in a 14 x 14 sod house.

On December 18, 1889 in Broken Bow, Custer County, Nebraska, Granville married Mary Rachel Cowley. On February 10, 1891 Granville received a land grant in Blaine County, Nebraska. Their first child was born September 11, 1893 in Thomas County, Nebraska. In 1895 he was granted another 160 acres in Broken Bow, Custer County, Nebraska. By 1896 they had returned to West Virginia and lived in Pleasants County where their three other children were born.

According to the family oral history, the couple separated about 1915 when his wife Mary caught Granville molesting their 16 year-old daughter. She chased him off the farm with a bull whip! Then Mary left, taking the children with her to Illinois. Granville filed for divorce, claiming she deserted him. The couple divorced on November 9, 1917. After their divorce, Granville sold his land grants in Nebraska.

Granville invested in land and oil, buying and selling, property and leases. In the last years of his life, Granville lived near Marietta in Washington County, Ohio, across the river from Waverly, West Virginia.

Granville, 63, died in Mt. Clemens, Macomb County, Michigan on October 3, 1928. He was buried in the Barker Cemetery in Lower Newport, Washington County, Ohio.

1915 Mary caught her husband molesting their 16 year-old daughter, Elsie. Mary took the children and left for Illinois. The couple divorced on November 9, 1917. She and the four children had moved to Galesburg, Knox County, Illinois where they were enumerated in the 1920 census:

Mary R Ingraham	Head	F	55	Illinois (widowed)
Clyde R Ingraham	Son	M	26	Nebraska
G Bert Ingraham	Son	M	23	West Virginia [Granville Bert Ingraham]
Elsie G Ingraham	Daughter	F	21	West Virginia
Ralph P Ingraham	Son	M	15	West Virginia

As did many divorced women, Mary listed herself as widowed. (Granville did not die until 1928.) Mary's son Ralph died in 1922. In the 1930 census her son Granville, his wife and their two children were living with her. They were still living together in 1940.

Mary, 79, died on May 24, 1944 in Galesburg, Knox County, Illinois, and was buried in the Brimfield Cemetery in Brimfield, Peoria County, Illinois.

- vi. FRIEND ERASTUS INGRAHAM was born on 01 May 1867 in Waverly, Wood Co., W.V.. He died on 18 Nov 1935 in Marietta Twp., Washington Co., Ohio (age 68). He married Grace B. Rawson, daughter of Samuel R. Rawson and Tabitha Jane Johnson, on 06 Aug 1891 in Waverly, Wood Co., W.V.. She was born on 18 Feb 1871 in Grant Twp., Pleasants Co., WV.. She died on 19 Aug 1951 in Newport Twp., Washington Co., Ohio (age 80).

Notes for Friend Erastus Ingraham:

Friend Erastus Ingraham was born May 1, 1867 Waverly, Wood County, West Virginia the sixth of eight children born to Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza Alcinda Rolston. About 1886 Friend ventured west to Nebraska with his brothers, Freel and Granville. As there were no trees, Friend built a sod house. The sod was held together with willows. The willows were located down by a river, a day's ride away.

Friend returned briefly to Waverly, West Virginia in 1891 to marry Grace B. Rawson. They married on August 6, 1891. The newly weds returned to Custer County, Nebraska where they homesteaded until 1896. Giving up on his pioneering spirit, the couple returned to Waverly, West Virginia.

"When my Grandfather [Friend] had all the Nebraska grasshoppers and crop failures he could stand, he returned to Waverly, West Virginia where he was born. He purchased a farm in Ohio, across the Ohio River from Waverly. It was mostly swamp so he put in tile and drained it. Our farm (Fried's) was on the Marietta Township and Newport Township line. The house I lived in is in Marietta Township and our barn was in Newport Township. If you look at a map, you will see Ohio route #7 follows the river; our home was on one side of Route 7 and our barn on the other side. You will notice that there is a bend in the Ohio River, our farm was at the eastern end of that bend." {letter from Charles H. Ingraham to Gerald B. Ingraham, November 12, 1995. #### F. E. INGRAHAM OF NEWPORT PIKE IS DEAD

Friend D. Ingraham, aged 68 years, prominent farmer of Newport Pike and a member of one of the well known families of this section of the Ohio Valley, died suddenly on his home farm on Newport Pike Monday at 9 a.m. following a heart attack. He had gone out to attend to his cattle at the barn and dropped dead in the pasture field. Member of his family went to him after he fell but death was immediate. His health had been impaired during the last two years. Mr. Ingraham was a son of the late Rufus and Eliza Ingraham, early settlers of Wood county, W. Va. He was born on the Ingraham farm on Worthington Creek, near Waverly, W. Va., and he spent his earlier life there. When a young man, he went to Broken Bow, Neb., where he took up a land claim. He returned to Waverly in 1891, and on August 8, 1891, was united in marriage with Miss Grace B. Rawson of Waverly. He left with his bride for Broken Bow where they lived for five years. In 1896 they came back to Waverly, and lived on the Ingraham homestead farm until they moved to the Ingraham farm on Newport Pike a number of years ago. Mr. Ingraham was one of the progressive farmers of Washington County and was well known. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Grace Rawson Ingraham; and a son and daughter, Charles H. Ingraham and Mrs. Samuel D. Thorniley, both of whom live on farms on Newport Pike. A daughter, Gladys, died when the family lived at Broken Bow. There are six grandchildren. Whittney Ingraham, Pauline Ingraham, Kathryn Ingraham, Charles H. Ingraham, Jr., David Thorniley and Friend Joseph Thorniley. Brothers and sisters of the deceased are James F. Ingraham of Newport Pike; Miss Kate Ingraham of Waverly, W.Va., and Mrs. Nora Ingraham Rolston of Williamstown, W. Va. Two brothers and two sisters are deceased. Funeral services will be held at the home on Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. Interment will be made in Valley cemetery.

Notes for Grace B. Rawson:

Grace "Gracie" B. Rawson was born February 18, 1871 in Grant Township of Pleasants County, West Virginia, one of five children known to have been born to Samuel R. Rawson and Tabitha Jane Johnson.

On August 6, 1891 in Waverly, West Virginia, Grace married Friend Erastus Ingraham. Three children were born to the couple. Her husband preceded her in death in 1935. After her husband's death, Grace moved in with her youngest daughter, Mrs. Chella Thorniley, in Newport Township of Washington County, Ohio.

Grace, 80, died August 19, 1951 in Newport Township of Washington County, Ohio and was buried in the East Lawn Memorial Park cemetery in Reno, Washington County, Ohio.

- vii. CATHARINE MAY INGRAHAM was born on 26 Apr 1869 in Waverly, Wood Co., W.V.. She died on 01 Feb 1938 in Waverly, Wood Co., W.V. (age 68). She married John H. P. Smith on 20 Dec 1898 in Parkersburg, Wood Co., W.V.. He was born in Nov 1874 in Pennsylvania.

Notes for Catharine May Ingraham:

Catharine "Kate" May Ingraham was born April 26, 1869 in Waverly, Wood County, West Virginia, the seventh of eight children born to Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza Alcinda Rolston.

On December 20, 1898 in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia, Kate married John H. P. Smith. The couple had no children. They lived in West Virginia for a few years after their marriage and then removed to Cincinnati, Hamilton County, Ohio, where they were enumerated in the 1910 census. By 1920 the couple had divorced, and Kate returned to Wood County, West Virginia, where she resided with her mother. Kate returned to her maiden name of Ingraham. In 1922 after the death of her mother, Kate and sister Eliza inherited their parents' home in Waverly. Kate lived there for the remainder of her life.

Kate, 68, died February 1, 1938 in Waverly, Wood County, West Virginia, and was buried as Kate M. Ingraham along side her parents at the Riverview Cemetery in Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia. Kate was survived by her brother James Ingraham and her younger sister Mrs. Honora "Nora" Jane Ingraham Rolston. Honora inherited the family home after Kate's death.

Notes for John H. P. Smith:

In 1900 they lived next to Robert M. Smith, John's older brother. They were both in the timber business.

- viii. HONORA JANETTA INGRAHAM was born on 06 Jul 1872 in Wood Co., W.V.. She died on 19 Jul 1945 in Williamstown, Wood Co., W.V. (age 73). She married Archibald Rufus Rolston Jr., son of Archibald Rufus Rolston Sr. and Theresa G. Irwin, about 1897. He was born in Sep 1869 in Wood Co., W.V.. He died in 1939 in Oklahoma (age ~69).

Notes for Honora Janetta Ingraham:

Honora "Nora" Janetta Ingraham was born July 6, 1872 in Wood County, West Virginia, the youngest of eight children born to Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza Alcinda Rolston. Nora's father died in 1897, and her share of the estate, $4,375.00, was a substantial amount for that period in history.

About 1897, probably late in the year, in Wood County, West Virginia, Nora married Archibald Rufus Rolston, Jr., her first cousin. There is no marriage record for the couple in West Virginia, and they may have married out of state. The couple had no children. In the 1900 census they were living next door to Nora's mother. By 1910 the couple had separated. Nora was enumerated in the 1910 census of Williams (now Williamstown), Wood County, West Virginia with Mary Wingrove:

Nora J Rolston	Head	F	37	West Virginia (married)
Mary Wingrove	Companion	F	21	West Virginia (single)

In 1911 in Wood County, West Virginia, Nora filed for divorce, and on December 12, 1911, the Chancery heard the case between Nora J. Rolston, plaintiff, vs. Archibald Rufus Rolston, defendant. The court found for the plaintive, granting the divorce, and further ordered the defendant to cease any claims to the real estate acquired by the plaintive. Archibald also had to repay Nora for the court costs. Nora never remarried. After her sister Kate's death in 1938, Nora occupied the family home of her parents.

Nora, 73, died July 19, 1945 in Williamstown, Wood County, West Virginia, and was buried as Nora J. Rolston in the Riverview Cemetery in Williamstown next to her father and mother.

Notes for Archibald Rufus Rolston Jr.:

Archibald Rufus Rolston Jr. was born in September of 1869 in Wood County, West Virginia, the son and only child of Archibald Rufus Rolston Sr. and Theresa G. Irvin. This was his father's second marriage, and Archibald Junior had an older half-brother named John Henry Rolston. His mother was also previously married. From her previous marriage, Archibald had two half-brothers, both had died in childhood before Archibald was born.

Archibald Junior was not even a year old when his mother died. The Rolston family had a housekeeper, Aldrelda Conkle, who surely acted as young Archibald's nanny. Aldrelda remained in the employee of the family until the death of Archibald Senior in 1883.

Archibald Junior's whereabouts after the death of his father are unknown. He was 14 years of age at the time of his father's death in 1883 and most likely would have been taken in by his older half-brother John who was living in Wood County at that time. Junior does not appear in the 1890 Census for Wood County. It was about this time that he married his 1st cousin, Honora "Nora" Janetta Ingraham. She was the daughter of Rufus Putnam Ingraham and Eliza A. Rolston. No children were born to their union.

Archibald was an independent oil promoter, buying and selling oil leases. Not all of his adventures went well. What appears to have been a joint venture between himself, half-brother John and a lawyer named James M. Gallahan, went bad and prompted a lawsuit filed by John against Archibald & others. Except for a portion of the land which was sold and the proceeds divided, the majority of the land was partitioned with 1/6 going to John, 3/6 to Archibald and 2/6 to Mr. Gallahan. The court order was recorded in the Wood County Deed Book No. 25, pages 317 & 318. In February of 1897 Archibald leased the oil and gas rights from Ammiel Johnson. Two months later in April of that year, Archibald conveyed this lease to the Henry Oil Company.

After some ten years of marriage, his wife Honora "Nora" filed for divorced. On December 12, 1911 the Wood County Circuit Court granted the divorce, and ordered Archibald, the defendant, to cease any claims to the real estate acquired by the plaintive. Archibald appears to have left Wood County after the divorce and likely traveled to other areas of the country where there were oil interests. One of these places was Rosston, Harper County, Oklahoma.

It was in Rosston that he met the recently widowed Mrs. Maude Rathbun, wife of the late Jesse Perkins Rathbun and the former Miss Maude Mary Moore. Archibald and Maude married in 1919 in Woodward, Woodward County, Oklahoma.

Archibald was now going by his middle name, Rufus. In the 1920 census "Rufus" was living in Black Pond, Oregon County, Missouri, with his second wife, Maud. He traveled around frequently in the oil business but was not always accompanied by his wife. During the 1930 census of Rosston, Harper County, Oklahoma, Mrs. Maud Rolston was enumerated at home, but Rufus was not present.

Rufus, about age 69, died in 1939, probably in Oklahoma, and was buried in the Pleasant Ridge Cemetery near Rosston, Harper County, Oklahoma, as Rufus A. Rolston (1870-1939). He was survived by his second wife. He had no children by either of his wives. His half-brother, John, had preceded him in death.

285. SOLOMON WILLIAM<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Nathan<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 27 Sep 1833 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 12 Dec 1897 in Courtland, Sacramento Co., Calif. (age 64). He married Mariah Antoinette Runyon, daughter of Jarred Runyon and Rebecca Massey, on 15 Feb 1863 in Sacramento Co., Calif.. She was born on 18 Aug 1844 in Will Co., Ill.. She died on 09 Jan 1935 in Sacramento Co., Calif. (age 90).

Solomon William Rolston was born September 27, 1833 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the seventh of eight children born to Nathan Rolston and Sarah Harness. His given name was that of his maternal grandfather, Solomon Harness, and his middle name was in honor of his paternal grandfather William Rolston.

Solomon appears to have left the family home in Wood County, (West) Virginia, around 1855 and moved to California. There is some speculation that Solomon may have ventured to California in the accompaniment of his brothers, David Compton and John Tyler. At the age of 27, Solomon was enumerated in the 1860 California census as a farmer in Georgiana Township of Sacramento County.

On February 15, 1863 in Sacramento County, California, Solomon married Mariah Antoinette Runyon and over the years that followed the couple had six children: two sons and four daughters. They lived on Solomon's farm in the area of Georiana Township (Georgetown) which would later be renamed to Franklin. In the 1870 census their postal address was Sue City. In 1870 his brother John lived in neighboring Yolo County. Among those residing on Solomon's farm during the 1880 census of Franklin Township were three Chinese laborers. Sometime after 1880, Solomon moved south to Courtland.

After the death of his brother, John Tyler, Solomon's attorney sent a letter, dated December 19, 1891, to Judge Walcott in Tombstone, Arizona:

Dr. Sir,

In the matter of the Estate of John Rolston deceased I have been in correspondence with Chas. F. Johnston an Attorney of your City who has been recommended to our firm as an honest and capable gentleman. Some time since we sent the request of S.W. Rolston, a brother of deceased that Chas. G. Johnston be appointed to conduct the settlement of said Estate as Granville one of the brothers who was appointed by the will had refused to act from what we hear. We believe it would be to the best interest of the Estate if Mr. Johnston were appointed and we join in an earnest request with S.W. Rolston, his only brother here in the State, that the said Chas. G. Johnston be appointed by you fact. W. Rolston is now at his home on the Sacramento river, Courtland, Sac. Co., confined to his bed from sickness. He has been duly informed as regards matters and will write you. Trusting our humble request may find favor.

We remain Yours & Ect

Dudley Stevens

Courtland is located along the Sacramento River in the southwest section of Sacramento County and some five miles south of Franklin where Solomon had previously resided.

Solomon, 64, died December 12, 1897 in Courtland, Sacramento County, California and was buried as S. W. Ralston in the Franklin Cemetery in Franklin, Sacramento County, California.

Sacramento Daily Union, Volume 94, Number 114, 13 December 1897

OLD RESIDENT GONE.

Death of S. W. Ralston, the Courtland Farmer.

S. W. Ralston, one of the oldest and best-known citizens of the southern part of the county, died at his home near Courtland yesterday morning.

Mr. Ralston had been in ill-health for a number of years, and his death was not unexpected. He leaves a wife, two sons and four daughters-Edward W. and Charles D. Ralston of Courtland. Mrs. C. F. Johnson, Mrs. C. E. Triplett and Mrs. R. R. Alexander of San Francisco, and Mrs. J. S. Graff of Tehama.

The funeral will be held at 11 o'clock a. m. tomorrow from his late residence, and the remains will be interred in the Franklin Cemetery.

Notes for Mariah Antoinette Runyon:

Mariah "Marie" Antoinette Runyon was born August 18, 1844 [1845 on tombstone] in Will County, Illinois, the eighth of ten children born to Jarred Runyon and Rebecca Massey. She spent her early childhood in Illinois until some time after 1853 when the her family removed to California.

On February 15, 1863 in Sacramento County, California, Mariah married Solomon William Rolston. Six children were born to the couple, but according to the 1910 census, Mariah had seven children, seven living. Mariah was enumerated in the 1880 census of Sacramento County, California, as A. H. and in later census as Mariah A.. During the 1880 census her younger brother Thomas was living with Mariah and her family.

Mariah's husband died in December of 1897. She remained living on their farm in Sacramento County, California. By the 1920 census of Franklin Township, Sacramento County, California, her son Charles and his family had moved back to care of her and run the farm. Mariah, age 84, was still residing there at the time of the 1930 census and likely remained there until her death.

Marie A. Ralston, 90, died January 9, 1935 in Sacramento County, California. Her place of burial is unknown.

Solomon William Rolston and Mariah Antoinette Runyon had the following children:

- i. KATE VIRGINIA<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 20 Apr 1865 in Sacramento Co., Calif.. She died on 14 Dec 1949 in Solano Co., Calif. (age 84). She married Charles F. Johnson on 04 Jul 1891 in Sacramento Co., Calif.. He was born in Mar 1859 in Ohio. He died after 1910.

Notes for Kate Virginia Rolston:

Kate Virginia Rolston was born April 20, 1865 in Sacramento County, California, the eldest of six children born to Solomon William Rolston and Mariah Antoinette Runyon.

On July 4, 1891 in Sacramento County, California, Kate, age 27, married Charles F. Johnson, age 32. One child, a daughter, was born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of San Francisco, San Francisco County, California:

Charles F Johnson	Head	M	41	Ohio
Kate V Johnson	Wife	F	36	California (1/1)
Ethel L Johnson	Daughter	F	8	California

The fate of her husband, Mr. Johnson, is not known. He may have died or the marriage ended in divorce. In either case, he was not present at home in 1920, and Kate was enumerated as widowed. In the 1920 census Kate lived at 1242 Market Street in San Francisco where she was a lodger. She was 56 and working as a matron at a local store. Ten years later, in 1930, Kate (widowed) and daughter Ethel (divorced) rented a house at 202 - 2nd Avenue in San Francisco. Kate was 64 and no longer working. Her daughter Ethel remarried, and Kate lived with the couple.

Kate, 84, died December 14, 1949 in Solano County, California, and was buried in the Abby of the Chimes Cemetery in Vallejo, Solano County, California.

- ii. FLORENCE I. ROLSTON was born in Sep 1866 in Sacramento Co., Calif.. She died on 17 Aug 1922 in Sacramento Co., Calif. (age 55). She married Charles Edward Triplett, son of Triplett and McGee, on 16 Oct 1884 in Courtland, Sacramento Co., Calif.. He was born on 16 Oct 1862 in California. He died on 25 Sep 1946 in Sacramento Co., Calif. (age 83).

Notes for Florence I. Rolston:

Florence I. Rolston was born in September of 1866 in Sacramento County, California, the second of six children born to Solomon William Rolston and Mariah Antoinette Runyon. Her middle initial is found as "E" in earlier records, but as "I" in the later records. A wedding announcement in the San Francisco Call gave her name as Flora J. Ralston.

On October 16, 1884 in Courtland, Sacramento County, California, Florence married Charles Edward Triplett. The couple had only one child, a daughter. In the 1900 census of Franklin Township in Sacramento County, California, Florence's brothers, Edward and Charles, were working on the fruit farm owned by her and her husband:

Charles E Triplett	Head	M	37	California
Florence I Triplett	Wife	F	33	California
Myrtle Triplett	Daughter	F	14	California
Eduard Ralston	Brother	M	32	California [brother-in-law]
Charles Ralston	Brother	M	19	California [brother-in-law]
Robert E Shields		M	22	California
A Nishiyama		M	26	Japan [Farm laborer]
H Masuda		M	52	Japan [Farm laborer]
K Kashinagi		M	18	Japan [Farm laborer]
T Hayashi		M	29	Japan [Farm laborer]
O Nishiguchi		M	46	Japan [Farm laborer]

In the 1910 census Florence was enumerated in Sacramento, California with her daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Johnston. Why she was there is unknown. Florence and her husband were enumerated together in 1920.

Florence, 55, died August 17, 1922 in Sacramento County, California and was buried in the East Lawn Memorial Park cemetery in Sacramento. Florence and her husband had been married 37 years.

Notes for Charles Edward Triplett:

Charles Edward Triplett was born October 16, 1862 in California.

On his twentieth birthday, October 16, 1884, in Courtland, Sacramento County, California, Charles married Florence I. Rolston. Their only child, a daughter, was born the following year. Charles was a fruit grower. In the 1900 census of Franklin Township of Sacramento County, California, Charles was enumerated on his farm with his family, two brothers-in-law from his wife's family, a gentleman by the name of Robert E. Shields (land agent) and six Japanese workers. Charles was not enumerated with his wife in the 1910 census, and his whereabouts are unknown. The couple was enumerated together in the 1920 census. His wife preceded him in death in 1922.

Charles, 83, died September 25, 1946 in Sacramento County, California and was buried in the East Lawn Memorial Park cemetery in Sacramento, Sacramento County, California.

- iii. EDWARD WILLIAM ROLSTON was born on 30 May 1868 in Sacramento Co., Calif.. He died on 03 Nov 1940 in Sacramento Co., Calif. (age 72). He married (1) MAMIE P. SCHAAP on 30 Oct 1901 in Sacramento Co., Calif.. She was born about 1871 in California. He married (2) NITA about 1905. She was born about 1883 in South America.

Notes for Edward William Rolston:

Edward William Rolston/Ralston was born May 30, 1868 in Sacramento County, California, the third of six children born to Solomon William Rolston and Mariah Antoinette Runyon. As a child he was known as Eddie. His middle name was probably in honor of his great grandfather William Rolston. After 1894 Edward started using Wallace as his middle name. In the 1900 census of Franklin Township, Sacramento County, California, Edward and his brother Charles were working on the fruit farm owned by their sister Florence and her husband Charles Triplett. Edward was age 32 and still unmarried.

On October 30, 1901 in Sacramento County, California, Edward married Mamie P. Schaap. The marriage was short-lived.

About 1905 Edward married a South American woman by the name of Nita. They may have married outside of the United States as Nita did not immigrate until 1908. In the 1910 census the couple was enumerated in Knox Township of Napa County, California. Edward was working as a farm laborer. They had been married for five years, and no children had been born to the couple. Edward nor Nita were enumerated during the censuses of 1920, 1930 nor 1940.

Edward, 72, died November 3, 1940 in Sacramento County, California, and was buried as Edward W. Ralston in the East Lawn Memorial Park cemetery in Sacramento, Sacramento County, California.

Notes for Mamie P. Schaap:

Married Edward Rolston on October 30, 1901 in Sacramento County, California. The couple soon divorced, and Mamie returned to using "Schaap" as her last name. Schaap may not have been her maiden name.

Notes for Nita:

Nita was born about 1883 in South America. Although her parentage is unknown, they were also from South America.

Nita married Edward William Rolston about 1905, but census records say she immigrated to the United States in 1908. If correct, the couple married outside of the United States. In the 1910 census, they had been married for five years and no children had been born to the couple. Nita nor her husband were enumerated during the censuses of 1920, 1930 nor 1940. Her husband died in 1940.

- iv. LILLIAN CLARICE ROLSTON was born on 15 Jan 1872 in Sacramento Co., Calif.. She died on 05 Oct 1960 in Sonoma Co., Calif. (age 88). She married (1) EMIL F. BAIL on 16 Apr 1889 in Sacramento Co., Calif.. He was born about 1866 in West Virginia. She married (2) WILLIAM R. HENRY MERCHANT on 03 Jun 1895 in Sacramento Co., Calif.. He was born about 1865. She married (3) WILLIAM HENRY NOLAN, son of Patrick Nolan and Margaret, on 07 Oct 1904 in San Francisco Co., Calif.. He was born on 26 Mar 1874 in California. He died on 15 Sep 1940 in Sonoma Co., Calif. (age 66).

Notes for Lillian Clarice Rolston:

Lillian Clarice Rolston was born January 15, 1872 in Sacramento County, California, the fourth of six children born to Solomon William Rolston and Mariah Antoinette Runyon.

On April 16, 1889 in Sacramento County, California, Lillian married Emil F. Bail. One child was born to the couple. What became of Mr. Bail is unknown; they are assumed to have divorced.

On June 3, 1895 in Sacramento County, California, Lillian Bail, age 21, married William R.

Henry Merchant, age 30. No children were born to their union. The couple divorced.

Lillian's father died in 1897. At the time of his death, one of his daughters was "Mrs. R. R. Alexander of San Francisco." This may have been Lillian.

On October 7, 1904 in San Francisco County, California, Lillian C. B. Ralston married William Henry Nolan. No children were born to their union. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of Redwood, Sonoma County, California:

William W Nolan	Head	M	36	California
Lillian C Nolan	Wife	F	34	California
Ruby L Bail	Stepdaughter	F	18	California

Lillian's husband, William Nolan, preceded her in death in 1940.

Lillian, 88, died October 5, 1960 in Sonoma County, California and was buried as Lillian Nolan with her husband in the Redwood Memorial Gardens cemetery in Guerneville, Sonoma County, California.

Notes for Emil F. Bail:

Emil F. Bail was born about 1866 in West Virginia. His estimated year of birth comes from his age on his marriage license when he married Lillian Clarice Rolston in 1889. His place of birth comes from census records for his daughter, Ruby Lillian Bail, born in 1891. The couple divorced within a few years after their daughter's birth.

Marriage records suggest Emil remarried sometime prior to 1900. On July 2, 1927 in Los Angeles County, California, Miss Florence E. Bail, age 28, the daughter of Emil Bail and Elisa Stolze, married Arthur Midland.

Notes for William Henry Nolan:

William was born March 26, 1874 in California, the son of Patrick Nolan and his wife Margaret. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Sonoma county, California:

Patrick Nolan	Self	M	44	Ireland
Winnie Nolan	Daughter	F	15	California
Martin Nolan	Son	M	14	California
Maria Nolan	Daughter	F	10	California
William Nolan	Son	M	4	California
Joseph Nolan	Son	M	2	California
Margaret Nolan	Wife	F	40	Ireland
John Nolan	Son	M	8	California
Katie Nolan	Daughter	F	12	California

On October 7, 1904 in San Francisco County, California, William married Lillian Clarice Rolston. She had been married twice before and had one daughter from her first marriage. No children were born to William and Lillian.

William, 66, preceded his wife in death on September 15, 1940 in Sonoma County, California, and was buried as W. H. Nolan in the Redwood Memorial Gardens cemetery in Guerneville, Sonoma County.

- v. MARY ELIZABETH ROLSTON was born about 1877 in Sacramento Co., Calif.. She died after 1910. She married J. S. Graff before 1897.

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Rolston:

Mary Elizabeth Rolston was born about 1877 in Sacramento County, California, the fifth of six children born to Solomon William Rolston and Mariah Antoinette Runyon.

Mary's father died in 1897. In his obituary, among his surviving children, was listed a daughter, "Mrs. J. S. Graff of Tehaman." Tehaman is a city in Tehaman County,

California. This daughter is believed to be Mary. No marriage or census record of the couple with the surname of Graff has been found, and "Graff" may not be the correct spelling.

In the 1910 census, according to Mary's mother, Mary and all her siblings were still living.

- vi. CHARLES D. ROLSTON was born on 01 Jul 1880 in Sacramento Co., Calif.. He died on 11 Sep 1942 in Sacramento Co., Calif. (age 62). He married Lucy Edna Hack, daughter of John T. Hack and Isabell F. Burgess, on 15 Oct 1901 in Sacramento Co., Calif.. She was born on 25 Dec 1880 in California. She died on 04 Aug 1963 in Sacramento Co., Calif. (age 82).

Notes for Charles D. Rolston:

Charles D. Rolston/Ralston was born July 1, 1880 in Sacramento County, California, the youngest of six children born to Solomon William Rolston and Mariah Antoinette Runyon. In the 1900 census of Franklin Township, Sacramento County, California, Charles and his brother Edward were working on the fruit farm owned by his sister Florence and her husband Charles Triplett. Charles was age 19 and single.

On October 15, 1901 in Sacramento County, California, Charles married Lucy Edna Hack. Five children were born to the couple. In the 1910 census of Franklin Township, Charles had been married for nine years. Four of his five children had been born with the youngest being a set of twins. Their eldest child died shortly after the 1910 census. Charles' occupation in 1910 was river fisherman. Charles made his living by fishing the Sacramento River. Sometime before the 1920 census, Charles moved his family back home to his parents' farm in Franklin Township of Sacramento County, California to take care of his widowed mother and the farm:

Marie A Ralston	Head	F	74	Illinois (widowed)
Lucy E Ralston	Daughter-in-law	F	39	California
Clyde Ralston	Grandson	M	15	California
Pearl Ralston	Granddaughter	F	11	California
Ruby Ralston	Granddaughter	F	11	California
Bud Ralston	Grandson	M	5	California
Charlie Ralston	Son	M	39	California

Charles farmed for a while and then become a Bridge Tender. In 1923 his daughter, Ruby, died at the age of 14. Charles's mother died sometime after the 1930 census, and his son Clyde died in 1941.

Charles, 62, died September 11, 1942 in Sacramento County, California and was buried as Charles D. Ralston in the East Lawn Memorial Park cemetery in Sacramento, Sacramento County, California. Charles, a lifelong resident of Sacramento County, was survived by Lucy, his wife of 31 years, daughter Mrs. Pearl Molton, and son Stanley.

Notes for Lucy Edna Hack:

Lucy Edna Hack was born Christmas Day, 1880 in California, probably Yolo County, the fifth of eight children born to John T. Hack and Isabell F. Burgess.

On October 15, 1901 in Sacramento County, California, Lucy married Charles D. Rolston. Five children were born to the couple. In the 1910 census, the columns for children born and children living were both left blank. Her husband preceded her in death in 1942.

Lucy, 82, died August 4, 1963 in Sacramento County, California, and joined her husband in the East Lawn Memorial Park cemetery in Sacramento, Sacramento County, California.

286. WILLIAM LEWIS<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Ephraim Love<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 10 Dec 1820 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 22 Jun 1895 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio (age 74). He married Sarah Catherine Ward, daughter of Nahun Ward and Sarah Catherine Skinner, on 31 Aug 1847 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio. She was born on 18 Mar 1819 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio. She died on 22 Feb 1903 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio (age 83).

Notes for William Lewis Rolston:

William Lewis Rolston was born December 10, 1820 in Wood County, Virginia, now West Virginia, the only child of Ephraim Rolston and Rachel Vandiver. Before William's third birthday, his father died. His mother married a well to do merchant three years later, and they moved to Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, where William would remain for all but a short period of his life.

August 31, 1847 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, William married Sarah Catherine Ward. William was enumerated in the 2nd Ward of Marietta, Ohio's, 1850 census as Lewis W. Rolston, a merchant, age 29 of Virginia with his wife, Sarah C., age 31 of Ohio and their first child, a daughter named Sarah V., age 6 months, of Ohio. The couple would have two other children in the years that followed.

The 1860-61 edition of the Ohio State Gazetteer and Business Directory, page 424, shows the "Skinner, Rolston & Company, hide and leather dealers and tanners, 19 Front" [Street] in Marietta. This was the nature of William's mercantile business. According to the taped interview of Julian Rolston before his death, William had a shoe store. The index of the directory had a listing for shoes, and it did not list Skinner, Rolston & Co.. The company may have added shoes to its merchandise after 1860. It has yet to be determined if "Skinner" was a partner in this business or just used as part of the name playing on the type of business it was. Considering that there were 11 Skinner families in the area and his mother-in-law's maiden name was Skinner, it is quite likely that William was partnered in the enterprise with a Mr. Skinner. In 1866, William sold the business and moved the family to Cincinnati where some of wife Sarah's family lived.

In 1868, William returned to Marietta and went into a partnership in the great Phoenix Mills. He had retired from this position sometime before 1870 but may have returned on a part time basis as he listed his occupation as miller in the 1880 census.

On May 3, 1857 in Rockingham County, Virginia, William's eldest uncle died and left some portion of his estate to his siblings. As William's father was deceased, William inherited his father's share. This share was sold on June 20, 1873, Deed Bk 10, page 91: William L. and Sarah C. Rolston of Washington Co., O. to David H. Ralston of Rockingham Co., Va. all interest in estate of his Uncle Archibald Ralston of Rockingham Co., Va., $350. David H. Ralston was a distant cousin which William likely never knew or met.

William was a member of the International Order of Odd Fellows.

In 1888 along with his Uncle Nathan, the remains of William's father, mother and other Rolston family members were relocated from the old Bethel Church cemetery along the Ohio River to the new Bethel Presbyterian Church Cemetery situated on higher ground.

William, 74, died June 22, 1895 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio and was buried as W. L. Rolston in the Mound Cemetery in Marietta. He was survived by his wife of 47 years and their three children.

Notes for Sarah Catherine Ward:

Sarah Catherine Ward was born March 18, 1819 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, the eldest of seven children born to Nahum Ward and Sarah Catharine Skinner. The Ward's were a prominent family within the business and political circles of the Village of Marietta. Her father, Nahum Ward, served as mayor of the village from 1833 to 1836.

On August 31, 1847 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, Sarah married William Lewis Rolston. The couple had three children: daughters Sarah, Alice and Grace.

On October 28, 1861 Sarah and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Rachel Vandiver Rolston Dunn, were active members in the establishment of the Union Soldier's Relief Association in Marietta. Rachel was elected as the association secretary.

William, her husband of 47 years, died June 22, 1895 at the age of 74. The widowed Sarah was enumerated in the 1900 census of Marietta, Washington County, Ohio at the age of 81. Her daughter Grace was living with her. Grace provided the information on the household to the censustaker. In the census Sarah was shown with two children born, two living. Daughter Grace neglected to include herself in the count.

Sarah, 83, died February 22, 1903 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio and was buried in the Mound Cemetery in Marietta. Except for a brief period spent in Cincinnati, Hamilton County, Ohio, Sarah had been a lifelong resident of Marietta. She was survived by her three daughters.

William Lewis Rolston and Sarah Catherine Ward had the following children:

- i. SARAH VANDIVER<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 19 Feb 1850 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio. She died on 02 Dec 1933 in Altadena, Los Angeles Co., Calif. (age 83). She married Edward Richardson Dale, son of Hervey Smith Dale and Amanda Frances Dana, on 14 Sep 1871 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio. He was born on 31 May 1844 in Newport, Washington Co., Ohio. He died on 12 Aug 1899 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio (age 55).

Notes for Sarah Vandiver Rolston:

Sarah Vandiver Rolston was born February 19, 1850 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio the eldest of three daughters born to William Lewis Rolston and Sarah Catherine Ward. Sarah's given name comes from her mother and her middle name is the maiden name of her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Rachel Vandiver Rolston.

On September 14, 1871 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, Sarah married Edward Richardson Dale, a much respected man in the banking business. The couple had six children and enjoyed modest wealth before Edward's untimely death in 1899 at the age of 55. Sarah continued to have income from the family farm and oil wells on the property. In the 1880 and 1900 censuses of Marietta, Sarah and her family were living next door to her parents, Mr. & Mrs. William L. Rolston. Sometime between 1900 and 1905, after the death of her husband, Sarah and her children moved to Los Angeles County, California where she would reside for the remainder of her life. Her daughter, Grace, remained in Marietta.

Shortly after their arrival in California, Sarah's daughter Rachel died at the age of 26. Sarah was as yet unmarried. In fact, it seemed typical for Sarah's children not to marry until their mid-20's or did not marry at all. Sarah and her husband were perhaps very strict when it came to their children's courting. Sarah and her eldest daughter Katherine, who never married, were enumerated together in the 1910 through 1930 census of Los Angeles County.

Sarah, 83, died December 2, 1933 in Altadena, Los Angeles County, California. Her remains were returned to Ohio and buried as "Sarah V. R. Dale" with her husband in the Oak Grove Cemetery in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio. She was survived by four of her six children.

Her Holy Bible with "Sarah V. Rolston, 1862" inscribed on the cover was passed down to her descendants and currently in the possession of Paul Kent. Inside the Bible is penciled, in script: "Grace Rolston Dale, Marietta, Ohio"

Notes for Edward Richardson Dale:

Edward Richardson Dale was born May 31, 1844 in Newport, Washington County, Ohio, the eldest child of Rev. Hervey Smith Dale and Amanda Frances Dana. Edward's early childhood was spent in Newport, the place of his birth. Being that his father was a Baptist minister, Edward was brought up in the Baptist religion.

In his early teens, Edward was sent to the State Normal School in Lebanon, Warren County, Ohio. He resided there until the death of his father in 1857. At that time his mother moved the family to Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, where Edward attended the local high school until he dropped out of school to work full time to support his mother and siblings. At the age of 16 he entered into employment with the Bank of Marietta as a bookkeeper. He continued his work at the bank over the next twelve years until the onset of the Civil War.

In 1862 Edward left his post at the bank and enlisted as a private in the 77th Ohio Regiment of the Volunteer Infantry. During his enlistment he was promoted to quartermaster sergeant and stationed at Little Rock, Arkansas, and then onto Alton, Illinois. The final portion of his enlistment was spent at the Chief Quartermaster Department in Baltimore, Maryland. Completing his enlistment in 1865, Edward returned home to Marietta and took a position in the First National Bank. He was well respected in the community for his superior abilities, integrity and sincere courtesy.

On September 14, 1871 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, Edward wed Miss Sarah Vandiver Rolston and began a family. Six children were born to the couple.

In 1885, after twenty years in banking, Edward entered into the oil producing business. He purchased interests in a number of existing oil fields in the surrounding areas. Then in 1886 Edward purchased the Joy farm in Morgan County and organized the Midland Company where he became president. The land under the Joy farm proved to be an extensive and valuable oil field. His successful life ended abruptly in 1899 with his untimely death while on a pleasure trip with his family. He was only 55 at the time of his death. He was buried at the Oak Grove Cemetery in Marietta.

Buried with Edward and his wife is his youngest sister, Francis Dale.

- ii. ALICE LOVELL ROLSTON was born on 28 Mar 1852 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio. She died on 25 Jun 1921 in Ironton, Lawrence Co., Ohio (age 69). She married Cambridge Culbertson Clarke, son of John Ellison Clarke and Harriet Mayberry Culbertson, on 01 Oct 1873 in Marietta, Washington Co., Ohio. He was born on 07 Oct 1850 in Ironton, Lawrence Co., Ohio. He died on 14 Feb 1921 in Ironton, Lawrence Co., Ohio (age 70).

Notes for Alice Lovell Rolston:

Alice Lovell Rolston was born March 28, 1852 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, the second of three daughters born to William Lewis Rolston and Sarah Catherine Ward.

On October 1, 1873 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, Alice married Cambridge Culbertson Clark at St. Luke's Church in Marietta, Ohio. The couple remained in the area until about 1875. The family of three then moved to Ironton, Lawrence County, Ohio. The next two of their children were born in 1876 and 1877 in Kentucky; perhaps in Ashland. The last three of their six children were born in Ohio; probably Ironton where the family lived. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of the 3rd Ward of Ironton Township in Lawrence County, Ohio:

Cambridge C. Clark	Self		M	Male	W	29	OH	R.R. Clerk

Mrs. C.C. Clarke

Died at her home on south Sixth street. Mrs. Alice Lovell Rolston Clarke was 69 years of age. She was born in Marietta, Ohio in 1852 and her parents were prominent and pioneer residents of that city. She met Mr. C. C. Clarke while he was a student at Marietta College and the courtship arising from their friendship culminated in marriage in 1873. After her marriage Mrs. Clarke lived for several years in Cincinnati and then moved to Ashland, Ky., where she was a resident for three years, coming to Ironton in 1877. To this union six children were born: Miss Florence Clarke, Mrs. W. A. Crawford and Mrs. Lawrence B. Campbell, all of this city, survive while three others, Rolston Clarke and Misses Edith and Louise Clarke, preceded her in death. Mr. Clarke passed to his reward on Feb. 15th last. Interment at Woodland.

Notes for Cambridge Culbertson Clarke:

Cambridge Culbertson Clarke was born October 7, 1850 in Ironton, Lawrence County, Ohio, the son of John Ellison Clarke and Harriet Mayberry Culbertson. His middle name taken from his mother's maiden name. Cambridge's father died in 1858 when Cambridge was seven years old.

On October 1, 1873 Cambridge married Alice Lovell Rolston in her home town of Marietta, Washington County, Ohio. It is not known how the two met. Cambridge was a rail road clerk and perhaps road the train to Marietta. Cambridge took his bride back to Ironton where they lived and raise a family of six children. In the later mid-1870's, Cambridge moved the family for a few years to Ashland, Boyd County, Kentucky across the Ohio River from Ironton. Two of their children were born during their stay in Kentucky. By 1880 the family had returned to Lawrence County, Ohio.

Cambridge, 70, died of pulmonary edema on February 14, 1921 in Ironton, Lawrence County, Ohio. His wife died four months later on June 25, 1921 at the age of 69. They were both buried in the woodland Cemetery in Ironton.

died in 1895 and her mother in 1903. Grace did not work, She lived off of her inheritance. Grace likely remained in her parents' home until her own death.

Grace, 89, died June 9, 1945 in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, and was buried in the Mound Cemetery in Marietta. With the exception of a few brief years spent residing in Cincinnati, Ohio with her parents, Grace was a lifelong resident of Marietta.

Notes for Ingabay Haseltine Rolston:

Ingabay Haseltine Rolston was born in August of 1832 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the second of four children born to John Hopkins Rolston and Nancy A. Woodyard. She resided in Wood County until sometime after 1840 when the family moved to Hancock County, Ohio. Two of her uncles and numerous cousins also removed to Hancock County.

On August 8, 1852 in Hancock County, Ohio, Ingabay married her first cousin, William H. Rolston, the son of her paternal uncle, Alpheus Rolston. A daughter, their only child, was born to the couple on April 30, 1853.

Ingabay, 20, died July 8, 1853 in Hancock County, Ohio, eleven months after her marriage. She was buried in the Bishop Cemetery in Eagle Township of Hancock County, Ohio. Her daughter died the following year in May of 1854 and was also buried there.

Notes for William H. Rolston:

William H. Rolston was born in July of 1832 in Hancock County, Ohio, the third of five children born to Alpheus Rolston and Elizabeth Williamson. A record of William's middle name has not been found, but the 'H' maybe for Hinton, a common middle name among the Rolston family. William was among many of the Rolston family that would later be known by the RALSTON spelling of the surname.

William was about age seven when his mother died in 1838. His father appears to have sent the younger children off to live with relatives. William and his youngest brother, Levi, both appear on the farm of their maternal uncle, Levi Williamson.

William was named as an heir in the 1843 will of his maternal uncle, Abraham Williamson. He was to receive $20 when he reached the age of 21. {source: Will Book 1, page 63, case #66, 1843, Hancock Co., Ohio}

In 1846 William's father married Julia Ann Williamson. Julia was William's mother's sister. From his father's second marriage, William had one half-brother and two half-sisters. The 1850 census enumerated William, age 19, and brother Levi living with their maternal uncle, Levi Williamson, in Jackson Township in Hancock County, Ohio.

On August 8, 1852 in Hancock County, Ohio, William married Ingabay Haseltine Rolston, his first cousin and daughter of his paternal uncle, John H. Rolston. Ingabay died the following year, three months after the birth of their only child. Their child died the following year.

William married Caroline Hay about 1869, probably in Hancock County. Five children were born to their union. After the birth of their first child in 1871, the couple moved north to Henry Township in Wood County, Ohio. The family was enumerated in Wood County during the 1880 census. William was working as a carpenter. The couple, married 31 years, appears in Arcada Township in Gratiot County, Michigan during the 1900 census where William, age 61, was a farmer. His wife reported that she has had five children, of which, three are living. None of their children were living at home.

William, about age 77, died in 1909 in Gratiot County, Michigan, and was buried as William H. Ralston in the Ithaca Cemetery in Ithaca, Gratiot County, Michigan.

William H. Rolston and Ingabay Haseltine Rolston had the following child:

- i. MARTHA JANE<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 30 Apr 1853 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 05 May 1854 in Hancock Co., Ohio (age 1).

Notes for James A. Rolston:

James A. Rolston was born in June of 1835 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the third of four children born to John Hopkins Rolston and Nancy A. Woodyard. James lived in Wood County for at least the first five years of his life before his father moved the family north to Jackson Township in Hancock County, Ohio. In Ohio his older brother and sister both died, leaving him with only a surviving sister. James became a farmer.

On October 21, 1858 in Hancock County, Ohio, James, age 23, married Sarah E. Bowers. James' father died the following year before James and Sarah produced the first grandchild. In 1860 they lived next door to his mother Nancy. James and Sarah had two children before her death in 1868.

On April 17, 1870 in Hancock County, James, age 34, married Alwilda Lee. Their first son, John, was born in Jackson Township in 1871. Dorcas, the eldest daughter from his first wife, died of consumption in July of 1878. About 1879, after his daughter's death, the family moved to Saline County, Kansas, appearing in Elm Creek during the 1880 census:

James A. Rolston	Self	M	Male	W	45	VA	Farmer		VA	VA
Alnilda Rolston	Wife	M	Female	W	32	OH	Keeping House	OH	OH
John A. Rolston	Son	S	Male	W	8	OH		VA	OH

Betsy, the youngest daughter from his first wife, was not present and assumed to have been deceased or perhaps married.

The couple remained in Kansas until at least 1884 when their second son, Grover, was born. Sometime after his birth, the family moved south to the Oklahoma Territory. In the 1900 census James, his wife, and two sons were residing in Bear Creek Township of Logan County, Oklahoma, east of Oklahoma City. Oklahoma achieved statehood in 1907.

James died sometime between 1900 and 1910 in Logan County, Oklahoma; his place of burial is unknown. He was survived by his wife and their two sons.

His son John died September 26, 1919 at the age of 47 and was buried in the Summit View Cemetery in Guthrie, Logan County, Oklahoma. James wife died August 25, 1932, at the age of 85 and was buried in the same cemetery. Their oldest son, Grover died December 3, 1958 at the age of 74 and was also laid to rest there. All are said to be buried under the surname of RALSTON. There is also another Ralston, probably unrelated, buried in the same cemetery with the given name of Lewis who was buried April 9, 1928 in an unmarked grave (block 29, lot 70); his date of birth nor age at death are known.

Notes for Sarah E. Bowers:

Sarah E. Bowers was born about 1840 in Ohio. Her parentage is unknown.

On October 21, 1858 in Hancock County, Ohio, Sarah, about age 18, married James A. Rolston, and the couple had two daughters.

Sarah died sometime between 1861, the birth of her second child, and the 1870 census of Hancock County, Ohio. Her place of burial is unknown. Since her first born daughter died of consumption, it is speculated that Sarah may have also died from this same disease.

James A. Rolston and Sarah E. Bowers had the following children:

- i. DORCAS F.<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born in Jan 1860 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 18 Jul 1878 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio (age 18).

---

Notes for Dorcas F. Rolston:

Dorcas F. Rolston was born in January of 1860 in Jackson Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the elder of two daughters born to James A. Rolston and Sarah E. Bowers. Dorcas did not reach her tenth birthday before her mother died, and her mother's death may have been much earlier in Dorcas' life. Her father remarried in 1870, and from that union, Dorcas would have two half-brothers. She died before her second half-brother was born. Dorcas worked as a seamstress.

Dorcas, 18, died of Tuberculosis on July 18, 1878 in Jackson Township of Hancock County, Ohio. Her place of burial is not known. She was survived by her father, her stepmother, and her half-brother John. Dorcas' full-sister Betsy is believed to have preceded her in death.

- ii. BETSY ROLSTON was born about 1861 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. She died after 1870.

Notes for Betsy Rolston:

[Elizabeth?] Betsy Rolston was born about 1861 in Jackson Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the younger of two daughters born to James A. Rolston and Sarah E. Bowers. Betsy was often used as a nickname for Elizabeth. Betsy's mother died sometime before the 1870 census, and her father remarried in April of 1870. From that union Betsy had two half-brothers. Betsy's older sister died of consumption in July of 1878.

About 1879, her father moved the family to Kansas. Betsy was not enumerated with the family during the 1880 census of Elm Creek Township in Saline County, Kansas, where she would have appeared at the age of 19. She was either deceased or had married. There is no record of her death or marriage.

Notes for Alwilda Lee:

Alwilda Lee was born December 7, 1846 in Ohio, the third of eight children known to have been born to Stephan Lee and Elizabeth Moore. Her father died in 1865.

On April 17, 1870 in Hancock County, Ohio, Alwilda, age 23, married James A. Rolston, becoming his second wife. She would bear him a son in October of 1871. The family left Hancock County after the death of James' daughter in 1878, removing to Saline County, Kansas where they were enumerated during the 1880 census. They remained in Kansas until sometime after the birth of their second son in July of 1884. The family moved south into the Oklahoma Territory where they were enumerated in the 1900 census.

Her husband James preceded her in death even though his date of death and place of burial are not known. Alwilda and son Grover were enumerated in the 1910 census of Logan County, Oklahoma. Alwilda was enumerated as widowed. Her eldest son, John, was not present:

Alwilda Ralston F	65	Ohio (1/1) (widowed)
Grover C Ralston	M	24 Kansas (son)
Laura Hass F	32	Pennsylvania

Alwilda's younger son married in 1918, and her older son died in 1919. Alwilda was not enumerated in the 1920 nor the 1930 census.

Alwilda Ralston, 85, died August 25, 1932 in Oklahoma and was buried in Summit View Cemetery (Blk 20, lot 19) in Guthrie, Logan County, Oklahoma. Her tombstone is engraved "In loving Memory of Mother." The plot was purchased by Bert Lee who is presumed to be her nephew. Alwilda was survived by her youngest son, Grover, his wife, and their two children.

James A. Rolston and Alwilda Lee had the following children:

- iii. JOHN ALFRED ROLSTON was born on 12 Oct 1871 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 26 Sep 1919 in Galveston, Galveston Co., Texas (age 47).

Notes for John Alfred Rolston:

John Alfred "Jack" Rolston/Ralston was born October 12, 1871 in Jackson Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the elder of two sons born to James A. Rolston and Alwilda Lee. John's father had been previously married, and John had two half-sisters, the last of which died in 1878 when John was six years old. Sometime after 1878 John's father moved the family to Elm Creek, Saline County, Kansas, where they were enumerated during the 1880 census. By 1900 the family had moved to Oklahoma and resided in Bear Creek Township of Logan County. There, John worked on the family farm until his father's death.

John never married. His whereabouts in 1910 are unknown.

John, 47, died September 26, 1919 in a bath house in Galveston, Galveston County, Texas.. His body was returned to Oklahoma and was buried in the Summit View Cemetery in Guthrie, Logan County, Oklahoma. John was survived by his younger brother, Grover, and their mother. His father and two half-sisters had preceded him in death.

- iv. GROVER CHAINEY ROLSTON was born on 15 Jul 1884 in Shawnee Co., Kan.. He died on 03 Dec 1958 in Oklahoma (age 74). He married Myrtle Omega Cahill, daughter of Stephen Decator Cahill and Cora May Lajonta, on 22 Dec 1918 in Comanche Co., Ok.. She was born on 24 Apr 1891 in Lima, Allen Co., Ohio. She died on 27 Apr 1997 in Houston, Harris Co., Texas (age 106).

Notes for Grover Chainey Rolston:

Grover Chainey Rolston/Ralston was born July 15, 1884 in Shawnee County, Kansas, the younger of two sons born to James A. Rolston and Alwilda Lee. His father had been previously married, and Grover had two half-sisters that were both deceased prior to his birth. By 1900 the family had moved to Oklahoma and resided in Bear Creek Township of Logan County. His father was a farmer, and Grover and his older brother likely had their share of chores around the family farm. Sometime after the 1900 census, Grover's father died.

Grover started working at the Post Office, and his mother lived with him until he married. At the time of the Great War, Grover, age 34, registered for the World War I draft as Grover Chainey Ralston. He was working as a postal clerk for the U.S. mail at Fort Sill.

On December 22, 1918 in Comanche County, Oklahoma, Grover, age 34, married Myrtle Omega Cahill, age 27. The couple made their home in Comanche County, Oklahoma.

Grover's older brother died in 1919 and their mother in 1932.

Two children were born Grover and Myrtle. The family was enumerated in the 1940 census of Lawton, Comanche County, Oklahoma:

Grover C Ralston	Head	M	55	Kansas
Myrtle O Ralston	Wife	F	48	Ohio
Marvin Lee Ralston	Son	M	16	Oklahoma
Rosemary Ralston	Daughter		F 10	Oklahoma

They had lived in the same house since 1935 and perhaps longer.

Grover, 74, died December 3, 1958 in Oklahoma and was buried as Grover C. Ralston in the Summit View Cemetery in Guthrie, Logan County, Oklahoma. He had no known surviving family other than his wife, children and grandchildren. His brother and parents as well as his two half-sisters had all preceded him in death.

Notes for Myrtle Omega Cahill:

Myrtle Omega Cahill was born April 24, 1891 in Lima, Allen County, Ohio, the second of six children born to Stephen Decator Cahill and Cora May Lajonta. About 1899, her father moved the family to Logan County of the Oklahoma Territory. In 1904 Myrtle's mother died. Myrtle's father left the children with their paternal grandparents and moved to Okmulgee County, Oklahoma where he remarried in 1907. No children were born to her father's second marriage. Myrtle and her siblings were enumerated with their grandparents in the 1910 census of Guthrie, Logan County, Oklahoma:

Richard W Cahill	Head	M	64	Ohio
Mary J Cahill	Wife	F	59	Ohio
Merion Cahill	Grandson	M	21	Ohio
Myrtle Cahill	Granddaughter	F	19	Ohio
Vera Cahill	Granddaughter	F	14	Ohio
Eugene G Cahill	Grandson	M	12	Ohio
Mary Cahill	Granddaughter	F	9	Oklahoma
Richard W Cahill	Grandson	M	16	Ohio

On December 22, 1918 in Comanche County, Oklahoma, Myrtle married Grover Chainey Ralston. Two children were born to their union. Her husband preceded her in death in 1958. Sometime after her husband's death, perhaps in her later years of life, she removed to Texas where her son Marvin resided.

Guthrie News Leader, Friday, May 2, 1997:

Graveside services for Myrtle O. Ralston, 106, of Houston, Texas are scheduled for 1 p.m. Saturday, May 3, 1997 at Summit View Cemetery. Rev. Mitchell Stewart will officiate. Services are under the direction of Smith Funeral Home of Guthrie. Ralston is the aunt of Jack Cahill of Guthrie. She is also survived by two great grandchildren, Michael Cahill Merritt and Kathleen Elizabeth Merritt of Guthrie.

Notes for Jane E. V. Rolston:

Jane E. V. Rolston was born in October of 1837 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the youngest of four children born to John Hopkins Rolston and Nancy A. Woodyard. Jane lived briefly in Wood County. Sometime between 1840 and 1850 her father moved the family to Jackson Township in Hancock County, Ohio. In Ohio her oldest brother William and her only sister Ingabay both die, leaving Jane with brother James as a surviving sibling. Her brother James married and lived next door to Jane and her widowed mother at the time of the 1860 census. Jane's father had died in 1859.

On October 4, 1860 in Jackson Township of Hancock County, Ohio, Jane married Dr. Jacob B. Engle. Jane and her husband had two children. Sometime after 1864 the family moved to Monroeville, Allen County, Indiana taking her widowed mother Nancy with them. Her mother died in 1877. By 1880 the family had moved to LaGrange, LaGrange County, Indiana. Dr. Engle and Jane adopted a little girl named Lilly; she was enumerated with the family in the 1880 census of La Grange:

Jacob B. Engle	M	42	Pennsylvania
Jane Engle	F	42	Virginia
Ora Engle	F	19	Ohio
Orville Engle	M	16	Ohio
Lilly Engle	F	5	Indiana [both parents born in Indiana]

Jane and her husband remained in LaGrange County where they were enumerated in the 1900 census at the age of 62. Jane lists three children as born to the couple with one deceased. Their adopted daughter had died. Living next to the couple were their daughter, Mrs. Ora Stacy and son "Orville" Engle.

Dr. Engle preceded Jane in death in 1904, and her daughter Ora died the following year.

Jane, age 72, died January 1, 1910 in LaGrange County, Indiana and joined her husband and daughter in the Masonic A & Free Mason Cemetery in Monroeville, Allen County, Indiana. She was survived by her only son, David Orville Engle. Jane and her husband share a tombstone with their eldest daughter Ora and Jane's mother.

Notes for Jacob B. Engle:

Dr. Jacob B. Engle was born July 6, 1837 in Upper Paxton Township, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, the son of Isaac Engel and his wife Catherina. He was christened on August 19, 1838 at the Klingers Evangelical Lutheran and Reformed Church. Jacob became a physician. It is not known when or where he obtained his medical training.

Jacob traveled to Ohio where he met Miss Jane E. Rolston. They married on October 4, 1860 in Jackson Township, Hancock County, Ohio. A daughter was born to the couple the following year, and a son was born three years later. Sometime after 1864, the doctor and his family moved to Indiana, taking his mother-in-law, the widowed Mrs. Nancy Rolston, with them. They were residing in Monroeville, Allen County, Indiana during the 1870 census. Dr. Engle's mother-in-law died sometime thereafter. Dr. Engle and his family were enumerated in the 1880 census of La Grange, Lagrange County, Indiana:

Jacob B. Engle	Self	M	Male	W	42	PA	Physician	NY	PA
Jane Engle	Wife	M	Female	W	42	VA	Keeping House	VA	VA
Ora Engle	Dau	S	Female	W	19	OH		PA	VA
Orville Engle	Son	S	Male	W	16	OH		PA	VA
Lilly Engle	Dau	S	Female	W	5	IN		IN	IN

Their son David Orville returned to Hancock County sometime before 1902; dying there in 1940. Indiana state records indicate that Dr. Engle may have resided in Monroeville, Allen County before his death.

Dr. Engle, age 66, died March 20, 1904 in Indiana and was buried in the Masonic A & Free Mason Cemetery in Monroeville, Allen County, Indiana.

Jacob B. Engle and Jane E. V. Rolston had the following children:

- i. GLENDORA IONE<sup>6</sup> ENGLE was born in Sep 1861 in Ohio. She died on 15 Sep 1905 in LaGrange Co., Ind. (age 44). She married Frank Brook Stacy, son of Nelson Stacy and Lorette R. Anderson, on 05 Jan 1895 in Allen Co., Ind.. He was born on 29 Dec 1865 in Howe, LaGrange Co., Ind.. He died on 12 Feb 1943 in Indiana (age 77).

Notes for Glendora Ione Engle:

Glendora "Ora" Ione Engle was born in September of 1861 in Ohio, the elder of two children and only daughter born to Dr. Jacob B. Engle and Jane E. Rolston. The family resided in Ohio until sometime after 1864 and the birth of Ora's brother David. The family then moved to Indiana where they were enumerated in the 1870 and 1880 censuses. Ora was age 19 and single at the time of the 1880 census of La Grange, Lagrange County, Indiana. Also enumerated in the 1880 census was Lilly, age 5, an adopted child who later died.

On January 5, 1895 in Allen County, Indiana, Ora married Frank Brook Stacy, a conductor for the rail road. She was his second wife. The couple was enumerated in the 1900 census of LaGrange County, Indiana living next to Ora's parents and her brother Oville. No children were born to their union.

Ora, 44, died September 15, 1905 in LaGrange County, Indiana and was buried as "Ora I. Dau." [Ora I. daughter] in the Masonic A & Free Mason Cemetery in Monroeville, Allen County, Indiana, where she shares a tombstone with her parents and maternal grandmother, Nancy Rolston.

Notes for Frank Brook Stacy:

Frank B. Stacy was born December 29, 1865 in LaGrange County, Indiana, the sixth of eight children born to Nelson Stacy and Lorette R. Anderson. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Bloomfield Township, LaGrange County, Indiana:

Nelson Stacy	Self	M	Male	W	50	OH	Jailer	VT	NY
Lorette R. Stacy	Wife	M	Female	W	46	NY	Keeping House	VT	VT

Mary Engle ---	Other	M	Female	W	19	PA		Servant
Walter Wright VT	Other	S	Male	W	25	MI		Clerk In Store VT

Frank married three times. His first marriage was to Isabella Richards on October 13, 1887 in LaGrange County, Indiana. Nothing is known of his first wife.

On January 5, 1895 in Allen County, Indiana, Frank married Glendora "Ora" lone Engle, his second wife. Ora died in 1905. No children were born from their union.

In the 1920 census of LaGrange County, Indiana, Frank was enumerated with his third wife, Grace, and two children: Alvin and Carl V. Stacy. The couple was enumerated there again in 1930:

Frank B Stacy	Head	M	63	Indiana
Grace Stacy	Wife	F	34	Kansas
Elvin H Stacy	Son	M	12	Canada
Carl V Stacy	Son	M	10	Indiana
Carline Borum	Sister-in-law	F	14	Canada

Frank, 77, died February 12, 1943 in Indiana and was buried in the Riverside Cemetery in Howe, LaGrange County, Indiana.

- ii. DAVID ORVILLE ENGLE was born in Apr 1864 in Ohio. He died on 19 Sep 1940 in Hancock Co., Ohio (age 76). He married (1) CLARA ROUTSONG, daughter of Samuel Routsonge and Elizabeth Olmstead, before 1900. She was born in Apr 1873 in Indiana. She died after 1900. He married (2) NAVADA ESTELLA RALSTON, daughter of Lafayette Ralston and Martha Ann Knight, on 03 Apr 1902 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She was born in Jul 1874 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 23 Nov 1961 in Hancock Co., Ohio (age 87).

Notes for David Orville Engle:

David Orville Engle was born in April of 1864 in Ohio, the younger of two children and only son born to Dr. Jacob B. Engle and Jane E. Rolston. He was sometimes known by his middle name, Orville. It is not known where in Ohio his parents were living at the time of his birth, nor how long David and his family lived in Ohio before they moved to Indiana. In 1870 the family was residing in Monroeville, Allen County, Indiana. By 1880 they had removed to La Grange, Lagrange County, Indiana. Sometime before 1880 his parents adopted a young girl named Lilly who later died.

About 1896, David married Ms. Clara Lower, the former Miss Clara Routsong. She had two children from a previous marriage. There was a marriage of a David Ingle in Page County, Indiana that could have been David's marriage to Clara. The couple was enumerated in the 1900 census of Bloomfield, LaGrange County, Indiana, residing next to David's parents and David's sister, Mrs. Ora Stacy:

Orville Engle	Head	M	36	Ohio
Clara Engle	Wife	F	27	Indiana
Frank Lower	Stepson		M	9 Indiana
Mary Lower	Stepdaughter	F	8	Indiana

David and Clara did not have children together and are assumed to have divorced soon after the 1900 census. He may have returned to Hancock County, Ohio for a period of time.

On April 3, 1902 in Hancock County, Ohio, David, age 38, married Navada Estella Ralston, age 28. David and Navada were 2nd cousins; both descendants of great grandparents William Rolston and Mary Hopkins. David's maternal grandfather was John Hopkins Rolston, and Navada's grandfather was Alpheus Rolston. John and Alpheus were two of three Rolston brothers that left Wood County, Virginia prior to the Civil War, and moved north into Ohio.

David and Navada lived in LaGrange County, Indiana for a number of years before returning to Hancock County, Ohio.

David, 76, died on September 19, 1940 in Hancock County, Ohio and was buried in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Hancock County. He was survived by Navada, his wife of 38 years. No children were known to have been born to the couple. David was preceded in death by his parents, his older sister, Mrs. Glendora "Ora" Stacy, and their adopted younger sister Lilly.

Notes for Clara Routsong:

Clara Routsong (or Rhoutsong) was born in April of 1873 in Indiana, the eldest child of Samuel and Elizabeth Routsong (Routsonge). The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Springfield, Lagrange County, Indiana:

Samuel Routsonge		M	27	Indiana
Elizabeth Routsonge	F	24		Indiana
Clara Routsonge		F	7	Indiana
Mary Routsonge		F	4	Indiana
Geneva Routsonge	F	2		Indiana

Clara is known to have married twice, perhaps more. Her first marriage, in 1890, was to Allen Lower. Two children were born from their union. The youngest of the two children was born in 1891.

By 1900 Clara had married David Orville Engle. No children were born from their union. The couple was enumerated in the 1900 census of Bloomfield, LaGrange County, Indiana, residing next to David's parents and David's sister, Mrs. Ora Stacy:

Orville Engle	Head	M	36	Ohio
Clara Engle	Wife	F	27	Indiana (0/0)
Frank Lower	Stepson		M	9 Indiana
Mary Lower	Stepdaughter	F	8	Indiana

The couple are assumed to have divorced after 1900. Clara may have remarried.

Notes for Navada Estella Ralston:

Navada Estella Ralston was born in July of 1874 in Jackson Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the eldest of three children and only daughter born to LaFayette Ralston and Martha Ann Knight. Navada was probably born at the home of her paternal grandparents, Alpheus Rolston and Julia Ann Williamson, as Navada's parents were living there at the time of the 1880 census. Although her given name was Navada, she was known by her middle name Estella.

On April 3, 1902 in Hancock County, Navada, age 28, married David Orville Engle, age 38. Navada and David were 2nd cousins; both descendants of great grandparents William Rolston and Marry Hopkins. Navada's grandfather was Alpheus Rolston, and David's maternal grandfather was John Hopkins Rolston. Alpheus and John were two of three Rolston brothers that left Wood County, Virginia prior to the Civil War, and moved north into Ohio.

No children are known to have been born from their union. Navada was living with her mother at the time of the 1920 census. Navada's mother died on October 21, 1937. Although Navada was still living, she was not mentioned in her mother's obituary. Navada and her husband had been married for about 38 years when David died September 19, 1940 at the age of 76. She buried her husband in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Hancock County. Navada was about 66 years of age at the time of her husband's death and did not remarry.

Navada, 87, died November 23, 1961 in Hancock County, Ohio, and joined her husband in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Hancock County. Both of her brothers had preceded her in death. She was survived by two nephews and one niece, all children of her brother Thornton Fayette Ralston.

- iii. LILLY ENGLE was born about 1875 in Indiana. She died before 1900 in Indiana.

Notes for Lilly Engle:

Lilly Engle was born about 1875 in Indiana; her natural parents, both born in Indiana, are not known. She was adopted by Dr. Jacob B. Engle and Jane E. Rolston and enumerated at the age of five with the couple in the 1880 census of LaGrange, LaGrange County, Indiana.

Lilly died sometime between 1880 and 1900. Her place of death and burial are unknown.

Notes for William H. Rolston:

William H. Rolston was born in July of 1832 in Hancock County, Ohio, the third of five children born to Alpheus Rolston and Elizabeth Williamson. A record of William's middle name has not been found, but the 'H' maybe for Hinton, a common middle name among the Rolston family. William was among many of the Rolston family that would later be known by the RALSTON spelling of the surname.

William was about age seven when his mother died in 1838. His father appears to have sent the younger children off to live with relatives. William and his youngest brother, Levi, both appear on the farm of their maternal uncle, Levi Williamson.

William was named as an heir in the 1843 will of his maternal uncle, Abraham Williamson. He was to receive $20 when he reached the age of 21. {source: Will Book 1, page 63, case #66, 1843, Hancock Co., Ohio}

In 1846 William's father married Julia Ann Williamson. Julia was William's mother's sister. From his father's second marriage, William had one half-brother and two half-sisters. The 1850 census enumerated William, age 19, and brother Levi living with their maternal uncle, Levi Williamson, in Jackson Township in Hancock County, Ohio.

On August 8, 1852 in Hancock County, Ohio, William married Ingabay Haseltine Rolston, his first cousin and daughter of his paternal uncle, John H. Rolston. Ingabay died the following year, three months after the birth of their only child. Their child died the following year.

William married Caroline Hay about 1869, probably in Hancock County. Five children were born to their union. After the birth of their first child in 1871, the couple moved north to Henry Township in Wood County, Ohio. The family was enumerated in Wood County during the 1880 census. William was working as a carpenter. The couple, married 31 years, appears in Arcada Township in Gratiot County, Michigan during the 1900 census where William, age 61, was a farmer. His wife reported that she has had five children, of which, three are living. None of their children were living at home.

William, about age 77, died in 1909 in Gratiot County, Michigan, and was buried as William H. Ralston in the Ithaca Cemetery in Ithaca, Gratiot County, Michigan.

Notes for Ingabay Haseltine Rolston:

Ingabay Haseltine Rolston was born in August of 1832 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the second of four children born to John Hopkins Rolston and Nancy A. Woodyard. She resided in Wood County until sometime after 1840 when the family moved to Hancock County, Ohio. Two of her uncles and numerous cousins also removed to Hancock County.

On August 8, 1852 in Hancock County, Ohio, Ingabay married her first cousin, William H. Rolston, the son of her paternal uncle, Alpheus Rolston. A daughter, their only child, was born to the couple on April 30, 1853.

Ingabay, 20, died July 8, 1853 in Hancock County, Ohio, eleven months after her marriage. She was buried in the Bishop Cemetery in Eagle Township of Hancock County, Ohio. Her daughter died the following year in May of 1854 and was also buried there.

William H. Rolston and Ingabay Haseltine Rolston had the following child:

- i. MARTHA JANE<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 30 Apr 1853 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 05 May 1854 in Hancock Co., Ohio (age 1).

Notes for Caroline Hay:

Caroline Hay was born in March of 1840 in Pennsylvania. Her parentage is unknown, but Caroline states that both her mother and father were born in Pennsylvania. When Caroline came to Ohio is unknown. "Hay" may not be her maiden name; she may have married and moved to Ohio.

About 1869 in Ohio, Caroline, age about 29, married the widower William H. Rolston. It is assumed to be her first marriage. Five children were born to their union; two died in childhood before 1880. The family lived in Ohio until sometime after 1880. Then they were enumerated in the 1900 census of Arcada Township in Gratiot County, Michigan. In this census Caroline reports that she has had five children, three of which were still living. Her husband William preceded her in death in 1909.

Caroline, 75, died March 27, 1915 in New Haven, Gratiot County, Michigan and joined her husband in the Ithaca Cemetery in Ithaca, Gratiot County, Michigan.

William H. Rolston and Caroline Hay had the following children:

- ii. ALPHEUS A. RALSTON was born on 09 Jan 1871 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. He died after 1910. He married Lillie Barbour, daughter of David A. Barbour and Louisa Hines, on 05 Jul 1891 in Lafayette Twp., Gratiot Co., Mich.. She was born about 1874 in Liberty Twp., Trumbull Co., Ohio. She died between 1892-1894 in Michigan.

Notes for Alpheus A. Ralston:

Alpheus A. Ralston was born January 9, 1871 in Jackson Township, Hancock County, Ohio, the eldest of five children born to William H. Rolston (Ralston) and Caroline Hay. Alpheus was named after his paternal grandfather. Alpheus had two siblings that died in early childhood. Alpheus's father had been previously married and widowed. From his father's previous marriage, Alpheus had a half-sister who died at the age of one.

Alpheus lived in Hancock County for a short period of time before his father moved the family to Wood County, north of Hancock County. Alpheus was enumerated there in the 1880 census at the age of 9. How long the family lived there before removing to Michigan is unknown. Alpheus was a farmer, and he resided in Lafayette Township of Gratiot County, Michigan.

On July 5, 1891 in Lafayette, Gratiot County, Michigan, Alpheus, age 21, married Lillie Barbour, age 17. Alpheus' sister Anna was a witness to their marriage. One child, daughter Blanche, was born to the couple, and then his wife Lillie died. Alpheus gave their daughter to Lillie's parents to raise.

What became of Alpheus after his wife's death is unknown. He does not appear in the 1900 nor 1910 census, but he was still living in 1910 according to his mother.

Notes for Lillie Barbour:

Lilly Barbour was born about 1874 in Liberty Township of Trumbull County, Ohio, the fifth of nine children born to David A. Barbour and Louisa Hines. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Liberty Township of Trumbull County, Ohio:

David Barber	Self	M	Male	W	43	PA	Blacksmith	PA	PA
Louisa Barber	Wife	M	Female	W	33	OH	House Keeper	OH	OH
Minnie Barber	Dau	S	Female	W	11	OH	At School	PA	OH

Emmie Barber	Dau	S	Female	W	5	OH		PA	OH
Edward Barber	Son	S	Male	W	1	OH		PA	OH

On July 5, 1891 in Lafayette Township of Gratiot County, Michigan, Lilly married Alpheus A. Ralston. Her brother Terry, the eldest sibling, was a witness to their marriage. One child, daughter Blanche, was born to the couple.

Lilly is thought to have died soon after giving birth, but in the 1900 census, her mother, who was caring for Lilly's child, reports that all her children were living.

- iii. EMMA ROLSTON was born on 10 Aug 1872 in Wood Co., Ohio. She died on 26 Apr 1874 in Wood Co., Ohio (age 20 mos.).

Notes for Emma Rolston:

Emma Rolston was born August 10, 1872 in Wood County, Ohio, the second of five children born to William H. Rolston and Caroline Hay. [Her date of birth is calculated from her age at death.] Emma's father had been previously married and widowed. From her father's previous marriage, Emma had a half-sister who died at the age of 1.

Emma died April 26, 1874 in Wood County, Ohio and was buried in the Bethel Cemetery in Hancock County, Ohio. Her age at death was "1 yr. 8 mos. and 16 ds."

- iv. ANNA ROLSTON was born in Mar 1875 in Wood Co., Ohio. She died in 1966 (age ~91). She married Joseph J. Sartor, son of Christian Sarter and Emeline, on 11 May 1898 in Gratiot Co., Mich.. He was born on 22 Feb 1872 in New Haven Twp., Gratiot Co., Mich.. He died on 23 Dec 1950 in New Haven Twp., Gratiot Co., Mich. (age 78).

Notes for Anna Rolston:

Anna Rolston was born in March of 1875 in Wood County, Ohio, the third of five children born to William H. Rolston (Ralston) and Caroline Hay. Anna's father had been previously married and widowed. From her father's previous marriage, Anna had a half-sister who died at the age of 1. The family left Ohio, removing to the Arcada Township of Gratiot County, Michigan.

On May 11, 1898 in Gratiot County, Michigan, Anna, age 23, married Joseph J. Sartor, age 26. Two children were born to their union; their second child dying in 1909 at the age of one. The family farmed in Gratiot County. Her husband preceded her in death in 1950.

Anna, about age 91, died in 1966 and was buried in the Ithaca Cemetery in Ithaca, Gratiot County, Michigan.

- v. GEORGE E. ROLSTON was born on 04 Mar 1875 in Wood Co., Ohio. He died before 1880 in Wood Co., Ohio.
- vi. ETTA ROLSTON was born in Jan 1878 in Wood Co., Ohio. She died in 1965 in Michigan (age 87). She married Joel W. McVeigh, son of Milton McVeigh and Barbara A. Wood, on 09 Jun 1899 in Ithaca, Gratiot Co., Mich.. He was born on 18 Oct 1877 in New Haven, Gratiot Co., Mich.. He died in 1957 in Michigan (age ~79).

Notes for Etta Rolston:

Etta Rolston was born in January of 1878 in Wood County, Ohio, the youngest of five children born to William H. Rolston and Caroline Hay. Two of Etta's siblings died in early childhood. Etta's father had been previously married and widowed. From her father's previous marriage, Etta had a half-sister who died at the age of 1.

On June 9, 1899 in Ithaca, Gratiot County, Michigan, Etta, age 20, married Joel McVeigh, age 21. Four children are known to have been born from their union. In the 1940 census Etta and her husband were residing with their son Clifford. Her husband preceded her in death in 1957.

Etta, 87, died in 1965 in Michigan and joined her husband in the New Haven Township Cemetery in New Haven Center, Gratiot County, Michigan.

Notes for Joel W. McVeigh:

Joseph "Joel" Mc Veigh was born October 18, 1877 in New Haven, Gratiot County, Michigan, the son of Milton McVeight and Barbara A. Wood.

291. LEVI W.<sup>5</sup> RALSTON (Alpheus<sup>4</sup> Rolston, William<sup>3</sup> Rolston, David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 13 Mar 1838 in Findlay, Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 28 Aug 1927 in Homer Twp., Midland Co., Mich. (age 89). He married Margarete Gerenda Decker on 01 Jan 1865 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She was born in 1835 in Ohio. She died on 11 Nov 1894 in Hoytville, Wood Co., Ohio (age ~59).

Notes for Levi W. Ralston:

Levi W. Rolston/Ralston was born March 13, 1838 in Findlay, Hancock County, Ohio, the youngest of five children born to Alpheus Rolston and Elizabeth Williamson. Levi's middle name may have been Williamson. Levi's mother died March 19, 1838, probably from complications during or after his birth. After his mother's death, Levi and brother William were sent to live with their maternal uncle, Levi Williamson, in Jackson Township of Hancock County, Ohio.

Levi was named as an heir in the 1843 will of his maternal uncle, Abraham Williamson. He was to receive $20 when he reached the age of 21. {source: Will Book 1, page 63, case #66, 1843, Hancock Co., Ohio}

In 1846 Levi's father married Julia Ann Williamson. Julia was Levi's mother's sister and Levi's maternal aunt. From his father's second marriage, Levi had one half-brother and two half-sisters.

The 1850 census enumerated Levi, age 12, and brother William, age 19, living with their maternal uncle, Levi Williamson, in Jackson Township of Hancock County, Ohio. By the 1860 census Levi, age 22, had moved back to living with his father Alpheus, his Aunt Julia (now his stepmother), his half-brother and two half-sisters.

Levi was a Private during the Civil War, enlisting on May 2, 1864. He served in Company B, 134th Regiment of the Ohio Infantry. His period of enlistment was short (112 days) as he was discharged on August 24, 1864, after only some four months of service. He apparently only enlisted for a short period as the Special Schedule for veterans states in the remarks that Levi W. Ralston was "disch[arged] at Expirat[ion] of Enlistment" and the column for 'disability incurred' is x-ed out.

On January 1, 1865 in Hancock County, Ohio, Levi married Margarete Gerenda Decker. The couple farmed. Seven children were born to their union. Their two youngest sons, Oliver and Manial, both died in infancy, followed by the death of their eldest child, daughter Harriet, in 1887. Margaret, Levi's wife of 30 years, died November 11, 1895 at the age of about 51.

In the 1900 census of Henry Township, Wood County, Ohio, the widowed Levi was enumerated with his son-in-law, Ambrose Hackett. He was age 63 and working as a laborer on his son-in-law's farm. [note: During this same 1900 census, there was a Levi W. Ralston and wife, Margaret, living in Carroll County, Ohio, however; this Levi and Margaret were some 20 years younger. The middle name of this Carroll County Levi was Wisman.] The Hackett's moved to northern Michigan sometime before 1910, taking Levi with them.

Levi, 89, died August 28, 1927 at home in Homer Township, Midland County, Michigan, and was buried at the Homer Cemetery in Midland County. He was survived by four of his seven children. His parents and all of his siblings had preceded him in death.

It is not known if Levi used the Ralston spelling of the surname, or when he transitioned to that spelling if he did so. Two of his sons, who died in childhood, were buried as Rolston, not Ralston. Children who lived to adulthood used the Ralston spelling.

DEATH CLAIMED AGED HOMER MAN

Levi W. Ralston, 89 Years Of Age Was Buried Tuesday
In Homer Cemetery

Levi W. Ralston, 89 years of age passed away Sunday, August 28, at the Homer Township home of his daughter, Mrs. A. U. Hackett. Chronic nephritis was the cause of death from which the aged man had been an invalid for almost a year. Mr. Hackett [wrong surname] was confined to his bed for one week. He had been blind for the past sixteen years.

Levi Ralston was born in Findlay, Ohio, March 13, 1838. Twenty-five years ago he came to this county {sic}, settling in Homer Township, which place has since been his home. Mr. Ralston's wife predeceased him. The survivors are: three daughters, Mrs. A. U. Hackett of Homer, at whose home he died, Mrs. Henry Brobst of North Baltimore, Ohio, D. S. Day of Chicago, Ill., one son, Wm. Ralston of Shepherd.

The aged Homer man was a veteran of the Civil War, having served in the 134th Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

The funeral service was held from the Hackett home {sic}, Tuesday afternoon, August 30, at two o'clock, with Rev. John Bettes of the Midland M. E. Circuit officiating, and burial {sic} in Homer Cemetery.

Notes for Margarete Gerenda Decker:

Margarete Gerenda Decker was born in 1835 in Ohio. Her parentage is not known.

On January 1, 1865 in Hancock County, Ohio, Margarete married Levi W. Ralston. Seven children were born to the couple; three preceded her in death. Two sons died as infants, and their eldest daughter died at 21 years of age.

Margarete, about 59, died November 11, 1894 in Hoytville, Wood County, Ohio, and was buried as Margarete Ralston next to her eldest daughter, Hattie, in the Bethel Cemetery in Hancock County, Ohio. She was survived by Levi, her husband of 30 years, and four of her seven children.

Levi W. Ralston and Margarete Gerenda Decker had the following children:

- i. HARRIET AMILDA<sup>6</sup> RALSTON was born on 07 Feb 1866 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 01 Dec 1887 in Henry Twp., Wood Co., Ohio (age 21).

Notes for Harriet Amilda Ralston:

Harriet "Hattie" Amilda Ralston was born February 7, 1866 in Hancock County, Ohio, the eldest of seven children born to Levi W. Ralston and Margarete Gerenda Decker. She lived in Hancock County until sometime after 1871 when her father moved the family to Wood County, Ohio.

Harriet died December 1, 1887, two months before her 22nd birthday, in Henry Township, Wood County, Ohio, and was buried in the Bethel Cemetery in Hancock County, Ohio, where she now shares a tombstone with her mother.

- ii. WILLIAM ALPHEUS ROLSTON was born on 29 Jun 1868 in Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 15 Jun 1943 in Mt. Pleasant, Isabella Co., Mich. (age 74). He married Elnora P. Richardson, daughter of Cyrus Laland Richardson and Elizabeth Mitchal, about 1896 in Wood Co., Ohio. She was born on 19 Apr 1872 in Jackson Twp., Wood Co., Ohio. She died on 07 Nov 1955 in Traverse City, Isabella Co., Mich. (age 83).

Notes for William Alpheus Rolston:

William Alpheus Rolston/Ralston was born June 29, 1868 in Hancock County, Ohio, the second of seven children born to Levi W. Ralston and Margarete Gerenda Decker. His middle name came from his paternal grandfather Alpheus Rolston. William, the eldest of the three boys, was the only son to survive to adulthood. William spent his first few years living in Hancock County, Ohio. Around 1877, or before, his father moved the family from Hancock County to Wood County, Ohio where William grew to adulthood.

About 1896 in Wood County, Ohio, William married Elnora "Nora" P. Richardson. Six children were born to the couple. William is believed to have moved to Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, around 1900. In 1927 when his father passed away, William was living in the village of Shepherd, a rural area outside of Mt. Pleasant, Isabella County, Michigan. He was enumerated in the 1930 census in Chippewa, Isabella County, Michigan at the age of 61; his occupation was dairy farmer. By 1940 the couple separated but may not have divorced. William was enumerated with his son Vernest. He was enumerated as widowed, but his wife was still living.

William, 74, died June 15, 1943 at his son's home in Mount Pleasant, Isabella County, Michigan and was buried as William A. Rolston in the Salt River Cemetery in Shepard, Isabella County, Michigan. This cemetery may have been known as Riverside at the time of his death.

Other Ralston's who died in Isabella County are: Bessie (1877-1957); Flossie (1890-1971); Jody (1971-1987); Tina (1966-1988). Some may be relatives or descendants of William.

Isabella County Times-News, Thursday, June 17, 1943

William A. Ralston

Willam A. Rolston of Chippewa township died Tuesday, June 15, at the home of his son, Vernest, near Shepherd. He suffered a stroke, Sunday June 13. Funeral services for Mr. Rolston will be held Thursday afternoon (today) June 17, from the Stilgenbauer Funeral home in Shepherd .... Mr. Rolston was born June 29, 1868 in Ohio, and had been a resident of Isabella county for the past twenty-eight years. His occupation was farming. Surviving are: his widow; five sons. McKinley of Ionia, Claude of Mr. Pleasant, Vernest of Shepherd, George of Flint, and Clifford with the U.S. Army in North Africa, a daughter, Mrs. Robert Trussell of Mt. Pleasant; and two sisters, Mrs. D.S. Day of Hartford and Mrs. Mary Brobst of Cygnet, Ohio; and fifteen grandchildren.

Notes for Elnora P. Richardson:

Elnora "Nora" P. Richardson was born April 19, 1872 in Jackson Township of Wood County, Ohio, the third of five daughters born to Cyrus Laland Richardson and Elizabeth Mitchal. The family resided on a farm outside of Grand Rapids. She was first enumerated in the 1880 census of Jackson Township of Wood County, Ohio:

About 1896 in Wood County, Ohio, Elnora married William Alpheus Ralston. Six children were born to the couple. They resided in the area around Mount Pleasant in Isabella County, Michigan. The couple divorced before 1940, but each was enumerated in the 1940 census as widowed. Elnora stayed in the family home, and William had gone to live with one of their sons. In 1950 her son Clifford was living with her.

Elnora, 83, died November 7, 1955 in Traverse City, Isabella County, Michigan and was buried as Elnora Ralston separate from her husband in the Riverside Cemetery in Isabella County, Michigan.

Elnora Ralston Dies in Tr. City

Mrs. Elnora Ralston, Route 4, Chippewa township, died in Traverse City Nov. 7. Born April 19, 1872, in Wood County, Ohio. She is survived by five sons, Leland, Clyde and Clifford of Mt. Pleasant, Ernest of Shepherd and George W. of Flint; a daughter, Mrs. Eva Trussell of Lansing and a sister, Mrs. Adie Wonsytter of Hoysville, Ohio. The funeral will be from the Rush Chapel at 2 o'clock today .... Interment will be in Riverside cemetery.

- iii. RILLA ANN ROLSTON was born on 06 Mar 1870 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. She died between 1950-1961. She married David Sherman Day, son of Day and Blanch M. Duke, about 1898 in Ohio. He was born on 16 Jun 1871 in Asheville, Buncombe Co., N.C.. He died on 19 Oct 1945 in Kalamazoo, Kalamazoo Co., Mich. (age 74).

Notes for Rilla Ann Rolston:

Rilla "Ione or Jessie" Ann Rolston was born March 6, 1870 in Jackson Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the third of seven children born to Levi W. Ralston and Margarete Gerenda Decker. According to the 1870 census, Rilla was born in the month of February. Hancock County "Record of Births, Probate Court" {page 32, No. 1081} lists her as Ella A. D. Rolston, born 1870 March 6, Ohio, Hancock. The family removed to neighboring Wood County, Ohio, about 1877.

About 1898 in Ohio, Rilla married David Sherman Day. No children were born to the couple. They resided in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois from 1900 until sometime after 1935. It was during this time the Rilla began using "Jessie" as her given name. In 1943 when her brother William died, Rilla and her husband were residing in Hartford, Van Buren County, Michigan. They were still residing there in 1945 when Rilla's husband died. Her husband was buried in Chicago. From the letter below, it appears that Rilla moved to Chicago after her husband's death.

Letter from Louis L. Monthaven (Sr.) to Dr. L. H. Rolston, dated December 17, 1986:

"... I had a Grt. Uncle Bill Rolston [William Alpheus Ralston], and he had sister, Aunt Ann, when visited me ... 30 years ago, she was 88 then, on a bus from Chicago to a L.A. .... it seems Aunt Ann was black sheep of family. no one knew where she was for years. then in 1950's she returned, age 80's+ ... she always used Rolston."

Rilla's youngest sister, Mrs. Sarah Hackett, died in 1961. Rilla was not mentioned as a surviving sister and assumed to have been deceased.

Notes for David Sherman Day:

David Sherman Day was born June 16, 1871 in Ashville, Buncombe County, North Carolina, the son and only child of Blanch M. Duke and her first husband, Mr. Day. David's father is assumed to have died, and his mother remarried about 1875 to Felix Barr. David was enumerated with his mother, step-father and half-siblings in the 1880 census of Jefferson Township of Ashe County, North Carolina:

Felix Barr	Self	M	29	North Carolina
Blanch M. Barr	Wife	F	25	Alabama

Chestella D. Barr	Daughter	F	4	North Carolina
Robert C. Barr	Son	M	1	North Carolina
David S. Day	Son	M	9	North Carolina

In later years, as an adult, David used June 6, 1873 as his date of birth.

David later removed to Ohio where he met and married Rilla Ann "Jessie" Rolston about 1898. No children were born to the couple. The couple removed to Chicago where they are known to have resided from 1900 to 1935. David worked for the phone company. The couple as enumerated in the 1910 census of Chicago, Cook County, Illinois:

David S Day	Head	M	36	North Carolina

1920 census of Chicago, Cook County, Illinois:

D S Day	Head	M	45	North Carolina
Jessie Day	Wife	F	49	Ohio

Sometime after 1935 the couple removed to Hartford, Van Buren County, Michigan, and were enumerated there in the 1940 census. David, age 67, was no longer able to work.

Although a resident of Hartford, David, 72, died October 19, 1945 in Kalamazoo, Kalamazoo County, Michigan. His body was taken to Chicago for burial. The name of the cemetery is unknown.

- iv. MARY ELIZABETH RALSTON was born on 25 Oct 1871 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 29 Jun 1965 in Cygnet, Wood Co., Ohio (age 93). She married Henry A. Brobst, son of Levi Brobst and Louisa Yeager, on 23 Sep 1893 in Wood Co., Ohio. He was born on 27 Aug 1871 in Henry Twp., Wood Co., Ohio. He died on 13 Jul 1945 in Henry Twp., Wood Co., Ohio (age 73).

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Ralston:

Mary Elizabeth Ralston was born October 25, 1871 in Jackson Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the fourth of seven children born to Levi W. Ralston and Margarete Gerenda Decker. She resided in Hancock County until about 1877 when her father moved the family to Wood County, Ohio.

On September 23, 1893 in Wood County, Ohio, Mary, age 22, married Henry A. Brobst, age 22. The couple farmed in Wood County but lived in various towns within the county. Four children were born to the couple. On July 13, 1945, Henry, Mary's husband of 57 years, died at the age of 74.

Mary, 93, died June 29, 1965 in Cygnet, Wood County, Ohio, and was buried in the Maplewood Cemetery in North Baltimore, Wood County, Ohio. Mary was the fourth of seven children but outlived all her siblings. She was survived by her four children.

MRS. HENRY BROBST - Mrs. Henry Brobst (Mary E. Ralston), 93, Route 1, Cygnet, died at 9:50 p.m. Tuesday at her home. She had been in failing health the last eight months.

She was born in Hancock County on Oct. 25, 1871, to Mr. and Mrs. Levi Ralston (Margaret Decker). She moved to Wood County as a child. She was married in 1895 and her husband died in 1945.

Survivors are a son, Claude, at home; three daughters, Mrs. Eanest (Violette) Clark, Glendale, Calif.; Mrs. John (Virginia) Feese, North Baltimore, and Miss Thelma Brobst, at home; four grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Mrs. Brobst was a member of the Mount Herman Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Notes for Henry A. Brobst:

NORTH BALTIMORE FARMER IS TAKEN - Henry Brobst, 74 died this morning at his home, four and one half miles northwest of North Baltimore, on the farm near which he was born on August 27, 1871, in Wood County to Levi and Louisa Brobst.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m., Monday at Rippeth's Funeral Home, North Baltimore. The Rev. H.D. Kern, of the Tontogany Evangelical Church, will have charge of the service. Burial will be in Maplewood Cemetery.

Mr. Brobst had spent his entire life in the immediate vicinity of his birthplace. He was a farmer by occupation.

Fifty-two years ago on Sept. 23 he was united in marriage with Miss Mary Ralston, who survives. Surviving with her are these children: Claude, Cygnet; Mrs. Virginia Feese, North Baltimore; Violette Clark, Glendale, Calif; Miss Thelma Brobst, at home; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild, together with two sisters, Mrs. Ben Judd, North Baltimore; and Mrs. Charles Jones, Cygnet.

- v. OLIVER HENRY ROLSTON was born on 12 Dec 1872 in Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 05 Jan 1873 in Hancock Co., Ohio (age 24 days).

Notes for Oliver Henry Rolston:

Oliver Henry Rolston was born December 12, 1872 in Hancock County, Ohio, the fifth of seven children born to Levi W. Ralston and Margarete Gerenda Decker. Oliver was probably born in Jackson Township of Hancock County as his parents lived there during the 1870 census.

Oliver died January 5, 1873 in Hancock County, Ohio, the week before reaching the age of two months. He was buried in the Bethel Cemetery in Hancock County.

- vi. MANIAL ZONE ROLSTON was born on 21 Aug 1875 in Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 03 Sep 1875 in Hancock Co., Ohio (age 13 days).

Notes for Manial Zone Rolston:

Babe Rolston was born August 21, 1875 in Hancock County, Ohio, the sixth of seven children born to Levi W. Ralston and Margarete Gerenda Decker.

This male child died September 3, 1875 and was buried in the Bethel Cemetery in Hancock County, Ohio, as "Babe Rolston son of L.W. & Margaret Rolston." It was a common practice not to name children during infancy. In later years when Levi applied for a Civil War pension, he identified this son as Manial Zone Ralston, born August 24, 1875.

Letter from Louis L. Monthaven (Sr.) to Dr. L. H. Rolston, dated December 17, 1986:

"... Aunt Ann ... in 1950's ... put couple tombstones on graves of her little brother who had died in 1870's ...." Aunt Ann was Mrs. Rilla "Ione" Rolston Day, Louis Monthaven's great aunt and older sister to Manial Zone Rolston, buried as Babe Rolston.

- vii. SARAH LEONA RALSTON was born on 23 Aug 1877 in Henry Twp., Wood Co., Ohio. She died on 26 Apr 1961 in Midland, Midland Co., Mich. (age 83). She married Ambrose Uriah Hackett, son of William Charles Hackett and Rebecca Ellen Dunn, on 20 Sep 1896 in Wood Co., Ohio. He was born on 19 Feb 1875 in Finley, Wood Co., Ohio. He died on 13 Apr 1958 in Midland, Midland Co., Mich. (age 83).

Notes for Sarah Leona Ralston:

Sarah "Ava" Leona Ralston was born August 23, 1877 in Henry Township of Wood County, Ohio, the youngest of seven children born to Levi W. Ralston and Margarete Gerenda Decker. Sarah was also known as Ona.

On September 20, 1896 in Wood County, Ohio, Leona, age 19, married Ambrose Uriah Hackett, age 21. He was also a native of Wood County. The couple remained in Wood County for a number of years. Sarah's mother died in 1895, and her father lived with Sarah and her husband. In 1904 the family removed to Homer Township in Midland them in death in 1919. Ambrose owned a farm In Homer Township, Ambrose for many years until he retired.

Ambrose, 83, died April 13, 1958 in the Midland Hospital in Midland, Midland County, Michigan, and was buried in the Homer Township Cemetery in Midland County, Michigan. He was survived by Sarah, his wife of over 60 years, and their son Cloyce.

292. LAFAYETTE<sup>5</sup> RALSTON (Alpheus<sup>4</sup> Rolston, William<sup>3</sup> Rolston, David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 25 Jun 1847 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 29 Mar 1924 in Findlay, Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio (age 76). He married Martha Ann Knight, daughter of John H. Knight and Sarah Oman, on 25 Sep 1873 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She was born on 17 Dec 1848 in Eagle Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 21 Oct 1937 in Findlay, Hancock Co., Ohio (age 88).

Notes for Lafayette Ralston:

LaFayette Ralston was born June 25, 1847 in Jackson Township, Hancock County, Ohio, the eldest of three children and only son born to Alpheus Rolston and his second wife, Julia Ann Williamson. LaFayette had one half-sister and four half-brothers from his father's first marriage.

On September 25, 1873 in Hancock County, Ohio, LaFayette, age 26, married Martha Ann Knight, age 24. She was also a native of Hancock County. The couple spent their entire lives in the county. They farmed and raised a family of three children, a daughter and two sons, but the couple divorced prior to 1900. At the time of the 1910 census LaFayette was living with his son Thornton.

LaFayette, 76, died March 29, 1924 in Findlay, Hancock County, Ohio, and was buried in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Hancock County, Ohio where his son Wyatt had been buried ten years earlier. LaFayette was survived by Martha, his exwife, their daughter Mrs. Navada Engle and their youngest son Thornton.

Notes for Martha Ann Knight:

Martha Ann Knight was born December 17, 1848 in Eagle Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the youngest of three children born to John H. Knight and Sarah Oman. Martha's mother died of typhoid fever the year after her birth. Her father remarried, and from that union, Martha had three half-brothers and two half-sisters. The family was enumerated in the 1860 census of Eagle Township of Hancock County, Ohio:

John H Knight	M	44	Ohio
Harriet Knight	F	28	Ohio
Mary E Knight	F	14	Ohio
Sarah J Knight	F	13	Ohio
Martha Knight	F	12	Ohio
John H Knight	M	9	Ohio
Emily Knight	F	7	Ohio
Wm Knight	M	5	Ohio
Ann Knight	F	2	Ohio
George Knight	M	3/12	Ohio

Martha's father died in January of the following year.

On September 25, 1873 in Hancock County, Ohio, Martha married LaFayette Ralston. The couple had three children, one of which preceded them in death. In the 1880 census the couple was enumerated with her husband's parents. The couple divorced prior to 1900 as LaFayette and the children were living together. Mr. Ralston lists himself as widowed, but Martha, who was enumerated separately, listed herself as divorced. In the 1920 census Martha and family were enumerated in Findlay, Hancock County, Ohio:

Martha A Ralston	Head	F	71	Ohio (widowed)
John H Knight	Brother	M	68	Ohio (divorced)
Walter E Mcdonald	Nephew	M	22	Illinois
David O Engle	Son-in-law	M	55	Ohio
Nevada E Engle	Daughter	F	45	Ohio

Martha later moved in with her sister, Mrs. Jane Harber, in Findlay.

Martha, 88, died October 21, 1937 at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jane Harber, at 150 Madison Avenue in Findlay, Ohio. She appeared to have been in the best of health according to her obituary that was published in the Republican Courier on October, 22, 1937, the day following her death. She was a lifelong resident of the county. She was survived by her daughter and the younger of her two sons. She was buried in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Hancock County, Ohio where her ex-husband and their son had been buried.

Lafayette Ralston and Martha Ann Knight had the following children:

- i. NAVADA ESTELLA RALSTON was born in Jul 1874 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 23 Nov 1961 in Hancock Co., Ohio (age 87). She married David Orville Engle, son of Jacob B. Engle and Jane E. V. Rolston, on 03 Apr 1902 in Hancock Co., Ohio. He was born in Apr 1864 in Ohio. He died on 19 Sep 1940 in Hancock Co., Ohio (age 76).

Notes for Navada Estella Ralston:

Navada Estella Ralston was born in July of 1874 in Jackson Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the eldest of three children and only daughter born to LaFayette Ralston and Martha Ann Knight. Navada was probably born at the home of her paternal grandparents, Alpheus Rolston and Julia Ann Williamson, as Navada's parents were living there at the time of the 1880 census. Although her given name was Navada, she was known by her middle name Estella.

On April 3, 1902 in Hancock County, Navada, age 28, married David Orville Engle, age 38. Navada and David were 2nd cousins; both descendants of great grandparents William Rolston and Marry Hopkins. Navada's grandfather was Alpheus Rolston, and David's maternal grandfather was John Hopkins Rolston. Alpheus and John were two of three Rolston brothers that left Wood County, Virginia prior to the Civil War, and moved north into Ohio.

No children are known to have been born from their union. Navada was living with her mother at the time of the 1920 census. Navada's mother died on October 21, 1937. Although Navada was still living, she was not mentioned in her mother's obituary. Navada and her husband had been married for about 38 years when David died September 19, 1940 at the age of 76. She buried her husband in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Hancock County. Navada was about 66 years of age at the time of her husband's death and did not remarry.

Navada, 87, died November 23, 1961 in Hancock County, Ohio, and joined her husband in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Hancock County. Both of her brothers had preceded her in death. She was survived by two nephews and one niece, all children of her brother Thornton Fayette Ralston.

Notes for David Orville Engle:

David Orville Engle was born in April of 1864 in Ohio, the younger of two children and only son born to Dr. Jacob B. Engle and Jane E. Rolston. He was sometimes known by his middle name, Orville. It is not known where in Ohio his parents were living at the time of his birth, nor how long David and his family lived in Ohio before they moved to Indiana. In 1870 the family was residing in Monroeville, Allen County, Indiana. By 1880 they had removed to La Grange, Lagrange County, Indiana. Sometime before 1880 his parents adopted a young girl named Lilly who later died.

About 1896, David married Ms. Clara Lower, the former Miss Clara Routsong. She had two children from a previous marriage. There was a marriage of a David Ingle in Page County, Indiana that could have been David's marriage to Clara. The couple was enumerated in the 1900 census of Bloomfield, LaGrange County, Indiana, residing next to David's parents and David's sister, Mrs. Ora Stacy:

Clara Engle	Wife	F	27	Indiana
Frank Lower	Stepson		M	9 Indiana
Mary Lower	Stepdaughter	F	8	Indiana

David and Clara did not have children together and are assumed to have divorced soon after the 1900 census. He may have returned to Hancock County, Ohio for a period of time.

On April 3, 1902 in Hancock County, Ohio, David, age 38, married Navada Estella Ralston, age 28. David and Navada were 2nd cousins; both descendants of great grandparents William Rolston and Mary Hopkins. David's maternal grandfather was John Hopkins Rolston, and Navada's grandfather was Alpheus Rolston. John and Alpheus were two of three Rolston brothers that left Wood County, Virginia prior to the Civil War, and moved north into Ohio.

David and Navada lived in LaGrange County, Indiana for a number of years before returning to Hancock County, Ohio.

David, 76, died on September 19, 1940 in Hancock County, Ohio and was buried in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Hancock County. He was survived by Navada, his wife of 38 years. No children were known to have been born to the couple. David was preceded in death by his parents, his older sister, Mrs. Glendora "Ora" Stacy, and their adopted younger sister Lilly.

- ii. WYATT ELGIN RALSTON was born on 10 Jul 1877 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 18 Dec 1913 in Findlay, Hancock Co., Ohio (age 36). He married Grace Vera Tarbutton, daughter of John Asbury Tarbutton and Emma Dora Franklin, on 10 Jul 1906 in Allen Co., Ohio. She was born on 05 Nov 1880 in Springfield, Clark Co., Ohio. She died on 20 Nov 1974 in Lima, Allen Co., Ohio (age 94).

Notes for Wyatt Elgin Ralston:

Dr. Wyatt Elgin Ralston was born July 10, 1877 in Jackson Township, Hancock County, Ohio, the second of three children born to Alpheus Rolston and his second wife, Julia Ann Williamson. Wyatt had one half-sister and four half-brothers from his father's first marriage. Wyatt was probably born at the home of his paternal grandparents as the family was living there at the time of the 1880 census. Wyatt's full name is said to be Wyatt Elgin Hayes Ralston. Wyatt worked as a school teacher in 1900 and later became a veterinarian.

On July 10, 1906 in Allen County, Ohio, Wyatt married Grace Vera Tarbutton. The couple removed to Washington where they were enumerated with their two children in the 1910 census of Pullman, Whitman County, Washington:

Wyatt E Ralston	Head	M	32	Ohio
Grace V Ralston	Wife	F	29	Ohio
Elgin F Ralston	Son	M	2	Washington
Gwendolin Ralston	Daughter		F	7/12 Washington

Wyatt, 36, died December 18, 1913 in Findlay, Hancock County, Ohio, and was buried in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Findlay.

The obituary for his father, LaFayette, refers to son, Dr. W. E. Ralston, who died ten years ago {Morning Republican, March 31, 1924}. Dr. Wyatt's funeral notice {Findlay Weekly Jefferson, 25 Dec., 1913} only stated that Wyatt died after a long illness. The certificate of death for Dr. Wyatt E. Ralston shows that he was being treated for "infectious ... myelitis" (inflammation of the spinal cord) for some ten months prior to his death. His death was hastened by bronchial pneumonia.

LONG SUFFERING OVER

Dr. Wyatt E. Ralston Dies After Ten Months Illness From Strange Disease

~SPECIALISTS COULDN'T HELP

Former Teacher in Country Schools of Hancock County - Taught in Washington State College

~After an illness of ten months from infectious militis, Dr. Wyatt E. Ralston died Thursday afternoon at his home, rear of 511 North Main street. He was stricken in Pullman, Wash., last February and was confined to his bed up to the time of his death. Before being brought to Ohio, he was treated by some of the best specialists in Washington, but the disease never yielded to treatment. He was brought to the home of his father-in-law, John Tarbutton, of Lima, in June and later to Findlay; local physicians attended to him throughout his sickness, but like the others could give him no relief.

Born in Hancock County.

~Dr. Ralston was 36 years old and was born and reared in Jackson township. He was the son of Lafayette and Martha Ralson and before entering college he was an active teacher in the rural schools of this county. He was graduated from the Ohio State university in 1904 in the department of veterinary science and immediately began the practice of medicine in Findlay, at the same time conducting a livery and sales stable in the rear of the American Express office. A year later he secured a position in the Washington state college and at the time of his death he was a member of the faculty and held professor of physiology, pathology and bacteriology.

~ Married Findlay Teacher

In 1906, Dr. Ralston was united in marriage with Miss Grace Tarbutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tarbutton. She was a teacher in the Findlay public schools. They returned to their western home and resided there until last spring.

~Dr. Ralston is survived by his widow, two children, father and mother, one brother, T. F. Ralston, Jackson township, and a sister, Mrs. Stella Eagle of this city.

~The funeral will be held at 1:30 o'clock Saturday at the United Presbyterian church. Burial will be in Maple Grove cemetery.

Notes for Grace Vera Tarbutton:

Grace Vera Tarbutton was born November 5, 1880 in Springfield, Clark County, Ohio, the daughter of John Tarbutton and Emma D. Franklin.

On July 10, 1906 in Allen County, Ohio, Grace married Wyatt Elgin Ralston. They removed to the state of Washington where two children were born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of Pullman, Whitman County, Washington. They soon returned to Ohio where her husband Wyatt died in 1913 at the age of 36.

On August 12, 1915 in Springfield, Clark County, Ohio, the widow Grace Vereah Ralston married Oscar Darling Boggs. Two sons are known to have been born to the couple. Grace, husband Oscar and her four children were enumerated in Lima, Allen County, Ohio in the 1930 census:

Oscar D Boggs	Head	M	46	West Virginia
Grace V Boggs	Wife	F	49	Ohio
Elgin F Ralston	Stepson	M	23	Washington
Gwendolyn Ralston	Stepdaughter	F	20	Washington
Eugene H Boggs	Son	M	12	Ohio
Oscar M Boggs	Son	M	9	Ohio

Both of Grace's children from her first marriage preceded her in death; daughter Gwendolyn in 1969 and son Elgin in December of 1973. Three months later, Grace's second husband, Oscar, preceded her in death in March of 1974.

Grace, 94, died eight months later on November 20, 1974 in Lima, Allen County, Ohio and was buried in the Memorial Park Cemetery and Mausoleum in Lima.

- iii. THORNTON FAYETTE RALSTON was born on 20 Aug 1879 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 21 Nov 1945 in Jackson Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio (age 66). He married (1) ZETTA FLORENCE WOLFE, daughter of William Wolfe and Ella J. Burns, on 07 Aug 1906 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She was born on 17 Jan 1882 in Findlay, Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 10 Dec 1917 in Findlay, Hancock Co., Ohio (age 35). He married (2) COZY MABLE ROMICK, daughter of Milton Solt Romick and Sarah Jane Beagle, on 09 Sep 1920 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She was born on 22 Nov 1896 in Hancock Co., Ohio. She died in 1977 (age ~80).

Notes for Thornton Fayette Ralston:

Thornton Fayette Ralston was born August 20, 1879 in Jackson Township, Hancock County, Ohio, the last of three children born to Alpheus Rolston and his second wife, Julia Ann Williamson. Thornton would have one half-sister and four half-brothers from his father's first marriage. Thornton was probably born at the home of his paternal grandparents as the family was living there at the time of the 1880 census.

On August 7, 1906 in Hancock County, Ohio, Thornton married Zetta Florence Wolfe, also a native of Hancock County. In 1910 They were living with Thornton's father. The couple farmed and raised a family of three children. His wife Zetta died of cancer on December 10, 1917. Thornton would not remarry until some three years later. Thus the three young children, the youngest being only 17 months, were likely reared in Findlay by their maternal grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. William Wolfe.

On September 9, 1920 in Hancock County, Ohio, Thornton married Cozy Mable Romick. No children are known to have been born from their union.

Thornton, 66, died of a heart ailment on November 21, 1945 in Jackson Township, Hancock County, Ohio. Thornton's obituary states that Thornton had been ill since last January [1945] but had only become seriously ill since November 16th. He was buried in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Hancock County. He was survived by Cozy, his wife of the past 25 years, and the three children from his first marriage.

Notes for Zetta Florence Wolfe:

Zetta Florence Wolfe was born January 17, 1882 in Findlay, Hancock County, Ohio, the eldest of two children and only daughter born to William Wolfe and Ella J. Burns.

On August 7, 1906 in Hancock County, Ohio, Zetta married Thornton Fayette Ralston by which she had three children. Zetta, already diagnosed with cancer, left Jackson Township about June of 1917 to return to her parents' home at 524 Wyandot Street in Findlay, Ohio. The three children: Claire, age 8, Marie, age 3, and Norman, 17 months, assuredly went to Findlay with their mother. Thornton, as a farmer, would not of had time to care for such young children.

Six months later, on the morning of December 10, 1917 in Findlay, Hancock County, Ohio, Zetta, 35, succumbed to cancer of the uterus. She was buried in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Findlay. She was survived by her husband and their three children.

Notes for Cozy Mable Romick:

Cozy Mable Romick was born November 22, 1896 in Hancock County, Ohio, the the third of four children born to Milton Solt Romick and Sara Jane Beagle.

Cozy married three times. On September 12, 1914 in Hancock County, Ohio, Cozy, age 17, married Godfrey Jesse Crates, age 18. One child was born to their union. The couple separated and divorced. Her husband Godfrey was enumerated as married in the 1920 census and was living with his parents. Cozy and daughter Katheen's whereabouts are unknown.

On September 9, 1920 in Hancock County, Ohio, Cozy married the widower Thornton Fayette Ralston in Hancock County, Ohio. No children were born to their union. Thornton preceded Cozy in death on November 21, 1945 at the age of 66. Thornton's obituary mentions a step-daughter, Mrs. Kathleen Murphy. This was his stepdaughter, daughter of his second wife, Cozy, from her first marriage.

On November 22, 1948 in Clark County, Indiana, the widow Mrs. Cozy Mable Ralston married James Rex Hise. There were no children from her third marriage.

Cozy, at the age of about 80, died in 1977 and was buried in the Houcktown Cemetery in Houcktown, Hancock County, Ohio where her parents and sister Gracie were buried.

Notes for Elizabeth Annastatia Ralston:

Elizabeth Annastatia Ralston was born April 11, 1850 in Hancock County, Ohio, the second of three children born to Alpheus Rolston and his second wife, Julia Ann Williamson. Elizabeth had one half-sister and four half-brothers from her father's first marriage. Her name is also found as Emaline A. Ralston. Elizabeth's younger sister, Nancy, died in 1867 at the age of 14.

On January 8, 1874 in Hancock County, Ohio, Elizabeth, age 23, married Isaac Bishop. The couple farmed. Seven children were born to the couple, but daughter Cora, the couple's fifth child, died in 1886 at three months of age.

Elizabeth, 72, died of tuberculosis on June 14, 1922, a lifelong resident of Eagle Township of Hancock County, and was buried in the Bishop Cemetery in Arlington, Eagle Township of Hancock County, Ohio. She was survived by Isaac, her husband of 48 years, and six of her seven children. Also surviving was one brother.

Notes for Isaac Bishop:

Isaac Bishop was born in April of 1850 in Eagle Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the fourth of six sons born to Henry Bishop and Eve Smith. Isaac's father died in the summer of 1855 when Isaac was 5 years old. His mother did not remarry. His mother and the five sons continued farming.

On January 8, 1874 in Hancock County, Ohio, Isaac married Elizabeth Annastatia Ralston. The couple farmed in Hancock County. Seven children were born to the couple. Isaac's wife preceded him in death on June 15, 1922.

Isaac, 74, died two years later on October 14, 1924 in Hancock County, Ohio, and was buried in the Bishop Cemetery in Eagle Township, Hancock County, Ohio.

Isaac Bishop and Elizabeth Annastatia Ralston had the following children:

Burton Bishop. Eight children were born from their union. Her husband preceded her in death in 1956. Cora removed to Lucas County, Ohio, presumably to reside near or with one of the couple's eight children.

Cora, 86, died in December of 1975 in Lucas County, Ohio and joined her husband in the Bishop Cemetery in Eagle Township of Hancock County, Ohio.

- v. CORA VESTA BISHOP was born on 28 Feb 1886 in Eagle Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. She died on 31 May 1886 in Eagle Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio (age 3 mos.).
- vi. ROY CLEVELAND BISHOP was born on 14 Sep 1887 in Eagle Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio. He died on 28 Oct 1975 in Sacramento Co., Calif. (age 88). He married Grace Eugenia Lacy, daughter of William Charles Lacy and Sarah Elizabeth Bradshaw, before 1930 in Indiana. She was born on 10 Jun 1885 in Coles Co., Ill.. She died on 06 Dec 1981 in Sacramento Co., Calif. (age 96).

Notes for Roy Cleveland Bishop:

Roy Cleveland Bishop was born September 14, 1887 in Eagle Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the sixth of seven children born to Isaac Bishop and Elizabeth Annastatia "Ann" Ralston. In the 1920 census Roy was living with his brother Edson and family and working as a laborer in his brother's auto repair shop.

By 1930, Roy had married Mrs. Grace L. Parker, the former Miss Grace Eugenia Lacy. She had no known children from her previous marriage. The couple was enumerated in the 1930 census of Allen County, Indiana. No children were born from their union. The couple resided in Charlotte, North Carolina in 1935. They were enumerated in the 1940 census of Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky. They later removed to California.

Roy, 88, preceded his wife in death on October 28, 1975 in Sacramento County, California and was buried in the Bishop Cemetery in Arlington, Hancock County, Ohio. His parents and all of his siblings had preceded him in death.

Notes for Grace Eugenia Lacy:

Grace Eugenia Lacy was born June 10, 1885 in Illinois, the younger, perhaps youngest, of eleven children born to Rev. William Charles Lacy and Sarah Elizabeth Bradshaw. Her father was a Methodist preacher. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of Waynesville (village), DeWitt County, Illinois:

W C Lacy	Head	M	61	England
Sarah Lacy	Wife	F	55	Illinois (11/8)
Grace Lacy	Daughter	F	14	Illinois

On September 1, 1904 in Green Valley, Tazewell County, Illinois, Grace, age 20, married Charles A. Parker, age 37. The couple moved to Indiana. They were enumerated there in 1910; no children had been born to their union. Grace's mother died in 1920; her obituary placed "Mrs. Grace Parker" in Indiana. What became of Mr. Parker is unknown.

By 1930, Grace had married Roy Cleveland Bishop. The couple was enumerated in the 1930 census of Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana. By 1940 the couple had removed to Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky. There, Grace was the manager of a beauty shop. The couple later removed to California. Her husband preceded her in death in 1975.

Grace, 96, died December 6, 1981 in Sacramento County, California and joined her husband in the Bishop Cemetery in Eagle Township of Hancock County, Ohio.

Notes for Edson Delbert Bishop:

Edson Delbert Bishop was born August 2, 1892 in Eagle Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the youngest of seven children born to Isaac Bishop and Elizabeth Annastatia "Ann" Ralston. Edson grew up on the family farm.

On August 24, 1916 in Hancock County, Ohio, Edson, age 24, married Bessie M. Cole, age 18. Two children were born to their union. In the 1920 census of Hancock County Edson's brother Roy was living with them. Also living with the family were two of Bessie's younger sisters:

E D Bishop	Head	M	27	Ohio
Bessie Bishop	Wife	F	21	Ohio
Edson D Bishop	Son	M	1	Ohio
R C Bishop	Brother	M	31	Ohio
Esther N Cole	Sister-in-Law	F	20	Ohio
Lucilla Cole	Sister-in-Law	F	15	Ohio

Edson's wife, Bessie, died in 1924 at the age of 25.

Two years later, on April 19, 1926 in Allen County, Indiana, Edson, age 33, married Meusetta Lee Frink, age 42. Edson's older brother Roy Bishop resided in Allen County and may have introduced the couple after the death of Edson's first wife. Edson and his second wife were enumerated in the 1930 census of Allen County. In the early 1930's, the family removed to North Carolina where the couple's only child was born. The family was enumerated in the 1940 census of Shallotte, Brunswick County, North Carolina:

Edson D Bishop	Head	M	47	Ohio
Meusetta Bishop	Wife	F	46	North Carolina
Bettie L Bishop	Daughter	F	5	North Carolina
Edson D Bishop	Son	M	22	Ohio [son from 1st wife]
Virginia N Bishop	Daughter	F	19	Ohio [daughter from 1st wife]

Sometime after the couple removed to North Carolina, they divorced. His ex-wife preceded him in death in 1972.

Edson, 82, died on January 5, 1975 in Whiteville, Columbus County, North Carolina and was buried in the Whiteville Memorial Cemetery in Whiteville. He was survived by his younger brother Roy Bishop.

Notes for Bessie Mable Cole:

Bessie Mable Cole was born August 12, 1898 in Biglick Township of Hancock County, Ohio, the third of seven children born to Ormel Cole and Blanche Anderson Bolander. Of all Bessie's siblings, she had but one brother, and he died in infancy in 1903. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of Biglick Township of Hancock County, Ohio:

children were born to the couple. In the 1920 census Bessie's younger sisters, Esther and Lucile, were living with them.

Bessie, 25, died of pulmonary tuberculosis on February 3, 1924 in Findlay, Hancock County, Ohio and was buried in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Findlay. She was survived by her husband and their two children. Also surviving were her parents.

According to her death certificate, Bessie had contract tuberculosis when in Iowa. It is not known when she lived there. The family may have lived there briefly between 1920 and 1923.

Notes for Meusetta Lee Frink:

Meusetta Lee Frink was born November 12, 1892 in Wilmington, New Hanover County, North Carolina, the sixth of ten children born to George P. Frink and Lola A. Powell. [On her husband's death record in North Carolina, her name is found as Mae Mastalize.] Meusetta and her family were enumerated in the 1910 census of Shallotte, Brunswick County, North Carolina:

George P Frink	Head	M	58	North Carolina
Lola A Frink	Wife	F	46	North Carolina (10/9)
Milton D Frink	Son	M	24	North Carolina

Amelia V Frink	Daughter	F	12	North Carolina
Tharah B Frink	Son	M	10	North Carolina
Viola C Frink	Daughter	F	7	North Carolina

One of Meusetta's older sibling had died prior to the 1900 census.

On April 19, 1926 in Allen County, Indiana, Meusetta, age of 42, married the widower Edson Delbert Bishop. It was Meusetta's first marriage, but Mr. Bishop's second marriage. One child was born to the couple. The couple removed to North Carolina where they later divorced.

Meusetta, 79, died April 16, 1972 in Wilmington, New Hanover County, North Carolina and was buried in the Maultsby Mount Olive Cemetery in Bolivia, Brunswick County, North Carolina.

Notes for Mary A. Prince:

Mary Prince was born August 30, 1826 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the eldest of six children born to John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston.

On January 6, 1846 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), Mary married Benjamin G. Prince. He was not a blood relative even though they shared the same surname. Eight children were born to the couple, three sons and five daughters. Two of their sons died in childhood while the third died at the age of 20.

During the 1860 census when the family was residing at Bull Creek. Aquilla Sarber, age 33, was working as a farm laborer for the Prince family. Azuilla's younger sister had married Granville Harness Rolston, Mary's maternal cousin. The Prince family had kindly taken in Mr. Zarah Batten, age 91 and born in New Jersey, who was listed as a pauper.

By 1868, Mary and her husband had moved to Meigs County, Ohio. Sometime before the 1880 census, Mary's parents moved in with her and her family, and all were residing in Lebanon Township, Meigs County, Ohio. Her parents remained with them until their deaths. Her father died in 1882 and her mother in 1887.

Benjamin, Mary's husband of 50 years, died June 12, 1897 in Portland, Meigs County, Ohio, at the age of 74. By 1900, the widowed Mary had moved in with her eldest child, daughter Mrs. Frances Prince Jones.

Mary, about age 80, died in 1906 in Lebanon, Meigs County, Ohio, and was buried in the Browning Cemetery in Lebanon Township of Meigs County, Ohio. All three of her sons and one daughter had preceded her in death. Of her eight children, she was survived by four daughters. Also surviving was her sister, Mrs. Frances Henderson, and her brother, Benjamin Prince.

Notes for Benjamin G. Prince:

Benjamin G. Prince was born November 16, 1822 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the son of William Prince and Frances Grove. According to the 1880 census, his father was born in Virginia and his mother was born in Pennsylvania.

On January 6, 1846 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), Benjamin married Mary Prince. They were not blood relatives even though they shared the same surname. Benjamin worked as a shoemaker in 1850. John Prince, presumed to be his brother, was living with Benjamin and his family along with a Mr. Zare Battin, age 79, who was a shoemaker from North Carolina and likely teaching Benjamin and his brother the trade. At the time of the 1850 census the first three of their eight children had been born. By 1860 Benjamin had given up shoemaking and returned to farming. Mr. Battin, now age 91 and a pauper, was still living with Benjamin and his family. Also enumerated with the family was Aquilla Sarber, a farm laborer, who was related through marriage to his wife's Rolston ancestor. Sometime after the 1860 census Benjamin moved the family north to Meigs County, Ohio.

In the 1880 census of Lebanon, Meigs County, Ohio, Mary's parents, John and Jane Prince, were living with them. There are also two nephews, James, age 21, and Thomas, age 13. It is not known if these are nephews from Benjamin or from Mary.

County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the eldest of eight children born to Benjamin G. Prince and Mary Prince. Although her parents were both Prince's, they were not known to have been related. Frances was the granddaughter of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston.

On August 8, 1864 in Pleasants County, West Virginia, Frances married Jacob Dal Jones. The couple farmed and raised a family of four children, one of which preceded them in death prior to 1900. The family remained in West Virginia until sometime after 1872 when they removed to Meigs County, Ohio where Frances' father had moved some years earlier. Frances, her husband, and their three children were enumerated in the 1880 census of Sutton Township in Meigs County. Their fourth child was born ten years later. Between 1880 and 1900, the family had moved within the county. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of the Portland Precinct in Lebanon Township of Meigs County, Ohio. Their son Benjamin was still living at home. Frances's widowed mother was also living with the family. Frances's son Okey had died in 1889 at the age of about 18.

Jacob, Frances' husband of some 39 years, preceded her in death 1903. In 1920, the widowed Frances was enumerated with her daughter, Mrs. Zana Cowdery, in the Olive Township of Meigs County, Ohio.

Frances, 80, died May 10, 1927 in Racine, Meigs County, Ohio, and joined her husband in the Greenwood Cemetery in Meigs County, Ohio. She was survived by daughters Lenna and Zana, and son Benjamin.

Notes for Jacob Dal Jones:

Jacob Dal (may have been Dallas or Dow) Jones was born in January of 1840 in Virginia (now West Virginia), the son of Mrs. Zana Handiford Jones. He was probably born in Wood County, Virginia where the family farm was found in 1850. His father, whose given name is not known, died between 1848 and 1850 when Jacob was a young boy of 8 or 9 years of age. His mother continued to run the family farm with the help of Jacob and his brothers. Jacob was of age to have served during the Civil War, but he is not known to have enlisted for either side during this conflict.

On August 8, 1864 in Pleasants County, West Virginia, Jacob married Frances "Fanny" Sarah Prince. Four children were born from this union. They lived in Wood County, West Virginia for a number of years before removing to Ohio in the mid 1870's. The couple with their first three children and Jacob's mother were enumerated in the 1880 census of Sutton Township, Meigs County, Ohio:

On September 29, 1875 in Meigs County, Ohio, Henry married Lucy C. Prince. Children born to their union, if any, are unknown. The couple was not enumerated in the 1880 census. Lucy, his wife of seven years, preceded him in death in February of 1883 at the age of 25.

For 50 years, nothing is known of Henry until his death and burial.

Henry, 71, died January 27, 1925 in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia, and was buried as H. Clay Williamson, joining his wife in the Browning Cemetery in Lebanon Township of Meigs County, Ohio.

- v. VANDIVER THORNILY PRINCE was born on 19 May 1859 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 26 Oct 1879 in Meigs Co., Ohio (age 20).

Notes for Vandiver Thornily Prince:

Vandiver "Van" Thornily Prince was born May 19, 1859 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the fifth of eight children born to Benjamin G. Prince and Mary Prince. He was the grandson of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. His middle name of Thornily came from family ties to the Thorniley family. His mother, Mary Prince, and Mary Catherine Rolston were first cousins. In 1841 Mary Catherine Rolston wed Thomas E. Thorniley.

The Prince family moved to Meigs County, Ohio, sometime after Van's birth.

Van, 20, died October 26, 1879 in Meigs County, Ohio, and was buried in the Browning Cemetery in Lebanon Township of Meigs County, Ohio.

- vi. BENJAMIN H. PRINCE was born on 04 Feb 1862. He died on 05 Jul 1862 (age 5 mos.).

Notes for Benjamin H. Prince:

Benjamin H. Prince was born February 4, 1862, the sixth of eight children born to Benjamin G. Prince and Mary Prince. He was the grandson of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston.

Benjamin, age 5 months, died on July 5, 1862. His place of death and burial are unknown.

Benjamin's parents had moved from Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia) to Meigs County, Ohio, sometime between 1860 and 1865. Benjamin's dates of birth and death appear in the Hardesty, History of Meigs County, Ohio.

- vii. BELLE VIRGINIA PRINCE was born on 31 Jan 1866 in Meigs Co., Ohio. She died in Oct 1926 (age 60). She married (1) ISAAC NEWTON FLESHER, son of Andrew Jackson Flesher and Sarah Matilda Barrett, on 23 Sep 1883 in Meigs Co., Ohio. He was born on 02 Feb 1859 in Ohio. He died on 03 May 1915 in Mt. Vernon, Posey Co., Ind. (age 56). She married (2) CHARLES HENRY KARNES on 08 Oct 1919 in Meigs Co., Ohio. He was born on 06 Oct 1862 in Poseyville, Posey Co., Ind.. He died on 03 Dec 1941 in Alhambra, Los Angeles Co., Calif. (age 79).

Notes for Belle Virginia Prince:

Belle Virginia Prince was born on January 31, 1866, in Meigs County, Ohio, the seventh of eight children born to Benjamin G. Prince and Mary A. Prince. She was the granddaughter of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston.

On September 23, 1883 in Meigs County, Ohio, Belle married Isaac Newton Flesher. The couple was enumerated with two sons in the 1900 census. By 1910 the family had removed to Mt. Vernon in Posey County, Indiana:

Isaac N Flesher	Head	M	51	Ohio
Bellva W Flesher	Wife	F	44	Ohio
Grover C Flesher	Son	M	24	Ohio
Howard P Flesher	Son	M	20	Ohio

Her husband Isaac died in 1915. Virginia moved back to Meigs County, Ohio, after her husband's death.

On October 8, 1919 in Meigs County, Ohio, the widow Mrs. Belle V. Flesher, age 53, married Charles H. Karnes, age 56. Past her child bearing years, no children were born to their union. The couple was enumerated in the 1920 census of Mt. Vernon, Posey County, Indiana:

Charles Karnes	Head	Male	56	Indiana
Della Karnes	Wife	Female	53	Ohio
Beulah Karnes	Daughter		Female 19	Indiana

The couple appears to have divorced. Her husband and his daughter removed to California in the early 1920's.

Belle, age 60, died in October of 1926, probably in Mount Vernon, and was buried as "Mother Belle V. Flesher" in the Bellefontaine Cemetery in Mount Vernon, Posey County, Indiana.

Notes for Charles Henry Karnes:

Charles Henry Karnes was born October 6, 1862 in Poseyville, Posey County, Indiana, the son of Joseph Karnes and Mary Ogelsbie.

295. WILLIAM J.<sup>5</sup> PRINCE (Jane<sup>4</sup> Rolston, William<sup>3</sup> Rolston, David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 18 Apr 1833 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 02 Feb 1895 in Trenton, Grundy Co., Mo. (age 61). He married Clerrmanza Johnson, daughter of Johnathan Johnson and Nancy Wilkinson, on 16 Dec 1856 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). She was born on 03 May 1836 in Green Co., Penn.. She died on 14 Nov 1888 in Fairmont, Fillmore Co., Neb. (age 52).

Notes for William J. Prince:

William Prince was born April 18, 1833 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the second of six children born to John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. He was the grandson of William Rolston and Mary Hopkins.

On December 16, 1856 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), William married Clerrmanza Johnson. The couple remained in Wood County through the Civil War and was enumerated in the 1880 census of Walker Township of Wood County, West Virginia with their nine children:

William Prince	Self	M	48	West Virginia
Clerrmanza Prince	Wife	F	46	Pennsylvania
Ida Prince	Daughter	F	20	West Virginia
Granville Prince	Son	M	17	West Virginia
Fannie Prince	Daughter	F	15	West Virginia

Josephine Prince	Daughter	F	10	West Virginia
James Prince	Son	M	8	West Virginia
Okey Prince	Son	M	6	West Virginia
Birtha Prince	Daughter	F	5/12	West Virginia

Sometime after 1880, William moved the family to Daviess County, Missouri; daughter Josephine died there in 1884. The family then removed to Fairmont, Fillmore County, Nebraska. There his wife Clerrmanza died of Typhoid Fever in 1888. After her death, William moved the family to the Oklahoma Territory and was residing in Logan County at the time of the 1890 territorial census. He then returned to Missouri.

William, 61, died February 2, 1895 in Trenton, Grundy County, Missouri. His place of burial is unknown. William was survived by eight of his nine children. Of his five siblings, surviving were three sisters and one brother. His brother James had died during the Civil War.

Notes for Clerrmanza Johnson:

Clerrmanza Johnson. Buried as Clamenza Prince in the Fairmont Cemetery in Fairmont, Fillmore County, Nebraska.

William J. Prince and Clerrmanza Johnson had the following children:

- i. ALICE E.<sup>6</sup> PRINCE was born on 02 Nov 1857 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died on 24 Dec 1934 in Dos Palos, Merced Co., Calif. (age 77). She married William Jones, son of Jones and Unknown, on 03 May 1877 in Wood Co., W.V.. He was born in Feb 1854 in Westmoreland Co., Penn.. He died in 1917 in Dos Palos, Merced Co., Calif. (age 62).

Notes for Alice E. Prince:

Alice E. Prince was born November 2, 1857 in Wood County, Virginia (West Virginia as of 1863), the eldest of nine children born to William Prince and Clerrmanza Johnson. She was the granddaughter of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. Her birth record gives her middle initial as "A," but her middle initial is shown as "E" in census records.

On May 3, 1877 in Wood County, West Virginia, Alice married William Jones. The couple farmed. Eleven children were born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of the Union District of Wood County, West Virginia:

William Jones	Self	M	Male	W	26	PA	Farmer

- ii. IDA BELL PRINCE was born on 19 Aug 1859 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died on 09 Jan 1951 in Noble Co., Ok. (age 91). She married (1) HARRY SMITH about 1880 in West Virginia. He was born in 1854 in West Virginia. He died after 1887. She married (2) ZACHARY TAYLOR ASHBY, son of Benjamin Strother Ashby and Elizabeth Harris, on 17 Jun 1893 in Logan Co., Oklahoma Territory. He was born on 21 Oct 1847 in Missouri. He died on 17 Mar 1899 in Oklahoma (age 51).

Notes for Ida Bell Prince:

Ida Bell Prince was born August 19, 1859 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the second of nine children born to William Prince and Clerrmanza Johnson. Ida was the granddaughter of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. Ida grew to adulthood in Wood County, residing in Walker Township of that county outside of the city of Parkersburg. In 1863 Wood County, Virginia, where Ida was born and raised, became part of the newly formed state of West Virginia.

Shortly after the 1880 census of Wood County, West Virginia, Ida married Harry Smith. Two children were born to their union. Sometime prior to 1887, she and her husband moved with her parents to Nebraska. Mr. Smith is assumed to have died there. By 1890 Ida, with her children and the Prince families, had moved to the Oklahoma Territory.

On June 17, 1893 in Logan County of the Oklahoma Territory, Ida Belle Smith, age 34, married her second husband, Zachry Taylor Ashby, age 45. From this union two children are known to have been born. Mr. Ashby was the brother of Francis Serifta Ashby, the wife of Ida's brother, Granville Rufus Prince.

Mr. Asby preceded her in death in March of 1899, three months before their second child was born. In 1900 the widowed Ida was the operator of a small hotel. Living with her at the hotel in 1900 were her brother Opaey (Okey), sister Bertha, and Ida's four children: Claude and Cleo Ashby from her second husband, and Lillie and Howey Smith from her first husband. There were also a number of boarders. Ida was enumerated in the 1920 census of Noble County, Oklahoma with her granddaughter Wilma Smith, age 8. By 1930, Ida and her granddaughter, Wilma, had moved in with her daughter, Mrs. Cleo F. Silver, in Enid, Garfield County, Oklahoma. She was not living with her daughter in 1940; her whereabouts unknown.

Ida, 91, died January 9, 1951 in Noble County, Oklahoma, and was buried as Ida Bell Ashby in the Grace Hill Cemetery in Perry, Noble County, Oklahoma.

Notes for Harry Smith:

He was born in West Virginia or Ohio. He is assumed to have died in Nebraska.

Notes for Zachary Taylor Ashby:

Zachary T. Ashby was born about 1848 in Missouri, the fifth of nine children born to Benjamin Strother Ashby and Elizabeth Harris.

On November 5, 1868 in Livingston County, Missouri, Zachary married Louisa Blackburn. Four children are known to have been born to their union. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Jackson Township of Livingston County, Missouri:

Z T Ashby	Self	M	33	Missouri
Louisa Ashby	Wife	F	29	Missouri
Lyda Ashby	Daughter	F	10	Missouri
Benjiman F Ashby	Son	M	8	Missouri [Benjamin Franklin "Frank" Ashby 1873-1944]
Lily L Ashby	Daughter	F	4	Missouri
Cory E Ashby	Daughter	F	2	Missouri

Other children were likely born to the couple after the 1880 census. The family may have removed to Oklahoma before his wife's presumed death.

On June 17, 1893 in Logan County of the Oklahoma Territory, Zachary married the widow, Mrs. Ida Belle Smith, the former Miss Ida Belle Prince. Mr. Ashby was the brother of Fannie Serifta Ashby who married Ida's brother. From Mr. Ashby's union with Ida, two children are known to have been born.

Mr. Ashby is presumed to have preceded Ida in death sometime prior to the 1900 census. Ida was enumerated in the 1900 census as widowed, but it was not an uncommon practice for divorced women to list themselves as widowed. Zachary's son Benjamin was residing in Cherokee County, Kansas in 1896.

- iii. GRANVILLE RUFUS PRINCE was born on 16 Dec 1862 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 11 Sep 1946 in Marshall, Logan Co., Ok. (age 83). He married Francis Serifta Ashby, daughter of Benjamin Strother Ashby and Elizabeth Harris, on 31 Mar 1885 in Barry Co., Mo.. She was born on 06 Oct 1865 in Worth Co., Mo.. She died in 1938 in Marshall, Garfield Co., Ok. (age ~72).

Notes for Granville Rufus Prince:

Granville Rufus Prince was born December 16, 1862 in Wood County, Virginia (became West Virginia in 1863), the third of nine children born to William Prince and Clerrmanza Johnson. He was the grandson of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. Granville grew up on the family farm and himself became a farmer. In 1880, at the age of 17, he resided with his parents in Walker, Wood County, West Virginia. Granville removed to Missouri in the early 1880's.

On March 31, 1885 in Barry County, Missouri, Granville married Fannie Serifta Ashby. Eight children were born to the couple. The family removed to Fairmont, Fillmore County, Nebraska. In late 1889 or early 1890 the family removed to Logan County of the Oklahoma Territory. They then moved to Marshall County and finally settled in Garfield County, Oklahoma by 1910. Granville and his wife, Fannie, were enumerated on their farm in Garfield County, Oklahoma from 1910 through the 1930 census. Fannie preceded Granville in death in 1938 at the age of about 73.

Granville, 83, died September 11, 1946 in Marshall, Logan County, Oklahoma, and joined his wife and their son Charles in the Lions Club S Marshall Cemetery in Marshall. He was survived by six of his eight children. Also surviving were sisters, Mrs. Ida Belle Ashby, and Mrs. Fannie Potter, and his brother William Okey Prince.

Notes for Francis Serifta Ashby:

Francis "Fannie" Serifta Ashby was born October 6, 1865 near Grant City, Worthy County, Missouri, the youngest of nine children born to Benjamin Strother Ashby and Elizabeth Harris.

On March 31, 1885 in Barry County, Missouri, Francis married Granville Rufus Prince. Eight children were born to their union; their fourth child died in infancy. The couple lived in Missouri until about 1890 when they removed to Oklahoma.

Francis, about age 72, died in 1938 in Marshall, Garfield County, Oklahoma and was buried in the Lions Club South Marshall Cemetery in Marshall. She was survived by her husband and six of her eight children.

- iv. FANNIE MAE PRINCE was born on 08 Jun 1865 in Wood Co., W.V.. She died in Jun 1950 in Edmond, Oklahoma Co., Ok. (age 84). She married (1) LEONIDAS JOHNSON, son of Ezra Johnson and Eliza, on 20 Feb 1881 in Daviess Co., Mo.. He was born on 22 Dec 1854 in Wood, Mason Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 31 Jan 1923 in Geyserville, Sonoma Co., Calif. (age 68). She married (2) THEO POTTER about 1892. He was born in Nov 1856 in Kentucky. He died in 1931 in Oklahoma (age ~74).

Notes for Fannie Mae Prince:

Fannie Mae Prince was born June 8, 1865 in Wood County, West Virginia, the fourth of nine children born to William Prince and Clerrmanza Johnson. She was the granddaughter of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. Shortly after the 1880 census, her father moved the family to Missouri.

On February 20, 1881 in Daviess County, Missouri, Fannie married Leonidas Johnson. Two children were born to the couple. About 1887, they divorced, and her husband married Miss Lena Jane Prince, Fannie's younger sister. Fannie and Leonidas's children remained with their mother.

About 1893, Fannie married the widower [Theophilus?] "Theo" Potter. Six children were born to Fannie and Theo; their second child was born and died in February of 1895. The family farmed, and the combined families were enumerated in the 1900 census of Marshall Township of Logan County of the Oklahoma Territory:

Theo Potter	Head	M	44	Kentucky
Fannie M Potter	Wife	F	36	Virginia (6/5)

made in Grace lawn cemetery.

Notes for Leonidas Johnson:

Leonidas "Lee" Johnson was born on December 22, 1854 in Wood, Mason County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the son of Ezra and Eliza Johnson. Leonidas was a farmer.

On February 20, 1881 in Daviess County, Missouri, Lee married Fannie Mae Prince. Two children were born to the couple. Prior to 1885 Lee and Fannie divorced.

About 1885, Lee married Miss Lena Jane Prince, his former wife's younger sister. Lee and Lena removed to Washington and then to Oregon. They finally settled in Sonoma County, California. Four children were born to the couple.

Lee, 68, preceded his wife in death on January 31, 1923 in Geyserville, Sonoma County, California and was buried as Lee Johnson in the Olive Hill Cemetery in Geyserville.

Notes for Theo Potter:

(Theodore?) "Theo" Potter was born in November of 1856 in Kentucky.

About 1876 in Kentucky, Theo married Mary, the first of two wives. Four children were born to their union. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Smiths Grove Township of Warren County, Kentucky:

Theophilus Potter	Self	M	24	Kentucky
Mary C Potter	Wife	F	25	Kentucky
Lietha Potter	Daughter	F	3	Kentucky [Mrs. Letha A. Wyckoff]
Lyda Potter	Daughter	F	2	Kentucky
Barney Potter	Son	M	6/12	Kentucky

Theo moved the family to Kansas where son Allen was born about 1886. His wife Mary died.

About 1892, Theo married Mrs. Fannie Johnson, the former Miss Fannie Mae Prince. She had two children from her first marriage. Six children were born to Theo and Fannie.

Theo, about age 74, preceded his wife in death in 1931 in Oklahoma and was buried in the Gracelawn Cemetery in Edmond, Oklahoma County, Oklahoma.

- v. LENA JANE PRINCE was born on 01 Jan 1868 in Wood Co., W.V.. She died on 14 May 1945 in Napa Co., Calif. (age 77). She married Leonidas Johnson, son of Ezra Johnson and Eliza, about 1885. He was born on 22 Dec 1854 in Wood, Mason Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 31 Jan 1923 in Geyserville, Sonoma Co., Calif. (age 68).

Notes for Lena Jane Prince:

Lena Jane Prince was born January 1, 1868 in Wood County, West Virginia, the fifth of nine children born to William Prince and Clerrmanza Johnson. She was the granddaughter of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston.

About 1885, Lena married Leonidas "Lee" Johnson, her older sister Fannie's ex-husband. Four children were born to Lena and Lee; two had died by the time of the 1910 census. They traveled the Oregon Trail to Washington. Then they moved south to Oregon and later into northern California. Lena's husband died in 1923.

From the family's oral history, as told by Lena's granddaughter, Russa, "... Lena was a very hard worker. Milked a small dairy and delivered it in a wagon and had a apple orchard on the side."

Lena, 77, died May 14, 1945 in Napa County, California, and joined her husband and son Okey in the Olive Hill Cemetery in Geyserville, Sonoma County, California. Buried with the family was their friend Jacob Groth (1840-1922).

Obituary, undisclosed source:

INMAN HORNER HENDERSON

Once Commissioner of Meigs County to His Reward.

Inman H. Henderson was born in Pleasants county, VA., on March 14, 1830, dies June 22, 1913 at his farm residence near Spiller, Meigs county, aged 83 years 3 months 8 days.

He was united in marriage to Matilda Prince September 1853, to which union were born 10 children, seven of whom survive, one son and two daughters having preceded him to the great beyond, as did his beloved companion who departed this life in September 1911.

The surviving sons of the deceased are W.B., of Pittsburgh; E.J., of Chicago; C.L., J.W., W.I. Henderson, of Portland.

The daughters are Mrs. W.L. Carson, Ripley, WV., and Mrs. T.W. Sayre, East Liverpool.

Deceased was an old resident of Lebanon township, having moved into his present home about 35 years ago. He was highly respected by all who knew him and possessed the confidence and esteem of those who knew him best. He was on numerous occasions honored by elections to office, having held the office of county Commissioner and other positions of minor importance. He became a member of the M.E. church almost 50 years ago and expressed his abounded faith in the God whom he served. His oft-expressed desire was that he might be reunited to his beloved wife who so lovingly shared with him the joys and sorrows of this life for almost 60 years.

For some years past Mr. Henderson has been in failing health and death no doubt came as a welcome relief to his pain-racked body.

His was a long and useful life and he has been called home full of years and honors honestly earned. He might well claim with the Psalmist, "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me."

Funeral services were held from the home, conducted by Rev. Faires, at 2p.m. on Tuesday the body was laid to rest in Portland cemetery.

Inman Horner Henderson and Frances Matilda Prince had the following children:

- i. WILLIAM H.<sup>6</sup> HENDERSON was born on 19 Aug 1854 in Pleasants Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 30 Oct 1913 in Pittsburgh, Allegheny Co., Penn. (age 59). He married Ella May Williamson, daughter of James Madison Williamson and Phebe Ann Haight, about 1877 in Ohio. She was born on 20 Sep 1856 in Lebanon Twp., Meigs Co., Ohio. She died on 23 Jan 1900 in Lebanon Twp., Meigs Co., Ohio (age 53).

Notes for William H. Henderson:

William H. Henderson was born August 19, 1854 in Pleasants County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the eldest of ten children born to Inman Horner Henderson and Frances Matilda Prince. Birth records show his place of birth as the "Ohio River." William was the grandson of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston.

About 1877 in Ohio, William married Ella May Williamson. Seven children were born to their union. The family was enumerated on their farm in the 1880 census of Lebanon Township of Meigs County, Ohio:

William H. Henderson WV WV	Self	M	Male	W	25	WV	Farmer
Ella M. Henderson Keeps House OH		Wife	M	Female		W	23	OH
Ethel M. Henderson WV OH	NY	Dau	S	Female		W	2	OH
Helen Henderson WV OH		Dau	S	Female		W	5M	OH
B. Franklin Smalley OH OH		Other	S	Male	W	11		OH

His wife died from tuberculosis in January of 1900. Also dying of tuberculosis were daughters Ethel in 1904 and Helen in 1905.

William's whereabouts in 1910 are unknown.

William, 59, died October 30, 1913 in Pittsburg, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania and was buried in the Portland (now Browning) Cemetery in Meigs County, Ohio.

Notes for Ella May Williamson:

Ella May Williamson was born September 20, 1856 in Meigs County, Ohio, the daughter of James M. Williamson and Phebe A. Keight.

- ii. AGNES MARIAH HENDERSON was born on 23 Oct 1856 in Bull Creek, Pleasants Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died on 30 Jun 1937 in Ripley, Jackson Co., W.V. (age 80). She married William L. Carson about 1877 in Ohio. He was born on 19 Jun 1854 in Ohio. He died on 19 Apr 1929 in Ripley, Jackson Co., W.V. (age 74).

Notes for Agnes Mariah Henderson:

Agnes Mariah Henderson was born October 23, 1856 in Bull Creek, Pleasants County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the second of ten children born to Inman Horner Henderson and Frances Matilda Prince. She was the granddaughter of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston.

About 1877 in Ohio, Agnes married William Carson. The couple moved to Kansas soon after their marriage. Their eldest known child was born there in 1880. By 1882, the family had returned to Meigs County, Ohio. They are said to have lived in the town of Letart. Five children were born to the couple. One of their five children had died prior to the 1900 census. Shortly before the 1900 census, the family had moved to Jackson County, West Virginia. They returned to Meigs County, Ohio by 1910. Her parents were enumerated with them in 1910. By 1920 the family returned to Jackson County, West Virginia. Her husband died there in 1929.

Agnes, 80, died June 30, 1937 in Ripley, Jackson County, West Virginia and joined her husband in the Pine Hill Cemetery in Ripley.

- iii. EDWIN JAMES HENDERSON was born on 24 Nov 1858 in Pleasants Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 21 Nov 1934 in Chicago, Cook Co., Ill. (age 75). He married Georgia H. Nicols, daughter of George W. Nicols and Harriet M, about 1891. She was born on 26 Oct 1856 in St. Paul, Dakota Co., Minn.. She died on 15 Apr 1942 in Los Angeles Co., Calif. (age 85).

Henderson.

Georgia, 85, died April 15, 1942 in Los Angeles County, California and was buried as Georgie Henderson in the Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Glendale, Los Angeles County.

- iv. UNKNOWN HENDERSON was born about 1860. Unknown died before 1870.

Notes for Unknown Henderson:

One of two unknown children, one daughter and one son. Suspected to have been born about 1860 in Pleasants County, Virginia (now West Virginia) based on the birth years of other siblings.

- v. CHARLES L. HENDERSON was born on 08 Dec 1862 in Pleasants Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 02 Mar 1932 in Parkersburg, Wood Co., W.V. (age 69). He married Rosa Clark Middleswarth on 11 Apr 1888 in Meigs Co., Ohio. She was born in Feb 1863 in Ohio. She died on 15 Nov 1959 in Newark, Licking Co., Ohio (age 96).

Notes for Charles L. Henderson:

Charles L. Henderson was born December 8, 1862** in Pleasants County, Virginia (West Virginia as of 1863), the fifth of ten children born to Inman Horner Henderson and Frances Matilda Prince. He was the grandson of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. His parents lived in or near Pleasants County during the Civil War. His father then moved the family briefly to Washington County, Ohio before moving to Meigs County, Ohio, where Charles worked on the family farm and grew to adulthood. As an adult, Charles worked in retail sales as a salesman or clerk.

[**born October 8, 1862 according to Pleasants County, West Virginia Birth records.]

On April 11, 1888 in Meigs County, Ohio, Charles married Rosa Clark Middleswarth. Four children were born to their union. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of Lebanon Township of Meigs County, Ohio:

Charles L Henderson	Head	M	38	West Virginia
Rosa C Henderson		Wife	F	37 Ohio
Oakey C Henderson	Son	M	11	Ohio
James F Henderson	Son	M	10	Ohio
Charles R Henderson	Son	M	7	Ohio

Rosa gave birth to the couple's fourth child in October of that year. By 1920 the family had removed to Ravenswood, Jackson County, West Virginia.

Charles, 69, died March 2, 1932 in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia and was buried in the Ravenswood Cemetery in Ravenswood, Jackson County, West Virginia. He was survived by his wife and their four children. Also surviving were three brothers and one sisters. Preceding him in death were his parents, one brother, two sisters, and two infant siblings.

Notes for Rosa Clark Middleswarth:

1870 census of Portland P.O., Lebanon Township of Meigs County, Ohio:

James F Middleswart	M	32	Ohio
Samantha E Middleswart		F	30	Ohio
Rosa C Middleswart	F	7	Ohio
Essie M Middleswart	F	5	Ohio
Alvin U Middleswart	M	2	Ohio
Allie E Middleswart		F	2	Ohio [died before 1880?]
Susan E Avery	F	22	Ohio

Enumerated with her uncle in the 1880 census of Lebanon Township of Meigs County, Ohio:

O Clayton Middleswart	Self	M	33	Ohio

Adalaide Middleswart	Daughter	F	2	Ohio
Allen Middleswart	Son	M	3/12	Ohio [b. Feb.]
Rosa C Middleswart	Daughter	F	17	Ohio

Rosa was a niece not daughter. She was living with her aunt and uncle in 1880 to help her aunt who had recently given birth to the couple's third child.

On April 11, 1888 in Meigs County, Ohio, Rosa married Charles L. Henderson. Four children were born to their union. The family removed to Ravenswood, Jackson County, West Virginia in the late 1920's. Her husband died there in 1932. In 1936, her son died from an automobile accident. By 1940, Rosa had moved to Newark, Licking County, Ohio where she lived with her son Charles R. Henderson.

Rosa, 96, died in a nursing home in Newark, Licking County, Ohio and joined her husband and son in the Ravenswood Cemetery in Ravenswood, Jackson County, West Virginia.

- vi. SALLIE JUNE HENDERSON was born on 14 Dec 1864 in West Virginia. She died on 20 Jun 1928 in East Liverpool, Columbiana Co., Ohio (age 63). She married Ira Walter Sayre on 09 Dec 1888 in Meigs Co., Ohio. He was born on 13 Feb 1865 in Letart Falls, Meigs Co., Ohio. He died on 09 Feb 1916 in East Liverpool, Columbiana Co., Ohio (age 50).

Notes for Sallie June Henderson:

Sallie June Henderson was born December 14, 1864 in West Virginia, the sixth of ten children born to Inman Horner Henderson and Frances Matilda Prince. She was the granddaughter of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. Her parents lived in or near Pleasants County during the Civil War. Her father then moved the family briefly to Washington County, Ohio before moving to Meigs County, Ohio, where Sallie grew to adulthood.

On December 9, 1888 in Meigs County, Ohio, Sallie married Ira Walter Sayre. The couple farmed. Seven children were born to their union; two had died by the time of the 1900 census of Hartford, Mason County, West Virginia:

Ira W Sayre	Head	M	37	Ohio
Sallie Sayre	Wife	F	37	West Virginia (6/4)

Daughter Verice was born in 1881 [died 1954].

On December 9, 1888 in Meigs County, Ohio, Ira married Sallie June Henderson. Seven children were born to their union; four had died by the time of the 1910 census.

Ira, 50, died of pneumonia on February 9, 1916 in East Liverpool, Columbiana County, Ohio, and was buried in the Letart Falls Cemetery in East Liverpool. His death certificate was signed by his daughter Francis.

- vii. JULIUS W. HENDERSON was born on 29 Dec 1866 in Rockland, Washington Co., Ohio. He died on 08 Jul 1936 in Lebanon Twp., Meigs Co., Ohio (age 69). He married Mattie Claire Dougherty on 10 Sep 1890 in Meigs Co., Ohio. She was born on 19 Sep 1870 in Portland (village), Lebanon Twp., Meigs Co., Ohio. She died on 23 Feb 1956 in Licking Co., Ohio (age 85).

Notes for Julius W. Henderson:

Julius W. Henderson was born December 29, 1866 in Rockland, Washington County, Ohio, the seventh of ten children born to Inman Horner Henderson and Frances Matilda Prince. Julius's middle initial 'W' was likely for Workman. Julius was the grandson of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. Julius lived briefly in Rockland before his family moved to nearby Meigs County where they resided in Lebanon Township.

On September 10, 1890 in Meigs County, Ohio, Julius married Mattie Claire Dougherty. Five children were born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1920 census of Meigs County, Ohio:

Julius, 69, died July 8, 1936 in Meigs County, Ohio. Information for his death certificate was provided by Julius's eldest son, Eber Henderson of Portland. On Julius's death certificate his father was listed as Homer Workman Henderson. Although this information is incorrect, it may indicate that Julius's middle name was Workman. Julius was buried in the Browning Cemetery near Portland, Meigs County, Ohio. The cemetery was once known as the Portland Cemetery and may have been so named at the time of Julius's burial.

Notes for Mattie Claire Dougherty:

Given name said to have been Matilda; Mattie was her nickname. She was enumerated with her parents in the 1880 census of Portland Villiage, Meigs County, Ohio:

I Smith Dougherty	Self	M	36	Ohio [J. Smith Dougherty]
Almira E Dougherty	Wife	F	34	Ohio [Miss Almira E. Bell]
Mattie C Dougherty	Daughter	F	9	Ohio

On September 10, 1890 in Meigs County, Ohio, Mattie married Julius W. Henderson. Six children were born to their union. The couple divorced sometime between 1920 and 1930. Mattie was enumerated on the family farm in the 1930 census of Lebanon Township of Meigs County, Ohio. Enumerated as married, but her husband was not living with her:

Mattie C Henderson	Head	F	59	Ohio (married)
Eber P Henderson		Son	M	35 Ohio
Ralph R Henderson	Son	M	21	Ohio

Mattie, 85, died Febraury 23, 1956 in Licking County, Ohio and was buried in the Browning Cemetery in Meigs County, Ohio.

- viii. UNKNOWN HENDERSON was born about 1870 in Ohio. Unknown died before 1880 in Ohio.

She died on 26 May 1924 in Canton, Stark Co., Ohio (age 66).

Notes for James Jefferson Stagg:

James Jefferson Stagg was born in January 11, 1858 in Parkersburg, Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the elder of two children and only son born to Jeremiah P. Stagg and Louisa Josephine Prince. He was the grandson of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. James may have been named after his paternal uncle, James J. Stagg, his father's older brother.

On October 18, 1882 in Wood County, West Virginia, James married Julia Dell Farrow. Four children were born to the couple, but one died prior to 1900. In the 1900 census, James, his wife Julia, their three children, and James' parents were residing outside of the city of Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia. His father died later that year. The family's whereabouts in 1910 is unknown. James and his wife were enumerated in the 1920 census of Stark County, Ohio where his wife died four years later. James later moved to Franklin County, Ohio.

James, 79, died April 12, 1937 in Columbus, Franklin County, Ohio. His body was taken to Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia, where he joined his wife in the Mount Olive Cemetery.

Notes for Julia Dell Farrow:

Julia Dell Farrow was born June 7, 1857 in Virginia (now West Virginia), the youngest of three children born to Joseph L. A. Farrow and Harriett M. Elliott. Julia and her parents were enumerated in the 1880 census of Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia:

On October 18, 1882 in Wood County, West Virginia, Julia married James Jefferson Stagg. Four children were born to the couple, but their second child died prior to the 1900 census. The family resided in the Parkersburg area until sometime after 1900. Their whereabouts in 1910 is unknown. Julia and her husband were enumerated in the 1920 census of Stark County, Ohio.

Julia, 66, died Mary 26, 1924 in Canton, Stark County, Ohio. Her body was returned to West Virginia where she was laid to rest in the Mount Olivet Cemetery in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia. Her parents and brother Howard, all having preceded her in death, were also buried there.

- ii. MARY SOPHIA STAGG was born on 23 Feb 1862 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died on 14 Apr 1952 in Parkersburg, Wood Co., W.V. (age 90). She married Edmund Boots Hart on 16 Oct 1879 in Wood Co., W.V.. He was born in Jan 1855 in Beaver Co., Penn.. He died on 13 May 1929 in West Virginia (age 74).

Notes for Mary Sophia Stagg:

Mary "Mollie" Sophia Stagg was born February 23, 1862 in Wood County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the younger of two children and only daughter born to Jereiah P. Stagg and Louisa Josephine Prince. She was the granddaughter of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. [Mary's death certificate says she was born in Rockland [Washington Co.], Ohio]

On October 16, 1879 in Wood County, West Virginia, Mary, age 17, married Edmund Boots Hart, age 24. The couple resided in Parkersburg, Wood County where three children were born to their union. Her husband was a blacksmith. Her eldest son never married and lived at home until his death in 1924. Her husband preceded her in death in 1929. Mary's spinster daughter Fannie, a nurse, remained at home.

Mary, 90, died at home on April 14, 1952 in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia and 298. BENJAMIN A.<sup>5</sup> PRINCE (Jane<sup>4</sup> Rolston, William<sup>3</sup> Rolston, David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 19 Sep 1844 in Wood Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 05 Mar 1922 in Parkersburg, Wood Co., W.V. (age 77). He married Margaret Elizabeth Simpson, daughter of Robert Hereford Simpson and Mahala Coe, on 17 Feb 1868 in Washington Co., Ohio. She was born in Jul 1839 in Elizabeth, Wirt Co., Va. (now W.V.). She died on 19 Aug 1904 in Belpre, Washington Co., Ohio (age 65).

Notes for Benjamin A. Prince:

Benjamin A. Prince was born in September 19, 1844 in Wood County, Virginia, (now West Virginia) the youngest of six children born to John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. James lived in the Wood County area up until 1850. Portions of Wood County became part of the newly formed Pleasants County in 1851. As Benjamin appears in the 1860 census of Pleasants County, he may have lived in the area of Wood County that was incorporated into Pleasants County.

On February 17, 1868 in Washington County, Ohio, Benjamin married Mrs. Margaret Clem, the former Miss Margaret Elizabeth Simpson. Benjamin probably resided in Washington County some years prior to his marriage. Benjamin and his wife lived in the town of Belpre for the remainder of their lives, raising three daughters. In 1904 Margaret, his wife of 36 years, preceded him in death at the age of about 65. Sometime after the death of his wife, Benjamin retired from farming and resided with his oldest daughter, Mrs. Jane Prince Boyers in Rockland.

Benjamin, 77, died March 5, 1922 in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia, and was buried in the Rockland Cemetery in Belpre, Ohio, along side his wife. Benjamin lived in Belpre, his residence for over 50 years, but he died in neighboring Parkersburg, West Virginia, across the Ohio River from Belpre. Benjamin was survived by his three daughters.

Notes for Margaret Elizabeth Simpson:

Margaret Elizabeth Simpson was born in July of 1839 in Elizabeth, Wirt County, Virginia (now West Virginia). Her parentage is unknown, but according to census records, Margaret states they were born in Virginia. Margaret was more commonly known by her middle name, Elizabeth.

On October 7, 1858 in Belpre, Washington County, Ohio, Elizabeth, age 19, married George Clem, age 21. What became of first husband George is unknown. Perhaps he was killed during the Civil War. There was one child, William, attributed to this first union. Her son lived with her parents in 1880.

On February 17, 1868 in Washington County, Ohio, Margaret (Mrs. Margaret E. Clem) married Benjamin A. Prince. The couple resided in the town of Belpre along the Ohio River. Three daughters had been born to the couple by the time of the 1880 census.

Margaret, 65, preceded her husband in death on August 19, 1904 and was buried in the Rockland Cemetery in Belpre, Washington County, Ohio. Belpre had been her residence for over 50 years.

Benjamin A. Prince and Margaret Elizabeth Simpson had the following children:

- i. LILLIA M.<sup>6</sup> PRINCE was born in May 1868 in Rockland, Washington Co., Ohio. She died on 13 May 1937 in Wood Co., W.V. (age 69). She married Timothy Albert Price, son of Anderson Price and Adeline Castle, on 12 Oct 1890 in Washington Co., Ohio. He was born on 22 Jan 1866 in Meigs Co., Ohio. He died on 31 May 1924 in Parkersburg, Wood Co., W.V. (age 58).

Notes for Lillia M. Prince:

Lillia M. Prince was born in May of 1868 in Rockland, Washington County, Ohio, the eldest of three daughters born to Benjamin A. Prince and Margaret Elizabeth Simpson. She was known as "Lillie" or "Lilly." Lillia was the granddaughter of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. Lillia's mother was previously married, and from that union, Lillia had a half-brother, William Clem.

Lillia married Timothy Albert Price on October 12, 1890 in Washington County, Ohio. Her husband was known as Albert or T. Albert Price. Their first two daughters were born in Ohio, Fay about 1892 and Helen S. about 1894. Then, sometime after 1894, the couple moved across the Ohio River to Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia where their third child, Frida A., was born about 1897. At the ages of 25 and 23, the youngest two of their three daughters were still single and living at home in 1920. In 1924 Lillia's husband died. In the 1930 census of Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia, Lillia's daughter Helen, then age 36, was still single and living at home.

Lillia, 68, died May 13, 1937 in Wood County, West Virginia. Her death was reported by her daughter, Helen. Lillia was buried as Lillie M. Price in the Rockland Cemetery in Belpre, Washington County, Ohio.

Notes for Timothy Albert Price:

Timothy Albert Price was born January 22, 1866 in Meigs County, Ohio, the fourth of seven children known to have been born to Anderson Price and Adeline Castle. He was born as Albert Anderson Price, known as Albert in his younger years, and in adulthood, he was known as T. Albert Price. He was enumerated with his parents and siblings in the 1880 census of Lebanon Township, Meigs County, Ohio:

Anderson Price		Self	M	Male	W	50	WV	Farmer

Albert, 58, preceded his wife in death on May 31, 1924 in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia. Death certificate information was provided by Elizabeth Harness. She was, perhaps, Albert's older sister, Sarah E. Price. He was buried as T. Albert Price in the Rockland Cemetery in Belpre, Washington County, Ohio.

- ii. IDELLA PRINCE was born in Mar 1870 in Rockland, Washington Co., Ohio. She died on 28 Nov 1942 in Belpre Twp., Washington Co., Ohio (age 72). She married Jesse H. Pride, son of Finley Pride and Susan, on 09 Oct 1890 in Washington Co., Ohio. He was born in Dec 1863 in Virginia (now W.V.). He died in 1957 (age 93).

Notes for Idella Prince:

Idella "Della" Prince was born in March of 1870 in Belpre, Washington County, Ohio, the second of three daughters born to Benjamin A. Prince and Margaret Elizabeth Simpson Clem. Idella was the granddaughter of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. Idella's mother was previously married, and from that union, Idella had a half-brother, William Clem.

On October 9, 1890 in Washington County, Ohio, Idella married Jesse H. Pride. The wedding was probably in the town of Belpre as the families of both the bride and groom lived there. The couple remained in the Belpre area where they farmed. The couple was enumerated in the 1910 census of Rockland, Belpre Township. According to the census, Idella had given birth to only two children. Sons Eber P., age 18, and Cecil B., age 16, were both still living at home.

Idella preceded her husband in death on November 28, 1942 in Belpre Township, Washington County, Ohio at the age of 71 and was buried in the Rockland Cemetery. Her death record gives her birth as April 23, 1871. Besides her husband, Della was survived by her two sons.

Notes for Jesse H. Pride:

Jesse Pride was born in December of 1863 in Virginia (now West Virginia), the second child born to Finley and Susan Pride. Soon after Jesse's birth, his father moved the family to Belpre Township of Washington County, Ohio, just across the Ohio River from Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia. The family was enumerated in Belpre during the 1880 census where Jesse, age 16, was attending school. Jesse was the second of eight children and other siblings may have been born after 1880.

On October 9, 1890 in Washington County, Ohio, Jesse married Idella Prince. Idella was born in Belpre, and the wedding likely took place there. The couple farmed. From their union, two sons were born. His wife preceded him in death in 1942.

Jesse, 93, died in 1957 and joined his wife in the Rockland Cemetery in Belpre, Washington County, Ohio.

- iii. JANE MAY PRINCE was born on 08 Jul 1874 in Belpre, Washington Co., Ohio. She died on 17 Feb 1953 in Parkersburg, Wood Co., W.V. (age 78). She married Hamilton Franklin Boyer, son of Jeremiah Boyer and Rachel Weaver, on 14 Oct 1901 in Washington Co., Ohio. He was born on 04 Jan 1876 in Ashland Twp., Clarion Co., Penn.. He died on 22 May 1946 in Parkersburg, Wood Co., W.V. (age 70).

Notes for Jane May Prince:

Jane "Janie" May Prince was born July 8, 1874 in Belpre, Washington County, Ohio, the youngest of three daughters born to Benjamin A. Prince and Margaret Elizabeth Simpson Clem. She was the granddaughter of John Kincheloe Prince and Jane Rolston. Jane's mother was previously married, and from that union, Jane had a half-brother, William Clem.

On October 14, 1901 in Washington County, Ohio, "Janie," age 27, married Hamilton Franklin Boyer, age 25. The couple remained in the Belpre area where three children had been born to the couple by the 1910 census: Kenneth age 7, Mildred age 5, and Gilbert age 3. Their oldest child was born in Ohio, but the younger two were born in West Virginia, probably delivered in the hospital in Parkersburg across the Ohio River from Belpre. Living with the family in 1910 was Jane's father, Benjamin. A fourth child, son Anvil, was born to the couple. The couple and their three adult sons were enumerated in the 1940 census of Parkersburg, West Virginia:

Hamilton F Boyer	Head	M	64	Pennsylvania
Janie M Boyer	Wife	F	65	Ohio
Kenneth Boyer	Son	M	37	Ohio
Gilbert P Boyer	Son	M	33	West Virginia
Anvil F Boyer	Son	M	28	Ohio

Her husband died in 1946 at the age of 70.

Jane, 78, passed away on February 17, 1953 in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia, and was buried in the Rockland Cemetery in Belpre, Washington County, Ohio

PARKERSBURG NEWS, Wednesday, February 18, 1953

MRS. JANIE MAY BOYER

Mrs. Janie May Boyer, 78, died unexpectedly yesterday morning at her residence, 1714 Latrobe St. She was the daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth Prine, {sic: Prince} and was born at Rockland, O., July 8, 1874. Her husband, Frank Boyer, preceded her in death in 1946. She had been a resident of Parkersburg since 1921, and was a member of the Methodist church.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. George Dudderar of Charleston; three sons, Kenneth, Gilbert and Anvil, all of Parkersburg, two grandchildren, Mrs. Thomas Meadows, Morgantown, and William Dudderar, Pittsburgh.

Funeral services will be conducted in the chapel of the Ogdin funeral home tomorrow at 11 a.m., with the Rev. Roy McCuskey officiating. Interment will take place in the Rockland cemetery.

Notes for Hamilton Franklin Boyer:

Hamilton Franklin "Frank" Boyer was born January 4, 1876 in Clarion County, Pennsylvania, the fifth of six children known to have been born to Jeremiah Boyer and Rachel Weaver. Hamilton likely had other siblings born after 1880. At the time of the 1880 census, Hamilton, age 5, was enumerated with his parents and siblings in Oakland, Venango County, Pennsylvania. How and when Hamilton came to reside in Washington County, Ohio is unknown.

On October 14, 1901 in Washington County, Ohio, Hamilton married Jane "Janie" May Prince. Four children were born to their union: three sons and one daughter.

Hamilton, 70, preceded his wife in death on May 22, 1946 in Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia, and was buried in the Rockland Cemetery in Belpre, Washington County, Ohio.

Obituary, undisclosed source:

HAMILTON FRANKLIN BOYER, aged 70, died May 22, 1946. His residence was 1714 Latrobe St., Parkersburg, WV. He was born on January 4, 1876, at Ashland Township, Clarion County, PA, a son of the late Jeremiah and Rachel Weaver Boyer. He was married ca 1900 to the former Jennie M. Price. They were the parents of four children: Harry K., Mildred J., Gilbert P. and Anvil F. Boyer. Mr. Boyer was engaged in the oil well drilling business. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Lucy Tingley, of Franklin, and the following brothers: Charles Neri, Martin Dennis, George Milton and John Fremont Boyer of Franklin RD 3. Interment was in Rockland Cemetery, Rockland, Washington County, OH, where he had previously resided at Belpre.

Notes for Sarah Ann Beard:

Sarah Ann Beard was born in 1817 in Rockingham County, Virginia, one of five children born to John M. Beard and Hester Rolston. In 1827 at the age of about 10, Sarah's mother died. Then in 1832, Hettie's father died while visiting in Rockingham County, Virginia. Sarah was about 15 years old at that time. Sarah's older brother is thought to have taken over the family at that time.

About 1846 in Kentucky, Sarah married Joseph Madison Cheaney. Six children were born to the couple. Joseph was previously married and had children from that marriage.

The family moved to Missouri where both Sarah and her husband died in 1863. Both are buried in Versailles, Morgan County, Missouri.

Notes for Joseph Madison Cheaney:

Joseph Madison Cheaney was born in 1808 in Kentucky, the son of John Cheaney.

Joseph was married twice. His first wife, Sally Corbin, he married in 1828. Five children are attributed to their union. The two known children were sons, William and Leander. His wife Sally died sometime after 1839.

About 1846 in Kentucky, Joseph married his second wife, Miss Sarah Ann Beard. From their union, six children were born. The family was enumerated in the 1850 census of Christian County, Kentucky. His two sons from his first marriage and two sons from his second marriage were living with the couple along with Joseph's widowed father, John Cheaney, age 80. Joseph and his oldest son William worked as "wool carders."

The couple later removed to Missouri where they both died in 1863 and were buried in Versailles, Morgan County, Missouri.

Joseph Madison Cheaney and Sarah Ann Beard had the following children:

- i. CHARLES DAVID<sup>6</sup> CHEANEY was born in Jan 1847 in Kentucky. He died in 1906 in Texas (age 59). He married Emma Eurie Graves in 1868 in Missouri. She was born in Apr 1848 in Missouri. She died after 1910 in Texas.

Notes for Charles David Cheaney:

Charles David Cheaney was born in 1847 in Kentucky, the eldest of six children born to Joseph Madison Cheaney and Sarah Ann Beard. Charles was the grandson of John M. Beard and Hester Rolston. Charles' father had been previously married, and Charles had five step-siblings; two of the half-brothers lived with the family. The family moved to Missouri, probably about 1858 or 59, and were enumerated in the 1860 census of Hawcreek Township in Morgan County, Missouri. Charles was 14 years old. His mother and father are both said to have died in 1863. Charles was about 17 years old. What became of the family is uncertain. The younger children appear to have returned to Kentucky. Charles became a saddle maker.

In 1868 in Missouri, Charles married Emma Eurie Graves. The couple lived in Morgan County, Missouri in 1870 where a majority of their eleven children were born. Four of the eleven died in childhood. By 1900 Charles and his family had removed to Gainesville, Cooke County, Texas.

Charles, 59, died in 1906 in Texas. His place of burial is unknown.

- ii. JOSEPH MADISON CHEANEY JR. was born in 1849 in Kentucky. He died in 1869 (age ~20).
- iii. MARY ELIZABETH CHEANEY was born on 29 Oct 1850 in Henderson Co., Ky.. She died in 1900 in Evansville, Vanderburgh Co., Ind. (age 49). She married Joseph Madison

Cheaney, son of William Deupree Cheaney and Eleanor Bowen, about 1867 in Henderson Co., Kentucky. He was born in 1840 in Kentucky. He died in 1909 (age ~69).

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Cheaney:

Mary Elizabeth "Liz" Cheaney was born October 29, 1850 in Henderson County, Kentucky, the third of six children born to Joseph Madison Cheaney and Sarah Ann Beard. She was the granddaughter of John M. Beard and Hester Rolston. Mary's father had been previously married, and Mary had five step-siblings; two of the half-brothers lived with the family. Her father moved the family to Missouri in the later 1850's and the family was enumerated in the 1860 census of Morgan County. Both of her parents are said to have died in Missouri in 1863. Mary and the younger siblings returned to Kentucky.

About 1867 in Henderson County, Kentucky, Liz married her cousin Joseph Madison Cheaney, who by some coincident, had the same name as her father. In the 1870 census the young couple and their first child were living next her husband's parents. Living with the couple was Mary's younger brother, John B. Cheaney, age 17. Thirteen Children were born to Liz and Joseph. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of the Tillottsons District of Henderson County with six of their children. Living with them was her husband's parents, William and Ellen Cheaney.

Mary, 49, died in 1900 in Evansville, Vanderburgh County, Indiana. Her place of burial is unknown.

Notes for Joseph Madison Cheaney:

Joseph Madison Cheaney was born in 1840 in Kentucky, the son of William Deupree Cheaney and Eleanor "Ellen" Bowen. Joseph, his parents and siblings were enumerated in the 1850 census of Henderson County, Kentucky:

William D. Cheaney	M	47y

John R Cheaney	M	23y
Alfred Cheaney	M	18y
Elizabeth Cheaney	F	17y
Lucy Cheaney	F	14y
Sally G Cheaney	F	12y
Joseph M Cheaney	M	9y
William Cheaney	M	6y

About 1867 in Henderson County, Kentucky, Joseph married his cousin, Mary Elizabeth Cheaney. Thirteen children were born to their union. The family farmed. His wife preceded him in death in 1900.

Joseph, about 69 years of age, died in 1909. His place of burial is unknown.

- iv. JOHN BEARD CHEANEY was born in Dec 1853 in Henderson Co., Ky.. He died in 1885 in Christian Co., Ky. (age 31). He married Lizzie about 1880. She was born about 1860 in Kentucky.

Notes for John Beard Cheaney:

John Beard Cheaney was born in 1853 in Henderson County, Kentucky, the fourth of six children born to Joseph Madison Cheaney and Sarah Ann Beard. John's father had been previously married, and John had five step-siblings; two of the half-brothers lived with the family. The family removed to Missouri in the late 1850's and was enumerated there in 1860. Both of his parents died in 1863. The younger children, including John, returned to Kentucky.

In the 1870 census of Henderson County, Kentucky, John B. Cheaney, age 17, was residing with his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Cheaney. His sister had married Joseph M. Cheaney who was likely a cousin.

About 1880 John married a woman named Lizzie. John was in the grocery business. The couple was enumerated in the 1880 census of Hopkinsville in Christian County. Children from their union are unknown.

John, 31, died in 1885 in Christian County, Kentucky. His place of burial is unknown.

- v. JAMES PENDLETON CHEANEY was born in 1857 in Kentucky. He died in 1925 in St. Louis (city), Mo. (age ~68). He married Mary Elizabeth Hopgood in 1881 in Kentucky. She was born in 1860 in Kentucky. She died after 1930 in California.

Notes for James Pendleton Cheaney:

James Pendleton Cheaney is said to have been born in 1857 in Kentucky. He was the fifth of six children born to Joseph Madison Cheaney and Sarah Ann Beard. He was the grandson of John M. Beard and Hester Rolston. James' father had been previously married, and James had five step-siblings; two of the half-brothers lived with the family. The family removed to Missouri in the late 1850's and was enumerated there in 1860. Both of his parents died in 1863. The younger children, including James, returned to Kentucky.

On April 10, 1881 in Kentucky, James married Mary "Mammie" Elizabeth "Eliza" Hopgood. Three daughters were born to the couple, the youngest of which died before the age of one. The family left Kentucky after the birth of their daughters, removing to Indiana where the family was enumerated in the 1900 census of Evansville. The family left Indiana and moved to St. Louis, Missouri; enumerated there in the 1910 and 1920 censuses.

James, about age 68, died in 1925 in St. Louis, but there is no record of his death in Missouri. He was buried in the Fernwood Cemetery in Henderson, Henderson County, Kentucky.

- vi. SARAH M. CHEANEY was born in 1860 in Hawcreek Twp., Morgan Co., Mo.. She died in 1869 in Kentucky (age ~9).

Notes for Sarah M. Cheaney:

Sarah M. Cheaney was born in 1860, probably in Hawcreek Township, Morgan County, Missouri, the youngest of six children born to Joseph Madison Cheaney and Sarah Ann Beard. She was the granddaughter of John M. Beard and Hester Rolston. Both of her parents are said to have died in Missouri in 1863. Sarah and the other younger siblings returned to Kentucky. Sarah is said to have died in 1869 at the age of about 9. Her place of death and burial are unknown.

Notes for Hester Ann Beard:

Hester "Hettie" Ann Beard was born June 25, 1825 in Christian County, Kentucky, the youngest child born to John M. Beard and Hester Rolston. In 1827 Hettie's mother died. Then in 1832, Hettie's father died while visiting in Rockingham County, Virginia. Hettie was about 14 years old at that time. Hettie's older brother is thought to have taken over the family at that time. About 1836, or in the years that soon followed,

Hettie married Andrew Wallace Briscoe on November 15, 1844. The couple removed to Missouri where they were enumerated in the 1850 census of Richland Township, Morgan County, Missouri, with two children, Sarah and Charles. Their third child, daughter Arabelle, was born after the census.

Hettie died July 7, 1851 in Cooper County, Missouri and was buried in the Briscoe Cemetery. She was survived by her husband and their three children, but Charles, their only son, died five years later.

Notes for Andrew Wallace Briscoe:

Andrew "Andy" Wallace Briscoe was born September 20, 1815 in Kentucky.

On November 15, 1844, Andrew married Hester "Hettie" Ann Beard. The couple removed to Missouri where three children were born. Hettie died in 1851. Sometime after Hettie's death, Andrew moved to

- ii. CHARLES EDWARD BRISCOE was born in 1848 in Missouri. He died in 1856 in Missouri (age ~8).
- iii. ARABELLE BRISCOE was born about 1850 in Missouri.

Notes for Archibald Hopkins:

Archibald Hopkins was born about 1806 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of four children born to William H. Hopkins Sr. and Anna Rolston. He was named after his paternal grandfather, Archibald Hopkins. Archibald was still a young child in 1812 when his mother and her fourth child died during childbirth. His father would not remarry for some six years. In 1818 his father married the widow Mrs. Esther Bear Kratzer. From his father's second marriage, Archibald had one half-brother and two half-sisters.

About August of 1831 in Virginia, Archibald married Sarah Ann Hopkins, his first cousin, once removed. The couple farmed in Rockingham and raised a family of eight children. Two of these children died young. On October 20, 1874 Archibald's wife of some 43 years died at the age of 61.

Archibald, about age 68, died November 16, 1874 in Rockingham County, Virginia, less than a month after his wife. Both were buried at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County. Three of his eight children are known to have preceded him in death. Also surviving was his brother David Hopkins and his two half-sisters, Mrs. Frances Hopkins (married a cousin) and Mrs. Elizabeth Harnsberger.

Notes for Sarah Ann Hopkins:

Sarah Ann Hopkins was born in 1815 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of Archibald Hopkins and Elizabeth Gordon.

About 1831 in Virginia, Sarah married Archibald Hopkins, the son of William H. Hopkins, Sr. and Anna Rolston. Sarah's great grandfather was her husband's grandfather making Sarah and her husband first cousins, once removed. Sarah and Archibald had eight children.

Sarah, 61, died October 20, 1874 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County. Sarah was survived by her husband. At least three of her eight children are known to have preceded her in death.

303. DAVID RALSTON<sup>5</sup> HOPKINS (Anna<sup>4</sup> Rolston, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 24 Oct 1807 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 24 Nov 1882 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 75). He married Lavinia R. Campbell, daughter of John H. Campbell and Dorcas, about 1837 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born about Feb 1810 in Virginia. She died on 19 Jul 1849 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 39).

Notes for David Ralston Hopkins:

David Ralston Hopkins was born October 24, 1807 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of four children born onto William H. Hopkins Sr. and Anna Rolston. His middle name was taken from his mother's surname. Archibald's mother died May 13, 1812 during childbirth when he was only four. Some six years later, April 14, 1818, his father remarried and Hester Bear Kratzer became David's step-mother. Archibald would have one half-brother and two half-sisters from his father's second marriage.

About 1837 in Rockingham County, Virginia, David married Lavinia R. Campbell. The couple farmed in Rockingham County and began to raise a family. Their first child, born in 1838, died as an infant. In the years that followed, David and Lavinia had four more children. Their third was born in 1846, but he died the following year at the age of 6 months. David was a bondsman for his cousin Archibald Rolston's marriage to Mrs. Mariah Wright Howell in 1848. Their fifth and last child was born about 1849; she was named after her mother who died July 19, 1849, perhaps shortly after giving birth.

In the 1880 census of Central, Rockingham County, Virginia, David was enumerated with the family of Joseph M. Ray. There appears to be no relationship between David and the Ray family. David was a widower and his occupation was listed as retired farmer. Along with David was his son William who was still single at the age of 36.

David, 75, died November 24, 1882, a lifelong resident of Rockingham County, Virginia. He was buried at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham. David was survived by three of his five children, daughters Mrs. Margaret Patterson and Miss Lavinia Hopkins and William Hopkins, his only surviving son. His son William died the following year. Also surviving were his two half-sisters, Mrs. Frances Hopkins (married a cousin) and Mrs. Elizabeth Harnsberger.

Notes for Lavinia R. Campbell:

Lavinia R. Campbell was born about February of 1810 in Virginia, the daughter of John H. Campbell and his wife Dorcas.

About 1837 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Lavinia married David Ralston Hopkins. The couple resided in Rockingham County, Virginia.

Lavinia, 39, died July 19, 1849 after giving birth to their fifth child. She was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County. Her tombstone notes her age as 39 years and 4 months. Lavinia was survived by her husband and three of her five children. Two of her children had died as infants. In her father's will, written the year following Lavinia's death, he gives her share of her estate to her children. Lavinia's husband was the executor for her father's estate.

David Ralston Hopkins and Lavinia R. Campbell had the following children:

- i. MARGARET JANE<sup>6</sup> HOPKINS was born in Oct 1837 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died in 1905 in Virginia (age ~67). She married Charles Stuart Patterson, son of John Patterson, about 1859 in Virginia. He was born in May 1835 in Virginia. He died on 22 Nov 1908 in Harrison, Augusta Co., Va. (age 73).

Notes for Margaret Jane Hopkins:

By the 1900 census, son Howard had married and had his own farm. Howard and his wife never had children. Son David, his wife and their son were living with Charles and Margaret. Also present was Charles and Margaret's daughter Lavinia who, although born in 1870, was not present during the 1880 census.

Margaret preceded her husband in death in 1905 and was buried in the Edgewood Cemetery next to the Mount Horeb Presbyterian Church in Grottoes, Augusta County, Virginia.

Notes for Charles Stuart Patterson:

Charles Stuart Patterson was born in May of 1835 in Virginia, the son of John Patterson. He lived in Augusta County, Virginia.

About 1859 in Virginia, Charles married Margaret Jane Hopkins. Four children were known to have been born to the couple. Their first child, daughter Annie, died sometime between 1870 and 1900.

In 1861 Charles enlisted at Waynesboro in Augusta County. He was a sergeant in the 1st Virginia Cavalry, Valley Rangers, Company E.. He served from August of 1861 until August 7, 1862 when he presented a substitute. This was an acceptable practice during the Civil War. Charles returned to farming.

Margaret preceded Charles in death in 1905.

Charles, 73, died November 22, 1908 in Harriston, Augusta County, Virginia and was buried in the Mount Horeb Presbyterian Church cemetery (now the Edgewood Cemetery) in Grottoes, Augusta County, Virginia.

been his paternal grandfather's middle name.

John died January 29, 1847 at the age of 5 months and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- v. LAVINIA R. HOPKINS was born on 09 Jun 1849 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 20 Dec 1930 in Winter Park, Orange Co., Fla. (age 81). She married James H. Bear, son of Harvey Bear and Fannie J, about 1894. He was born in Dec 1846 in Virginia. He died in 1918 in Florida (age 71).

Notes for Lavinia R. Hopkins:

Lavinia R. Hopkins was born June 9, 1849 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of five children born to David Ralston Hopkins and Lavinia R. Campbell. She was the grandchild of William H. Hopkins, Sr. and Anna Rolston. Lavinia was named after her mother who died July 19, 1849.

Lavinia lived with her older sister, Mrs. Charles Patterson. She was enumerated with the family in 1870. In 1880 Lavinia was still living on the farm of her sister Margaret and brother-in-law Charles S. Patterson in the Middle River District of Augusta County, Virginia. Lavinia was age 30 and listed as single.

About 1894, Lavinia, age ~46, married James H. Bear. The couple moved to Winter Garden, Orange County, Florida where they were enumerated during the 1900 census. In this census Lavinia's birth was recorded as August of 1847. They had been married for six years but no children had been born to the couple. James, Lavinia's husband of some fourteen years, died in 1918 at the age of 71.

Lavinia, 81, died December 20, 1930 in Winter Park, Orange Count, Florida and joined her husband in the Palm Cemetery in Winter Park.

Notes for James H. Bear:

James H. Bear is said to be James Harvey Bear, son of Harvey Bear and Nancy Bell.

James married Lavinia R. Hopkins about 1894 in Virginia. The couple moved to Winter Park, Orange County, Florida, where they farmed. The couple is enumerated there during the 1900 census. They had been married for six years but had no children.

James, 71, died in 1918 and was buried in the Palm Cemetery in Winter Park, Orange County, Florida.

Notes for John Hinton Hopkins:

John Hinton Hopkins was born March 24, 1809 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of four children born to William H. Hopkins Sr. and Anna Rolston. John had only turned three years old two months earlier when his mother and her fourth child died May 13, 1812 during childbirth. His father would not remarry for some six years. In 1818 his father remarried, and Hester Bear Kratzer became John's stepmother. From his father's second union John had one half-brother and two half-sisters. His father died in November of 1843.

On October 19, 1842 in Virginia, John married Elizabeth Margaret Coffman. John was a farmer in Rockingham County, and the couple would be lifelong residents. They were members of the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church. John fathered ten children with his wife Elizabeth, but most of their children died as infants, children, or as young adults.

The family, John, his wife and their first three children, were enumerated in the 1850 census of Rockingham County, Virginia. Living with them was John's widowed stepmother, Hester, and John's three half-siblings: Frances, William and Margaret.

During the Civil War John was a member of the Virginia House of Delegates, serving from 1862-1863. He is said to have been a colonel in the Confederate Army.

The Rockingham death records for 1864 record the deaths of Dice, James and Milly Hopkins, free colored. The deaths are all reported by John H. Hopkins, head of the family. These free colored are thought to be workers on John's farm and may have been his slaves prior to the Civil War.

John, 60, died September 22, 1869 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church cemetery where he had been a member. He was survived by his wife, his son Thomas, and two daughters, Mrs. Catherine Harnsberger and Mrs. Elizabeth Kegg. Seven of his ten children had preceded him in death. Also surviving were his two brothers Archigald and David and half-sisters, Mrs. Frances Hopkins (married a cousin) and Mrs. Elizabeth Harnsberger.

Although deceased, John was enumerated with his family in the 1870 census of Rockingham County, Virginia. His wife was listed first, but she included her deceased husband in the census.

Notes for Elizabeth Margaret Coffman:

Elizabeth Margaret Coffman was born March 13, 1822 in Virginia. Elizabeth was probably the daughter of Christian & Catharine Coffman who were buried in the Cooks Creek Church Cemetery.

On October 19, 1842 in Virginia, Elizabeth married John Hinton Hopkins, a local farmer. Ten children were born to the couple, most of which died young. On September 22, 1869 her husband John died at the age of 60, leaving Elizabeth with three children. Although deceased for nearly a year, Elizabeth included him in the 1870 census.

In the 1880 census of the Stone Wall District of Rockingham County, Virginia the widow Mrs. Elizabeth Hopkins was living on the family farm. Her son Thomas and daughter Elizabeth were still living with her. Of her ten children, only her son Thomas and daughters Catherine and Elizabeth remained. Daughter Elizabeth had married. She died in 1885.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hopkins, 67, died June 25, 1889 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg. She was survived by only two of her ten children, her son Thomas and her daughter, Mrs. Cathrine Harnsberger.

John Hinton Hopkins and Elizabeth Margaret Coffman had the following children:

- i. ANNIE RALSTON<sup>6</sup> HOPKINS was born on 21 Nov 1843 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 14 Nov 1865 in Muddy Creek, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 21).
- ii. SAMUEL COFFMAN HOPKINS was born on 16 Jul 1845 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 31 Mar 1864 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 18).

Notes for Samuel Coffman Hopkins:

Samuel Coffman Hopkins was born July 16, 1845 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of ten children born to John Hinton Hopkins and Elizabeth Margaret Coffman. He was the grandson of William H. Hopkins Sr. and Anna Rolston. Samuel grew up on the family farm.

Samuel, 18, died March 31, 1864 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. Although he died during the time of the Civil War, there is no record of him having served for either the Union or Confederate armies.

- iii. VIRGINIA HOPKINS was born on 10 Feb 1847 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 11 Oct 1863 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 16).
- iv. JANET LOVE HOPKINS was born on 17 Nov 1848 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 06 Feb 1850 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 1).
- v. MARY FRANCES HOPKINS was born on 01 Oct 1850 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 15 May 1856 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 5).
- vi. THOMAS WALLACE HOPKINS was born on 25 Aug 1852 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 09 Feb 1930 in Idabel, McCurtain Co., Ok. (age 77). He married Nova Belle Ward, daughter of Edward Ward and Missouri York, on 30 Jun 1894 in Choctaw Nation, Oklahoma Territory. She was born on 12 Feb 1879 in Indian Territory, Oklahoma. She died on 28 Nov 1919 in McCurtain Co., Ok. (age 40).

Notes for Thomas Wallace Hopkins:

Thomas Wallace Hopkins was born August 25, 1852 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of ten children born to John Hinton Hopkins and Elizabeth Margaret Coffman. He was the grandson of William H. Hopkins Sr. and Anna Rolston. Thomas was the only one of the three brothers that survived into adulthood. On September 22, 1869, shortly after his 17th birthday, Thomas's father died leaving Thomas as the man of the house. In 1880 Thomas, age 27, was working his mother's farm in Stone Wall, Rockingham County, Virginia. He had not yet married. Also living at home was Thomas's sister Elizabeth, age 19. On June 25, 1889 Thomas's mother died at the age of 67. Of her ten children, only Thomas and his sister Catherine survived. Thomas, then 40, ventured west, following a friend to Atoka, Oklahoma.

On June 30, 1894 in Choctaw Nation of the Oklahoma Territory, Thomas married Nova Belle Ward. She was 1/8 Choctaw Indian. Nine children were born to their union, but only seven of their children are known. The family, Thomas, his wife and two children, were enumerated in the 1900 census of Indian Territory, now Oklahoma. Living with the family was a half-Choctaw Indian girl named Hanna Jones, age 18. The family was not found in the 1910 census. His wife Nova died about 1919.

Thomas, 77, died February 9, 1930 in Idabel, McCurtain County, Oklahoma and was buried in the Waterhole Cemetery in Garvin, McCurtain County, Oklahoma. His wife and two of his children are known to have been buried there.

Notes for Nova Belle Ward:

Nova Ward was born February 12, 1879 in Indian Territory, now Oklahoma, the daughter of Edward Ward and Missouri York. Her father was born in Indian Territory and her mother in Texas. Nova was 1/8 Choctaw Indian according to the 1900 census.

On June 30, 1894 in the Oklahoma Territory, Nova, age 16, married Thomas Wallace Hopkins who was significantly her senior. Nine children are attributed to their union.

On November 11, 1903 in Atoka, Indiana Territory, Nova W. Hopkins received her "citizenship certificate No. 5534" from the Department of the Interior, Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, Choctaw Land Office. The certificate does not elaborate, but it assumed it certified that she was some part Choctaw Indian. After this she began the process of acquiring more land under the names of her minor children.

On December 20, 1904 Nova received patent on 100 acres, and another 90 acres on February 11, 1905.

According to the family oral history, Nova had bad teeth and was taking "Dixie Powder," a toxic pain reliever. The chronic pain led to her over use of the medication, and she poisoned herself to death on November 28, 1919 in McCurtain County, Oklahoma. She was buried in the Waterhole Cemetery in Garvin, McCurtain County, Oklahoma.

- vii. KATHERINE COFFMAN HOPKINS was born on 20 Oct 1856 in Mt. Clinton, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died in 1918 in Fauquier Co., Va. (age ~62). She married Stephen Harnsberger, son of Robert Samuel Harnsberger and Rebecca Ann Ingles, on 16 May 1878 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 05 Jul 1852 in Augusta Co., Va.. He died in 1926 in Virginia (age ~74).

Notes for Katherine Coffman Hopkins:

Katherine "Kate" Coffman Hopkins was born October 20, 1856 in Mt. Clinton, Rockingham County, Virginia, the seventh of ten children born to John Hinton Hopkins and Elizabeth Margaret Coffman. She was the granddaughter of William H. Hopkins Sr. and Anna Rolston. Katherine was one of seven sisters. Two of her seven sister lived into their 20's and the remaining four died in their childhood. Katherine was 13 when her father died in 1869. Deaths in her family left only her mother, one brother, and one sister as her surviving family members at the time of her father's death.

On May 16, 1878 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Katherine married Dr. Stephen Harnsberger, a physician. The couple began their married life in South River, Augusta County, Virginia, later removing to the Cedar Run District of Fauquier County, Virginia. Four children were born to the couple; one died prior to 1900.

Katherine, about age 62, preceded her husband in death in 1918 in Fauquier County, Virginia, and was buried in the Catlett Methodist Cemetery in Catlett, Fauquier County, Virginia.

- viii. JOHN HINTON HOPKINS was born on 25 May 1859 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 21 Jul 1859 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age ~2 months).
- ix. ELIZABETH LOVE HOPKINS was born on 19 Aug 1860 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 07 Sep 1885 in Virginia (age 25). She married John Philetus Kerr, son of William M. Kerr and Harriet A. Roberts, on 16 Oct 1884 in Augusta Co., Va.. He was born on 04 Jul 1854 in Asheville, Buncombe Co., N.C.. He died on 16 Jun 1916 in Asheville, Buncombe Co., N.C. (age 61).

Notes for Elizabeth Love Hopkins:

Elizabeth Love Hopkins was born August 19, 1860 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the ninth of ten children born to John Hinton Hopkins and Elizabeth Margaret Coffman. She was the granddaughter of William H. Hopkins Sr. and Anna Rolston. Elizabeth was one of seven sisters. All but two of her seven sisters died in their childhood. Elizabeth turned 9 just the month before her father's death. Deaths in her family left only her mother, one brother, and one sister as survivors at the time of her father's death.

On October 16, 1884 in Augusta County, Virginia, Elizabeth, age 24, married John Philetus Kerr, age 30. One child, John Montgomery Kerr, was born to their union on August 4, 1885 in Harrisonburg.

The couple had yet to celebrate their first wedding anniversary when Elizabeth, 25, died on September 7, 1885 in Virginia. She died a month after giving birth to the couple's only child. She was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia.

Notes for John Philetus Kerr:

John Philetus Kerr was born July 4, 1854 in Asheville, Bucombe County, North Carolina, the third of nine children born to William M. Kerr and Harriet A. Roberts.

On October 16, 1884 in Augusta County, Virginia, John, age 30, married Elizabeth Love Hopkins. His wife died September 7, 1885, a month after giving birth to the couple's only child, son John. After his wife's death, John along with his son returned to North Carolina. They were enumerated in the 1900 census of Asheville, Bucombe County, North Carolina:

John Kerr	Head	Male	46	North Carolina (widowed)
John Kerr	Son	Male	15	Virginia
Harriet Kerr	Mother	Female	69	North Carolina (9/6) (widowed)

Notes for Benjamin Hinton Rolston:

Benjamin Hinton Rolston was born October 15, 1812 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of ten children born to Jesse Rolston and Jane Hinton. He grew up on the family farm and was a lifelong resident of Rockingham County.

On September 9, 1835 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Benjamin, age 23, married Salome Neff. Benjamin was a farmer and lived near his father's farm in Rockingham County where they raised their nine children. During the 1850 census, Benjamin's dwelling was listed as number 498, his younger brother, William as number 497, and their father, Jesse Sr. as number 496.

Benjamin, 46, died of tuberculosis on August 2, 1859 in Linville Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Rockingham. He was survived by his wife and their nine children. Also surviving were Benjamin's parents, his six sisters, and his three brothers.

Notes for Salome Neff:

Salome Neff was born October 24, 1809 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of Henry Neff and Barbara Burkholder.

On September 9, 1835 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Salome married Benjamin Hinton Rolston. The couple farmed in Rockingham County and raised a family of nine children. On August 2, 1859, her husband Benjamin died at the age of 46 from consumption. Salome did not remarry.

Salome and a number of her children are named in a land deed dated 8 October, 1877, in Rockingham County, Virginia {Deed Book 14, page 375}. [abstracted by A.L. Leath 2/96] An agreement was made some four years earlier on 24 November, 1873, between David Ralston Hopkins (son of William H. Hopkins & Anna Rolston) and the widow Salome Rolston and several named children: Ann E. and husband David Suter, Mary E. and husband Christian Brunk, Hannah Barbara Rolston, now wife of John G. Good, David N. Ralston and John H. Rolston. The 1877 deed involved the sale of the 80 acres on Muddy Creek from the sisters to brothers David and John. Salome retained a life interest that would pass onto the brothers at her death.

1879 was a tragic year for Salome as she lost two of her nine children. Her son David was killed by a falling tree in June, and then in September, her daughter, Mrs. Frances Mauck died. In 1880 Salome was living with her daughter Ann, son-in-law David Suter and their family. Ann was enumerated as a widowed, age 71.

Salome, 81, died June 2, 1891 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried at the Cooks Creek Church Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, as was her husband 31 years earlier. Besides her husband, Salome was preceded in death by three of her nine children.

Benjamin Hinton Rolston and Salome Neff had the following children:

- i. LYDIA J.<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 12 May 1838 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 29 Aug 1918 in Mt. Clinton, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 80). She married George W. Lineweaver, son of Jacob Lineweaver and Catherine L. Falls, about 1859 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 04 Apr 1830 in Virginia. He died on 24 Sep 1896 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 66).

Notes for Lydia J. Rolston:

Lydia J. Rolston was born May 12, 1838 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of nine children born to Benjamin Hinton Rolston and Salome Neff. Her middle name was probably Jane. She grew up on her parents farm.

About 1859 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Lydia married George W. Lineweaver. The couple resided in Rockingham County and raised their family of four children. Their first child, Franklin, died at age 2, and their third child, Salome, died at age 20. Their fourth child, Mollie, died at age 35. Only son Perry, their third child, is known to have survived into his senior years. In the 1870 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia, the family was residing next door to Lydia's mother. On September 24, 1896 Lydia's husband died at the age of 66. Lydia was in her late 50's and did not remarry. She spent her last years living with her son Perry.

Lydia, 80, died on August 29, 1918 in Mount Clinton, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. According to church records she was aged 80 years 2 months and 17 days. Lydia was survived by her son Perry. Also surviving were three sisters, Mrs. Annie Suter, Mrs. Sarah Lineweaver, and Mrs. Mary Brunk and one brother, John H. Rolston.

Notes for George W. Lineweaver:

George W. Lineweaver was born April 4, 1830 in Virginia, one of about twelve children born to Jacob Lineweaver, Sr. and Catherine Falls. According to church records, George was born March 4, 1836. As his middle initial was "W," his middle name was likely Washington. George was a farmer in Rockingham County, County, Virginia.

About 1859 in Rockingham County, George married Lydia J. Rolston. The couple had four children. Their first child, son Franklin, died at the age of 2. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Central, Rockingham County, Virginia:

George W. Lineweaver	Self	M	Male	W	50	VA	Farmer	VA	VA
Lydia Lineweaver	Wife	M	Female	W	42	VA	Keeping House	VA	VA
Perry Lineweaver	Son	S	Male	W	17	VA	Works On Farm	VA	VA
Salome C. Lineweaver	Dau	S	Female	W	15	VA		VA	VA
Mollie Lineweaver	Dau	S	Female	W	9	VA		VA	VA

Daughter Salome died in 1886 at the age of 21. She had never married.

George preceded his wife in death on September 24, 1896 in Rockingham County, Virginia at the age of 66 years, 6 months and 20 days. According to church records, George was buried at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County, but there is no visible stone for George. Two of his four children had preceded him in death. He was survived by his wife Lydia, son Perry and daughter, Mrs. Mollie Heatwole. George had no grandchildren.

- ii. ANN ELIZA ROLSTON was born on 14 Jan 1840 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 30 Aug 1925 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 85). She married David Suter, son of Daniel Suter and Anna Heatwole, on 06 Mar 1873 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 21 Nov

1829 in Virginia. He died on 02 Apr 1906 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 76).

Notes for Ann Eliza Rolston:

Ann "Annie" Eliza Rolston was born January 14, 1840 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of nine children born to Benjamin Hinton Rolston and Salome Neff. Annie was a lifelong resident of Rockingham County.

On March 6, 1873 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Annie married the widower David Suter. Annie became pregnant with their first child shortly after their marriage. They would have two other children in the years that followed. In 1880 her mother Salome was living with Annie and her family. Her mother remained with them until her death in 1891. Annie's husband preceded her in death on April 2, 1906 after 23 years of marriage; he was 76 at the time of his death. In the 1910 and 1920 censuses Annie and her son Benjamin were enumerated with the widow Mrs. Fannie S. Nicholas.

Annie, 85, died August 30, 1925 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery where her husband had been laid to rest 18 years earlier. Annie was survived by her two sons, Benjamin Frank and Emanuel Raleigh; neither of which are known to have married. The fate of Annie's daughter, Anna Virginia, is unknown. She may have been the only one of David and Annie's three children to have married.

Notes for David Suter:

David Suter was born November 21, 1829 in Virginia, the son of Daniel Suter, a French immigrant, and Anna Heatwole of Virginia. David's mother died when he was about 6 years old. In the 1850 census of Rockingham County, Virginia "David Suters" was residing with John Weaver and family. Mr. Weaver was a wagon maker. David was likely learning this trade from Mr. Weaver.

About 1857, David married his first wife, Catharine Mary Grove, also found as Mary C.. Two children are known to have been born to the couple. His wife Catharine died March 19, 1860 at the age of 23 and was buried in the Blosser Family Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia where David's mother was buried. In the 1870 census David and his two children were residing with Mrs. Sophia Groves, David's mother-in-law.

On March 6, 1873 in Rockingham County, Virginia, David married his second wife, Annie Eliza Rolston. David was age 54 and and Annie 32. Three children, Benjamin, Anna and Emanuel, were known to have been born from this union.

David had made his living as a wagon maker since 1850. In 1879 David reports to the authorities that his brother-in-law, Annie's brother David, had died when a tree fell upon him. One can only speculate that perhaps his brother-in-law David was cutting wood for making wagons. David and his family were enumerated in the 1880 census of Central, Rockingham, Virginia. Residing with the family is George W. Bawurniar, age 46, wagon maker. David's mother-in-law is also living with the family.

David, 76, preceded his wife in death on April 2, 1906 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. Along with his wife, he was survived by their two sons. Their daughter Anna's fate is unknown.

- iii. FRANCES ELLEN ROLSTON was born on 18 Oct 1841 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 12 Sep 1879 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 37). She married Joseph William Mauck, son of Morgan Mauck and Rebecca Ann, on 16 Aug 1863 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 18 Feb 1835 in Page Co., Va.. He died on 02 May 1912 in Virginia (age 77).

Notes for Frances Ellen Rolston:

Frances "Fannie" Ellen Rolston was born October 18, 1841 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of nine children born to Benjamin Hinton Rolston and Salome Neff. Her father died in 1859 when Frances was 17 years old.

---

On August 16, 1863 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Frances married Joseph William Mauck. Five children are known to have been born to the couple. The marriage lasted sixteen years until Frances' death.

Frances, 37, died September 12, 1879 in Rockingham County, Virginia. Her cause of death is unknown. A lifelong resident of Rockingham County, she was buried in the Cooks Creek Cemetery in Rockingham County where her father Benjamin and brother David had been buried. Frances was survived by her husband and their five children. Also surviving were her widowed mother, five sisters and one brother. Her father, one sister and one brother had preceded her in death.

Notes for Joseph William Mauck:

Joseph William Mauck was born February 18, 1835 in Page County, Virginia. He may be the son of Morgan Ruffner Mauck and Rebecca Ann Phillips.

On August 16, 1863 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Joseph married Frances "Fannie" Ellen Rolston. Five children are known to have been born to the couple. Frances, Joseph's wife of 16 years, preceded him in death on September 12, 1879 at the age of 37. The following year, the widower Joseph and his children were enumerated in the 1880 census of the Linville District of Rockingham County, Virginia. Joseph was using his middle name, William.

On October 11, 1881, Joseph married Caroline A. Wright. No children were born to the couple.

Joseph, 77, died May 2, 1912 in Virginia and was buried as J. W. Mauck in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery along with his first wife, Fannie. Their daughter was later buried next to them as was Joseph's second wife Caroline.

- iv. SARAH CATHERINE ROLSTON was born on 28 Aug 1843 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 31 Oct 1922 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 79). She married James Madison Lineweaver, son of John Lineweaver and Margaret Martha Beard, on 17 Nov 1870 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 23 Feb 1849 in Cooks Creek, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 29 Oct 1887 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 38).

Notes for Sarah Catherine Rolston:

Sarah Catherine "Sallie" Rolston was born August 28, 1843 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of nine children born to Benjamin Hinton Rolston and Salome Neff. Sarah's father died in 1859 just weeks before Sarah's 16th birthday. Her mother did not remarry. In the 1860 census Sarah was enumerated with her paternal grandparents.

On November 17, 1870 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Sarah married James Madison Lineweaver, her second cousin. The couple lived and raised seven children in the Rockingham County and Harrisonburg, Virginia, area. Husband James died October 29, 1887 at the age of 38. Sarah was 44 years of age at the time of his death, but she did not remarry. In the 1910 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia, the widowed Sarah was enumerated with her son William, his wife and family. Sarah and family attended the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church and then the Presbyterian Church of Harrisonburg for the last 30 some years of her life. She remained with her son until her death.

Sarah, 79, died of heart troubles and infirmities of old age on October 31, 1922 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, joining her husband who she had buried there 35 years earlier. Although her obituary states that she was in her 80th year, Sarah was 79 years old at the time of her death. Sarah was survived by her seven children.

Notes for James Madison Lineweaver:

James Madison Lineweaver was born February 23, 1849 in Cooks Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of eight children born to John Lineweaver and Margaret Martha Beard and was a grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. James was one of the four siblings that lived to adulthood. Breaking from the tradition of farming, James became a carpenter and school teacher.

On November 17, 1870 in Rockingham County, Virginia, James married Sarah Catherine Rolston, a second cousin and relative of James' maternal grandmother Ruth Rolston Beard. James and his wife had seven children.

James, 38, died October 29, 1887 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County. James had lived his entire life in Rockingham County. He was survived by Sarah, his wife of nearly 17 years, their seven children, three brothers, and his mother, Mrs. Margaret Beard Lineweaver.

James' cause of death is not known. The majority of his siblings died as young children, and his surviving brothers all died in their 40's except for his brother Abraham who lived to the age of 58. If there was some genetic basis behind the early deaths of his siblings, it was not passed onto the children of James and Sarah as their children lived into old age, many living well into their 80's and even 90's.

- v. REBECCA SUSAN ROLSTON was born on 28 Apr 1845 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 12 Jun 1862 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 17).

Notes for Rebecca Susan Rolston:

Rebecca Susan Rolston was born April 28, 1845 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of nine children born to Benjamin Hinton Rolston and Salome Neff. As a young child she was known as Susan.

Susan became ill and died on June 12, 1862 in Rockingham County, Virginia, at the age of 17 years, 1 month and 15 days. She was buried in Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia.

- vi. JOHN HINTON ROLSTON was born on 08 Jan 1847 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 16 Sep 1934 in Elk Meadows, Augusta Co., Va. (age 87). He married (1) SARAH ANNA DRIVER, daughter of David L. Driver and Catharine Showalter, on 23 Dec 1869 in Mt. Solon, Augusta Co., Va.. She was born in Oct 1848 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 17 Feb 1912 in Virginia (age 63). He married (2) ANNA JANE ZIGLER, daughter of Jacob Zigler and Christina Garber, in 1915 in Virginia. She was born on 22 Mar 1858 in Moffats Branch, Augusta Co., Va.. She died on 03 May 1938 in North River Dist., Augusta Co., Va. (age 80).

Notes for John Hinton Rolston:

John Hinton Rolston/Ralston was born January 8, 1847 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of nine children born to Benjamin Hinton Rolston and Salome Neff. His father died in 1859 when John was 12 years old. His mother never remarried.

John's military records shows him as born in Augusta County, and he appears to have used the RALSTON spelling of the surname. In Staunton on April 23, 1864, John enlisted in the Marquis' Boys Bty. as a private. He was a scout for General Imboden.

On December 23, 1869 in Mt. Solon, Augusta County, Virginia, John, age 22, married Sarah "Sally" Anna Driver, age 21. Four children were born to their union. John was a carpenter and machinist in 1880, farmer in 1900, and worked as a blacksmith in the later years of his life. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of North River, Augusta County, Virginia:

J.H. Ralston	Self	M	Male	W	33	VA	Carpenter and Machinist	---	---
Sally Anna Ralston		Wife	M	Female	W	36	VA	Keeps House		VA
Chas. Boyd Ralston		Son	S	Male	W	5	VA	At Home		VA
Ida Pearl Ralston		Dau	S	Female	W	3	VA	At Home		VA
M.A. Rife		Other	S	Female	W	30	VA	Laborer		VA

His wife Sallie died in February of 1912.

In 1915 in Virginia, John married Anna Jane Zigler who was eleven years his junior. Anna was beyond her child bearing years, and no children were born to their union.

John, 87, died September 16, 1934 in Elk Meadows, Augusta County, Virginia, and was buried as J. H. Ralston in the Elk Run Church of the Brethren cemetery in Churchville, Augusta County, Virginia. He was survived by his four children and his second wife, Anna.

Notes for Sarah Anna Driver:

Sarah "Sallie" Anna Driver was born in August of 1848 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of David L. Driver and Catharine Showalter. Sarah's maiden name is shown as Doover on her son's marriage license, but it this not necessarily correct as it was difficult to read the script.

On December 23, 1869 in Mt. Solon, Augusta County, Virginia, Sarah married John Hinton Rolston. The couple was married nearly five years before the first of their four known children was born. Sarah and her husband were last enumerated together in the 1900 census.

Sarah, age 63, died February 17, 1912 in Virginia, and was buried as "Sallie A., wife of J. H. Ralston" in the Elk Run Church of the Brethren Cemetery in Churchville, Augusta County, Virginia.

Notes for Anna Jane Zigler:

Anna Jane Zigler was born March 22, 1858 in Moffats Branch, Augusta County, Virginia, the daughter of Jacob Zigler and Christina Garber. She lived with her parents until their deaths. Her father died in 1896 and her mother in 1898. Anna's whereabouts in 1900 are unknown. Anna was enumerated with her brother in the 1910 census of the Ashby District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

John W Zigler	Head	Male	64	Virginia (widowed)
Fannie C Zigler	Daughter	Female	28	Virginia
Rebecca E Zigler	Daughter	Female	25	Virginia
Annie J Zigler	Sister	Female	48	Virginia

In 1915, Anna, about age 57, married the widower John H. Ralston. Past her child bearing years, no children were born to their union.

Anna, 80, died May 3, 1938 in Virginia and was buried as "Anna J. Z. Ralston" in the Elk Run Church of the Brethren Cemetery in Churchville, Augusta County, Virginia.

- vii. DAVID NEFF ROLSTON was born on 16 Feb 1849 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 18 Jun 1879 in Mt. Clinton, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 30).

Notes for David Neff Rolston:

David Neff Rolston was born February 16, 1849 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the seventh of nine children born to Benjamin Hinton Rolston and Solome Neff. His father Benjamin died in 1859 when David was ten years old. His mother did not remarry.

David is not known to have married.

David, 30, died June 18, 1879 near Mount Clinton in Rockingham County, Virginia, a lifelong resident of the county. His tombstone in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery says that he "was instantly killed by accident." Death records for Rockingham County report the cause of death as a falling tree. His death was reported by his brother-in-law, David Suter, who was a wagon maker. One could speculate that David Rolston was cutting trees for wood for his brother-in-law's wagon making business.

- viii. MARY ELIZABETH ROLSTON was born on 16 Nov 1850 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 03 Oct 1928 in Central Dist., Rockingham Co., Va. (age 77). She married Christian H. Brunk, son of John Brunk and Annie Weaver, on 24 Mar 1872 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 08 Nov 1845 in Broadway, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 07 May 1921 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 75).

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Rolston:

Mary Elizabeth Rolston was born November 16, 1850 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eighth of nine children born to Benjamin Hinton Rolston and Solome Neff. Her father died in 1859 when Mary was eight years old. Her mother never remarried.

On March 24, 1872 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Mary married Christian H. Brunk. They lived in Rockingham County where they raised their family. Six children were born to their union; three daughters and three sons. Son John died in 1883 at age 1. Their eldest known child, daughter Nora, died in 1892 at the age of 17, and son Talfourd died in 1899 at the age of 7. In the 1900 census Mary's nephew Raleigh Suter was living with them and working on the family farm. In the 1910 census Mary's great nephew Glen Wilson Mauck was residing with them. Christian, Mary's husband of 49 years, preceded her in death in May of 1921.

Mary, 77 and a lifelong resident of Rockingham County, died of pulmonary tuberculosis on October 3, 1928 in the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried along side her husband in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. Mary was survived by three of her six children, son, Oliver Brunk, and daughters, Mrs. Lettie Weaver and Miss Grace Brunk.

Notes for Christian H. Brunk:

Christian H. Brunk was born November 8, 1845 in Broadway, Rockingham County, Virginia, the second child born to John Brunk and Annie Weaver.

On March 24, 1872 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Christian married Mary Elizabeth Rolston. The couple had six children, three of which died young. Christian was a school teacher before changing careers and becoming a Deputy Clerk for the Rockingham Circuit Court. The family also farmed. In the 1920 census of Central Township, Rockingham County, Virginia, Christian and his wife had only their youngest child living at home. Also residing with the family was Mary's nephew, Glen Wilson Mauck, age 16.

According to the obituary of his daughter Lillie, Christian "... spent many years restoring county records which were partially burned during the war between the states." {The Daily News-Record, Harrisonburg, Virginia, March 14, 1951, Front page}

Christian, 75, preceded his wife in death on May 7, 1921 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg,

Rockingham County, Virginia. Besides his wife, he was survived by three of his six children.

- ix. HANNAH BARBARA ROLSTON was born on 28 Apr 1854 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 31 Oct 1892 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 38). She married John F. Good, son of John P. Good and Anna Wenger, on 24 Dec 1874 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 19 Mar 1853 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 29 Aug 1923 in Keokuk Co., Iowa (age 70).

Notes for Hannah Barbara Rolston:

Hannah Barbara Rolston was born April 28, 1854 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of nine children born to Benjamin Hinton Rolston and Solome Neff. Hannah was but four years old in 1859 when her father died. Hannah's mother did not remarry.

On December 24, 1874 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Hannah, age 20, married John F. Good, age 21. Five children were born to Hannah and John. Their first child and only daughter, Annie, died in 1877 at the age of one. Their next four children were sons, the youngest of the four was born in 1884.

Hannah, 38, died October 31, 1892 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried next to her daughter Annie in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. Her cause of death is unknown. Hannah was survived by her husband and their four sons. Also surviving were four sisters and one brother.

Notes for John F. Good:

John F. Good was born March 19, 1853 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of seven children born to John P. Good and Anna Wenger.

On Christmas Eve, December 24, 1874 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John, age 21, married Hannah Barbara Rolston, age 20. Five children were born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

John F. Good	Self	M	Male	W	27	VA		VA	VA
Hannah B. Good	Wife	M	Female	W	26	VA	Keeping House	VA	VA
George E. Good	Son	S	Male	W	2	VA		VA	VA
David N.R. Good	Son	S	Male	W	1	VA		VA	VA

Their last known child, William, was born in 1884. Eight years later, Hannah, John's wife of 17 years, died October 31, 1892, at the age of 38 in Rockingham County. John left Virginia soon after his wife's death, leaving his sons behind, and removed to Keokuk County, Iowa.

There on July 24, 1895, he married Ida Parnell. There were no children from their union; however, two of John's sons later join him in Iowa.

Sons David and James, from John's first marriage, were residing in Keokuk County, Iowa in 1917 along with four others with the surname of Good:

- 1 - Saylor Daniel Good, South English, was born 12 March 1877, in Rockingham County, Virginia. Although not a child of John's, Saylor Good is perhaps related. Saylor was the son of John M. Good and Mary Ann Cline.
- 2 - David Ralston Good, South English, 20 November 1879 {son of John & Hannah Good}
- 3 - James Curry Good, Kinross, 26 March 1882 {son of John & Hannah Good}
- 4 - John Henry Good (or Goode), South English, 11 October 1892; died in June of 1972 in Monroe County, Iowa. {not known as a child of John's}
- 5 - Clarence Dewitt Good, South English, 12 May 1896. {not a child of John's}
- 6 - William Jasper Good, South English, 30 December 1899; William died April 29, 1990, in Iowa. {not a child of John's}

John and his second wife were enumerated in the 1920 census of English River Township of Keokuk County, Iowa. Living next door was his son David, daughter-in-law, and two granddaughters.

John, 70, died August 29, 1923 in Keokuk County, Iowa and was buried in the South English Cemetery in the English River Township of Keokuk County, Iowa.

306. ANN ELIZA<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Jesse<sup>4</sup> Sr., David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born in Aug 1814 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 25 Jan 1898 in Iowa (age 83). She married John Thomas Neff, son of Neff and Unknown, on 22 Jun 1835 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born about 1815 in Virginia. He died on 18 Mar 1891 in Iowa (age ~76).

Notes for Ann Eliza Rolston:

Ann "Annie" Eliza Rolston was born in August of 1814 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of ten children born to Jesse Rolston and Jane Hinton. She was baptized August 28, 1814 at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church in Rockingham County.

On June 22, 1835 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Ann married John Thomas Neff. The couple removed to Ohio. Seven children are known to have been born to their union. The family was enumerated in the 1850 census of Milton Township of Ashland County, Ohio:

John Neff		M	38	Virginia
Anneliza Neff	F	35	Virginia
Jesse Neff	M	13	Ohio
Janie Neff	F	9	Ohio
Virginius Neff	F	4	Ohio
John Neff		M	5	Ohio
David Neff	M	2	Ohio

The last birth in 1859 being twin daughters. The couple and one of their twin daughters were enumerated in the 1880 census of Mansfield, Richland County, Ohio:

John Neff	Self	M	Male	W	65	VA	Laborer	VA	PA
Annie Neff	Wife	M	Female		W	63	VA	Keeping House	VA
Allie Neff	Dau	S	Female		W	21	OH	At Home	VA

The couple then moved to Iowa. Their son David also moved there. Ann's husband preceded her in death in 1891. In the 1895 Iowa State Census of Crawford County, the widowed Ann, age 80, was living with her son David.

Ann, 83, died January 25, 1898 in Iowa and was buried in the Nishnabatna Cemetery in Manilla, Crawford County, Iowa.

The dates of birth dates of John and Ann are not consistent with their ages given in census data. Ann's date of birth on her tombstone was given as March 27, 1816; she was baptised by her parents in 1814.

Notes for John Thomas Neff:

John Thomas Neff was born about 1815 in Virginia. His parentage is unknown, but his father was born in Virginia and his mother in Pennsylvania. He was sometimes known by his middle name, Thomas.

On June 22, 1839 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John married Ann "Annie" Eliza Rolston. They were both about 24 years of age. The couple removed to Ohio. When they left Virginia is unknown. The family of John and Ann Neff was enumerated in the 1860 census of Olmsburg P.O., Ashland County, Ohio:

John Neff		Male	51	Virginia
Ann E Neff		Female	44	Virginia
Jane Neff		Female	19	Ohio
Virginia Neff		Female	14	Ohio
David Neff		Male	12	Ohio
Ella E Neff		Female	1	Ohio

Alice A Neff      Female 1      Ohio

The ages of John and Ann are not consistent with later censuses, but they did have twin daughters Ella and Alice. John and his family were enumerated in the 1870 and 1880 censuses of Mansfield, Franklin Township, Richland County, Ohio. The family removed to Iowa sometime after 1880. Their son David and his family also lived there.

John, about age 76, preceded his wife in death on March 18, 1891 in Iowa. He was buried as "John G. Neff" in the Nishnabotna Cemetery in Manilla, Crawford County, Iowa. His tombstone gives his date of birth as October 16, 1811. His date of birth is not consistent with his age reported during censuses.

John Thomas Neff and Ann Eliza Rolston had the following children:

- i.    JESSE H.<sup>6</sup> NEFF was born about 1837 in Ohio. He married MARGARET. She was born about 1842 in Virginia.

Notes for Jesse H. Neff:

Jesse H. Neff was born about 1837 in Ohio, the eldest of seven children born to John Thomas Neff and Ann Eliza Rolston.

Jesse was out on his own by the time of the 1860 census; his whereabouts unknown. He appears to have been residing in Hampshire County, Virginia where he was registered in 1863 as a person who could be drafted into military service. He was listed as married and working as a carpenter. Although unable to positively confirm, he appears to have served in the Union Army during the Civil War; discharged in Baltimore, Maryland in 1865.

Jesse married Margaret, maiden name unknown. [no record found] The family was enumerated in the 1870 census of Mansfield, Richland County, Ohio:

Jesse Neff	M	34	Ohio [carpenter]
Margaret Neff	F	28	Virginia
Mary Neff	F	6	Virginia
Ada Neff	F	4/12	Ohio
David Cromer	M	25	Virginia [maternal 1st cousin]
Irwin Pritchard	M	25	Virginia [carpenter]

Their daughter Ada was deceased by the time of 1880 census. What became of the family after 1880 is unknown.

Notes for Margaret:

Margaret, maiden name unknown, was born about 1842 in Virginia, perhaps now West Virginia, her parentage is unknown.

Margaret married Jesse H. Neff. She may have been his wife as early as 1863. [no record found] Two daughters are known to have been born to their union, but their younger daughter, Ada, had died in infancy or early childhood before the 1880 census.

What became of Margaret and family after 1880 is unknown.

- ii.    JANE ELIZABETH NEFF was born on 22 Mar 1841 in Ohio. She died on 04 Jan 1918 in Dayton, Montgomery Co., Ohio (age 76). She married John Harvey Smythe about 1864 in Ohio. He was born on 19 May 1840 in Ohio. He died on 05 Mar 1912 in Dayton, Montgomery Co., Ohio (age 71).

Notes for Jane Elizabeth Neff:

Jane Elizabeth Neff was born March 22, 1841 in Ohio, the second of seven children born to John Thomas Neff and Ann Eliza Rolston.

About 1864 in Ohio, Jane married John Harvey Smythe. Seven children were born to their union. The first birth was twin girls, and the next to last birth was twin boys. By 1900 the couple had separated and/or divorced. In the 1900 census Jane listed herself as widowed, but her husband was still living. He died in 1912.

Jane, 76, died from an aneurysm on January 4, 1918 in Dayton, Montgomery County, Ohio, and joined her husband in the Woodland Cemetery and Arboretum in Dayton.

Notes for John Harvey Smythe:
Son of William Smythe and Mary Story.

John, 71, died of acute lobar pneumonia in the Miami Valley Hospital in Dayton, Montgomery County, Ohio.

- iii. JOHN NEFF was born about 1845 in Ohio. He died before 1860 in Ashland Co., Ohio (age 5+).
- iv. VIRGINIA NEFF was born on 24 Mar 1846 in Ashland Co., Ohio. She died on 28 Sep 1906 in Ashland Co., Ohio (age 60). She married Melon T. Bruce, son of Eliga Bruce and Mary Harvout, on 20 Dec 1866 in Ashland Co., Ohio. He was born on 10 Jul 1842 in Clear Creek Twp., Ashland Co., Ohio. He died on 07 Apr 1926 in Clear Creek Twp., Ashland Co., Ohio (age 83).

Notes for Virginia Neff:

Virginia "Jennie" Neff was born March 24, 1846 in Ashland County, Ohio, the fourth of seven children born to John Thomas Neff and Ann Eliza Rolston.

On December 20, 1866 in Ashland County, Ohio, Virginia, age 20, married Melon T. Bruce. The couple farmed. Five children were born to the couple. Living with the family in 1870 was Virginia's sister, Alice Neff, age 12. At that time Jennie had just given birth to her second child. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Clear Creek Township in Ashland County, Ohio:

Melon Bruce	Self	Male	38	Ohio
Jennie Bruce	Wife	Female	34	Ohio
Gertrude Bruce	Daughter		Female 12	Ohio
Franklin Bruce	Son	Male	10	Ohio
May Bruce	Daughter		Female 3	Ohio
Sylva Bruce	Daughter		Female 7/12	Ohio

After the 1880 census, daughter Verna Olive Bruce (1882-1973) was born to the couple.

Their daughter Sylva preceded them in death in March of 1906 at the age of 26.

Virginia, 60, preceded her husband in death on September 28, 1906 in Ashland County, Ohio and was buried in the Ashland Cemetery in Ashland, Ashland County, Ohio. Besides her husband, Virginia was survived by four of her five children. Also known to have survived was her brother David Neff.

Obituary, unknown source, Wednesday, October 3, 1906

BRUCE, Mrs. Melon, taken ill at daughter's home Mrs. Charles Heifner, died Friday, funeral Monday at family home in Clearcreek.

Notes for Melon T. Bruce:

Place of birth on his death certificate was "Clearcreek Township, Ashland Co Ohio."

- v. DAVID FRANKLIN NEFF was born on 24 May 1848 in Ashland, Ashland Co., Ohio. He died in 1928 in Colorado (age 79). He married Sarah A. Stout, daughter of Charles Stout and Mary, on 13 Jun 1869 in Ashland Co., Ohio. She was born in Jan 1850 in Ohio. She died in 1944 in Colorado (age 94).

Notes for David Franklin Neff:

seven children born to John Thomas Neff and Ann Eliza Rolston.

On June 13, 1869 in Ashland County, Ohio, David married Sarah "Sadie" A. Stout. Three children are known to have been born to the couple; one died in infancy. The family was enumerated in the 1885 state census of Dallas Center Township in Dallas County, Iowa:

David F Neff	M	36	Ohio
Sarah A Neff	F	34	Ohio
Geneva G Neff	F	12	Polk [Co., Iowa]
Essie A Neff	F	9	Dallas [Co., Iowa]

In the 1900 census their daughter, Mrs. Essie A. Umphrey, was living with them along with grandson Frank R. Umphrey, age 1.

In 1907 in Nebraska, David applied for a passport for himself. The application did not state his destination. He was described as age 59, 5'-9" with gray eyes and gray hair, and sporting a mustache.

By 1910 David, his wife and their grandson Frank had removed to Nebraska where they were enumerated in Omaha, Douglas County with the family of Irish immigrants, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and Mary Goggen:

Thomas Goggen	Head	M	41	Ireland
Mary A Goggen	Wife	F	37	Ireland
Leo Goggen	Adopted	M	11	Nebraska
Eugene Goggen	Adopted	M	11	Nebraska

Spencer Mayhew	Grandson	M	16	Iowa
Frank R Umphrey	Grandson	M	11	Iowa

By 1920, David, age 69, and his wife had removed to Pueblo, Pueblo County, Colorado.

David, about age 79, died in 1928 in Colorado and was buried in the Crown Hill Cemetery in Wheat Ridge, Jefferson County, Colorado.

Notes for Sarah A. Stout:

In 1930 the widowed Mrs. Sarah Neff was living with her son-in-law and daughter in Denver, Denver County, Colorado:

Ernest L Coe	Head	M	52	Iowa
Greta N Coe	Wife	F	54	Iowa
Sarah A Neff	Mother-in-law	F	79	Ohio (widowed)

- vi. ALICE A. NEFF was born on 11 May 1859 in Richland Co., Ohio. She died on 20 Jan 1953 in Lakewood, Cuyahoga Co., Ohio (age 93). She married Delbert L. Larimer, son of Unknown Larimer and Ianthe Gass, on 27 Apr 1882 in Richland Co., Ohio. He was born on 07 Mar 1855 in Ohio. He died on 16 Mar 1939 in Cleveland, Cuyahoga Co., Ohio (age 84).

Notes for Alice A. Neff:

Alice "Allie" A. Neff and her twin sister, Ella E. Neff, were born May 11, 1859 in Richland County, Ohio, the youngest of seven children born to John Thomas Neff and Ann Eliza Rolston. Alice, age 12, was enumerated twice in the 1870 census. She was enumerated with her parents in Mansfield, Richland County and again with her older sister, Mrs. Jennie Bruce in Clear Creek Township of Ashland County. Her sister had just given birth, and Alice was likely there to help with the baby and household chores. Allie was enumerated at the age of 21, living with her parents during the 1880 census of Mansfield, Franklin Township, Richland County, Ohio.

On April 27, 1882 in Richland County, Ohio, Alice, age 22, married Delbert L. Larimer, age 27. One child was born to their union. The family lived in Cleveland, Cuyahoga County, Ohio.

Her husband preceded her in death in March of 1939. After his death, Alice moved to Lakewood City, Cuyahoga County, Ohio where she lived with her daughter, Mrs. Flora G. Horsburgh.

Alice, 93, died January 20, 1953 in Lakewood City, Cuyahoga County, Ohio and joined her husband in the Lake View Cemetery in Cleveland, Cuyahoga County, Ohio. She was survived by her daughter, Mrs. Flora Horsburgh. She was preceded in death by her husband, her son-in-law Robert Horsburgh, and her grandson Delbert Horsburgh.

- vii. ELLA E. NEFF was born on 11 May 1859 in Richland Co., Ohio. She died on 08 Apr 1932 in Savannah, Ashland Co., Ohio (age 72). She married George K. Waggoner on 17 Mar 1880 in Richland Co., Ohio. He was born in Jun 1853 in Ohio. He died in 1938 (age ~84).

Notes for Ella E. Neff:

Ella E. Neff and her twin sister, Alice A. Neff, were born May 11, 1859 in Richland County, Ohio, the youngest of seven children born to John Thomas Neff and Ann Eliza Rolston. In 1870 she was enumerated as Helen.

On March 17, 1880 in Richland County, Ohio Ellie married George K. Waggoner. Three children were born to their union; one had died before the 1900 census.

Ella, 72, died April 8, 1932 in Savannah, Ashland County, Ohio and was buried as Ellie E. Waggoner in the Savannah Cemetery in Savannah. She was survived by her husband and their two sons; Tully and Todd.

Notes for Sarah Rolston:

Sarah Rolston was born May 22, 1815 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of ten children born to Jesse Rolston and Jane Hinton. Her year of birth is calculated from her age at death, but the date is disputed as Sarah is reported to have been baptized at the same time as her sister, Ann, on August 28, 1814.

On April 24, 1837 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Sara married Thomas Gordon Hopkins. There are numerous family ties between the Hopkins and Rolston family. Sarah was the maternal granddaughter of Sarah Hopkins. Sarah's husband's great aunt, Mary Hopkins, married William Rolston, and this William Rolston was Sarah's paternal great uncle. Although Sarah and Thomas shared many family ties, they were not blood related cousins.

The couple lived in Rockingham County and raise a family of ten children. Two of their children died in childhood.

Sarah, 18 days after her 45th birthday, died of unknown causes on June 9, 1860 in North Mountain, Rockingham County, Virginia. Her death was reported by her husband, Thomas Gordon Hopkins. Her youngest child died a month later at the age of 4. Sarah's place of burial is unknown.

Notes for Thomas Gordon Hopkins:

Thomas Gordon Hopkins was born April 9, 1815 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third or fourth of seven children known to have been born to Archibald Hopkins and Elizabeth Gordon. He may have been born a twin to his sister Sarah. Thomas was the great grandson of Archibald Hopkins.

Grandfather Archibald's daughter Mary, who was Thomas's great aunt, married William Rolston. Descendants of Thomas's great aunt Elizabeth Hopkins also married into the Rolston family.

On April 24, 1837 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Thomas married Sarah Rolston, the maternal granddaughter of Sarah Hopkins. Ten children were born to the couple. The family farmed. In the 1850 census Thomas's younger brother John was living next door to the family.

Sarah, Thomas's wife of 23 years died on June 9, 1860 in North Mountain, Rockingham County, Virginia at the age of 45. Thomas, also about age 45, did not remarry.

Thomas, 68, died October 30, 1883 in Rockingham County, Virginia. His place of burial is unknown.

Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston had the following children:

- i. ARCHIBALD F.<sup>6</sup> HOPKINS was born on 30 Sep 1838 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 26 Nov 1868 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 30). He married Sarah A. Rolston, daughter of Benjamin Fielding Rolston and Barbara Ann Burkholder, on 21 Jul 1863 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 16 Aug 1838 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 07 Oct 1908 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 70).

Notes for Archibald F. Hopkins:

Archibald F. Hopkins and his twin brother, Jesse Ralston Hopkins, were born September 30, 1838 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of ten children born to Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston.

During the Civil War, Archibald served in Company H, 10th Regiment, of the Virginia Volunteers.

On July 21, 1863 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Archibald married his first cousin, once removed, Sarah A. Rolston. The couple farmed. No children were born to their union.

Archibald, 30, preceded his wife in death on November 26, 1868 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. His cause of death is not known.

Notes for Sarah A. Rolston:

Sarah "Sallie" A. Rolston was born August 16, 1838 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of nine children born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston and Barbara Ann Burkholder. Sarah had a surviving half-brother and half-sister from her father's first marriage.

On July 21, 1863 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Sarah married her fist cousin, once removed, Archibald F. Hopkins. Archibald's mother was a Rolston to which Sarah was distantly related. The couple never had children. After five years of marriage, husband Archibald died November 26, 1868 at the age of 30. Sarah did not remarried. She returned to living with her parents until at least the 1880's.

After her parents' deaths she remained with her brother John who had never married. They were enumerated in the 1900 census of the Central District of Rockingham County. Although Sarah and her husband were not known to have had children, according to the 1900 census, Sarah had one child who was still living. Residing with Sarah and her brother John in 1900 was their niece Emma J. Deavers, single, age 18, and perhaps Sarah or the census taker listed Emma as her child. Emma J. was actually Emma Florence Deavers. Emma married the following year. Sallie did not remain with her brother.

Sarah suffered from tuberculosis and lived with her nephew, Samuel Henry Rolston, in her final years.

Sarah, 70, died October 7, 1908 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by two brothers, John and Calvin, and two sisters, Rebecca and Ellen. Both of her half-siblings had preceded her in death.

- ii. JESSE RALSTON HOPKINS was born on 30 Sep 1838 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 01 Sep 1900 in Baltimore (city), Md. (age 61). He married Mary C. Hoover about 1873 in Maryland. She was born in Mar 1855 in Maryland. She died after 1920.

Notes for Jesse Ralston Hopkins:

Jesse Ralston Hopkins and his twin brother, Archibald F. Hopkins, were born September 30, 1838 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of ten children born to Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston. Enumerated twice during the 1860 census of Rockingham County, Jesse was working on the farm of his uncle, John Henton Rolston, Senior.

Jesse fought for the Confederate States of America during the Civil War, serving in the 10th infantry. After the war, prior to 1870, Jesse removed to Baltimore County, Maryland.

About 1873 in Maryland, Jesse married Miss Mary Hoover. Ten children were born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1880 Census of Sweet Air, Baltimore County, Maryland:

Jessee Hopkins Self	M	Male	W	40	VA	Laborer	---	---
Mary Hopkins Wife	M	Female	W	24	MD	Keeping House	MD	MD
Jessie Hopkins Dau	S	Female	W	6	MD		VA	MD
Sarah Hopkins Dau	S	Female	W	4	MD		VA	MD
Mary Hopkins Dau	S	Female	W	2	MD		VA	MD
Wilbert Hopkins Son	S	Male	W	1	MD		MD	MD
Sarah Alban Other	W	Female	W	38	MD	Work Cotton Mill	MD	MD

Jesse, 61 died September 1, 1900 in Baltimore, Maryland, preceding his wife in death, and was buried in the Saint Mary Episcopal Cemetery in Baltimore. Jesse was buried on September 3, 1900. His grave is not marked.

Notes for Mary C. Hoover:

Nine children were born to the couple, but in the 1900 census, Mary states that she had seven children and seven living. It is assumed that two of her older children (daughters Jessie or Mary or son Wilbert) had likely died.

- iii. PEACHY HARRISON HOPKINS was born on 12 Feb 1841 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 30 Aug 1918 in Virginia (age 77). He married Catherine A. Long, daughter of Albert Long and Mary Jane Needham, on 03 Oct 1867 in Virginia. She was born on 27 May 1844 in Virginia. She died on 16 Apr 1938 in Virginia (age 96).

Notes for Peachy Harrison Hopkins:

Peachy Harrison Hopkins was born February 12, 1841 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of ten children born to Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston. During the Civil War, Peachy served in Company H, 10th Regiment of the Virginia Volunteer Infantry for the Confederate States of America. He was wounded but survived.

On October 3, 1867 in Virginia, Harrison, age 26, married Catherine "Kate" A. Long. The couple farmed. Eleven children were born to their union. The four youngest children, sons ages 1 to 7, all died of Diphtheria between April 13 and 24, 1892. The following year, their son William died at the age of 21.

Peachy, 77, died August 30, 1918 in Virginia and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia. He was survived by his wife and six of their eleven children. Also known to have survived were two brothers, David and Erasmus Hopkins, and one sister, Mrs. Sarah Miller.

Notes for Catherine A. Long:

Catherine "Kate" A. Long was born May 27, 1844 in Virginia, the eldest child of Albert H.

- iv. ELIZABETH S. HOPKINS was born on 15 Nov 1842 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 18 Mar 1852 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 9).

Notes for Elizabeth S. Hopkins:

Elizabeth S. Hopkins was born November 15, 1842 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of ten children born to Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston.

Elizabeth, 9, died March 18, 1852 in Rockingham County, Virginia. Her place of burial is unknown.

- v. AGNES A. HOPKINS was born on 22 Sep 1845 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 14 Aug 1889 in Illinois (age 43).

Notes for Agnes A. Hopkins:

Agnes A. Hopkins was born December 6, 1844 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of ten children born to Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston. Her mother died in 1860 when Agnes was 15.

Agnes never married. In 1880 Agnes, age 35, was still living at home with her father. Her father died in 1883 at the age of 68. Agnes removed to Illinois, probably living with her sister, Mrs. Sarah Miller.

Agnes, 43, died August 14, 1889 in Illinois, and was buried in the Center Grove Cemetery in Kirkwood, Warren County, Illinois. She shares a tombstone with her niece, Hettie Miller (1878-1896), and nephew, Archibald Miller (1871-1898).

- vi. DAVID NEWTON HOPKINS was born on 11 Mar 1847 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 18 Dec 1929 in Fauquier Co., Va. (age 82). He married Ellen Copeland Rolston, daughter of Benjamin Fielding Rolston and Barbara Ann Burkholder, on 25 May 1871 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 20 Sep 1845 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 29 Sep 1930 in Lee Dist., Fauquier Co., Va. (age 85).

Notes for David Newton Hopkins:

David Newton Hopkins was born March 11, 1847 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of ten children born to Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston. In the 1870 census of Rockingham County, Virginia, David was residing with and working on the farm of his widowed aunt, Mrs. Hannah Rolston.

The following year on May 25, 1871 in Rockingham County, David married his 1st cousin, once removed, Ellen Copeland Rolston, The couple removed from Rockingham County sometime after their marriage and were enumerated on their farm in Fauquier County, Virginia in 1880. They remained there until their deaths. Five children were born to their union.

David, 82, preceded his wife in death on December 18, 1929 in Fauquier County, Virginia, and was buried in the Remington Cemetery in Remington, Fauquier County, Virginia.

Notes for Ellen Copeland Rolston:

Ellen "Ella" Copeland Rolston and her twin sister Rebecca were born September 20, 1845 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth and sixth of nine children born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston and Barbara Ann Burkholder. Ellen had a surviving half-brother and half-sister from her father's first marriage.

On May 25, 1871 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Ellen married David Newton Hopkins, her 1st cousin, once removed, Ellen and David were both descendants of David Rolstone Jr.. The couple had five children. In 1871 Ellen and her husband moved to Rappahannock, Fauquier County, Virginia, where they were enumerated during the 1880 census with one child, Fielding, age 1. David was a farmer, and perhaps a prosperous one as he has two servants in his household. The couple remained in Fauquier County until their deaths. In the 1900 census Ellen reports having had five children, all still living.

David, her husband of 58 years, preceded her in death in 1929. In the 1930 census, the widowed Ellen was enumerated in the Lee District of Fauquier County, Virginia, living with her son David and his family.

Ellen, 85, died September 29, 1930 in Lee, Fauquier County, Virginia, and joined her husband in the Remington Cemetery in Remington, Fauquier County, Virginia.

- vii. HANNAH C. HOPKINS was born on 25 Mar 1849 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died after 1881. She married Benjamin Franklin Rhinehart, son of Lorenzo Rhinehart and Elizabeth Comer, on 02 Mar 1881 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 02 May 1859 in Page Co., Va.. He died on 23 Jul 1939 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 80).

Notes for Hannah C. Hopkins:

Hannah C. Hopkins was born March 25, 1849 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the seventh of ten children born to Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston. In 1870 Hannah was residing with James and Susan Steele, working as a domestic servant. By 1880 Hannah had returned home and was living with her elderly father and her sister Agnes.

On March 2, 1881 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Hannah, age 28, married Benjamin "Ben" Frank Rhinehart, age 21. A son was born to the couple in September of 1881.

Nothing is known of Hannah nor her son after the reported birth in 1881. Her husband remarried in 1892.

Notes for Benjamin Franklin Rhinehart:

1880 census of the Linville District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

- viii. SARAH MARGARET HOPKINS was born on 27 Jan 1851 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 03 Dec 1940 in Jackson Twp., Henry Co., Iowa (age 89). She married David R. Miller, son of John Joseph Miller and Catherine Bowman, on 24 Oct 1869 in Virginia. He was born on 04 Feb 1849 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 31 Aug 1928 in Osceola Twp., Franklin Co., Iowa (age 79).

Notes for Sarah Margaret Hopkins:

Sarah Margaret Hopkins was born January 27, 1851 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eighth of ten children born to Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston.

On October 24, 1869 in Virginia, Sarah married David R. Miller. Two children were born to the couple. The family was enumerated during the 1880 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

David R. Miller	Self	M	Male	W	31	VA	Works On Farm	VA	VA
Sarah M. Miller	Wife	M	Female	W	29	VA	Keeping House	VA	VA
Archibald H. Miller	Son	S	Male	W	9	VA		VA	VA
Hester A. Miller	Dau	S	Female	W	2	VA		VA	VA

Sometime after 1880, the family removed to Illinois. Sarah's sister, Agnes, joined them. Her sister died in 1889, their daughter in 1896, and their son in 1898. After the 1910 census, the couple removed to Iowa, enumerated there in 1920. Her husband preceded her in death in August of 1928.

In the 1930 census of Jackson, Henry County, Iowa, the widow S. Margaret Miller, age 80, was residing with her nephew, Louis [Lewis] A. Hopkins and his family.

Bed ridden for several years, Sarah, 89, died of old age on December 3, 1940 near Salem in rural Jackson Township of Henry County, Iowa, and joined her husband in the Center Grove Cemetery in Kirkwood, Warren County, Illinois. The informant on her death certificate was her newpew Lewis Hopkins. Dates of death for Sarah and her husband were never encribed on their tombstone.

Notes for David R. Miller:

David may be the son of Joseph and Catherine Miller, enumerated in the 1850 census of District 56, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- ix. ERASMUS H. HOPKINS was born on 02 Jan 1854 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 10 Mar 1937 in Multnomah Co., Ore. (age 83).

Notes for Erasmus H. Hopkins:

Erasmus H. Hopkins was born January 2, 1854 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the ninth of ten children born to Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston. His whereabouts in 1880 are unknown, but by 1888, Erasmus had move to Oregon. He worked as a laborer and eventually as a farmer.

---

Erasmus was enumerated in the 1900 and 1920 censuses of Columbia County, Oregon. By 1930 he had moved to Troutdale, Multnomah County, Oregon. In the fall of 1929 Erasmus, complaining of crippled feet, moved into the Multnomah County [poor] Farm in Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon. Although he had been listed as single in all the previous censuses, he was noted as widowed. In 1930 he was enumerated as an inmate of the Multnomah County Poor Farm in Troutdale, Multnomah County, Oregon.

Erasmus, 83, died March 10, 1937 in Multnomah County, Oregon. His place of burial is unknown.

- x. THOMAS DEWITT B. HOPKINS was born on 27 Feb 1856 in North Mountain, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 19 Jul 1860 in North Mountain, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 4).

Notes for Thomas Dewitt B. Hopkins:

Thomas Dewitt B. Hopkins was born February 27, 1856 in North Mountain, Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of ten children born to Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston.

Dewitt, four, died July 19, 1860 in North Mountain, Rockingham County, Virginia. His father reported the child's age as two years. His place of burial is not known.

- 308. DAVID<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Jesse<sup>4</sup> Sr., David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 02 Feb 1818 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 18 Dec 1894 in Pierceton, Kosciusko Co., Ind. (age 76). He married (1) REBECCA I. WORKMAN, daughter of Joseph Channing Workman and Sarah Connor, on 30 Jan 1842 in Knox Co., Ohio. She was born on 25 Mar 1824 in Union, Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 28 Aug 1879 in Kosciusko Co., Ind. (age 55). He married (2) MARY HILL, daughter of Joseph Hill, on 15 Oct 1884 in Kosciusko Co., Ind.. She was born in 1827 in England. She died in 1897 in Indiana (age ~70).

Notes for David Rolston:

David Rolston was born February 2, 1818 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of ten children born to Jesse Rolston Sr. and Jane Hinton. He lived in Rockingham County until Sometime around 1840 when he removed to Knox County, Ohio.

On January 30, 1842 in Knox County, Ohio , David married Rebecca I. Workman, a native of Ohio. David and his family remained in Ohio until sometime after 1856 when they moved to new farm land in Kosciusko County, Indiana. The last two of their ten children were born there.

In September of 1861 the family, along with Rebecca's brother Lewis, removed to Fillmore County, Minnesota, but stayed there only a very short time before moving onto Iowa. Late that fall the Indians went on the warpath and came down the river murdering the people as they went. This trouble convince the two families that they had gone too far west, so in the fall of 1862, they returned to Kosciusko County, Indiana, where they spent the remainder of their lives.

Rebecca, David's wife of 37 years, died August 28, 1879 at the age of 55. In the 1880 census his daughters Sarah and Mary J. were living with him. Sarah was likely just visiting as she and her son were enumerated else where in 1880.

On October 5, 1884 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, David, age 64, married the widow Mrs. Mary Lathrope, the former Miss Mary Hill. No children were born to their union.

David, 76, died December 18, 1894 in Pierceton, Kosciusko County, Indiana, after being run over by a train. His place of burial is unknown. Five of his ten children had preceded him in death.

His second wife, Mary (1827-1897), was not named in the settlement of David's estate. The estate was divided into seven shares with five shares going to his surviving children and two shares divided among grandchildren born to David's deceased children:

Notes for Rebecca I. Workman:

Rebecca I. Workman was born March 25, 1824 in Knox County, Ohio, the daughter of Joseph Channing Workman and Sarah Connor. [Her birth date is calculated from her age at death.]

Rebecca married David Rolston on January 30, 1842 in Knox County, Ohio. She gave birth to ten children; the first eight were born in Knox County. About 1851 the family purchased a Bible [American Bible Society, 1851, New York], and the family birth dates were recorded. Rebecca is believed to have been the person who wrote in the names and dates.

David:	February 2, 1818
Rebecca:	March 25, 1824
Sarah Jane:	September 22, 1843
Aneliza:	March 1, 1845
Lucretia:	November 21, 1846
Lewis W.:	January 30, 1849
Joseph M.:	December 28, 1850
Frances Ellen:	October 10, 1852
Dorcas:	July 16, 1854
Josephine:	February 8, 1856
infant son:	November 16, 1860
Mary Jemima:	June 19, 1862

[The only deaths recorded in the Bible were those of Rebecca's parents. The Bible was handed down to the daughter of Mrs. Ann McConnell from Mrs. Lulu Snellenberger, the granddaughter of David Rolston and Rebecca Workman.]

In 1856 Rebecca's husband moved the family to Kosciusko County, Indiana where the last two of her ten children were born. Their ninth child, an unnamed son, appears to have died shortly after birth.

Rebecca, 55, preceded her husband in death on August 28, 1879 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, and was buried in the Washington Union Township Cemetery in Pierceton, Kosciusko County, Indiana. Four of her ten children had preceded her in death.

David Rolston and Rebecca I. Workman had the following children:

- i. SARAH JANE<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 22 Sep 1843 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 11 Oct 1915 in Niles, Berrien Co., Mich. (age 72). She married (1) JOHN JOSEPH RICE, son of William Rice and Lydia M, on 19 Jan 1863 in Kosciusko Co., Ind.. He was born on 27 May 1840 in Indiana. He died on 06 Apr 1881 in Whitley Co., Ind. (age 40). She married (2) UNKNOWN after 1880. She married (3) GEORGE WASHINGTON RUSSELL on 09 Aug 1902 in Kosciusko Co., Ind.. He was born on 28 Sep 1837 in Richland Co., Ohio. He died on 24 Nov 1909 in Pierceton, Noble Co., Ind. (age 72). She married (4) IRA D. KNAPP, son of Lemuel L. Knapp and Demmon, on 13 Nov 1912 in St. Joseph, Berrien Co., Mich.. He was born in Apr 1862 in Loraine Co., Ohio. He died in 1924 in Michigan (age ~61).

Notes for Sarah Jane Rolston:

Sarah Jane Rolston was born September 22, 1843 in Knox County, Ohio, the eldest of ten children born to David Rolston and Rebecca I. Workman. Sarah lived with her family in Knox County, Ohio, until 1856 when her father moved the family to Kosciusko County, Indiana.

On January 19, 1863 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Sarah, age 19, married John Joseph "J.J." Rice. {Marriage Book B, p. 529} This first marriage soon ended in divorce, but Sarah and John married once again three years later in February of 1866. They divorced a second time prior to 1870 as John and their two older children, Lina and William, were residing with his parents. Sarah and son, Jay's, whereabouts in 1870 are unknown. In 1880 Sarah was living with her father and son, Jay, was living with his maternal uncle, Lewis Rolston.

In 1886 Sarah gave birth to a son [out-of-wedlock?]. Sarah's daughter's 1943 obituary mentions stepbrother, Merl Rice. Sarah and Merl's whereabouts in 1900 are unknown.

On August 9, 1902 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Sarah J. Rice, age 59, married George Washington Russell, age 64. {Kosciusko County Marriage Book M:3} This was her third marriage and second husband. No children were born to the couple. Her husband George died in November of 1909. In 1910 Sarah was enumerated with her widowed stepson, Joseph H. Russell, in Piercent, Kosciusko County, Indiana. Sarah and her children then removed to Niles, Berrien County, Michigan.

On November 13, 1912 in St. Joseph, Berrien County, Michigan, the widowed Mrs. Sarah Russell, age 68, married Ira D. Knapp, age 52; Sarah's fourth marriage and third husband. No children were born to the couple.

Sarah, 72, died October 11, 1915 in Niles, Berrien County, Michigan, preceding her third husband in death. Death Certificate information was provided by her daughter, Mrs. Lina Strong. Sarah's body was returned to Indiana, and was buried as Sarah J. Russell in the Washington Union Cemetery in Pierceton, Kosciusko County, Indiana.

Notes for John Joseph Rice:

John Joseph "J. J." Rice was born May 27, 1840 in Whitley County, Indiana, the son of William and Lydia M. Rice. His parents were both born in New York. John grew up on the family farm in Whitley County, Indiana.

On January 19, 1863 in Whitley County, Indiana, John, age 22, married Sarah Jane Rolston. Three children were born to their union. The couple divorced, remarried in 1866, and divorced again. In the 1870 census John, daughter "Lina" and son William were enumerated with John's parents. The censustaker noted on the census, Lina and William as "Children of John Rice." John's wife was not present, and the couple appears to have separated and/or divorced.

On August 6, 1870 in Whitley County, Indiana, John married Amanda Irene Hand. Irene was 13 years his junior. The couple was enumerated in the 1880 census of Richland Township in Whitley County, Indiana with six children, the eldest being John's son William from his first marriage.

missed by his neighbors and friends."

In the 1900 census his widowed wife reports having had 12 children, 6 living. The 12 children may have included the four children from John's first wife.

Notes for George Washington Russell:

George Washington Russell was born September 28, 1837 in Richland County, Ohio.

On December 2, 1860 in Noble County, Indiana, George married Ermina Hutchins. In the 1880 census they were enumerated in Green, Noble County, Indiana, with five children:

George W Russell	Self	M	43	Ohio

Joseph Russell	Son	M	5	Indiana

His wife is assumed to have preceded him in death.

On August 9, 1902 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, George married Mrs. Sarah J. Rice, the former miss Sarah Jane Rolston. [From unknown source; Sarah is said to have been married to a Mr. Jones. Her husband had vanished and was declared dead.] No children were born to the couple.

George, 72, died November 24, 1909 in Piercetown, Noble County, Indiana. His place of burial is unknown. In the 1910 census of Piercetown, Kosciusko County, Indiana, his widow, Mrs. Sarah Russell, was enumerated with George's youngest son, Joseph H. Russell.

Notes for Ira D. Knapp:

Ira D. Knapp was born in April of 1862 in Ohio. His parentage is unknown. He was enumerated at the age of 20 in the 1880 census of St. Joseph, Berrien County, Michigan.

On November 24, 1881 Ira, age 21, married Ida L. Raymond, age 18. Seven children were born to the couple. Their first child was born in Michigan. Then the twin boys were born in Virginia in 1886. The next and remaining children were born in Michigan. The family was last enumerated in the 1900 census of Midland, Midland County, Michigan.

On November 13, 1912 in St. Joseph, Berrien County, Michigan, Ira married his second wife, the widow, Mrs. Sarah Jane Rolston Russell. No children were born to their union. She preceded him in death in 1915.

On October 23, 1919 in Jackson, Jackson County, Michigan, Ira, age 60, married Catherine L. Gamble Kelch, age 60. Although their marriage license gave Ira's age as 60, he was only about age 57. No children were born to their union.

Ira, about age 61, died of Smallpox in 1924 in Michigan and was buried in the Woodland Cemetery in Jackson, Jackson County, Michigan.

- ii. ANNE ELIZA RALSTON was born on 01 Mar 1846 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 08 Jun 1918 in Ponca City, Kay Co., Ok. (age 72). She married (1) SAMUEL ULERY on 24 Feb 1861 in Kosciusko Co., Ind.. He was born about 1836 in Ohio. He died on 13 Aug 1867 in Kosciusko Co., Ind. (age ~31). She married (2) ZACHARIAH T. MCGREW, son of John McGrue and Eliza J. ten children born to David Rolston and Rebecca I. Workman. Sarah lived in Knox County until the age of ten. About 1856, her family moved to Kosciusko County, Indiana.

Anne married Samuel Ulery on February 24, 1861 in Kosciusko County, Indiana. {Marriage Book B, p. 364} Three children were born to their union. Samuel preceded her in death on August 13, 1867.

Two years later on July 22, 1869 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Anne married Zachariah T. McGrew. Seven children are attributed to their union. Sometime after about 1877, the family moved from Kosciusko County, Indiana, to Ninnescah Township in Sedgewick County, Kansas. In 1894 the family moved to Ponca City, Kay County, Oklahoma. Anne and husband Zachariah remained there until their deaths. In the 1910 census their grandson Ralph, son of Seward McGrew, was enumerated with them.

Zachariah, Anne's husband of 41 years, died in November of 1915 at the age of 67.

Anne, 72, died on June 8, 1918 in Ponca City, Kay County, Oklahoma, and joined her husband in the IOOF cemetery in Ponca City. Date of death on her tombstone is June 28, 1918. The couple shares a tombstone with their daughter Myrtie and grandson Ralph.

Notes for Samuel Ulery:

Samuel Ulery was born about 1836 in Ohio; his parentage is unknown.

On February 24, 1861 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Samuel married Anne Eliza Ralston. Three children were born to the couple.

Samuel died on August 13, 1867 at the age of about 31. His place of burial is unknown.

Notes for Zachariah T. McGrew:

Zachariah "Zachery" T. McGrew was born March 26, 1848 in Kosciucko County, Indiana, the fifth of eight children born to John McGrue and Eliza J. Matthews.

On July 22, 1869 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Zachariah married the widow, Mrs. Anne Ulery, the former Miss Anne Elza Ralston, taking in her three young sons. The family removed to Kansas prior to 1800 and were enumerated in the 1800 census of Ninnescah, Sedgewick County, Kansas. Four of the couple's six children had been born by that time, and the youngest stepson was still living at home children born to David Rolston and Rebecca I. Workman. In 1856 when Lucretia was ten, her father moved the family from Knox County, Ohio, to Kosciusko County, Indiana.

On August 7, 1866 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Lucretia, age 19, married John Peter Hill, age 24. The couple was known to have had seven children, plus an adopted daughter Lula. Another child associated with Lucretia was a daughter named Jonnie. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Washington, Kosciusko County, Indiana:

John Hill		Self	M	Male	W	38	OH	Farmer		PA	PA

John, Lucretia's husband of nearly 34 years, died July 8, 1899 at the age of 57. Although deceased, John was enumerated in the 1900 census. Also enumerated with the family was their grandson, John C. Hill, born April 1894. This grandchild was the child of Lucretia's eldest son, David Hill. Guardianship Reports Index (1871 - 1964) lists John P. Hill, Book 10, Pages 89 and 372.

On December 16, 1903 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, the widowed Lucretia, age 57, married Jared W. Harter (Kosciusko County marriage records, Book M, Page 212). No children were born from their union.

The couple was seperated when Lucretia, 60, died July 7, 1907 in Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Indiana. She was buried with her first husband in the Washington Union Township Cemetery in Pierceton, Kosciusko County, Indiana.

Notes for John Peter Hill:

John Peter Hill was born July 6, 1842 in Ohio. His parentage is unknown, but according to census data, his parents were from Pennsylvania. When he removed to Indiana is unknown.

On August 7, 1866 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, John, age 24, married Lucretia H. Rolston, age 19. The couple farmed, and from their union, seven children were born.

John, 57, died July 8, 1899 on a farm near Pierceton, Kosciusko County, Indiana, when he was accidentally shot. He was buried in the Washington Union Township Cemetery in Pierceton. He was survived by his wife Lucretia and their seven children. Although deceased, John was enumerated in the 1900 census.

Notes for Jared W. Harter:

On July 7, 1892 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Jared married Nancy E. Simison. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of Wayne Township of Kosciusko County, Indiana:

Jared W Harter	Head	Male	35	Indiana
Nancy E Harter	Wife	Female	34	Illinois (3/2)
Ethel B Harter	Daughter	Female	6	Indiana
Edna M Harter	Daughter	Female	3	Indiana

On December 16, 1903 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Jared married Mrs. Lucretia Hill, the former Miss Lucretia H. Rolston. The couple separated but had not divorced. His estranged wife died in July 1907.

On December 6, 1909 in Warsaw, Indiana, Jared, age 43, married Mrs. Emma Kreamer, the former Miss Emma Adams, age 46. Both had been married twice before. The couple was enumerated in the 1910 census of Lake Township of Kosciusko County, Indiana:

Jared Harter	Head	Male	44	Indiana
Emma Harter	Wife	Female	43	Indiana (2/2)
Nellie Harter	Daughter	Female	19	Indiana
Samuel Harter	Son	Male	16	Indiana
William Harter	Son	Male	9	Indiana
James Harter	Brother	Male	38	Indiana

The couple was enumerated in the 1930 census of Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Indiana.

Jared, about age 72, died in 1937 Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Indiana, and was buried in the Oakwood Cemetery in Warsaw.

- iv. LEWIS WILLIAM ROLSTON was born on 30 Jan 1849 in Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 04 Jan 1909 in Warsaw, Kosciusko Co., Ind. (age 59). He married (1) RACHEL A. VANFERSON, daughter of Charles Vanferson and Maria, on 04 Jul 1869 in Kosciusko Co., Ind.. She was born on 10 Aug 1851 in Ohio. She died on 25 Apr 1878 in Kosciusko Co., Ind. (age 26). He married (2) MARY SCHOLES, daughter of John Scholes, between 1878-1880 in Kosciusko Co., Ind.. She was born about 1860 in Ohio. He married (3) CAROLINE BEAM about 1881 in Kosciusko Co., Ind.. She was born in Jul 1856 in Indiana. She died on 27 Jun 1901 in Kosciusko Co., Ind. (age 44).

Notes for Lewis William Rolston:

Lewis William Rolston was born January 30, 1849 in Knox County, Ohio, the fourth of ten children born to David Rolston and Rebecca I. Workman. In 1856, at the age of six or seven, the family moved from Knox County, Ohio to Kosciusko County, Indiana. There, Lewis remained for the rest of his life.

On July 4, 1869 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Lewis married Rachel A. Vanferson. Four children were born to their union. Rachel died in 1878. Lewis gave up their four children.

Lewis then married his second wife, Mary Scholes, in Kosciusko County, Indiana. The couple was enumerated on their farm in the 1880 census of Washington Township of Kosciusko County, Indiana:

Lewis Ralston	Self	M	30	Ohio
Mary Ralston	Wife	F	20	Ohio
Thomas Ulessy	Nephew	M	18	Iowa [son of deceased sister, Mrs. Annie Ulery]
Jay Rice	Nephew	M	9	Indiana [son of divorced sister, Mrs. Sarah Rice]
Bertha Robinson	Niece	F	7	Indiana [daughter of deceased sister, Mrs. Frances Robinson]

They were enumerated with two of his nephews, Thomas Ulessy [Ulery] and Jay Rice, and one niece, Bertha Robinson. A bit odd considering that he had given away his own children. Two of his children, Eva, age 9, and Ray, age 7, were residing with Samuel and Fanny Swihart in neighboring Tippecanoe Township. His other two children, Edith and Roy, were unaccounted for in 1880. Lewis's second marriage is thought to have ended either by death or divorce, shortly after the 1880 census.

About 1881 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Lewis married his third wife, Caroline Beam; however, the 1900 census states they had been married for 13 years, about 1887. The couple had four children. One of the sons was reported as born on 24 December, 1887, but census data does not confirm this information. Third wife Caroline died in 1901.

Kosciusko County records show Lewis Rolston marrying Margaret Jones on June 13, 1902. {Book L, Page 575} This could be a fourth marriage for Lewis.

Lewis, 59, died January 4, 1909 in Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Indiana, and was buried in the Washington Union Township Cemetery in Pierceton, Kosciusko County, Indiana. His first and third wives were also buried there.

Notes for Rachel A. Vanferson:

Rachel A. VanFerson was born August 10, 1851 in Ohio, the daughter of Charles and Maria VanFerson. Rachel's surname may be a variation of VanPherson. Her family moved to Indiana when she was a child.

On July 4, 1869 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Rachel married Lewis William Rolston. Four children were born to the couple. Her husband committed suicide.

Rachel, 26, died on April 25, 1878 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, and was laid to rest in the Washington Union Township Cemetery in Peirceton, Kosciusko County, Indiana.

Notes for Mary Scholes:

Mary Scholes was born about 1860 in Ohio, the daughter of John Scholes [unconfirmed]. Her parents, according to the 1880 census, were from Ireland.

Mary became the second wife of Lewis W. Rolston sometime between 1878 and 1800. This union was short lived as Lewis married his third wife about 1881. It is not known if Mary and Lewis divorced or if Mary was deceased.

Notes for Caroline Beam:

Caroline Beam was born in July of 1856 in Indiana. Her parentage is unknown, but they were born in Germany. Beam may not have been her maiden name, and there is no record of Caroline until after her marriage.

About 1881 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Caroline married Lewis W. Rolston, becoming his third wife. Four children are attributed to their union. In the 1900 census Caroline states she has four children and four children living, but according to the same census, Lewis and Caroline had only been married 13 years. The eldest three children, however, were over 13 years of age.

Kosciusko County, Indiana birth records (Book H-2, page 14) shows Caroline and Lewis having a son born on the 24th of December, 1887. Although the year conflicts with census data, this was son Jud.

Caroline, 44, preceded her husband in death on June 27, 1901 in Kosciusko County, Indiana and was buried in the Washington Union Township Cemetery in Pierceton, Kosciusko County, Indiana. Besides her husband, her four children also survived her.

- v. JOSEPH H. ROLSTON was born on 28 Dec 1850 in Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 28 Sep 1872 in Kosciusko Co., Ind. (age 21).

Notes for Joseph H. Rolston:

Joseph H. Rolston was born December 28, 1850 in Knox County, Ohio, the fifth of ten children born to David Rolston and Rebecca I. Workman. His early childhood was spent in Knox County, Ohio until 1856 when the family moved to Kosciuska County, Indiana.

Joseph, 21, died in Kosciuska County on September 28, 1872. His place of burial is unknown.

- vi. FRANCIS ELLEN ROLSTON was born on 10 Oct 1852 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died between 1876-1880 in Warsaw, Kosciusko Co., Ind.. She married James William Robinson, son of Isaac Robinson and Harriet, in Jun 1871 in Kosciusko Co., Ind.. He was born on 12 Jun 1850 in Fort Wayne, Allen Co., Ind.. He died on 03 Mar 1928 in Oxford, Sumner Co., Kan. (age 77).

Notes for Francis Ellen Rolston:

Francis Ellen "Ella" Rolston was born October 10, 1852 in Knox County, Ohio, the eighth of ten children born to David Rolston and Rebecca I. Workman. In 1856 her father moved the family from Ohio to Kosciusko County, Indiana. Francis, age 8, was enumerated with the family in the 1860 census.

In early June of 1871 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Ella married James William Robinson. The couple is believed to have remained in Kosciusko County where they had two children.

Ella died early in life, sometime after 1876 but before 1880. Her place of burial is unknown.

Her two children were enumerated with relatives during the 1880 census.

In the March 1900 probate of her father David Rolston's estate, Ella Rolston was listed as his deceased daughter leaving two children as heirs.

Notes for James William Robinson:

James William Robinson was born June 12, 1850 in Allen County, Indiana, the son of Isaac Robinson and his wife Harriet.

In June of 1871 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, James married Francis Ellen "Ella" Rolston. The couple had two children before Ella's premature death in the late 1870's. James sent the two young children off to live with different relatives.

By 1880 James had married his second wife, Mary Alzine Alderson, and the couple resided in Kansas until 1901. Twelve children were born to their union. One of their sons had died in 1888. The family was enumerated in the 1895 census of Sumner, Atchison County, Kansas; this town no longer exists.

James, 77, preceded his wife in death on March 3, 1928 in Oxford, Sumner County, Kansas, and was buried in the Oxford Cemetery in Oxford.

- vii. DORCUS JANE ROLSTON was born on 16 Jul 1854 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 07 Apr 1883 in Van Buren Co., Mich. (age 28). She married Jacob J. Leedy, son of Abraham Study Leedy and Salome Brallier, on 28 Dec 1874 in Kosciusko Co., Ind.. He was born on 10 Jun 1853 in Kosciusko Co., Ind.. He died on 18 Oct 1917 in Washington, Daviess Co., Ind. (age 64).

Notes for Dorcus Jane Rolston:

Dorcus Jane Rolston was born July 16, 1854 in Knox County, Ohio the sixth of ten children born to David Rolston and Rebecca I. Workman. About two years later her father moved the family to Kosciusko County, Indiana. Dorcus grew up in Kosciusko County.

On December 28, 1874 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Dorcus married Jacob J. Leedy. She was a homemaker. The couple remained in Kosciusko County until sometime after the birth of their third child in 1878. They then moved to Bangor in Van Buren County, Michigan, where they were enumerated during the 1880 census of Bangor, Van Buren County, Michigan:

Union Cemetery in Kosciusko County, Indiana. She was survived by Jacob, her husband of 8 years, and their five children.

Notes for Jacob J. Leedy:

Jacob J. Leedy was born June 10, 1853 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, the son of Abraham Study Leedy and Salome Brallier. He is also found as Jacob B. Leedy.

On December 28, 1874 in Kosciusko County, Indiana, Jacob married Dorcus Jane Rolston. The couple started their family there but moved to Bangor, Van Buren County, Michigan sometime between 1878 and the 1880 census. A few years later on April 7, 1883 and shortly after the birth of their fifth child, his wife Dorcus died. Jacob returned to Kosciusko County, Indiana to bury his wife and probably moved there at that time.

On September 15, 1887 Kosciusko County, Indiana, Jacob married Mary Jane Mock and fathered nine more children, two of which died as an infants.

Jacob, 64, died October 18, 1917 in Washington, Daviess County, Indiana, and was buried in the Washington Union Township Cemetery in Pierceton, Kosciusko County, Indiana. He was survived by Mary, his wife of 30 years.

Warsaw Times-Union (Indiana)

Jacob J. Leedy, son of Abram and Sally Brailier Leedy, was born in Kosciusko County, Indiana June 10, 1853 and departed this life October 18, 1917, aged 64 years, 4 months, and 8 days. He was married December 31, 1874 to Dorcas Rolston. To this union five children were born, 2 sons and 3 daughters. In the year 1883 she departed this life and leaving her husband and children to mourn her loss. On September 15, 1887 he was united in marriage to Mary Jane Mock. To this union were born 9 children, 4 sons and 5 daughters. One son and 2 daughters preceded him in death to the spirit world in their infancy. He spent most of his life in Kosciusko county near his birthplace. The remaining years were spent in Michigan, St Joseph and Marshall counties of Indiana. He is survived by his wife and 11 children, 19 grandchildren, a brother and a host of relatives and friends.

- viii. JOSEPHINE ROLSTON was born on 08 Feb 1856 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 06 Dec 1867 in Kosciusko Co., Ind. (age 11).

Notes for Josephine Rolston:

Josephine Rolston was born February 8, 1856 in Knox County, Ohio, the seventh of ten children born to David Rolston and Rebecca I. Workman. Shortly after she was born the family picked up and moved to Kosciusko County, Indiana.

Josephine, age 11, died December 6, 1867 in Kosciusko County, Indiana. Her place of burial is unknown.

- ix. INFANT SON ROLSTON was born on 16 Nov 1860 in Kosciusko Co., Ind..
- x. MARY JEMIMA RALSTON was born on 19 Jun 1862 in Cerro Gordo Co., Iowa. She died on 12 Feb 1938 in Ft. Wayne, Allen Co., Ind. (age 75). She married John W. Ryan, son of James Ryan and Esther Ann Fulkner, on 09 Aug 1881 in Warsaw, Kosciusko Co., Ind.. He was born on 05 Jun 1859 in Pierceton, Kosciusko Co., Ind.. He died on 07 Feb 1937 in Anderson, Madison Co., Ind. (age 77).

Notes for Mary Jemima Ralston:

Mary Jemima Ralston was born June 19, 1862 in Cerro Gordo County, Iowa, the youngest of ten children born to David Rolston and Rebecca I. Workman. Her place of birth, Cerro Gordo County, Iowa, is most peculiar for a couple who lived their lives in Kosciusko County, Indiana.

On August 9, 1881 in Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Indiana, Mary married John W. Ryan. Five children were born to the couple. Their first born died at the age of 2. In the March

Mary, 75, died February 12, 1938 in Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana, and joined her husband in the Washington Union Township Cemetery in Pierceton, Kosciusko County, Indiana.

Fort Wayne Journal Gazette - Sunday, February 13, 1938

Mrs Mary Ryan, 76, died unexpectedly of a heart attack at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the home of a son. Born in Pierceton, she resided in Warsaw 55 years until moving to Fort Wayne a year ago. She was a member of the First Church of the Brethren.

The body was removed to Mungovan & Son's mortuary.

Notes for Mary Hill:

Mary Hill was born in 1827 in England.

She married Robert Lathrope, also born in England. The couple married in England and had one child. It is not known when the family came to the Americas, but they appeared in the 1870 census of Indiana. Mary, her husband and their son were enumerated in the 1880 census of Wayne, Kosciusko County, Indiana:

Robert Lathrope	M	52	England	Farmer
Mary Lathrope	F	52	England
Henry Lathrope	M	31	England	Farmer
Ulda Lathrope	F	21	Indiana (daughter-in-law)

Her husband died the following year.

David, her husband of ten years, preceded her in death in December of 1894.

Mary, about age 70, died in 1897 in Indiana and was buried in the Oakwood Cemetery in Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Indiana.

Notes for William Rolston:

William Rolston was born February 5, 1820 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of ten children born to Jesse Rolston Sr. and Jane Hinton.

On April 7, 1842 in Rockingham County, Virginia, William married his 1st cousin, Elizabeth Rolston, the daughter of Benjamin F. Rolston and Catharine Beery, who were William's uncle and aunt. The couple lived their entire lives in Rockingham County and raised 12 children. Four children died in early childhood. During the 1850 Rockingham census, William and his family of six children were found living next door to his parents, Jesse and Jane Rolston. William was listed as a laborer and likely worked on his father's farm. William's brother Benjamin also lived next door.

In 1869 their youngest child died at age 1-1/2. The place of death was listed as Joe's Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia. William and Elizabeth's residence was likely located along Joe's Creek.

William, 67, died May 5, 1887 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried as William Rolston in the Cooks Creek Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. He was survived by Elizabeth, his wife of 45 years, and eight of their twelve children.

Notes for Elizabeth Rolston:

Elizabeth "Betsy" Rolston was born September 16, 1823 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of three children to be born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston and his first wife, Catharine Beery. Elizabeth's mother died when she was a young child. Her father married Barbara Ann Burkholder in 1834. From her father's second marriage, Elizabeth had five half-brothers and four half-sisters.

On April 7, 1842 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Elizabeth married her 1st cousin, William Rolston, son of Jesse Rolston Sr. and Jane Hinton, Elizabeth's aunt and uncle. Elizabeth's brother, Abraham, later married William's sister, Hannah. Elizabeth and William had twelve children. Only eight of the twelve children lived to adulthood. On May 5, 1887, William, her husband of 44 years, died at the age of 67.

Mary, 75, died July 11, 1899 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and joined her husband in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston had the following children:

- i. LUCRETIA J.<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 07 Sep 1842 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 15 Nov 1911 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 69). She married Joseph Howver, son of John Howver and Barbary Funk, on 05 Jul 1863 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 21 Dec 1841 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 28 Jun 1900 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 58).

Notes for Lucretia J. Rolston:

Lucretia J. Rolston was born September 7, 1842 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of twelve children born to 1st cousins, William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston.

On July 5, 1863 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, Lucretia married Joseph Howver. Joseph was of the United Brethren faith. Lucretia left the Presbyterian church and join the faith of her husband. The couple had six children. Their fifth child died at the age of two days. The remaining five children were all brought up in the Brethren faith. Lucretia and Joseph were lifelong residents of the Rockingham area, farming in the Linville area.

In January of 1891 their daughter Leana, Mrs. Simon Kagey, died. Leana's daughters, Bertha and Manola, lived with Lucretia and her husband after their mother's death. Two years later in January of 1893, Lucretia's daughter Sallie died. Joseph, Lucretia's husband of nearly thirty-seven years, died June 28, 1900 at the age of 58. After her husband's death, Lucretia lived with her eldest son, John.

Lucretia, 69, died November 15, 1911 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and joined her husband in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia. Four of Lucretia's six children had preceded her in death; she was survived by son John Perry Howver and daughter Siddle, Mrs. David Ralston Deavers.

Notes for Joseph Howver:

Joseph Howver was born December 21, 1841 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the the second of four sons born to John Howver and Barbara Funk. His mother died in 1850 when Joseph was eight years old. His father later remarried but died during the Civil War.

On July 5, 1863 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, Joseph married Lucretia J. Rolston. Joseph was a farmer and member of the Brethren faith. Lucretia was pregnant with their sixth child at the time of the 1880 census. Living with the family during that census was Joseph's stepmother, Mary.

Joseph, 58, died June 28, 1900 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen. He was survived by Lucretia, his wife of 36 years, and three of their six children.

- ii. SARAH CATHERINE ROLSTON was born on 27 Dec 1843 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died in 1901 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 57). She married Benjamin Franklin Dove, son of George Dove III and Melvina Peach, on 15 Oct 1866 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 26 Nov 1843 in Virginia. He died in 1901 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 57).

Notes for Sarah Catherine Rolston:

Sarah "Sallie" Catherine Rolston was born December 27, 1843 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of twelve children to be born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. Her middle initial, "C" or sometimes found as "K", was likely for Catherine or Katherine. In 1860 Sarah's family was residing next door to the Dove family.

On October 15, 1866 Sarah married her neighbor, Benjamin Franklin Dove. The couple resided in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, where they farmed and raised a family of seven children. One child died in infancy or as a young child. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Linville, Rockingham County, Virginia:

Benjamin F. Dove	Self	M	Male	W	38	VA	Farmer	VA	VA
Sarah C. Dove	Wife	M	Female	W	38	VA	Keeping House	VA	VA
Luie V. Dove	Dau	S	Female	W	11	VA	At Home	VA	VA

Linie Dove	Dau	S	Female	W	6	VA		VA	VA
Homer Dove	Son	S	Male	W	3	VA		VA	VA
Thomas J. Dove	Brother		Male	W	30	VA	Boarder	VA	VA

Sarah and her husband, both age 57, died in 1901 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and were buried at the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia. Sarah was a lifelong resident of Rockingham County. Two of her seven children preceded her in death.

Notes for Benjamin Franklin Dove:

Benjamin Franklin "Frank" Dove was born November 26, 1843 in Virginia, the second of twelve children known to have been born to George Dove III and Melvina Peach. He was known as Franklin and later as Frank. In 1860 Franklin was 17, living in Harrisonburg and working on his father's farm. They lived next door to the Rolston family.

On October 15, 1866 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Benjamin married his neighbor, Sarah C. Rolston. Seven children were born to the couple, but one died in infancy. Benjamin was a farmer and carpenter.

Benjamin and his wife both die in 1901 and were buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singer Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- iii. ANN E. ROLSTON was born on 25 Nov 1845 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 18 Jan 1912 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 66). She married John Frederick Wright, son of Lawson Wright and Nancy B. Redner, on 29 Dec 1887 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 15 May 1860 in Augusta Co., Va.. He died on 03 Mar 1913 in Linville Dist., Rockingham Co., Va. (age 52).

Notes for Ann E. Rolston:

Ann "Annie" E. Rolston was born November 25, 1845 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of twelve children born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. She was known as Annie. Her middle initial 'E' was probably for Elizabeth after her mother. Ann was a lifelong resident of Rockingham County. She lived a spinster's life at the home of her parents until the death of her father in 1887.

On December 29, 1887 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Annie, age 42, married John Frederick Wright, age 27. No children were born to the couple.

Ann, 66, died January 18, 1912 in Harrisonburg, Virginia, and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by her husband of 25 years; he died the following year. Besides her husband, Ann was survived by sisters, Alice and Hanna, and brothers, Abraham and John.

Notes for John Frederick Wright:

John Frederick Wright was born May 15, 1860 in Augusta County, Virginia, the son of Lawson Wright and Nancy B. Redner.

On December 29, 1887 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John, age 27, married Ann E. Rolston, age 42. No children were born to the couple. Ann, his wife of 24 years, preceded him in death on January 18, 1912 at the age of 66.

On December 18, 1912 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John, age 52, married Mrs. Hettie L. Kenney, the former Miss Hettie Lou Ritchie, age 32.

John, 52, died of stomach cancer the following year on March 3, 1913 in the Linville District of Rockingham County, Virginia, and joined his first wife in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia. Informant on his death certificate was Alice Wright, Harrisonburg.

- iv. SILAS W. ROLSTON was born on 19 Oct 1847 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 09 Sep 1904 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 56). He married Julia Ann Johnson, daughter of William B. Johnson and Mary Horne, on 03 Oct 1872 in Linville Creek, Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 23 Jan 1848 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 05 Jun 1877 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 29).

Notes for Silas W. Rolston:

Silas W. Rolston was born October 19, 1847 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of twelve children born to 1st cousins, William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. Silas, like his ancestors before him, grew up to become a farmer.

On October 3, 1872 in Linville Creek of Rockingham County, Virginia, Silas married Julia Ann Johnson. The couple had three children, but only their first child survived to adulthood. On June 5, 1877, days after the stillbirth of their third child, Silas's wife of five years died from complications from her recent stillbirth. Silas was 29 at that time of her death. His only surviving child was his daughter Lucy who was then age three. There is no record of Silas remarrying.

Silas, 56, died September 9, 1904 in Singes Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen. He had been a lifelong resident of Rockingham County.

Notes for Julia Ann Johnson:

Julia Ann Johnson was born January 23, 1848 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of William B. Johnson and Mary Horne. She was enumerated in the 1870 census living with Silas and his family.

On October 3, 1872 in Linville Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia, Julia married Silas W. Rolston. Julia conceived three children of which only one survived.

Julia, 29, died June 5, 1877 in Rockingham County, Virginia, a week after giving birth to the couple's third child, William. This son died the same day as his birth, possibly a still birth, and Julia's death was likely from complications arising from this birth. Both were buried at the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia. Julia was survived by Silas, her husband of but five years, and their first child, daughter Lucy, who was but three years old.

- v. SAMANTHA ROLSTON was born on 28 Dec 1848 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 04 Dec 1851 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 2).

Notes for Samantha Rolston:

Samantha Rolston was born December 28, 1848 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of twelve children born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. In the 1850 census of Rockingham County, Virginia, Samantha appears as Mary, age six months.

According to the research of Robert Swank, Samantha died December 4, 1851, three weeks before her third birthday. Her place of burial is unknown.

- vi. ABRAHAM D. ROLSTON was born on 16 Nov 1852 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 13 Oct 1944 in Monmouth Twp., Warren Co., Ill. (age 91). He married Alberta Elizabeth Nisewarner, daughter of William A. Nisewarner and Barbara Leonard, on 15 Nov 1877 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 06 Apr 1857 in Berryville, Clarke Co., Va.. She died on 16 May 1935 in Monmouth Twp., Warren Co., Ill. (age 78).

Notes for Abraham D. Rolston:

Abraham "Abram" D. Rolston was born November 16, 1852 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of twelve children born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. Growing up on his father's farm, Abraham would also become a farmer.

On November 15, 1877 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Abraham married Alberta "Bertie" Elizabeth Nisewarner. The couple had six children over the course of the next twenty years. They started their family in Rockingham County where Abraham, and his young family were enumerated during the 1880 census along with Abraham's brother John who was living with them. Within a year or so after the census, Abraham moved the family West to Kansas and then pushed on into Illinois. By 1895 they resided in Phelps, Warren County, Illinois, where their last two children were born. In the 1900 census, Abraham's widowed older brother, Silas, was living with them. Abram, as he was then known, had put aside farming and had gone into business as a coal dealer. He then went into general merchandise. Bertie, Abraham's wife of nearly 60 years, preceded him in death on May 16, 1935 at the age of 78.

Abraham, 91, died October 13, 1944 in Monmouth Township of Warren County, Illinois, and was buried as Abram D. Ralston in the Monmouth Cemetery in Monmouth.

Nathan Huston and Mary Hill, on 22 Dec 1881 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 27 Sep 1859 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 03 Apr 1948 in Monmouth, Warren Co., Ill. (age 88).

Notes for John David Rolston:

John David Rolston/Ralston was born April 12, 1856 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eighth of twelve children born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. He was not living at home during the 1870 census, and as a young adult in 1880, he was living with his older brother Abraham and family. As an adult, John used the Ralston surname.

On December 22, 1881 in Rockingham County, John married Martha "Mattie" Jane Huston. The couple moved to Illinois where they raised five children, three daughters and two sons. According to the census of Lenox Township in Warren County, Illinois, where the family was enumerated in 1900 and 1910, their second child Minnie was born in Virginia in 1886. All the other children were born in Illinois. It seems that the family left Illinois and returned to Virginia for some period of time, only to go back to Illinois.

John, 79, preceded his wife in death on July 5, 1935 in Tompkins, Warren County, Illinois, and was buried as John D. Ralston in the Monmouth Cemetery in Monmouth, Warren County, Illinois.

Notes for Martha Jane Huston:

Martha "Mattie" J. Huston was born September 27, 1859 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of Nathan Huston and Mary Hill. Martha was enumerated in Linville, Rockingham county, Virginia during the 1880 census. She was living with her widowed mother. Martha's maternal uncle, John Hill was living with them.

The following year on December 22, 1881 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Mattie, age 22, married John David Rolston, age 25. The couple moved to Illinois where they farmed. All their five children were born in Illinois except for their second child who, according to the 1900 and 1910 census, was born in Virginia. In 1900 four children had been born to the couple and four were living. In the 1910 census Martha states she has had five children and all five are still living. Whether there were really only five births is curious as there is a seven year gap between the birth of their second and third child. John, Martha's husband of 53 years, preceded her in death on July 5, 1935.

Martha, 88, died April 3, 1948 in Monmouth, Warren County, Illinois and was buried as Martha J. Ralston in the Monmouth Cemetery in Monmouth.

- ix. JESSE M. ROLSTON was born on 19 Mar 1858 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 15 Sep 1862 in Joe's Creek, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 4).

Notes for Jesse M. Rolston:

Jesse M. Rolston was born March 19, 1858 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the ninth of twelve children born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. [Some sources list him as Jesse Marion Byrd Rolston, born March 21, 1858 in Brush Land, Virginia.]

Jesse died September 15, 1862 at Joe's Creek, Rockingham County at the age of four. Cause of death, unknown. His place of burial in Rockingham County is unknown.

- x. ALICE E. ROLSTON was born on 13 Apr 1860 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 18 Nov 1922 in Monmouth, Warren Co., Ill. (age 62). She married William Henry Rinker, son of Jonathan Rinker and Anna, on 20 Dec 1883 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born in Jun 1861 in Virginia. He died on 21 Aug 1931 in Monmouth, Warren Co., Ill. (age 70).

Notes for Alice E. Rolston:

Alice E. Rolston was born April 13, 1860 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the tenth of twelve children born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston.

On December 20, 1883 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Alice married William Henry

Rinker. Four children were born to the couple while they lived in Virginia. In 1891 the family moved to Warren County, Illinois. In the 1900 census they were residing in Lenox Township of Warren County, Illinois. The census shows that five children had been born, but only four were living. In 1902 their sixth child was born. By 1910 the family had moved to Monmouth City, Warren County, Illinois.

Alice, 62, preceded her husband in death on November 18, 1922 in Monmouth City, Warren County, Illinois, and was buried in the Monmouth Cemetery in Monmouth. Besides her husband and five children, Alice was survived by two brothers: Abraham and John Rolston, and one sister: Mrs. Hannah Hoover.

Notes for William Henry Rinker:

William Henry Rinker was born in June of 1861 in Virginia, the youngest of eight children born to Jonathan and Anna Rinker. William, along with his parents and siblings, were enumerated in the 1880 census of Plains Township of Rockingham County, Virginia:

Jonathan Rinker VA VA	Self	M	Male	W	61	VA	Runs Grist Mill

William H. Rinker VA VA	Son	S	Male	W	19	VA	Farm Laborer

On December 20, 1883 in Rockingham County, Virginia, William married Alice E. Rolston. Six children are attributed to their union Their fifth child died as an infant or in early childhood. William moved the family to Warren County, Illinois sometime in 1891. His wife preceded him in death in 1922.

William, 70, died August 21, 1931 in Monmouth, Warren County, Illinois, and joined his wife in the Monmouth Cemetery in Monmouth.

- xi. HANNAH MINNIE ROLSTON was born on 09 Feb 1863 in Joe's Creek, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 07 Sep 1939 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 76). She married Joseph Franklin Hoover, son of Cyrus Hoover and Lydia Flick, on 05 Mar 1896 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 03 Feb 1863 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 08 Mar 1950 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 87).

Notes for Hannah Minnie Rolston:

Hannah Minnie Rolston was born February 9, 1863 in Joe's Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia, the eleventh of twelve children and youngest daughter born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston.

On March 5, 1896 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, Hannah, age 33, married the widower, Joseph F. Hoover, also age 33, becoming his second wife and step-mother to his two surviving children. Joseph's first wife, Louisa, was Minnie's elder sister's daughter. Minnie was both a great aunt and step-mother to the two children. Minnie and Joseph had two sons of their own.

Hannah, 76, died September 7, 1939 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried as Minnie H. Hoover in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia. {Death Certificate #20921} She was survived by Joseph, her husband of 43 years, and their two sons. Also surviving was her stepdaughter, Mrs. Gertie Hoover.

Notes for Joseph Franklin Hoover:

Joseph Franklin Hoover was born February 3, 1863 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of fourteen children born to Cyrus Hoover and Lydia Flick. In 1875 when Joseph was 12 years of age, his father died. Joseph, his younger sister and their mother were enumerated in the 1880 census of the Linville District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

Lydia Hoover	Self	W	Female	W	56	VA	Keeping House
Mary S. Hoover		Dau	S	Female	W	19	VA At Home
Joseph F. Hoover		Son	S	Male	W	17	VA Laborer

On December 25, 1887 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, Joseph married Louisa V. Dove, the eldest known child of Benjamin Franklin Dove and Sarah C. Rolston. Joseph and Louise had three daughters before Louise died on October 14, 1893 at the age of 24. Seven months later on May 6, 1894, Joseph's youngest child Louie died.

On March 5, 1896 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, two years after his wife Louisa's death, Joseph married Louisa's maternal aunt, Minnie E. Rolston, the youngest daughter of William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. Joseph and Minnie had two sons. Minnie died September 7, 1939 at the age of 76. After Minnie's death, Joseph moved in with his son Weldon.

Joseph, 87, died March 8, 1950 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia as were both of his wives. He was survived by Mrs. Gertie Hoover, the only surviving daughter from his first wife, and sons Lester and Weldon, from his second wife.

Residing next door to her was Captian James Steele and his wife Susan Rolston, Lucretia's sister.

Lucretia, 58, died December 16, 1880 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County. Her tombstone was broken, and only the base remains.

Notes for John Hinton Cromer:

John Hinton Cromer was born June 10, 1820 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of eight children born to Joseph Cromer and his wife Mary. John's mother died in 1838 when he was 18 years old. His father married Hannah Smootz, and John had one half-brother and three half-sisters from his father's second marriage.

On February 6, 1844 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John married Lucretia Rolston. The couple resided in Rockingham County where they farmed and their eight children were born and raised. In the 1850 census of Rockingham County, John and his family were residing next to his father. John served during the Civil War. Seven children had been born to the couple at the onset of the Civil War. His wife Lucretia became pregnant with their eighth child when John returned.

John, 42, died of a war related illness on March 17, 1863 in Virginia, and was buried at the Cromer Family Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia.

John Hinton Cromer and Lucretia Rolston had the following children:

- i. DAVID R.<sup>6</sup> CROMER was born on 06 Jun 1845 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 26 May 1902 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va. (age 56). He married Cecelia Frances Lineweaver, daughter of David Lineweaver and Sarah J. Messick, on 19 Jan 1871 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 17 Jun 1842 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 10 Jan 1892 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va. (age 49).

Notes for David R. Cromer:

David R. Cromer was born June 6, 1845 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of eight children born to John H. Cromer and Lucretia Rolston. David's middle initial "R" may have been Rolston or Ralston. David was 17 years of age in 1863 when his father died. The following year David joined the Confederate Army, serving in the 7th Cavalry.

David was enumerated twice in 1970. Once with his 1st cousin, Jesse Neff, in Mansfield, Richland County, Ohio, and again in Central Township of Rockingham County, Virginia.

On January 19, 1871 in Rockingham County, Virginia, David married Cecelia F. Lineweaver. Only one child, daughter Annie, is known to have been born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1880 Census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

David R. Cromer		Self	M	Male	W	35	VA	Farmer	VA

Notes for Cecelia Frances Lineweaver:

Cecelia Frances Lineweaver was born June 17, 1842 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of nine children known to have been born to David Lineweaver and Sarah "Sallie" J. Messick.

- ii. SARAH J. CROMER was born on 07 Apr 1848 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 04 Jan 1924 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 75). She married Thomas Jefferson Atchison, son of Rodney Atchison and Cynthia, on 19 Jan 1871 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 26 Jan 1843 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 18 Jan 1907 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 63).

Notes for Sarah J. Cromer:

Sarah J. Cromer was born April 7, 1848 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of eight children born to John H. Cromer and Lucretia Rolston.

On January 19, 1871 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Sarah, age 22, married Thomas J. Atchison, age 27. The couple had five children. The family moved to the Linville District of Rockingham County, near Singers Glen. Her husband Thomas died on January 18, 1907, the day before their 36th wedding anniversary. Their eldest son, Charles, took over the family farm, and Sarah was enumerated there in 1910. In the 1920 census of the Linville District of Rockingham County, Virginia, Sarah was enumerated with her youngest son, David.

Sarah, 75, died January 4, 1924 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried next to her husband in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County.

Notes for Thomas Jefferson Atchison:

Thomas Jefferson Atchison was born January 26, 1843 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the son of Rodney and Cynthia Atchison. What became of Thomas's father after 1860 is unknown. Thomas and his mother were enumerated together in the 1870 census of Linville Township in Rockingham County, Virginia. His mother remained with him after he married. In the 1880 census she listed herself as married and not widowed.

On January 19, 1871 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Thomas married Sarah J. Cromer. Four children are known to have been born to the couple. The family was enumerated on their farm in the 1880 Census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

Thomas J. Atchison	Self	M	Male	W	35	VA	Farmer	VA	VA

On January 18, 1877 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Dewitt married Barbra Frances "Fannie" Andes. The couple farmed. Six children were born to the couple. The youngest two children had died prior to 1900. An infant Cromer, believed to be their child, born in 1887, is buried in the Greenmount Brethren Church Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. The family lived in Rockingham County, Virginia but removed to Augusta County sometime between 1880 and 1900. The couple's youngest child died at the age of 2 in 1892.

Dewitt, 77, died January 19, 1928 in Augusta County, Virginia and was buried in the Edgewood Cemetery in Weyers Cave, Augusta County, Virginia.

Notes for Barbra Frances Andes:

Barbra Frances "Fannie" Andes was born November 13, 1849 in Virginia, the fourth of seven children known to have been born to Eli Andes and Sarah "Sally" Lowman.

- iv. WILLIAM MCK CROMER was born about 1852 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died after 1870.

Notes for William Mck Cromer:

Not enumerated with the family in 1860.

- v. HANNAH M. CROMER was born in Aug 1852 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 01 May 1914 in Virginia (age 61). She married John H. Fearneyhough on 11 Oct 1876 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 28 Dec 1852 in Virginia. He died on 08 Sep 1927 in Virginia (age 74).

Notes for Hannah M. Cromer:

Hannah Cromer was born in August of 1852 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of eight children born to John H. Cromer and Lucretia Rolston.

On October 11, 1876 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Hannah married John Fearneyhough. The couple farmed. Six children were born to the couple.

Hannah, 61, preceded her husband in death on May 1, 1914 and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

Notes for John H. Fearneyhough:

John H. Faerneyhough was born December 28, 1852 in Virginia, the son of William Faerneyhough and Elizabeth Secrist.

On October 11, 1876 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John married Hannah M. Cromer. The couple farmed. Six children are attributed to their union. His wife preceded him in death in 1914.

John, 74, died September 8, 1927 and joined his wife in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- vi. BENJAMIN F. CROMER was born in Dec 1854 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died in 1930 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 75). He married Julia S. Deavers, daughter of Isaac C. Deavers and Amanda J. Messick, on 25 Dec 1879 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 07 Jan 1857 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 07 Jan 1932 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 75).

Notes for Benjamin F. Cromer:

Benjamin F. Cromer was born in December of 1854 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of eight children born to John H. Cromer and Lucretia Rolston. Benjamin's father died in 1863 when he was eight years old.

On December 25, 1879 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Benjamin married Julia S. Deavers. Julia's stepmother was Benjamin's 1st cousin, once removed. They began married life living with Benjamin's widowed mother and were enumerated there in the 1880 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia. Benjamin's mother died in December of that year. The couple farmed. No children were born to their union. The couple was enumerated in the 1910 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

Benjamin F Cromer	Head	Male	52	Virginia
Julia S Cromer	Wife	Female	50	Virginia (0/0)
Julia Steel	Niece	Female	16	Virginia
Jessie Lee	Nephew	Male	16	Virginia

Benjamin, 75, preceded his wife in death in late 1930 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. His tombstone is erroneously engraved with 1866 as his year of birth.

Notes for Julia S. Deavers:

Julia S. Deavers was born January 7, 1857 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of seven children born to Isaac C. Deavers and Amanda Messick. Her mother died in 1875. In 1878 her father married Rebecca L. Rolston. From her father's second marriage, Julia had five half-sisters, one half-brother and another half-sibling that died at birth.

On Christmas Day, December 25, 1879 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Julia married Benjamin F. Cromer. Julia's husband and Julia's stepmother were 1st cousins, once removed. Julia and Benjamin were enumerated in the 1880 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia, living with Benjamin's widowed mother. Julia reports in the 1900 census, after 19 years of marriage, that she has had no children. Benjamin, Julia's husband of 50 years, died in 1930 at the age of 75.

Julia died on her 75th birthday, January 7, 1932, in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried next to her husband in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. Her year of birth was erroneously engraved as 1868.

- vii. BETTY S. CROMER was born on 23 Nov 1860 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 15 Jan 1913 in Virginia (age 52). She married Robert A. Grady, son of John H. Grady and Maggie H, on 21 Mar 1889 in Virginia. He was born on 17 Feb 1866 in Virginia. He died on 22 Sep 1922 in Virginia (age 56).

Notes for Betty S. Cromer:

Betty "Bettie" [Elizabeth?] S. Cromer was born November 23, 1860 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the seventh of eight children born to John H. Cromer and Lucretia Rolston. (note: Enumerated in the 1860 census as Elizebeth, age 3, the census was taken years after her birth. All the family members were aged more than they would have been in 1860.)

On March 21, 1889 in Virginia, Betty, age 28, married Robert A. Grady, age 23. The couple farmed. Two children were born from their union. The couple was enumerated in the 1900 census with their two daughters, Lula and Edna. Living with the family was a nine year old boy named John W. who's surname appears to be "Far." He was enumerated in the 1910 census as their son "Willie" and is assumed to have been an adopted child.

Betty, 52, preceded her husband in death on January 15, 1913 in Virginia and was buried as Bettie S. Grady in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

Notes for Robert A. Grady:

Robert A. Grady was born February 17, 1866 in Virginia, probably Rockingham County, the eldest born child of John H. and Mary "Maggie" Grady. Robert was enumerated at the age of three in the 1870 census of Linville Township in Rockingham County, Virginia. He had a younger sister, Eliza, who was one year old. Living next door to the family was the widow, Mrs. Charlotte Grady, Robert's paternal grandmother. Robert grew up in Rockingham County.

On March 21, 1889 in Virginia, Robert married Betty S. Cromer. The couple farmed. Two daughters were born to the couple. An older child, Willie, appears to have been adopted by the couple. Robert's wife preceded him in death in 1913.

Robert, 56, died September 22, 1922 in Virginia and joined his wife in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- viii. SALOME ANN CROMER was born on 23 Nov 1863 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died in 1943 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age ~79). She married Benjamin Franklin Lee, son of George William Lee and Malinda Bohr, on 27 Nov 1888 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 10 Jul 1855 in Orange Co., Va.. He died on 09 Sep 1905 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 50).

Notes for Salome Ann Cromer:

Salome Ann Cromer was born November 23, 1863 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of eight children born to John Hinton Cromer and Lucretia Rolston. Salome never saw her father as he died March 17, 1863, eight months before she was born. Salome was enumerated in the 1870 census, but by some strange error by the census taker, she appears on the next page of the census as Samuel J. Cromer, age 7, occupation farmer.

On November 27, 1888 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Salome married Benjamin Frank Lee. The couple had eight children, six sons and two daughters. The family was enumerated in the Linville District of Rockingham County during the 1900 census:

Franklin Lee	Head	M	45	Virginia
Salome A Lee	Wife	F	37	Virginia (6/6)
Benjamin D. Lee	Son	M	11	Virginia
George W Lee	Son	M	10	Virginia
Joseph C Lee	Son	M	8	Virginia
Jessie R Lee	Son	M	7	Virginia
Lucy B Lee	Daughter	F	5	Virginia
Robbert E Lee	Son	M	2	Virginia
Emma Bridges	Servant	F	13	Virginia
Wade H Coakley	Laborer	M	20	Virginia

Salome reports having had six children and all six were still living in 1900; two more were born after the census. Her husband Frank died in 1905 at the age of 50. Salome, then age 42, did not remarry. In 1940 Salome was living with her daughter, Mrs. Lucy B. Ritchie, in the Linville District of Rockingham County.

Salome, 79, died in 1943 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, as was her husband. Of Salome's eight children, son Joseph is known to have preceded her in death.

Notes for Benjamin Franklin Lee:

Benjamin Franklin Lee was born July 10, 1855 in Orange County, Virginia, the son of George William Lee and Malinda Bohr.

On November 27, 1888 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Benjamin married Salome Ann Cromer. The couple farmed. Eight children were born from their union.

Benjamin, 50, preceded his wife in death on September 9, 1905 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia.

married Mary Catherine Cromer, daughter of Joseph Cromer and Mary Harnsbarger, on 17 Nov 1851 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 07 Jul 1825 in Virginia. She died on 24 Mar 1893 in Augusta Co., Va. (age 67).

Notes for Jesse Rolston Jr.:

Jesse Rolston Jr. was born May 18, 1824 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the seventh of ten children born to Jesse Rolston Sr. and Jane Hinton.

On November 17, 1851 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Jesse married Mary Catherine Cromer. In 1852 Jesse and his wife purchased 95 acres in Augusta County near Mt. Solon for $2,225 and soon began their family of seven children. The 1860 census of Augusta County, Virginia, Jesse and his wife appear along with their first four children. In addition to Jesse's family there were two other Rolston's shown: a female, age 16, initials 'S. C' and a male child, initials 'J.', age 14. These two 'other' Rolston's have not been identified, but they may have been children of Jesse's brother Benjamin who had died the year before.

In Staunton on July 16, 1861 Jesse enlisted in the 52nd Virginia Infantry, Company D as a private. In late 1862 Jesse went AWOL for almost four months and was fined three months pay. The following year he wrote home to his wife and children, giving advice on running the farm and how the war was going.

He was released on March 3, 1865 and returned home. Jesse was deeply affected by the Civil War and is said to have seldom attended church after his release as a prisoner of war.

In an original deed between Jesse and his daughter Amanda J., the surname used was ROLSTON, and has Jesse's own signature. Not all his children would retain the "Rolston" spelling. According to Forest Ralston, Jesse's grandson, a few spelled their last name as Rolston "... but all the others changed to Ralston. ...there was a great family debate concerning the matter." (source: Until Seperated by Death, p. 184)

Mary, his wife of over forty years died March 24, 1893 at the age of 67.

Jesse, 76, died November 20, 1900 in Augusta County, Virginia. [Tombstone engraved with age of 76 yrs, 6 mos, 12 ds.] He was buried, as was his wife, in the Mount Solon Church Cemetery in Mount Solon, Augusta County, Virginia. He was survived all seven of his children.

Notes for Mary Catherine Cromer:

Mary Catherine Cromer was born July 7, 1825, in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of eight children born to Joseph Cromer and his wife Mary. Mary was known by her middle name, Catherine. Mary's mother died in 1838 when Catherine was 12 years old. Her father married Hannah Smootz, and Mary had one half-brother and three half-sisters from her father's second marriage.

On November 17, 1851 in Rockingham County, Mary married Jesse Rolston, Jr.. Seven children, three daughters and four sons, were born to the couple.

Mary, 67, preceded her husband in death on March 24, 1893 in Augusta County, Virginia and was buried in the Mt. Olivet Church Cemetery in Mt. Solon, Augusta County, Virginia.

Jesse Rolston Jr. and Mary Catherine Cromer had the following children:

- i. AMANDA JANE<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 16 Mar 1853 in Mount Solon, Augusta Co., Va.. She died on 25 Sep 1929 in Augusta Co., Va. (age 76).

Notes for Amanda Jane Rolston:
Amanda never married.

- ii. ELIZABETH SUSAN ROLSTON was born on 06 Aug 1854 in or near Mt. Solon, Augusta Co., Va.. She died on 26 May 1948 in Augusta Co., Va. (age 93). She married Nelson Biddle Rawley, son of Reuben Rawley and Betty Elizabeth Kiracofe, in Feb 1890 in Augusta Co., Va.. He was born on 06 Mar 1860 in Mt. Solon, Augusta Co., Va.. He died on 04 Apr 1918 in North River Dist., Augusta Co., Va. (age 58).

Notes for Elizabeth Susan Rolston:
Elizabeth "Bettie" Susan Rolston/Ralston was born August 6, 1854 in or near Mt. Solon in Augusta County, Virginia, the second of seven children born to Jesse Rolston, Jr. and Mary Catherine Cromer.

In February of 1890 in Augusta County, Virginia, Bettie married Nelson Biddle Rawley. Four children were born from their union. Elizabeth and Nelson had been married 27 years in 1918 when Nelson died at the age of 59. In the 1930 census "Betty" was enumerated at the age of 75, living with her youngest daughter, Mrs. Mary E. Collins, in the North River District of Augusta County, Virginia.

Elizabeth, 93, died May 66, 1948 in Augusta County, Virginia and was buried as Bettie Ralston Rawley next to her husband in the Mount Zion Cemetery of the United Brethren Church in Mount Solon, Augusta County, Virginia.

- iii. EMANUEL CROMER RALSTON was born on 19 May 1856 in Mt. Solon, Augusta Co., Va.. He died on 25 Jun 1937 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 81). He married Elizabeth Virginia Hogsett on 27 Nov 1888 in Stribling Springs, Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 18 Jul 1857 in Virginia. She died on 29 Dec 1928 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 71).

Notes for Emanuel Cromer Ralston:
Emanuel Cromer Ralston was born May 19, 1856 in Mt. Solon, Augusta County, Virginia, the third of seven children born to Jesse Rolston Jr. and Mary Catherine Cromer. He was one of two brothers who would later be known by the RALSTON spelling.

In 1862, when Emanuel was a mere six years old, Stonewall Jackson and his troops were camped near the Rolston home. Emanuel's father took his young son to the camp. There Emanuel got to shake hands with the great General Stonewall Jackson. {source: Until Separated by Death, page 177}

On November 27, 1888 in Stribling Springs, Rockingham County, Virginia, Emanuel married Elizabeth Virginia Hogsett. The couple resided in Rockingham County for the remainder of their lives where their six children were born.

The couple had just celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary the month before Emanuel's wife died in December of 1928 at the age of 71.

The widowed Emanuel was enumerated in the 1930 census. His eldest son, Ernest, was head of the household. Still living at home was Emanuel's eldest child, daughter Lena.

Emanuel, 81, died June 25, 1937 in Rockingham County, Virginia and joined his wife in the Dayton Cemetery in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia.

Notes for Elizabeth Virginia Hogsett:

- iv. JOSEPH ASBURY ROLSTON was born on 25 Mar 1858 in Augusta Co., Va.. He died on 07 Jul 1938 in Augusta Co., Va. (age 80). He married Eliza Louella Knott, daughter of William Markwood Knott and Mary Margaret, on 23 Jan 1895 in Virginia. She was born on 22 Apr 1874 in Augusta Co., Va.. She died on 14 Aug 1951 in Augusta Co., Va. (age 77).

Notes for Joseph Asbury Rolston:

Joseph Asbury Rolston was born March 25, 1858 in Augusta County, Virginia, the fourth of seven children born to Jesse Rolston, Jr. and Mary Catherine Cromer.

On January 23, 1895 in Virginia, Joseph married Eliza Louella "Lula" Knott. Joseph was a farmer. Five children were born to their union, three of which died early in their childhood. Daughter, Katheryn, remembers her father as a quiet man. "He was an honest, dependable, small-time farmer who also worked as a day laborer. He was a homebody, loved and respected by all who knew him." {source: Until Separated by Death}

Joseph, 80, died July 7, 1938 in Augusta County, Virginia and was buried at Mount Olivet Church Cemetery in Mt. Solon, Augusta County, Virginia. He was survived by his wife and two of their five children.

Notes for Eliza Louella Knott:

Also known as Lula.

- v. ISAAC NEWTON RALSTON was born on 26 Mar 1860 in Augusta Co., Va.. He died on 06 Dec 1946 in North River Dist., Augusta Co., Va. (age 86). He married Ellen Virginia Huffman, daughter of Ira P. Huffman and Sarah Showalter, in 1893 in Virginia. She was born on 10 Jul 1864 in Virginia. She died on 25 Oct 1950 in Norton, Wise Co., Va. (age 86).

Notes for Isaac Newton Ralston:

Isaac Newton "Newt" Ralston was born in 1860 in Augusta County, Virginia, the fifth of seven children born to Jesse Rolston Jr. and Mary Catherine Cromer. He was one of two brothers that would be known by the RALSTON spelling as adults.

In 1893 in Virginia, Isaac married Ellen Virginia Huffman. Five children, four boys and the last being their only daughter, were born to their union. Their first three children did not survive through their first year; only the youngest two of their five children lived to adulthood.

Isaac, 86, preceded his wife in death on December 6, 1946 in the North River District of Augusta County, Virginia, and was buried as I. Newton Ralston in the Mt. Zion Church Cemetery in Stokesville, Augusta County, Virginia. Besides his wife, he was survived by the youngest two of his five children. Also surviving was his younger brother, Jesse.

Notes for Ellen Virginia Huffman:

Ellen Virginia "Jennie" Huffman. Birth July 10, 1863 on death certificate and 1864 on tombstone.

A resident of Mt. Solon, Augusta County, Virginia, Ellen 86, died October 25, 1950 in Norton, Wise County, Virginia.

- vi. MARY ISABELL ROLSTON was born on 14 Mar 1862 in Augusta Co., Va.. She died on 10 Jan 1920 in Augusta Co., Va. (age 57). She married Abraham Baldwin Showalter, son of William H. Showalter and Sarah Catherine Huffman, on 29 Aug 1888 in Augusta Co., Va.. He was born on 28 Oct 1861 in Virginia. He died on 31 Dec 1935 in Augusta Co., Va. (age 74).

Notes for Mary Isabell Rolston:

Mary Isabell "Belle" Rolston was born March 14, 1862 in Augusta County, Virginia, the sixth of seven children born to Jesse Rolston, Jr. and Mary Catherine Cromer. In the 1870 census she was enumerated as Mary B. Ralston and known as Mary Belle or Belle.

On August 29, 1888 in Augusta County, Virginia, Mary married Abraham Baldwin

Showalter. The couple had six children; the first of which died in infancy. The family was enumerated in the 1920 census of Augusta County. Mary's elder spinster sister, Amanda, was living with them.

Mary, 57, died January 10, 1920 in Augusta County, Virginia, and was buried as Mary Belle Showalter in the Mount Zion Church Cemetery in Stokesville, Augusta County, Virginia. She was survived by Abraham, her husband of 31 years, and five of her six children. Also surviving were two sisters and four brothers. She was preceded in death by her parents and her first born child.

Notes for Abraham Baldwin Showalter:

After the death of his wife in 1920, Abraham lived with his daughter, Mrs. Edyth Cline.

- vii. JESSE EDWARD ROLSTON III was born on 17 Jan 1865 in Mt. Solon, Augusta Co., Va.. He died on 22 Aug 1955 in Sheldon, O'Brien Co., Iowa (age 90). He married Ada Leah Kimmel, daughter of William C. Kimmel and Anna Eckman, on 29 Nov 1900 in Sheldon, O'Brien Co., Iowa. She was born on 22 Sep 1876 in Lanark, Carroll Co., Ill.. She died on 03 May 1969 in Sheldon, O'Brien Co., Iowa (age 92).

Notes for Jesse Edward Rolston III:

Rev. Jesse Edward Rolston III was born January 17, 1865 in Mt. Solon, Augusta County, Virginia, the youngest of seven children born to Jesse Rolston Jr. and Mary Catherine Cromer. In adulthood Jesse was 6' tall and bearded with sea blue eyes and wavy black hair. In later years his beard was described as being long, white and well groomed. Jesse was known as Bud in his younger days. His middle name, Edward, is said to be for General Robert Edward Lee of the Confederate Army. Although he did not experience the Civil War directly, the anguish it seemingly caused his father was an apparent factor in Jesse leaving the Presbyterian faith and joining the Church of the Brethren which was a religion with strong beliefs in pacifism. Jesse attended Bridgewater College from 1885 to 1889. In 1891 he was ordained as a Brethren minister. He taught school for three years in the vicinity of Mt. Solon and did preaching for the Brethren until the death of his mother in 1893.

After the death of his mother, Jesse moved west, stopping briefly in Minnesota, South Dakota and then into Iowa, teaching and preaching the Brethren. Jesse taught school in Kingsley, Plymouth County, Iowa, and then finally he moved to the town of Sheldon in neighboring O'Brien County about 1894. There, as he had done else where, he taught school and preached the Brethren.

At Sheldon he met Ada Leah Kimmel. They married November 29, 1900, and through the course of the years that followed, the couple raise a family of eleven children.

Reverend Jesse Rolston, as he was known, and the Kimmel family both owned farm land west of Sheldon, in Sioux County, Iowa. To the many nieces, nephews and grandchildren Jesse was simply "Grandpa Rolston." According to Larry Kimmel, the congregation of "...the neighborhood church was basically all one family of these two combined names" [Rolston & Kimmel]. Rev. Jesse Rolston was known to give a lengthy sermon. On those occasions, the women of the congregation often had to discretely leave the church and remove the noon meal from the oven so that it did not burn before the family returned from church.

Jesse did not approve of drinking or smoking; however, a majority of his children grew up to smoke.

The Alton Democrat, Alton, Iowa, Saturday, July 1, 1912, page 8, Grant Items:

Elder J. E. Rolston, of the Church of the Brethren, expect to leave the first of this week to attend the General Conference of his church at York Pennsylvania, and from thence he expects to go on into Virginia to visit the scenes of his childhood. He goes to the conference as a delegate from his congregation here.

In 1920 Jesse was a census taker for Grant Township, Sioux County, Iowa. One of the people he enumerated was a Jesse L. Rolston, age 28, born about 1892 in Virginia. This Jesse was 15 years older than Jesse III's son of the same or similar name, Jesse Lawrence Rolston, who was born in 1907 in Iowa.

Jesse experienced the longevity granted to many of the Rolston family. Jesse died August 22, 1955 in Sheldon, O'Brien County, Iowa, at the age of 90 and was laid to rest at the Greenwood Cemetery in Matlock, Sioux County, Iowa. He was survived by Ada, his wife of 54 years, their eleven children, and countless grandchildren.

Sheldon Sun, Sheldon, Iowa:

Rev. Rolston, 90, Well Known Minister Dies at Home Monday

Rev. J. E. Rolston, one of Sheldon's oldest and best known residents, died at his home northwest of town Monday.

He had reached the age of 90 years, seven months and five days. Rev. Rolston had been afflicted with leukemia a year and a half, and though he was confined to his bed most of that time, he was able to be up last week when several of his sons and daughter came to see him.

He was born and raised in Mt. Solon, Va., and moved to Iowa from there in 1891, shortly after graduating from Bridgewater college.

After teaching in rural schools of the area for several years he became a minister and began a long term of service in the Church of the Brethren near Sheldon.

In 1900 he was united in marriage to Ada Leah Kimmel here.

Rev. Rolston celebrated 50 years in the ministry in 1936 and retired about eight years ago. During the time he was a resident pastor of the Church of the Brethren, he had a co-pastor and several summer ministers.

Rev. Rolston was very active in civic affairs. He pioneered in the development of rural electrification in this area prior to federal REA program and helped install the first telephones in the area.

He was chairman of the Sioux county school board for 29 years and clerk of the Grant township school for 25 years. He helped with Sheldon's hospital campaign a few years ago and assisted in the ground breaking ceremonies.

During the years of depression he served on a committee that aided distressed farmers in arranging adjusted payments on farm loans so they could save their farms from foreclosures.

Survivors include the widow, five daughters, Mrs. Ray (Anna) Schechter, Worthington, Minn.; Mrs. Wallace (Arlene) English, Sanborn; Mrs. Cornelius (Dorothy) Laudhuis, Harris; Mrs. Warren (Ada Ruth) Cox, Ashton; and Mrs. Waldo (Evelyn) Winter, Currie, Minn.; six sons, Paul, Rufus and Megrum of Sheldon, Wendell and Owen of Hampshire, Ill., and J. Larry of Springfield, Mo.; 33 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m. Wednesday at the Church of the Brethren and the body was in state there until the time of the funeral.

Rev. Q. A. Holsopple conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Ray Zook of Garrison, Pallbearers were the six oldest grandsons. Music was provided by a quartet of Brethren ministers.

Burial was in the Grant township cemetery at Matlock.

Notes for Ada Leah Kimmel:

Ada Leah Kimmel was born September 22, 1876 in Lanark, Carroll County, Illinois, the eldest of eleven children born to William C. Kimmel and Anna Eckman. Two of her siblings died in childhood. Ada's family moved to Sheldon, O'Brien County, Iowa in 1884 and were among the early settlers in the area.

There she met Rev. Jesse Edward Rolston, III, and they married November 29, 1900. Ada was 24 and Rev. Jesse 35. Eleven children were born to the couple.

As remembered by her nephew Larry Kimmel:

"I knew her as Aunt Ada and sometimes as Grandma Rolston. What I remember about Aunt Ada is her seemingly stern appearance. When she was greeted, however her auster countenance vanished and was replaced with a very intentional and well meaning smile that always provoked one in return.

She liked visitors. Of course that is probably a requirement of a minister's wife, but I remember that she always enjoyed when any of the neighborhood children stopped by to say hello too. Halloween was a big affair when I was young. The kids were driven from farm to farm by a parent. Aunt Ada's home was usually the last stop for a good reason. She always invited the kids inside, handed out a cornucopia of goodies, and tried to get you to stay for a visit by having the parent come inside too. I think the parent was usually presented with a bag of treats too."

On August 22, 1955, Jesse, her husband of 54 years, died at the age of 90.

Ada, 92, died May 3, 1969 in Sheldon, O'Brien County, Iowa was buried in the Greenwood Cemetery in Matlock, Sioux County, Iowa where her husband had been buried some 14 years earlier.

Notes for Hannah Jane Ralston:

Hannah Jane Ralston was born June 12, 1826 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eighth of ten children born to Jesse Rolston Sr. and Jane Hinton.

On December 14, 1853 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Hannah married Abraham Rolston, a first cousin. Three children were born to the couple, but their first child, daughter Susan, died at the age of two. After ten years as husband and wife, Abraham died in August of 1864. Hannah was pregnant with their fourth child, giving birth the following month. Hannah was 38 and still a young woman at the time of Abraham's death, but she never remarried. In the 1870 census of the Linville District of Rockingham County, Hannah was living on a farm with her three surviving children. Working on the farm is her nephew David Hopkins, age 23. Hannah was living next door to William and Elizabeth Rolston.

Hannah's daughter Elizabeth married Lewis Swank. In 1900, Hannah was living with her daughter and son-in-law in the Linville District of Rockingham County. The 1900 census erroneously lists Hannah as only having one child and one child still living.

Hannah, 78, died April 12, 1905, a lifelong resident of the Rockingham County area and joined her husband in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County. She was survived by two of her four children.

Notes for Abraham Rolston:

Abraham Rolston was born October 27, 1827 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of three children and only son born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston & Catharine Beery. His mother, Catharine, died during Abraham's early childhood. His father married Barbara Ann Burkholder in 1834. From his father's second marriage, Abraham had five half-brothers and four half-sisters.

On December 14, 1853 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Abraham married Hannah Jane Rolston, his 1st cousin. Abraham's sister, Elizabeth, had married Hannah's brother some years earlier. Abraham took up farming and had a place in a remote area of Rockingham County, between Linville Creek and Little North Mountain, that was known as "Bush Country." Four children were born to the couple, but their first child died at the age of two. Abraham would never live to see his last child born.

Abraham had contracted a disease while serving in the Confederate Army during the Civil War. He succumbed to this disease on August 9, 1864 at the age of 36. Abraham was buried in the Cooks Creek

Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham. He was survived by his wife and two of his three children. His fourth child was born the month following his death.

Many years after Abraham's death when making repairs to the porch of his old house, a very much dried ham was found hidden in the porch ceiling. It was passed down through the family oral history that during the Civil War, Abraham would hide his salt meat in the porch ceiling.

Abraham Rolston and Hannah Jane Ralston had the following children:

- i. SUSAN JANE<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 19 Sep 1858 in Joe's Creek, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 02 Feb 1861 in North Mountain, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 2).

Notes for Susan Jane Rolston:

Susan Jane Rolston was born September 19, 1858 in Joe's Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of four children born to first cousins Abraham Rolston and Hannah Jane Ralston.

Susan died February 2, 1861 of the "croup" at age 2 years, 4 months and 14 days. Her place of burial is unknown.

- ii. BENJAMIN FIELDING ROLSTON was born on 12 May 1860 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 13 Dec 1946 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 86). He married Lydia Isa Dora May, daughter of John H. May and Anna Beery, on 08 Feb 1891 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 20 Jan 1868 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 11 Mar 1950 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va. (age 82).

Notes for Benjamin Fielding Rolston:

Benjamin Fielding Rolston was born May 12, 1860 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of four children born to 1st cousins Abraham Rolston and Hannah Jane Ralston. Benjamin's father died August 9, 1864 when Benjamin was four years old. His mother did not remarry. Benjamin was a lifelong resident of Rockingham County, a farmer, and a member of the United Brethren Church.

On February 8, 1891 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Benjamin, age 30, married Lydia Isa Dora May. Known by Dora, she was 8 years his junior. The couple had five children, all daughters, but two of the five daughters died in 1916 during the influenza epidemic. Like most Rolston's of the time, Benjamin was a farmer. He did, however, serve at least one term as Justice of the Peace for Rockingham County.

Benjamin, 86, died December 13, 1946 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen. He was survived by Dora, his wife of 44 years, and three of their five daughters.

Notes for Lydia Isa Dora May:

Lydia Isa Dora (or Isadora) May was born January 20, 1868 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of John H. May and Anna Beery. She was known as Dora.

On February 8, 1891 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, Dora married Benjamin Fielding Rolston. The couple farmed. Five daughters were born to the couple, two of which died in 1916, probably of influenza. Benjamin, her husband of 54 years, preceded her in death on December 13, 1946 at the age of 86.

Dora, 82, died March 11, 1950 in the Smithland Nursing Home in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried as Dora L. Rolston next to her husband in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- iii. ELIZABETH CATHARINE ROLSTON was born on 01 Jun 1862 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 08 Mar 1909 in Virginia (age 46). She married Louis Elmer Swank, son of Joseph Harvey Swank and Mary Catherine May, on 09 Oct 1892 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 20 Aug 1867 in North Mountain, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 12 Jan 1929 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 61).

Notes for Elizabeth Catharine Rolston:

Elizabeth "Bettie" Catharine Rolston was born June 1, 1862 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of four children born to cousins Abraham Rolston and Hannah Jane Rolston. Her eldest sister Susan had died four months before her birth. Elizabeth likely had no recollection of her father as he died in August of 1864 when Elizabeth was two years old. Her mother did not remarry.

On October 9, 1892 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Elizabeth married Louis Elmer Swank. Six children were born to the couple; their third child died at birth. The family was living in the Linville District of Rockingham County during the 1900 census; Elizabeth's widowed mother was living with the family, helping Elizabeth with the newborn twins that were not yet a month old. Also helping with the family was Sada Hopkins, Elizabeth's first cousin, once removed.

Elizabeth, 46, died March 8, 1909 and was buried at the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County. Her cause of death is unknown. She was survived by her husband and five of her six children. Her husband would later remarry.

Notes for Louis Elmer Swank:

Louis Elmer Swank was born August 20, 1867 in North Mountain, Rockingham County, Virginia, the son of Joseph Harvey Swank and Mary May.

On October 9, 1892 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Louis married Elizabeth Catharine Rolston. The couple had six children, one of which died at birth. His wife Elizabeth died March 8, 1909 at the age of 46, leaving him with five children.

Seven months later on November 7, 1909 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Louis married Effie Jane Hopkins; Effie was the granddaughter of John A. Hopkins and Malinda J. Rolston and second cousin of Louis's first wife. Louis and Effie had five children. The family was enumerated in the 1920 census of the Linville District of Rockingham County:

Lewis E Swank	Head	M	52	Virginia
Effie J Swank	Wife	F	42	Virginia
Edna B Swank	Daughter	F	23	Virginia
Ruth E Swank	Daughter	F	19	Virginia
Reul E Swank	Son	M	19	Virginia
Winnie J Swank	Daughter	F	16	Virginia [youngest child of Louis Swank and Elizabeth Rolston]
Dorothy V Swank	Daughter	F	9	Virginia [eldest child of Louis Swank and Effie Hopkins]
Ava E Swank	Daughter	F	7	Virginia
Glen O Swank	Son	M	5	Virginia
Ruby G Swank	Daughter	F	2-3/12	Virginia
Lois F Swank	Daughter	F	2/12	Virginia

Louis, 61, died of pneumonia on January 12, 1929 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia. Besides his second wife, he was survived by ten of his eleven children.

Tombstone had date of death as January 12 and death certificate gives January 13.

- iv. AMANDA BELLE ROLSTON was born on 30 Sep 1864 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 25 Jul 1892 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 27).

Notes for Amanda Belle Rolston:

Amanda Belle Rolston was born September 30, 1864 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of four children born to first cousins, Abraham Rolston and Hannah Jane Rolston. Amanda was born a month after her father's death.

Amanda never married.

Amanda, 27, died of a fever on July 25, 1892 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County. She was survived by her mother, brother Benjamin and sister Elizabeth. Her eldest sister Susan had died at the age of two, three years before Amanda's birth.

Notes for Ester Ellen Rolston:

Ester Ellen Rolston was born June 13, 1828 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the ninth of ten children born to Jesse Rolston Sr. and Jane Hinton. [Her date of birth is calculated from her age at death.]

On November 9, 1848 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Ester married Joseph Niswander. Ester and Joseph moved to Augusta County, Virginia. By the 1860 census, five children had been born to the couple. The 1870 census of Mount Sidney, Augusta County, Virginia enumerated Ester, her husband, and eight of their nine children. Daughter Hannah was not present and was deceased or perhaps had married at a young age.

Ester, 66, preceded her husband in death on November 23, 1894 in the Middle River District of Augusta County, Virginia and was buried in the Barren Ridge Church of the Brethren Cemetery in Hermitage, Augusta County, Virginia. The county death records show her as age 61, but her tombstone gives her age as 66 years, 5 months and 10 days.

Notes for Joseph F. Niswander:

Joseph F. Niswander was born in October of 1817 in Virginia, the eldest of nine children born to Christian Niswander and Susannah Schowalter. In 1838, within a ten day period between the third and the thirteen of October, three of Joseph's younger siblings, Abraham, Mary and Susannah, died from cholera.

On November 9, 1848 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Joseph married Ester Ellen Rolston. The couple resided in neighboring Augusta County where their nine children would be born. They were subsistence farmers, probably selling any excess crops, but Joseph's trade was carpenter. Joseph's wife preceded him in death in November of 1894. Joseph, age 82, was listed as a widower in the 1900 census of Laurel Hill in Augusta County, Virginia. Residing with him was his son Joseph, known then by his middle name Simon. Simon's wife and their three sons were also residing there.

Joseph, 86, died December 23, 1903 in Virginia and was buried in the Barren Ridge Church of The Brethren Cemetery in Hermitage, Augusta County, Virginia.

Joseph F. Niswander and Ester Ellen Rolston had the following children:

- i. DEWITT C.<sup>6</sup> NISWANDER was born on 27 Oct 1849 in Virginia. He died on 09 Aug 1903 in Keokuk Co., Iowa (age 53). He married Barbara C. Graves about 1883 in Virginia. She was born on 20 Apr 1857 in Virginia. She died on 16 Feb 1933 in Iowa (age 75).

Notes for Dewitt C. Niswander:

Dewitt C. Niswander was born October 27, 1849 in Virginia, probably Augusta County, the eldest of nine children born to Joseph F. Niswander and Ester Ellen Rolston. [His date of birth is calculated from his age at death.] His father was a carpenter by trade, but the family farmed, and Dewitt worked on the family farm. Dewitt did not follow his father's vocation, instead he became a machinist. In 1880, at the age of 30, Dewitt was single and still living at home.

About 1883 in Virginia, Dewitt married Barbara "Bettie" C. Graves. Six children, three sons and three daughters, were born to the couple. About 1899, Dewitt moved the family to Iowa, and they were enumerated in Liberty Township of Keokuk County, Iowa in the 1900 census. Along with Dewitt and his family was his younger brother Benjamin.

Dewitt died August 9, 1903 in Keokuk County, Iowa at the age of 53 years, 9 months, 13 days. He was buried in the Church of the Brethren Cemetery. Dewitt was survived by his wife Barbara.

Notes for Barbara C. Graves:

Barbara C. Graves was born April 20, 1857 in Virginia. [Her birth date is calculated from her age at death.] Her parentage is unknown, but from Barbara's statements in the census, both of her parents were born in Virginia.

About 1883 in Virginia, Barbara married Dewitt C. Niswander. Six children were born to the couple, all in Virginia. Sometime after 1895, her husband moved the family west. In the 1900 census of Liberty Township, Keokuk County, Iowa, the couple states they had been married for 17 years. The couple had six children; all living at home. On August 9, 1903 husband Dewitt preceded her in death at the age of 53. Three months later their son James died at the age of 23. The widow Barbara was enumerated in the 1910 census of South English, English River Township, Keokuk County, Iowa. Three of the children, Jesse, Ruth and Lidia, were still living at home.

Barbara died February 16, 1933 at the age of 75 years, 9 months, 27 days. She joined her husband in the Church of the Brethren Cemetery in South English, Keokuk County, Iowa under the surname of Niswander.

- ii. SUSAN J. NISWANDER was born on 15 Apr 1851 in Virginia. She died on 10 Sep 1922 in Augusta Co., Va. (age 71). She married Hamilton Thomas Drumheller, son of Thomas Drumheller and Betsy Eubank, on 03 Feb 1876 in Hew Hope, Augusta Co., Va.. He was born on 16 Nov 1848 in Albemarle Co., Va.. He died on 21 Nov 1915 in Augusta Co., Va. (age 67).

Notes for Susan J. Niswander:

Susan J. Niswander was born April 15, 1851 in Virginia, probably Augusta County, the second of nine children born to Joseph F. Niswander and Ester Ellen Rolston. She was last enumerated with her parents at the age of 19 in the 1870 census in Mount Sidney, Augusta County, Virginia.

On February 3, 1876 in New Hope, Augusta County, Virginia, Susan, age 24, married Hamilton Thomas Drumheller. Eleven children were born to their union; one had died prior to the 1900 census. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of the Hermitage in the Middle District of Augusta County, Virginia:

H T Drumheller	Head	M	51	Virginia
Susan J Drumheller		Wife	F	50	Virginia (11/10)
Lillie W Drumheller		Daughter	F	23	Virginia
Frank D Drumheller		Son	M	20	Virginia
Joseph T Drumheller	Son	M	19	Virginia
Earnest J Drumheller	Son	M	17	Virginia
Erta L Drumheller		Daughter	F	15	Virginia
Bessie M Drumheller	Daughter	F	13	Virginia
Halla H Drumheller		Son	M	13	Virginia
Samuel P Drumheller	Son	M	8	Virginia
Sallie V Drumheller		Daughter	F	6	Virginia
Russel H Drumheller	Son	M	3	Virginia

Susan's husband died in 1915 at the age of 67. In the 1920 census she was enumerated with sons Russell and John and daughter Virgie.

Susan, 71, died September 10, 1922 in Augusta County, Virginia, and joined her husband in the Hermitage Cemetery in Augusta County, Virginia.

- iii. HANNAH E. NISWANDER was born about 1853 in Virginia.

Notes for Hannah E. Niswander:

Hannah E. Niswander was born about 1853, the third of nine children born to Joseph F.

Niswander and Ester Ellen Rolston. Hannah appears in the 1860 census at the age of 7. By the 1870 census she was no longer living at home and is assumed to have married.

- iv. JESSE RALSTON NISWANDER was born on 11 Jul 1854 in Virginia. He died on 21 Oct 1915 in Middle River Dist., Augusta Co., Va. (age 61). He married Laura Jean Weller, daughter of Tobias Weller and Elizabeth Jane Myers, about 1884 in Virginia. She was born on 14 Dec 1859 in Virginia. She died on 27 Dec 1921 in Middle River Dist., Augusta Co., Va. (age 62).

Notes for Jesse Ralston Niswander:

Jesse Ralston Niswander was born July 11, 1854 in Virginia, probably Augusta County, the fourth of nine children born to Joseph F. Niswander and Ester Ellen Rolston. He was named after his maternal grandfather, Jesse Rolston. Sometime after 1870 Jesse went out on his own. He was enumerated in the 1880 Census of the Middle River District of Augusta County, Virginia, working on the farm of Miss Barbara Shirey. Jesse's parents were living in the same area of Augusta County.

About 1884 in Virginia, Jesse married Laura Jean Weller. Three children are known to have been born to the couple, one of which had died prior to the 1900 census. The couple was enumerated during the 1910 census in Augusta County, Virginia. Their son Timothy was enumerated with them. Also living with them was "daughter" Bessie Bosserman. Bessie is perhaps widowed or divorced or is actually a "daughter-in-law" and not daughter. Another "daughter", Aline, was enumerated with the family. Aline's age is not noted, and she could be a granddaughter and not daughter.

Jesse, 61, died of tuberculosis on October 21, 1915 in the Middle River District of Augusta County, Virginia, and was buried in the Laurel Hill Baptist Church Cemetery in Verona, Augusta County, Virginia. His death was reported by his son, Timothy.

Notes for Laura Jean Weller:

Laura Jean Weller was born December 14, 1859 in Virginia, the fourth of 15 children born to Tobias Weller and Elizabeth "Bettie" Jane Myers. Her father was previously married and widowed, and from that union, Laura had four half-siblings, one of which was deceased.

About 1884 in Virginia, probably in Augusta County, Laura married Jesse Ralston Nisewander. Three children were born to the couple, but one child had died prior to the 1900 census. The couple was last enumerated during the 1910 census of Augusta County, Virginia. Enumerated with the couple was their son, Timothy, daughter, Bessie, and Bessie's daughter, Alene. Her husband, Jesse, died in 1915. Laura and her children were enumerated in the 1920 census of Hermitage, Augusta County, Virginia:

Timothy A Niswander	Head	M	32	Virginia
Veola V Niswander	Wife	F	26	Virginia
Laura J Niswander	Mother	F	60	Virginia (widowed)

Judy, on 10 May 1883 in New Hope, Augusta Co., Va.. He was born in Feb 1855 in Augusta Co., Va.. He died on 07 Apr 1905 in Virginia (age 50).

Notes for Catharine A. Niswander:

Catharine "Kate" A. Niswander was born October 1, 1858 in Augusta County, Virginia, the fifth of nine children born to Joseph F. Niswander and Ester Ellen Rolston.

On May 10, 1883 in New Hope, Augusta County, Virginia, Kate, age 24, married Samuel M. Coffman, age 28. Two children were born to the couple. Her husband Samuel died in 1905. After her husband's death, Kate and her son moved to Keokuk County, Iowa where they were enumerated in 1910 with her younger brother, Ben. By 1920 the widowed Kate, age 62, had returned to Augusta County, Virginia and was living in Staunton. Her daughter and son-in-law lived with her.

Kate, 69, died March 1, 1928 in Virginia and joined her husband in the Laurel Hill Baptist Church Cemetery in Verona, Augusta County, Virginia.

Notes for Samuel M. Coffman:

Samuel M. Coffman was born in February of 1855 in Augusta County, Virginia, the son of James Coffman and Barbara Judy. Samuel was enumerated with his Uncle Isaac in the 1870 census of District 2 of Augusta County, Virginia:

Isaac Coffman	M	41	Virginia

On May 10, 1883 in New Hope, Augusta County, Virginia, Samuel married Catharine A. Niswander. The couple farmed. Two children were born to the couple.

Samuel, 50, preceded his wife in death on April 7, 1905 in Virginia and was buried in the Laurel Hill Baptist Church Cemetery in Verona, Augusta County, Virginia. His tombstone gives his age at death as 50 years and 2 months.

- vi. JOSEPH SIMON NISWANDER was born in Sep 1860 in Augusta Co., Va.. He died in 1905 in Virginia (age ~44). He married Minnie M. Furr, daughter of Edward M. Furr and Sarah Margaret, about 1894 in Virginia. She was born on 11 Feb 1874 in Laurel Hill, Augustat Co., Va.. She died in 1927 in Virginia (age ~53).

Notes for Joseph Simon Niswander:

Joseph Simon Niswander was born in September of 1860 in Augusta County, Virginia, the sixth of nine children born to Joseph F. Niswander and Ester Ellen Rolston. As his father was also a Joseph, the son was known as Simon Joseph Niswander.

About 1894 in Virginia, Simon married Minnie M. Furr. In the 1900 census of Laurel Hill, Augusta County, Simon was living with his father. Residing with them was Simon's wife and their three sons: Harry, Joseph and Carl. Simon was a constable. Another son and then a daughter were born to the couple.

Joseph, about age 44, died in 1905 and was buried as Simon J. Niswander in the Barren Ridge Church of The Brethren Cemetery in Hermitage, Augusta County, Virginia. He was

- vii. LYDIA C. M. NISWANDER was born on 17 Jul 1866 in Barren Ridge, Augusta Co., Va.. She died on 20 Jul 1939 in Middle River Dist., Augusta Co., Va. (age 73).

Notes for Lydia C. M. Niswander:

Lydia C. M. Niswander and twin brother Benjamin Franklin Niswander were born July 17, 1866 in Barren Ridge, Augusta County, Virginia, the seventh and eighth of nine children born to Joseph F. Niswander and Ester Ellen Rolston. Lydia never married.

Sometime between 1895 and 1900, Lydia's older brother Dewitt and family moved to Iowa, and Lydia's twin brother Benjamin joined them. Lydia's whereabouts in 1900 are unknown. By 1910 she had moved to Iowa and was enumerated with her twin brother Benjamin in the 1910 census of Liberty, Keokuk County, Iowa. Her whereabouts in 1920 are unknown. Lydia later returned to Virginia, and in 1930 she was enumerated with her nephew, Russell H. Drumheller, in the Middle River District of Augusta County:

Russell H Drumheller	Head	M	33	Virginia (farmer)
Thelma I Drumheller	Wife	F	27	Virginia
Warren H Drumheller	Son	M	5	Virginia
Harold K Drumheller	Son	M	0/12	Virginia
Lydia L Niswander	Aunt	F	63	Virginia

Lydia remained with her nephew until her death.

Lydia, 73, died Monday, July 20, 1939 at her nephew's home in the Middle River District of Augusta County, Virginia and was buried in the Barren Ridge Church of the Brethren Cemetery in Hermitage, Augusta County, Virginia. [Note: her tombstone is engraved with the wrong date of death; July 24.] She was survived by her twin brother, Benjamin.

Waynesboro News Virginian, July 21, 1939

Miss Lydia Niswander, 73, died at the home of R. H. Drumheller near Hermitage, Thursday morning at 6 o'clock. She was the daughter of the late Joseph and Ellen Elizabeth Ralston Niswander.

Funeral services will be held at Barren Ridge Church of the Brethren at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon with Rev. N. W. Coffman in charge.

- viii. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN T. NISWANDER was born on 17 Jul 1866 in Barren Ridge, Augusta Co., Va.. He died in 1955 in Iowa (age ~88). He married Minnie May Watkins, daughter of John N. Watkins and Cora C. Smith, on 13 Jul 1904 in (near) South English, Keokuk Co., Iowa. She was born in Jan 1881 in Iowa. She died in 1960 in Iowa (age 79).

Notes for Benjamin Franklin T. Niswander:

Benjamin "Ben" Franklin T. Niswander and twin sister Lydia were born July 17, 1866 in Augusta County, Virginia, the seventh and eighth of nine children born to Joseph F. Niswander and Ester Ellen Rolston. Benjamin, age 13, was living and working on the family farm during the 1880 census of the Middle River District of Augusta County, Virginia. Sometime between 1895 and 1900, his older brother Dewitt and family moved to Iowa, and Benjamin appears to have moved along with them. Benjamin was residing with his brother Dewitt and family during the 1900 census of Liberty Township in Keokuk County, Iowa. Benjamin F. (listed as brother) was 32 years of age and single. Benjamin had taken up his father's trade and was working as a carpenter. Benjamin's brother Dewitt died in 1903. Dewitt's wife moved away, but Benjamin remained in the area.

Benjamin is said to have married Lilly Renner. No record of this marriage has been found.

On July 13, 1904 near South English, Keokuk County, Iowa, Benjamin married Minnie May Watkins. Two children were born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of Liberty, Keokuk County, Iowa. Living with the family was Ben's twin sister, Lydia, and their older sister, Mrs. Kate Coffman. Benjamin and Lilly's son Forest preceded them in death in 1947.

Benjamin, about age 88, preceded his wife in death in 1955 and was buried as Benjamin F. Niswander in the Oakland Cemetery in Iowa City, Johnson County, Iowa. His parents and siblings had all preceded him in death.

Notes for Minnie May Watkins:

Minnie May Watkins was born in January of 1881 in Iowa, one of eight children born to John N. Watkins and Cora C. Smith. Two of her siblings had died by the time of the 1900 census when the family was enumerated in Kinross, Liberty Township of Keokuk County, Iowa.

On July 13, 1904 in Keokuk County, Iowa, Minnie married Benjamin "Ben" Franklin T. Neswander. Two children were born to their union. The family was enumerated in the 1930 census of Iowa City, Johnson County, Iowa:

B F Neswander	Head	M	60	Virginia
Minnie Neswander	Wife	F	44	Iowa
Forest W Neswander	Son	M	23	Iowa
John W Watkins	Father-in-law	M	81	Indiana (widowed)

Her husband preceded her in death in 1955.

Minnie, 79, died in 1960 in Iowa and was buried in the Oakland Cemetery in Iowa City, Johnson County, Iowa.

- ix. ISAAC N. NISWANDER was born on 28 Jul 1868 in Augusta Co., Va.. He died on 07 Jun 1896 in Virginia (age 27).

Notes for Isaac N. Niswander:

Isaac N. Niswander was born about July 28, 1868 in Augusta County, the youngest of nine children born to Joseph F. Niswander and Ester Ellen Rolston. [His date of birth is calculated from his age at death.] He was named after his paternal uncle, Isaac N. Niswander (1827-1910). It was a common practice to name one's children after famous people, and one might speculate that their middle name was Newton, named after Sir Isaac Newton.

Isaac was last enumerated at the age of 11 residing with his parents during the 1880 census of the Middle River District of Augusta County, Virginia.

Isaac, 27, died June 7, 1896 in Virginia and was buried in the Barren Ridge Church of The Brethren Cemetery in Hermitage, Augusta County, Virginia. His age at death was 27 years, 10 months and 10 days. His cause of death is unknown.

314. SUSAN<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Jesse<sup>4</sup> Sr., David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 15 Feb 1831 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 24 Feb 1902 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 71). She married James Steele, son of David Steele and Mary Hiden, on 06 Nov 1861 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 01 Jan 1825 in Virginia. He died on 15 Mar 1895 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 70).

Notes for Susan Rolston:

Susan Rolston was born February 15, 1831 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of ten children born to Jesse Rolston Sr. and Jane Hinton. Susan lived at home with her parents until she married.

On November 6, 1861 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Susan, age 30, married James Steele, a local farmer. Seven children were born to their union with the last birth being a set of twins. The family was enumerated on their farm in the 1880 census in Central Township of Rockingham County, Virginia. Living with them were several of her husband's siblings:

James Steele	Self	M	55	Virginia
Susan Steele	Wife	F	49	Virginia
Jesse D Steele	Son	M	17	Virginia
Laura D Steele	Daughter	F	16	Virginia
Lucretia J Steele	Daughter	F	14	Virginia
Charles J Steele	Son	M	17	Virginia
William W Steele	Son	M	11	Virginia
Thomas P Steele	Son	M	9	Virginia
Timothy Q Steele	Son	M	9	Virginia
William Steele	Brother	M	53	Virginia
Thompson Steele	Brother	M	40	Virginia
Elizabeth Roadcap	Sister	F	49	Virginia (widowed)
Frances Roadcap	Niece	F	16	Virginia

Their daughter Laura preceded them in death four years later in September of 1884. Susan and James had been married for 33 years when James died March 15, 1895 at the age of 70.

Susan, 71, died seven years later on February 24, 1902 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and joined James in eternal sleep at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

Notes for James Steele:

James Steele was born January 1, 1825 in Virginia, the second of ten child known to have been born to David Steele and Mary Hiden. His parents appear to have died sometime prior to the 1850 census. James, the eldest son, became head of the household and ran the family farm along with brothers William and Robert. James and his siblings were enumerated in the 1850 census of Rockingham County, Virginia:

James Steele	M	24	Virginia
Agnes Steele	F	26	Virginia
William Steele	M	23	Virginia
Robert Steele	M	15	Virginia
Elizabeth Steele	F	17	Virginia
Mary Steele	F	14	Virginia
Davis Steele	M	11	Virginia
Thompson Steele	M	9	Virginia
John Steele	M	5	Virginia
Frances Steele	F	7	Virginia

At the time of the 1850 census the Steele family lived next door to the widow Mrs. Catharine Rolston and her children. Mrs. Rolston was the aunt of Susan Rolston whom James would marry some ten years later. The Steele family was enumerated in the 1860 census of Rockingham County, Virginia:

James Steele	M	35	Virginia
Elizabeth Steele	F	19	Virginia [sister]
Thompson Steete	M	18	Virginia [brother]
Frances Steele	F	16	Virginia [sister]
John Steele	M	14	Virginia [brother]
Mary Steele	F	1	Virginia [niece?]
Lydia Sprinkel	F	14	Virginia [d/o Samel R. Sprinkel?]

Mary Steele, age 1, is assumed to have been James's niece, perhaps the daughter of James' brother

William.

On November 6, 1861 in Rockingham County, Virginia, James married Susan Rolston. Their life together was disrupted by the Civil War as James served as a captain in the army. Which army has not been determined. With the war over, James and Susan returned to a normal life of farming and raising a family. From 1870 to 1880 James' two younger brothers, William and Thompson, were living and working on his farm. Also present in 1880 was his sister Mrs. Elizabeth Roadcap and her daughter Frances. 1880 census of Central, Rockingham County, Virginia:

Timothy Q. Steele was born May 12, 1873 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of seven children born to James Steele and Susan Rolston. Timothy is not known to have ever married.

Sometime after the 1910 census Timothy left Virginia and removed to New York. He worked in Buffalo, Erie County, New York, as a laborer for the automotive manufacturer, Pierce-Arrow. He registered for the WWI draft in Buffalo in 1918. He listed his nearest relative as "J. D. Steele in Harrisonburg, Va.." J. D. Steel was Timothy's eldest brother, Jesse.

Timothy was never enumerated in the census during his adulthood, and his whereabouts are unknown. His is known to have worked as a carpenter until his retirement. When he returned to Virginia is unknown.

Timothy, 71, died in January 18, 1945 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Cooks Creek Church Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg where his parents and many of his siblings were buried. His tombstone, unlike his WWI Draft Registration, places his birth as 1871.

Notes for Sarah E. Rolston:

Sarah E. Rolston was born about 1820 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of six children born to William Rolstone and Catherine Chrisman. About 1821, when Sarah was near one year of age, her father moved the family to Trigg County, Kentucky.

On October 18, 1842 in Trigg County, Kentucky, Sarah married Felix Teer. Seven children are known to have been born to the couple, one of which died as an infant. The family was enumerated in the 1850 census of Trigg County, Kentucky:

Felix Tear	Head	M	30
Sarah Tear	Wife	F	30
Catharine Tear	Daughter	F	5
William Tear	Son	M	3
Arthur B Tear	Son	M	1

In August of 1852 son George was born but died the following month. Sarah and her husband left Trigg County in the late 1850's and had removed to Crittenden County by the time of the 1860 census.

Sarah, in her early 40's, died in Chrittenden County sometime after the 1860 census and before 1864. Her place of burial is unknown. Sarah was survived by her husband and six of their seven children.

Notes for Felix Teer:

Felix Teer was born about 1818 in Caldwell County, Kentucky, the son of William Teer. He was also known as Philip Teer or Tier. Felix may have been a nickname.

Felix married Sarah E. Rolston on October 18, 1842 in Trigg County, Kentucky. Seven children are attributed to their union. Felix removed to neighboring Crittenden County sometime between 1852 and 1860. His wife Sarah died sometime between 1860 and 1864.

On September 14, 1864 in Kentucky, Felix, age about 46, married his second wife, Sarah E. Prescott. The marriage record lists him as "Philip Tier." Two children were born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1870 census near Dycusburg in Crittenden County, Kentucky:

Felix Teer	M	52	Kentucky
Sarah E Teer	F	26	Kentucky [Felix's second wife]
John W Teer	M	15	Kentucky
Sarah E Teer	F	13	Kentucky [child from 1st wife]
Felix T Teer	M	6	Kentucky [Sarah's first child]
Frances E Teer	F	2	Kentucky

The couple either divorced or Sarah became deceased as Felix, about age 56, married his third wife, Frances S. Smith on May 17, 1874 in Crittenden County, Kentucky. The couple may have had one child.

When and where Felix died is unknown. He was not found in the 1880 census and was perhaps deceased.

Felix Teer and Sarah E. Rolston had the following children:

- i. MARY CATHERINE<sup>6</sup> TEER was born in Oct 1844 in Trigg Co., Ky.. She died on 04 Feb 1920 in Lyon Co., Ky. (age 75). She married William Thompson Brasher, son of James W. Brasher and Sarah Hamby, on 04 Jan 1860 in Crittenden Co., Kentucky. He was born in Dec 1838 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. He died on 11 Apr 1917 in Lyon Co., Ky. (age 78).

Notes for Mary Catherine Teer:

Mary Catherine Teer was born in October of 1844 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the eldest of seven children born to Felix Teer and Sarah E. Rolston. Sometime between 1850 and 1860 her father moved the family to Crittenden County. Catherine's mother died soon after the 1860 census, and her father remarried in 1864. From her father's second marriage, Mary had one half-sister and one half-brother. She may have had another half-sister from her father's third marriage.

On January 4, 1860 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Mary, age 15, married William Thompson Brasher, age 21. William may have been related to the Mrs. Polly Brasher that lived near the home of Catherine's father in the 1860 census.

Mary Catherine and William left Crittenden County, Kentucky in the early 1860's and removed to Missouri. It is suspected that their first child, name unknown, died as an infant or was stillborn. The couple spent their first years in Missouri before returning to Kentucky sometime between 1866 and 1870. Their 3rd known child was born about 1870 in Kentucky. In the 1880 census Mary, age 38, and her husband were residing in Fredonia, Caldwell County, Kentucky. The youngest of their six children was only one year old. By 1900 the family had removed to Kuttawa, Lyon County, Kentucky where they were enumerated in the census of that year. At least two more children had been born to the couple. In the census the couple incorrectly states they have been married for 36 years (about 1864), and that Mary has had eleven children of which 9 are living. The 1910 census seems to correct these statements as Mary reports ten births with eight still living and that the couple has been married for 49 years (about 1861). When and where these two unknown children were born and died is unknown.

Mary's husband died in 1917 at the age of 78. Mary was enumerated three years later on February 5, 1920 in the census of Oak Grove, Lyon County, Kentucky at the age of 76.

Mary, 75, died February 4, 1920 in Lyon County, Kentucky, and joined her husband in the New Bethel Cemetery in Lyon County, Kentucky. At the time of the 1920 census, her daughter Josephine and granddaughter Christine were living with her.

Notes for William Thompson Brasher:

William Thompson "Thomas" Brasher was born in December of 1838 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, the sixth of nine children born to James W. Brasher and Sarah Hamby. In 1860 Mrs. Polly Brasher lived near the Teer family. Although Polly's relationship to William Thompson is unknown, it may have been through her that he met Mary Catherine Teer who he would marry in 1860. By coincidence, Mrs. Polly Brasher had a son named William, age 21, but with a middle initial of "A." The two Williams are the same age and perhaps cousins.

William married Mary Catherine Teer on January 4, 1860 in Crittenden County, Kentucky. The couple removed to Missouri where they were known to have resided between 1862 and 1866, during the Civil War. William served in the 3rd Missouri Calvary. By 1870 the couple had returned to Kentucky where their 3rd known child was born. By the 1880 census the family had grown to six children and was residing in Fredonia, Caldwell County, Kentucky:

William T. Brasher	Self	M	Male	W	40	KY	Works On Farm	SC	NC

Caddie E. Brasher	Dau	S	Female	W	1	KY		KY	KY

The couple had ten children, of which only eight were living in 1900.

William, 78, preceded his wife in death on April 11, 1917 in Lyon County, Kentucky and was buried in the New Bethel Cemetery in Lyon County, Kentucky.

- ii. WILLIAM W. TEER was born on 06 May 1847 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died on 14 May 1932 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 85). He married (1) HARRIETT NARCISSA J. BRASHER, daughter of James W. Brasher and Sarah Hamby, on 22 Jan 1867 in Crittenden Co., Kentucky. She was born in 1847 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. She died between 1880-1886 in Kentucky. He married (2) MARGARET CLARISSA DODD, daughter of Thomas Dodd and Margritt Louis Boyd, on 04 Apr 1886 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. She was born in Sep 1849 in Kentucky. She died on 02 May 1940 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 90).

Notes for William W. Teer:

William W. Teer was born May 6, 1847 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the second of six children born to Felix Teer and Sarah E. Rolston. Sometime between 1850 and 1860 his father moved the family to Crittenden County. William's mother had died soon after the 1860 census and his father remarried in 1864. From his father's second marriage, William had one half-sister and one half-brother. He may have had another half-sister from his father's third marriage.

On January 22, 1867 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, William married Harriett Narcissa J. Brasher. William's older sister, Mary, had married Harriett's brother, William T. Brasher. Three children are known to have been born to the couple. His wife Harriett died sometime after 1880.

On April 4, 1886 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, William, age 38, married "Margrett E. Dodd," age 36. Two daughters were born from their union, but according to the 1910 census, Margaret had four children, two living. In the 1930 census William and his wife were enumerated with their youngest daughter, Mrs. Susie E. Brown, in Crittenden County, Kentucky:

William, 85 died May 14, 1932 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, and was buried in the Mexico Baptist Cemetery in Mexico, Crittenden County, Kentucky. He was survived by his second wife and three of his daughters.

Notes for Harriett Narcissa J. Brasher:

Harriett Narcissa J. Brasher was born about 1847 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, the youngest of nine children born to James W. Braher and Sarah Hamby.

On January 22, 1867 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Harriet married William W. Teer. Harriett's older brother William Thompson Brasher had married had married Mary Catherine Teer, Harriett's husband's older sister, some seven years earlier. Harriett and William had three known children.

Harriett preceded her husband in death sometime after 1880. He remarried in 1886.

Notes for Margaret Clarissa Dodd:

Margaret Clarissa Dodd was born in September of 1849 in Kentucky, the daughter of Thomas Dodd and Margritt (Margaret) Louis Boyd. She was enumerated with her parents in the 1850 census of Crittenden County, Kentucky:

Thomas Dodd	Male	27	Alabama
Margaret J Dodd	Female	24	Alabama
William Dodd	Male	23	Alabama [brother?]
John L Dodd	Male	3	Kentucky
Clarissa Dodd	Female	1/12	Kentucky

On April 4, 1886 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Margaret, age 36, married the widower William W. Teer, age 38. It may have been her second marriage. In the 1900 census Margaret, age 50, reports having had two children, two living, but in the 1910 census at the age of 60, she reports having had four children, two living. The two deceased children are suspected to have been children from a previous marriage not reported in the 1900 census.

- iii. ARTHUR BAILISS GREEN TEER was born on 10 Feb 1849 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died on 21 Sep 1924 in Francis, Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 75). He married Mary Catherine Milliken, daughter of Thomas Milliken, on 17 Sep 1874 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. She was born on 08 Sep 1857 in Kentucky. She died on 28 Dec 1940 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 83).

Notes for Arthur Bailiss Green Teer:

Arthur Bailiss Green Teer was born February 10, 1849 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the third of six children born to Felix Teer and Sarah E. Rolston. Arthur's mother died soon after the 1860 census, and his father remarried in 1864. From his father's second marriage, Arthur had one half-sister and one half-brother. He may have had another half-sister from his father's thrid marriage.

---

Arthur was enumerated in the 1850 census of Trigg County, Kentucky as Arthur B.. It appears that his parents changed his name to Bailiss Green some time after the 1850 census. He was also found as Balis Tier in the 1880 census of Crittenden County, Kentucky.

On September 17, 1874 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Arthur married Mary Catherine Milliken. The couple farmed and raised a family of four children. Six children were born to the couple, but two of their children died. In the 1900 census Arthur's nephew, William G. Brasher was living next door. The family moved to Brookport, Massac County, Illinois where they and two of their grandchildren were enumerated there in the 1910 census:

B G Teer	Head	M	61	Kentucky
Mary C Teer	Wife	F	50	Kentucky
Vada Teer	Granddaughter	F	7	Indiana
Leslie Teer	Grandson	M	5	Kentucky [died in 1947]

Bailiss, 79, died September 21, 1924 in Francis, Crittenden County, Kentucky, and was buried the following day in the Caldwell Springs Cemetery in Crittenden County. He was survived by his wife and at least three of his six children. Bailiss's death was reported by "Edwin Ralsten." Edwin Ralston was a cousin from his mother's side of the family.

Notes for Mary Catherine Milliken:

Mary Catherine Milliken was born September 8, 1857 in Kentucky, the daughter of Thomas Milliken. Mary was also known as Caddie. Her death certificate shows her middle name spelled as Kathryn.

On September 17, 1874 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Mary married Bailiss Green Teer. Six children were born to the couple, but two of their children died prior to 1900. The couple lived a few years in Massac County, Illinois and then returned to Crittenden County, Kentucky. Her husband died September 21, 1924 at the age of 75. In 1930 Mary was enumerated with her son William in Dycusburg, Crittenden County, Kentucky. She remained with her son until her death.

Mary, 83, died December 28, 1940 in rural Crittenden County, Kentucky and joined her husband in the Caldwell Springs Cemetery in Crittenden County.

- iv. LYDIA MARGARET TEER was born about 1852 in Trigg Co., Ky.. She died after 1880 in Kentucky. She married Andrew Jackson Stinnett Jr, son of Andrew Jackson Stinnett and Delpha Jane Rushing, on 19 Sep 1875 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. He was born on 16 Jan 1854 in Kentucky. He died on 19 Oct 1930 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 76).

Notes for Lydia Margaret Teer:

Lydia "Letta" Margaret Teer was born about 1852 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the fourth of six children born to Felix Teer and Sarah E. Rolston. Lydia's mother died soon after the 1860 census, and her father remarried in 1864. From her father's second marriage, Lydia had one half-sister and one half-brother. She may have had another half-sister from her father's thrid marriage.

Letta was not enumerated with her father in 1870 and is assumed to have married young, as did her sisters. [no record found]

On September 19, 1875 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Lydia married Andrew "Andy" Jackson Stinnett Jr.. Andrew was the brother of James Harvy Stinnett, Lydia's younger sister's husband. One child is known to have been born to Lydia and Andrew.

Lydia is presumed to have preceded her husband in death. He remarried in 1884.

- v. GEORGE W. TEER was born in Aug 1852 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died on 14 Sep 1852 in Trigg Co., Ky. (age ~1 month).

- vi. JOHN H. TEER was born in 1855 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died in 1893 in Kentucky (age ~38). He married Mary Andrew Tabor, daughter of Bluford Andrew Tabor and Mary Ann Webber, about 1878 in Kentucky. She was born on 12 Apr 1861 in Kentucky. She died on 03 Jun 1951 (age 90).

Notes for John H. Teer:

John H. (or W.) Teer was born in 1855 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the sixth of seven children born to Felix Teer and Sarah E. Rolston. He was born in either Trigg or Crittenden County. John's mother died soon after the 1860 census, and his father remarried in 1864. From his father's second marriage, John had one half-sister and one half-brother. He may have had another half-sister from his father's thrid marriage.

About 1878 in Kentucky, John married Mary Andrew "Drew" Tabor. The couple was enumerated in the 1880 census of Dycusburg, Crittenden, Kentucky with the first of their four children:

John Tier	Self	M	Male	W	25	KY	Laborer	KY	KY
Drue Tier	Wife	M	Female	W	18	KY	Keeping House	KY	Switzerland
Elsie B. Tier	Dau	S	Female	W	1	KY		KY	KY

John died in 1893 at the age of about 38 and was buried in the Caldwell Spring Cemetery in Crittenden County, Kentucky.

John's maternal aunt, Mrs. Margaret Rolston Oliver, died in 1892. In 1898 John's daughter, Elsie, married his aunt's widowed husband, Henry Oliver. In the 1900 census, John's wife and their minor children were residing with Henry Oliver.

Notes for Mary Andrew Tabor:

Mary Andrew "Drew" Tabor was born April 12, 1861 in Kentucky, the daughter of Blueford Andrew Tabor and Mary Ann Webber. Drew's father was born in Kentucky, and her mother was born in Switzerland.

About 1878 in Kentucky, Mary married John H. Teer. Four children were born to the couple. Her husband died in 1893. After husband John's death, Drew and her children moved in with her eldest daughter, Mrs. Elsie Oliver. In 1910 Drew was enumerated as an inmate in the Wetern Kentucky Asylum for the Insane in Christian County, Kentucky. She was enumerated as married (second marriage) and having had six children, five still living. In 1920 Mary was enumerated with her son, Clyde, and his family. By 1940 Mary had returned to living with her eldest daughter, Mrs. Elsie B. Brown.

Mary, 90, died June 3, 1951 and was buried in the Caldwell Spring Cemetery in Crittenden County, Kentucky.

- vii. SARAH ELLEN TEER was born on 31 May 1858 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. She died about 1877 in Kentucky. She married James Harvy Stinnett, son of Andrew Jackson Stinnett and Delpha Jane Rushing, on 17 Nov 1872 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. He was born on 02 Apr 1848 in Bedford Co., Tenn.. He died on 01 Feb 1937 in Livingston Co., Ky. (age 88).

Notes for Sarah Ellen Teer:

Sarah Ellen Teer was born May 31, 1858 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, the youngest of six children born to Felix Teer and Sarah E. Rolston. Sarah's mother died soon after the 1860 census, and her father remarried in 1864. From her father's second marriage, Sarah had one half-sister and one half-brother. She may have had another half-sister from her father's thrid marriage.

On November 17, 1872 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Sarah, age 14, married James Harvy Stinnett, age 24. Two children are attributed to their union.

Sarah is believed to have died in 1877 soon after the birth of their second child. Her place of burial is unknown.

Notes for James Harvy Stinnett:

James H. Stinnett was born April 2, 1848 in Bedford County, Tennessee, the son of Andrew J. Stinnett and Delpha Jane Rushing. About 1855, the family moved to Kentucky. The family was enumerated in the 1860 census of Marion, Crittenden County, Kentucky:

Andrew J Stinnett	M	43	Virginia
Delpha J Stinnett	F	39	Tennessee
Elisabeth C Stinnett	F	18	Tennessee
Margaret P Stinnett	F	17	Tennessee
Nancy C Stinnett	F	15	Tennessee
James H Stinnett	M	12	Tennessee
Andrew J Stinnett	M	6	Tennessee
Mary S Stinnett	F	3	Kentucky [Mary Susan Holloman 1857-1947]
Wm E Stinnett	M	0	Kentucky

James was still living at home in 1870.

On November 17, 1872 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, James, about age 24, married Sarah Ellen Teer, age 14. Sarah is believed to have died soon after the birth of the couple's second child.

On March 10, 1878 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, James, age 30, married Miss Nancy N. Sanders, age 23. One child is known to have been born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Dycusburg, Crittenden County, Kentucky:

J H Stinnett	Self	Male	22	Kentucky [correct age 32]
Nancy N Stinnett	Wife	Female	24	Kentucky
Sarah J Stinnett	Daughter	Female	4	Kentucky
Lou E Stinnett	Daughter	Female	11/12	Kentucky
Robert H Stinnett	Son	Male	3	Kentucky

What became of his second wife is unknown.

On November 1, 1883 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, James married Alice Rodgers. Children born to their union, if any, are unknown. They later divorced.

316. ELIZABETH ANN S.<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (William<sup>4</sup> Rolstone, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born about 1821 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died between 1860-1867 in Cadiz, Trigg Co., Ky.. She married Isaac Burnham on 25 Nov 1840 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He was born about 1800 in North Carolina. He died between 1870-1880 in Cadiz, Trigg Co., Ky. (age 70+).

Notes for Elizabeth Ann S. Rolston:

Elizabeth Ann S. Rolston was born about 1821 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of six children born to William Rolstone and Catherine Chrisman. Shortly after her birth, her father moved the family from Rockingham County west to Trigg County, Kentucky.

On November 25, 1840 in Trigg County, Elizabeth married the widower Isaac Burnham (Burnam).

The membership record of the Donaldson Creek Baptist Church in Trigg County, Kentucky shows Elizabeth Bourland added in November of 1840. These same church records indicate that she died in October of 1841, less than a year after their marriage; however, this may be a child and not Elizabeth Ann. Because of the similarities between the surnames Bourland and Burnham, the church record may not even be for the Isaac Burnham family.

In the 1850 census of Trigg County, Elizabeth and Isaac were enumerated with seven children. Benjamin 17, Wilson 15, and Celia 13 were from Isaac's first marriage. The children from the union of Elizabeth and Isaac were Catherine 8, Isaac 6, Jane 3, and Samuel 2. Four more sons were be born before the next census.

---

In the book "Trigg Co., KY Birth Records 1852-1859 + 1861" by Don Simmons, the following Burnham births are recorded:

#747 - Burnham, Clay C.; Isaac Burnam; Eliz. Rolston, 6-09-1854

#1229 - Burnam, Millard Fillmore; Isaac Burnam & E. Rolston, 12-15-1857

In September of 1858 the family was engulfed in the Scarlet Fever epidemic. Sons L. H., Clay C., and Millard Fillmore died of Scarlet Fever. Son Samuel who died sometime before the 1860 census may have also died during this epidemic. By the 1860 census half of their eight children were dead.

Elizabeth died sometime between 1860 and 1867 in Cadiz, Trigg County, Kentucky. Her place of burial are unknown. She was survived by her husband who remarried in 1867.

Notes for Isaac Burnham:

Isaac Burnham, also found as Burnam, was born about 1800 in North Carolina. He is thought to have been born in Camden County. His parentage is uncertain, but he states later in life that they were both born in North Carolina. "Isaac Burnham came from North Carolina and located near Ferry Corner about the year 1805." {History of Trigg County, Historical and Biographical, William Henry Perrin, 1884, Chapter 11}

On July 19, 1825 in Caldwell County, Kentucky, Isaac married Ann Garrett. Three children from this union are known by name. As there is a seven year gap between their marriage and the birth of their first known child, one or two other children were likely born and died as infants or young children. Ann died sometime between 1837 and 1840.

In the 1840 census of Cadiz, Trigg County, Kentucky, "Isaac Burnand" and his family were residing near the residence of William Rolston. The family consists of seven children:

males	females
2 - 5<10, 1 - 10<15, 1 - 30<40;	1 - 0<5, 2 - 5<10, 1 - 10<15, 1 - 20<30

The family was enumerated on July 27, 1860, some four months before Isaac's marriage to Elizabeth Ann S. Rolston. All the children listed in the 1840 census were from his marriage to Ann Garrett. There is, however, some speculation that Isaac was also married to an Elizabeth A. Redd. As such, the children could be from one or both of these wives.

On November 25, 1840 in Trigg County, Kentucky, Isaac Burnham married Elizabeth Ann S. Rolston. The couple had eight children, of which, only two were daughters. Three and possibly four of their sons died in 1858 of Scarlet Fever. Sometime after 1860, Isaac's wife Elizabeth died.

On November 10, 1867, he married Mary Ann Adams, and she became his third, or possibly fourth, wife. The couple, along with Isaac's sons David and William, were enumerated in the 1870 census.

Isaac died between 1870 and 1880. He likely died and was buried in Trigg County, Kentucky.

Isaac Burnham and Elizabeth Ann S. Rolston had the following children:

- i. SARAH CATHERINE<sup>6</sup> BURNHAM was born on 05 Mar 1842 in Trigg Co., Ky.. She died on 23 Jul 1913 in Trigg Co., Ky. (age 71). She married (1) W. G. YANCY on 18 Dec 1860 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He was born in Kentucky. She married (2) CHARLES H. MORRIS on 24 Aug 1869 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He was born on 25 Dec 1828 in Christian Co., Ky.. He died on 15 Sep 1902 in Trigg Co., Ky. (age 73).

Notes for Sarah Catherine Burnham:

Sarah Catherine Burnham was born March 5, 1842 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the eldest of eight children born to Isaac Burnham (Burnam) and Elizabeth Ann S. Rolston. She was known by her middle name, Catherine. Sarah's father was previously married, and from that union Sarah had two half-brothers and one half-sister. Sarah's mother died, and her father married a third time. No children were born to her father's third marriage.

On December 8, 1860 in Trigg County, Kentucky, Sarah, age 18, married Mr. W. G.

Yancy. One son is known to have been born from their union. What became of Mr. Yancy is unknown.

On August 24, 1869 the widowed, Mrs. Cathernine Yancy, married Charles H. Morris. Seven children were born to their union; one died in infancy. The couple lived in Bethesda, Trigg County, Kentucky, where they were enumerated during the 1880 census with their four sons and Jeff D. Yancy, Sarah's son from her previous marriage.

Husband Charles preceded her in death on September 15, 1902 at the age of 73. In the 1910 census she was enumerated at the home of her eldest son, Milton Morris. She states in that census that she has had eight children, seven were still living.

Sarah, 71, died July 23, 1913 in Trigg County, Kentucky, and was buried next to her second husband in the Morris Cemetery in Siloam, Trigg County, Kentucky.

Notes for W. G. Yancy:

He may be the G. [George] W. Yancy enumerated in the 1860 census of Hopkinsville P.O., Christian County, Kentucky. Yancy was 19 years old and born in Kentucky to George and Elizabeth Yancy.

Mr. Yancy may have died during the Civil War. Wirt Yancy served in the 9th Regiment of the Kentucky Cavalry, Union Army. The 9th Regiment lost 5 men, killed or mortally wounded, and another 101 men died of disease.

Notes for Charles H. Morris:

Charles H. Morris was born Christmas Day, December 25, 1828, in Christian County, Kentucky. Although his parentage is unknown, he lists them as both having been born in Virginia. Charles could neither read nor write.

On August 24, 1869 in Trigg County, Kentucky, Charles married the widow Mrs. Sarah Catherine Burnham Yancy. She had a son from her first marriage. The couple farmed near Bethesda in Trigg County, Kentucky. Seven children were born to the couple, but one died in infancy.

Charles, 73, preceded his wife in death on September 15, 1902 in Trigg County, Kentucky and was buried in the Morris Cemetery in Siloam, Trigg County, Kentucky. He was survived by six of his seven children and one stepson.

- ii. WILLIAM ISAAC BURNHAM was born on 25 Mar 1844 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died on 05 Apr 1878 in Kentucky (age 34).

Notes for William Isaac Burnham:

William Isaac Burnham was born March 25, 1844 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the second of eight children born to Isaac Burnham (Burnam) and Elizabeth Ann S. Rolston. William's father was previously married, and from that union William had two half-brothers and one half-sister. William's mother died between 1860 and 1867, and his father married a third time. No children were born to his father's third marriage.

William lived at home. In the 1870 census William was living with his father and stepmother. He was 25 years of age, single, and working as a school teacher.

William, 34, died April 5, 1878 in Kentucky, and was buried as W. I. Burnam in the Standrod Cemetery in Cadiz, Trigg County, Kentucky.

- iii. MARGARET JANE BURNAM was born about 1847 in Trigg Co., Ky.. She died after 1870. She married James H. Kenady on 04 Feb 1866 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He was born about 1838 in Kentucky.

Notes for Margaret Jane Burnam:

Margaret Jane Burnam was born about 1847 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the third of eight children born to Isaac Burnham (Burnam) and Elizabeth Ann S. Rolston. Jane's father was previously married, and from that union, Jane had two half-brothers and one half-sister. Jane's mother died, and her father married a third time. No children were born to her father's third marriage.

On February 4, 1866 in Trigg County, Kentucky, Margaret, age 19, married James H. Kenady (Kennedy?), age 28. The couple farmed in Trigg County. They were enumerated in the 1870 census of the Bethesda Precinct of Trigg County with no children.

What became of the couple after 1870 is unknown.

Notes for James H. Kenady:
James H. Kenady/Kennedy

- iv. SAMUEL BURNHAM was born about 1848 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died before 1860 in Trigg Co., Ky..

Notes for Samuel Burnham:

Samuel Burnham (Burnam) was born about 1848 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the fourth of eight children born to Isaac Burnham and Elizabeth Ann S. Rolston. Samuel's father was previously married, and from that union Samuel had two half-brothers and one half-sister. Samuel's mother died, and his father married a third time. No children were born to his father's third marriage.

Samuel appears in the 1850 census at the age of 2 years but is deceased by the time of the 1860 census. In September of 1858, two years prior to the 1860 census, three of Samuel's brothers died of Scarlet Fever. If Samuel was living at that time, he too may have died during this epidemic.

- v. L. H. BURNHAM was born about 1850 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died on 11 Sep 1858 in Trigg Co., Ky. (age ~8).
- vi. DAVID C. BURNHAM was born about 1852 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died after 1870.

Notes for David C. Burnham:

David C. Burnham (Burnam) was born about 1852 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the sixth of eight children born to Isaac Burnham and Elizabeth Ann S. Rolston. David's father was previously married, and from that union David had two half-brothers and one half-sister. David's mother died, and his father married a third time. No children were born to his father's third marriage.

In the 1870 census, David was 19 years of age, living and working on the family farm of his father and stepmother. David could not read nor write, yet his older brother William, who was also residing at home, was a school teacher.

David's father died shortly after the 1870 census, and his stepmother remarried. What became of David is unknown. He was not enumerated with the family in 1880.

- vii. CLAY C. BURNHAM was born on 09 Jun 1854 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died on 14 Sep 1858 in Trigg Co., Ky. (age 4).
- viii. MILLARD FILLMORE BURNHAM was born on 15 Dec 1857 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died on 11 Sep 1858 in Trigg Co., Ky. (age 8 mos.).

317. MARGARET C.<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (William<sup>4</sup> Rolstone, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 06 Jan 1823 in Trigg Co., Ky.. She died on 27 Nov 1892 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 69). She married Henry White Oliver, son of Walter Oliver and Mary Cox Winn, on 02 Sep 1847 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He was born on 17 Oct 1816 in Virginia. He died on 11 May 1873 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 56).

Notes for Margaret C. Rolston:

Margaret C. Rolston was born January 6, 1823 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the fourth of six children born to William Rolstone and Catherine Chrisman.

On September 2, 1847 in Trigg County, Kentucky, Margaret married Henry White Oliver. Seven children were born to the couple, but two of the children died young. Margaret and Henry lived close to her parents farm in Trigg County, Kentucky until sometime between 1854 and 1857, when they sold that land and moved to neighboring Crittenden County. They resided there for the remainder of their lives.

The 1870 census of Crittenden County shows a Margaret Tear (Teer), age 18, residing with the Oliver family. Margaret Rolston had a sister, Sarah, that married into the Tear family, and this Margaret Tear is expected to be of some relation to that family. Margaret's son David, who was the same age as this Margaret Tear, later marry Elsie Bell Teer. Elsie Teer was also probably related to Margaret Teer.

Henry, Margaret's husband of 25 years, died May 11, 1873 at the age of 56. Their two youngest children still lived at home. In the 1880 census Margaret's younger sister Mary, wife of the late Samuel W. Laneave (or Lanieve), was residing with her and her two youngest children.

Margaret, 69, died November 27, 1892 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, and was buried as "Margret C. wife of H. W. Oliver" in the Oliver Cemetery in Crittenden County.

Notes for Henry White Oliver:

Henry White Oliver was born October 17, 1816 in Virginia, the son of Walter Oliver and Mary Cox Winn.

On September 2, 1847 in Trigg County, Kentucky, Henry married Margaret C. Rolston. Henry's parents lived next door to the widow Mrs. Catherine Rolston at the time of the 1850 census of Trigg County, Kentucky. Henry and Margaret lived nearby and had already had their first child, daughter Mary Catherine. A total of seven children were born to the couple. By 1857 the family had moved to Crittenden County, Kentucky where they remained until their deaths.

Henry, 56, preceded his wife in death on May 11, 1873 and was buried in the Oliver Cemetery in Crittenden County, Kentucky. Two of his seven children had preceded him. He was survived by his daughters Mrs. Mary Pogue, Mrs. Sarah Wicker, Miss Eliza, and sons David and William.

Henry White Oliver and Margaret C. Rolston had the following children:

- i. MARY CATHERINE<sup>6</sup> OLIVER was born on 22 Aug 1849 in Trigg Co., Ky.. She died on 14 Apr 1939 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 89). She married William Washington Pogue Sr., son of Thomas Pogue and Harriet Cruze, on 19 Dec 1866 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. He was born on 11 Dec 1845 in Murray, Calloway Co., Ky.. He died on 05 Mar 1926 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 80).

Notes for Mary Catherine Oliver:

Mary Catherine Oliver was born August 22, 1849 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the eldest of seven children born to Henry White Oliver and Margaret C. Rolston. She was also known as Mary Kay in later years. Her father moved the family to neighboring Crittenden County sometime before 1857. She was enumerated there in the 1860 census at the age of 10.

On December 19, 1866 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Mary, age 17, married William Washington Pogue. The couple remained in Crittenden County where eight children were born. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census, and Mary reported that one of her eight children was deceased. Three of their younger children were still lived at home, plus their widowed son Henry and his four children. Boarding with the family was W. A. Oliver, Mary's nephew.

Mary's husband, William, died in 1926. In the 1930 census the widow Mary was enumerated with her only daughter, Mrs. Cora Hodge.

Mary, 89, died April 14, 1939 in Crittenden County, Kentucky was buried next to her husband in the Oliver Cemetery in Crittenden County.

Notes for William Washington Pogue Sr.:

William Washington Pogue, Sr. was born December 11, 1845 in Murray, Calloway County, Kentucky, the son of Thomas Pogue and Harriet Cruze. He was enumerated at the age of four in Calloway County, Kentucky.

On December 19, 1866 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, William married Mary Catherine Oliver. The couple resided in Crittenden County, Kentucky where they farmed and raised a family of eight children. In later years William was a salesman. The couple left Kentucky after 1900 and was enumerated in Fort Green, DeSoto County, Florida in 1910. The couple returned to Crittenden County, Kentucky by the time of the 1920 census.

William, 80, preceded his wife in death on March 5, 1926 in Crittenden County, Kentucky and was buried in the Oliver Cemetery in Crittenden County.

- ii. DAVID HENRY OLIVER was born on 06 Dec 1852 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died on 20 Aug 1903 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 50). He married (1) ANN CATHARINE WICKER, daughter of John C. Wicker and Flora, on 17 Oct 1870 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. She was born on 15 Jul 1849 in Moore Co., Ky.. She died on 06 Aug 1892 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 43). He married (2) ELSIE BELL TEER, daughter of John H. Teer and Mary Andrew Tabor, on 20 Jan 1898 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. She was born on 09 Jan 1879 in Kentucky. She died on 07 Nov 1961 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 82).

Notes for David Henry Oliver:

David Henry Oliver was born December 6, 1852 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the second of seven children born to Henry White Oliver and Margaret C. Rolston. His father moved the family to neighboring Crittenden County sometime before 1857.

On October 17, 1870 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, David married Ann Catherine Wicker. Three children are known to have been born to the couple, but their first child died after only a few weeks. David's wife Ann died August 6, 1892 at the age of 43.

About six years later, on January 20, 1898 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, David married Elsie Bell Teer, a first cousin, once removed. She was 19, and David was 45. No children are known to have been born to the couple.

David, 50, preceded his second wife in death on August 20, 1903 in Crittenden County, Kentucky and was buried in the Oliver Cemetery in Crittenden County.

Notes for Elsie Bell Teer:

Elsie Bell Teer was born January 9, 1879 in Kentucky, the eldest of four children born to John W. Teer and Mary Andrew "Drew" Tabor. Elsie was the granddaughter of Felix Teer and Sarah E. Rolston.

On January 20, 1898 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Elsie, age 19, married her first cousin once removed, the widower David Henry Oliver, age 45. No children are known to have been born from their union, but in the 1900 census Elsie reports two children born, none living. Elsie's widowed mother lived with them. Elsie's husband David died in August of 1903.

Elsie's whereabouts between 1900 and 1930 are unknown.

Elsie married William "Bill" Newton Brown. The couple, each in their 50's, was enumerated in the 1930 census of Dycusburg, Crittenden County, Kentucky. Residing with the couple was a boarder named "John H.", age 65. John's surname was not noted in the census transcript. By 1940 Elsie's mother had returned to living with her. The family was enumerated in the 1940 census of the 3rd District of Crittenden County, Kentucky:

William N Brown	Head	M	61	Kentucky
Elsie B Brown	Wife	F	61	Kentucky
Mary A Teer	Mother-in-law	F	79	Kentucky (widowed)

Else is said to have died November 7, 1961 in Crittenden County, Kentucky at the age of 82, but her death does not appear in the Kentucky State Death Index. Her place of burial is unknown.

- iii. SARAH J. OLIVER was born on 15 Oct 1854 in Trigg Co., Ky.. She died on 06 Dec 1901 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 47). She married Archibald B. Wicker, son of John C. Wicker and Flora, on 03 Jan 1869 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. He was born about 1845 in North Carolina. He died between 1896-1900 in Kentucky.

Notes for Sarah J. Oliver:

Sarah J. Oliver was born October 15, 1854 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the third of seven children born to Henry White Oliver and Margaret C. Rolston. The "J" was probably for Jane. Sarah resided in Trigg County until her father moved the family to neighboring Crittenden County sometime before 1857.

On January 3, 1869 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Sarah, age 15, married Archibald B. Wicker, age 24, a farmer from North Carolina. They were enumerated in the 1870 census of Crittenden County. No children were enumerated with the couple, but Sarah's husband's younger sister, Ann, was living with them. Seven children were born to the couple, but three died in infancy or early childhood. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Crittenden County, Kentucky:

A. B. Wicker	Self	M	34	North Carolina
Sarah J. Wicker		Wife	F	24	Kentucky
William O. Wicker		Son	M	3	Kentucky
David E. Wicker		Son	M	2	Kentucky
Belle Hall		Other	F	16	Kentucky
Henry Cash	Other	M	23	Kentucky

Sarah's husband died between 1896 and 1900. In the 1900 census Sarah was enumerated as widowed. Her two sons, William and David, worked on the family farm.

Sarah, 47, died December 6, 1901 in Crittenden County, Kentucky and was buried in the Oliver Cemetery in Crittenden County.

- iv. GEORGE B. OLIVER was born on 14 Feb 1856 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. He died on 20 Jun 1858 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 2).

Notes for George B. Oliver:

George B. Oliver was born February 14, 1857 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, the fourth of seven children born to Henry White Oliver and Margaret C. Rolston. George died as a child. He does not appear in the 1860 census with his parents and siblings.

- v. COLUMBUS W. OLIVER was born on 04 Jan 1859 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. He died on 04 Aug 1861 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 2).
- vi. WILLIAM FOREST OLIVER was born on 12 Aug 1862 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. He died on 11 Jul 1916 in Evansville, Vanderburgh Co., Ind. (age 53). He married Mary Francis Wheeler, daughter of William Henry Wheeler and Rebecca M. Parish, on 12 Feb 1885 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. She was born on 13 Oct 1863 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. She died on 21 Jun 1940 (age 76).

Notes for William Forest Oliver:

William Forest Oliver was born August 12, 1862 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, the sixth of seven children born to Henry White Oliver and Margaret C. Rolston. William's father died in 1873 when William was ten or eleven years old. In the 1880 census William was living with his mother and working on the family's farm.

On February 12, 1885 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, William married Mary Francis Wheeler. The couple farmed. Six children, four daughters and two sons, were born to their union, but their youngest child, son Arthur, died before his first birthday.

William, 53, died from an automobile accident on July 11, 1916 in Evansville, Vanderburgh County, Indiana. He was presumably in Evansville on business. William was buried in the Oliver Cemetery in Crittenden County, Kentucky.

Notes for Mary Francis Wheeler:

In the 1920 census of Dycusburg, Crittenden County, Kentucky, the widow Mrs. Mary F. Oliver was living with her son Ray. Ray moved to Indiana on or before 1930, but Mary was not enumerated with him until 1940.

Mary, 76, died June 21, 1940, shortly after the 1940 census was taken. Kentucky Death Certificate #16377 lists her place of death as Crittenden County and her residence as Indiana.

- vii. ELIZA FANNY OLIVER was born on 27 Oct 1865 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. She died on 17 Oct 1889 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 23). She married George Lewis Whitt on 30 Dec 1880 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. He was born on 03 Apr 1855 in Virginia. He died on 10 Aug 1935 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 80).

Notes for Eliza Fanny Oliver:

Eliza Frances "Fanny" Oliver was born October 27, 1865 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, the youngest of seven children born to Henry White Oliver and Margaret C. Rolston. Eliza's father died in 1873 when Eliza was about seven years of age. Eliza was living at home in Dycusburg, Crittenden County, Kentucky with her mother during the 1880 census, where she was enumerated as Fanny Oliver, age 14.

On December 30, 1880 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Eliza married George Lewis Whitt. Five children were born to the couple.

Eliza died October 17, 1889 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, ten days shy of her 24th birthday. She was buried in the Oliver Cemetery in Crittenden County.

Notes for George Lewis Whitt:

George Lewis Whitt was born April 3, 1855 in Virginia, the son of Sarah Hudson Whitt.

On December 30, 1880 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, George married Eliza Fanny Oliver. Five children were born to the couple. His wife Eliza died in 1889.

About 1891, George married Elmina "Mina" Jane Moore. Four children were born to the couple, but two died in infancy. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of Crittenden County, Kentucky:

G L Whitt	Head	M	45	Virginia
Mina Whitt	Wife	F	33	Kentucky
Nora G Whitt	Daughter	F	19	Kentucky
Henry T Whitt	Son	M	17	Kentucky

William Rolstone and Catherine Chrisman. Her middle initial of "J" was likely for Jane. Her father died about 1847.

On March 18, 1852 in Trigg County, Kentucky, Miss Rolston, age 30, married the widower, Samuel Lanieve, about age 52. One child is attributed to their union, a son born and died in 1854. Mary's husband appears to have died sometime before 1860. "Mary Ralston," age 35, was enumerated with her widowed mother in the 1860 census of Trigg County, Kentucky. After her mother's death, Mary moved in with her sister, Mrs. Margaret Oliver, where she was enumerated during the 1880 census of Dycusburg, Crittenden County, Kentucky. She may have remained with her sister until her sister Margaret's death in 1892.

Mary, 74, died March 27, 1897 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, and was buried as "Mary J. Leneave" in the Oliver Cemetery in Crittenden County.

Notes for Samuel Lanieve:

Samuel Lanieve was born about 1800 in Virginia. Surname: Laneave, LaNeave or Lanieve. Middle initial reported as "W."

On June 6, 1825 in Mecklenburg, Virginia, Samuel married Mary Malone. Four children were born to the couple before his wife's death. It is not known when Samuel removed to Kentucky. He was enumerated in the 1850 census of Trigg County, Kentucky:

Samuel Lanieve	Male	50	Virginia (farmer)
Beverly H Lanieve	Male	21	Virginia (farmer)
Emily N Lanieve	Female	16	Virginia
Ewel W Lanieve	Male	12	Virginia
Edward B Lanieve	Male	23	Virginia (farmer)
Kizziah E Lanieve	Female	20	Kentucky [Miss Keziah Burnam, wife of Edward]

On March 18, 1852 in Trigg County, Kentucky, "Samuel Lanieve" married Mary Rolston. A child was born and died in 1854.

Samuel died sometime before 1860 in Kentucky. His place of burial is unknown.

Samuel Lanieve and Mary J. Rolston had the following child:

- i. SON<sup>6</sup> LANEAVE was born on 27 Sep 1854 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died on 27 Sep 1854 in Trigg Co., Ky. ((infant)).

319. DAVID WILLIAM<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (William<sup>4</sup> Rolstone, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 17 Mar 1837 in Trigg Co., Ky.. He died on 10 Jun 1906 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 69). He married (1) ARLENA BOYD, daughter of Permetus Boyd and Mildred Stallings, on 14 Dec 1863 in Trigg Co., Ky.. She was born on 08 Jan 1845 in Kentucky. She died on 21 Apr 1902 in Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 57). He married (2) MARY JANE after 1902 in Kentucky.

Notes for David William Rolston:

David William Rolston was born March 17, 1837 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the fifth of six children and only son born to William Rolstone and Catherine Chrisman. He was also known as William Rolston.

On December 14, 1863 in Trigg County, Kentucky, David married Arlena Boyd. Eleven children were born to the couple of which only nine are known. David and his wife lived and farmed in Trigg County until sometime after 1880 when they removed to neighboring Crittenden County.

Arlean, David's wife of 38 years, died April 21, 1902 at the age of 57. David was 65 years old at the time of her death. He is said to have married a woman by the name of Mary Jane, but this marriage was relatively brief.

David, 69, died June 10, 1906 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, and was buried in the Caldwell Spring Cemetery in Crittenden County. He was survived by eight of his eleven children.

Notes for Arlena Boyd:

Arlena Boyd was born January 8, 1845 in Kentucky, the third child and eldest daughter born to Permetus

Boyd and Mildred "Milly" Stallings.

On December 14, 1863 in Trigg County, Kentucky Arlena married David William Rolston. According to the 1900 census, Arlena had 11 children, 8 of which were still living at the time of the 1900 census. The names and dates of birth of two of her children are missing from the family information, but based on the pattern of births of the known children, the unknown children were her third and fifth born.

Arlena, 57, died April 21, 1902 in Crittenden County, Kentucky and was buried in the Caldwell Spring Cemetery in Crittenden County. She was survived by her husband and eight of her eleven children.

David William Rolston and Arlena Boyd had the following children:

- i. ELLA<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 04 Nov 1864 in Trigg Co., Ky.. She died on 24 Jun 1936 in Francis, Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 71). She married James Henry Shadowen, son of John Shadowen and Eliza J. Sullivan, on 10 Nov 1887 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. He was born on 15 Feb 1862 in Lyon Co., Ky.. He died on 09 Nov 1937 in Francis, Crittenden Co., Ky. (age 75).

Notes for Ella Rolston:

Ella Rolston was born November 4, 1864 in Trigg County, Kentucky, the eldest of eleven children born to David William Rolston and Arlena Boyd. Soon after 1880 her father moved the family to neighboring Crittenden County.

On November 10, 1887 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Ella married James Henry Shadowen (or Shadowens). The couple lived in Crittenden County, Kentucky where seven children were known to have been born to the couple; three had died prior to 1900. Two more children, sons Jesse and Henry, died after 1900, preceding their parents in death.

Ella, 71, preceded her husband in death on June 24, 1936 in Francis, Crittenden County, Kentucky and was buried as Ella Shadowens in the Caldwell Springs Cemetery in Crittenden County, Kentucky. She was survived by her husband, daughter Mrs. Lela Oliver and her youngest son, William. Also surviving were five brothers and one sister.

Notes for James Henry Shadowen:

James Henry Shadowen was born February 15, 1862 in Lyon County, Kentucky, the son of John Shadowen and Eliza J. Sullivan. His father died sometime between 1864 and 1870. In the 1880 census Henry, age 18, was enumerated with his widowed mother and his younger brother John. They were living in Crittenden County with James's older sister, Mrs. Nancy Charles.

On November 10, 1887 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, James married Ella Rolston. Seven children, perhaps more, were born to the couple. Three of their children had died prior to 1900, and their two surviving sons died early in life. Ella, James' wife of some 48 years, preceded him in death in 1936.

James, 75, died the following year on November 9, 1937 in Francis, Crittenden County, Kentucky and joined his wife in the Caldwell Springs Cemetery in Crittenden County, Kentucky. He was buried as J. Henry Shadowens. James was survived by his daughter Mrs. Lela Oliver and son William.

Notes for Norval Lee Pierce:

Norval Lee Pierce was born December 31, 1871 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, the fifth of seven children born to James Perry Pierce and Emeline F. Rolston. His childhood was spent in Crittenden County. His mother died in 1895, and his father remarried the following year. From that union Norval had one half-sister.

On October 24, 1912 in Marsailles, LaSalle County, Illinois, Norval, age 40, married Margaret Ramey Bond, age 37. The couple resided for some time in Woodville, Wilkinson County, Mississippi where their two children were born in 1914 and 1918. The family moved to Chicago, Cook County, Illinois; enumerated there in 1930. Their first born, Norval Lee Pierce, Jr. died in Chicago on April 27, 1931 at the age of 16. The family then moved to Natchitoches, Natchitoches Parish, Louisiana.

Norval, Sr., 79, died May 8, 1951 in Natchitoches, Natchitoches Parish, Louisiana, and was buried in the American Cemetery in Natchitoches. He was survived by his wife and son James. Norval's parents and siblings had all preceded him in death.

Notes for Margaret Ramey Bond:

Daughter of Robert Lewis Bond and Martha "Mattie" Jane Ramey.

After her husband's death in 1951, Margaret moved to Wisconsin where her son lived.

Obituary: Natchitoches:

Mrs Margaret Pierce

Mrs Margaret Bond Pierce died on February 18 in Natchitoches, Louisiana, at the age of 95 years.

Mrs. Pierce was born in Carrollton, Kentucky, December 14, 1874, to Mr and Mrs Robert L Bond and married October 24, 1912 to Norval Lee Pierce in Marseilles, Ill.

They subsequently lived in Woodville, Mississippi, Tupelo, Mississippi, Chicago, Illinois, and Natchitoches, Louisiana. Mr Pierce died in 1951.

She was preceded in death by her sisters Mrs Mayne Smith of California, Mrs Dorothy Hayes of Lexington, Kentucky, Mrs Julia Spaulding of Natchitoches, Louisiana and one brother R.F. Bond of New Orleans, Louisiana.

Mrs Pierce is survived by one son, James F. Pierce of Grafton, Wisconsin, two grandchildren, Mrs Brian Olson of Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, and Larry S. Pierce, a junior at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin and two great-grandchildren.

- vi. GEORGE COLLIN PIERCE was born on 19 May 1873 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. He died on 05 Mar 1939 in St. Louis (city), Mo. (age 65). He married (1) LUCY RUTH BOAZ, daughter of John D. Boaz and Electa M. Carnahan, on 24 Mar 1897 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. She was born on 07 Mar 1880 in Marion, Crittenden Co., Ky.. She died in Dec 1963 in St. Louis, St. Louis Co., Mo. (age 83). He married (2) LUCY RUTH FARRIS about 1906. She was born on 04 Feb 1885 in Salem, Livingston Co., Ky. (age 12). She died in Jan 1975 in Kansas City, Jackson Co., Mo. (age 89). He married (3) LOUISE J about 1924. She was born on 06 Jul 1882 in Illinois. She died on 02 Apr 1961 (age ~62).

Notes for George Collin Pierce:

George Collin Pierce was born May 19, 1873 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, the sixth of seven children born to James Perry Pierce and Emeline F. Rolston.

George was married three times. His first marriage was to Lucy Ruth Boaz on March 24, 1897 in Crittenden County, Kentucky. Two children (twin daughters?) were born to the couple. The couple separated prior to the 1900 census. Lucy was enumerated in Kentucky with her mother and George was working as a watchman in St. Louis, Missouri. He was enumerated there in the 1900 census and lists only himself.

About 1906, George married Lucy Ruth Farris. In the 1910 census George, Ruth and their three children were residing in St. Louis. George had changed careers and was in the life insurance business. By 1920 George had again changed careers and was working as a driver for a dairy company; he is assumed to have been delivering milk. The couple separated and divorced sometime after the 1920 census.

In the 1930 census of St. Louis, Missouri, George was enumerated with his "new" wife Louise. George had once again changed careers and was working as a baggage handler at the railroad station. No children are known to have been born to their union. Sometime after the 1930 census, George became a Mail Clerk, working at the Union Station.

George, 65, died on March 5, 1939 in St. Louis, Missouri, when he was struck by a car, fracturing his skull. He died in route to the hospital. George's remains were taken to Odd Fellows Cemetery in Xenia, Clay County, Illinois for burial. George was survived by one brother, Norval Pierce. When George died, he was listed as married to Lucy. George's third wife, Louise, seems to have also gone by the name of Lucy, and was buried next to George as Lucy J. Pierce after her death in 1961.

Notes for Lucy Ruth Boaz:

Lucy Ruth Boaz was born March 7, 1880 in Marion, Crittenden County, Kentucky, the daughter of John D. Boaz and Electa M. Carnahan.

On March 24, 1897 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, Lucy married George Collin Pierce. Twin daughters were born to the couple. The couple divorced prior to the 1900 census, and Lucy and the twin girls were enumerated with Lucy's mother in the 1900 census of Marion, Crittenden County, Kentucky:

Electa M Boaz	Head	F	56	Kentucky (divorced)
Lucy R Pierce	Daughter	F	20	Kentucky (divorced)
Electa F Pierce	Granddaughter	F	2	Kentucky
Letha M Pierce	Granddaughter	F	2	Kentucky
Jno N Watson	Boarder	M	28	Ketncuky

About 1904, Lucy married Edward J. Harrod. No children were born from their union. The couple and Lucy's two daughters were enumerated in the 1910 census of Marion, Crittenden County, Kentucky:

Edward J Harrod	Head	M	49	Ohio
Lucy R Harrod	Wife	F	30	Kentucky
Letha M Pierce	Stepdaughter	F	12	Kentucky
Electa F Pierce	Stepdaughter	F	12	Kentucky

Lucy and her second husband separated and/or divorced by 1920. In the 1920 census, Edward was enumerated in Kentucky, but Lucy and her twin daughters had removed to Missouri and were enumerated in St. Louis:

Lucy Harrod	Head	F	39	Kentucky (married)
Maurine Harrod	Daughter	F	21	Kentucky
Florine Harrod	Daughter	F	21	Kentucky

In the 1930 census of St. Louis, St. Louis County, Missouri, Lucy was enumerated as widowed. Her first husband, George Collin Pierce, who also living in St. Louis, was married to his third wife. Ex-husband George died in 1939.

In 1940, Lucy was enumerated in Rochester, Monroe County, New York. What took her to New York is unknown. She later returned to St. Louis.

Lucy, 83, died in St. Louis, St. Louis County, Missouri in December of 1963. Her body was returned to Kentucky where she was buried as "Lucy Boaz Harrod" in the Mapleview Cemetery in Marion, Crittenden County, Kentucky.

Notes for Lucy Ruth Farris:

Lucy Ruth Farris was born February 4, 1885 in Salem, Livingston County, Kentucky, one of sixteen children born to John Robert Farris and Evaline Petty Crawford. Although she was enumerated as Lucy Ruth, the family oral history records her name as Lucy Sarah. The birth record of her second child list her name as "Ruby."

About 1906, probably in St. Louis, Missouri, Lucy married George Collin Pierce, becoming his second wife. The couple resided in St. Louis where three children were born to the couple. Lucy, or Ruth as she was also known, was enumerated in the 1920 census at the age of 34 with her husband George. The couple divorced sometime after 1920.

Ruth was enumerated in 1930 census of St. Louis, Missouri as widowed. Although enumerated as widowed, her ex-husband was still living. Living with Ruth was her youngest son, Jackson C. Pierce age 20, and a nephew, Joseph B. Farris, age 21. In 1940 Lucy was working as a nurse at the Girl Industrial Home in St. Louis.

Ruth, 89, died in January of 1975 in Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri. Her place of burial is unknown.

Notes for Louise J:

Louise J. "Lucy," maiden name unknown, was the third wife of George Collin Pierce. They were enumerated in the 1930 census of St. Louis, Missouri. In that census Louise was enumerated as age 31 and born in Illinois about 1899. Her parents were both born in Pennsylvania. The couple had been married for six years. No children are known to have been born to the couple.

George died in 1939 and was buried in the Odd Fellows Cemetery in Xenia, Clay County, Illinois. Buried with George is "Lucy J. Pierce", born July 6, 1882 and died April 2, 1961. Louise (Lucy J.) may have portrayed herself as a younger woman at the time of the 1930 census.

- vii. IRA TILDEN PIERCE was born on 18 Nov 1876 in Crittenden Co., Ky.. He died on 16 Feb 1924 in Evansville, Vanderburgh Co., Ind. (age 47). He married Jane Thompson about 1921.

Notes for Ira Tilden Pierce:

Ira Tilden Pierce was born November 18, 1876 in Crittenden County, Kentucky, the youngest of seven children born to James Perry Pierce and Emeline F. Rolston. His mother died in 1895, and his father remarried the following year. From that union Ira had one half-sister. His father died in 1916. In the 1920 census Ira was enumerated at the age of 44, living with his stepmother's daughter, Mrs. Berna Flynn. Ira was enumerated as single. Also residing there was Ira's stepmother and his half-sister Miram. Ira was in the coal business and worked for Marion Coal Company. He was also a city court judge.

About 1921, Ira married Jane Thompson. Children from their union, if any, are not known.

Their marriage was brief as Ira died in Evansville, Vanderburgh County, Indiana on February 16, 1924 at the age of 47 after an operation for appendicitis. He was buried in the Mapleview Cemetery in Marion, Crittenden County, Kentucky. Besides his wife, Ira was survived by his sister Mrs. Florence Yandell, and brothers Norval and George. Ira was preceded in death by his parents, one brother and two sisters.

- i. DAVID B.<sup>6</sup> COPELIN was born on 24 Feb 1835 in Virginia. He died on 21 Jul 1908 in Jackson Twp., Montgomery Co., Iowa (age 73). He married Sarah Elizabeth Roberts, daughter of Aaron P. Roberts and Elizabeth Burroughs, about 1860 in Indiana. She was born on 25 Aug 1835 in New York. She died on 22 Sep 1905 in Iowa (age 70).

Notes for David B. Copelin:

David B. Copelin was born February 24, 1835 in Virginia, the child known to have been born to Joseph Copelin and Anna Hopkins Beard. He was the grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. After his birth, the family removed to Indiana where his mother died about 1840. His father remarried, and from that union three half-brothers and one half-sister were born. His father died about 1850. By 1860, David had moved out on his own and was farming.

About 1860 in Indiana, David married Sarah Elizabeth Roberts. Five children were born to their union. After the Civil War, the family removed to Henry County, Iowa where David continued to farm. His wife preceded him in death in September of 1905. David retired from farming.

David, 73, died July 21, 1908 in Jackson Township of Montgomery County, Iowa and joined his wife in the Burge Cemetery in New London, Henry County, Iowa. He was survived by his five children. Of his half-siblings, one half-brother is known to have preceded him in death.

322. ELIZABETH MARY<sup>5</sup> BEARD (Ruth M.<sup>4</sup> Rolston, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 29 Jul 1814 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 10 Oct 1849 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 35). She married Jacob Myers, son of Jacob Moyers and Catherine Bowman, on 07 Oct 1833 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 08 Aug 1812 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 31 Dec 1896 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 84).

Notes for Elizabeth Mary Beard:

Elizabeth Mary Beard was born July 29, 1814 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of nine children born to David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston.

On October 7, 1833 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Elizabeth married Jacob Myers. Six children are attributed to their union.

Elizabeth, 35, preceded her husband in death on October 10, 1849 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Myers Family Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. Transcripts of the cemetery list her date of death as October 10, 1849, age 35 years, 2 months and 11 days.

Notes for Jacob Myers:

Jacob Moyers, later known as Myers, was born August 8, 1812 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the son of Jacob Moyers and Catherine Bowman.

Jacob, a lifelong resident of Rockingham County, was twice married, fathering 19 children. His first marriage was to Elizabeth Mary Beard on October 7, 1833 in Rockingham County, Virginia. Six children

Jacob, 84, preceded his second wife in death on December 31, 1896 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Myers Family Cemetery in Rockingham County. His tombstone was inscribed: "Aged 84y 4m 23d; He died as he lived"

Jacob Myers and Elizabeth Mary Beard had the following children:

- i. SARAH ANN<sup>6</sup> MYERS was born on 22 Sep 1834 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 15 Aug 1898 in Norborne, Carroll Co., Mo. (age 63). She married (1) BENJAMIN E. RHODES, son of Anthony Rhoades and Anna Good, on 25 Dec 1854 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 08 Feb 1831 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 05 Feb 1871 in Norborne, Carroll Co., Mo. (age 39). She married (2) GEORGE WASHINGTON HOGAN in 1876 in Missouri. He was born on 01 Jun 1820 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 14 Jul 1890 in Ray Co., Mo. (age 70).

Notes for Sarah Ann Myers:

Sarah "Sallie" Ann Moyers/Myers was born September 22, 1834 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of six children born to Jacob Moyers/Myers and Elizabeth Mary Beard. She was the granddaughter of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Sarah's mother died in 1849 when she was fifteen years old. Her father remarried the following year, and from that union Sarah had three half-sisters and ten half-brothers.

On December 25, 1854 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Sarah married Benjamin E. Rhodes. The couple was enumerated in the 1860 census of Rockingham County with three children. About 1869 the family removed to Missouri where they were enumerated in the 1870 census of Crooked River Township in Ray County:

Benj Rhoades	M	39
Sarah Rhoades	F	36	Va.
Henry Rhoades	M	14	Va. [Newton Rhodes, age 4, in 1860]

Catharine Rhoades	F	11	Va.
Jacob Rhoades	M	8	Va.
Maggie Rhoades	F	2	Va.
Ota Rhoades	F	2/12	Mo.

Sarah's husband Benjamin died in February of 1871.

In 1876 in Missouri, the widowed Sarah married the widower George Washington Hogan.

No children were born to Sarah and 2nd husband George. The year prior to the couple's marriage, George's daughter, Ann E. Hogan, had married Sarah's younger brother Silas Thornton Moyers.

Sarah and her second husband were enumerated in the 1880 census of Grape Grove, Ray County, Missouri:

George Hogan	Self	M	58	Virginia
Sallie Hogan	Wife	F	45	Virginia
Mattie Rhoads	Stepdaughter	F	22	Missouri
Maggie Rhoads	Stepdaughter	F	11	Missouri
Jennie Rhoads	Stepdaughter	F	12	Missouri

Husband George preceded her in death in 1890.

Sarah, 63, died August 15, 1898 in Norborne, Carroll County, Missouri and was buried in the Wakenda Church cemetery in Hardin, Ray County, Missouri.

Sarah and her first husband were probably members of the Wakenda Church of the Brethren. The church appears to have been founded by relatives of both Sarah and Benjamin.

Wakenda Church

Church History

In 1857, David B. Bowman and family came to Hardin from Rockingham County, Virginia. A farm of two hundred acres of land with a two-room log house with attic and shed was bought in 1858. This farm was located about six miles north of Hardin. Mr. Bowman's wife was a member of the Brethren Church. In 1858, the VanTrumps and Spitzers came from Rockingham County, Virginia. In March 1869 came the family of Samuel B. Shirkey and David B. Rhodes from Virginia. They were members of the Brethren Church. David B. Bowman had become a member and all of these people began having meetings in three houses and a schoolhouse.

On October 4 and 5, 1869, the first Love Feast was held at the home of David B. Bowman. He had built a large house, which is still standing northeast of the present Wakenda Church and Cemetery.

The first organization of the members of the Church of the Brethren was in 1871. These fourteen members were: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Shirkey, Mr. and Mrs. David B. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. John VanTrump, Mr. and Mrs. John Hase, and Mr. and Mrs. David B. Rhodes. These members set about to build a church house to worship in. David B. Bowman donated the land and native timber for the framework of the church. It was built in 1872 and 1873 on the south side of the road from where the present church stands. The first church was later torn down and lumber used to build a church on the north side of the road in 1895. Rocks for the foundation were quarried on the David B. Bowman land. Land for David Bowman and son, Jacob F. Bowman, gave the church and cemetery and part of the materials.

The church merged with the Rockingham Church of The Brethren in 1958. The pastor at that time was Rev. Harold Correll. In the summer months funerals are still held in the church. The cemetery is well kept.

(Webmaster's note: In approximately the late 1970s, the church was destroyed by a tornado. The cemetery is still well kept.) {Source: Hardin, Missouri: A Centennial History (1870-1970)}

Notes for George Washington Hogan:

Isaac Hogan	M	5	Virginia
Sarah J Hogan	F	3	Virginia
John Hogan	M	5/12	Virginia
Lydia Niswander	F	40	Virginia

George's wife preceded him in death in 1871.

In 1875 George's daughter Anna married. Silas Thornton Moyers.

The following year, 1876, in Missouri, George married the widow, Mrs. Sarah Rhodes, the former Miss Sarah Ann Myers. She was the older sister of George's son-in-law, Silas Thornton Moyers. No children were born to George and Sarah.

George, 70, preceded his second wife in death on July 14, 1890 in Ray County, Missouri and joined his first wife in the Wakenda Cemetery in Hardin, Ray County, Missouri.

- ii. RUTH CATHERINE MYERS was born on 25 Sep 1836 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 09 Jul 1876 in Linville Dist., Rockingham Co., Va. (age 39). She married Jacob Franklin Neff, son of Josiah Neff and Caroline, on 07 Oct 1860 in Virginia. He was born on 07 May 1838 in Augusta Co., Va.. He died on 29 Nov 1908 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 70).

Notes for Ruth Catherine Myers:

Ruth Catherine Myers was born September 25, 1836 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of six children born to Jacob Moyers/Myers and Elizabeth Mary Beard. She was the granddaughter of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Ruth's mother died in 1849 when she was thirteen years old. Her father remarried the following year, and from that union Ruth had three half-sisters and ten half-brothers.

On October 7, 1860 Ruth married Jacob Franklin Neff. Four children are known to have been born to the couple. There is a ten year gap between the first and second known children, and others are assumed to have been born and died during that period.

Their youngest child was born July 6, 1876. Ruth died three days later on the 9th of July at the age of 39 and was buried in the Myers Family Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia.

Notes for Jacob Franklin Neff:

Jacob Franklin Neff was born May 7, 1838 in Augusta County, Virginia, the son of Josiah and Caroline Neff.

Jacob married three times. Jacob married his first wife, Ruth Catherine Myers, on October 7, 1860 in Virginia. The couple farmed in Rockingham County, Virginia. Four children were born to the couple, but other children were likely born between the years of 1861 and 1871. Ruth, his wife of 15 years, died in 1876, three days after the birth of their youngest known child.

On February 20, 1879 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Jacob married his second wife, Sarah "Sally" M. Hollar. Seven children were born from their union. Sally died seven months after the birth of their youngest child.

Three years later, on November 27, 1893, Jacob, age 55, married his thrid wife, D. Catharine Landes, age 27. No children are known to have been born to the couple.

Jacob, 70, died November 29, 1908 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Greenmount Cemetery in Greenmount, Rockingham County, Virginia. He was survived by his third wife.

- iii. DAVID HENRY MOYERS was born on 02 Jun 1839 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 08 Dec 1917 in Crooked River Twp., Ray Co., Mo. (age 78). He married (1) MARY M. WENGER, daughter of Henry Wenger and Anna Beery, about 1861. She was born on 18 Jul 1842 in Edom, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 13 Sep 1912 in Ray Co., Mo. (age 70). He married (2) VIRGINIA FRANCES BOWMAN, daughter of David B. Bowman and Anna Showalter, after 1912. She was born on 27 Sep 1856 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 22 Oct 1947 in Egypt Twp., Carroll Co., Mo. (age 91).

Notes for David Henry Moyers:

David Henry Moyers (Meyers) was born June 2, 1839 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of six children born to Jacob Moyers and Elizabeth Mary Beard. He was the grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. David's mother died in October of 1849 when he was ten years old. His father remarried the following year, and from that union David had three half-sisters and ten half-brothers.

About 1861, David married Mary M. Wenger. Three children were born to their union. One child died before 1900. The family lived in Ohio for a few years before removing to Ray County, Missouri. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of Grape Grove Township in Ray County, Missouri:

couple.

Mary, 70, preceded her husband in death on September 13, 1912 in Ray County, Missouri and was buried in the Wakenda Cemetery in Hardin, Ray County, Missouri.

Notes for Virginia Frances Bowman:

Virginia Frances Bowman was born September 27, 1856 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of three children born to David B. Bowman and Anna Showalter. Virginia was still a young child when the family removed to Ray County, Missouri. Virginia was not found in the censuses from 1900 through 1930 and may have been married.

Sometime after 1912, Virginia married the widower, David Henry Moyers. Virginia was past her child bearing years, and no children were born to their union. Her husband preceded her in death in 1917 at the age of 78. Virginia's whereabouts in 1920 and 1930 are unknown. She was enumerated in the 1940 census of Egypt Township of Carroll County, Missouri:

Carl Leakey	Head	M	24	Missouri
Edith May Leakey		Wife	F	26 Missouri
Lois Jean Leakey		Daughter	F	1 Missouri
Ida Ann Leakey		Mother	F	48 Missouri (widowed)
Forest Reed Leakey	Brother	M	10	Missouri
Virginia Leakey	Sister	F	8	Missouri
Virginia Myers	Grandmother	F	83	Virginia (widowed)

Virginia was not Carl's grandmother, but she was a half 1st cousin to his mother Ida's sister-in-law.

Virginia, 91, committed suicide by drowning herself in a tank on October 22, 1947 in Egypt Township of Carroll County, Missouri. Her death was reported by Ida Leakey with whom Virginia had been living with since 1940. Virginia was buried as "Myers" in the Wakenda Cemetery in Hardin, Ray County, Missouri.

Hardin News, Hardin, January 13, 1916

Death of Mrs. Rader.

Mrs. Hettie Rader, widow of the late Derrick Rader, died at her home near Rockingham last Wednesday morning, January 5 following a brief illness with pneumonia fever. Deceased was a native Rockingham county, Virginia, and was born September 12, 1841, thus she was 74 years, 3 months, 23 days of age when the summons came. After her marriage she came with her husband to Missouri and settled in Ray county and has been resident of this county more than 40 years. This family is well known and numbered among our best people. She was the mother of seven children, four sons and three daughters, viz: Richard, of Ft. Madison, Ia., Myers, of Okla. and Robert and Leslie of this county, Miss Mary, who lives at home, Mrs. Joseph Hill of Carroll county, and Mrs. Andrew Butler of Carrollton. She is also survived by a sister, Mrs. David Hawkins, of Norborne, and a brother, David Myers, of near Rockingham.

Her funeral and burial occurred Friday morning at Mount Olive church. The bereaved family have the deepest sympathy of many friends.

Notes for Derrick Rader:

Derrick Rader was born January 17, 1838 on Linville Creek Farm in Rockingham County, Virginia, the son of George Rader and Nancy Seitz.

Obituary, Norborne, Missouri:

Derrick Rader was born in Rockingham County, Va., January 17th 1838, and died at his home in Ray County, Mo., Mch. 15, 1910, aged 72 years, 1 month, 28 days.

He was married to Hettie E. Myers December 20, 1860. To this union 8 children were born, all of whom, excepting one, were at his bed side during his illness.

He came to Mo., in 1874 and was converted in 1875 and has lived a devout christian the remainder of his life.

Uncle Bird as he was usually called was a kind and loving husband, an esteemable father and a good neighbor and loved by all who knew him as was shown by the large procession which followed the body to the last resting place.

The funeral was conducted by Dr. W. C. Baird of Bogard, Mo., who was a very close friend as well. The preacher being the same age.

He leaves a wife, eight children and fifteen grand-children besides a large concourse of friends and neighbors to mourn his loss, but we sorry not as those who have no hope for we have the assurance we shall meet in the home above where sickness, sorrow nor death ever home.

"A precious one from us is gone
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our homes
Which never can be filled."

- v. SILAS THORNTON MOYERS was born on 01 Jul 1844 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 25 Dec 1908 in Norborne, Carroll Co., Mo. (age 64). He married (1) ANNA E. HOGAN, daughter of George Washington Hogan and Elizabeth Miller, on 17 Jan 1875 in Ray Co., Mo.. She was born on 12 Jan 1848 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 10 Nov 1878 in Ray Co., Mo. (age 30). He married (2) MARTHA A. MARCH about 1886. She was born in Jan 1856 in Virginia. She died in 1948 in Missouri (age 92).

Notes for Silas Thornton Moyers:

Silas Thornton Moyers was born July 1, 1844 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of six children born to Jacob Moyers and Elizabeth Mary Beard. He was the grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Silas's mother died in 1849 when he was five years old. His father remarried the following year, and from that union Silas had three half-sisters and ten half-brothers. Silas left Virginia, probably after the Civil War, removing to Missouri. As an adult, Silas, as did many of the Moyers' family, used the "Myers" spelling of the family name.

Silas was twice married. His first wife was Anna "Annie" E. Hogan, whom he married on January 17, 1875 in Ray County, Missouri. Anna was the stepdaughter of Silas's older sister Sarah. Two children were born to Silas and Anna. The couple had been married three years when Annie died in November of 1878. What became of the children after Annie's death is unknown. They are assumed to have been sent to live with relatives.

About 1886, Silas married his second wife, Martha "Mattie" A. March. Two children are known to have been born to the couple, but one child had died prior to the 1900 census. The couple and their only surviving child were enumerated in the 1900 census of Grape Grove Township of Ray County, Missouri:

Remarks. - Claimant says: "I furnished a substitute for the militia six months, in 1861. I am a member of the German Baptist church and so I did not want to go into the army and could not leave home. We have held universally that service in the ranks of the rebellion against the flag and the Government of the United States, whether in the organization of State militia or regular confederate army, was inconsistent with loyalty to the United States." The substitution of another for pecuniary consideration to stand or march or fight in his stead in the ranks of the rebellion does not relieve the claimant from the operation of this principle. We can make no distinction which would imply that a man of means might hire a substitute to fight against the country and still be accounted loyal, while the poor man who had to do his own fighting from lack of means to hire a substitute must be accounted a rebel. We reject the claim.

She died on 02 Mar 1901 in Virginia (age 82). She married David Falls Lineweaver, son of Jacob Lineweaver and Catherine L. Falls, about 1845 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 25 Aug 1823 in Virginia. He died on 05 May 1899 in Virginia (age 75).

Notes for Esther Moffett Beard:

Esther Moffett "Hettie" Beard was born December 17, 1818 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of nine children born to David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. She was named after her paternal grandmother Esther Moffett. Esther was baptized in the Presbyterian church. "At a sacrament held at Cooks Creek meeting house on Sabbath 11th April 1819, Esther Moffett, daughter of David Beard, baptized by Rev. Daniel Baker." {source: Sessions Book of Cooks Creek and Harrisonburg Congregation}

About 1845 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Esther married David F. Lineweaver. From their union, four children were born. Her husband preceded her in death on May 5, 1899 at the age of 75. In the 1900 census Esther "Hettie" was enumerated with her youngest daughter, Mrs. Sallie Heatwole, in the Linville District of Rockingham County.

Esther, 82, died March 2, 1901 in Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

Notes for David Falls Lineweaver:

Virginia, the thirteenth of fifteen children born to David H. Rolston III and Francis "Fannie" Beery.

On March 25, 1871 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Josephine, age 24, married Jeremiah Franklin Lineweaver, her first cousin, once removed. The couple resided in Rockingham County where they farmed and raised a family of five children. A sixth child was born to the couple, but this child died at birth or as an infant.

In the 1900 census Josephine was enumerated twice. Once with her husband and children and again in the Central District of Rockingham at the home of her older brother John. She was enumerated as Josie E. Lineweaver, sister. It is assumed that Josephine was staying at her brother's to care for their paralyzed brother Samuel who was living with his brother John. When she was enumerated with her husband, she reported five children born and five living, but when enumerated at her brother's, she was reported to have had six children; five living. Josephine was widowed on August 17, 1922 when Jeremiah, her husband of 51 years, died at the age of 73.

Josephine, 82, died September 25, 1929 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was joined her husband into the Antioch Christian Church cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by four children; daughters Mrs. Ida Gowl, Mrs. Ollie Cline and Mrs. Nora Lam, and one son, Harvey Lineweaver.

- iii. DEWITT COFMAN LINEWEAVER was born on 26 Apr 1853 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 15 Nov 1945 in Poweshiek Co., Iowa (age 92). He married (1) AMANDA JANE SWANK, daughter of Peter Swank and Barbara Ann Rolston, on 24 Oct 1875 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 09 Jul 1852 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 02 Jul 1915 in Bear Creek Twp., Poweshiek Co., Iowa (age 62). He married (2) HETTIE C. MYERS, daughter of George Keller Myers and Elizabeth Beery, on 05 Jun 1917 in Iowa. She was born on 03 Feb 1864 in Edom, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died in 1946 in Poweshiek Co., Iowa (age 81).

Notes for Dewitt Cofman Lineweaver:

Dewitt Cofman [Coffman] Lineweaver was born April 26, 1853 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of four children born to David F. Lineweaver and Esther Beard. Dewitt was the grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Dewitt was too young to serve during the Civil War. In 1873 Dewitt's older brother Charles moved to Poweshiek County, Iowa.

Dewitt's older brother, Jeremiah Franklin Lineweaver, married Josephine E. Rolston, thus giving Dewitt ties to the Rolston family as a brother-in-law. Then on October 24, 1875 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Dewitt married Amanda Jane Swank, the daughter of Mrs. Barbara Rolston Swank. The couple left Virginia, moving to Poweshiek County, Iowa near Dewitt's older brother Charles. Two children were born to the couple. Amanda, Dewitt's wife of 39 years, died in July of 1915.

On June 5, 1917 in Iowa, Dewitt, age 64, married Hettie C. Myers, age 53. No children were born from this second union.

Dewitt, 92, died November 15, 1945 at his home near Brooklyn, Poweshiek County, Iowa and joined his first wife in the I.O.O.F (now Brooklyn Memorial) Cemetery in Brooklyn, Poweshiek County, Iowa. Dewitt's second wife died the following year and was also buried next to Dewitt.

Obituary, undisclosed source:

Funeral services for D. C. Lineweaver were held last Friday afternoon at two o'clock at the Methodist church with the Rev. C. E. Thiele in charge. Music was provided by Mrs. C. H. Manatt, at the organ, and Mrs. R. R. Anthony and Mrs. C. W. Fowler, who sang two duets. Burial was in the I.O.O.F. cemetery with the following as pallbearers: Walter Uhl, C. J. Dunlap, Wm. Butts, B. F. Kensinger, Fred Gray and A. W. Scott.

Mr. Lineweaver's death occurred Thursday, Nov. 15 at his home northwest of Brooklyn about 4:30 a.m. He was 92 years old.

Dewitt Cofman Lineweaver was born near Harrisburg, Va., on April 26, 1853. At the age of 20 he came to Brooklyn, Ia., and after working here for several years returned to Virginia where he married Amanda Swank on October 24, 1875. The following year the couple came to Iowa and with the exception of two years spent the rest of his life in this vicinity. His wife died July 1915.

On June 5, 1917 he married Hattie Meyers of Edom, Va.

For more than thirty years, Mr. Lineweaver was township assessor and was a member of Grace Methodist church for about 55 years. He took an active part in the affairs of the church until prevented by advancing age.

He is survived by his wife; two children, Walker Lineweaver of Brooklyn and Mrs. C. E. McPherson of Amarillo, Tex; four grandchildren and six great grandchildren and a number of nephews and nieces.

Notes for Amanda Jane Swank:

Amanda Jane Swank was born July 9, 1852 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of ten children born to Peter Swank and Barbara Ann Rolston. [Burial records list her birth as July 8, 1852]

On October 24, 1875 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Amanda married Dewitt C. Lineweaver. The couple then removed to Brooklyn, Poweshiek County, Iowa. Amanda and Dewitt had two children, Effied born in 1881 and Walker born November 21, 1884.

Amanda, 62, died July 2, 1915 in Bear Creek Township of Poweshiek County, Iowa and was buried in the I.O.O.F. (now Brooklyn Memorial) Cemetery in Brooklyn, Poweshiek County, Iowa.

Notes for Hettie C. Myers:

Hettie C. Myers was born February 3, 1864 in Edom, Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of eight children born to George Keller Myers and Elizabeth Beery. Her father died in February of 1875 and her mother in April of 1894. Hettie was enumerated with her widowed sister in the 1900 census of Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia:

Bettie A Holsinger	Head	Female	41	Virginia (3/3) (widowed)
Elmur W Holsinger	Son	Male	18	Virginia
Edcar M Holsinger	Son	Male	12	Virginia
Hettie C Myers	Sister	Female	36	Virginia (single)

Hettie's whereabouts in 1910 are unknown.

On June 5, 1917 in Iowa, Hettie married the widower, Dewitt Cofman Lineweaver. No children were born to their union. Her husband preceded her in death in November of 1945.

Hettie, 81, died in 1946 in Poweshiek County, Iowa and was buried as Hettie C. Myers next to her husband and his first wife in the I.O.O.F. Cemetery in Brooklyn, Poweshiek County, Iowa. The cemetery is now known as the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery..

- iv. SARAH MARGARET LINEWEAVER was born on 22 Sep 1857 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 28 Jan 1937 in Virginia (age 79). She married Daniel Franklin Heatwole, son of David A. Heatwole and Catherine Driver, on 16 Oct 1879 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 18 Dec 1854 in Dale Enterprise, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 25 Sep 1922 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 67).

Notes for Sarah Margaret Lineweaver:

Sarah "Sallie" Margaret Lineweaver was born September 22, 1857 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of four children born to David Falls Lineweaver and Esther Moffett Beard. Sarah was the granddaughter of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston.

---

On October 16, 1879 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Sarah married Daniel Franklin Heatwole. The couple farmed. Five children were born to the couple. Ella, their only daughter, preceded them in death in 1918. Danile, Sarah's husband of 42 years, preceded her in death in September of 1922.

Sarah, 79, died January 28, 1937 and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. Tombstone gives year of death as 1938.

325. MARGARET MARTHA<sup>5</sup> BEARD (Ruth M.<sup>4</sup> Rolston, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 18 Apr 1821 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 16 May 1893 in Virginia (age 72). She married John Lineweaver, son of Jacob Lineweaver and Catherine L. Falls, on 30 Oct 1843 in Virginia. He was born on 27 Mar 1820 in Virginia. He died on 06 Sep 1886 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 66).

Notes for Margaret Martha Beard:

Margaret Martha Beard was born April 18, 1821 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of nine children born to David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. "Saturday, Aug. 21, 1822 ... baptized at same time Rev'nd Joseph Smith's daughter ... and David Beard's daughter, Margaret Martha." {Session Book of the Cooks Creek and Harrisonburg Presbyterian Congregation}

On October 30, 1843 in Virginia, Margaret married John Lineweaver. The couple farmed in Rockingham County. Eight children were born to the couple but half died within the first few years of life. By 1880 all their surviving children except for their son Abraham had left the family farm. Her husband died September 6, 1886 at the age of 66.

Margaret died May 16, 1893 at the age of 72 and joined her husband in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County. Five of her children, two sons and three daughters, preceded her in death. She was survived by sons William, John, and Abraham.

None of her children were of sturdy stock. The majority of the children died before reaching adulthood. Those who lived to become adults usually died in their 40's or before. Son Abraham, being the exception, died in his late 50's. It is not known if the children's early deaths were genetic in origin.

Notes for John Lineweaver:

John Lineweaver was born March 27, 1820 in Virginia the eldest of twelve children born to Jacob Lineweaver and Catherine L. Falls.

On October 30, 1843 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John married Margaret Martha Beard. John was engaged in farming. Eight children were born to John and his wife Margaret but half died in childhood. Those that reached adulthood died before the onset of old age. During the 1880 census all of his surviving sons except for Abraham had left home, and Abraham and his wife resided on and worked the family farm.

John, 66, died September 6, 1886 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County. He was survived by Margaret, his wife of 42 years, and four of his five sons. None of his three daughters lived to adulthood.

John Lineweaver and Margaret Martha Beard had the following children:

- i. DAVID HENRY<sup>6</sup> LINEWEAVER was born on 20 Sep 1844 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 01 Sep 1853 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 8).

Notes for David Henry Lineweaver:

David Henry Lineweaver was born about September 20, 1844 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the first of eight children born to John Lineweaver and Margaret Martha Beard. He was the grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston.

David died September 1, 1853 at the age of 8, just weeks before his 9th birthday. He was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia.

- ii. WILLIAM THORNTON LINEWEAVER was born on 14 Nov 1847 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 26 May 1933 in Liberty Twp., Keokuk Co., Iowa (age 85). He married Lydia Fannie Wenger, daughter of Henry Wenger and Anna Beery, on 12 May 1870 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 21 Jan 1848 in Virginia. She died in 1934 in Iowa (age 86).

Notes for William Thornton Lineweaver:

William Thornton Lineweaver was born November 14, 1847 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of eight children born to John Lineweaver and Margaret Martha Beard. William was the grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. William was one of the four siblings that lived to adulthood. His early life was spent in Rockingham County. William appears in the 1870 census in the Linville District of that county working on the farm of Henry Wenger. Working there as a domestic servant was Lydia Lineweaver, age 21, the daughter of Henry Wenger and his wife.

On May 12, 1870 in Rockingham County, Virginia, William, age 22, married Lydia Fannie Wenger, age 22. William and his wife left Rockingham County and removed to Keokuk County, Iowa. Only two children are known to have been born to the couple: son Henry in 1874, and an infant daughter who died in 1887.

William, 85, died May 26, 1933. He is assumed to have died in Liberty Township of Keokuk County, Iowa, where he had lived since 1880. He was buried in the English River Church of the Brethren Cemetery in South English, Keokuk County, Iowa.

William J. Lineweaver is also buried in this cemetery. No dates. WPA records associate him with William Thornton Lineweaver, and he may have been another child of William and Lydia's that died in infancy.

Notes for Lydia Fannie Wenger:

Lydia Fannie Wenger was born January 21, 1848 in Virginia, the daughter of Henry Wenger and Anna Beery.

On May 12, 1870 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Lydia, age 22, married William Thornton Lineweaver. They lived for some period with her parents and were enumerated there during the 1870 census of the Linville Township of Rockingham County, Virginia. The couple left Virginia, heading west to Iowa. By the 1880 census they were well established in Liberty Township of Keokuk County, Iowa. Two children were born to the couple, but one died in infancy. The family was enumerated in the 1885 State Census of Liberty, Keokuk County, Iowa:

W J Lineweaver		M	38	Virginia
Frances Lineweaver	F	37		Virginia
Henry Lineweaver		M	10	Iowa
Solomon B Wenger		M	28	Virginia

Solomon B. Wenger was Frances's 1st cousin, once removed. He had been recently widowed when he lived with them.

Fannie and her husband remained in Liberty probably until their deaths. Lydia's husband preceded her in death in 1933.

Lydia, 82, died in 1934 in Iowa and joined her husband in the English River Church of the Brethren Cemetery in South English, Keokuk County, Iowa.

- iii. JAMES MADISON LINEWEAVER was born on 23 Feb 1849 in Cooks Creek, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 29 Oct 1887 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 38). He married Sarah Catherine Rolston, daughter of Benjamin Hinton Rolston and Salome Neff, on 17 Nov 1870 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 28 Aug 1843 in Rockingham Co., Va..

---

She died on 31 Oct 1922 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 79).

Notes for James Madison Lineweaver:

James Madison Lineweaver was born February 23, 1849 in Cooks Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of eight children born to John Lineweaver and Margaret Martha Beard and was a grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. James was one of the four siblings that lived to adulthood. Breaking from the tradition of farming, James became a carpenter and school teacher.

On November 17, 1870 in Rockingham County, Virginia, James married Sarah Catherine Rolston, a second cousin and relative of James' maternal grandmother Ruth Rolston Beard. James and his wife had seven children.

James, 38, died October 29, 1887 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County. James had lived his entire life in Rockingham County. He was survived by Sarah, his wife of nearly 17 years, their seven children, three brothers, and his mother, Mrs. Margaret Beard Lineweaver.

James' cause of death is not known. The majority of his siblings died as young children, and his surviving brothers all died in their 40's except for his brother Abraham who lived to the age of 58. If there was some genetic basis behind the early deaths of his siblings, it was not passed onto the children of James and Sarah as their children lived into old age, many living well into their 80's and even 90's.

Notes for Sarah Catherine Rolston:

Sarah Catherine "Sallie" Rolston was born August 28, 1843 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of nine children born to Benjamin Hinton Rolston and Salome Neff. Sarah's father died in 1859 just weeks before Sarah's 16th birthday. Her mother did not remarry. In the 1860 census Sarah was enumerated with her paternal grandparents.

On November 17, 1870 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Sarah married James Madison Lineweaver, her second cousin. The couple lived and raised seven children in the Rockingham County and Harrisonburg, Virginia, area. Husband James died October 29, 1887 at the age of 38. Sarah was 44 years of age at the time of his death, but she did not remarry. In the 1910 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia, the widowed Sarah was enumerated with her son William, his wife and family. Sarah and family attended the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church and then the Presbyterian Church of Harrisonburg for the last 30 some years of her life. She remained with her son until her death.

Sarah, 79, died of heart troubles and infirmities of old age on October 31, 1922 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, joining her husband who she had buried there 35 years earlier. Although her obituary states that she was in her 80th year, Sarah was 79 years old at the time of her death. Sarah was survived by her seven children.

- iv. MALTIDA FRANCES LINEWEAVER was born on 11 Jan 1851 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 23 Apr 1853 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 2).

Notes for Maltida Frances Lineweaver:

Maltida Frances Lineweaver was born about January 11, 1851 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of eight children born to John Lineweaver and Margaret Martha Beard.

Maltida died April 23, 1853 at the age of 1 and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

- v. JOHN GRATTAM LINEWEAVER was born on 14 Aug 1854 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 24 Sep 1903 in Virginia (age 49). He married Cornelia Asperine Liskey, daughter of Harvey Liskey and Margaret Armentrout, on 06 Sep 1877 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 17 Aug 1857 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 23 Aug 1940 in Central Dist., Rockingham Co., Va. (age 83).

Notes for John Grattam Lineweaver:

John Grattam Lineweaver was born August 14, 1854 in Virginia, the fifth of eight children born to John Lineweaver and Margaret Martha Beard and was a grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. There are some references to him as John Graham Lineweaver. John was one of the four siblings that lived to adulthood.

On September 6, 1877 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John, age 23, married Cornelia Asperine Liskey, age 21. The couple farmed in Rockingham County, and one child is known to have been born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

John G. Lineweaver	Self	M	Male	W	25	VA	Working On Farm	VA	VA
Cornelia A. Lineweaver	Wife	M	Female	W	23	VA	Keeping House	VA	VA
Wade H. Lineweaver	Son	S	Male	W	9M	VA		VA	VA

John, 49, died September 24, 1903 and was buried in the Weavers Mennonite Church Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. His tombstone lists his name as J. Grattan Lineweaver, and he had a grandson named after him. He was survived by his wife, their son Wade, and John's younger brother Abraham.

Notes for Cornelia Asperine Liskey:

Cornelia Asperine Liskey was born August 17, 1857 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of Harvey Liskey and Margaret Armentrout.

On September 6, 1877 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Cornelia married John Graham Lineweaver. Her sister Harriett would marry Cornelia's husband's younger brother Abraham. One child, son Wade, is known to have been born to the couple. In the 1900 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia, their son and daughter-in-law lived with them. Her husband preceded her in death in 1903. In 1910 Cornelia was enumerated with her son Wade. Her whereabouts after 1910 are unknown.

Cornelia, 83, died August 23, 1940 in the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried next to her husband in the Weavers Mennonite Church Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by her son Wade. Wade was the informant on her death certificate.

- vi. ABRAHAM NEWTON LINEWEAVER was born on 31 Mar 1857 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 31 Jul 1915 in Virginia (age 58). He married Harriett Ida Liskey, daughter of Harvey Liskey and Margaret Armentrout, on 04 Nov 1879 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 21 Feb 1859 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 13 Dec 1942 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va. (age 83).

Notes for Abraham Newton Lineweaver:

Abraham "Abram" Newton Lineweaver was born March 31, 1857 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of eight children born to John Lineweaver and Margaret Martha Beard. He was the grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Abraham was the youngest of the four siblings that lived to adulthood.

On November 4, 1879 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Abraham married Harriett Ida Liskey. His brother John had married Harriett's sister Cornelia the year before, and perhaps this is how Abraham and Harriett met. Over the course of their marriage, six children were born to the couple. Abraham and his wife were residing and working on his fathers farm at the time of the 1880 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia. His father died September 6, 1886 at the age of 66, and his mother died many years later on May 16, 1893 at the age of 72. The couple was enumerated in the 1910 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia with three of their six children:

Abram N Lineweaver	Head	M	53	Virginia
Harriett I Lineweaver	Wife	F	50	Virginia
Dold L Lineweaver		Son	M	23 Virginia
Richard L Lineweaver	Son	M	19	Virginia
Abraham N Lineweaver	Son	M	15	Virginia

Abraham, 58, preceded his wife in death on July 31, 1915 and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. He was survived by his wife and children. Also surviving was one brother, William Lineweaver.

Notes for Harriett Ida Liskey:

Harriett "Hettie" Ida Liskey was born February 21, 1859 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of seven children known to have been born to Harvey Liskey and Margaret Armentrout.

On November 4, 1879 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Harriett married Abraham Newton Lineweaver. The year before, Harriett's sister Cornelia had married Abraham's brother John. Six children were born to Harriett and Abraham. Abraham, her husband of 35 years, died July 31, 1915 at the age of 58. After her husband's death, Harriett lived with her daughter, Mrs. Annie Forrer. She was enumerated with them in the 1930 census of Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia:

D Harry Forrer	Head	M	46	Virginia
Annie M Forrer	Wife	F	49	Virginia
Harriet I Lineweaver	Mother-in-law	F	71	Virginia (widowed)
Nellie V Lineweaver	Niece	F	10	Virginia

Harriet was still living with her daughter in 1940.

Harriett, 83, died at home on December 13, 1942 in Harrisonburg, Virginia and joined her husband in the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- vii. VIRGINIA CATHERINE LINEWEAVER was born on 29 Oct 1859 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 22 Oct 1862 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 2).
- viii. SARAH HESTER LINEWEAVER was born on 30 Sep 1861 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 04 Oct 1864 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 3).

Notes for Sarah Hester Lineweaver:

Sarah Hester Lineweaver was born about September 30, 1861 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the last of eight children born to John Lineweaver and Margaret Martha Beard.

Sarah died October 4, 1864, just days after celebrating her 3rd birthday, in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

Notes for James Davidson Beard:

James Davidson Beard was born March 11, 1823 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of nine children born to David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston.

On April 25, 1846 James married Sofia F. Moyers. Four children were born to the couple. The family lived at Greenmount in Rockingham County, earlier known as Brenneman's Mill, on part of his father's land.

James, 34, died September 18, 1857 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Brenneman Mennonite Church Cemetery in Edom, Rockingham County, Virginia.

His will gave his interest in his father's farm to his wife, Sofia. On October 22, 1858, the Court of Rockingham County, divided the land, giving 94 acres to Sofia and 88 acres to James Beard's brother, Silas.

Notes for Sofia F. Moyers:

Sofia F. Moyers, also found as Sophia Margaret Moyers, was born September 14, 1826 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of Jacob (David) Moyers and Mary Keller.

On April 25, 1846 in Virginia, Sofia married James Davidson Beard by which she four children four children. James died in 1857 at the age of 34. They had been married about ten years. Sofia's youngest child and only son died in early childhood.

After the death of her husband, Sofia married the Reverend John B. Anthony. The couple is said have married on February 26, 1869 in Virginia, but the marriage may have taken place some years earlier. Three children were born to the couple. What became of Sofia's second husband is unknown. He was not enumerated with the family in the 1870 census of the Linville Township of Rockingham County, Virginia:

Sophia Anthony	F	45	Virginia
Amanda Anthony	F	21	Virginia [Amanda J. Beard]
Elizabeth Anthony	F	19	Virginia [Mary Elizabeth Beard]
Ruth Anthony	F	17	Virginia [Ruth E. Beard]
Josephus Anthony	M	15	Virginia [correct age was 5]
David Anthony	M	12	Virginia [correct age was 2]

In the 1880 census of the Linville Township of Rockingham County, Virginia, Sofia and her children from both marriages were living with her oldest daughter, Mrs. Amanda Dillard. All of her unmarried children were enumerated as Beard.

Sofia, 64, died September 29, 1890 in Virginia and was buried as Sofia M. Anthony in the Brenneman Mennonite Church Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by her three daughters who would later be buried beside her.

James Davidson Beard and Sofia F. Moyers had the following children:

- i. AMANDA J.<sup>6</sup> BEARD was born on 17 Mar 1846 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 05 Mar 1894 in Virginia (age 47). She married Robert Giles Dillard, son of Jessie Dillard and Annie Emsuiler, on 23 Jul 1874 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 17 Aug 1852 in Virginia. He died on 23 Feb 1927 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va. (age 74).

Notes for Amanda J. Beard:

Amanda J. Beard was born March 17, 1846 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of four children born to James Davidson Beard and Sofia F. Moyers. She was the granddaughter of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Amanda's father died in 1857 when she was eleven years old. Her mother married the Rev. John B. Anthony. From their union Amanda had two half-brothers and one half-sister. [The half-sister may have been Amanda's child.]

On July 23, 1874 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Amanda, age 28, married Robert Giles Dillard. Three children are known to have been born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Linville Township in Rockingham County, Virginia:

Robert G. Dillard	Self	M	Male	W	25	VA	Farmer
Amanda J. Dillard	Wife	M	Female		W	31	VA Keeping House

Amanda, 47, died March 5, 1894 in Virginia and was buried as Amanda J. Beard in the Brenneman Mennonite Church Cemetery in Edom, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was buried next to her mother.

- ii. MARY ELIZABETH BEARD was born on 20 Jul 1850 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 09 Dec 1926 in Virginia (age 76).

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Beard:

Mary Elizabeth "Betty" Beard was born July 20, 1850 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of four children born to James Davidson Beard and Sofia F. Moyers. She was the granddaughter of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Mary's father died in 1857 when she was seven years old. Her mother married Rev. Anthony. From their union, Mary had two half brothers and one half-sister.

Betty, as she was known, never married. She and her sister Ruth, along with their mother, were enumerated in the 1880 census living with their eldest sister Mrs. Amanda Dillard. Mary's mother died in 1890. Mary was enumerated in the 1900 census of Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia:

Mary E Beard	Head	F	50	Virginia
Nannie L Beard	Niece	F	29	Virginia ***
Lelia V Dillard	Niece	F	25	Virginia

*** Enumerated as a niece, Nannie L. Beard was Mary's half-sister, Nannie L. Anthony.

Mary, 76, died December 9, 1926 in Virginia and joined her parents in the Brenneman Mennonite Church Cemetery in Edom, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- iii. RUTH E. BEARD was born on 22 Aug 1852 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 08 Mar 1894 in Virginia (age 41).

Notes for Ruth E. Beard:

Ruth E. Beard was born August 22, 1852 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of four children born to James Davidson Beard and Sofia F. Moyers. She was the granddaughter of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Mary's father died in 1857 when she was five years old. Her mother married Rev. Anthony. From their union, Ruth had two half-brothers and one half-sister.

Ruth and her sister Mary never married. In the 1880 census of the Linville Township of Rockingham County, Virginia, Ruth, along with her mother and siblings, were living with her eldest sister, Mrs. Amanda Dillard. Ruth's mother died in 1890. Ruth's sister Amanda died March 5, 1894.

Three days after the death of her sister Amanda, Ruth, 41, died March 8, 1894 in Virginia and was buried in the Brenneman Mennonite Church Cemetery in Edom, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by her sister, Miss Mary Elizabeth Beard.

- iv. FRANKLIN NEWTON BEARD was born about 1855 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died before 1870.

Notes for Franklin Newton Beard:

Franklin Newton Beard was born August 7, 1855 in Linville Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of four children and only son born to James Davidson Beard and Sofia (Margaret) F. Moyers. He was the grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. His father died in 1857 when he was about two years old. His mother married Rev. John B. Anthony. From their union, Franklin had several half-siblings.

From Franklin's year of birth, he would have been 15 years old at the time of the 1870 census. In the 1870 census of Linville Township of Rockingham County, Virginia, his mother Sofia was enumerated with a son, Josphus Anthony, age 15, but this child was not Franklin under a different given name. The census appears to be in error. Josphus age 15 was actually Cephas Baldwin Anthony, age 5. Cephas's younger brother David was enumerated at age 12 when he was really age 2.

It appears that Franklin Newton Beard had died prior to the 1870 census. The family was not enumerated in the 1860 census, and it is not known if Franklin was living at that time.

Notes for Silas Beard:

Silas Beard was born October 20, 1824 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the seventh of nine children born to David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Silas was a life-long resident of Rockingham County.

November 11, 1850 Silas, age 25, married Maria Catharine Allebaugh. Silas and Maria lived at Greenmount near Brennaman's Mill (which by 1973 had become Turner's mill). Silas' father, David Beard, willed the farm in 1852 to his three sons. Charles Beard sold his interest to his brothers James and Silas, who farmed together. When his brother James died in 1857, his will gave his interest to his widow, Sofia. Divided by court order, Silas received 88 acres. He built a frame house in the summer of 1870 to replace a two-story log house. The family was enumerated in the 1880 cesnus of Linville, Rockingham County, Virginia:

Silas Beard	Self	M	Male	W	55	VA	Farmer	VA	VA
Maria C. Beard	Wife	M	Female	W	48	VA		VA	VA
Michael H. Beard	Son	S	Male	W	29	VA	Farming	VA	VA

Charles Huston	Other	S	Male	W	12	VA	Servant	VA	VA
Hannah R. Neff	Niece	S	Female	W	3	VA		VA	VA

Silas, 64, died December 11, 1888 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery. He was survived by Maria, his wife of 38 year, and five of his seven children.

Notes for Maria Catharine Allebaugh:

Maria Catharine Allebaugh was born January 12, 1830 in Virginia, the daughter of Michael Allebaugh and Hannah Robinson.

On November 11, 1850 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Maria married Silas Beard. Seven children were born to the couple.

Maria (Allebaugh) Beard inherited two-fifths of her uncle, Jacob Allebaugh's, estate in 1874. With this money, she bought 37 acres adjacent to Silas' land. At Silas' death, in 1888, she sold this 37 acres and bought two-thirds part of the estate from the heirs, to add to her widow's one-third in order to retain her home. In 1900 she lived with her son David and his family. From her death in 1909, ownership transferred outside the family until grandson Joseph Owen Beard bought it in 1941.

Maria, 79, died June 22, 1909 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by five

Effie Va. Beard	Dau	S	Female	W	2	VA		VA	VA
Myron O. Beard	Son	S	Male	W	7M	VA		VA	VA

The family moved to Coston, Worcester County, Maryland where David and his son-in-law Alfred Pennington were partners in a farm. The two families were enumerated on their farm in 1910:

Alfred Pennington	Head	M		37	Virginia (farmer)
Effie Pennington	Wife	F		32	Virginia
Edgar Pennington	Son	M		9	Virginia
Virginia Pennington	Daughter		F	7	Virginia
Vada Pennington	Daughter		F	5	Virginia
David Beard	Partner	M		58	Virginia (farmer)
Sallie Beard	Wife	F		52	Virginia
Bertie Beard	Daughter		F	28	Virginia

The couple returned to Virginia by 1920 where David was a truck farming. Sarah, his wife of 56 yeares, preceded him in death in January of 1934.

David, 90, died January 26, 1943 in Lilly, Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Clover Hill United Methodist Chrch Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia.

Notes for Sarah A. O'Roark:

---

Sarah "Sallie" A. O'Roark was born April 25, 1858 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of Jesse and Elizabeth O'Roark.

In the 1910 census Sarah was enumerated as having given birth to four children; two living. She only had three children and all three were still living.

On line data lists her year of death as 1939.

- iii. JACOB SAMUEL BEARD was born on 28 Oct 1853 in Greenmount, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 18 Feb 1885 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 31).

M. Rolston.

On Christmas Day, 1884, Ruth, age of 20, married Gasner Messick. Three children, two sons and a daughter, were born to the couple. Their daughter preceded them in death in 1921. Gasner, Ruth's husband of 40 years, died May 25, 1925 at the age of 66.

Ruth, 83, died September 29, 1947 in Mount Clinton, Rockingham County, Virginia and joined her husband in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by her two sons.

Notes for Gasner Messick:

Gasner Messick was born in June of 1858 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of six sons born to Gasner Messick (Sr.) and Margaret A. Rogers. His father died in 1870 when Gasner (Jr.) was but 12 years old. His older brother Thomas took over the family farm. Gasner, two brothers and their mother were enumerated on the farm in the 1880 census of the Central Township of Rockingham County, Virginia:

Margaret Messick	Self	W	Female	W	61	VA Keeping

On December 25, 1884 Gasner married Ruth Ann "Annie" Elizabeth Beard. Three children are known to have been born to the couple. Hattie, their only daughter, preceded them in death n 1921.

Gasner, 66, preceded his wife in death on May 25, 1925 in Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Prebyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. He was survived by his wife and sons Charles and Glen.

328. CHARLES<sup>5</sup> BEARD (Ruth M.<sup>4</sup> Rolston, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 23 Nov 1827 in Greenmount, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died between 1895-1900 in Tennessee (age 67+). He married Hannah Stepp, daughter of John Stepp and Mary Haga, about 1857 in Virginia. She was born on 18 Jan 1833 in Virginia. She died on 20 Oct 1915 in Telford, Washington Co., Tenn. (age 82).

Notes for Charles Beard:

Charles "Charlie" Beard was born in 1827 in Greenmount, Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of nine children born to David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. He was named after his paternal grandfather Charles Beard. Like his father and grandfather, Charles became a farmer. In 1850 he and his brother Silas were still living at their father's home and working on the farm.

About 1857 in Virginia, Charles married Hannah Stepp. They started their family in Rockingham County where the first six of their eight children were born. Of these six, three died in their second year. In the late 1860's, after the Civil War, Charles and family removed to Washington County, Tennessee, located in the extreme eastern part of that state, where their last two children were born.

JONESBORO HERALD-TRIBUNE, Vol. XXVII. #21 Wed., Sept. 18, 1895:

"Diphtheria is still spreading - five death in this community: ... Blanda, little grand-daughter of Charles Beard; ...."

By 1900, Charles had died. His place of burial is unknown.

Notes for Hannah Stepp:

Hannah "Anna" Stepp was born January 18, 1833 in Virginia, the daughter of John Stepp and Mary Haga.

About 1857 in Virginia, Hannah married Charles Beard. Eight children were born to their union. Two of her daughters died in early childhood. In the late 1860's, the family removed to Washington County,

1910 census of District 2 of Washington County, Tennessee:

Silas Beard	Head	Male	51	Virginia
Charlie Beard	Brother	Male	40	Tennessee
Essie Beard	Sister	Female	34	Tennessee
Hannah Beard	Mother	Female	77	Virginia (8/4) (widowed)

Hannah, 82, died October 20, 1915 in Telford, Washington County, Tennessee, and was buried in Royal Town, Tennessee.

Charles Beard and Hannah Stepp had the following children:

- i. MARY<sup>6</sup> BEARD was born about 1857 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died before 1900 in Tennessee. She married Howard F. Garrison, son of Garrison and Martha, on 29 Oct 1879 in Washington Co., Tenn.. He was born about 1858 in Virginia.

Notes for Mary Beard:

Mary "Mollie" Beard was born about 1857 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of eight children born to Charles Beard and Hannah Stepp. She was the granddaughter of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. In the late 1860's, after the Civil War, her father moved the family to Washington County, Tennessee.

On October 29, 1879 in Washington County, Tennessee, Mary married Howard F. Garrison. The newly weds were enumerated in the 1880 census of District 5 of Washington County, Tennessee:

Howard Garrison	Self	Male	22	Virginia
Mary V. R. Garrison	Wife	Female	23	Tennessee

The couple is said to have had three children, one a daughter named Blinda and two sons, Charles and Frank.

Mary and her husband are believed to have both died in the early 1880's. Mary's spinster sister Maggie Beard is said to have raised Mary's daughter, Blinda, but this daughter died of Diphtheria in 1895. Mary's two sons were enumerated on Mary's mother's farm in the 1900 census.

Notes for Howard F. Garrison:

Not far from Howard's home in the 1880 census was John Garrison, also a boot and shoe maker and likely Howard's older brother.

- ii. SILAS R. BEARD was born on 26 Sep 1859 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 01 Mar 1920 in Washington Co., Tenn. (age 60).

Notes for Silas R. Beard:

Silas R. Beard was born September 26, 1859 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of eight children born to Charles Beard and Hannah Stepp. He was the grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. His nickname was said to be "Hook." The first ten years of his life were spent in Rockingham County. In the late 1860's his father moved the family to Washington County, Tennessee, where Silas would remain for the rest of his life.

Silas never married. In the 1900 census Silas was enumerated on the family farm. His father was deceased. By 1910 Silas took over the family farm. Brother Charlie and sister Essie, both single, and their widowed mother lived together on the farm. In 1920 Silas was living with his sister, Mrs. Essie Painter.

Silas, age 60, died March 1, 1920 in Washington County, Tennessee and was buried in the Earnests Chapel Cemetery in Washington County. The grave has no headstone.

- iii. ELIZABETH BEARD was born in Jan 1862 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 20 Jun 1864 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 2).

Notes for Elizabeth Beard:

Elizabeth Beard was born in January of 1862 in Rockingham County, Virginia, one of eight known children born to Charles Beard and Hannah Stepp and granddaughter of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Rockingham County Court House records show Elizabeth died June 20, 1864, of cholera infantum, reported by Charles and Hannah Beard, Linville Creek, Rockingham County.

- iv. MARGARET BEARD was born in Jan 1862 in Virginia. She died in 1904 in Tennessee (age ~42).

Notes for Margaret Beard:

Margaret "Maggie" Beard was born in January of 1862 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of eight children born to Charles Beard and Hannah Stepp and granddaughter of David David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. In the late 1860's, after the Civil War, her father moved the family to Washington County, Tennessee.

Maggie did not marry. She made a living as a seamstress. When her sister Mary died, she reared Blinda, her sister Mary's only daughter, but the child died in 1895.

Mary, about age 42, died of tuberculosis in 1904. Her place of death and burial are not known.

- v. HENRIETTA CATHERINE BEARD was born in 1864 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 15 Oct 1866 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 2).

Notes for Henrietta Catherine Beard:

Henrietta Catherine Beard was born in 1864 in Rockingham County, Virginia, one of eight known children born to Charles Beard and Hannah Stepp and granddaughter of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Rockingham County Court House records show Henrietta Catherine Beard died October 15, 1866, age 2 years, of flux, reported by Silas Beard, Uncle.

- vi. WILLIAM BEARD was born on 22 Mar 1867 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 23 Aug 1931 in Illinois (age 64). He married Neoma Caroline Vines, daughter of Noah Vines and Nancy E. Hicks, on 16 Feb 1886 in Telford, Washington Co., Tenn.. She was born on 15 Mar 1861 in Tennessee. She died in 1937 in Dixon, Lee Co., Ill. (age 75).

Notes for William Beard:

William Beard was born March 22, 1867 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of eight children born to Charles Beard and Hannah Stepp. He was the grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. In the late 1860's his father moved the family to Washington County, Tennessee where William grew to adulthood.

On February 16, 1886 in Telford, Washington County, Tennessee, William married Neoma Caroline Vines. Seven children were born to the couple, but their first born, son John, died in infancy in 1887. The family removed to Illinois in 1903 and was enumerated in the 1910 census of the Pine Creek Township of Ogle County, Illinois:

Blenda Beard	Daughter	F	11	Tennessee

William, 64, preceded his wife in death on August 23, 1931 and was buried in the Fairmount Cemetery in Polo, Ogle County, Illinois.

Notes for Neoma Caroline Vines:

Neoma Caroline Vines was born March 15, 1861 in Tennessee, the daughter and one of eight children born to Noah Vines and Nancy E. Hicks. She is said to have been born in Telford, Washington County, Tennessee, but she was likely born in Johnson County where the family resided in 1870. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Washington County, Tennessee:

Noah Vines	Self	M	51	Tennessee
Nancy Vines	Wife	F	47	North Carolina
Caroline Vines		Daughter	F	21 Tennessee
John Vines	Son	M	19	Tennessee
Sela Vines	Daughter	F	14	North Carolina
Noah L. Vines	Son	M	11	Tennessee

On February 16, 1886 in Telford, Washinton County, Tennessee, Caroline married William Beard. Seven children were born to their union, but their first born died in infancy. In 1903 the family removed to Illinois where they resided in Ogle County. Her husband preceded her in death in 1931.

Caroline, 75, died in 1937 in Dixon, Lee County, Illinois and joined her husband in the Fairmount Cemetery in Polo, Ogle County, Illinois.

- vii. ALBERT CHARLES BEARD was born in 1870 in Conklin, Washington Co., Tenn.. He died in 1931 in Washington Co., Tenn. (age ~61).

Notes for Albert Charles Beard:

Albert Charles Beard was born in 1870 in Conklin, Washington County, Tennessee, the seventh of eight children born to Charles Beard and Hannah Stepp. He was the grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Albert never married.

Albert, about age 61, died in 1931 in Washington County, Tennessee at the home of his younger sister, Mrs. Essie Painter. He was buried in the Earnest Chapel Cemetery in Washington County, Tennessee.

- viii. ESSIE A. BEARD was born on 21 Dec 1874 in Conklin, Washington Co., Tenn.. She died on 22 May 1945 in Knoxville, Knox Co., Tenn. (age 70). She married Alfred B. Painter after 1910. He was born about 1859 in Tennessee. He died between 1940-1945 in Tennessee.

Notes for Essie A. Beard:

Essie A. Beard was born December 21, 1874 in Conklin, Washington County, Tennessee, the youngest of eight children born to Charles Beard and Hannah Stepp. She was the granddaughter of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Essie lived at home until sometime after her mother's death.

Essie was engaged to marry Conard Roedeffer of Greenmount, Virginia, but he died of pneumonia.

Sometime after 1910, Essie married Alfred B. Painter. The couple was enumerated in the 1920 census of Washington County, Tennessee:

Alfred B Painter	Head	M	61	Tennessee
Essie Painter	Wife	F	45	Tennessee
Silas R Bardy	Brother-in-law	M	60	Virginia [Silas R. Beard]

Essie's brother Silas died shortly after the census. Essie's brother Albert moved in with the couple; her brother Albert died at her home in 1931.

Essie, 70, died May 22, 1945 in Knoxville, Knox County, Tennessee, and was buried in the Earnests Chapel Cemetery in Washington County, Tennessee. Her death certificate gives May 22 as her date of death, but her tombstone is marked as May 21.

329. JOHN HOPKINS<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON ESQ. (John Hinton<sup>4</sup>, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 28 Mar 1818 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 21 Sep 1885 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 67). He married (1) AGNES JANE HOPKINS, daughter of Archibald Hopkins and Elizabeth Gordon, on 20 Dec 1852 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 05 Jan 1819 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 22 May 1854 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 35). He married (2) MARY FRANCES BEAR, daughter of David Bear and Maria, on 19 Nov 1858 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 11 Oct 1831 in Virginia. She died on 20 Sep 1915 in Central Dist., Rockingham Co., Va. (age 83).

Notes for John Hopkins Rolston Esq.:

John Hopkins Rolston, Esquire was born March 28, 1818 in Rockingham County, Virginia, as John Hinton Rolston Jr., the eldest of eight children born to John Hinton Rolston, Sr. and Mary F. Hopkins. John did not marry until his mid 30's. He remained living with his parents and working their farm until after 1850.

On December 20, 1852 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John married his 2nd cousin, Agnes Jane Hopkins. Agnes died May 22, 1854 shortly after a year of marriage. There were no children born from their marriage.

Four years later on November 19, 1858 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John, age 40, married Mary Frances Bear, age 27. The couple had five children. John lived in or near Hopkin's Gap in Rockingham County, Virginia. In August of 1863, John's friend and probably neighbor, a farmer and shoemaker named James H. Flick, killed himself. John H. Rolston, Jr. was the person who reported the death. {source: Rockingham County, Virginia Death Records, reel R26-1863/1863-9-36} Sometime after 1863 John changed his name from John Hinton Rolston, Jr. to John Hopkins Rolston and took on the title of Esquire. John was also known to have gone by J. Hopkins Rolston, perhaps to differentiate himself from his father John H. Rolston (Sr.) who was also living in Rockingham during that time.

In 1870 his brother James P. Rolston was living and working as a farm hand on John's farm in the Central Township of Rockingham County, Virginia. John's sister Elizabeth and her two children were also there. John's father also lived with the family until his death in 1874. John and his family remained there during the 1880 census with their five children, John's brother James P. Rolston, his widowed sister Mrs. Elizabeth S. Bear, niece Mary E. Bear, and David H. Bear, a Deputy Sheriff, who's relationship to the family is unclear. The household included Millie J. Jefferson, their black servant. 1880 census of Central, Rockingham County, Virginia:

During the later years of his life, John ran into financial problems. By some family accounts, he was broke. His outstanding debts were apparently significant enough that he was at risk of losing his farm.

John, 67, died September 21, 1885 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. He was survived by Mary, his wife of 26 years, and their five children.

John died leaving his debts to be paid by his heirs. The holders of the debt would eventually settle at 50 cents on the dollar. The source of this debt is thought to have come from John and his brother James co-signing a bond for what is said to have been a "... distant relative, David Rolston, ..." who lived near Bridgewater. Bridgewater is in Rockingham County, Virginia, almost due south of Dayton. With the name, David, being so common within the Rolston family, it is difficult to determine with any certainty which David Rolston was being referenced. In any case, the event was long remembered among the Rolston family, and according to Dr. Holmes Rolston, III, "... Rolston's long afterward were taught not to borrow money except in the most careful [of] circumstances."

Notes for Agnes Jane Hopkins:

Agnes Jane Hopkins was born January 5, 1819 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of six children born to Archibald Hopkins and Elizabeth Gordon.

On December 20, 1852 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Agnes, age 33, married her 2nd cousin John Hopkins Rolston Jr., age 34. No child were known to have been born to the couple, but there is some speculation that Agnes may have died during childbirth. She was buried in the Cooks Creek Church Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia.

Agnes, 35, died May 22, 1854 in Rockingham County, Virginia, after only a year of marriage. She was buried in the Cooks Creek Church Cemetery in Rockingham. She had been a lifelong resident of Rockingham County.

Notes for Mary Frances Bear:

Mary Frances Bear was born October 11, 1831 in Virginia, the eldest child of David and Maria Bear.

On November 19, 1858 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Mary, age 27, married the widower John Hopkins Rolston, Esquire, age 40. John's first wife had died some four years earlier, but they had had no children. Mary and John lived with his father, John Henton Rolston, Senior. They were enumerated in the 1860 census of Rockingham County, Virginia, at her father-in-law's where she was enumerated as housekeeper. In the fall of 1860 the first of Mary and John's five children were born to the couple. By the 1880 census, Mary and her husband had a full house which included their five children, her husband's brother James, the widow Mrs. Elizabeth Rolston Bear, Mrs. Bear's daughter Mary Bear, and a David H. Bear, Deputy Sheriff, who was somehow related to Mrs. Rolston or perhaps more directly to the deceased husband of Mrs. Elizabeth Bear.

On September 21, 1885, John, her husband of 26 years, preceded her in death. Mary lived on another 30 years. In the 1910 census of Valdosta, Lowndes County, Georgia, the widowed Mary was with her daughter, Mrs. Mamie Bitzer.

Mary, 83, died on September 20, 1915 in the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia. She was buried in the Cooks Creek Church Cemetery where her husband had been buried. Mary was survived by four of her five children: sons Charles, Holmes, and David, and her daughter, Mrs. Marie Bitzerd. Her son Frank had died two years earlier.

From March to September of 1915, she was being treated by her son, Dr. Charles H. Rolston, M.D. of Mt. Clinton.

John Hopkins Rolston Esq. and Mary Frances Bear had the following children:

- i. CHARLES HOPKINS<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 21 Sep 1860 in Mount Clinton, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 26 Sep 1934 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 74). He married Annie Bowman Whitmore, daughter of William Crawford Whitmore and Rachel McChesney Thompson, on 27 Aug 1890 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 22 May 1870 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 21 Jan 1965 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 94).

Notes for Charles Hopkins Rolston:

Dr. Charles Hopkins Rolston was born September 21, 1860 in Mount Clinton, Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of five children born to John Hopkins Rolston, Esquire and Mary Frances Bear. Little is known of his early life, but he was still home working on his father's farm in 1880. He was later educated in the field of medicine and became a doctor. His grandson Bill Rolston described Dr. Rolston as being "... stout, straight, a big-framed man, very agile and with a clear mind ...." {source: The Good Doctor by Nancy Bondurant Jones, Eightyone, Staunton, Virginia, January 2005, page 8}

On August 27, 1890 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Charles married Annie Bowman Whitmore. The couple resided in Rockingham County where they raised a family of five children. Although Charles was a doctor, he also ran a small farm. As a doctor, he kept an account book on the fees collected. This book would later be in the possession of his son William "Bill" Rolston. Some of the contents appeared in an article, "Prescription For History: Doc Rolston" in the Daily News-Record (Harrisonburg, Virginia), April 15, 1996: "... in the early 1900s, Dr. Charles H. Rolston of Mount Clinton saw 40 patients for a grand charge of $83.25. Seventeen patients brought in fees of less than $1, but Sam Mowbray's case must have been complex. His bill was $10." Medical bills were not always paid in cash. As often as not, his patients paid in crops or livestock they raised on their farms. He traveled by horseback during most of his career, switching to a Ford Model-A coupe by the 1930's.

Dr. Charles Hopkins Rolston became an Elder of the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church on December 11, 1887, along with his brother Frank. He also was the church's Clerk of Session from 1887 until his death on September 26, 1934 at the age of 74.

"The Rolston Lineage" written August 1998 by his grandson Charles Elbert Rolston records the family oral history and provides greater insight into the life of Dr. Charles Rolston. "My grandfather was a country doctor, practicing medicine for 48 years I am told. I never knew him; he died a few years before I came along. He built the house I was born and raised in when he married Annie around 1890 sometime. His office where he saw his patients is a separate, smaller structure close by the personal home. He also owned a large, beautiful farm a few miles away tucked up against the mountains that form the western side of the Shenandoah Valley (I worked on the farm as a kid and loved it). I revisited the house in the little village of Mt. Clinton, just outside Harrisonburg, in 1984; it looked great, solid as a rock after nearly 100 years. The office is now a storage area and meat curing room.

Since he was so well known in the Valley from his medical profession, he was easily elected to serve in the Virginia State Legislature. But the time he spent in the State Capital in Richmond took him away from his patients and he soon gave up the political world to return to what he thought his real mission was; his medical care for the people in his community.

He was apparently a very firm and demanding father to his children. And with his stature in the Valley, I'm sure the kids would have found it difficult to believe there was any way they could reach a level that would satisfy his demands. That may be a clue as to why some of them were so screwed up later in life. I never heard him referred to as Father, Dad, etc. by the children (I think I might have heard "Pa" from my Father), and I never heard Annie refer to him as Charles, my Husband, etc. He was only known among all the family members as "DOCTOR."

In 1917 there was a terrible influenza epidemic in the area. They say he worked around the clock for weeks, never sleeping, always on the road to his patients. He had two cars; Howard, my father, then 11 years old, would change tires and refuel the cars as he brought them home, always having one ready for him to leave in. The stories have it that he lost somewhere between 50 and 100 of his patients, many of whom he had delivered as babies over the years. This was hard enough for him to handle, and when he lost Tracy Long, the beautiful little 14-year old girl across the road who had been his special friend ever since he brought her into the world, it broke him. He was never the same after the epidemic. The all powerful, respected Doctor could not save the people he knew and loved.

The details of his last years are very much missing. The family would not talk at all about that period. I was told that he had a serious head injury when he ran his car off the road, possible seizure, blackout, etc. I was also once told that after the injury he would sometimes get up in the middle of the night, go outside and chop wood."

Charles died September 26, 1934 in Rockingham County, Virginia, where he had been born 74 years earlier. He was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham. He was survived by Annie, his wife of 44 years, and their five children.

Notes for Annie Bowman Whitmore:

Annie Bowman Whitmore was born May 22, 1870 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of eleven children born to William C. Whitmore and Rachael Thompson.

On August 27, 1890 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Annie married Dr. Charles Hopkins Rolston by which she had five children. Her life is best told through the family oral history as found in "The Rolston Lineage" written by her grandson, Charles Elbert Rolston: "Annie, Doctor's wife, lived on in the big house in Mt. Clinton after [her husband's] death. Shortly after I [grandson Charles] was born, Howard and Elsie (Annie's son and wife) moved back home and "Ma", as we called her, became a significant part of my earliest childhood. She was the ultimate Grandma; always there when I got hungry or hurt, always there when my folks were both off at work. We called her "Ma" but all the rest of the family always called her "Mrs. Annie B" out of the utmost respect. These days you would refer to her as the Matriarch.

In her later years her memory of the recent hours and days started to fade, but this was replaced by an increase in recollections of events many years before. Oh, the stories she could tell. My favorite story was one passed down by her mother [Mrs. Rachael Thompson Whitmore] to her. It was about how in 1865 the Yankee soldiers, with the Civil War victory nearly in their pocket at that time, came through the Shenandoah Valley burning all the barns. Of course all the men were gone to the war at the time, only the women and children were at home. The soldiers came to the farm on their horses and Annie's mother went out to meet them by herself. She told the Senior Officer that she had dinner on, please let me feed your men, you all look so tired. Annie said her mother never forgot the sight of the Senior Officer, after dinner, riding his horse down the lane away from the house holding two fresh baked apple pies, one in each hand over his head, back toward the soldiers who were mounting up. They did not burn her barn.

Ma lived to be 94 years old."

Annie, 94, died January 21, 1965 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried next to her husband at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by three of her five children and a multitude of grandchildren.

- ii. FRANKLIN ROLSTON was born on 03 Jan 1862 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 06 Jan 1913 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 51). He married Lula Virginia Firebaugh, daughter of Samuel Angus Firebaugh and Elizabeth L. Whitmore, on 19 May 1897 in Rockingham Co., Va. (Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church). She was born on 05 Aug 1874 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 13 May 1962 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 87).

Notes for Franklin Rolston:

Franklin "Frank" Rolston was born January 3, 1862 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of five children born to John Hopkins Rolston, Esquire and Mary Frances Bear. He grew up on the family farm in the Central District of Rockingham County. Frank's father died September 21, 1885 leaving the family deeply in debt. In 1886, Frank was able to work a deal with the creditors where they would take 50 cents on the dollar for the debt. Frank traveled to Colorado where he convinced his brother Holmes (I) to return to Virginia and work the farm. Holmes did return and by 1888 the debt was paid off.

On May 19, 1897 at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church in Rockingham County, Virginia, Frank married Lula Virginia Firebaugh. The couple had five children: Frank II, Eugene, Elizabeth, Mary and Samuel, but son Eugene died in 1903 at the age of one.

Frank became ill in 1913. He was operated on in his own home, placed upon the kitchen table and using the light from a kerosene lantern. The cancer was found to have been too far progressed for removal. Uncle Hinton said that he was "... in there, and couldn't take it, and had to get out." {page 87}

Frank died of cancer on January 6, 1913 in Rockingham County, Virginia, three days after his 51st birthday. He had been a church elder at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church since December 11, 1887, until his death and a member of the Presbyterian Church building committee for the new church. He had the dubious distinction of being the first funeral to be held in the new facilities. He was survived by his wife and four of their five children. He was a lifelong resident of Rockingham County.

Notes for Lula Virginia Firebaugh:

Lula Virginia Firebaugh was born August 5, 1874 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of Samuel A. Firebaugh and Elizabeth L. Whitmore.

On May 19, 1897 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Lula, age 22, married Frank Rolston, age 35. They married in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church where they were both members. Five children were born to the couple, one of which died in 1903 at the age of one.

Lula's husband died January 6, 1913. Lula was 38 at the time of her husband's death. She was still relatively young but did not remarry. Lula remained active in the Cooks Creek Church and was the first President of The Woman's Auxiliary of the Cooks Creek Church, serving from 1920 to 1921. She taught one school year (1922-1923) at the North Mountain Academy. Lula remained on the family farm for many years after her husband's death. Lula and her youngest son, Samuel were enumerated on the farm in 1940. Eventually the farm became too much, and she went into the Sunnyside Home at Massaneta, Virginia, where she remained until her death.

Lula, 87, died May 13, 1962 in the Rockingham Memorial Hospital in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Virginia. She was survived by three of her five children.

- iii. HOLMES ROLSTON SR. was born on 08 Jul 1864 in Mt. Clinton, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 18 Sep 1924 in Staunton (city, Augusta Co.), Va. (age 60). He married Mary Jacqueline Campbell, daughter of Thomas Harris Campbell and Frances Epes Pryor, on 25 Sep 1895 in Rockbridge Co., Va.. She was born in 1867 in Nottoway Co., Va.. She died on 22 Feb 1958 in Staunton (city, Augusta Co.), Va. (age 90).

Notes for Holmes Rolston Sr.:

Rev. Holmes Rolston Sr. was born July 8, 1864 in Mount Clinton, Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of five children born to John Hopkins Rolston, Esquire and Mary Frances Bear, his second wife. In his younger days in Harrisonburg, Virginia, Holmes was "... pretty good at boxing," according to the oral history of the Rolston family. The time period for this endeavor has not been established, but he is said to have once won the local title of "The Harrisonburg Slugger." An unusual background for a man who would become a minister.

Holmes' father died September 21, 1885, leaving the family deeply in debt. Holmes ventured West to make money to help rescue the family farm or to find a new place to settle if the Virginia farm was lost. He spent some time as a cowboy working at Mitchell's Ranch, a cattle ranch located in the lands around Pueblo, Colorado. Holmes did not stay on the ranch for more than a year or two. Time enough, however, to become a decent horseman and to learn how to flip flapjacks. He was said to have remarked that you weren't a good cowboy until you could flip flapjacks. Holmes did not attend church regularly during his time as a cowboy, but on one occasion where he attended the local church in town, he neglected to remove his pistol belt. This seemed to make his fellow parishioners a bit uneasy.

In about 1886 while Holmes was still in Colorado, his brother, Frank, worked a deal with the creditors to settle the debt for 50 cents on the dollar. Frank traveled to Colorado where he convinced Holmes to return to Virginia and farming. Holmes returned, and they raised chickens, pigs and cows, and through much hard work, they were able to pay off the balance of his father's debt several years later. This debt experience taught him and his descendants the custom of paying in cash.

In 1888 with the debt repaid and the family farm near Harrisonburg saved, Holmes began his studies at the theological seminary at Hampden Sydney College in Hampden Sydney, Virginia. [The seminary would later move to Richmond, Virginia, where it became the Union Theological Seminary.] After completing his seminary training in 1895, Holmes took missionary work in the rural settlement of Horton, West Virginia. Horton was a lumber town not far from the town of Whitmer and the Whitmer Lumber Company. Holmes returned to Virginia briefly in September of 1895 and married Mary Jacqueline Campbell on September 25, 1895 in Rockbridge County, Virginia. Theron H. Rice was his best man. Mary's wedding gift to Holmes was a pocket watch she bought for $50. [This watch was passed down to his son Holmes (II) after his death in 1924.] After the wedding, Mr. & Mrs. Rolston returned to Horton, West Virginia. Once there, Mary soon became pregnant with the first of their six children. Their first child, Archibald Campbell Rolston, was born July 28, 1896 but died 19 days later. Holmes drove by buggy the 70 miles from Horton, West Virginia, to New Providence Cemetery south of Staunton, Virginia to bury his infant son.

In June of 1900 Holmes, with his wife, their second child, a daughter named Frances, and their third child on-the-way, moved back to Virginia where he became the pastor at Hebron Presbyterian Church, a rural church located a few miles outside of Staunton, Augusta County, Virginia. Holmes and the family did a little farming and kept chickens, horses and five Jersey cows. They used the hen manure to fertilize the trees in the orchard. Holmes "... said that he built the orchard so his boys [Holmes and Theron] wouldn't be idle in the summer." Rev. Holmes Rolston had an "... honorary doctorate from Washington and Lee University, but he never used the Dr. title." {grandson, Holmes Rolston, III}

Holmes favorite past time was fishing. He and his son, Holmes (II), often went off on fishing trips together. During these fishing trips, he often wore the pistol and belt that he used when he was a cowboy. There are a number of family stories relate to the use of this pistol to kill snakes near the campsites.

Holmes career as a preacher was shorted by illness. Holmes suffered from high blood pressure. He suffered a stroke in March of 1924 at the age of 60 and then a major stroke in May of that same year. The stroke left him paralyzed on his right side. In August the family moved to Staunton where Holmes took a turn for the worse. On September the 18th, 1924, Holmes suffered another stroke and died a few hours afterwards with his wife and son, Holmes, there with him. He was buried in the Hebron Church Cemetery in Hebron, Augusta County, Virginia. Rev. Rolston was highly respected within the community and his church.

Some of Rev. Holmes' possessions have been passed down through the generations. "I have the pistol belt, with bullets still in it. One of my treasured possessions. But, alas, the pistol is lost. My Aunt Frances said somebody once borrowed it to use in a play, many years ago, and it never got returned."

I've also got granddaddy's double barrel 12 gauge shotgun, with a story. It has a broken stock, wired up back together. The story is he was hunting rabbits and about to shoot one that he chanced to see sitting not far away. He crept up on the rabbit and got so close he decided he could just kill the rabbit by hitting it with the butt of the gun, and save a shell. So he swung the gun to kill the rabbit. But the rabbit hopped up; and granddaddy hit the gun hard on the rock the rabbit was sitting on, and broke the stock. That's a true story, and I have the proof--a gun with a broken stock!!!!" {Holmes Rolston, III, Oct. 2005}

Notes for Mary Jacqueline Campbell:

Mary Jacqueline Campbell was born in 1867 in Nottoway County, Virginia, the daughter of State Senator Thomas Harris Campbell and Frances "Fannie" Epes Pryor. She was known by Jacqueline. Jacqueline's only sister, Fannie, married Goodridge Wilson, the pastor of Cooks Creek from 1886 to 1889. Jacqueline and her mother lived with the Wilsons before she and Holmes Rolston married.

On September 25, 1895 in Rockbridge County, Virginia, Mary, about age 28, married the Rev. Holmes Rolston, age 31. Holmes pastorial was in rural Horton, Randolph County, West Virginia, and Mary joined him there after their marriage. She gave birth to their first child the following year, only to have the child die after 19 days. Jacqueline was not able to make the trip from Horton, West Virginia, back to Virginia to bury her first child. Their second child was born in Horton. In 1900 the family returned to Virginia and resided in Hebron, Augusta County where the remaining four of their six children were born.

In 1918 her husband's pastorial work took the family to Pulaski, Pulaski County, Virginia. Her husband suffered several strokes in 1924, and in the fall of that year, they moved Staunton in Augusta County. Holmes died September 18, 1924 at the age of 60. Mary was in her late 50's at the time of her husband's death. She remained in Staunton and did not remarry.

At age 70 Jacqueline fell and broke a hip when she stepped in a hole left by a heat register that had been removed. Son Theron, a medical doctor, determined that the fracture could not be pinned, and Jacqueline ended up in a cast for three months. At age 80 Jacqueline nearly died from an intestinal rupture. The remainder of her years were complicated by increasingly poor health and senility.

Jacqueline, 90, died February 22, 1958 in Staunton, Augusta County, Virginia and was buried in the Hebron Church Cemetery in Hebron, Augusta County, Virginia.

- iv. MARIE ANDERSON ROLSTON was born on 13 Jul 1870 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died in 1935 in Mississippi (age ~65). She married George Lesse Bitzer on 13 Mar 1901 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 21 Dec 1860 in Virginia. He died in 1934 in Mississippi (age ~73).

Notes for Marie Anderson Rolston:

Marie "Mamie" Anderson Rolston was born July 13, 1870 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of five children born to John Hopkins Rolston, Esquire, and his second wife Mary Frances Bear. Marie grew up in Rockingham County, residing there for over 30 years before she met the widower Rev. George L. Bitzer. They met when the Reverend came to Cook's Creek Presbyterian Church to hold a meeting, and Mamie was in charge of the music.

Marie and the Reverend married March 13, 1901 in Rockingham County, Virginia after a short courtship. They moved about the south, living in Georgia, Alabama, and Texas, during which time five children were born. During the 1910 census, Marie's widowed mother was living with them. Her mother died in 1915. By 1924 the family moved to Mississippi where they remained. Marie's husband died in 1934.

Marie, about age 65, died in 1935 in Mississippi and joined her husband in the Hill Crest Cemetery in Holly Springs, Marshall County, Mississippi. Their eldest child, Rev. David Rolston Bitzer, was also buried there in 1938.

Notes for George Lesse Bitzer:

Rev. George Lesse Bitzer was born December 21, 1860 in Virginia. He became a minister of the Presbyterian faith. The Rev. Bitzer was pastor of the Augusta Stone Presbyterian Church from 1885 to 1889. He married twice.

Details of his first marriage are not known, but his first wife died sometime before 1901.

In late 1900 or early 1901 the Reverend made a guest appearance at the Cook's Creek Presbyterian Church where he met Miss Marie Anderson Rolston. They married March 13, 1901. After his marriage to Marie, the couple moved about the South (Georgia, Alabama, Texas & Mississippi) where he held pastorates. During these years five children were born to the couple, one son and four daughters. The Rev. Bitzer's last known residence was in Marshall County, Mississippi in 1930.

George, about age 73, died in 1934 and was buried in the Hill Crest Cemetery in Holly Springs, Marshall County, Mississippi. He was survived by his wife and their five children.

There are two tombstones in the Hill Crest Cemetery for a George L. Bitzer. The other George lived from 1897-1945. The Rev. Bitzer's family history is not known, but the second George L. Bitzer was likely a nephew.

- v. DAVID HINTON ROLSTON was born on 06 Feb 1874 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 11 Sep 1958 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va. (age 84). He married (1) KATHERINE EVERSOLE FORRER, daughter of Henry Forrer and Maria Eversole Showalter, on 27 Oct 1896 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 17 Feb 1875 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 25 Jul 1910 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 35). He married (2) VIRGINIA MARY SPITLER, daughter of John William Spitler and Lena Elizabeth Garber, on 24 May 1934 in Niagara Falls, Niagara Co., N.Y.. She was born on 12 Aug 1901 in Augusta Co., Va.. She died on 23 Dec 1970 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va. (age 69).

Notes for David Hinton Rolston:

David Hinton Rolston was born February 6, 1874 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of five children born to John Hopkins Rolston and Mary Frances Bear. He was known as Hinton, D. Hinton, or Uncle Hinton. He was a farmer and raised apples at his Mt. Clinton farm in Rockingham County, Virginia. He lived in Rockingham County his entire life and was of the Presbyterian faith. He was active in the Harrisonburg Kiwanis Club where he was a charter member, and he served a number of years as a member of the Rockingham County School Board, serving as chairman of this board for some years.

David was married twice. First to Miss Katherine Eversole "Eva" Forrer on October 27, 1896 in Rockingham County, Virginia. The couple had seven children before Eva's death on July 25, 1910.

Twenty-four years later, on May 24, 1934 at Niagara Falls, Niagara County, New York, David, age 60, married the widowed Mrs. Virginia Eakle, the former Miss Virginia Mary Spitler, age 32. David and Virginia did not have children.

David, 84, died September 11, 1958 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried as D. Hinton Rolston in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church cemetery in Harrisonburg. He was survived by Virginia, his second wife, and four of his seven children from his first wife, Katherine.

Notes for Katherine Eversole Forrer:

Katherine Eversole "Eva" Forrer was born February 17, 1875 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of four children born to Henry Forrer and Maria Eversole Showalter. She was well known to family and friends as Eva. Her father was an elder at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church. Her mother's middle name, Eversole, was a surname that went back to the early history of Rockingham County.

On October 27, 1896 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Katherine married David Hinton Rolston. The couple had seven children. Russell, their fifth child, died in 1905 at the age of one.

Katherine, 35, died July 25, 1910 in Rockingham County, Virginia, two weeks after daughter Sue was born. Her death perhaps from complications after childbirth. Katherine was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by Daivd, her husband of 13 years, and six of their seven children.

Notes for Virginia Mary Spitler:

Virginia "Maginny" Mary Spitler was born August 12, 1901 in Augusta County, Virginia, the eldest of seven children known to have been born to John William Spitler and Lena Elizabeth Garber.

Virginia was twice married. Her first marriage, September 4, 1923, was to Everett Kennedy Eakle by which she had two daughters: Elizabeth and Anna. Mr. Eckle died in 1929. After her husband's death Virginia and her daughters lived with her parents.

On May 24, 1934 in Niagra Falls, Niagra County, New York, Virginia, age 32, married the widower David Hinton Rolston, age 60. Virginia and David did not have children together, but her two daughters lived with them. Virginia had the nick name of Maginny. The name came from the step-children as they referred to her as their momma Virginia.

About 1935, Virginia's younger sister Ellen married Virginia's stepson, David Robert Rolston.

David, Virginia's husband of 24 years, preceded her in death in September of 1958 at the age of 83.

Virginia, 69, died December 23, 1970 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried as Virginia Ralston in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg.

Notes for Jesse R. Rolston:

Jesse R. Rolston was born May 21, 1820 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of eight children born to John Hinton Rolston and Mary Hopkins.

On October 7, 1841 in Virginia, probably in Rockingham County, Jesse married Frances R. Bear. In late 1852, Jesse's brother-in-law, Christian M. Bear died in testate, and on November 2, 1852, Jesse was appointed administrator for the estate. Christian's wife, the former Miss Elizabeth Sarah Rolston, was Jesse's sister, and Jesse had married Christian's sister.

Sometime after 1852, Jesse and his wife moved to the Kansas Territory. Jesse's younger brother David went with them. They may have accompanied Frances's family West. During the 1860 census of the Kansas Territory Jesse, his wife, and his brother were residing in Shawnee, Johnson County of the Kansas Territory. Soon after the census, they picked up and moved East to Lafayette County, Missouri. Once in Missouri, one child is known to have been born to the couple but died during its second month.

Jesse, 42, died in June of 1862 in Lafayette County, Missouri. Jesse died in testate; perhaps a casualty of the Civil War. His place of burial is not known. His wife, Frances R. Rolston was appointed administrator on 11 November 1863.

Notes for Frances R. Bear:

Frances "Fanne" R. Bear was born about 1823 in Virginia, the third of seven children known to have been born to John and Elizabeth Bear.

On October 7, 1841 in Virginia, Frances married Jesse R. Rolston. They removed to Shawnee Township of Johnson County of the Kansas Territory, where they were enumerated in the 1860 census. About 1862, they left the praries of Kansas and returned east to Lafayette County, Missouri, where they remained.

The couple have but one child, a daughter who died at the age of two months. Frances was widowed in June of 1862 when Jesse, her husband of 21 years, died at the age of 42. She moved in with her widowed brother-in-law, David Rolston, and they resided in the east half of Lexington Township during the 1880 census. David remarried a few months after the census, and Frances may not have remained there.

Frances, 76, died September 9, 1899 in Higginville, Lafayette County, Missouri, and was buried as "Fanne B. Rolston, wife of Jesse Rolston" in the Sharp Cemetery in Higginville. Her parents and siblings were also buried there.

Jesse R. Rolston and Frances R. Bear had the following child:

- i. JESSIE<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born after 1860 in Missouri. She died before 1862 in Missouri (age 2 mos.).

Notes for Jessie Rolston:

Jessie Rolston was the only child known to have been born to Jesse R. Rolston and Frances R. Bear. Jessie's date and place of birth is not known.

Jessie died at the age of 2 months. Her date of death is not known, but she is said to have died in Missouri. If her reported place of death is correct, she was likely born as well as died in Missouri.

Notes for Elizabeth Sarah Rolston:

Elizabeth Sarah Rolston was born October 5, 1822 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of eight children born to John Hinton Rolston and Mary Hopkins. She was baptized in September of the following year at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church.

On December 21, 1843 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Elizabeth, age 21, married Christian M. Bear. The couple moved to Lafayette County, Missouri. The couple had three children, the last of which was born in 1848. Elizabeth's mother died in March of 1852, and then Elizabeth's husband died in August of that same year. Elizabeth's brother Jesse was named executor of the estate.

Soon after the death of her husband, Elizabeth moved back home and lived with her father. She was enumerated as E.S. Bear, housekeeper, at her father's home during the 1860 census of Rockingham County, along with her three children. In 1866 Elizabeth lost her youngest child; John Hopkins Bear died at the age of 17. Elizabeth and her two surviving children appear in 1870 residing with her brother John Hopkins Rolston. Her father also reside there until his death on June 18, 1874. In 1880 Elizabeth and her daughter Mary were still living with her brother John Hopkins Rolston.

Elizabeth, 60, died from pneumonia on April 23, 1883 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church cemetery where her mother, her father, and her youngest child were already laid to rest. She was survived by two of her three children: daughter Mary and son Newton.

Notes for Christian M. Bear:

Christian "Christy" M. Bear was born in 1818, probably in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of seven children known to have been born to of John and Elizabeth Bear.

On December 21, 1843 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Christian married Elizabeth Sarah Rolston. The couple removed to Lafayette County, Missouri where they farmed. Three children were born to the couple.

Christian, about age 34, died August 8, 1852 in Lafayette County, Missouri and was buried in the Sharp Cemetery. In 1852 there was a nationwide Yellow Fever epidemic, and Christian may have been one of its many victims. He was survived by his wife and their three children. Christian's estate was handled by his brother-in-law, Jesse R. Rolston. Jesse Rolston was Christian's brother-in-law twice over as Jesse was not only Elizabeth's brother, but Jesse had also married Frances Bear, Christian Bear's sister.

Christian M. Bear and Elizabeth Sarah Rolston had the following children:

- i. MARY E.<sup>6</sup> BEAR was born on 19 Jul 1845 in Missouri. She died on 12 Feb 1917 in Virginia (age 71).

Notes for Mary E. Bear:

Mary E. Bear was born July 19, 1845 in Missouri, the eldest of three children born to Christian M. Bear and Elizabeth Sarah Rolston. Mary's middle name was likely Elizabeth, after her mother.

The family lived in Lafayette County, Missouri where Mary's father died in 1852. After her father's death, Mary's mother moved the children back to Virginia and to the home of the children's paternal grandfather, John Henton Rolston, Sr.. Mary and her mother resided there over the next ten or more years, appearing in the 1860 and 1870 census of Rockingham County, Virginia. Mary was 21 years of age during the 1870 census. Mary is not known to have married. Mary's mother died in 1883, and Mary was enumerated with her brother Newton's family in 1900 and 1910.

---

Mary, 71, died February 12, 1917 and was buried as Mary Bear in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- ii. JOHN HOPKINS BEAR was born in Aug 1848 in Missouri. He died on 07 May 1866 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 17).

Notes for John Hopkins Bear:

John Hopkins Bear was born in August of 1848 in Missouri, the second of three children born to Christian M. Bear and Elizabeth Sarah Rolston. His father died in 1852 when John was four years old. His mother moved John and his siblings to Virginia and the home of their paternal grandfather, John Henton Rolston, Sr.. John was enumerated there during the 1860 census of Rockingham County, Virginia, along with his mother and siblings.

John, 17, died May 7, 1866 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. He was survived by his mother and his two siblings. During 1866 there was a cholera epidemic and John may have been one of its many victims.

- iii. DAVID NEWTON BEAR was born in Sep 1850 in Lafayette Co., Mo.. He died after 1910. He married Martha Glenn Shacklett, daughter of Abner Shacklett and Harriet Sheldon Glenn, on 19 Dec 1882 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born in Oct 1858 in Maury Co., Tenn.. She died in 1944 (age ~85).

Notes for David Newton Bear:

David Newton Bear was born in September in September of 1850 in Lafayette County, Missouri, the youngest of three children born to Christian M. Bear and Elizabeth Sarah Rolston. He always went by his middle name, Newton. Early census records show Newton as born in Virginia, but later censuses show his state of birth as Missouri where the family lived at the time of Newton's father's died.

After the death of his father, his mother moved the family to Virginia and to the home of their paternal grandfather, John Henton Rolston, Sr.. Newton along with his sister and mother resided there over the next ten or more years, appearing in the 1860 and 1870 census of Rockingham County, Virginia. Newton was 18 years old at the time of the 1870 census.

On December 19, 1882 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Newton married Mattie Glenn Shacklett. Newton began using "Baer" as his surname. Three children were born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

Newton D Baer	Head	M	60	Missouri
Martha G Baer	Wife	F	45	Tennessee
Harriet S Baer	Daughter		F	22 Virginia
Linton H Baer	Son	M	14	Virginia
Shacklett Baer	Son	M	25	Virginia
Lucy N Shacklett	Sister-in-law	F	40	Tennessee
Mary E Baer	Sister	F	65	Missouri

Newton was not enumerated with his wife in 1920, and his whereabouts in 1920 are unknown. His wife was enumerated as married, and it is assumed that Newton (age 70) was still living. Newton's sister and brother were both buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery, but there is no known grave there for Newton.

Notes for Martha Glenn Shacklett:

Martha "Mattie" Glenn Shacklett was born in October of 1858 in Maury County, Tennessee, the daughter of Abner Shacklett and Harriet Sheldon Glenn.

On December 19, 1882 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Mattie married Newton Bear. Three children were born to the couple. In 1920 Mattie and daughter Harriet were enumerated together in Harrisonburg, Virginia. Mattie was enumerated as married, but her husband Newton was not enumerated with the family.

Mattie, age about 85, died in 1944 and was buried as "Martha S. Baer" in the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Virginia. She shares a tombstone with her parents and sister Lucy.

Notes for Malinda Jane Rolston:

Malinda Jane Rolston was born May 5, 1825 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of eight children born to John Hinton Rolston and Mary Hopkins.

On April 13, 1843 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Malinda, age 17, married her second cousin, John A. Hopkins, age about 26. The couple had three children before John died on March 23, 1852. Malinda's mother had died March 8, 1852 just weeks before Malinda's husband. Both were likely casualties of the Yellow Fever epidemic. After the deaths of her husband and her mother, Malinda moved back to live with her father, and a fourth child was born. On July 4, 1854 Malinda's youngest child and only daughter died at the age of one. Malinda and her three children continued to reside with her father through 1860.

Sometime after 1860, Malinda married the widower Cyrus Hopkins, her second cousin and second cousin, once removed, of her deceased husband's. Cyrus owned a farm in Pendleton County, Virginia, and Malinda join him there. Malinda and Cyrus had one child in 1866, born in Pendleton County. Pendleton County was no longer in the state of Virginia as this area was now part of the new state of West Virginia. Her second husband, Cyrus, died in 1881.

Malinda, 59, died May 13, 1884 in Pendleton County, West Virginia. Her remains were transported from Pendleton to Rockingham where she was laid to rest in Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by four sons, three from her first husband, John Hopkins, and one from her second husband, Cyrus Hopkins.

Notes for John A. Hopkins:

John A. Hopkins was born in 1817 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the son of Archibald Hopkins and Elizabeth Gordon.

On April 13, 1843 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John married Malinda Jane Rolston. In the 1850 census John and his family were living next door to his brother Thomas and family. John and Malinda had three children before John's premature death, and their fourth child was born after his death.

In 1852 there was a nationwide epidemic of Yellow Fever. John, about age 34, died March 23, 1852 and may have been one of its many victims. His place of burial is not known. John was survived by his wife, their three children and a fourth child that had yet to be born.

John A. Hopkins and Malinda Jane Rolston had the following children:

- i. FERDINAND C.<sup>6</sup> HOPKINS was born on 13 Sep 1845 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 30 Mar 1931 in Virginia (age 85). He married Angeline Rinker, daughter of Jonathan Rinker and Anna, on 13 Oct 1874 in Rockbridge Co., Va.. She was born on 24 Nov 1851 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 14 Feb 1932 in Virginia (age 80).

Notes for Ferdinand C. Hopkins:

Ferdinand "Fernando" C. Hopkins was born September 13, 1845 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of four children born to John A. Hopkins and Malinda J. Rolston. He was known as Fernando. In 1852, at the age of 6, Fernando's father died. His mother moved the children and herself back to her father's home. In the 1860 census of Rockingham County, Virginia, Fernando, age 16, was still living at the home of his maternal grandfather John Henton Rolston, Senior along with his mother and brothers. Sometime after 1860, his mother married Cyrus Hopkins, a cousin of his father's, and from this union, Ferdinand had a half-brother. His mother moved to Pendleton County where Cyrus farmed, but Fernando is thought to have remained in Rockingham with his grandfather. He may have remained there until his grandfather's death on June 18, 1874.

October 13, 1874 in Rockbridge County, Virginia, Fernando, age 29, married Angeline Rinker. By the 1880 census three children had been born to the couple. Residing with them at this time was Fernando's brother John. Over the years that followed seven more children were born to Fernando and his wife Angeline.

Fernando, 85, died March 30, 1931 in Virginia and was buried as Ferdinand C. Hopkins in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. He was survived by Angeline, his wife of 56 years, and of his ten children, one is known to have preceded him in death.

Notes for Angeline Rinker:

Angeline Rinker was born November 24, 1851 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of eight children born to Jonathan and Anna Rinker.

On October 13, 1874 in Rockbridge County, Virginia, Angeline married Ferdinand "Fernando" C. Hopkins, the son of John A. Hopkins and Malinda J. Rolston. Angeline's sister Elizabeth Rinker had married William Newton Hopkins, Fernando's brother, in January. Ten children were born to the couple. Fernando died March 30, 1931 at the age of 85.

Angeline died the following year on February 14, 1932 at the age of 80 and was buried next to her husband in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. One of her ten children is known to have preceded her in death.

- ii. JOHN HINTON HOPKINS was born on 11 Feb 1848 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 24 Nov 1912 in Linville Dist., Rockingham Co., Va. (age 64). He married Rebecca J. Hollend, daughter of Jonas Hollend and Virginia A. Jones, on 12 Oct 1882 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born in 1855 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died after 1910 in Virginia.

Notes for John Hinton Hopkins:

John Hinton Hopkins was born February 11, 1848 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of four children born to John A. Hopkins and Malinda J. Rolston. He was named after his maternal grandfather, John Hinton Rolston. His father died in 1852 when John was 4 years old. John's mother moved the family in with her father, John's maternal grandfather, John Hinton Rolston. The family was enumerated with John's grandfather in the 1860 census of Rockingham County, Virginia. Between 1860 and 1866, John's mother remarried and the family moved to Pendleton County. John had a half-brother from his mother's second marriage. John lived with his mother and stepfather in West Virginia until he reached the age of majority. By 1880 John, age 32, had moved in with his older brother Fernando in Linville, Rockingham County, Virginia.

On October 12, 1882 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John, age 34, married Rebecca J. Hollen [Hollend], age 27. No children are known to have been born from their union. The couple divorced sometime prior to 1900. In the 1900 census John was residing with the family of Jacob A. Roudabush. Jacob was the brother-in-law of Jacob's ex-wife's sister. John's ex-wife Rebecca was residing in the Weston State Hospital for the Insane in Staunton, Virginia. Both John and Rebecca were enumerated as divorced.

John, 64, died November 24, 1912 in the Linville District of Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia. On his Death Certificate (#12185), John was listed as "widowed."

Notes for Rebecca J. Hollend:

Enumerated as Holland in the 1860 and 1870 census. In 1880 the family was enumerated as Kollen. Her marriage license lists her as Hollen. Parents buried as Hollend.

Generation 5 (cont.)

On October 12, 1882 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Rebecca married John Hinton Hopkins. No children are known to have been born to their union. The couple divorced, and Rebecca was enumerated in the Weston State Hospital for the Insane in Staunton, Augusta County, Virginia in 1900. She was enumerated as divorced with no children. How long she was a patient is unknown. Rebecca was enumerated with her sister in the 1910 census of the Plains District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

James F Roudabush	Head	Male	50	Virginia
Marilla Roudabush		Wife	Female 48	Virginia (0/0)
Rebecca J Hopkins		Sister	Female 54	Virginia (2/2) (widowed)

- iii. WILLIAM NEWTON HOPKINS was born on 08 Jan 1850 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 28 Aug 1923 in Illinois (age 73). He married (1) ELIZABETH RINKER, daughter of Jonathan Rinker and Anna, on 27 Jan 1874 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 19 Sep 1849 in Virginia. She died on 26 Nov 1926 in Champaign, Champaign Co., Ill. (age 77). He married (2) LYDIA A in 1900. She was born in 1860 in Virginia. She died in 1939 (age ~79).

Notes for William Newton Hopkins:

William Newton Hopkins was born January 8, 1850 [January 6, 1849 on death certificate] in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of four children born to John A. Hopkins and Malinda J. Rolston. His father died when William was two years old, and his mother moved the family in with her father. In the 1860 census of Rockingham County, Virginia, William, along with his mother, were living with his maternal grandfather John Henton Rolston, Senior. His mother remarried sometime between 1860 and 1866 and moved to Pendleton County. From his mother's second marriage, William had a half-brother. It is not known if William moved with her or remained in Rockingham County. He is believed to have remained.

On January 27, 1874 in Rockingham County, Virginia, William, age 24, married Elizabeth "Bettie" Rinker. Eleven children were born to their union. Their last child was born in 1890. Sometime between 1890 and 1900, the couple divorced. His wife was enumerated in 1900 as widowed but was enumerated in 1910 as divorced.

In 1900 William married Lydia A., maiden name unknown. The couple farmed in Illinois where five children were born to their union; one died in infancy.

William, age 73, died August 28, 1923 in Illinois and was buried in the Berwick Cemetery in Berwick, Warren County, Illinois. He was survived by his second wife Lydia, four of their five children, all eleven children from his first marriage, his brother Ferdinand Hopkins, and his half-brother Charles Dyer Hopkins. His ex-wife also survived. He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother, an infant sister, and one daughter.

Notes for Elizabeth Rinker:

Elizabeth "Bettie" Rinker was born September 19, 1849 in Virginia, one of eight children and the eldest daughter born to Jonathan and Anna Rinker.

On January 27, 1874 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Elizabeth married William Newton Hopkins. In October of that year, Elizabeth's younger sister, Angeline, married William's older brother, Ferdinand.

Eleven children were born to Elizabeth and William. Her husband died sometime between 1890 and 1900. The widow Bettie Hopkins was enumerated in the 1900 census of Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia with four of her eleven children. Residing with the family was Elizabeth's widowed father. Her father died in 1902. Sometime after 1910, Elizabeth removed to Illinois. In 1918 when her son Harry registered for the WWI draft, he listed his nearest relative as "Mrs. Betty Hopkins" residing in Palmer City, Illinois. The city of Palmer is located in Christian County, Illinois. In 1920 Bettie was enumerated with her daughter Mrs. Ella Keyser in Santa Ana, Dewitt County, Illinois.

Elizabeth, 76, died November 26, 1926 in Champaign, Champaign County, Illinois. Her remains were returned to Virginia and buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. Date of death on her tombstone is November 27, 1926.

- iv. MARY ELIZABETH HOPKINS was born about 20 Mar 1853 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 04 Jul 1854 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 1).

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Hopkins:

Mary Elizabeth Hopkins was born about March 20, 1853 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of four children and only daughter born to John A. Hopkins and Malinda Jane Rolston. The date of her birth is based on her reported age at the time of her death. Mary's father had died March 23, 1852 prior to her birth.

Mary died July 4, 1854 at the reported age of 1 year, 3 months, and 14 days. The death was reported by her maternal grandfather John H. Rolston. The date of Mary's birth is about a year after the death of her father John A. Hopkins which brings her reported age at the time of her death or perhaps her parentage into question. Her place of burial is unknown.

Notes for Cyrus Hopkins:

Cyrus Hopkins was born November 23, 1809 in Upper Tract, Pendleton County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the son of John Hopkins and Elizabeth Baxter.

About 1835 in Virginia, Cyrus married Susan E. Johnson, and the couple had three children. They lived and farmed in Pendleton County, Virginia (now West Virginia). In 1846 Cyrus became a School Commissioner for Pendleton County. Cyrus and his family was enumerated in Pendleton County during the 1850 census. Present were his wife Susan, their three children, and Cyrus's older sister Lucinda.

Cyrus Hopkins	M	40	Virginia
Susan E Hopkins		F 37	Virginia
William J Hopkins		M 12	Virginia
Martha H Hopkins		F 9	Virginia
John J Hopkins	M	5	Virginia
Lucinda Hopkins		F 52	Virginia [Cyrus's sister]
Margaret Hollaway		F 25	Virginia

Cyrus's wife died in August of 1858.

Sometime after 1860, Cyruse married Mrs. Malinda Jane (Rolston) Hopkins, the widow of his cousin John A. Hopkins who died in early 1852. One child, a son, was born in 1866 to Cyrus and Malinda, his second wife.

Cyrus was a slave owner. In the 1860 slave census of Pendleton County, Virginia, Cyrus Hopkins was enumerated with 7 slaves.

Cyrus, 71, died October 30, 1881 in Reeds Creek, Pendleton County, West Virginia, and was buried in the Cherry Hill Cemetery in Upper Tract, Pendleton County, West Virginia.

Cyrus Hopkins and Malinda Jane Rolston had the following child:

- i. CHARLES DYER<sup>6</sup> HOPKINS was born on 27 Feb 1866 in Upper Tract, Pendleton Co., Va. (now W.V.). He died on 14 Mar 1947 in Centerview, Johnson Co., Mo. (age 81). He married Fannie M. Bear, daughter of John P. Bear and Mary Ann Marshal Gray, on 03 Jul 1900. She was born in Aug 1876 in Lexington Twp., Lafayette Co., Mo.. She died in 1957 in Higginsville, Lafayette Co., Mo. (age 80).

Notes for Charles Dyer Hopkins:

Charles Dyer Hopkins was born February 27, 1866 in Pendleton County, Virginia, the only child of Cyrus Hopkins and Jane Rolston Hopkins. Both of his parents had been previously married. From his father's first marriage, Charles had two half-brothers and one half-sister. From his mother's first marriage, Charles had three half-brothers and one half-sister who was deceased. His parents moved to Pendleton County, West Virginia shortly after his birth. Sometime after his parents' deaths in the early 1880's, Charles removed to Missouri.

In 1900 Charles was enumerated in Lexington Township of Lafayette County, Missouri. He was residing with the widow Mrs. Martha Rolston who's husband, Charles' uncle, had died some months earlier. Living nearby was the Bear family

On July 3, 1900, Charles married his neighbor, Fannie M. Bear. They were related through marriage but not cousins. Charles and his wife farmed. Four children were born to the couple. They resided in Higginsville, Lafayette County, Missouri, but later removed to Johnson County. Their youngest son, Frank, lived at home until his parents' deaths.

Charles, 81, preceded his wife in death on March 14, 1947 in Centerview, Johnson County, Missouri, and was buried in the Holden Cemetery in Holden, Johnson County, Missouri.

Notes for Fannie M. Bear:

Fannie M. Bear was born in August of 1876 in Lexington Township of Lafayette County, Missouri, one of seven children born to John P. Bear and Mary Ann Marshal Gray. In the 1880 census Fannie was enumerated as "Anna M. Bear." Fannie was enumerated with her mother in the 1900 census of Lexington Township of Lafayette County, Missouri:

Mary M Bear	Head	F	62	Missouri (widowed)
John F Bear	Son	M	29	Missouri
Charles N Bear	Son	M	26	Missouri
Fannie M Bear	Daughter	F	23	Missouri

Living nearby was:

Martha C. Ralston	Head	F	46	Missouri (widowed)
Charles D. Hopkins	Nephew	M	34	Virginia

On July 3, 1900, Fannie and Charles D. Hopkins married. Four children were born to the couple. Her husband preceded her in death in 1947 at the age of 80.

Fannie, 80, died in 1957 in Higginsville, Lafayette County, Missouri, and was buried in the Holden Cemetery in Holden, Johnson County, Missouri.

333. AMANDA MARGARET<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (John Hinton<sup>4</sup>, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 10 Feb 1861 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 16 Apr 1946 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va. (age 85). She married Samuel Clarke Knicely, son of Ebenezer Knicely and Mary Ann McGuire, on 08 Mar 1884 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 23 May 1861 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 19 Feb 1935 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va. (age 73).

Notes for Amanda Margaret Rolston:

Amanda Margaret Rolston was born February 10, 1861 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the elder of two children and only daughter born to John Henton Rolston and Sarah Van Pelt. The 1900 census lists her birth as September 1861. Amanda's father was previously married, and from that union Amanda had five half-brothers and three half-sisters. Amanda's parents appear to have divorced after a few years of marriage.

Amanda's mother, Sarah, was later found as Sarah Van Pelt. Her mother's maiden name may not have been Van Pelt. Where Amanda, her younger brother Benjamin, and their mother lived is unknown as they do not appear in the 1870 nor 1880 census. Even though she was not found in either census, she is thought to have been a lifelong resident of the Rockingham County area.

On March 8, 1884 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Amanda married Samuel Clarke Knicely, a local farmer. The couple had three children. In 1920 their son Russell was still living at home. He was married, and his wife was also living with them.

Living next door to Amanda in 1920 was Mrs. D. H. Rolston, the widowed wife of David Hopkins Rolston, Amanda's first cousin, once removed. Mrs. D. H. Rolston was the former Miss Sarah F. Rodeffer. Living with Mrs. Rolston was her sister Lou C. Rhodefer (sic?) and niece Sallie H. Blosser.

In the 1930 census Amanda and Samuel were living in Harrisonburg with their daughter Else and her husband, John M. Burkholder. Amanda and her husband had celebrated 50 years of marriage before his death on February 19, 1935 at the age of 73.

Amanda remained with her daughter until her death on April 16, 1946 at the age of 85. She was buried with her husband at the Weavers Church Cemetery in Rockingham County. She was survived by her three children.

Daily News Record, Harrisonburg, Virginia, Wednesday, April 17, 1946

Mrs. Knicely, 85, Succumbs Here

Funeral Services Thursday Afternoon at U. B. Church

Mrs. Amanda Margaret Knicely, 85, a resident of Harrisonburg for the past 22 years and widow of Samuel C. Knicely, died Tuesday morning at 3:25 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John N. Burkholder, 241 W. Gay Street after an illness of several months.

Although she had been in declining health for a number of years, Mrs. Knicely continued her usual activities until the latter part of December when she was taken ill and since her condition has gradually become weaker. News of her death was received with regret and sorrow by her many friends here as well as in the county.

A daughter of the Captain and Mrs. John Ralston she was born on February 10, 1861 near Greenmount where she spent her early childhood and attended school at Willow Run.

On March 8, 1884, she was united in marriage with Samuel C. Knicely and for sometime they made their home near Hinton, later moving to four miles north of Harrisonburg on the Mt. Clinton Pike. For eleven years prior to Mr. Knicely's death on February 19, 1935, Mr. and Mrs. Knicely made their home on W. Gay Street here where he continued the carpentry trade, and for the past eleven years Mrs. Knicely has made her home with her daughter.

Mrs. Knicely was a woman of a quiet and retiring disposition, with many fine qualities, whose main interests were centered around her family.

Surviving are two daughter, Mrs. Aaron E. Suter, of Harrisonburg and Mrs. John N. Burkholder with whom she made her home; one son, Russell C. Knicely, of Harrisonburg. Seven grandchildren also survive.

A brother, B. Frank Ralston, of Washington, preceded her in death in 1940 and a great granddaughter, Judy Lee Suter, in February, 1945.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at two o'clock from the Harrisonburg United Brethren Church, of which she was a member for many years, with her pastor, the Dr. E. E. Miller in charge of the services. Interment will be in the family lot in Weavers Church Cemetery.

The body will rest at the Lindsey Funeral Home on South Main Street until the (Wednesday) afternoon at four o'clock when it will be taken to her late home at 241 W. Gay Street.

Notes for Samuel Clarke Knicely:

Samuel Clarke Knicely was born May 23, 1861 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the tenth of eleven children born to Ebenezer Knicely and Mary Ann McGuire. He was a member of the Mennonite faith and made his living as a farmer and carpenter.

On March 8, 1884 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Samuel married Amanda Margaret Rolston. Three children were born from their union. Samuel was a farmer but later worked as a house carpenter. In 1930, the couple was residing with their daughter and son-in-law, John M. Burkholder.

Samuel, 73, died February 19, 1935 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Weavers Church cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. He was survived by Amanda, his wife of 50 years, and their three children.

Samuel Clarke Knicely and Amanda Margaret Rolston had the following children:

334. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (John Hinton<sup>4</sup>, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 06 Jan 1864 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 29 Oct 1940 in Washington, D.C. (age 76). He married Mary Jane Shifflett, daughter of Andrew Derrett Shifflett and Catherine Frazier, on 25 Aug 1887 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 05 Aug 1866 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 31 Oct 1933 in Washington, D.C. (age 67).

Notes for Benjamin Franklin Rolston:

Benjamin Franklin "Frank" Rolston was born January 6, 1864 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the younger of two children and only son born to John Hinton Rolston and Sarah. Benjamin's father was previously married, and from that union Benjamin had five half-brothers and three half-sisters. Benjamin was known by his middle name, Franklin. On his marriage license his name is listed as "B. Franklin Rolston." He was also known as B. Frank Rolston.

---

Benjamin's parents appear to have divorced after a few years of marriage. Where Benjamin, his older sister, and their mother lived is unknown as they do not appear in the 1870 nor 1880 census. Benjamin's mother was later found as Sarah Van Pelt, but the surname of Van Pelt may be from a second marriage.

Benjamin married Mary Jane Shifflett on August 25, 1887 in Rockingham County, Virginia. The couple resided in or near the Dayton area where they farmed and began their family of ten children. Sometime after 1908 Benjamin moved the family to Fairfax County, Virginia. Benjamin worked as a carpenter and then went into the grocery business. By 1930 Benjamin moved to the District of Columbia. In the 1930 census Benjamin was enumerated along with his wife, daughters: Mary, Bessie and Mrs. Edith (Rolston) Putnam and her husband Edgar Putnam and two grandchildren: B. F. Varner and Welcome G. Runion. On October 31, 1933, Mary, Benjamin's wife of 46 years, preceded him in death.

Benjamin remained with his daughter Edith in Washington, D.C. and died seven years later on October 29, 1940 at the age of 76. He was buried in the Flint Hill Cemetery in Oakton, Fairfax County, Virginia. Besides his wife, he was preceded in death by three of his children.

About 1909 in Virginia, Wilmer married Lena May Light. No children were born to their union. In 1917 the couple lived in Branchville, Maryland. By 1920 they had moved to Fairfax County, Virginia. The couple resided there until their deaths. Wilmer operated the Ralston's Market on Chain Bridge Road in Fairfax from 1940 to 1959 when he retired. Wilmer's wife Lena preceded him in death on May 25, 1955 at the age of 66.

Wilmer, 76, died November 7, 1964 in Fairfax, Fairfax County, Virginia, and joined his wife in the Fairfax City Cemetery in Fairfax. Wilmer was known to have been survived by his younger brothers John and Frank, and his youngest sister. Mrs. Mary Whiteley.

- ii. JOHN P. ROLSTON was born on 03 Jan 1891 in Dayton, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died in Nov 1971 in Washington, D.C. (age 80). He married Mary B. Welch after 1930. She was born about 1906 in Virginia. She died in 1988 in Washington, D.C. (age ~82).

Notes for John P. Rolston:

John P. Rolston/Ralston was born January 3, 1891 in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of ten children born to Benjamin Franklin Rolston and Mary Jane Shifflett. John's father moved the family to Washington, D.C. sometime between 1909 and 1917. John used the Ralston spelling of the family surname.

In 1930 John was living with his brother Franklin in Washington, D.C. and working as a car salesman. Living at the Rolston residence, and listed as a boarder during the 1930 census, was Miss Mary B. Welch, age 24, born in Virginia. By 1940, John and Mary had married. No children are known to have been born to the couple.

John, 80, died in November of 1971 in Washington, D.C.. His place of burial is unknown. John was survived by his wife who died seventeen years later in 1988. Also surviving was John's youngest sister, Mrs. Mary Whiteley.

- iii. FRANKLIN ISLEY ROLSTON was born on 31 May 1893 in Dayton, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 15 Oct 1966 (age 73). He married Olive G. Sutphin, daughter of John H. Sutphin and Kate, on 06 Feb 1913 in Oakton, Fairfax Co., Va.. She was born about 1897 in Dayton, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died in 1987 (age ~90).

Notes for Franklin Isley Rolston:

Franklin "Frank" Isley Rolston/Ralston was born May 31, 1893 in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of ten children born to Benjamin Franklin Rolston and Mary Jane Shifflett. In his early childhood his father moved the family from Rockingham to the Providence District of Fairfax county, also in Virginia. It was there that Franklin grew to adulthood and began using Ralston as his surname.

On February 6, 1913 in Oakton, Fairfax County, Virginia, Franklin married Miss Olive G. Sutphin. Three children are known to have been born to the couple. Franklin started out in the grocery business. The young family was enumerated during the 1920 census of Fairfax County. Living with them was niece Jeraldine Runyon, age 3 months, and nephew Brodice F. Varcer, age 2 months. (The spelling of the nephew's name in the 1930 census is difficult to determine.) These two infants were from his wife Olive's family.

By 1930 Franklin had moved his family to Washington, D.C., where he worked as a conductor on an "interurban electric train." Besides their three children, Franklin's brother John was living with them and a boarder (John's girlfriend) named Miss Mary B. Welch. By 1933 Franklin had moved his family to Ballston, Arlington County, Virginia.

Franklin, 73, died October 15, 1966 and was buried in the National Memorial Park in Fairfax County, Virginia. He was survived by his wife Olive and their three children. Also surviving was his youngest sister. Mrs. Mary Whiteley.

- vi. EDITH MAY ROLSTON was born on 09 Aug 1899 in Dayton, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 24 Oct 1993 in Arlington Co., Va. (age 94). She married (1) OBED MARION RUNION about 1918 in Virginia. She married (2) EDGAR C. PUTMAN, son of Thomas Henry Putman and Susie L, on 13 Nov 1926 in Fairfax Co., Va.. He was born on 30 Oct 1903 in Loudon Co., Va.. He died on 02 Jul 1948 (age 44). She married (3) CHESTER MORAN before 1960.

Notes for Edith May Rolston:

Edith May Rolston was born August 9, 1899 in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of ten children born to Benjamin Franklin Rolston and Mary Jane Shifflett. She was sometimes known by her middle name, May. By 1910 her father had moved the family to Fairfax County, Virginia, remaining there until sometime before 1930, when the family removed to Washington, D.C..

About 1918, Edith, age 19, married Obed Marion Runion. One child, a daughter, was born to the couple. Edith was enumerated with her mother in the 1920 census of the Providence District of Fairfax County, Virginia. She was married, but her husband nor their daughter were present. The couple divorced.

On November 13, 1926 in Fairfax County, Virginia, Edith, age 27, married Edgar C. Putnam, age 23. The couple was residing with her parents at the time of the 1930 census. No children are known to have been born to their union. She and her husband were residing in Washington, D.C. in 1933 at the time of her mother's death. Edith's family and her widowed father were enumerated together in the 1940 census of the District of Columbia:

Edger C Putman	Head	M	36	Virginia
Edith C Putman	Wife	F	40	Virginia
Wilma G Runion	Stepdaughter	F	20	Virginia
Benjamin F Ralston	Father-in-law	M	76	Virginia (widowed)
Lulla M Barger	Servant	F	37	Virginia

Edgar, Edith's second husband, died in July of 1948 at the age of 44.

Edith then married Chester Moran. He is presumed to have preceded her in death.

Edith, 94, died October 24, 1993 in Arlington County, Virginia. Her remains were cremated.

- vii. BESSIE C. ROLSTON was born on 19 Jan 1902 in Dayton, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died after 1940. She married (1) VARNER about 1919 in Virginia. She married (2) ABRAMS between 1933-1940.

Notes for Bessie C. Rolston:

Bessie C. Rolston was born January 19, 1902 in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia, the seventh of ten children born to Benjamin Franklin Rolston and Mary Jane Shifflett. Her father moved the family to Fairfax County, Virginia prior to 1910, remaining there through 1920 before removing to Washington, D.C. sometime before 1930.

About 1919 in Virginia, Bessie, age 16, married a Mr. Varner; one child, a son, was born to the couple. Nothing is known of her first husband. He was not present at the time of the 1920 Virginia census when Bessie, listed as married, was enumerated at her parents' home. Bessie was enumerated in the 1930 census of Washington, D.C., living with her parents, divorced and had returned to her maiden name. She was working as a file clerk. Bessie and her son were enumerated in the 1940 census of Washington, D.C.:

Bessie Rolston	F	38	Virginia (divorced)
Broadus Varner	M	20	Virginia
Doris Varner	F	18	District Of Columbia (daughter-in-law)

Bessie's father died in October of 1940. In her father's obituary Bessie was listed as "Bessie C. Abrams." She may have married Mr. Abrams between the time of the 1940 census and the death of her father, or she may have married and divorced Mr. Abram sometime prior to the 1940 census.

Bessie died sometime after the 1940 census.

- viii. EDGAR RAYMOND ROLSTON was born in 1904 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died about 1906 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 2 yrs., 7 mos.).

Notes for Leroy Rolston:

Leroy Rolston was born April 25, 1908 in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia, the ninth of ten children born to Benjamin Franklin Rolston and Mary Jane Shifflett. Although noted as having died before 1910 in Virginia, his burial does not appear in Rockingham County. His parents may have left Rockingham County prior to Leroy's death.

- x. MARY E. ROLSTON was born on 08 Jun 1909 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 28 Jan 2002 in Virginia (age 92). She married James H. Whiteley, son of Henry E. Whiteley and Mary R, about 1937. He was born about 1914 in Washington, D.C.. He died after 1940.

Notes for Mary E. Rolston:

Mary E. Rolston was born June 8, 1909 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of ten children born to Benjamin Franklin Rolston and Mary Jane Shifflett. Sometime after her birth, her father moved the family to Fairfax County, Virginia, where they remained for ten or more years. Before the 1930 census, her father moved the family to Washington, D.C.. In 1930 Mary was working as a file clerk in Washington, D.C.. Also working as a file clerk in D.C. was James H. Whiteley.

About 1937, Mary married James H. Whiteley. One child is known to have been born to their union. The couple and their daughter, Donna, were enumerated in the 1940 census of Washington, D.C..

Mary, 92, died on January 28, 2002 in Virginia. Her place of burial is unknown.

335. JOHN MOFFETT<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Jacob M.<sup>4</sup>, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 02 May 1812 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 03 Nov 1869 in Paris, Barton Twp., Newaygo Co., Mich. (age 57). He married Nancy Tannehill, daughter of William Tannehill and Ellenon McMullen, on 17 Sep 1839 in Knox Co., Ohio. She was born on 05 Jan 1821 in Pennsylvania. She died on 05 Apr 1897 in Green Twp., Mecosta Co., Mich. (age 76).

Notes for John Moffett Rolston:

John Moffett Rolston was born May 2, 1812 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the elder of two sons born to Jacob M. Rolston and Nancy Beard. John's middle name comes from his maternal grandmother, Esther Moffett. John's mother died about 1815. His father remarried, and from that union, John had three half-brothers and five half-sisters. John spent his childhood growing up in Rockingham County, Virginia.

In the mid-1830's, John and his brother David inherited land in Rockingham County from their maternal grandfather, Charles Beard. John purchased younger brother David's share. John later sold this land to his uncle, Jesse Ralston.

In his early adulthood John moved north to Knox County, Ohio. There, he met Nancy Tannehill of Pennsylvania. They married September 17, 1839 in Knox County, Ohio. John was 27 years old, and Nancy was 18. They farmed and raised their family in Knox County until about 1849 when the family, then six children, picked up and moved west to Whitley County, Indiana. Over the course of the next ten years, three more children came into the family. Sometime between 1860 and 1865 John moved the family to Barton Township in Newaygo County, Michigan. There, the last of their ten children were born.

John, 57, became ill with an inflammation to his lungs and died November 3, 1869 in Paris, Newaygo County, Michigan, leaving a wife with three children still living at home. He was buried as John M. Rolstone in the Davenport Cemetery in Barton Township, Newaygo County, Michigan. He was survived by his wife and nine of their ten children.

Notes for Nancy Tannehill:

Nancy Tannehill was born January 5, 1821 in Pennsylvania, the daughter of William Tannehill and Ellenon McMullen. She either lived or was born in the city or county of Somerset in Pennsylvania before moving with her family to Knox County, Ohio. She may have also gone by the name of Catherine.

On September 17, 1839 in Knox County, Ohio, Nancy married John Moffett Rolston, a farmer. They remained in Knox County where the first six of their ten children were born. Sometime between 1848 and 1850 they moved west to Whitley County, Indiana, where they spent the next ten years or more, and three more children were born. By 1865 they had moved to Barton Township in Newaygo County, Michigan. There, their tenth and last child was born. On November 3, 1869 Nancy's husband of 29 years died at the age of 57. Three of their children were still living at home.

On April 28, 1875 in Newaygo County, Michigan, the widowed Nancy married William Thomas Hanton. He preceded her in death in 1881.

Nancy, 76, died of heart disease on April 5, 1897 in Green Township in Mecosta County, Michigan, and was buried as "Nancy wife of Wm Hanton" in the Davenport Cemetery in Barton Township in Newaygo County, Michigan, where her first husband was buried some 28 years earlier. She was survived by nine of her ten children.

John Moffett Rolston and Nancy Tannehill had the following children:

- i. ANN ELIZA<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 25 Oct 1840 in Knox Co., Ohio. She married Jonathan Trumbull on 25 Jan 1858 in Whitley Co., Ind.. He was born about 1837.

Notes for Ann Eliza Rolston:

Ann Eliza Rolston was born October 25, 1840 in Knox County, Ohio, the eldest of ten children born to John Moffett Rolston and Nancy Tannehill. She spent her early childhood in Knox County until about 1849 when her father moved the family west to Whitley County, Indiana.

On January 25, 1858 in Whitley County, Indiana, Ann married Jonathan Trumbull. No record of the couple was found after 1858.

On September 5, 1861 in Lake County, Ohio, "Eliza A. Trumbull" married Charles B. Spring. No age or birth information was provide on the marriage license, and it is not certain that this was the former Miss Ann Eliza Rolston. Eliza A. Spring, 24, died March 22, 1865 in Wickliffe, Lake County, Ohio, and was buried in the Chardon Road Cemetery in Wickliffe.

- ii. DELILAH ROLSTON was born on 25 Apr 1842 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 29 Jul 1923 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co., Mich. (age 81). She married (1) SAMUEL J. COPPER on 16 Jul 1860 in Union Twp., Whitley Co., Ind. ((license issued date)). He was born about 1839 in Ohio. He died on 18 Nov 1867 in Michigan (age ~28). She married (2) ISAAC WILLIAM STANLEY, son of Isaac W. Stanley and Cula Facey, on 09 Aug 1868 in Mecosta Co., Michigan. He was born on 23 Feb 1845 in Canada (West). He died on 02 Sep 1922 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co., Mich. (age 77).

Notes for Delilah Rolston:

Delilah Rolston was born April 25, 1842 in Knox County, Ohio, the second of ten children born to John Moffett Rolston and Nancy Tannehill. She spent her early childhood in Knox County until about 1849 when her father moved the family west to Whitley County, Indiana.

On July 16, 1860 in Whitley County, Indiana, Delilah married Samuel J. Copper. The couple had two known children and perhaps as many as four children. Their first born child died at age three. Their youngest and only surviving child was son David. Delilah's husband died in November of 1867.

On August 9, 1868 in Mecosta County, Michigan, the widowed Mrs. Delilah Copper married Isaac William Stanley. The couple resided in Chase, Lake County, Michigan, where one child, Isaac, was born in 1872. In the 1880 census, Delilah's son David was listed as Isaac's stepson. Delila and her husband moved to Revenna, Muskegon County, Michigan, where they were enumerated during the 1900 census. In that census Delilah states that she had given birth to 7 children, of which, 2 were living. By which husband the deceased children were fathered is mostly unknown. Delilah's son David, from her first marriage, died in 1915, and his widowed wife came to live with them. The family was enumerated in the 1920 census of Kent County, Michigan:

William Stanley	Head	M	74	Canada
Dililah Stanley	Wife	F	77	Ohio

Reuben Stanley	Son	M	47	Michigan
Jennie Copper	Daughter-in-law	F	49	Michigan (widowed)

Mrs. Jennie Copper was the widowed wife of Delilah's son David from her first marriage.

Mr. Stanley, Delilah's husband of 54 years, died in September of 1922.

Delilah, 81, died July 29, 1923 in Grand Rapids, Kent County, Michigan, and joined her second husband in the Ravenna Cemetery in Ravenna, Muskegon County, Michigan. She was buried as Delilah Stanley. Delilah was survived by her son Isaac. Also surviving were six sisters and two brothers. She was preceded in death by her two husbands, six children, her parents, and one sister.

- iii. DAVID A. ROLSTON was born on 05 Apr 1844 in Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 24 Jul 1939 in Newaygo Co., Mich. (age 95). He married (1) LOUISA EICHENBERGER, daughter of Samuel Eichenberger and Elizabeth Merz, on 28 Aug 1869 in Big Rapids, Mecosta Co., Mich.. She was born on 20 Nov 1848 in Switzerland. She died on 05 Jan 1891 in Barton Twp., Newaygo Co., Mich. (age 42). He married (2) LAURA N. KENT, daughter of Rufus Kent and Mary D, on 26 Apr 1891 in Chase, Mecosta Co., Mich.. She was born in Oct 1849 in Byers, Chester Co., Penn.. She died in 1917 in Michigan (age ~67).

Notes for David A. Rolston:

David A. Rolston was born April 5, 1844 in Knox County, Ohio, the third of ten children born to John Moffett Rolston and Nancy Tannehill. He spent his first five years of childhood in Knox County. Then about 1849, his father moved the family west to Whitley County, Indiana. About 1862, at the age of 18, David moved to Michigan along with his parents.

On August 31, 1864, having reached the age of 20, David enlisted in the Army at Grand Rapids, Michigan, as a Private in Company K of the 11th Michigan Cavalry, serving with the Union Army during the Civil War. He was discharged on June 16, 1865, having served nine and a half months.

On August 28, 1869 in Big Rapids, Mecosta County, Michigan, David married Louisa Eichenberger. The couple farmed in Barton, Newaygo County, Michigan, residing next to his mother in 1870. Over the course of the next 18 years, ten children were born to the couple. Their first five children were enumerated during the 1880 census of Barton, Newaygo County, Michigan:

David Roleston	Self	M	Male	W	35	OH	Farmer	VA	---
Louisa Roleston	Wife	M	Female	W	29	SWI	Keeps House	SWI	SWI

David, 95, died July 24, 1939 in Newaygo County, Michigan. Death information was given by his sister, Martha Rolston Smith. David was reported to have had seven surviving sons, 28 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren. He was buried in the Chase Cemetery in Chase, Lake County, Michigan. His tombstone was inscribed with his date of death but not his date of birth.

Notes for Louisa Eichenberger:

Louisa Eichenberger was born November 20, 1848 in Switzerland, the daughter of Samuel Eichenberger and Elizabeth Merz. In 1856, at the age of eight, Louisa and her family moved to the United States and then onto Michigan.

On August 28, 1869 in Big Rapids, Mecosta County, Michigan, Louisa married David A. Rolston. Perhaps this was where her family resided at that time. Louisa lived with her husband in Barton Township in Newaygo County, Michigan for the rest of her life. The couple farmed and Louisa brought ten children into the world. All of the children, except one, were sons. One daughter was born to the couple but died in 1899 at the age of about 12 years.

Louisa, 42, died January 5, 1891 in Newaygo County, Michigan and was buried in the Davenport Cemetery in Barton Township of Newaygo County, Michigan. She was survived by David, her husband of 20 years, and eight of her ten children. Also surviving was her brother Jacob Eichenberg who was residing next to the Rolston farm at the time of the 1900 census.

Notes for Laura N. Kent:

Laura N. Kent was born in October of 1849 in Byers, Chester County, Pennsylvania, the eldest of six children born to Rufus and Mary D. Kent. About 1855 her father moved the family to Mecosta County, Michigan.

On April 20, 1869 in Mecosta, Mecosta County, Michigan, Laura, age 19, married William A. Morrill, the first of two husbands. One child is known to have been born from her first husband. What became of husband William is unknown.

Her second marriage was to the widower David A. Rolston on April 26, 1891 in Chase, Mecosta County, Michigan. No children are known from this union. Laura and husband David were enumerated in the 1900 census of Barton Township in Newaygo County, Michigan. Residing with them were her husband's four sons: Burt, John, Alonzo and Jesse. Living with the Rolston family was Laura's sixteen year old niece, Jessie Morrell. The couple divorced prior to 1910, and Laura returned to her maiden name of Kent.

Laura, age about 67, died in 1917 and was buried as Laura Kent with her parents in the Pine Plains Cemetery in Big Rapids, Mecosta County, Michigan.

- iv. PHOEBE ELANOR ROLSTON was born on 02 Feb 1846 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 12 Apr 1926 in Freeport, Barry Co., Mich. (age 80). She married Robert Ewers Bigbee, son of William Bigbee and Mariah Ewers, on 01 Jul 1866 in Big Rapids, Mecosta Co., Mich.. He was born on 12 Apr 1834 in Richland Co., Ohio. He died on 09 Mar 1911 in Chase Twp., Lake Co., Mich. (age 76).

Notes for Phoebe Elanor Rolston:

Phoebe Elanor Rolston was born February 2, 1846 in Knox County, Ohio, the fourth of ten children born to John Moffett Rolston and Nancy Tannehill. She spent her early childhood in Knox County until about 1849 when her father moved the family west to Whitley County, Indiana. She resided in Indiana until sometime between 1860 and 1865 when her father moved the family to Barton Township in Newaygo County, Michigan.

On July 1, 1866 in Big Rapids, Mecosta County, Michigan, Phoebe, age 20, married Robert E. Bigbee, age 32. The couple lived in Lake County, Michigan where they farmed and raised a family of four children. There was a fifth child, born about 1873, that died as an infant or young child. The family appeared in the 1880 census of Chase Township in Lake County, Michigan, where the youngest of their four children was only age 1. Phoebe, her husband, and many of their children remained in Chase. Phoebe's husband died March 9, 1911 at the age of 76 in Chase where the couple had lived for many years. Some ten years later during the 1920 census of Chase, Lake County, Michigan Phoebe was living with her son Charlie and his family. The census lists Phoebe as Mother, age 73, widowed. Phoebe likely stayed with her son for the remainder of her life.

Phoebe, 80, died April 12, 1926 in Freeport, Barry County, Michigan, and was buried in the Chase Township Cemetery in Lake County, Michigan. She was survived by three of her five children. She was preceded in death by her husband and two sons, James and Silas.

Notes for Robert Ewers Bigbee:

Robert Ewers Bigbee was born April 12, 1834 in Richland County, Ohio, one of six children born to William Bigbee and Mariah Ewers. He was given his mother's maiden name as his middle name. His family resided in Middletown, Knox County, Ohio at the time of the Civil War, and Robert along with several brothers served as privates in the Fourth Ohio Infantry Regiment of the Union Army. Robert enlisted on April 18, 1861. He was wounded on May 10, 1864 at Po River, Virginia and discharged on June 21, 1864. In the Fall of 1865 Robert and his father moved to Chase Township in Lake County, Michigan and began farming. Robert's brother John may have moved with them, but in 1866 he had moved onto Pinora township.

Rob't E. Bigbee - Settled, in Fall of 1865, on the southeast quarter section 4, Chase township. The soil is sand and clay loam; and water from springs and creek, with a well 72 feet deep. There are about 56 acres improved; house, part frame, part log; frame barn. Has about 30 apple trees, (bearing) with cherry, pear and small fruits. For shade and ornament, has set out maples, and left some original hemlocks. In 1878, he had 6 acres wheat (13 bushels to acre), 2 ½ acres corn, 3 acres oats, 1 acre potatoes (190 bushels) and 18 acres timothy and clover (about a ton to acre). Sowed 6 acres wheat, last Fall. {contributed by Chi Benedict}

On July 1, 1866 in Big Rapids, Mecosta County, Michigan, Robert, age 32, married Phoebe Elanor Rolston, age 20. The couple married in Big Rapids, Mecosta County, Michigan but lived with Robert's father in Chase Township of Lake County. The family was enumerated in the 1870 census of Chase Township of Lake County:

Robert Bigbee	M	35	Ohio
Phebe Bigbee	F	24	Ohio
Silas C Bigbee	M	2	Michigan
William Bigbee	M	67	Virginia [Robert's father]
Sarah L Bigbee	F	31	Ohio [Robert's sister]

On September 2, 1872 Robert was issued a homestead on 1 SE, Michigan-Toledo Strip Number 17 N 11 W 4 . The couple had five children, one of which died at birth or as an infant.

Robert, 76, died of pneumonia on March 9, 1911 in Chase Township, Lake County, Michigan and was buried in the Chase Township Cemetery in Chase. He had lived in Chase for the past 45 years. He was survived by Phoebe, his wife 44 years, and four of their five children.

- v. REBECCA JANE ROLSTON was born on 29 Sep 1847 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 18 Sep 1927 in Temperance, Monroe Co., Mich. (age 79). She married Reese Copper, son of Samuel Glasgow Copper and Fanny M. Ninerick, on 23 Jun 1861 in Whitley Co., Ind.. He was born in Aug 1836 in Ohio. He died in 1901 in Indiana (age ~65).

Notes for Rebecca Jane Rolston:

Rebecca "Becky" Jane Rolston was born September 29, 1847 in Knox County, Ohio, the fifth of ten children born to John Moffett Rolston and Nancy Tannehill. Rebecca was perhaps two years old in 1849 when her father moved the family from Ohio to Whitley County, Indiana.

On June 23, 1861 in Whitley County, Indiana, Rebecca married Reese Copper. If the date of marriage is correct, Rebecca was only 13 years of age at the time of her marriage, but as the couple's first child was not born until about 1866, the year of their marriage has perhaps been misread. Her father moved his family to Newaygo County, Michigan, sometime between 1861 and 1865. As Rebecca and Rees's first child was born in Michigan in 1866, it appears that they followed her father to Michigan, but they did not stay in Michigan. Rebecca and her husband returned to Indiana before 1878 and the birth of their second known child. They resided in Jefferson Township of Whitley County where they were enumerated during the 1880 census. Living with them was Rebecca's younger brother, Silas.

There is a span of ten years between the two children known to have been born to Rebecca and Rees. According to the 1910 census, Rebecca had four children of which two survived. Of the two children who died, their dates of birth and death are not known.

Her husband Rees died in 1901 at the age of about 65. The couple had been married for 40 years. Rebecca's son Grant remained at home, probably until Rebecca's death.

Rebecca, 79, died September 18, 1927 in Temperance, Monroe County, Michigan, and joined her husband in the Broxon Cemetery in Laud, Whitley County, Indiana.

Notes for Reese Copper:

Reese Copper was born in August of 1836 in Ohio, the second of five children born to Samuel Glasgow Copper and Fanny M. Ninerick. Fanny was his father's second wife, and Reese had four half-brothers and one half-sister from his father's first marriage. Reese is also found as Reece. It is not known when Reese moved to Indiana.

On June 23, 1861 in Whitley County, Indiana, Reese married Rebecca Jane Rolston. Four children were born to the couple. The eldest surviving child was son Grant who was born in 1866 in Michigan. The couple, or perhaps just wife Rebecca, had moved to Michigan but returned to Indiana between 1866 and 1870. In the 1870 census Reese's mother was living with them.

Reese, about age 65, died in 1901 in Indiana and was buried in the Broxon Cemetery in Laud, Jefferson Township, Whitley County, Indiana. He was survived by Rebecca, his wife of 40 years, and their two sons.

- vi. SILAS HINTON ROLSTON was born on 27 Sep 1849 in Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 21 Nov 1930 in Chase, Lake Co., Mich. (age 81). He married Harriet Peer, daughter of Gabriel Peer and Sarah Ann Omestead, on 21 Nov 1882 in Reed City, Osceola Co., Mich.. She was born on 04 Dec 1854 in Rockaway Twp., Morris Co., N.J.. She died on 26 Jun 1935 in Chase Twp., Lake Co., Mich. (age 80).

Notes for Silas Hinton Rolston:

Silas Hinton "Doc" Rolston was born September 27, 1849 in Knox County, Ohio, the sixth of ten children born to John Moffett Rolston and Nancy Tannehill. He is presumed to have been named after his great uncle, Silas Hinton Rolston (1798-1867).

Silas lived perhaps a year in Knox County before his father moved the family to Whitley County, Indiana, in 1849. Sometime after 1861 his father moved the family to Michigan. Silas may have gone with his father initially, but in the 1880 census, he was living with his sister Rebecca and brother-in-law Rees Copper in Jefferson, Whitley County, Indiana. Silas was single at that time and working as a laborer at a sawmill.

According to the family oral history, Silas lost an arm in a rail road accident. {Source: great granddaughter Mrs. Christine McConnell Taylor, August 2016} As Silas is not known to have worked for the rail road, it was perhaps an accident at the sawmill that took his arm.

Silas soon departed Indiana and returned to Michigan where he married Mrs. Harriet Osborne, the former Miss Harriet Peer, on November 21, 1882 in Osceola County, Michigan. Silas and his wife settled in Lake County, Michigan, where one child, a daughter, was born to the couple in July of 1884.

In 1900 Silas was working as a Farm Laborer on the farm of Mrs. Ella Randall. Mrs. Randall's daughter became pregnant.

Family history from the research of Sheldon Rolston: "Silas Henton (Doc) Rolstone (Rolston) ... was a black sheep, and was known to have illegitimate children, who he never publicly claimed." But, Sheldon's research may be pointing to the wrong Rolston family member.

Silas, 81, died of arteriosclerosis on November 21, 1930 in Chase, Lake County, Michigan, on the day of his 48th wedding anniversary to his wife Harriet who survived. Also surviving was their daughter Sarah. Silas was buried in the Chase Cemetery in Chase.

Notes for Harriet Peer:

Harriet "Hattie" Peer was born December 4, 1854 in Rockaway Township of Morris County, New Jersey, the daughter of Gabriel Peer and Sarah Omestead. (Harriet's maiden name may have been "Piere" as it later appears in the marriage record of her daughter.)

Living next door to the Peer family in 1870 was Jacob and Mary Osborne and their son Julian. Sometime before 1880, probably in New Jersey, Harriet married Julian Osborne. The couple was enumerated in the 1880 census of Chase, Lake County, Michigan. No children were born to the couple, but there was a seven year old boy, Charles Osborne born in New Jersey, enumerated as Julian's brother. What became of her Harriet's first husband is unknown.

On November 21, 1882 in Reed City, Osceola County, Michigan, Harriet, age 27, married Silas Henton Rolston. The couple resided in Chase Township in Lake County, Michigan, where their only child was born in 1884. Her husband Silas, 81, died November 21, 1930, the day of their 48th wedding anniversary.

Harriet, 80, died of Coronary Thrombosis on June 26, 1935 in Chase Township of Lake County, Michigan, and was buried in the Chase Cemetery in Chase, Lake County, Michigan, where she shared a tombstone with her husband.

- vii. MARGARET ROLSTON was born on 14 Nov 1851 in Whitley Co., Ind.. She died on 30 Jan 1931 in Reed City, Barton Twp., Newaygo Co., Mich. (age 79). She married (1) GILBERT MARTIN on 23 Sep 1866 in Mecosta Co., Mich.. He was born in 1847 in Newaygo Co., Mich.. She married (2) WILLIAM HAROLD WIGGINS about 1877 in Mecosta Co., Mich.. He was born in 1843 in New York. He died on 21 Jul 1910 in Barton Twp., Newaygo Co., Mich. (age 67).

Notes for Margaret Rolston:

Margaret "Maggie" Rolston was born in November 14, 1851 in Whitley County, Indiana, the seventh of ten children born to John Moffett Rolston and Nancy Tannehill. Her father moved the family to Newaygo County, Michigan between 1861 and 1865 where Margaret lived the majority of her life.

On September 23, 1866 in Mecosta County, Michigan, Margaret, age 14, married Gilbert Martin. The marriage appears to have been short lived, and no children are known to have been born to their union.

About 1877 or earlier, Margaret married William Harold Wiggins. Three children were born to their union. The family was enumerated during the 1880 census of Barton, Newaygo County, Michigan. They were living next door to Margaret's brother David.

In the 1884 census of the county, the couple and three children were enumerated. In the 1900 census Margaret reports having had four children, three of which were still living. The deceased child is assumed to have been from her second marriage.

Margaret's husband William was killed by lightening on July 21, 1910. The widow Margaret later moved in with her youngest daughter, Mrs. Daisy Eichenberg.

Margaret, 79, died January 30, 1931 of a Cerebral Hemorrhage in Reed City, Newaygo County, Michigan, and joined her husband in the Davenport Cemetery in Newaygo County, Michigan. She was survived by her three children. Also surviving were two brothers and two sisters.

Notes for William Harold Wiggins:

William Harold Wiggins was born in 1843 in New York. His parentage is unknown, but William's father was born in England and his mother in New York.

About 1877 in Mecosta County, Michigan, William married Margaret Rolston. Three children are known to have been born to the couple. The family lived in Barton Township of Newaygo County, Michigan. William was a farmer in 1880 but a day laborer in 1900.

William, age 67, was killed by lightning on July 21, 1910 in Barton Township of Newaygo County, Michigan, and was buried in the Davenport Cemetery in Newaygo County, Michigan.

- viii. SARAH CORDELIA ROLSTON was born on 01 Feb 1854 in Whitley Co., Ind.. She died on 07 Apr 1885 in St. Johns, Clinton Co., Mich. (age 31). She married James Davis on 01 Sep 1874 in Barton Twp., Newaygo Co., Mich.. He was born in 1851 in Ohio.

Notes for Sarah Cordelia Rolston:

Sarah Cordelia Rolston was born February 1, 1854 in Whitley County, Indiana, the eighth of ten children born to John Moffett Rolston and Nancy Tannehill. Sometime between 1861 and 1865 her father moved the family to Newaygo County, Michigan. Her father died in 1869.

On September 1, 1874 in Barton Township of Newaygo County, Michigan, Sarah, age 20, married James Davis, a farmer. Only one child, daughter Minnie, was born to the couple.

Sarah, 31, died April 7, 1885 in St. Johns, Clinton County, Michigan and was buried in the Davenport Cemetery in Barton Township, Newaygo County, Michigan. She was survived by her husband and daughter. Also surviving was her mother, six sisters, and two brothers. Her father had preceded her in death.

- ix. MARTHA ROLSTON was born in Oct 1859 in Whitley Co., Ind.. She died on 18 Aug 1955 in Michigan (age 95). She married William Edward Smith on 10 May 1876 in Lake Co., Mich.. He was born on 27 Jul 1845 in Canada. He died on 02 Jun 1907 in Chase Twp., Lake Co., Mich. (age 62).

Notes for Martha Rolston:

Martha Rolston was born in October of 1859 in Whitley County, Indiana, the ninth of ten children born to John Moffett Rolston and Nancy Tannehill. Sometime between 1861 and 1866 her father moved the family to Newaygo County, Michigan.

On May 10, 1876 in Lake County, Michigan, Martha, age 16, married William Edward Smith, a native of Canada. In the 1880 census the couple was residing with William's younger brother Alonzo and his wife Macia in Chase, Lake County, Michigan. Martha and William had a ten month old daughter. Three children were born to the couple; one died prior to 1900. Martha's husband died June 2, 1907 at the age of 62. They had been married for 31 years. In her later years, Martha moved in with her daughter, Mrs. Edith McChesney.

Martha, 95, died August 18, 1955 in Michigan and joined her husband in the Chase Township Cemetery in Chase, Lake County, Michigan.

Another Pioneer Gone

W. E. Smith, who departed from this life at his home in Chase Township, on Sunday morning, June 2, 1907, was born in Canada, July 27, 1845, and came to Michigan in September, 1869, locating in Lake County, on the farm that he owned and occupied when he died. He was married to Martha Rolston, May 10, 1876, and they immediately went to keeping house in the Village of Chase, and was employed as shingle sawyer in Joiner's mill for a number of years. He quit there to engage in the lumber and tan bark business, which he followed successfully for several years. In 1884 they moved on the farm and remained there until his death. He served his township as treasurer in 1900, 1901 and 1906, and filled that important position of trust with honor and credit to his constituents and declined holding it any longer.

W. E. Smith was an honored citizen, a kind and devoted husband and father, his model life endearing him to his wide circle of friends. He leaves a wife, two daughters, Edith and Edna, Edith being married to H. McChesney, who lives in Reed City; four brothers, J. F. and J. H. Smith, both of California, A. U. of Reed City, C. A. of Lake County; four sisters, Mrs. Sarah McAfee of California, Mrs. Hannah Smis of North Van Coover, Mrs. Mellissa Cornell and Eliza Cornella, both of Copemish, Michigan, to mourn their loss. His remains were laid to rest in the Chase Cemetery, June 4, 1907, Rev. Dr. Ince, pastor of the Baptist Church, officiating.

- x. LAURA ETTA ROLSTON was born on 28 Sep 1865 in Barton Twp., Newaygo Co., Mich.. She died on 09 Jul 1938 in Paris, Mecosta Co., Mich. (age 72). She married Thomas Rupert Bloxsom, son of William John Bloxsom and Anne Gunning, on 21 Nov 1882 in Reed City, Osceola Co., Mich.. He was born on 04 Mar 1851 in Canada. He died on 09 Aug 1932 in Fife Lake, Grand Traverse Co., Mich. (age 81).

Notes for Laura Etta Rolston:

Laura Etta Rolston was born September 28, 1865 in Barton Township, Newaygo County, Michigan, the youngest of ten children born to John Moffett Rolston and Nancy Tannehill. Of all her siblings, Laura was the only child to be born in Michigan.

On November 21, 1882 in Reed City, Osceola County, Michigan, Laura married Thomas Rupert Bloxsom. The couple lived their lives in Michigan and raised four children. In the 1930 census Laura was enumerated with her daughter, Mrs. Edna Cousinean, in Macomb County, Michigan. Laura's husband was not present. Laura's husband preceded her in death on August 9, 1932 at the age of 81.

Laura, 72, died of a stroke on July 9, 1938 in Paris, Mecosta County, Michigan, and was buried along side her husband in the Davenport Cemetery in Barton Township in Newaygo County, Michigan.

Notes for Thomas Rupert Bloxsom:

Thomas Rupert Bloxsom was born March 4, 1851 in Canada. He is said to be the son of William John Bloxsom and Anne Gunning.

On November 21, 1882 in Reed City, Osceola County, Michigan, Thomas married Laura Etta Rolston. Four children were born to the couple. Thomas was not enumerated with his wife in the 1930 census.

Thomas, 81, died August 9, 1932 in Fife Lake, Grand Traverse County, Michigan, and was buried in the Davenport Cemetery in Barton Township in Newaygo County, Michigan. He was survived by Laura, his wife of 49 years, and their four children.

Notes for David Rolston:

David Rolston was born December 18, 1814 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the younger of two sons born to Jacob M. Rolston and Nancy Beard. In his later years, he was known as David Junior. David's mother died about 1815. His father remarried, and from that union David had three half-brothers and five half-sisters.

David and his brother John had inherited farm land on the headwaters of Linville Creek in Rockingham County, Virginia, from their maternal grandfather, Charles Beard. In 1837, shortly after selling his share of the inherited land to his brother, David moved to farm land in Montgomery County, Ohio.

On August 9, 1838 in Montgomery County, Ohio, David married Phebe Clemmer. Shortly after their marriage, he and his wife moved to Kosciusko County, Indiana. There, David and his wife began their family. Six of their children, and perhaps the seventh, were born there. In 1853 David moved his family from Indiana to Iowa. During their journey, their seventh child died as an infant and was buried along the trail. They made their home in Jones County, Iowa where their last three children were born. On February 23, 1882, Phebe, David's wife of 43 years, died at the age of 62.

David was a very religious man. According to his daughter, Julia, he read the Bible every day at morning breakfast. Perhaps the only morning that David did not read the Bible was the day after Phebe's death; he was unable to maintain his composure that morning. He donated land to the first United Brethren Church to be built in East Monticello. To help establish the church cemetery, David donated two acres of land. The church was built of limestone, but it is no longer standing.

David was last enumerated in the 1885 census of Monticello, Jones County, Iowa:

David Ralston	[Head]	Male	70	Virginia (widowed)
Mary Ralston	[Daughter]	Female	30	Jones [county, Iowa]
Julia Balcom	[Daughter]	Female	32	Indiana (married)

---

Jennie Balcom [Granddaughter] Female 11 Wisconsin

David, 79, died November 18, 1894 in Jones County, Iowa and was buried in the United Brethren Cemetery in Monticello for which he had donated the land years earlier. His wife and three of his ten children had preceded him in death.

Notes for Phebe Clemmer:

Phebe Clemmer was born March 1, 1819 in Montgomery County, Ohio, the daughter of David Clemmer and Martha Wilson. She grew up in Montgomery County.

On August 9, 1838 in Montgomery County, Ohio, Phebe, age 19, married David Rolston, who had moved to the county from Virginia the previous year. Phebe and her husband soon left Ohio, traveling west to Kosciusko County, Indiana. The first of their ten children was born there, and the family grew to six children by 1852. Their seventh child, perhaps a twin born in 1852, died in 1853 as the family was once again moving west, this time from Indiana to Jones County, Iowa, where the remaining three children were born.

With the onset of the Civil War, her three oldest boys were of military age, but only one is known to have served. Son Jacob was killed in the battle of Missionary Ridge near Chattanooga, Tennessee, in 1863. In 1867 Phebe's youngest child became ill and died at the age of seven.

Phebe, 62, died February 23, 1882 in Richland Township of Jones County, Iowa. She was buried as Phebe Ralston in the United Brethren Cemetery in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, where her youngest child had been laid to rest. She was survived by David, her husband of 43 years, and seven of their ten children. Buried as "Phebe wife of David Ralston."

David Rolston and Phebe Clemmer had the following children:

- i. MARTHA JANE<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 09 Jun 1839 in Warsaw, Kosciusko Co., Ind.. She died on 24 Dec 1925 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa (age 86). She married Alfred Samuel Miller, son of James Miller and Amanda White, on 11 Apr 1859 in Jones Co., Iowa. He was born on 07 May 1836 in Marion, Ohio. He died on 25 Dec 1899 in Jones Co., Iowa (age 63).

Notes for Martha Jane Rolston:

Martha Rolston was born June 9, 1839 [June 9, 1838 on tombstone] in Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Indiana, the eldest of ten children born to David Rolston and Phebe Clemmer. In 1853 when she was at the age of four, Martha's father moved the family to Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, where Martha would remain for the rest of her life.

On April 11, 1859 in Jones County, Iowa, Martha, age 19, married Alfred Samuel Miller. Their first child was born the following year. The couple's second child died in infancy. With the onset of the Civil War, her husband joined the Iowa Volunteer Infantry. He returned from the war and five more children were born to the couple. In 1892 their daughter Elizabeth died at the age of 20.

On Christmas Day, December 25, 1899, Alfred, her husband of 39 years, died at the age of 63. Martha was 60 years old at the time of his death and did not remarry. Martha, children, and grandchildren, were enumerated in the 1900 census of Monticello, Jones County, Iowa:

Martha J Miller	Head	F	61	Indiana (7/5) (widowed)
Minnie Robinson	Daughter			F 36 Iowa (widowed)
Alva Miller	Son	M	23	Iowa
Vercel Robinson	Grandson	M	13	Iowa
Lyle Robinson	Grandson	M	10	Iowa

In January of 1925 her son Charles died. Later that year, Martha and her sister, Mrs. Julia Balcom, were enumerated in Lovell Township of Jones County, Iowa.

Martha, 86, died Christmas Eve, December 24, 1925 in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, and was buried next to her husband in the Oakwood Cemetery in Monticello. Martha was survived by four of her seven children.

Notes for Alfred Samuel Miller:

Alfred Samuel Miller was born May 7, 1836 in Marion, Ohio, the son of James Miller and Amanda White. About 1864 his parents moved the family to Jones County, Iowa, where he lived the remainder of his life.

On April 11, 1859 in Jones County, Iowa, Alfred married Martha Jane Rolston. Alfred was a farmer, but farming and family life were interrupted by the Civil War, and he served in the Iowa Volunteer Infantry as a private in Company K, Regiment 17. Alfred and his family were enumerated with his parents in the 1870 census of Riehlend Township of Jones County, Iowa:

James Miller	M	70	Virginia
Amanda Miller	F	61	Pennsylvania
Alferd Miller	M	33	Ohio
Martha Miller	F	30	Indiana
David E Miller	M	10	Iowa
Phebe Miller	F	5	Iowa
Charley Miller	M	2	Iowa
John Harthup	M	17	Iowa

Alfred and his wife raised a family of seven children. Alfred was a prosperous farmer and was enumerated as retired at the age of 58 in the 1895 census of Monticello City. His daughter Minnie and her two children were living with them at this time as she had returned home after the death of her husband.

Alfred, 63, died on Christmas Day, December 25, 1899 in Jones County, Iowa and was buried in the Oakwood Cemetery in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa. He was survived by Martha, his wife of 39 years. One of his seven children is known to have preceded him in death.

- ii. DAVID W. ROLSTON JR. was born on 14 Apr 1842 in in or near Warsaw, Kosciusko Co., Ind.. He died on 23 Aug 1920 in Lake Andes, Charles Mix Co., S.D. (age 78). He married (1) SARAH JANE EWINS on 22 Mar 1864 in Anamosa, Jones Co., Iowa. She was born in 1840 in Pennsylvania. She died in 1871 in Jones Co., Iowa (age ~31). He married (2) ANNA M. MOORE, daughter of William Moore and Nancy Wilson, on 28 May 1874 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa. She was born on 28 Nov 1855 in Ohio. She died on 26 Nov 1884 in White Lake, Aurora Co., S.D. (age 28).

Notes for David W. Rolston Jr.:

David "Dave" W. Rolston Jr. was born April 14, 1842 in or near Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Indiana, the second of ten children born to David Rolston and Phebe Clemmer. His middle name is not known but may have been Wilson, as it was his maternal grandmother's maiden name.

On March 22, 1864 in Anamosa, Jones County, Iowa, David, age 21, married Sarah Jane Ewins. The couple had two children, the first of which died shortly after its first birthday. The couple had been married seven years when Sarah died in 1871 at the age of about 31. Shortly after Sarah's death, David sent their one surviving child, a four year old daughter named Laura, to live with her paternal grandparents, David Sr. and Phebe Rolston, who also lived in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa.

On February 25, 1873, David Jr., bought 80 acres of land from his father, David Sr., in Jones County, Iowa. On October 14, 1882 David Jr., he sold the same 80 acres of land to his brother William

On May 28, 1874 in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, David married Anna "Annie" M. Moore. The couple farmed. His wife often wrote to her family. In a letter written July 27,

1882 she wrote that "Dave finished haying last night he has two nice stacks.... " In a letter dated August 6, 1882, posted in Iowa, Annie wrote that "Dave has cut part of his oats, the weather is very unfavorable for harvesting."

In late 1882 or early 1883, David Jr. moved his wife and their two children to White Lake, Aurora County, South Dakota. Their third child was born there in 1883, and his wife Anna died the following year on November 26, 1884 at the age of 28. Late in 1884 after wife Anna's death, David's daughter Laura from his first marriage, moved from Iowa to South Dakota to care for her two half-brothers, ages 7 and 9. David's daughter Carrie, not yet a year old, was sent to live with her maternal grandparents, William and Nancy Moore. Six years later, about 1890, the family picked up and moved to Charles Mix County in southern South Dakota near the Missouri River. David was enumerated in the 1900 census of Jackson Township of Charles Mix County, South Dakota:

David Rolston	Head	Male	58	Indiana (widowed)
Laura F Rolston	Daughter	Female	32	Iowa (single) [daughter from 1st wife]
William S Rolston	Son	Male	22	Iowa [son from 2nd wife]

In the present day, this area of land has been submerged by the waters of the Fort Randall Dam.

The family acquired a 160 acre homestead near Lake Andes in Charles Mix County about four miles from the Missouri River. Son Oliver homesteaded the land and would later purchase some surrounding lands to make the present day ranch. The ranch is located within the Yankton Indian Reservation. The Farm and Ranch Directory of Charles Mix County shows the ranch as being on Lake Andes postal route for the township of White Swan.

David, 78, died August 23, 1920 in Lake Andes, Charles Mix County, South Dakota and was buried in the Pleasant Lawn Cemetery in Charles Mix County, South Dakota. Both of his wives and one daughter from his first marriage had preceded him in death.

Lake Andes Wave, date of publication unknown:

The following obituary of David Ralston, who passed away at his home on August 23, 1920, was handed us for publication. Funeral services were held in Geddes and interment made in the Geddes cemetery. The Wave joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved children in their loss:

"David Ralston was born in Indiana, April 14, 1842. When he was nine years old he moved with his parents to Monticello, Iowa. He was joined in the bonds of holy matrimony to Sarah Jane Ewing, to whom two children, Cora and Laura, were born. Cora passed away when an infant, and Laura being with her father at the time of his demise. His wife passed away in 1871.

He was married to Annie Moore in 1874, whom three children, Oliver, DeLoss and Carrie were born, all of whom are living.

He moved from Iowa to White Lake, South Dakota, in 1883, taking a homestead there and came to Charles Mix County in 1890, where he has since resided.

He passed out of this life to his eternal rest at his home on August 23, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. He leaves to mourn him, four children, five grandchildren, three sisters and two brothers.

Oh! How true and well we loved you, We will grieve for you, we know, But the God who dwells above us, Bade you come and you must go."

Notes for Anna M. Moore:

Anna "Annie" M. Moore was born November 28, 1855 in Ohio, the daughter of William Moore and Nancy Wilson. Her father was previously married.

On May 28, 1874 in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, Anna married the widower David W.

Rolston Jr.. The couple had two children before leaving Jones County, Iowa for White Lake, Aurora County, South Dakota. Their third child was born there in December of 1883.

Anna, 29, died the following year on November 26, 1884 in White Lake, Aurora County, South Dakota and was buried as "Annie Ralston" in the White Lake Cemetery in White Lake. She was survived by her husband and their three children.

- iii. JACOB ROLSTON was born in 1844 in Warsaw, Kosciusko Co., Ind.. He died on 25 Nov 1863 in near Chattanooga, Hamilton Co., Tenn. (age 19).

Notes for Jacob Rolston:

Jacob Rolston was born in 1844 in Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Indiana, the third of ten children born to David Rolston and Phebe Clemmer. In 1853 his father moved the family to Jones County, Iowa. Jacob remained there until the Civil War.

On March, 20, 1862, at the age of 18, Jacob enlisted in the Union Army in Company K of the 17th Iowa Volunteer Infantry. He mustered in at Keokuh, Iowa, on 16 April, 1862. He was sick and frequently in the hospital. On May 14, 1863 his big toe was shot off at Jackson, Mississippi. He was taken prisoner of war for a week or two; then sent to a hospital for several months. He returned to active duty in September or October of 1863.

Jacob, 19, was killed in action on November 25, 1863 during the battle of Missionary Ridge near Chattanooga, Tennessee. He was noted for Distinguished Service. Jacob's grave has not been found at Missionary Ridge nor does it appear that his body was returned to Iowa. A memorial marker was erected in the Bowens Prairie Cemetery in Jones County, Iowa.

- iv. JOHN ROLSTON was born on 07 Dec 1846 in Warsaw, Kosciusko Co., Ind.. He died on 04 Aug 1930 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa (age 83). He married (1) SUSAN EMALINE ELDRIDGE, daughter of John M. Eldridge and Laura Amanda Backus, on 16 Dec 1866 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa. She was born on 04 Sep 1849 in Dubuque Co., Iowa. She died on 18 Jun 1915 in Sewal, Wayne Co., Iowa (age 65). He married (2) MARY J. LEVASY, daughter of Alfred Levasy and Lydia Rogers, on 18 Dec 1919 in Corydon, Wayne Co., Iowa. She was born on 20 Apr 1850 in Van Buren Co., Iowa. She died on 04 Jun 1920 in Sewal, Wayne Co., Iowa (age 70). He married (3) MARGARET ELIZABETH FARRIS, daughter of John Farris and Martha McGuire, on 30 Mar 1921 in Corydon, Wayne Co., Iowa. She was born on 19 Dec 1859 in Iowa. She died on 04 Aug 1949 in Seymour, Wayne Co., Iowa (age 89).

Notes for John Rolston:

John Rolston was born December 7, 1846 in Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Indiana, the fourth of ten children born to David Rolston and Phebe Clemmer. In 1853, when John was six years old, his father moved the family to Jones County, Iowa. It was in Jones County that John grew to adulthood.

On December 16, 1866 in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, John, age 20, married Susan Emaline Eldridge. The couple moved to Wayne County, Iowa by the following year. There, their five children were born and raised. Susan, John's wife of 48 years, died June 18, 1915 at the age of 64. In 1917 his only daughter, Mrs. Phoebe Liggett, preceded him in death.

On December 18, 1919 in Corydon, Wayne County, Iowa, John, age 72, married the widow Mrs. Mary Boysal, the former Miss Mary J. Levasy, age 69. She died in June the following year.

On March 30, 1921 Corydon, Wayne County, Iowa, John, age 74, married the widow Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Wycoff, the former Miss Margaret Farris, age 61. John's eldest son, Edward, died in 1927.

John, 83, died August 4, 1930 in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, preceding his third wife in death. He was buried in the Tharp Cemetery in Seymour, Wayne County, Iowa, along side his first wife. John was survived by three of his five children; sons Francis, David and Joseph. Also surviving were two sisters, Mrs. Julia Balcom and Mrs. Mary Brown, and one brother, William Rolston. Besides his two children and two wives, John was preceded in death by his parents, four sisters and two brothers.

Notes for Susan Emaline Eldridge:

Susan Emaline Eldridge was born September 4, 1849 in Dubuque County, Iowa, the daughter of John M. Eldridge and Laura Amanda Backus.

On December 16, 1866 in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, Susan married John Rolston. They moved to Wayne County where they raised a family of five children, four sons and one daughter. In the 1900 census Susan's widowed father was living with them.

Susan, 65, died June 18, 1915 in Sewal, Wayne County, Iowa and was buried in the Tharp Cemetery in Seymour, Wayne County, Iowa. She was survived by her husband and their five children.

Notes for Mary J. Levasy:

Mary J. Levasy was born April 20, 1850 in Van Buren County, Iowa, the second of four children known to have been born to Alfred Levasy and Lydia Rogers. Her father died sometime between 1855 and 1860.

On September 6, 1874 in Pleasnat Township of Wapello County, Iowa, Mary married John Boysal. Five children were born to their union, but son Samuel died at age 6 months. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Seymour, Wayne County, Iowa:

John Boysal	Self	Male	30	Iowa
Mary Boysal	Wife	Female	30	Iowa
Letta Bell Boysal		Daughter	Female 4	Iowa
Walter Guy Boysal		Son	Male 11/12	Iowa

1895 census of Wayne County, Iowa:

John Boysal	Male	44	Jefferson Co., Iowa
Mary Boysal	Female	45	Vanburen Co., Iowa
Walter Boysal	Male	15	Wayne Co., Iowa
Carl Boysal	Male	13	Wayne Co., Iowa
Charles Boysal	Male	9	Wayne Co., Iowa

Her husband John preceded her in death in February of 1912.

On December 18, 1919 in Corydon, Wayne County, Iowa, the widowed Mary, age 69, married the widower John Rolston.

Mary, 70, died June 4, 1920 in Sewal, Wayne County, Iowa, and was buried with John, her first husband, in the Southlawn Cemetery in Seymour, Wayne County, Iowa. She was survived by four of her five children.

Notes for Margaret Elizabeth Faris:

Margaret Elizabeth Faris and twin brother John Brice Faris were born December 19, 1859 in Iowa, the children of John Farris and Martha McGuire.

On November 26, 1874 in Birmingham, Van Buren County, Iowa, Margaret married Samuel Elwood Wycoff. Margaret and her husband moved to Seymour, Wayne County, Iowa, at the same time as her mother Martha Faris. Later they moved to Kansas and also lived part of their life in Carthage, South Dakota. Her final home was in Seymour, Wayne County, Iowa.

After Samuel was killed by a bull in 1916, she re-married twice.

On March 30, 1921 in Corydon, Wayne County, Iowa, Margaret married her second husband, John Ralston. He died in 1930.

Margaret married her third husband, Frank Wilcoxon, sometime after 1940.

Margaret, 89, died August 4, 1949 in Seymour, Wayne County, Iowa and was buried with her first husband, Samuel Wycoff, in the Tharp Cemetery in Seymour.

[Note: Information for this entry is from the genealogical work "John Alexander Faris and Martha Jane McGuire Faris and Their Descendants as of July 1, 1972" by Jocelyn Faris.]

- v. PHEBE ELLEN RALSTON was born on 15 Jun 1849 in Jackson Twp., Kosciusko Co., Ind.. She died on 21 Aug 1908 in Wilbur, Lincoln Co., Wash. (age 59). She married Jacob Munding, son of John Munding and Phoebe Crispell, on 15 Apr 1869 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa. He was born on 09 Oct 1839 in Wayne, Wayne Co., Mich.. He died on 24 Apr 1913 in Salem, Marion Co., Ore. (age 73).

Notes for Phebe Ellen Ralston:

Phebe Ellen Rolston was born June 15, 1849 in Jackson Township, Kosciusko County, Indiana, the fifth of ten children born to David Rolston and Phebe Clemmer. Phebe was named after her mother although it is not known if her mother had a middle name. In 1853 when Phebe was little more than four years old, her father moved the family from Indiana to Jones County, Iowa, where Phebe would grow to adulthood.

On April 15, 1869 in the city of Monticello, Iowa, Phebe, age 19, married Jacob Munding, age 29. The couple farmed. The first of their ten children died in infancy. The family resided in Jones County until 1875 when they moved northwest to Butler County. They remained there until sometime after 1886. Sometime after that date Phebe, her husband, and the children moved west to the state of Washington.

Phebe, 59, died August 21, 1908 in Wilbur, Lincoln County, Washington, and was buried in the Sherman Cemetery in Sherman, Lincoln County, Washington. She was survived by Jacob, her husband of 39 years, three daughters, and five sons. Also surviving were three sisters and three brothers. She was preceded in death by two daughters, her parents, two sisters and one brother.

Notes for Jacob Munding:

Jacob Munding was born October 9, 1839 in Wayne, Wayne County, Michigan, the son of John Munding and Phoebe Crispell.

"Jacob Munding lives on section 6, where he settled in 1869. He was born in Michigan, in 1839; when fourteen years of age he removed to Dubuque county, Iowa, with his father, where he lived about ten years. He went to Montana Territory in 1864, and engaged in mining; was absent about five years; returning to Iowa he settled in Jones county. His wife was Phoebe E. Rolston, daughter of David Rolston, who settled in Jones county, in 1853, where he still lives. Mr. and Mrs. Munding have five children - Ira, Clarence, Eunice, Frank and Harvey. The parents and a brother of Mr. Munding came here in 1876, and resided in the township." {source: History of Butler and Bremer Counties, Iowa, pp. 423-424.} [From the information within the biography of Mr. Munding, the data was collected sometime between 1882 and 1884.]

Jacob had married Phebe Ellen Ralston on April 15, 1869 in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa. To their union, ten children were born. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Albion, Butler County, Iowa:

Jacob Munding	Self	M	Male	W	40	MI	Farming	GER	NY
Phebe E. Munding	Wife	M	Female	W	31	IN	Housekeeping	VA	OH
Ira Munding	Son	S	Male	W	7	IA		MI	IN

Jacob moved his family to the state of Oregon and later onto Washington. His wife preceded him in death in 1908. In the 1910 census the widowed Jacob was enumerated with his son, Ira Ambrose Mundinger, in Josephine County, Oregon.

Jacob, 73, died April 24, 1913 in Salem, Marion County, Oregon. His body was returned to the state of Washington, where he was buried in the Sherman Cemetery along side his wife who had preceded him in death four years earlier. Of his ten children, two daughters had preceded him in death.

- vi. JULIA ANN ROLSTON was born on 12 Feb 1852 in Warsaw, Kosciusko Co., Ind.. She died on 01 Apr 1934 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa (age 82). She married Elizar Henry Balcom, son of Balcom and unknown, on 03 Apr 1870 in Hichsville, Jones Co., Iowa. He was born in Oct 1849 in New York.

Notes for Julia Ann Rolston:

Julia Ann Rolston was born February 12, 1852 in Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Indiana, the sixth of ten children born to David Rolston and Phebe Clemmer. Julia was little more than a year old when her father moved the family from Indiana to Jones County, Iowa, where Julia grew up near the town of Monticello.

On April 3, 1870 in the neighboring town of Hichsville, Jones County, Iowa, Julia, age 28, married Elizar Henry Balcom. Two children, the first of which died as an infant, were born to the couple. Julia and her husband moved to or near Janesville in Rock County, Wisconsin. Sometime after the birth of their second child in 1873, Julia's husband left her and their child Jennie Mae. By 1880, Julia had returned to her parent's home in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa along with her daughter. Although probably divorced, Julia continued to show herself as married until the 1910 census where she was listed as widowed; however, her ex-husband Henry was still living at that time. In the 1900 census Julia was living with her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Skelley and son-in-law, William Henry Skelley. In 1925 she was enumerated with her older sister, Mrs. Martha J. Miller, age 86. Her sister died in December of that year. After her sister's death, Julia returned to living with her daughter Jennie.

Julia, 82, died April 1, 1934 in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, and was buried in the Oakwood Cemetery in Monticello. She was survived by her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Skelley, her brother William Rolston, and her sister, Mrs. Mary Brown.

Notes for Elizar Henry Balcom:

Elizar Henry [Henry Elieazer?] Balcom was born in October of 1849 in the state of New York. His given name may have been Eleager, but he was known by his middle name, Henry. It is not known when he left New York. He may have done so with his parents, or he may have ventured West on his own as a young adult. By 1870 he had moved to Iowa.

On April 3, 1870 in Hichsville, Jones County, Iowa, Henry, age 20, married Julia Ann Rolston, age 18. They remained in Iowa for a brief period before removing to Rock County, Wisconsin where in 1873 their second child was born. Their first child died in infancy.

The marriage dissolved sometime after 1873, perhaps due to the birth of their daughter. It appears from the census that they did not formally divorced or at least did not admit so. In the 1880 census of Cumberland, Barron County, Wisconsin, Henry was living with the John Veedin household. Henry worked as a Dry Goods Merchant, and although listed as married, his wife Julia was not present. Julia and his daughter had moved back to Iowa before that time. Henry eventually left Wisconsin, returning to New York, his place of birth.

- vii. ELIZA J. ROLSTON was born about 1853. She died in 1853.

---

Notes for Eliza J. Rolston:

Eliza J. [Jane?] Rolston was born about 1853, the seventh of ten children born to David Rolston and Phebe Clemmer. It is not known if she was born in Indiana or if she was born while the family was moving from Indiana to Iowa.

Eliza was an infant during the family's move from Warsaw, Indiana, to Monticello, Iowa. The move took them through the state of Illinois. It was during this journey that Eliza died as an infant and was buried some where along the trail between Warsaw and Monticello.

- viii. MARY AUGUSTA ROLSTON was born on 30 Apr 1854 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa. She died on 02 Jan 1944 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa (age 89). She married Charlie W. Brown, son of David Brown and Fannie, on 11 Sep 1890 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa. He was born on 13 Mar 1854 in Ohio. He died on 19 Oct 1914 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa (age 60).

Notes for Mary Augusta Rolston:

Mary Augusta Rolston was born April 30, 1854 in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, the eighth of ten children born to David Rolston and Phebe Clemmer. She was also known as Mary Augusta Virginia Rolston. Mary lived her entire life in Monticello.

On September 11, 1890 in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, Mary, age 36, married Charlie W. Brown, age 36. Mary and Charlie (Charles) never had children of their own, but they did take in an orphan girl named Esther Laone Davis. She was enumerated as Esther Brown, age 10, an adopted daughter, in the 1900 census. Mary was widowed on October 19, 1914 when Charlie, her husband of 24 years, died at the age of 60.

Mary, a lifelong resident of Monticello, died January 2, 1944 at the age of 89 and was buried next to her husband in the Oakwood Cemetery in Monticello.

Notes for Charlie W. Brown:

1880 census of Monticello, Jones County, Iowa:

Charles Brown	Self	Male	26	Ohio
Clara B Brown	Aunt	Female	58	Ohio (widowed)

- ix. WILLIAM M. ROLSTON was born on 25 Jul 1856 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa. He died on 11 Oct 1943 in Burlington, Coffey Co., Kan. (age 87). He married (1) FANNIE MARIE BROWN, daughter of William Brown and Clarissa B. Page, on 14 Mar 1883 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa. She was born on 08 Oct 1852 in Delaware, Ohio. She died on 04 Nov 1922 in Coffey Co., Kan. (age 70). He married (2) JENNIE R. FAUS after 1926 in Kansas. She was born in Oct 1859 in Pennsylvania. She died in 1931 in Kansas (age ~72).

Notes for William M. Rolston:

William "Will" M. Rolston was born July 25, 1856 in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, the ninth of ten children born to David Rolston and Phebe Clemmer.

On March 14, 1883 in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, William, age 26, married Fannie Marie Brown, age 30. William and his wife, Fannie, had no children. The couple farmed in Jones County, Iowa, until sometime between 1910 and 1920, when William retired from farming, and they removed to Burlington, Coffey County, Kansas. Fannie died in Kansas on November 4, 1922 at the age of 70.

After his wife's death, William married the widowed Mrs. Jennie Hiscox, the former Miss Jennie R. Faus. The couple was enumerated together in 1930, but she died in 1931. In 1940 William, age 82, was enumerated as widowed and was working as a painter and paper hanger.

William, 87, died October 11, 1943 in Burlington, Coffey County, Kansas, and was buried in the Oakwood Cemetery in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa.

Notes for Fannie Marie Brown:

---

Fannie Marie Brown was born October 8, 1852 in Delaware, Ohio, the daughter of William Brown and Clarissa B. Page. Her family moved to Jones County, Iowa.

On March 14, 1883 in Jones County, Iowa, Fannie, age 30, married William A. Rolston. [Research notes provided by Mrs. Lavon Munding indicate a possible previous marriage for Fannie, but the 1910 census indicates this was her first marriage.] Fannie and William had no children. In the 1895 census of Jones County, Fannie's widowed mother, Clarissa, was living with her and husband William.

Fannie, 70, died November 4, 1922 in Coffey County, Kansas, preceding her husband in death. She was buried in the Oakwood Cemetery in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa.

Notes for Jennie R. Faus:
Jennie R. Faus

On February 27, 1879 in Cherokee, Cherokee County, Iowa, Jennie married Charles H. Hiscox. Six children were born to their union. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of Cherokee, Cherokee County, Iowa:

Charles H Hiscox	Head	M	49	Connecticut
Jenny R Hiscox	Wife	F	41	Pennsylvania (6/4)
Nettie B Hiscox	Daughter	F	19	Iowa
Iva M Hiscox	Daughter	F	16	Iowa
Florence A Hiscox	Daughter	F	13	Nebraska
Lucial Hiscox	Daughter	F	3	Mississippi

Her husband Charles died February 17, 1926.

After her husband's death, she married the widower William A. Rolston.

Jennie, about age 72, died in 1931 in Kansas. Mrs. Jennie R. Hiscox Rolston was buried in the Garceland Cemetery in Burlington, Coffey County, Kansas.

- x. SARAH M. ROLSTON was born in 1859 in Jones Co., Iowa. She died about 1867 in Monticello, Jones Co., Iowa (age 7).

Notes for Sarah M. Rolston:
Sarah M. Rolston was born in 1859 in the area serviced by the Monticello Post Office in Jones County, Iowa, the youngest of ten children born to David Rolston and Phebe Clemmer.

Sarah, 7, died of dysentery about 1867 and was buried in the United Brethren Cemetery in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa.

Notes for Sarah E. Rolston:

Sarah E. Rolston was born about 1823 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of eight children born to Jacob M. Rolston and Elizabeth Katherine Keezle. She had two half-brothers from her father's first marriage. Her father died in 1845.

On October 15, 1846 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Sarah married Levi Cromer. Four children are known to have been born to their union. Their second child, daughter Mary, died in childhood. The family was enumerated in the 1860 census of Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia:

Levi Cromer	M	36	Virginia
Sarah E Cromer	F	35	Virginia
Rebecca S Cromer	F	13	Virginia

---

---

John C Cromer	M	9	Virginia
Ada F Cromer	F	6	Virginia

After the Civil War, the family moved to the Central District of Rockingham County where they farmed. The family and two farm hands, one of which was their son-in-law, were enumerated there in the 1870 census:

Levi Cromer	M	47	Virginia Farmer
Sarah A Cromer	F	46	Virginia
Wilson Sullivan	M	23	Virginia Farm Hand [son-in-law]
Ada F Sullivan	F	17	Virginia [daughter]
Harvy Londerberry	M	12	Virginia Farm Hand

Levi is presumed to have preceded Sarah in death. Neither Levi nor Sarah have been found in the 1880 census.

Sarah, 72, died January 12, 1896 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. Besides two of her children, Sarah was survived by one sister, Mrs. Phebe Goens.

Notes for Levi Cromer:

Levi Cromer was born about 1823 in Virginia.

On October 15, 1846 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Levi married Sarah E. Rolston. The couple lived in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia where four children were born to the couple. Levi worked as a blacksmith.

Elizabeth A. Cromer briefly mentions Levi at the end of a letter to her sister written May 26, 1864: "Since riting I herd John R. _____ past thru town yesterday and he had his haver sack filled at Levi Cromer . . that all I herd."

After the Civil War, Levi moved the family to the Central District of Rockingham County where the family farmed. The couple was not found in the 1880 census. Levi's wife, Sarah, died in 1896 and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg. Levi's grave was not found there.

Levi Cromer and Sarah E. Rolston had the following children:

- i. REBECCA SUSAN<sup>6</sup> CROMER was born in Nov 1847 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 13 Jan 1917 in Richmond, Henrico Co., Va. (age 69). She married Robert H. Gilmer on 16 Apr 1867 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born about 1841 in Virginia. He died on 26 Jan 1887 in Richmond, Henrico Co., Va. (age ~46).

Notes for Rebecca Susan Cromer:

Rebecca Susan [Susan Rebecca] Cromer was born November 1847 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of four children born to Levi Cromer and Sarah E. Rolston. The family lived in the city of Harrisonburg where they were enumerated in the 1850 and 1860 censuses. The family may have left the city during the Civil War.

On April 16, 1867 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Susan, age 19, married Robert H. Gilmer, age 25. Seven children were born to their union, but only two survived to adulthood. Her husband, an alcoholic, preceded her in death in January of 1887.

Susan, 69, died of breast cancer on January 13, 1917 in Richmond, Henrico County, Virginia, and was buried as Susan R. Gilmer in the Oakwood Cemetery in Richmond. She was survived by her daughter, Mrs. Luella McNamara of Richmond, and her son, Edward Gilmer of West Virginia.

Notes for Robert H. Gilmer:

Rockingham Register, Thursday, February 3, 1887, page 3

Mr. Robert Gilmer, at one time a resident of Harrisonburg, and a nephew of Dr. Geo. K.

Gilmer, ex postmaster of Richmond, died in that city on Tuesday last week. His remains were brought to this place for burial on Thursday last, and his funeral was preched in the Methodist church, Rev. O. S. Bunting, of the Episcopal church, officiating. The deceased was employed in Dr. Gilmore's printing office when that gentleman conducted a newspaper here. He afterwards went into the wagon and blacksmithing business, on German street He married a Miss Cromer, of this place.

- ii. MARY E. CROMER was born about 1849 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died between 1850-1860 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va..
- iii. JOHN C. CROMER was born about 1851 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va.. He died before 1870 in Virginia.

Notes for John C. Cromer:

John C. Cromer was born about 1851 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of four children and only son born to Levi Cromer and Sarah E. Rolston.

John, age 9, was last enumerated with his family in 1860, prior to the Civil War. He was not enumerated with his parents in the 1870 census and assumed to have been deceased.

- iv. ADA FRANCES CROMER was born on 03 Jul 1853 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va.. She died on 28 Jan 1946 in Staunton, Augusta Co., Va. (age 92). She married Woodson Francis Sullivan, son of Augustine Sullivan and Deliah, on 25 May 1870 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born about 1846 in Richmond (city, Henrico Co.), Va.. He died about 1899 in Staunton, Augusta Co., Va. (age ~53).

Notes for Ada Frances Cromer:

Ada "Addie" Frances Cromer was born July 3, 1853 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of four children born to Levi Cromer and Sarah E. Rolston.

On May 25, 1870 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Addie, age 17, married Woodson Francis Sullivan, age 24. The couple began their married life living on her parent's farm in the Central District of Rockingham County. Six children are known to have been born to their union. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Broadway, Rockingham County, Virginia:

Woodrow Sullivan	Self	M	34	Virginia
Ada Sullivan	Wife	F	26	Virginia
Frank Sullivan	Son	M	9	Virginia
Lula Sullivan	Daughter	F	4	Virginia
Levi Sullivan	Son	M	2	Virginia
Allen Sullivan	Son	M	1	Virginia

The couple's fifth child was born May 14, 1880 in Broadway, Virginia. Ada's husband died about 1899. In 1910 Ada was living with her daughter, Mrs. Mattie Stover, in Clifton Forge, Virginia. Ada was known to be residing in Harrisonburg in 1918. The widowed Ada was enumerated with her widowed son in the 1930 census of Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia:

Frank Sullivan	Head	M	59	Virginia (widowed)
John A Sullivan	Son	M	25	Virginia
Ada F Sullivan	Mother	F	74	Virginia (widowed)

Ada's widowed daughter, Mrs Lula Brown, was ill, and they were enumerated together in the 1940 census of Roanoke, Virginia:

Ada F Sullivan	Head	F	86	Virginia (widowed)
Lula May Brown	Daughter	F	64	Virginia (widowed)

Her daughter died in October of that year. Ada remained in Roanoke until December of 1945, when Ada returned home. She was hospitalized for the last month of her life.

Ada, 92, died of heart disease on January 28, 1946 in the Western State Hospital in Staunton, Augusta County, Virginia. According to her death certificate, she was buried in Harrisonburg, Virginia.

Notes for Woodson Francis Sullivan:

Woodson Francis Sullivan was born about 1846 in Richmond, Virginia, the son of Augustine and Deliah Sullivan.

On May 25, 1870 in Rockingham County, Virginia, W. F. Sullivan married Ada F. Cromer. Four children were born to their union. The couple's youngest child was born in December of 1879. The family was enumerated together in the 1880 census of Broadway, Rockingham County, Virginia. Any children born after 1880 are unknown.

Mr. Sullivan died about 1899. When his wife Ada applied for his Civil War pension in 1926, she stated that her husband died of "bad health & loss of mind."

Notes for Phebe Ellen Rolston:

Phebe Ellen Rolston was born April 27, 1831 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of eight children born to Jacob M. Rolston and Elizabeth Katherine Keezle. She was known by her middle name, Ellen. She had two half-brothers from her father's first marriage. Her father died in 1845.

On October 31, 1850 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Ellen married David Goens [also found as Goen]. The couple are known to have had two sons and one daughter. In 1860 the their two sons were enumerated with their maternal grandmother, Katherine Rolston. The family moved to Ross County, Ohio.

Phebe's husband appears to have preceded her in death. His date and place of death and burial are not known. He does not appear in the cemetery where his wife was buried. Perhaps he died in Virginia before the family moved to Ohio. In 1900 the widowed Phebe was living with her son David and his family in Ross County, Ohio. Her older son James was also living there; working on his brother's farm.

Phebe, 84, died January 2, 1916 in Ross County, Ohio, and was buried as Ellen Goen in the Greenlawn Cemetery in Frankfort, Ross County, Ohio. Her two sons, both dying later in 1916, were also buried there. They all likely died of Influenza, as the epidemic had peaked in 1918.

Notes for David Goens:

David Goens was born about 1830 in Virginia. He was enumerated as "David Goings" with his brother Daniel in the 1850 census of Augusta County, Virginia. They were both wagon makers.

Daniel Goings	Male	26	Virginia
Samuel W Goings	Male	2	Virginia
John C Goings	Male	1	Virginia
David Goings	Male	21	Virginia
Frances C Goings	Female	28	Virginia
Mary E Goings	Female	4	Virginia

His surname is also found as Goen, and his sons would later be found by this spelling.

On October 31, 1850 in Rockingham County, Virginia, David married Phebe Ellen Rolston. Three children, two sons and a daughter, are attributed to their marriage. Their daughter died in infancy or early childhood.

It is not known when or where David died. His youngest child was born in June of 1855. He preceded his wife in death sometime before 1900. David was survived by his wife and two sons: James and David (Jr.).

David Goens and Phebe Ellen Rolston had the following children:

- i. JAMES A.<sup>6</sup> GOEN was born on 02 Sep 1851 in Virginia. He died on 08 Jan 1916 in Concord Twp., Ross Co., Ohio (age 64). He married Alla Roseboom on 20 Dec 1888 in Ross Co., Ohio. She was born before 1870. She died before 1900 in Ross Co., Ohio.

Notes for James A. Goen:

James A. Goen was born September 2, 1851 in Virginia, the eldest of three children born to David Goen and Phebe Ellen Rolston. In 1860 James and his younger brother were enumerated in Rockingham County, Virginia, with their maternal grandmother. James later removed to Ohio. He was enumerated with the Veach family in the 1880 census Fayette County, Ohio, and later removed to Ross County, Ohio.

On December 20, 1888 in Ross County, Ohio, James married Alla Roseboom. Children from their union, if any, are unknown. His wife Alla had died prior to the 1900 census. In 1900 and 1910 James and his widowed mother were enumerated on his brother David's farm in Ross County, Ohio.

James, 64, died of pneumonia on January 8, 1916 in Concord Township of Ross County, Ohio. His brother, David, had died of pneumonia three days earlier and their mother had died the previous week. James, his brother, and their mother were all buried in the Greenlawn Cemetery in Frankfort, Ross County, Ohio.

Notes for Alla Roseboom:

Daughter of A.C. Roseboom?

- ii. MARY CATHARINE GOENS was born on 17 May 1853 in Bridgewater, Va.. She died before 1860.
- iii. DAVID MARKWOOD GOEN was born on 26 Jun 1855 in Virginia. He died on 05 Jan 1916 in Concord Twp., Ross Co., Ohio (age 60). He married Hannah Harper, daughter of Elon Harper and Barbara Ross, on 13 Nov 1886 in Ross Co., Ohio. She was born on 12 Aug 1862 in Ross Co., Ohio. She died on 26 Jul 1940 in Frankfort, Ross Co., Ohio (age 77).

Notes for David Markwood Goen:

David Markwood Goen was born June 26, 1855 in Virginia, the youngest of three children born to David Goen and Phebe Ellen Rolston. He may have been known as David, Jr.. In 1860 David and his brother were enumerated with their maternal grandmother, Katherine Rolston, in Rockingham County, Virginia. David removed to Ross County, Ohio. This may have been in the accompaniment of his father and family or after his father's death.

On November 13, 1886 in Ross County, Ohio, David married Hannah "Zoe" Harper. Two children are known to have been born to the couple. The couple farmed, and during the 1900 and 1910 census, David's mother, Ellen, and his older brother James lived with David and his family. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of Greenfield Pike, Ross County, Ohio:

David Goen	Head	M	55	Virginia
Hannah Goen	Wife	F	48	Ohio (2/2)
Fanny Belle Goen		Daughter	F 21	Ohio
Charles Goen	Son	M	15	Ohio
Ellen Goen	Mother	F	77	Virginia (widowed)
James Goen	Brother	M	58	Virginia (widowed)

David, 60, died of pneumonia on January 5, 1916 in Concord Township of Ross County, Ohio. His mother had died a few days earlier, and his older brother, James, died a few days later. All three were buried in the Greenlawn Cemetery in Frankfort, Ross County, Ohio. David was survived by his wife and their two children.

Notes for Hannah Harper:

In the 1910 census, it looks like the census taker originally wrote 3/2 (children born/children living) and the marked over the entry with 2/2.

1920 census of Concord, Ross County, Ohio:

Charley Goen	Head	Male	25	Ohio

Ill for two months, Mrs. Hannah Goen, 78, died Friday at 7:30 a.m. at the home of her son, Charles Goen, in Frankfort.

born in Ross County, Aug. 12, 1862, she was the daughter of Elon and Barbara Ross Harper. Her husband died several years ago.

Surviving are the son, Charles Goen, and a brother, Adam Harper of Lyndon.

Services will be conducted Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Frankfort Methodist Church .... Burial will be in Greenlawn cemetery, Frankfort, under direction of Fisher's funeral home.

339. SARAH E.<sup>5</sup> CHRISMAN (Eleanor<sup>4</sup> Rolston, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 28 Feb 1825 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 02 Feb 1853 in Virginia (age 27). She married William Herring, son of Herring, on 13 Oct 1841 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born in 1814 in Virginia. He died on 14 Sep 1858 in Virginia (age 44).

Notes for Sarah E. Chrisman:

Sarah E. Chrisman was born February 28, 1825 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of eleven children born to John Chrisman and Elenor Rolston. Her father was previously married, and from that union Sarah had a half-sister. The mother and infant daughter died shortly after birth.

According to the Herring Family Bible, Sarah was born on the 29th of February; however, the 29th day of February only occurs during Leap Years of which 1825 was not. Thus, Sarah may have actually been born on March 1, 1825.

On October 13, 1841 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Sarah, age 16, married Dr. William Herring, age about 27. They lived in the Rockingham County area. Three children are known to have born to the couple.

Sarah, 27, died February 2, 1853 in Virginia, and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. Her cause of death is not known. Her last child had been born about three years prior to Sarah's death, and one could speculate that her death could have been from complications with a fourth pregnancy.

William Herring and Sarah E. Chrisman had the following children:

- i. JOHN CROFTON<sup>6</sup> HERRING was born on 07 Jan 1844 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 01 Oct 1920 in Cartersville, Bartow Co., Geo. (age 76). He married Camilla Jacqueline Dinkle, daughter of John Dinkel and Ann, on 07 Feb 1867 in Bridgewater, Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 05 Nov 1847 in Virginia. She died on 13 Jan 1904 in Georgia (age 56).

Notes for John Crofton Herring:

John Crofton Herring was born January 7, 1844 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of three children and only son born to William Herring and Sarah E. Chrisman. He was a grandson of John Chrisman and Eleanor Rolston. John had just celebrated his ninth birthday the previous month when his mother died on February 2, 1853. John was 14 when his father died in 1858. In 1860 John and siblings were enumerated with their Uncle John A. Herring.

---

In 1864 John, age 21, served in the 1st Cavalry of the Confederate army.

On February 7, 1867 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John married Camilla Jacqueline Dinkle. The couple had two sons: John William Herring, born Dec 8th 1867; and Bernard Allen Herring, born March 6th 1874. {source: Herring Family Bible.}

The couple lived and farmed in Rockingham until sometime after 1870 when they removed to Georgia. In the later years before his death, John was a merchant.

John's wife Camilla was paralyzed and died on January 13, 1904. She was first buried in Cassville on what appears to be January 15, 1904. The family Bible then indicates that she was removed to Cartersville about 1917. This is consistent with her living in Cassville per the 1900 census and her husband living in Cartersville in 1920.

The Herring Family Bible records that John, 76, died October 1, 1920 at 10 o'clock. He was buried in the Oak Hill Cemetery in Cartersville, Bartow County, Georgia, probably next to his wife.

[H. M. Gibbons]

John Crofton Herring.

John C. Herring, descended from a fine old family, was born at Capon Springs, Va., on January 7, 1844. He was married to Miss Camilla Dinkle in Bridgewater, Va., in February, 1867, to which union were born two sons, William, of Dallas, Tex., and B. A., of Cartersville, Ga. His estimable wife died on January 13, 1904.

In May, 1871, he moved to Bartow County, Ga., and joined the Methodist Church at Cassville, of which he was a consistent member until his death, one of his last acts being the holding of family prayers. His home life was beautiful, and as a friend and neighbor he had no superior. There was no better citizen during peace or in war a better soldier when he fought under the Stars and Bars. A courier for Gen. Tatum Wofford, he was dauntless in danger. Later he joined Company I, 1st Virginia Cavalry, and served with signal bravery under the knightly "Jeb" Stuart, then to the close of the war under Gen. Fitz Lee.

He dearly loved the Confederate Reunions and always attended them. He had prepared to join his comrades in the Reunion at Houston, Tex, his baggage packed and berth engaged, when suddenly, on the night of October 1, 1920, "taps" sounded, and this gallant old soldier went to sleep with his comrades "on Fame's eternal camping ground: until the Great Commander shall summon him, with Lee, Jackson, and the hosts who wore the gray, to appear in the last "grand review."

Notes for Camilla Jacqueline Dinkle:

Camilla Jacqueline Herring was born November 5, 1847 in Virginia, the daughter of John & Ann Dinkel.

On February 7, 1867 in Bridgewater, Rockingham County, Virginia, Camilla married John Crofton Herring. Two children were born to their union.

Camilla, 56, was paralyzed and died on what appears to be January 13, 1904 in Georgia. She was buried in Cassville on what appears to be January 15, 1904 in a funeral service by Rev. J.M. White assisted by Rev. J.M. Timlin. She was removed to Cartersville about 1917 and buried in the Oak Hill Cemetery. {source: Herring Family Bible} This is consistent with her living in Cassville per the 1900 census and her husband living in Cartersville in 1920, where the the family Bible indicates he died Oct 1st 1920 at 10 o'clock. He was buried in Cartersville (probably next to his wife) on Oct 4th.

- ii. ADA WORTH HERRING was born on 30 Aug 1847 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 30 May 1910 in Virginia (age 62). She married Silas Taylor, son of Mack Taylor and Ann, on 27 Dec 1876 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born in Mar 1854 in Frederick Co., Va..

Notes for Ada Worth Herring:

Ada Worth Herring was born August 30, 1847 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of three children born to William Herring and Sarah E. Chrisman. She was the granddaughter of John Chrisman and Eleanor Rolston. Ada's mother died February 2, 1853 when Ada was only five years old, and her father died September 14, 1858 when Ada was eleven. In 1860 Ada and siblings were enumerated with their Uncle John A. Herring.

On December 27, 1876 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Ada E. Herring, age 28, married Silas Taylor, age 22. The eldest of the six children associated with the couple, son Ernest, was born three years before Ada and Silas married. In the 1900 census Ada reports having had six children, three living. No record of the three deceased children has been found under the Taylor surname. Although Ada was shown as single at the time she married Silas Taylor, Ada may have been previously married, and the three deceased children may have been born to a previous husband.

Ada, 62, preceded her husband in death on May 30, 1910 in Virginia, and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. Besides her husband, Ada was survived by three of her six children.

- iii. ALBERTA BRUCE HERRING was born on 13 Apr 1849 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died in 1924 in Kansas (age ~74). She married Daniel U. Huffman, son of Jacob Huffman and Elizabeth Byerly, on 21 Jun 1870 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born in Jun 1836 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died in 1905 in Kansas (age ~69).

Notes for Alberta Bruce Herring:

Alberta "Bertie" Bruce Herring was born April 13, 1849 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of three children born to William Herring and Sarah E. Chrisman. She was the granddaughter of John Chrisman and Eleanor Rolston. Her mother died February 2, 1853 when Alberta was only three years old, and her father died five years later on September 14, 1858 when Alberta was nine. In 1860 Alberta and siblings were enumerated with their Uncle John A. Herring.

Once her brother reached adulthood, Bertie was enumerated in the 1870 census of Franklin Township in Rockingham County living with her brother John and his wife.

On June 21, 1870 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Alberta, age 21, married Daniel U. Huffman, age 34. The couple remained in Virginia until 1875 and then removed to Kansas. The family was enumerated in Montgomery County, Kansas in 1880:

Daniel Huffman	Head	M	44	Virginia
Alberta V. Huffman	Wife	F	28	Virginia
Florence Huffman	Daughter	F	9	Virginia
Daisy Huffman	Daughter	F	5	Virginia
Orlin Huffman	Son	M	3	Kansas
Emma Huffman	Daughter	F	1	Kansas

Fourteen children were born to the couple according to the 1900 census. In that census Alberta states that only five of the fourteen were living, but seven children were living at home at the time of the 1900 census. She had given the number of deceased children, not the living. Alberta's husband died in 1905. In the 1910 census Alberta reported 14 children born; 9 living.

Alberta, about age 74, died in 1924 in Kansas, and was buried in the Sunnyside Cemetery in Caney, Montgomery County, Kansas.

Notes for Americus V. Chrisman:

Americus V. Chrisman was born December 31, 1831 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eighth of eleven children born to John Chrisman and Eleanor Rolston. He was the second child to carry the same given name; his older brother Americus died in 1828. His father was previously married, and from that union Americus had a half-sister. The mother and infant daughter died shortly after birth.

His father died in 1846 when Americus was 14 years old. In 1850 Americus was working as a clerk and living with Dr. John A. Bryon {sic?} and his family. Sometime after 1850, Americus removed to Ohio.

On October 2, 1855 in Madison County, Ohio, Americus married Lucinda "Lucy" J. Withrow. Two children were born to their union. His younger brother, David, was enumerated in the same county. Americus became the Madison County town marshal. Americus and his family were enumerated in the 1880 census of London, Madison County, Ohio:

A. V. Chrisman	Self	M	Male	W	48	VA	Town Marshall	VA
VA
Lucinda J. Chrisman	Wife	M	Female	W	45	OH	Keeping House
OH	---
Ella Chrisman	Dau	S	Female	W	18	OH	At Home	VA ---
Annie Kelly	Other	S	Female	W	17	OH	Domestic	IRE IRE

Americus, 51, died August 9, 1883 in London, Madison County, Ohio, and was buried in the Kirkwood Cemetery in London. His tombstone is undated. The circumstances surrounding his death are unknown; he was still the town marshal at the time of his death.

Notes for Lucinda J. Withrow:

In 1900 the widowed Lucinda was living with her daughter, Mrs. Ella Boyer, in London Villiage, Madison County, Ohio.

Americus V. Chrisman and Lucinda J. Withrow had the following children:

- i. WILLIAM HERRING<sup>6</sup> CHRISMAN was born on 07 Jun 1857 in Ohio. He died on 27 May 1924 in London, Madison Co., Ohio (age 66). He married Marion Frances Bridgman, daughter of John C. Bridgman and Lucy Petton, on 16 May 1877 in Delaware Co., Ohio. She was born on 14 Mar 1858 in Ohio. She died on 12 Jan 1922 in London, Madison Co., Ohio (age 63).

Notes for William Herring Chrisman:

William Herring Chrisman was born June 7, 1857 in Ohio, the elder of two children and only son born to Americus V. Chrisman and Lucinda "Lucy" J. Withrow. He was the grandson of John Chrisman and Eleanor Rolston. William's father died in 1883.

On May 16, 1877 in Delaware County, Ohio, William married Marion Frances Bridgman. Two children were born to their union. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of London Villiage, Madison County, Ohio:

William H Chrisman	Head	M	44	Ohio
Marion F Chrisman	Wife	F	42	Ohio (2/2)
Eliza Chrisman	Daughter	F	18	Ohio [Mrs. Lida Elizabeth "Eliza" Denmead 1882-1941] **

63.

William, 66, killed himself by hanging on May 27, 1924 in London, Madison County, Ohio, and was buried in the Oak Hill Cemetery in London. He was survived by his two children.

- ii. ELLA CHRISMAN was born on 15 Nov 1861 in London, Madison Co., Ohio. She died on 21 Dec 1950 in Columbus, Franklin Co., Ohio (age 89). She married John M. Boyer on 26 Nov 1885 in Madison Co., Ohio. He was born in Jan 1860 in Union Co., Ohio. He died on 23 Jun 1920 in Franklin Co., Ohio (age 60).

Notes for Ella Chrisman:

Ella Chrisman was born November 15, 1861 in London, Madison County, Ohio, the younger of two children and only daughter born to Americus V. Chrisman and Lucinda "Lucy" J. Withrow. She was the granddaughter of John Chrisman and Eleanor Rolston. Ella's father died in 1883.

On November 26, 1885 in Madison County, Ohio, Ella married John M. Boyer. Two children are known to have been born to their union. The family and Ella's widowed mother were enumerated in the 1900 census of London Village, Madison County, Ohio:

John M Boyer	Head	M	40	Ohio
Ella Boyer	Wife	F	39	Ohio (2/2)
Helen Boyer	Daughter	F	13	Ohio [b. Mar 10, 1887 London, Ohio; m. Edwin Seagle; d. Jun 29, 1932 Columbus, Ohio]
Robert Boyer	Son	M	7	Ohio [Robert Bernard Boyer, b. Mar 25, 1893, d. Oct 9, 1942]
Lucy Chrisman	Mother-in-law	F	65	Ohio (widowed)

The family moved to Columbus, Franklin County, Ohio, where Ella's husband died in 1920 after the census was taken.

Ella remained in Columbus where she died December 21, 1950 at the age of 89. She joined her husband in the Kirkwood Cemetery in London, Madison County, Ohio. Both of her children had preceded her in death.

Notes for Frances Eleanor Chrisman:

Frances "Fannie" Eleanor Chrisman was born November 22, 1838 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of eleven children born to John Chrisman and Eleanor Rolston. Her father was previously married, and from that union Frances had a half-sister. The mother and child died shortly after birth.

On May 1, 1866 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Frances married Reuben Walton Moore. Four children are known to have been born to the couple.

Frances, 61, died April 17, 1900. Although she is said to have died in Rockingham County, no death or burial record has been found. She was survived by her husband, and two of her four children are also known to have survived.

Notes for Reuben Walton Moore:

In 1870 he and his wife were living next door to his parents. His mother was living with them during the 1880 census. In 1910 his son Thomas and family were living with him.

Reuben Walton Moore and Frances Eleanor Chrisman had the following children:

- i. ALICE<sup>6</sup> MOORE was born about 1866 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died before 1880 in Virginia.

Notes for Alice Moore:

---

Alice was not enumerated with the family in 1880.

- ii. THOMAS A. MOORE was born on 18 Sep 1867 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 03 Sep 1924 in Linville Dist., Rockingham Co., Va. (age 56). He married Elizabeth H. Allebaugh, daughter of Samuel R. Allebaugh and Elizabeth Adams, on 07 Jul 1896 in Lacey Spring, Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 04 Dec 1867 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 12 Apr 1927 in Linville Dist., Rockingham Co., Va. (age 59).

Notes for Thomas A. Moore:

Thomas A. Moore was born September 18, 1867 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of four children born to Reuben Walton Moore and Frances Eleanor Chrisman. He was the grandson of John Chrisman and Eleanor Rolston. Thomas grew up on the family farm and became a farmer.

On July 7, 1896 in Lacey Spring, Rockingham County, Virginia, Thomas married Elizabeth H. Allebaugh. The couple farmed. One child is known to have been born to the couple. The family was enumerated with Thomas's widowed father in the 1910 census of Linville District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

Ruben W Moore	Head	M	68	Virginia (widowed)
Thomas A Moore	Son	M	42	Virginia
Elizabeth H Moore	Daughter-in-law	F	42	Virginia
Francis E Moore	Granddaughter	F	11	Virginia
Susie L Simmers	Servant	F	20	Virginia
William Crigler	Laborer	M	26	Virginia

Thomas, 56, died September 3, 1924 in the Linville District of Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Lacey Spring Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. He was survived by Elizabeth, his wife of 28 years, and their daughter.

Notes for Elizabeth H. Allebaugh:

Elizabeth "Lizzie" H. Allebaugh was born December 4, 1867 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of Samuel R. Allebaugh and Elizabeth Adams.

On July 7, 1896 in Lacey Spring, Rockingham County, Virginia, Elizabeth married Thomas A. Moore. One child, daughter Frances, was born from their union. The family was residing with her father-in-law in 1910. Thomas, Elizabeth's husband of twenty-eight years, preceded her in death on September 3, 1924 at the age of 56.

Elizabeth, 59, died of ovarian cancer three years later on April 12, 1927 in the Linville District of Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in Lacey Spring Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia.

- iii. FRANCES MOORE was born after 1868 in Rockingham Co., Va..

Notes for Frances Moore:

Frances Moore was born about 1868 in Rockingham County, Virginia, one of four children born to Reuben Walton Moore and Frances Eleanor Chrisman. She was the granddaughter of John Chrisman and Eleanor Rolston. Frances does not appear in any of the censuses with the family and is assumed to have died young.

- iv. ELEANOR C. MOORE was born on 18 Apr 1871 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 01 Nov 1919 in Virginia (age 48). She married Owen B. Brock, son of Charles J. Brock and Henrietta, on 09 Nov 1892 in Virginia. He was born in Jun 1868 in Virginia. He died on 20 May 1936 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 67).

Notes for Eleanor C. Moore:

Eleanor C. "Ella" Moore was born April 18, 1871 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of four children born to Reuben Walton Moore and Frances Eleanor Chrisman. She was the granddaughter of John Chrisman and Eleanor Rolston.

On November 9, 1892, probably in Rockingham County, Eleanor married Owen B. Brock.

Three children were born to their union.

Eleanor, 48, died November 1, 1919 in Virginia, and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by her husband and their three children.

Notes for Owen B. Brock:

Owen was enumerated in the 1870 census of Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia at the age of 2. His parents were living with Owen's paternal grandparents, Archibald and Sarah Brock.

On November 9, 1892 in Virginia, Owen married Eleanor C. Moore. Three sons were born to the couple. His wife Eleanor died in 1919.

Sometime between 1920 and 1925, Owen married Ruth Calaway Jones. Ruth was some 34 years his junior. Two daughters were born to their union.

Owen, 67, preceded Ruth in death on May 20, 1936 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham County), Virginia.

342. DAVID<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Silas Hinton<sup>4</sup>, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 23 Feb 1828 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 24 Apr 1884 in Mt. Vernon, Knox Co., Ohio (age 56). He married Catherine Adrian, daughter of Mordicai Adrian and Mary Adrian, on 04 Feb 1852 in Knox Co., Ohio. She was born on 07 Jun 1831 in Ohio. She died on 29 Mar 1880 in Coshocton Co., Ohio (age 48).

Notes for David Rolston:

David Rolston was born February 23, 1828 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of ten children born to Silas Hinton Rolston and Lydia Burkholder. David was named after his paternal grandfather, David Rolstone Jr.. In 1836, when David was eight years old, his father moved the family to Knox County, Ohio. There David grew to adulthood and became a farmer.

On February 4, 1852 in Knox County, Ohio, David married Catherine Adrian. The couple farmed and raised a family of nine children. The first of these children was not born until 1855, over three years after their marriage. As such, there may have been a tenth child (first born) that did not survive and passed unrecorded. Sometime before 1860 David moved his family from Knox County to Coshocton County. On September 6, 1870 David was appointed by his siblings and their spouses to have power of attorney in settling the estate of their grandfather, David Ralston (David Rolstone, Jr.) of Rockingham Co., Virginia. (Deed Book 7, page 61)

On March 29, 1880 Catherine, David's wife of 28 years, died at the age of 48. The widower, David, and his children were later enumerated in the 1880 census of Bedford Township of Coshocton County, Ohio:

David Rolston	Self	W	Male	W	52	OH	Farmer	VA	VA
Silas Rolston	Son	S	Male	W	21	OH	Farm Laborer	OH	OH
Cary J. Rolston	Son	S	Male	W	19	OH	Farm Laborer	OH	OH
Belle Rolston	Dau	S	Female	W	16	OH	Keeping House	OH	OH
Grant Rolston	Son	S	Male	W	14	OH	At Home	OH	OH
Eva Rolston	Dau	S	Female	W	13	OH	At Home	OH	OH
Isaac Rolston	Son	S	Male	W	9	OH		OH	OH
Zadia Rolston	Dau	S	Female	W	4	OH		OH	OH

Many of the records for David and his children show the surname as RALSTON, and the spelling may have changed from the original ROLSTON spelling. Some of his children used the Ralston spelling when they became adults.

David, 52, died four years later on April 24, 1884 in Mount Vernon, Knox County Ohio and was buried as David Rolston in the Mohawk Baptist Cemetery in Perry Township in Coshocton County, Ohio, (now known as the Newcastle Cemetery). He was survived by his nine children.

---

Some years later, a new memorial stone was erected for David and his wife.

Notes for Catherine Adrian:

Catherine Adrian was born June 7, 1831 in Ohio, the elder of two children and only daughter known to have been born to Mordicai Adrian, Sr. and his wife Mary. Catherine's father died when she was very young, and her mother married the widower Jacob Harrod. In the 1850 census of Knox County, Ohio, Catharine and her younger brother Mordicai, Jr. were living with their stepfather Jacob and mother Mary Harrod. In later years Catherine named one of her children after her stepfather but spelled it Herrod. Her mother's tombstone used that spelling of the surname when she was buried in 1884.

On February 4, 1852 in Knox County, Ohio, Catherine married David Rolston. Nine children were born to the couple.

Catherine, 48, preceded her husband in death on March 29, 1880 in Coshocton County, Ohio and was buried in the Mohawk Baptist Cemetery in Perry Township, Coshocton County, Ohio (now known as the Newcastle Cemetery). She was survived by her husband and their nine children.

David Rolston and Catherine Adrian had the following children:

- i. MARY ANN<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 25 Feb 1855 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 03 Mar 1919 in Coshocton, Coshocton Co., Ohio (age 64). She married Francis Marion Almack, son of Jesse Lee Almack and Elizabeth S. Richards, on 07 Oct 1875 in Coshocton Co., Ohio. He was born on 07 Dec 1847 in Perry Twp., Coshocton Co., Ohio. He died on 19 Jan 1933 in Coshocton Co., Ohio (age 85).

Notes for Mary Ann Rolston:

Mary Ann Rolston was born February 25, 1855 in Knox County, Ohio, the eldest of nine children born to David Rolston and Catherine Adrian. Sometime before 1860 her father moved the family from Knox to Coshocton County.

On October 7, 1875 in Coshocton County, Ohio, Mary, age 20, married Marion Almack. The couple lived in Perry, Coshocton County, Ohio where they farmed and raised a family of two children, son Quincy and daughter Effie. In early 1880 Mary's mother died. Her father died four years later leaving several young children still living at home. As the eldest sister, Mary may have taken in her younger siblings.

Mary, 64, died March 3, 1919 in Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio and was buried at the South Lawn Cemetery in Tuscarawus Township of Coshocton County, Ohio. She was survived by her husband and their two children. Their two children married but never had grandchildren for their parents.

Notes for Francis Marion Almack:

Francis Marion Almack was born December 7, 1847 in Perry Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, the sixth of eight children born to Jesse L. Almack and Elizabeth Richards. He was known by his middle name, Marion. His father died in early 1870, and Francis's older brother, Leander, took over the family farm.

On October 7, 1875 in Coshocton County, Ohio, Francis, age 30, married Mary Ann Rolston, age 25. Two children were born to their union. Mary died March 3, 1919 at the age of 64. Francis then lived with his daughter, Mrs. Effie Magruder, until her death in December of 1921. After her death, Francis moved in with his older brother Thomas Almack. The brothers were enumerated in the 1930 census of Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio:

Etta Ringwalt	Head	F	48	Ohio (widowed)
Thomas Almack		Father	M	85 Ohio [brother of Francis Almack]
Mary Almack	Mother	F	72	Ohio
George Ringwalt		Son	M	18 Ohio

Francis Almack Uncle M 82 Ohio (widowed)
George Almack Relative M 47 Ohio (widowed) [George Washington Almack, s/o Leonidas Hamolin Almack and Almada Cullison] George is likely a cousin.

Frances, 85, died January 19, 1933 in Coshocton County, Ohio and was buried in the South Lawn Cemetery in Coshocton, Tuscarawus Township of Coshocton County, Ohio. Francis was survived by his only son, Quincy.

- ii. JACOB HERROD ROLSTON was born on 11 Sep 1859 in Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 18 Aug 1923 in Nellie, Coshocton Co., Ohio (age 63). He married Jennie Ellen Johnson, daughter of Gilbert Johnson and Evilda Darling, on 25 Oct 1881 in Bedford Twp., Coshocton Co., Ohio. She was born on 24 Mar 1863 in Bedford Twp., Coshocton Co., Ohio. She died on 19 Feb 1953 in Warsaw, Coshocton Co., Ohio (age 89).

Notes for Jacob Herrod Rolston:

Jacob Herrod Rolston/Ralston was born September 11, 1859, in Knox County, Ohio, the second of nine children born to David Rolston and Catherine Adrian. He was named after Jacob Harrod, his mother's stepfather. Sometime before 1860, William's father moved the family from Knox County to Coshocton County, Ohio.

In 1880 Jacob was working as a farm hand in Bedford Township of Coshocton County, Ohio, for Mr. Gilbert Johnston:

Gilbert Johnston	Self	Male	44	Ohio
Evilda Johnston	Wife	Female	42	Ohio
Jennie Johnston	Daughter	Female	17	Ohio

Charles D Johnston	Son	Male	12	Ohio
Effie J Johnston	Daughter	Female	5	Ohio
Cora B Johnston	Daughter	Female	2	Ohio
Herod Rolston	Other	Male	23	Ohio

The following year, on October 25, 1881 in Bedford Township of Coshocton County, Ohio, Jacob married Gilbert's eldest daughter, Jennie Ellen Johnson. Two children, a daughter and a son, were born to the couple. Jacob and his family used the surname of Ralston. Jacob was a farmer but augmented his income by dealing in lumber and cattle.

Jacob, 63, died of a stroke on August 18, 1923 in Nellie, Coshocton County, Ohio, and was buried as J. H. Ralston in the Darling Run Cemetery in Nellie, Coshocton County, Ohio. His tombstone has his year of birth as 1857. Jacob was survived by his wife and their two children. Also surviving were brothers John, Ulyses, and Isaac, and sisters Lydia, Eva, and Zadie.

Notes for Jennie Ellen Johnson:

Jennie Ellen Johnson was born March 24, 1863 in Bedford Township in Coshocton County, Ohio, the eldest child born to Gilbert Johnson and his wife Evilda Darling.

On October 25, 1881 in Bedford Township of Coshocton County, Ohio, Jennie married Jacob Herod Rolston. Two children were born to the couple. Her husband Jacob died August 18, 1923 at the age of 64. In the later years of her life, Jennie lived with her daughter, Mrs. Exie Jones.

Jennie, 89, died of pneumonia on February 19, 1953 in Warsaw, Coshocton County, Ohio, and was buried as Jennie E. Ralston in the Darling Run Cemetery in Nellie, Coshocton County, Ohio.

- iii. WILLIAM SILAS ROLSTON was born on 23 Mar 1860 in Bedford Twp., Coshocton Co., Ohio. He died on 17 May 1901 in New Castle Twp., Coshocton Co., Ohio (age 41). He married Elizabeth Rose Cullison, daughter of Moses Cullison and Rebecca J, on 15 Jan 1894 in Knox Co., Ohio. She was born on 17 Sep 1873 in New Castle, Coshocton Co., Ohio. She died on 24 Mar 1925 in Akron, Summit Co., Ohio (age 51).

Notes for William Silas Rolston:

William Silas "Jake" Rolston was born March 23, 1860 in Bedford Township of Coshocton County, Ohio, the third of nine children born to David Rolston and Catherine Adrian. His nephew Demass Barnes referred to him as his Uncle Silas, but noted that his nickname was Jake. Sometime before 1860 his father moved the family from Knox to Coshocton County.

On January 15, 1894 in Knox County, Ohio, William [W. S. Rolston], age 33, married Elizabeth Rose Cullison, age 21. No children were born to the couple. They were enumerated in the 1900 census; William worked in the lumber industry.

William, 41, died May 11, 1901 in New Castle Township of Coshocton County, Ohio. From the oral family history passed down from his nephew Demass, William was found dead along side the road. His horse, hitched to a buggy, had continued on home. The cause of his death, according to his nephew Demass, was never determined with any certainty.

William was buried in the Newcastle Cemetery in Newcastle, Ohio. His tombstone left a section for his wife's name, but she remarried in 1903 and was buried elsewhere at the time of her death (1925).

Notes for Elizabeth Rose Cullison:

Elizabeth Rose Cullison was born September 17, 1873 in New Castle, Coshocton County, Ohio, the daughter of Moses and Rebecca J. Cullison. As an adult, she went by her middle name, Rose. She was enumerated with her family in the 1880 census of New Castle:

Moses Cullison	Head	M	62	Ohio
Rebecca J. Cullison		Wife	F	48	Ohio
Arzota Cullison	Daughter		F	14	Ohio
John R. Cullison		Son	M	11	Ohio
Elizibeth R. Cullison	Daughter		F	9	Ohio
Willis W. Cullison		Sone	M	6	Ohio

Rose was twice married. On January 15, 1894 in Knox County, Ohio, Rose married William Silas Rolston. No children were born to the couple. William, her husband of seven years, died in May of 1901.

On August 18, 1903 in Coshocton County, Ohio, the widow, "Mrs. Rose Rolston," age 29, married Elmer Guy Cornell, age 25. No children were born to her second marriage.

Rose, 51, died March 24, 1925 in Akron, Summit County, Ohio, and was buried in the Giffen Cemetery in Coshocton County, Ohio. She was survived by Elmer, her second husband.

- iv. JOHN CARY ROLSTON was born on 18 Mar 1862 in Coshocton Co., Ohio. He died on 10 Sep 1932 in Coshocton, Coshocton Co., Ohio (age 70). He married Alma L. Bush, daughter of Ninnel C. Bush and Louisa Cullison, on 04 Jul 1888 in Coshocton Co., Ohio. She was born on 05 Nov 1867 in Perry Twp., Coshocton Co., Ohio. She died on 22 Aug 1942 in Coshocton, Coshocton Co., Ohio (age 74).

Notes for John Cary Rolston:

John Cary "Kay" Rolston was born March 18, 1862, in Coshocton County, Ohio, the fourth of nine children born to David Rolston and Catherine Adrian. He was known as 'Kay' according to a letter written in 1932 by his nephew Demass Barnes. Sometime before 1860, his father moved the family from Knox to Coshocton County. He was either not present or was omitted at the time of the 1870 census of his parents. Like his father, John grew up to become a farmer.

On July 4, 1888 in Coshocton County, Ohio, John, age 26, married Alma L. Bush, age 20. Two children were born to the couple, but their first child, C. C. Rolston, was born April 3, 1891 and died September 23, 1891 at the age of 5 months. In 1894 daughter Pearl was born to the couple.

John suffered a stroke and was not enumerated with his wife and family during the 1930 census. He may have been in a hospital or nursing facility.

In a 1932 letter, Demass notes that 'Kay' "... has suffered lately a second stroke and may pass on at any time." A serious stroke as Demass notes that "He is almost helpless." After his death, his nephew noted that John was often called Hubert. According to his obituary, John had lived in Bedford and Perry townships before his strokes. He had had three strokes.

John, 70, died September 10, 1932 in Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio, and was buried in the South Lawn Cemetery in Tuscarawus Township in Coshocton County, Ohio. John was a lifelong resident of Ohio. He was survived by his Alma, his wife of 44 years, daughter, Mrs. Pearl Berry, and three grandchildren.

Notes for Alma L. Bush:

Alma L. Bush was born November 5, 1867 in Perry Township of Coshocton County, Ohio, the daughter of Ninnel C. Bush and Louisa Cullison.

On July 4, 1888 in Coshocton County, Ohio, Alma married John Cary Rolston. The couple remained in Coshocton County. Two children were born to the couple, but their first child died at the age of 5 months. Alma's husband suffered a stroke, and at the time of the 1930 census of Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio, he was not residing at home:

Almeda Ralston	Head	F	62	Ohio (married)
Pearl Berry	Daughter	F	36	Ohio (divorced)

two children from her first marriage, who were still living, were not included.

Lydia, 74, died September 18, 1938 in Coshocton, Ohio. She was starting a fire around 5:30 in the morning when flames from the open grate caught her clothing on fire. Lydia was buried as Belle R. Barnes in the Valley View Cemetery in Warsaw, Coshocton County, Ohio. Thomas, her second husband, died the following year.

Notes for Harris Parr Little:

Harris Parr Little may have been born about 1852 in Ohio. This Mr. Little was enumerated in the 1880 census of Bedford Township, Coshocton County, Ohio:

Par Little	Self	28	Ohio [Farmer]
Hamilton Little	Brother	32	Ohio
William Little	Brother	24	Ohio
Anna Little	Sister-in-law	20	Ohio

On April 27, 1882 in Coshocton County, Ohio, Harris married Lydia Belle Rolston.

Notes for Thomas Ellsworth Barnes:

Thomas Ellsworth Barnes was born in March of 1866 in Ohio, probably in Coshocton County, the third child born to Hezekiah B. Barnes and Josephine Ogalby. His mother was also known as Maria. Thomas grew up on the family farm in Coshocton County, Ohio, and like his father, Thomas became a farmer.

On March 16, 1889 in Coshocton County, Ohio, Thomas married Mrs. Lydia Little, the former Miss Lydia Belle Rolston. She had two daughters from her previous marriage, ages 4 and 6, that lived with the couple. The family farmed, and three children, two daughters and a son, were born to their union. Lydia, his wife of nearly forty years, preceded him in death on September 18, 1938.

Thomas, 73, died the following year on November 21, 1939 Coshocton County, Ohio, and was buried in the Valley View Cemetery in Warsaw, Coshocton County, Ohio.

- vi. ULYSES GRANT ROLSTON was born on 14 Jan 1866 in Coshocton Co., Ohio. He died on 06 Apr 1940 in Oak Park, Cook Co., Ill. (age 74). He married Louella White, daughter of White and Dorcas Angeline Fry, on 04 Jul 1888 in Coshocton Co., Ohio. She was born on 24 Aug 1869 in Ohio. She died on 09 Dec 1937 in Coshocton, Coshocton Co., Ohio (age 68).

Notes for Ulyses Grant Rolston:

Ulyses Grant Rolston was born January 14, 1866 in Coshocton County, Ohio, the sixth of nine children born to David Rolston and Catherine Adrian. Sometime before 1860 his father moved the family from Knox to Coshocton County.

On July 4, 1888 in Coshocton County, Ohio, Ulyses married Mrs. Louella Lynch, the former Miss Louella White. Only two children are known to have been born to the couple, but there may have been others. His nephew Demass Barnes refers to Ulyses as Uncle John. Ulyses G. Rolston appears in the 1914 city directory of Coshocton as a grocer. Ulyses left the grocery business becoming a creamery salesman. His wife Louella died in 1937, and Ulyses removed to Oak Park, Cook County, Illinois, where he lived with his son Hurley.

Ulyses, 74, died April 6, 1940 in Oak Park, Cook County, Illinois, and was buried as U. G. Rolston in the South Lawn Cemetery in Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio. He was survived by his son, Hurley. Also surviving was one sister, Zadie.

Notes for Louella White:

Louella White was born August 24, 1868 in Ohio, probably Coshocton County, the youngest of three children known to have been born to Mr. White and Dorcas Angeline Fry. According to the research of the late J. Robert Swank, Louella's father's given name

County, Ohio, the eighth of nine children born to David Rolston and Catherine Adrian. He was known as David as a child and is listed in the county's school records as a David Ralston, son of David and Catherine Ralston. As an adult, he was known as Ike. Isaac was 8 years old in 1880 when his mother died. His father did not remarry.

On March 22, 1893 in Coshocton County, Ohio, Isaac, age 21, married Mary V. Buxton, age 20. One child was born from this marriage. His wife, Mary, age 22, died March 6, 1895 shortly after giving birth and weeks before the couple's second wedding anniversary. Isaac gave his infant daughter to his younger sister, Mrs. Zadie Buxton, to raise.

On April 12, 1900 in Coshocton County, Ohio, Isaac, age 28, married Mrs. Jennie Oder, the former Miss Jennie Davis, age 30. She had one son from her previous marriage. No children were born to their union. The couple appeared in the 1914 city directory of Coshocton. "Ike Ralston" is pictured in a 1914 newspaper article as a fire fighter for the City of Coshocton, and the city directory of Coshocton lists Isaac V. Rolston as a fireman. He may have been a casualty of his profession.

Isaac, 54, died February 16, 1927 in Coshocton County, Ohio, and was buried as Isaac Rolston in the South Lawn Cemetery in Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio. He was survived by his wife, daughter, two brothers, and three sisters.

A letter dated March 30, 1932, from his nephew Demass Barnes notes that his Uncle Isaac "Ike" was deceased.

Notes for Mary Venora Buxton:

Mary Venora Buxton was born April 22, 1872 in Coshocton County, Ohio, the fifth of seven children born to Noah Washington Buxton and Hannah Mikesell.

On March 22, 1893 in Coshocton County, Ohio, Mary, age 20, married Isaac V. Rolston. One child was born to the couple.

Mary, 22, died March 6, 1895 in Coshocton County, Ohio, shortly after the birth of her only child. Mary was buried in the West Carlisle Cemetery in Pike Township of Coshocton County, Ohio.

Notes for Jennie Davis:

Jennie Davis was born June 5, 1869 in Virginia Township of Coshocton County, Ohio, the daughter of James Davis and Zebra Taylor. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Jackson Township of Coshocton County, Ohio:

James Davis	Self	M	52	Wales

The couple resided in Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio, where Mr. Rolston worked as a fireman. He died in February of 1927 at the age of 54.

Jennie, age 60, was in an auto accident on October 16, 1929. She died from her injuries on October 24, 1929 in Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio, and was buried in the South Lawn Cemetery in Coshocton.

- ix. ZADIE FLORENCE ROLSTON was born on 07 Feb 1876 in Coshocton Co., Ohio. She died in Oct 1953 in Coshocton Co., Ohio (age 77). She married (1) WARNER WILLIAM BUXTON, son of Noah Washington Buxton and Hannah Mikesell, on 11 Jun 1894 in Coshocton Co., Ohio. He was born on 14 Mar 1870 in Bedford Twp., Coshocton Co., Ohio. He died on 12 Aug 1941 in Coshocton Co., Ohio (age 71). She married (2) HARRISON B. LEE, son of Henry Washington Lee and Sarah Eliza Bonnett, in Mar 1950 in Ohio. He was born on 15 Jun 1878 in Perry Twp., Coshocton Co., Ohio. He died in Nov 1960 in Coshocton Co., Ohio (age 82).

Notes for Zadie Florence Rolston:

Zadie Florence Rolston was born February 7, 1876 in Coshocton County, Ohio, the youngest of nine children born to David Rolston and Catherine Adrian. In 1880, shortly after celebrating her fourth birthday, Zadie's mother died. Four years later in 1884, then at the age of 8, her father died. Her father had not remarried, and Zadie was likely raised by one of her older siblings.

On June 11, 1894 in Coshocton County, Ohio, Zadie married Warner William Buxton, the first of two husbands. The couple farmed in Coshocton County, Ohio. No children are known to have been born to their union, but in the 1910 census niece, Fern V. Ralston, was enumerated with them:

William W Buxton	Head	M	40	Ohio
Florence F Buxton	Wife	F	34	Ohio (0/0)
Fern V Ralston	Niece	F	15	Ohio

Fern was the daughter of Zadie's widowed brother, Isaac, and William's sister, Mary. Fern's mother had died shortly after giving birth.

Mr. Buxton, Zadie's husband of 47 years, preceded her in death on August 12, 1941.

In March of 1950 in Ohio, Zadie, age 74, married the widower Harrison "Harry" B. Lee, age 71.

Zadie, 77, died three years later in October of 1953 in Coshocton County, Ohio, was buried as Zadie Ralston Buxton in the South Lawn Cemetery in Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio, along side her first husband. Zadie was the youngest of her siblings, and all her brothers and sisters had preceded her in death. Her second husband Harrison died seven years later and was also be buried in the South Lawn Cemetery.

Notes for Warner William Buxton:

Warner William Buxton was born in 1870 in Bedford Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, the fourth of seven children born to Noah Washington Buxton and Hannah Mikesell.

On June 11, 1894 in Coshocton County, Ohio, Warner married Zadie Florence Rolston, the sister of Isaac V. Rolston who had married Warner's sister Mary V. Buxton the previous year. The couple farmed. Warner and Zadie did not have children.

Warner, 71, died August 12, 1941 in Coshocton County, Ohio and was buried as "William

Notes for Harrison B. Lee:

Harrison "Harry" B. Lee was born June 15, 1878 in Perry Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, one of eleven children born to Henry Washington Lee and Sarah Eliza Bonnett. Harry and his sister Laura were enumerated in the 1920 census of Perry Township of Coshocton County, Ohio:

Harry B Lee	Head	Male	51	Ohio
Laura L Lee	Sister	Female	56	Ohio
Jerry F Lee	Nephew		Male 30		Ohio

His nephew Jerry was the son of Harry's brother Lewis Howard Lee. Harry and his nephew were enumerated in the 1940 census of Perry Township:

Harry B Lee	Head	Male	61	Ohio
Jerry F Lee	Nephew		Male 41		Ohio
Ruth Lee		Niece-in-law	Female 35		Ohio [Jerry's wife]

In March of 1950 Harry, age 71, married the widow Mrs. Zadie Buxton, the former Miss Zadie Florence Rolston, age 74. She died three years later in October of 1953 at the age of 77.

Sometime after 1954, Harry married the widow Mrs. Grace Buxton, the former Miss Grace Laura Berry. Well past her child bearing years, no children were born to their union.

Harrison, 82, died in November of 1960 in Coshocton County, Ohio, and was buried in the South Lawn Cemetery in Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio. He was survived by his wife. He had no children and no known surviving siblings.

343. MARY ANN<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Silas Hinton<sup>4</sup>, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 13 Sep 1830 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 16 Oct 1874 in Brown Twp., Knox Co., Ohio (age 44). She married James C. Workman, son of Joseph Channing Workman and Sarah Connor, on 26 Aug 1849 in Knox Co., Ohio. He was born on 25 Mar 1828 in Union, Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 24 Aug 1914 in Buckeye City (now Danville), Knox Co., Ohio (age 85).

Notes for Mary Ann Rolston:

Mary Ann Rolston was born September 13, 1830 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of ten children born to Silas Hinton Rolston and Lydia Burkholder. In 1836 her father moved the family from Rockingham County, Virginia, to Knox County, Ohio, where Mary remained the rest of her life.

On August 26, 1849 in Knox County, Ohio, Mary, age 18, married James C. Workman, age 21 and a native of Knox County. Mary and James had six children; all born in Knox County. At the time of the 1860 census Mary's younger brother John was living with the family.

In the Fall of 1874 Mary fell victim to typhoid pneumonia and died October 16, 1874 at the age of 44. She was buried at the North Bend Church of the Brethren Cemetery in Jelloway, Ohio. She was survived by James, her husband of 25 years, and their six children.

Notes for James C. Workman:

James C. Workman was born March 25, 1828 in Union, Knox County, Ohio, the son of Joseph Channing Workman and Sarah Connor. James' middle name was probably Channing as was his father's. James was a farmer. James' sister Rebecca married David Rolston in 1842.

On August 26, 1849 in Knox County, Ohio, James, age 21, married Mary Ann Rolston, a cousin of David Rolston's. The couple, along with James' sister Julia, were enumerated in the 1850 census next door to James's parents. The couple farmed and raised a family of six children before Mary's death on October 16, 1874 at the age of 44. They had been married for 25 years.

On April 5, 1875 in Knox County, Ohio, the year following Mary's death, James married his second wife,

She died on 26 Nov 1909 in Buckeye City (now Danville), Knox Co., Ohio (age 58). He married (2) VIOLA WHITE, daughter of White and Dorcas Angeline Fry, on 26 Jun 1911. She was born about 1858 in Ohio. She died after 1920.

Notes for Uriah Curtis Workman:

Uriah Curtis Workman was born November 18, 1851 in Union Township in Knox County, Ohio, the eldest of six children born to James C. Workman and Mary Ann Rolston. Uriah's mother died in 1874. His father remarried in 1875, and from that union, Uriah had three half-sisters.

On September 11, 1873 in Knox County, Ohio, the year before his mother's death, Uriah married Barbara Isabella Workman. Although their relationship is unknown, Uriah and his wife were probably distant cousins. Uriah's grandfather, David Workman, and Barbara's father, Stephen D. Workman, were both born in Maryland. Uriah and Mary had one child, son Clifford, born in 1882. Uriah was a farmer but also worked as an undertaker. Uriah's wife Barbara died November 26, 1909 at the age of 58. They had been married for 36 years.

On June 26, 1911 Uriah, age 55, married Mrs. Viola Lynch McGregor. No children were born to their union. In the 1920 census his wife's mother was living with them.

Uriah, 74, died August 23, 1926 in Flora, Carroll County, Indiana, and joined his first wife in the Workman Cemetery in Danville (was Buckeye City), Knox County, Ohio. He was survived by Viola, his second wife, and his son Clifford. Also surviving were brothers Silas, Jacob, and Alonzo, and his only sister, Mrs. Alice Helser. One half-sister is also known to have survived him. Uriah was preceded in death by his parents, his stepmother, his first wife, and his youngest brother, Franklin.

Notes for Barbara Isabella Workman:

Barbara Isabella Workman was born January 1, 1851 in Howard Township of Knox County, Ohio, the daughter of Stephen D. Workman and Philena Dennison.

On September 11, 1873 in Knox County, Ohio, Barbara married Uriah Curtis Workman. He was probably a distant cousin. One child is known to have been born to the couple.

On September 18, 1896 Isaac's second wife, Sarah, died at the age of 64 and was buried in Albion Cemetery, Marshall County, Iowa.

The following month on October 18, 1896, Isaac, 63, died of liver trouble in Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa, and was buried as I. B. Rolston in the Albion Cemetery in Marshall County. He was survived by his daughters Mrs. Florance Rolston Wolfe and Mrs. Cora Rolston Bixby.

Notes for Sarah Ann Lepley:

Sarah Ann Lepley was born on September 1, 1838 or July 31, 1839 in Harrison Township, Knox County, Ohio, the daughter of Jacob Lepley and Delilah Ealy.

On March 21, 1861 in Knox County, Ohio, Sarah, age 22, married Isaac B. Rolston. The couple moved to Marshall County, Iowa, where one child, a daughter, was born in January of 1862.

Sarah, 24, died on December 18, 1862 in Marshall County, Iowa, was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Marshall County. She was survived by her husband and their daughter.

Isaac B. Rolston and Sarah Ann Lepley had the following child:

- i. FLORANCE<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born in Jan 1862 in Marshall Co., Iowa. She died on 28 Sep 1908 in Wyoming (age 46). She married Charles T. Wolfe on 14 Mar 1901 in Fremont Co., Wyoming. He was born in Apr 1852 in Ohio. He died on 18 Apr 1916 in Lander, Fremont Co., Wyo. (age 64).

Notes for Florance Rolston:

Florance Rolston was born January 9, 1862 in Marshall County, Iowa, the only child born to Isaac B. Rolston and Sarah Ann Lepley. Her parents had married in Knox County, Ohio, but soon moved to Marshall County, Iowa, where Florance was born. Florance was an infant when her mother died in December of 1862 in Marshall County, Iowa. Her father remarried in 1865, and from her father's second marriage, Florance had a half-sister. Florance's stepmother was previously married and had two sons and one daughter. The daughter was also named Florence.

Miss Florance was enumerated in the 1900 census of Fremont County, Wyoming, where she was working as a cook, probably for the Indian school as she and others resided with the superintendant of the Indian school. Enumerated with her was her stepsister, Mrs. Florence Elliott, the assistant cook.

On March 14, 1901 in Fremont County, Wyoming, Florance, age 39, married Charles "Charlie" T. Wolfe. Mr. Wolfe was about ten years her senior. No children were born to their union.

Florance, 46, preceded her husband in death on September 28, 1908 in Wyoming, probably in Lander, Fremont County, Wyoming, and was buried as Florence D. Wolfe in the Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa. Florance was survived by her half-sister, two stepbrothers and a stepsister.

LISCOMB

Oct. 1-The body of Mrs. Florence Rolston Wolf, of Lander, Wyo., who died Sunday will be brought to Liscomb for burial. The relatives accompanying the body are expected some time today. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been announced. Mrs. Wolf was a former Liscomb girl having spent her girlhood and grown to womanhood here, where she has many friends who are deeply saddened by her sudden death. Mrs. Wolf was a daughter of the late Isaac Rolston, and a half-sister of Mrs. Cora Bixby of this place.

Notes for Charles T. Wolfe:

Charles "Charlie" T. Wolfe was born in April of 1854 in Ohio. His year of birth is from the 1900 census, but his tombstone has 1852 as his year of birth. In the 1900 census Charles was working as a salesman for the Shoshone Agency in Fremont County, Wyoming. Living nearby was Florance Rolston.

Charles and Florance married on March 14, 1901 in Fremont County, Wyoming. No children were born to the couple, and she died in 1908.

On November 3, 1909 in Lander, Fremont County, Wyoming, Charles, about age 57, married Mrs. H. Marie Hennecker, about age 38. Her maiden name is unknown. No children were born from his second wife.

Charles, 62, died April 18, 1916 in Lander, Fremont County, Wyoming, and was buried in the Mount Hope Cemetery in Lander.

Pioneer Passes the Great Divide

Chas. T. Wolf died at his home in Lander, Wyoming, on Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks of kidney trouble, and was buried in the Lander cemetery on Thursday afternoon by the Masonic order, of which he was a very prominent member. Mr. Wolf had not been well for several years, but his death was not expected until during the past few days, when it was apparent that his time was short, and since Sunday he has not been conscious.

Mr. Wolf was born in Michigan 64 years ago this month, and lived in Minnesota before coming to Wyoming in 1873, leaving to survive him in that northern state a sister, two brothers and a number of half brothers and sisters. He came here with the U.S. troops which were stationed at Fort Washakie, and after an honorable discharge worked for nine years for Noble & Lane Indian Traders, of Wind River, for whom he was a trusted employee. After leaving the Wind River store Mr. Wolf took up a ranch on North Fork, which he sold a few years ago and moved to Lander.

Charlie Wolf, as he was better known among the old timers and those who knew him best, was a most self-effacing man, and little is known of his early life, but what is known is to his credit as a man of unquestionable integrity and character. He was married to Miss Florence Ralston at Fort Washakie in 1891, his wife dying a few years later. On November 3, 1909, he married Mrs. H. M. Hennecker at Lander, and that lady now mourns his death.

The deceased was a member of the three Masonic lodges in Lander, and had been the presiding officer of each of the orders, and had also been a prominent member of the local order of Eastern Star. Mr. Wolf was at the time of his death Grand Warden of the Grand Commandery, K. T. of Wyoming, and Grand Royal Arch

Captain of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Wyoming. He always took an interest in Masonic affairs and in the loyal orders had always been elected to offices of importance and trust.

The funeral was held from the Baptist church Thursday at two o'clock, and was under the charge of Rev. Schwartz, and taken part in by Rev. Clarke, Rev. Smith and Rev. Clearwater. The music was furnished by a male quartette, and the remains were followed to the grave by the Masonic order in a body, the escort being composed of Sir Knights in uniform. At the cemetery the Masonic funeral ceremony was used, being conducted by the officers of the lodge.

The floral offerings emblematical of regard and affection for the deceased, were many and beautiful, and besides those sent by the many friends and acquaintances, there were a number of set pieces from the grand and local bodies to which he belonged.

Charlie Wolf will be greatly missed by many people, but more especially by the lone wife he has left behind him, and who has the sympathy of the community. May he rest in peace.

Notes for Sarah Ann Wilson:

Sarah Ann Wilson was born March 28, 1838, in Knox County, Ohio. Her parentage is unknown, but according to the 1880 census records, they were both from Virginia.

Sarah was twice married. Her first marriage was September 20, 1855 in Owen County, Indiana, to David Hauser. Shortly after their marriage the couple removed to Marshall County, Iowa, where three children were born to their union. Her husband, David, served during the Civil War and died in an army hospital on December 3, 1862.

In September of 1865 in Iowa, Sarah married the widower, Isaac B. Rolston. The couple had one child, daughter Cora. The family was enumerated in the 1870 census of Liscomb Township in Marshall County, Iowa:

Isaac Rolston	M	37	Ohio
Sarah Rolston	F	32	Ohio
John Hansa	M	14	Iowa [Sarah's children]
Florence Hansa	F	11	Iowa
Theron Hansa	M	9	Iowa
Florence Rolston	F	8	Iowa [daughter from Isaac's first wife]
Cora Rolston	F	2	Iowa
Charles May	M	22	Illinois

Isaac, Sarah's second husband, preceded her in death in October of 1896. In the 1900 census of Marshall County, Iowa, her daughter Mrs. Cora Bixy (divorced) and grandson Isaac were living next door to her. In that census Sarah lists her father as born in Virginia and her mother in Ohio.

Sarah, 69, died April 9, 1907 in Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa, and was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa.

o'clock this morning. Mrs. Rolston's death was caused by disease of the heart, complicated with dropsy, with which she had suffered for several years. While her death was sudden it was not unexpected, as the family had known that the end might come at any time.

Sarah A. Wilson was born in Knox county Ohio, March 28, 1833. She became the wife of David Hauser in Indiana, in 1855 and the same year Mr. & Mrs. Hauser moved to Iowa and settled in Liscomb township. Mr. Hauser enlisted at the outbreak of the civil war and died in an army hospital Dec. 3, 1862.

Mrs. Hauser was married to Isaac Rolston in September 1865. He died a little more than nine years ago. Two sons and one daughter were born of the first marriage, all of whom are living. They are John F. and Theron W Hauser, the former of Santa Barbara Ca and the latter of Ames, and Mrs. Florence A. Elliott of Lander, Wyo. One daughter Mrs. Thora A Bixy who lives near Liscomb was the only child of the second marriage. One step daughter, Mrs. Florence Wolfe, a daughter of Mr. Rolston by a former marriage lives in Lander, Wyo.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Isaac B. Rolston and Sarah Ann Wilson had the following child:

- ii. CORA ADORA ROLSTON was born on 25 Feb 1868 in Marshall Co., Iowa. She died on 03 Feb 1932 in Liscomb, Liscomb Twp., Marshall Co., Iowa (age 63). She married William Melvin Bixby, son of Lorenzo Lyman Bixby and Ellen Mayo, between 1880-1886 in Liscomb, Marshall Co., Iowa. He was born on 18 Aug 1858 in Illinois. He died on 24 Aug 1943 in Iowa (age 85).

Notes for Cora Adora Rolston:

Cora Adora Rolston was born February 25, 1868 in Marshall County, Iowa, the only child born to Isaac B. Rolston and his second wife, Sarah Ann Wilson. Cora had a half-sister from her father's first marriage, and three half-brothers from her mother's first marriage. Although the census records show her given name as Cora, she may have also been known as Thora.

Sometime between 1880 and 1886 in Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa, Cora married William Melvin Bixby. One child, a son, was born to the couple. The couple divorced sometime prior to 1900. In the 1900 census of Marshall County, Iowa, Cora and her son were living next door to her mother, the widow Mrs. Sarah A. Rolston. Cora, her son, and a cousin were enumerated in the 1910 census of Liscomb Township of Marshall County, Iowa:

Cora Bixby	Head	Female	42	Iowa (1/1) (widowed)
Vernerd Bixby	Son	Male	23	Iowa
Ellsworth Wilson		Cousin	Male	47 Iowa (married)

Cora's mother was a Wilson, but exactly how Cora and Ellsworth Wilson were related is unknown.

In the 1910 and 1920 census Cora states she was widowed, but her ex husband was still living and lists himself as divorced in 1930. He died in 1943. During the 1930 census, Cora was living with her son and his family in Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa.

Cora, 63, died February 3, 1932 in Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa, and was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa.

Notes for William Melvin Bixby:

William Melvin Bixby was born August 18, 1858 in Illinois, the son of Lorenzo Lyman Bixby and Ellen Mayo. William is said to have had seven siblings, four of which died in childhood. William's mother also died at an early age. Sometime before 1880 his father had moved the family to Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa. There his father married Mrs. Theresa Hauser. From that union, William had a half-sister and a half-brother. The family, including William's step brother, was enumerated in the 1880 Census of Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa:

Lyman Bixby	Self	M	Male	W	51	NY	Farmer	VT	VT
Mursey Bixby	Wife	M	Female	W	24	IN	Keeping House	NC	NC

James Bixby	Son	S	Male	W	14	IL	At Home	NY	PA
Raymond Hauser	Stepson		S	Male	W	3	IA	At Home	IA IN

In the early 1880's in Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa, William married Cora Adora Rolston. One child was born from their union. The couple divorced before 1900. In the 1940 census William was enumerated with his son in Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa:

Bernard Bixby	Head	M		53	Iowa
Ruth M Bixby	Wife	F		45	Iowa
Sarah Bixby	Daughter		F	19	Iowa
Muriel Bixby	Daughter		F	14	Iowa
William M Bixby	Father	M		81	Illinois (divorced)

William remained with his son until his death on August 24, 1943 at the age of 85. He was buried in the Liscomb Cemetery in Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa.

In the 1944 obituary of George B. Rolston, William's deceased wife's uncle, relatives Mr. & Mrs. I.V. Bixby and L.L. Bixby were listed. "I.V." was William's son Vernard; "L.L. Bixby" was William's half brother, Lowell Lyman Bixby.

Notes for Jacob B. Rolston:

Jacob B. Rolston was born April 21, 1834 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of ten children born to Silas Hinton Rolston and Lydia Burkholder. Jacob's middle initial, "B", is thought to be Burkholder, his mother's maiden name. In 1836, when Jacob was only two years old, his father moved the family from Rockingham County, Virginia, to Knox County, Ohio. It was in Ohio where Jacob grew to adulthood and learned to farm. By 1856 Jacob had moved to Marshall County, Iowa.

On December 23, 1858 in Marshall County, Iowa, Jacob married Amaranth J. Martin. Jacob and Amaranth had two children; the first was born in 1859 in Iowa. In Albion Jacob was a dealer in grain and livestock with his brother Isaac and had a lumber business on his own. He became one of Albion's leading citizens. Jacob was among the first members of the Albion Seminary Board of Trustees in 1872. The members of the Board chose Jacob as the Treasurer. Later Jacob became the sixth mayor of Albion, serving two terms from 1875 through 1876.

In the Fall of 1888, his wife Amaranth died at the age of 56.

On April 2, 1890 in Marshalltown, Marshall County, Iowa, Jacob married Dora Astelia Pierce. After eight years of marriage, the couple had their first and only child, a daughter named Juanita. Jacob's daughter Exie, from his first wife Amaranth, died in 1947 at the age of 84, and in her obituary listed a surviving half sister, Juanita. Sometime between 1900 and 1910 Jacob, his second wife and their daughter Juanita removed to California.

Jacob, 78, died on September 21, 1912 in California, and was buried in the Mountain View Cemetery and Mausoleum in Altadena, Los Angeles County, California. He was survived by his second wife Dora, their daughter Juanita, and his two children from his first wife: Lawrence and Exie, and one grandson: Norman Edwin Rolston.

Notes for Amaranth J. Martin:

Amaranth J. Martin was born about January 24, 1832 in Ohio, the daughter of Mrs. Rachel Martin. Her stepfather was Barnet Cunningham. Amaranth may have been a variation of Samantha. Her middle initial, "J", is believed to be for Jane. She was enumerated with her mother, stepfather, siblings, and half-siblings in the 1850 census of Berlin Township of Delaware County, Ohio:

Barney Cunningham	M	55	Pennsylvania
Rachel Cunningham	F	42	Virginia
Harriett N Cunningham	F	11	Ohio
Barney H Cunningham	M	10	Ohio
Levi Martin	M	22	Ohio
William Martin	M	21	Ohio
Amasanah Martin	F	18	Ohio

Amaranth likely moved to Iowa with one of her older brothers.

On December 23, 1858 in Marshall County, Iowa, Amaranth married Jacob Rolston. She had two children by Jacob.

Amaranth, 56, died of dropsy** August 9, 1888 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa. County death records show her age as 54 years 6 months and 16 days. Her calculated date of birth from her death record would be January 24, 1834. She was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Marshall County, Iowa. Her tombstone shows her date of birth as 1832, and census records also support this year of birth. Amaranth was survived by her husband and their two children.

** "Dropsy" is an old term for the swelling of soft tissues due to the accumulation of excess water. "Edema" is the current day medical term. It is now more commonly known as congestive heart failure.

Jacob B. Rolston and Amaranth J. Martin had the following children:

- i. LAWRENCE L.<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 14 Oct 1859 in Marshall Co., Iowa. He died on 18 Jan 1927 in Portland, Multnomah Co., Ore. (age 67). He married Katharine Martha Shinn, daughter of Francis Marion Shinn and Elizabeth Baner, on 07 Apr 1881 in Marshall Co., Iowa. She was born in Jan 1863 in Illinois. She died on 23 May 1945 in Portland, Multnomah Co., Ore. (age 82).

Notes for Lawrence L. Rolston:

Lawrence L. "Lol" Rolston was born October 14, 1859 in Marshall County, Iowa, the elder of two children and only son born to Jacob B. Rolston and Amaranth J. Martin. In the 1860 census he was enumerated as L. L. Ralston. His mother died in 1888. Lawrence's father remarried, and from that union, Lawrence had a half-sister.

On April 7, 1881 in Marshall County, Iowa, Lawrence married Katharine "Kate" M. Shinn. The couple is known to have had one child. The family was enumerated in the 1895 Iowa State Census of Marshall County:

Lawrence L Rolston	M	33
Katharine Rolston		F	31
Norman E Rolston		M	1

About 1902, Lawrence moved the family to Oregon. By 1914 the couple had divorced, and his wife had remarried. Their son Norman died in 1919.

According to his obituary of 1927, Lawrence lived in Marshall County, Iowa, some thirty years ago before his death in Portland, Oregon. He was in the harness business in Whitten and Albion. He was also a drayman in Albion. After Lawrence's departure from Albion, he did not keep in touch with the family. He moved to Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon, where he lived until his death.

Lawrence, 67, died January 18, 1927 in Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon. His body was returned to Albion where he was laid to rest in the Albion Cemetery in Marshall County, Iowa. His tombstone was engraved as Lawrence L. Rolston, but some sources show his middle name as McLair. He was survived by his sister Miss Exie Rolston and half-sister, Mrs. Juanita Huff; neither sister had children.

Notes for Katharine Martha Shinn:

Katharine "Kate" M. Shinn was born in January of 1863 in Illinois, the daughter of Francis Shinn. When Katharine came to Iowa is unknown. She was enumerated as "Cata Shinn" with her older sister, Mrs. Amelia B. Thurston, in the 1880 census of Albion, Marshall County, Iowa:

William R Thurston	Self	M	42	New York
Amelia B Thurston	Wife	F	30	Ohio
Winnie E Thurston	Daughter		F	10/12 Iowa
Cata Shinn	Sister	F	18	Illinois

On April 7, 1881 in Marshall County, Iowa, Katharine, age 18, married Lawrence L. "Loi" Rolston. One child, a son, was born to the couple in 1893. The family was last enumerated in the 1900 census of Marshalltown, Marshall County, Iowa.

After the 1900 census, Katharine's husband moved the family to Oregon. The couple divorced.

By 1914, Katharine had married Andrew Duncan Moodie who was also divorced. The couple was enumerated in the 1920 census of Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon:

Andrew D Moodie	Head	M	59	Canada
Katherine Moodie	Wife	F	55	Illinois
Amelia B Manley	Sister-in-law	F	70	Ohio

No children were born to their union.

Katharine, 82, died May 23, 1945 in Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon and was buried in the Rose Cemetery in Portland. According to cemetery transcripts, Katharine was born in 1858. Kate was survived by her second husband.

- ii. EXIE L. ROLSTON was born on 27 May 1863 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa. She died on 23 Jun 1947 in Marshalltown, Marshall Co., Iowa (age 84). She married (1) NORMAN E. MIGHELL, son of Charles F. Mighell and Rosette L. Fuller, on 15 May 1884 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa. He was born on 18 Dec 1861 in DeKaib Co., Ill.. He died after 1903. She married (2) CHARLES J. BURKART, son of Jacob Burkart, on 16 Sep 1896 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa. He was born in Dec 1842 in Galena, Ill.. She married (3) CHARLES S. TOBEY, son of Elisha Toby and Lydia Swift, on 27 Feb 1917 in Des Moines, Polk Co., Iowa. He was born in 1860 in Iowa Co., Iowa. He died in 1939 in Iowa (age ~79).

Notes for Exie L. Rolston:

Exie L. Rolston was born May 27, 1863 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, the younger of two children and only daughter born to Jacob B. Rolston and Amaranth J. Martin. Her mother died in 1888. Her father remarried, and from that union, Exie had a half-sister.

Exie had a younger 1st cousin, once removed, named Exie Loduska Ralston (1885-1975).

Exie married three times, but had no children from any of these unions. Exie's first marriage was to Dr. Norman E. Mighell on May 15, 1884 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa.

"Mrs. Mighell was born in Marshall County, where she passed her girlhood days. She is well educated, and both she and her husband occupy an enviable position in the social circles of this place." {source: Marshall County History}

Dr. Mighell moved to Marshalltown in 1891, and it is assumed that Exie was still married to him at that time. In Marshalltown Exie became a chiropractor. Exie and Dr. Mighell divorced, and Exie returned to her maiden name.

On September 16, 1896 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, Exie, age 35, married Charles J. Burkart. They were enumerated in the 1900 census of Marshalltown, Iowa. They divorced by 1905.

On February 27, 1917 in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa, Mrs. Exie L. Burhart, age 53, married her third husband, Charles S. Tobey. Charles preceded her in death in 1939 at the age of 79.

Exie, 84, died June 23, 1947 in Marshalltown, Marshall County, Iowa, and was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Marshall County, Iowa, next to her late husband, Charles S. Tobey. Exie's brother Lawrence (1959-1927) was also buried there. Exie was survived by her half-sister, Mrs. Juanita Huff.

Notes for Norman E. Mighell:

Dr. Norman E. Mighell, MD. was born on December 18, 1861 in DeKaib County, Illinois, the son of Charles F. Mighell and Rosette L. Fuller. He may have been their only child. Norman entered Rush Medical College in Chicago in 1882; graduating in 1884. He moved to Whitten, Hardin County, Iowa, as a registered pharmacist. Whitten was a new town, formed only four years before Dr. Mighell's arrival. In Whitten, Dr. Mighell served as mayor of that fine city for three terms.

On May 15, 1884 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, Dr. Norman Mighell married Exie L. Rolston. In 1891, he moved to Marshalltown where he started his general and surgical practice. There were no children from their union, and Norman and Exie later divorced.

On June 9, 1903, in Marshalltown, Iowa, Norman married Jessie Arney. What became of Dr. Mighell after 1903 is not known.

Notes for Charles S. Tobey:

Charles S. Tobey was born in 1860 in Iowa County, Iowa, the son of Elisha Toby and Lydia Swift. Charles grew up on the family farm. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Washington, Butler County, Iowa:

Elisha Toby	Self	M	Male	W	59	MA	Farmer	MA	MA
Lydia S. Toby	Wife	M	Female	W	52	NH	Keeping House	NH	NH

Zenas Toby	Son	S	Male	W	14	IA	Working Farm	MA	MA
Anna Abrams	Other	S	Female	W	22	IN	Servant	IN	IN

Charles moved about the state of Iowa, living in numerous counties. In 1910 he was residing in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa. There, at the age of 57, Charles married the divorcée, Mrs. Exie L. (Rolston) Burkhart on February 27, 1917. Charles was her third husband. The couple was enumerated in the 1920 census of Marshall County, Iowa.

Tobey, about age 79, preceded his wife in death in 1939 and was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Marshall County, Iowa.

Notes for Dora Astelia Pierce:

Dora A. Pierce was born September 5, 1859 in Wisconsin, one of three daughters known to have been born to William H. Pierce and Mary Ann Warren. Sometime between 1860 and 1865, her father moved the family from Wisconsin to Iowa. In 1880 Dora, age 20, was enumerated with her family in Alden, Hardin County, Iowa.

On April 2, 1890 in Marshalltown, Marshall County, Iowa, Dora married the widower Jacob B. Rolston. He had two children from his previous marriage. Dora and Jacob had one child, a daughter, born in Iowa. The family moved to California where her husband died in 1912.

By 1920, the widowed Dora had moved in with her daughter, Mrs. Juanita Huff, and her husband Enoch Huff. They were enumerated in the 1920 census of Durango, La Plata County, Colorado. They returned to Pasadena, Los Angeles County, California, enumerated there in 1930.

Dora, 72, died June 18, 1932 in Los Angeles County, California and joined her husband in the Mountain View Cemetery and Mausoleum in Altadena, Los Angeles County, California.

Jacob B. Rolston and Dora Astelia Pierce had the following child:

- iii. JUANITA L. ROLSTON was born on 06 Jan 1899 in Iowa. She died on 21 Oct 1992 in Los Angeles Co., Calif. (age 93). She married Enoch Marvin Huff, son of Richard Huff and Martha, in 1917 in California. He was born on 02 Sep 1879 in Texas. He died on 15 Aug 1970 in Los Angeles Co., Calif. (age 90).

Notes for Juanita L. Rolston:

Juanita L. Rolston was born in December of 1898 in Iowa, according to the 1900 census, the only child born to Jacob B. Rolston and Dora Pierce. Her date of birth was later recorded as January 6, 1899. Juanita had a half-brother and a half-sister from her father's first marriage. She likely never knew her half-brother Lawrence as he left Iowa around the time of her birth. Sometime between 1900 and 1910 the family removed to California, residing in Pasadena. Her father died in 1912.

In 1917 in California, Juanita, age 18, married Enoch Marvin Huff. No children were born to their union. The couple moved to Durango, La Plata County, Colorado, where, along with her mother, they were enumerated during the 1920 census. By 1930, they had returned to Pasadena, California, taking her mother with them. Her mother died in 1932. On August 15, 1970, Juanita's husband preceded her in death at the age of 90.

Juanita, 93, died October 21, 1992 in Los Angeles County, California. She was a resident of Altadena, Los Angeles County, California, at the time of her death. She joined her parents and husband in the Mountain View Cemetery and Mausoleum in Altadena, Los Angeles County. Juanita's half-brother and half-sister had both preceded her in death.

Notes for Enoch Marvin Huff:

Enoch Marvin Huff was born September 2, 1879, in Texas, one of nine children known to have been born to Richard and Martha E. Huff. In adulthood he was known by his middle name, Marvin.

About 1918 in California, Enoch Marvin Huff married Juanita L. Rolston. They lived in Durango, La Plata County, Colorado in 1920 where he worked as a mail carrier. His widowed mother-in-law, Mrs. Dora Rolston, was living with them. By 1930 the family, including his mother-in-law, had moved to Pasadena, Los Angeles County, California.

Enoch died August 15, 1970 in Los Angeles County, California, at the age of 90, two weeks before his 91st birthday. He was buried in the Mountain View Cemetery and Mausoleum in Altadena, Los Angeles County, California. Enoch was survived by his wife Juanita. The couple had no children.

Notes for Jesse Rolston:

Jesse Rolston was born June 17, 1836 in Knox County, Ohio, the fifth of ten children born to Silas Hinton Rolston and Lydia Burkholder. Jesse spent his childhood in Knox County on the family farm, but about 1859 at the age of 23, Jesse moved to Iowa along with his brothers Issac, Jacob, John, and Silas.

On April 24, 1860 in Marshall County, Iowa, Jesse, age 24, married Catherine Melton, age 17. They had one child before he joined in the Civil War. Jesse enlisted on August 15, 1862 in the 32nd Iowa Infantry, as a Corporal in Company K. He apparently he did not like being in a position of leadership, and he requested to be reduced to the rank of Private which was granted January 23, 1863. He remained a Private until April 9, 1864 when he was promoted back to the rank of Corporal. The following year, on March 5, 1865, he was promoted to Sargent. Jesse was discharged on June 12, 1865 in Davenport, Iowa, after served two years and eleven months.

Hardly a year after returning from the "Late War", his wife Catherine died on February 12, 1866 at the age of 22.

The following year on February 19, 1867 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, the widowed Jesse married Elizabeth Ramsey. He was 30, and his new bride Elizabeth was a few months shy of her 18th birthday. Jesse and Elizabeth raised eight children, two of which died as infants. Jesse was active within the community and served as Secretary of the School Board. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Iowa Township in Marshall County, Iowa:

Jasse Ralston	Self	M	Male	W	43	OH	Farmer		VA	VA
Elizabeth Ralston		Wife	M	Female		W	31	OH	Keeping House

Nellie Ralston		Dau	S	Female		W	2	IA	OH	OH
Charlie Ralston		Son	S	Male	W	1M	IA		OH	OH

Their last child, "Willie," was born in August of 1883.

Jesse, 47, died October 27, 1883 in Marshall County, Iowa. Jesse was survived by Elizabeth, his wife of 16 years, six of their eight children, and his daughter from his first marriage.

Jesse was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa. There is a common stone that he shares with his wife Elizabeth and several of his children. The tombstone lists four of his nine children: "Charlie" (Charles T.), Nellie J., Jennie M. Reusch, and "Willie" (Jesse William), all of whom died either as children or as young adults. The tombstone was well weathered when photographed in 2004. The cause of Jesse's death is unknown. There may have been a bad gene in the family line. Many of his children died young while others, as did Jesse, died around their 50th year, and his grandchildren may have suffered the same fate.

Notes for Catherine Melton:

Jesse's first wife was Catherine Melton, born in Iowa and died in February of 1868. {The History of Marshall County, Iowa, 1878, Western Historical Company, Chicago, p. 667} Transcribed cemetery records show her death as February 12, 1866, at the age of "22 yrs., 5 mo. 14 ds.". From her age at death, Catherine's date of birth was calculate to have been August 29, 1843.

Jesse Rolston and Catherine Melton had the following child:

- i. JENNIE MALINDA<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 27 May 1862 in Marshall Co., Iowa. She died on 18 Sep 1904 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa (age 42). She married Michael Reusch on 14 Mar 1882 in Iowa. He was born about 1860 in Germany. He died on 02 May 1907 in Urbana, Benton Co., Iowa (age 47).

Notes for Jennie Malinda Rolston:

Jennie Malinda Rolston was born May 27, 1862 in Marshall County, Iowa, the only child born to Jesse Rolston and his first wife, Catherine Melton. Jennie's mother died February 12, 1866 when Jennie was only four or five years old. Jennie was about ten when her father remarried. From her father's second marriage, Jennie had three half-brothers and five half-sisters.

In 1880 Jennie, age 18, was working as a servant for David Burkhart, a hotel keeper in the city of Marshalltown, Marshall County, Iowa. The hotel was perhaps more of a boarding house as there were numerous residents who were either clerks for other local merchants or worked in the local trades. One of the residents of the hotel was a clerk named Michael "Mark" Reusch.

Jennie and Mark married on March 14, 1882. Two daughters were born to the couple. In 1904 her husband was judged insane and institutionalized. Their two daughters, ages 15 and 17, had been sent to Oregon.

Jennie, 42, died September 18, 1904 at the home of her uncle, Jacob B. Rolston in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, and was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion.

Evening Times Republican, Monday, September 19, 1904

Mrs Michael Reusch died at the home of her cousin, J B Rolston, in Albion, Sunday morning at 4 o'clock, of disease of the stomach and digestive organs. She was taken critically sick about a week ago, and from the first grew rapidly worse.

Mrs Reusch was forty five years of age, and was one of the well known women of the south part of the city, where the family has resided for a long time. She was the wife of Michael Reusch, who was adjudged insane and taken to Independence a few weeks ago. Since then Mrs Reusch has been making her home with her relatives in Albion. Besides her husband she leaves two daughters, Ethel and Pearl Reusch, who are in Portland, and a sister, Mrs Louis Avey, of Albion. No arrangements for the funeral have been made, but the body will probably be held until the daughters, who have been notified, can arrive.

Evening Times Republican, Friday, September 23, 1904

Jennie Malinda Rolston was born May 27, 1862 in Marshall county, near Liscomb. March 14, 1882 she was married to Michael Reusch and they at once began living in Marshalltown. The husband and two daughters, Ethel, aged 17 years and Pearl, aged 15 years survive her. Especially sad was the fact that the daughters are in Portland, Oregon and could not get here in time for the funeral. Her own mother died when Jennie was between five and six years old; her father, Jesse, marrying in 1868 Lizzie Ramsey Rolston, who has been to her a true mother. Of this union, four sisters and two brothers, with Mrs Rolston survive her. Dora Avey of Albion, Lenora East, Gertie Rolston, Susie Scallin, Carl and Willie Rolston, all of Mitchell, South Dakota. She died at the home of her uncle, J B Rolston, in Albion, Sunday morning, September 18, 1904. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Episcopal church in Albion Wednesday forenoon by Rev M A Goodell, assisted by Rev B C Strunk with interment in the Albion cemetery.

Notes for Michael Reusch:

Michael "Mark" Reusch was born February 27, 1854 in Germany. In 1880 he was residing at the boarding house of David Burkhart in Marshalltown, Iowa. He was a hotel clerk, but it is not known if he was a clerk for David Burkhart or for some other hotel in town. While residing at the boarding house, he met Jennie M. Rolston who was a servant there.

---

The couple married on March 14, 1882. Two daughters were born to the couple. In August or September of 1904 Michael was "... adjudged insane and taken to Independence ..." A few weeks later, his wife died in September of 1904 at the age of 42. Their two daughters had been sent to Portland, Oregon.

Michael, 47, died May 2, 1907 in Urbana, Benton County, Iowa, and was buried in the Urbana Cemetery in Urbana. He was survived by his two daughters.

Notes for Elizabeth Ramsey:

Elizabeth Ramsey was born March 9, 1849 in Highland County, Ohio, the daughter of James and Jane Ramsey.

On February 19, 1867 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, Elizabeth married the widower Jesse Rolston. [Note: According to some sources, Elizabeth had a child named Jennie M. from a previous marriage. This child is shown in this genealogy as a daughter from Jesse's first marriage. Elizabeth was a few months shy of turning 18 when she married Jesse, and a previous marriage seems unlikely.]

Elizabeth and Jesse resided in Marshall County where all eight of their children were born. Elizabeth had been married some 16 years when her husband Jesse died on October 27, 1883 at the age of 47. Although two of her children had died as infants, she was left with six children living at home with the youngest less than a year old.

About 1891, Elizabeth moved the family to Mitchell, Davison County, South Dakota. Elizabeth, one son, three daughters, and three granddaughters were enumerated there during the 1900 census. By 1920 Elizabeth had returned to Marshalltown, Iowa where she remained.

Elizabeth, 77, died of influenza on May 27, 1926 in Marshall County, Iowa, and was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion along side her husband Jesse. Her husband, three of their eight children and the stepdaughter from her husband's first marriage, had preceded her in death.

Jesse Rolston and Elizabeth Ramsey had the following children:

- ii. DORA BELLE ROLSTON was born on 30 May 1868 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa. She died on 20 Dec 1921 in Liscomb, Marshall Co., Iowa (age 53). She married William Thomas Avey, son of William H. Avey and Elizabeth Parke, on 17 Aug 1885 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa. He was born on 22 Sep 1858 in Adeline, Ogle Co., Illinois. He died on 20 Mar 1936 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa (age 77).

Notes for Dora Belle Rolston:

Dora Belle Rolston was born May 30, 1868 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, the eldest of eight children born to Jesse Rolston and his second wife, Elizabeth Ramsey. Dora had a half-sister from her father's first marriage. Dora was also known as Eudora. Dora's father died October 27, 1883 when she was about 15 years old.

On August 17, 1885 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, Dora, age 17, married William Thomas Avey, age 26. The couple farmed and was known to have had three children; one of which, their only son, died in infancy.

Dora, 53, died in December 20, 1921, in Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa, and was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa. She was survived by her husband and their daughters, Mrs. Mabel Schiebel and Mrs. Lula Collins. Also surviving were her mother, four sisters, and one brother.

Mrs. Avey was born Ralston, May 30, 1868 near Albion, where she lived until two years ago, when she moved near Liscomb. She was married to William T. Avey at Albion, Aug. 17, 1885. The husband & two daughters survive. They are Mrs. Bert Schiebel, of Liscomb & Mrs. Walter Collins, City; Mrs. Avey's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Ralston, City; three sisters and a brother are also living. The latter are Miss Gertrude R. Ralston, City; Mrs. William Scallin, Mitchel, S.D.; Mrs. E.H. East, New Underwood, S.D.; & Carl Ralston, Pierre, S.D.

Mrs. Avey was a member of Albion Presbyterian Church in which she was an active worker. The funeral will be held at the church at 1:00 Friday afternoon. Burial will be in the Albion Cemetery.

Notes for William Thomas Avey:

William Thomas Avey was born September 22, 1858 in Adeline, Ogle County, Illinois, the fourth of ten children and eldest son born to William H. Avey and Elizabeth Parke. At the age of about 10, his father moved the family from Ogle County, Illinois to Marshall County, Iowa.

On August 17, 1885 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, William married Dora Belle Rolston. The couple farmed, and three children were born to their union. In December of 1921 his wife preceded him in death at the age of 53.

William, 77, died March 20, 1936 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa and was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Marshall County, Iowa. He was survived by his daughter, Mrs. Mabel Schiebel.

Undisclosed source, Friday, March 20, 1936

OLD RESIDENT OF ALBION NEIGHBORHOOD PASSES

William Thomas Avey, an old resident of Albion, died at 5:30 this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Walter Collins six miles north of Marshalltown after an illness of two months. Mr. Avey had been in failing health for several years & death was due to debility of age & complications.

He was born in Adeline, Ill., on Sept 22, 1858, the oldest son of William H. & Elizabeth Parke Avey. When he was 8 yr. old the family came to Marshall Co., & he spent the rest of his life here with the exception of 1908, when he made his home in Lander, Wyo. He was married Aug. 17, 1885 at Albion to Dora B. Ralston. Mrs. Avey died Dec. 20, 1921. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Bert (Mabel) Schiebel of Liscomb, & Mrs. Collins, 8 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild. A son died in infancy. A sister, Mrs. Eldora Larison of Albion & four brothers, Frank K. Avey, of Backus, Minn., Clinton Avey of Montana, & John D. & Raude B. Avey of Marshalltown also survive.

Funeral Services will be held at 2:30 Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church at Albion. Burial will be in the Albion Cemetery. The body will be at the Estel Funeral Home until the hour of the service.

- iii. CHARLES T. ROLSTON was born in Mar 1870 in Marshall Co., Iowa. He died in 1873 in Marshall Co., Iowa (age ~3).

Notes for Charles T. Rolston:

Charles "Charlie" T. Rolston was born in March of 1870 in Marshall County, Iowa, the second of eight children born to Jesse Rolston and his second wife, Elizabeth Ramsey. Charles had a half-sister from his father's first marriage. Charles was enumerated on the 28th of July in the 1870 census at the age of 4/12 years (four months).

Charles, about age 3, died in 1873 in Marshall County, Iowa and was buried at the Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa.

- iv. LEONORA DELL ROLSTON was born on 17 Nov 1871 in Marshall Co., Iowa. She died on 13 Aug 1943 in New Underwood, Pennington Co., S.D. (age 71). She married Charles Hustin East, son of John F. East and Mariah, in 1893 in Iowa. He was born in Mar 1872 in Hornick, Woodbury Co., Iowa. He died in 1934 in Pennington Co., S.D. (age ~62).

Notes for Leonora Dell Rolston:

Leonora Dell Rolston was born November 17, 1871 in Marshall County, Iowa, the third of eight children born to Jesse Rolston and his second wife, Elizabeth Ramsey. Leonora had a half-sister from her father's first marriage. Leonora's father died in 1883 when she was about 12 years old. Her older sister married two years later, and Leonora was the oldest of her siblings still living at home.

In 1893 in Iowa, Leonora, about age 22, married Charles Hustin East, and the couple had three daughters. Their first child was born in South Dakota in 1894. The two remaining children were born in Iowa.

Leonora and her children were enumerated twice in 1900. First, Leonora, her husband, and children were enumerated in Sioux City, Woodbury County, Iowa. The couple separated and Leonora and the children went to South Dakota, where they enumerated with her mother in Mitchell, Davison County, South Dakota. In the second enumeration, Lenora states she was widowed. It was not uncommon for women who were separated or divorced to list themselves as widowed.

Leonora and Charles reconciled, and Charles moved the family to South Dakota. Two more children were born to the couple. By 1920 the family had settled in New Underwood, Pennington County, South Dakota. Charles preceded her in death in 1934. Leonora and family were enumerated in the 1940 census of New Underwood:

Leonora D East	Head	F	68	Iowa (widowed)
Elizabeth E East	Daughter		F	36 South Dakota
Alner G Snesrud	Son-in-law	M	50	Minnesota
Gertrude L Snesrud	Daughter		F	46 South Dakota
Elizabeth A Snesrud	Granddaughter	F	13	South Dakota
Dwight D Snesrud	Grandson		M	9 South Dakota

Leonora, 71, died August 13, 1943 in New Underwood, Pennington County, South Dakota, and was buried in the New Underwood Cemetery in New Underwood.

Notes for Charles Hustin East:

Charles Hustin East was born in March of 1872 in Hornick, Woodbury County, Iowa, the son of John F. and Maria E. East. Years later, Charles' children claim to be of Dutch descent. Although Charles' father was born in New York, Charles' paternal grandparents may have immigrated from Holland. Charles, along with his parents and siblings, were enumerated in the 1880 census of Kennebec, Monona County, Iowa:

John F. East	Self	M	Male	W	38	NY	Blacksmith & Farmer	NY	NY
Maria E. East	Wife	M	Female	W	36	IA	Keeping House	IN	NY
Arthur H. East	Son	S	Male	W	12	IA	At School	IN	NY

Chas. H. East	Son	S	Male	W	8	IA	At School	IN	NY
Zimri W. East	Son	S	Male	W	5	IA	At Home	IN	NY

In 1893 in Iowa, Charles married Lenora Dell Rolston. From their union, five children were born. The family was enumerated in the 1900 census of Sioux City, Woodbury County, Iowa. Shortly there after, the couple separated, and Lenora, with their three children, went to South Dakota to live with her mother. Charles and Lenora reconciled, and Charles moved to South Dakota, the last two of their five children being born in the Dakota's. By 1920 Charles and Lenora had settled in New Underwood, Pennington County, South Dakota.

Charles, about age 62, preceded his wife in death in 1934 in Pennington County, South Dakota, and was buried in the New Underwood Cemetery in New Underwood, Pennington County, South Dakota.

- v. GERTRUDE MAY ROLSTON was born in Jan 1875 in Marshall Co., Iowa. She died on 04 Dec 1946 in Mitchell, Davison Co., S.D. (age 71).

Notes for Gertrude May Rolston:

Gertrude "Gertie" May Rolston was born in January of 1875 in Marshall County, Iowa, the fourth of eight children born to Jesse Rolston and his second wife, Elizabeth Ramsey. Gertrude had a half-sister from her father's first marriage. Her father died in 1883 when she was about 11 years old. In 1891 her mother moved the family to Mitchell, Davison County, South Dakota. There, she was enumerated during the 1900 census, living with her mother, two sisters and a brother. Gertie was age 25 and working as a sales woman.

The family returned to Iowa sometime after 1905, and Gertrude lived with her mother in Marshalltown, Iowa in 1920. Gertrude, 45 and single, was working as a clerk at a clothing store. Gertrude likely remained at home until her mother's death on May 27, 1926. After her mother's death, Gertrude joined her siblings in South Dakota. She was enumerated in the 1935 state census of Davison County at the age of 61 and still single. In the 1940 census Gertrude was enumerated with her sister, Mrs. Susie R. Scallin, in Mitchell, Davison County, South Dakota. Her sister died in June of 1943. Two months later, sister Lenora, Gertrude's only surviving sibling, died.

Gertie, 71, died December 4, 1946 in Mitchell, Davison County, South Dakota, and was buried in the Graceland Cemetery in Mitchell. Her tombstone gives her year of birth as 1873.

- vi. SUSAN LYDIA ROLSTON was born in 1876 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa. She died on 06 Jun 1943 in Mitchell, Davison Co., S.D. (age 67). She married William D. Scallin, son of Stephen Scallin and Anna Young, in 1896 in South Dakota. He was born in 1872 in Elkland, Tioga Co., Penn.. He died on 24 Jun 1949 in Mitchell, Davison Co., S.D. (age 77).

Notes for Susan Lydia Rolston:

Susan "Susie" Lydia Rolston was born in 1876 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, the fifth of eight children born to Jesse Rolston and his second wife, Elizabeth Ramsey. Susan had a half-sister from her father's first marriage. Her father died in 1883 when she was about 8 years old. She was an educated woman, attending high school and college in Albion, Iowa. She moved to South Dakota about 1890.

In 1896 in South Dakota, Susan, age about 20, married William D. Scallin. The couple lived in Mitchell, Davison County, South Dakota. One son is known to have been born to the couple. In 1940 Susan's spinster sister, Gertrude, was living with them.

Susan, 67, preceded her husband in death on June 6, 1943 in Mitchell, Davison County, South Dakota, and was buried as Susie R. Scallin in the Graceland Cemetery in Mitchell.

Notes for William D. Scallin:

William D. Scallin was born in 1872 in Elkland, Tioga County, Pennsylvania, the fourth of six children born to Stephen Scallin and Anna Young. His father died in 1885 when William was about 13 years of age. About 1888 William removed to South Dakota. He attended school and became a pharmacist and owned his own drug store.

In 1896 in South Dakota, William married Susan "Susie" Lydia Rolston. The couple lived in Mitchell, Davison County, South Dakota. One son was born to the couple. In 1920

William's widowed mother was living with them. William's wife preceded him in death in 1943.

William, about 77 years of age, died June 24, 1949 in Mitchell, Davison County, South Dakota and joined his wife in the Graceland Cemetery in Mitchell.

- vii. NELLIE JANE ROLSTON was born in 1877 in Marshall Co., Iowa. She died on 04 Feb 1882 in Marshall Co., Iowa (age 4).

Notes for Nellie Jane Rolston:

Nellie Jane Rolston was born in 1877 in Marshall County, Iowa, the sixth of eight children born to Jesse Rolston and his second wife, Elizabeth Ramsey. Nellie had a half-sister from her father's first marriage.

Nellie, 4, died February 4, 1882 in Marshall County, Iowa, and was buried in Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, where she shares a tombstone with siblings Charles, Willie, and half-sister Jennie.

- viii. CARL ISAAC ROLSTON was born on 17 Apr 1880 in Iowa Twp., Marshall Co., Iowa. He died on 24 Oct 1942 in South Dakota (age 62). He married Minnie P. Grace in 1905 in South Dakota. She was born in 1879 in Iowa. She died on 11 Oct 1949 (age ~70).

Notes for Carl Isaac Rolston:

Carl Isaac Rolston was born April 17, 1880 in Iowa Township of Marshall County, Iowa, the seventh of eight children born to Jesse Rolston and his second wife, Elizabeth Ramsey. Isaac had a half-sister from his father's first marriage. Carl was about 3 years old in 1883 when his father died. About 1891 his mother moved the family to Mitchell, Davison County, South Dakota. There, he was enumerated during the 1900 census, living with his mother and several sisters. Carl, age 20, was working as a grocery clerk.

In 1905 in South Dakota, Carl married Minnie P. Grace. No children were born to the couple. They lived in Mitchell, Davison County, South Dakota, for the majority of their married life; last enumerated there in 1940.

Carl, 62, died October 24, 1942 in South Dakota, and was buried in the Graceland Cemetery in Mitchell, Davison County, South Dakota. He was survived by his wife. Also surviving were three sisters: Mrs. Lenora East, Miss Gertrude Rolston, and Mrs. Susan Scallin. Sisters Lenora and Susan both died the following year.

- ix. JESSE WILLIAM ROLSTON was born in Aug 1883 in Marshall Co., Iowa. He died in 1908 in Marshall Co., Iowa (age ~24).

Notes for Jesse William Rolston:

Jesse William "Willie" Rolston was born in August of 1883 in Marshall County, Iowa, the youngest of eight children born to Jesse Rolston and his second wife, Elizabeth Ramsey. Jesse had a half-sister from his father's first marriage. He may have been known as William Jesse Rolston. His father died two months after Jesse was born. About 1891, Jesse's mother moved the family to South Dakota. The family returned to Iowa sometime after 1905.

Jesse is not known to have married.

Jesse, about age 24, died in 1908 in Marshall County, Iowa, and was buried as J. Willie Rolston in the Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, where he shares a tombstone with his siblings Charlie, Nellie, half-sister Jennie, and their parents, Jesse and Elizabeth.

347. JOHN EDWIN<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Silas Hinton<sup>4</sup>, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 23 Sep 1838 in Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 11 Jan 1902 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa (age 63). He married Lydia J. Dudgeon, daughter of Hugh Dudgeon and Lydia Farnham, on 16 Feb 1862 in Knox Co., Ohio. She was born on 10 Feb 1837 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 31 Mar 1919 in Boone, Boone

Co., Iowa (age 82).

Notes for John Edwin Rolston:

John Edwin Rolston was born September 23, 1838 in Knox County, Ohio, the sixth of ten children born to Silas Hinton Rolston and Lydia Burkholder. He was born on his father's birthday. John's childhood was spent in Ohio, where he grew to adulthood. It was shortly before 1860, when John was about 20, that he drove a team out to Iowa with brothers Jacob and Jessie. While his two brothers stayed in Iowa, John returned to Knox County, Ohio, and was living with his sister Mrs. Mary Rolston Workman at the time of the 1860 census.

Two years later, on February 16, 1862 in Knox County, Ohio, John married Lydia J. Dudgeon and started a family that would grow to four children. He remained in Knox county until 1868 when he moved his family to Marshall county, Iowa. There, they farmed for the next 30 some years until John's unexpected death.

John, 63, committed suicide on January 11, 1902 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, and was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa. He was survived by Lydia, his wife of 39 year, and their four children.

Coroner F.P. Lierle held an inquest into John's death. It was determined that John had "... came to his death by his own hand ...." John had committed suicide after anguishing over the purchase of the H.N. Pratz farm just east of Albion, Iowa. For some reason, John thought that in the purchase of the farm he had made a "... bad deal - the worst in fact, that he had ever made," according to the testimony of his son as reported in the Marshalltown newspaper on January 13, 1902. The story handed down through the family, as reported by great-great grandson Stan Rolston, John hung himself in the barn.

Notes for Lydia J. Dudgeon:

Lydia J. Dudgeon was born February 10, 1837 in Knox County, Ohio, the ninth of ten children born to Hugh Dudgeon and Lydia Farnham. Lydia was named after her mother.

Lydia married John Edwin Rolston on February 16, 1862 in Knox County, Ohio. The couple remained in Knox county until 1868 when her husband moved the family to Marshall county, Iowa. She had four children, three born in Ohio and the last born in Iowa.

The routine of being a farmer's wife ended abruptly on January 11, 1902 when her husband John, in a state of depression, hung himself. Lydia's eldest child, her daughter Lydia J., and her youngest child, son John, Jr., were both unmarried and probably still living at home at the time of their father's death. Her eldest child and daughter, also named Lydia, lived with her in Boone, Boone County, Iowa until her death.

Lydia, 83, died on March 31, 1919 in Boone, Boone County, Iowa, and was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa. She was survived by her four children.

Obituary; unidentified Marshalltown paper. Transcribed by Mrs. Connie Lyall:

Lydia J. Ralston Dead

Former Albion Woman Dies at Daughter's Home in Boone.

Mrs. Lydia J. Ralston, a former well known resident of Albion, died at 10 o'clock this morning at the home of her daughter, Miss Lydia Ralston, at Boone. The message telling of Mrs. Ralston's death, received here did not state the cause of death.

Mrs. Ralston was born in Knox county, Ohio, her maiden name being Lydia Budgeion. She came to Albion fifty one years ago and made her home there until about fourteen years ago, when she went to Boone to live with her daughter. She was married near Albion to John Ralston, who died several years ago.

Mrs. Ralston is survived by two daughters Mrs. L.E.Delano, of Rockwell City and Miss Lydia Rolston of Boone, and two sons, L.L.Ralston of Albion, and J.E.Ralston of near this city.

The body will be brought to this city arriving here at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The funeral will be held from the Methodist church at Albion Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the Albion cemetery.

John Edwin Rolston and Lydia J. Dudgeon had the following children:

- i. LYDIA J.<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 18 Sep 1863 in Columbiana Co., Ohio. She died on 02 Jun 1929 in Boone, Boone Co., Iowa (age 65).

Notes for Lydia J. Rolston:

Lydia J. Rolston was born September 18, 1863 in Columbiana County, Ohio, the eldest of four children born to John Edwin Rolston and Lydia Dudgeon. Her middle name is not known but assumed to have been Jane. Lydia was about five years old in 1868 when her father moved the family to Marshall County, Iowa. Lydia attended Cornell College in Mount Vernon, Black Hawk County, Iowa, and became a teacher, teaching high school.

Lydia never married. She spent her life living at home and would have been there at the time of her father's suicide in 1902. The 1929 obituary for Lydia's mother, states that they both were living in Boone [Boone, Boone County, Iowa]. Her brother Hugh's obituary of 1941 refers to "...a sister, Miss Lydia Rolston, died a few years ago."

Lydia, 65, died June 2, 1929 in Boone, Boone County, Iowa. As was her mother and father, Lydia was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa. She was survived by her three younger siblings, sister Mrs. Elwilda Delano and brothers Hugh and John Rolston.

Obituary; unidentified Marshalltown paper. Transcribed by Mrs. Connie Lyall:

Lydia Ralston Dead

Boone teacher, former Albion girl, passes

Word was received early Sunday morning by H.E.Ralston, of Albion, telling of the death of Saturday evening of his sister Miss Lydia J. Ralston a well known teacher in the Boone Schools. Death was due to heart disease.

Miss Ralston had been in poor health for some time, altho she was not considered to be seriously ill. Saturday her brother J.E.Ralston and wife of Grundy Center drove to Boone to visit Miss Ralston, and she passed away while they were there.

Miss Ralston was born in Columiana county, Ohio, Sept. 18, 1863 the daughter of John and Lydia Ralston. She began her teaching career at the age of 17 and had never lost a day from her school work because of illness. She was a student at the old Albion Seminary and was later graduated from Cornell College, Mount Vernon. She taught in the Albion school for many years and later was in the schools at Denison, Iowa Falls, Rockford and Gilman.

For the last twenty seven years she had been instructor of higher mathiethatics {sic} in the Boone high school and had signed a contract to return there another year.

She was a member of the Albion Methodist church but had transferred her membership to the church at Boone.

Miss Ralston who was the oldest of four children is survived by a sister Mrs. Elwilda Delano of Rockwell City, and two brothers J.E.Rolston, Grundy Center, and H.S.Ralston Albion.

Funeral services will be held at 11 o'clock Tuesday from the Methodist chruch at Boone, with Rev.H.C.Travis in charge. The body will be brought to this city where services will be held 3:30 from the Estel funeral home, in charge of Rev. Mr.Smith of Albion. Burial will be in the Albion cemetery.

- ii. ELWILDA ANGELINA ROLSTON was born on 07 Jan 1865 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died in 1953 in Calhoun Co., Iowa (age 75). She married Frank Moffatt Delano, son of Edward Nelson Delano and Eilzabeth Moffatt, on 11 Dec 1884 in Iowa Twp., Marshall Co., Iowa. He was born on 31 Mar 1861 in Rodman, Jefferson Co., N.Y.. He died on 13 Aug 1908 in Iowa (age 47).

Notes for Elwilda Angelina Rolston:

Elwilda Angelina Rolston was born January 7, 1865 in Knox County, Ohio, the second of four children born to John Edwin Rolston and Lydia Dudgeon. Elwilda was about 3 years old in 1868 when her father moved the family to Marshall County, Iowa. She grew up on the family's farm.

On December 11, 1884 in Iowa Township of Marshall County, Iowa, Elwilda, age 19, married Frank Moffatt Delano, age 23. Six children were born to the couple. Her husband Frank died in 1908. The widow Elwilda Delano was enumerated in the 1930 census of Rockwell City in Calhoun County, Iowa. In the 1940 census Elwilda was enumerated in Calhoun County, Iowa, living with her daughter, Mrs. Genevieve Johnson:

Earnest A Johnson	Head	M	48	Iowa
Genevieve Johnson	Wife	F	41	Iowa
Doris Gean Johnson	Daughter	F	15	Iowa
Joan Johnson	Daughter	F	2	Iowa
Elwilda Delano	Mother-in-law	F	76	Iowa (widowed)
Harold A Tapps	Hired Hand	M	22	Iowa

In the 1941 obituary of her brother Hugh, she was noted as a resident of Lake City, Calhoun County, Iowa.

Elwilda, 75, died in 1953 in Calhoun County, Iowa, and was buried in the Rosehill Cemetery in Rockwell City, Calhoun County, Iowa.

Notes for Frank Moffatt Delano:

Frank Moffatt Delano was born March 31, 1861 in Rodman, Jefferson County, New York, the eldest of eight children born to Edward Nelson Delano and Eilzabeth Moffatt. Frank lived in New York through his childhood, moving to Iowa around the age of 16. Like his father, Frank grew up to become a farmer.

On December 11, 1884 in Iowa Township, Marshall County, Iowa, Frank married Elwilda Lydia Rolston. Six children were born to the couple.

Frank, 47, preceded his wife in death on August 13, 1908 and was buried in the Rose Hill Cemetery in Manson, Calhoun County, Iowa.

- iii. HUGH LEE ROLSTON was born on 21 Aug 1866 in Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 05 Apr 1941 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa (age 74). He married Belle Thurston, daughter of Milton Ezra Thurston and Mary J. Barton, on 17 Mar 1893 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa. She was born on 06 Feb 1867 in Jones Co., Iowa. She died on 12 Apr 1945 in Marshalltown, Marshall Co., Iowa (age 78).

Notes for Hugh Lee Rolston:

Hugh Lee Rolston was born August 21, 1866 in Knox County, Ohio, the third of four children born to John Edwin Rolston and Lydia Dudgeon. Around 1869 at the age of 3, his father moved the family from Knox County, Ohio, to Marshall County, Iowa, where Hugh would remain for the rest of his life. Like all the generations before him, Hugh became a farmer.

On March 17, 1893 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, Hugh married Belle Thurston. They had five children, the first of which died after one day. He and his wife, Belle, farmed in Marshall County for some 48 years before retiring to the city of Albion. Hugh was active in civic affairs, belonging to the International Order of Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges.

Although retired from farming, Hugh did not stop working. In Albion he was the town Marshal and Assessor, along with being the director in the Iowa Valley Mutual Insurance Company. He also served as a committeeman on the Albion Republican Party.

Hugh's death on April 5, 1941 was quite unexpected and a shock to the community. The local newspaper provided the following account:

The body of H.L. Rolston, 74, Albion, town marshal and assessor, was found hanging in the barn at his home in Albion at 1:30 Saturday afternoon by his wife who became alarmed at his failure to come to dinner and went in search of him. Although the exact hour of his death is not known, Mrs. Rolston had not noticed her husband for some time before she began to look for him. He had apparently been in his usual health.

Sheriff Harry W. Hennings, who investigated the case Saturday afternoon, said he could assign no motive for the man's act. There will be no inquest.

Not mentioned by the newspaper was that Hugh's father, John Edwin Rolston, had hung himself in 1902, some forty years ago.

Hugh was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion. He was survived by Belle, his wife of 48 years, and their four children.

Notes for Belle Thurston:

Belle Thurston was born February 6, 1867 in Jones County, Iowa, the second of two known children and only daughter born to Milton Ezra Thurston and Mary J. "Jennie" Barton. Belle's mother died sometime between 1867 and 1879. Her father remarried about 1879, and one half-brother is known to have been born.

The family's oral history says that Belle was part American Indian, a descendant of an Indian tribe in Nebraska. Evidence of any Indian ancestry has not been found. Belle's mother was born in the state of Indiana, and her place of birth may have been confused as Indian by later generations.

On March 17, 1893 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, Belle married Hugh Lee Rolston. The couple farmed just outside of Albion. Five children were born to the couple, but their first child, a daughter, died after its first day of life. Hugh eventually retired from farming, and the couple moved into the town of Albion.

Hugh, Belle's husband of over 50 years, died April 5, 1941 at the age of 74.

Belle, 78, died four years later on April 12, 1945, the same day as President Roosevelt, in Marshalltown, Marshall County, Iowa. As was her husband, Belle was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion. She was survived by four of her five children.

Times Republican, Marshalltown, Iowa, April, 1945:

Mrs. Belle Rolston, died at the home of her son, John Rolston, 511 South Fourth street, at 7:15 p. m. Thursday. The cause of death was a cerebral hemorrhage. A year ago she suffered a broken hip and altho she had not walked since that time she was able to be up in a wheel chair each day.

Mrs. Rolston was born in Jones county, near Anamosa, Feb. 6, 1867, the daughter of Milton E. and Jennie Barton Thurston. When she was a small child, the family moved to Boone county. A few years later they moved to Liscomb, where her only brother John died at the age of 16.

She was married to H. L. Rolston, March 17, 1893 at Albion. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Rolston lived on a farm northeast of Albion until 1914 when they moved to Albion. Since the death of Mr. Rolston, April 5, 1941, she had made her home with her children.

She taught school for several years and was a member of Jennings reunion and Albion Seminary associations. She was also a member of the Albion Presbyterian church, Paran Rebekah lodge, W.C.T.U. and American Legion auxiliary of Albion. As long as her health permitted she was active in community affairs.

- iv. JOHN EDWIN ROLSTON JR. was born on 19 May 1876 in Marshall Co., Iowa. He died on 19 Feb 1968 in Gladbrook, Tama Co., Iowa (age 91). He married Clara Elsie Graham, daughter of Robert Franklin Graham and Lydia Jane Crouse, on 01 Nov 1900 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa. She was born on 18 Apr 1877 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa. She died on 14 May 1968 in Iowa (age 91).

Notes for John Edwin Rolston Jr.:

John Edwin "Ed" Rolston Jr., was born May 19, 1876 in Marshall County, Iowa, the youngest of four children born to John Edwin Rolston (Sr.) and Lydia Dudgeon. He was known as Ed by the family. He spent the majority of his life in Marshall County where he was born.

On November 1, 1900 in Albion, Iowa, John, age 24, married Clara Elsie Graham, age 23. The couple farmed and raised a family of four children, two daughters and two sons, in Marshall County. In 1928, their youngest son Wallace Edwin Rolston died at the age of 16. Except for a period of time spent in San Antonio, Texas in the early 1940's, John and his wife were residents of Iowa. In Texas John and his wife ran a small grocery store.

John, 91, died February 19, 1968 in Gladbrook, Tama County, Iowa, and was buried in the Conrad Cemetery in Conrad, Grundy County, Iowa. He was survived by Clara, his wife of 68 years, and three of their four children. His wife Clara, 92, died three months later.

Waterloo Daily Courier, Feb. 23, 1968, p. 15:

Services for John Edwin Rolston, 91, retired farmer, who died Monday at the Gladbrook nursing home, were Thursday afternoon in the Methodist Church; burial in the Conrad cemetery; survived by his widow, Elsie; one son, Graham of Green Mountain; 2 daughters, Mrs. Irvin Buschbaum of Big Bear Lake, Calif., and Mrs. Horace Daggert of Conrad.

Notes for Clara Elsie Graham:

Clara Elsie Graham was born April 18, 1877 in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa, the eldest of three children and only daughter of Robert Franklin "Frank" Graham and Lydia Jane Crouse. She was known by her middle name, Elsie. Clara was enumerated with her family in the 1880 census of Iowa Township in Marshall County, Iowa:

Robert F. Graham	Self		M	Male	W	34	OH	Farmer
PA	PA
Lydia Graham	Wife	M		Female	W	26	IA	Keeping House
OH	OH
Clara E. Graham	Dau	S		Female	W	3	IA
OH	IA
Halla Graham	Son	S		Male	W	2	IA	OH
IA
Fredie Graham	Son	S		Male	W	5M	IA
OH	IA

Her youngest brother, Fredie, was not enumerated with the family in the 1900 census. Lydia lists two children as being born and two living, and thus, Fredie is believed to have died in infancy or early childhood.

On November 1, 1900 in Albion, Iowa, Clara married John Edwin Rolston, Jr.. Four children were born to the couple. In the photo, taken about 1903, Clara was holding her first born child, John. Standing to Clara's right was her mother, Lydia. To her left was her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Martha Jane McKibben Crouse. The couple lost their son Wallace in 1928 at the age of 16. Clara's husband preceded her in death on February 19, 1968 at the age of 91.

Mrs. Elsie Rolston

Funeral services for Mrs. Elsie Rolston, 91, wife of a Hot Wells grocery store operator for many years, will be held Thursday from the Johnston Funeral Home in Conrad, Iowa.

Mrs. Rolston had made her home in Conrad for about 10 years. She died Tuesday in a hospital in Marshalltown, Iowa. Her husband died several years ago.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Dagett, Conrad, Iowa, and Mrs. Ruth Buschbaum of Big Bear Lake, Calif., and a son, Grahma Rolston of Green Mountain, Iowa.

348. WILLIAM HINTON<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Silas Hinton<sup>4</sup>, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 18 Oct 1842 in Howard Twp., Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 23 May 1920 in Howard Twp., Knox Co., Ohio (age 77). He married Elizabeth Jane Livingston, daughter of Livingston and Nancy, on 08 Mar 1866 in Mt. Vernon, Knox Co., Ohio. She was born on 09 Oct 1841 in Coshocton Co., Ohio. She died on 20 Jan 1907 in Butler Twp., Knox Co., Ohio (age 65).

Notes for William Hinton Rolston:

William Hinton Rolston was born October 18, 1842 in Knox County, Ohio the seventh of ten children born to Silas Hinton Rolston and Lydia Burkholder. Unlike many of his brothers, William did not venture off to Iowa. He and his oldest brother, David, were the only sons to remain in Ohio.

William served in the Union Army during the Civil War.

On March 8, 1866 in Mt. Vernon, Knox County, Ohio, William, age 23, married Elizabeth "Eliza" Jane Livingston, age 24. Together they farmed and raised four children. The family was enumerated in the 1880 Census of Butler, Knox County, Ohio:

William Ralston	Self	M	Male	W	39	OH	Farmer	VA	VA
Eliza J. Ralston	Wife	M	Female	W	38	OH	Keeping House	PA	PA
John W. Ralston			Son	S	Male	W	13	OH	At Home	OH	OH

Ida M. Ralston	Dau	S	Female	W	8	OH	At Home	OH	OH
Nelly J. Ralston	Dau	S	Female	W	1	OH	At Home	OH	OH

William was elected as the Knox County Treasurer in 1888 and held the position for two terms until 1892. William's wife died January 20, 1907 at the age of 65; they had been married for 40 years. The 1910 census of Howard township, Knox County, Ohio, enumerated William living with his son John and family. William was listed as a widower.

William continued to reside with his son until his death on May 23, 1920 at the age of 77. A lifelong resident of Knox County, Ohio, he was buried as William Rolston next to his wife in the Bethel Cemetery in Knox County.

Notes for Elizabeth Jane Livingston:

Elizabeth "Eliza" Jane Livingston was born October 9, 1841 in Coshocton County, Ohio. The 1870

Census shows Eliza's mother, Nancy Livingston, age 61, residing in Butler Township and owing some quantity of land. When Elizabeth's family moved to Knox County, Ohio is not known.

On March 8, 1866 in Mt. Vernon, Knox County, Ohio, Elizabeth married William Henton Ralston. The couple farmed and had four children. In 1870 Eliza's mother was living with the family. In the 1900 census Elizabeth states that she has two children and two living. Odd only because she had had four children and three are known to be living at the time of the 1900 census.

Elizabeth, 65, died of cancer on January 20, 1907 in Knox County, Ohio, and was buried as "Eliza J. Rolston" in the Bethel Cemetery in Knox County.

William Hinton Rolston and Elizabeth Jane Livingston had the following children:

- i. JOHN WILLIAM<sup>6</sup> RALSTON was born on 17 Oct 1866 in Butler Twp., Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 21 Jul 1950 in Knox Co., Ohio (age 83). He married Evaline Lena Lauderbaugh, daughter of James Knox Polk Lauderbaugh and Melinda Ellen Pipes, on 12 Oct 1887 in Knox Co., Ohio. She was born on 18 Jun 1868 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 28 May 1934 in Knox Co., Ohio (age 65).

Notes for John William Ralston:

John William Ralston was born October 17, 1866 in Butler Township, Knox County, Ohio, the eldest of four children born to William Hinton Rolston and Elizabeth Jane Livingston. His father was a Rolston, but the family was always enumerated as Ralston. His parents were buried as Rolston, but all the children used the Ralston spelling.

On October 12, 1887 in Knox County, Ohio, John, age 20, married Evaline "Eva" Lena Lauderbaugh, age 18. The couple raised seven children in the Knox County area. John's widowed father lived with them.

In 1902 John purchased the Franklin Hotel. It was established in 1869 as the Howard House, a small hotel in Howard Township. John renamed it the Ralston Hotel. In addition to the hotel that John ran until he retired in 1932, he owned the Ralston Memorial Stone which continued after his death until the 1990's. In a letter dated March 30, 1932 from Demass Barnes to his cousin Edwin, "... Cousin John is in rather bad shape from a nervous disorder."

Evaline, John's wife of 45 years, died May 28, 1934 at the age of 65. In the 1940 census John was enumerated with his son William Vincent Ralston. John was 75 years old, and his son Vincent had taken over the monument business.

John, 83, died July 21, 1950 in Knox County, Ohio. As was his wife, John was buried in the Workman Cemetery in Danville, Knox County, Ohio. He was a lifelong resident of the county. He was survived by six of his seven children.

UTICA, July 22, 1950

John W. Ralston, 83, well known monument dealer of Howard, died at 7:10 p. m. Friday in the home of son, Vincent Ralston, in Howard, following a two year's illness. A native of Harrison Township, Knox County, he was born Oct. 17, 1866, the son of William and Eliza Janes (Livingston) Ralston. He was engaged in the monument business for 54 years. Mr. Ralston was a member of the Howard Church of Christ. His wife, Eva Lauderbaugh Ralston, died in 1934.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Charles Tier, Mrs. Bertha Shellenbarger, both of Mt. Vernon, Mrs. J. T. Esely of Loudonville; three sons, W. Vincent Ralston of Howard, Paul Ralston of Gambier, George Ralston of Mt. Vernon, and a sister, Mrs. Ida Colgin of Mt. Vernon.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday at the Howard Church of Christ. The Rev. Hugh Wayt will officiate and burial will be made in Workman Cemetery, Danville. Friends may call at the home of the son in Howard.

Notes for Evaline Lena Lauderbaugh:

Evaline "Eva" Lena Lauderbaugh was born June 18, 1868 in Knox County, Ohio, the eldest of twelve children born to James Knox Polk Lauderbaugh and Melinda Ellen Pipes.

On October 12, 1887 in Knox County, Ohio, Evaline married John William Ralston by which she had seven children. In 1902 she and her husband operated the Ralston Hotel in Howard Township of Knox County, Ohio. The 1910 census of Knox County, Ohio, shows an Alwilda Cullison living with the Ralston family. Alwilda was listed as an aunt, age 45, born in Ohio. The census also discloses that this is her second marriage, but her husband does not appear at the Ralston household. Alwilda was likely from Evaline's side of the family as the given name of Alwilda does not appear in husband John's branch of the Ralston/Rolston family. In 1932 or 33 Her husband sold the hotel and the couple retired.

Evaline, a lifelong resident of Knox County, Ohio, died May 28, 1934 at the age of 65. She was survived by her husband and six of their seven children. Her son John had preceded her in death some four years earlier. Evaline was buried in the Workman Cemetery in Danville, Knox County, Ohio.

- ii. FRANCIS ASBURY RALSTON was born on 09 Feb 1869 in Butler Twp., Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 16 Nov 1940 in Monroe Twp., Knox Co., Ohio (age 71). He married Alice Susanna Parker, daughter of Peter Parker and Mary Estabrook, about 1899 in Knox Co., Ohio. She was born on 22 Jun 1869 in College Twp., Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 23 Jun 1944 in Mt. Vernon City, Clinton Twp., Knox Co., Ohio (age 75).

Notes for Francis Asbury Ralston:

Francis "Frank" Asbury Ralston was born February 9, 1869 in Butler Township, Knox County, Ohio, the second of four children born to William Hinton Rolston and Elizabeth Jane Livingston. Although his father was known as Rolston, Francis and his siblings all adopted the Ralston spelling.

About 1899 in Knox County, Ohio, Francis married Alice Susanna Parker. In the 1900 census the couple was residing next door to his parents. They had been married one year. His occupation was farm laborer, and he likely worked next door on his father's farm. No children are known to have been born to the couple. The couple farmed except for around 1920 when Francis was the deputy treasurer for Knox County. By 1930 they had returned to Monroe Township, where they farmed.

Francis, 71, died of heart disease on November 16, 1940 in Monroe Township of Knox County, Ohio, and was buried as Frank A. Ralston in the Oak Grove Cemetery in Gambier, Knox County, Ohio. He was survived by his wife. Also surviving were one brother and two sisters.

Notes for Alice Susanna Parker:

Alice Susanna Parker was born June 22, 1869 in College Township of Knox County, Ohio, the fourth of seven children and the elder of two daughters born to Peter Parker and Mary Estabrook. Her parents were both immigrants from England during the 1850's.

About 1899 in Knox County, Ohio, Alice married Francis Asbury "Frank" Ralston. No children were born to the couple. The couple farmed in Knox County. Frank, her husband of 40 years, preceded her in death in November of 1940 at the age of 71.

Alice, 75, died June 23, 1944 in Mount Vernon, Knox County, Ohio, and was buried next to her husband in the Oak Grove Cemetery in Gambier, Knox County, Ohio.

- iii. IDA MAY RALSTON was born on 21 Jun 1872 in Butler Twp., Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 11 Apr 1953 in Mt. Vernon, Knox Co., Ohio (age 80). She married William Sherman Colgin, son of James Colgin and Mary Magdalene Morningstar, on 11 Nov 1891 in Knox Co., Ohio. He was born on 15 Nov 1866 in Butler Twp., Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 21 Apr 1929 in Mt. Vernon, Knox Co., Ohio (age 62).

Notes for Ida May Ralston:

Ida May Ralston was born June 21, 1872 in Butler Township, Knox County, Ohio, the third of four children born to William Hinton Ralston and Elizabeth Jane Livingston.

On November 11, 1891 in Knox County, Ohio, Ida, age 19, married William Sherman Colgin, age 24. The couple farmed. No children were born to their union. In 1910 the couple had been married for 18 years and had no children. Her husband died of cancer April 21, 1929 at the age of 61. In 1940 her grand niece Agnes Horn was living with her:

Ida M Colgin	Head	F	65	Ohio (widowed)
Agnes Horn	Niece	F	20	Ohio

Ida, 80, died April 11, 1953 in Mount Vernon, Knox County, Ohio, and was buried next to her husband in the Union Grove Cemetery in Gambier, Knox County, Ohio.

Notes for William Sherman Colgin:

William Sherman Colgin was born November 15, 1866 in Butler Township of Knox County, Ohio, the son of James Colgin and Mary Morningstar.

On November 11, 1891 in Knox County, Ohio, William married Ida May Ralston. No children were born to their union. The couple farmed in Knox County.

William, 62, died of cancer on April 21, 1929 in Gambier, Knox County, Ohio. He was buried in the Union Grove Cemetery in Gambier, Knox County, Ohio, where his parents were buried.

- iv. NELLY JANE RALSTON was born on 12 Mar 1879 in Butler Twp., Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 05 May 1941 in Mt. Vernon, Knox Co., Ohio (age 62). She married Floyd Gaumer, son of John Jerome Gaumer and Caroline Pauline Freeman, on 10 Dec 1896 in Knox Co., Ohio. He was born on 28 Sep 1871 in Harrison Twp., Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 11 Aug 1949 in Harrison Twp., Knox Co., Ohio (age 77).

Notes for Nelly Jane Ralston:

Nelly Jane Ralston was born March 12, 1879 in Butler Township, Knox County, Ohio, the youngest of four children born to William Hinton Ralston and Elizabeth Jane Livingston. She was also known as Nell and Nellie.

On December 10, 1896 in Knox County, Ohio, Nelly, age 17, married Floyd Gaumer, age 25. He was also a native of Knox County. The couple farmed in Knox County, and raised a family of two children.

Nelly, 62, preceded her husband in death on May 5, 1941 in Mount Vernon, Knox County, Ohio, and was buried in the Union Grove Cemetery in Knox County.

Notes for Floyd Gaumer:

Floyd Gaumer was born September 28, 1871 in Harrison Township of Knox County, Ohio, the second of six children attributed to John Jerome Gaumer and Caroline Pauline Freeman. Floyd and his family were enumerated in the 1880 census of the 152nd Enumeration District of Harrison, Knox County, Ohio:

On December 10, 1896 in Knox County, Ohio, Floyd, age 25, married Nelly Jane Ralston, age 17. The couple farmed, and two children are known to have been born to the couple. Floyd's wife preceded him in death in 1941.

Floyd, 77, died August 11, 1949 in Harrison Township of Knox County, Ohio, and was buried next to his wife in the Union Grove Cemetery in Harrison Township.

Notes for Sarah Elizabeth Rolston:

Sarah Elizabeth Rolston was born April 7, 1843 in Knox County, Ohio, the eighth of ten children born to Silas Hinton Rolston and Lydia Burkholder.

On January 19, 1861 in Knox County, Ohio, Sarah, age 17, married Thomas M. McLarnan. Several of Sarah's siblings headed west to Iowa, and Sarah and her husband joined them sometime after the birth of their first daughter in 1861. They resided in Union Township of Hardin County, Iowa, in 1870.

On September 7, 1870 in the Rockingham County Deed Book 7, page 62, Thomas McLarman and [wife] S.E. Larman of Hardin County, Iowa, appoint David Ralston of Ohio, power of attorney in settling the estate of David Ralston of Rockingham County, Virginia. The deceased was Sarah's paternal grandfather, David Rolstone Jr. (1760-1849), and the David granted power of attorney was Sarah's brother.

The couple's eldest child, daughter Silver Belle, died in 1877 at the age of 15. She was buried in the Albion Cemetery. In 1881 their second daughter was born.

Sarah remained in Marshall County, Iowa, until her death on October 25, 1913 in Marshalltown at the age of 70. She was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa. She was survived by Thomas, her husband of 52 years, and their younger daughter, Mrs. Sybil Blanche McLarnon Brown.

Notes for Thomas M. McLarnan:

Thomas McLarnan was born July 19, 1839 in Mount Vernon, Knox County, Ohio, the son of James McLarnan and Mary Nache Hall. The surname has been interpreted as McLarnan, McLarman and McHarmon.

On January 19, 1861 in Knox County, Ohio, Thomas married Sarah Elizabeth Rolston, and the first of two daughters was born in December of that year. Thomas is believed to have served during the Civil War. The family left Ohio and moved to Iowa. They were enumerated in Hardin County, Iowa in 1870. By 1880 they had moved to Marshall County of that state where in 1881 their second daughter was born. Their eldest daughter, Silver Belle, died there in 1877 at the age of 15. On October 25, 1913, Sarah, Thomas's wife of 52 years, died at the age of 70.

Sometime after his wife's death, Thomas moved to Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minnesota where he died in the Soldiers' Home on October 27, 1925 at the age of 86 and was buried in the Albion Cemetery in Albion, Marshall County, Iowa. Thomas was survived by his daughter, Mrs. Sybil Brown.

Thomas M. McLarnan and Sarah Elizabeth Rolston had the following children:

- i. SILVER BELLE<sup>6</sup> MCLARNAN was born on 05 Dec 1861 in Knox Co., Ohio. She died in 1877 in Albion, Marshall Co., Iowa (age 15).

Notes for Silver Belle McLarnan:

Known as Belle, her cause of death is unknown.

Samantha, 73, died November 18, 1918 in Los Angeles County, California, and was buried in the Cathedral Mausoleum of the Hollywood Forever Cemetery in Hollywood, Los Angeles County, California. She was survived by John, her husband of 53 years, and their five children.

Notes for John Roney:

John Roney was born April 8, 1836, in Ohio, the son of Mr. Roney and Ann Phillips. Nothing is known of his early life until his marriage.

On November 5, 1865 in Knox County, Ohio, John, age 29, married Samantha Jane Rolston, age 20. John was a farmer, and the couple farmed in Knox County, Ohio, where they had met and married. Sometime between 1880 and 1884 John moved his family to Grundy County, Iowa, where their fifth and last child was born. John owned a farm some 4 miles west of Conrad. His brother-in-law, John Rolston, had a farm one mile to the east.

Sometime after 1900, John and his wife moved to Pasadena, Los Angeles County, California, where they were enumerated during the 1910 census. John's wife died on November 18, 1918 at the age of 73, and John returned to Iowa. In 1920 John was living with his daughter Lulu and son-in-law, Harry Cushman Willett, in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa.

John, 86, died October 16, 1922 in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa. His remains were taken to California, where he joined his wife in the Cathedral Mausoleum of the Hollywood Forever Cemetery in Hollywood, Los Angeles County, California.

John Roney and Samantha Jane Rolston had the following children:

- i. SILAS ROLSTON<sup>6</sup> RONEY was born on 04 Apr 1866 in Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 28 Apr 1949 in Mabton, Yakima Co., Wash. (age 83). He married (1) PHOEBE MEYERS, daughter of Michael A. Meyers and Anna Beeghly, on 15 Nov 1888 in Grundy Co., Iowa. She was born on 30 Dec 1865 in Liscomb Twp., Marshall Co., Iowa. She died on 07 Jun 1891 in Irvington Twp., Kossuth Co., Iowa (age 25). He married (2) SARAH MEYERS, daughter of Michael A. Meyers and Anna Beeghly, on 09 Oct 1893 in Iowa. She was born on 03 Sep 1860 in Pennsylvania. She died on 15 Jan 1928 in Yakima Co., Wash. (age 67).

Notes for Silas Rolston Roney:

Silas Rolston Roney was born April 4, 1866 in Knox County, Ohio, the eldest of five children born to John Roney and Samantha Jane Rolston. He was named after his maternal grandfather, Silas Henton Rolston. Silas was a thin man of modest stature, 5' 6". About 1884 or before, Silas's father moved the family to Iowa.

On November 15, 1888 in Grundy County, Iowa, Silas married Phoebe Meyers. The couple had two children, a son and a daughter. Their first child was born in 1889 in Felix Township, an area west of Conrad, Iowa. His wife Phoebe died in 1891, two months after the birth of their second child.

Two years later, on October 9, 1893 in Iowa, Silas married Sarah Meyers, Phoebe's older sister. Silas and Sarah had two children together, both daughters. These two daughters grew to adulthood and married, but both died in their twenties, preceding their parents in death.

Silas moved the family to Yakima County, Washington, sometime in the 1920's. They lived in or around the small town of Grandview located in the southeast corner of the county, where Silas owned an apple orchard. There in January of 1928, Silas's second wife died at the age of 67.

Silas, 83, died April 29, 1949 in Mabton, Yakima County, Washington, and was buried next to Sarah, his second wife, in the Grandview Cemetery in Grandview, Yakima County, Washington. Near their graves is the grave of an unnamed Roney grandchild.

Notes for Phoebe Meyers:

Phoebe Meyers was born December 30, 1865 in Liscomb Township of Marshall County, Iowa, the daughter of Michael Meyers and Anna Beeghly. She grew up on the family farm.

On November 15, 1888 in Grundy County, Iowa, Phoebe, age 23, married Silas Rolston Roney. The couple had two children, a son and a daughter.

Phoebe, 25, died June 7, 1891 in Irvington Township of Kossuth County, Iowa, survived by her husband and their two children ages 2 and 4. Her place of burial is unknown.

Notes for Sarah Meyers:

Sarah Meyers was born September 3, 1860 in Pennsylvania, one of eleven children born to Michael A. Meyers and Anna Beeghly. Sarah came to Grundy County, Iowa, as a young child.

On October 9, 1893 in Iowa, Sarah, age 33, married her widowed brother-in-law, Silas Rolston Roney. Silas was the husband of Sarah's younger sister, Phoebe, who died in 1891. Silas and Sarah's sister Phoebe had had two children, then ages 2 and 4, and Sarah went from aunt to stepmother to the children. Sarah had two children by Silas, both being daughters. Both of their daughters married but died in their twenties. Sarah and Silas moved to Yakima County, Washington, near Grandview where they operated an apple orchard.

Sarah, 67, preceded her husband in death on January 15, 1928 in Yakima County, Washington and was buried in the Grandview Cemetery in Grandview, Yakima County, Washington.

- ii. MELVIN LEE RONEY was born on 18 Sep 1867 in Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 17 Aug 1943 in Kossuth Co., Iowa (age 75). He married Daisy Dean Robison, daughter of John Brinton Robison and Alida E. Smith, on 25 May 1894 in Algona, Kossuth Co., Iowa. She was born on 15 Jun 1874 in Kossuth Co., Iowa. She died on 09 Dec 1958 in Irvington, Kossuth Co., Iowa (age 84).

Notes for Melvin Lee Roney:

Melvin Lee Roney was born September 18, 1867 in Knox County, Ohio, the second of five children born to John Roney and Samantha Jane Rolston. About 1884 his father moved the family to Conrad, Grundy County, Iowa. Melvin, like his father, was a farmer.

On May 2, 1894 in Algona, Kossuth County, Iowa, Melvin married Daisy "Dasie" Dean Robison. The couple farmed in Irvington Township of Kossuth County, Iowa. In the 1900 census they were residing near his father's farm. Living with Melvin and Daisy was her widowed "Aunt Marion Smith," age 50. The couple had six children, but none had survived. Where the children were buried is unknown; perhaps on the couple's farm. The couple adopted a boy sometime between 1906 and 1910. The family was enumerated in the 1940 census of Irvington Township of Kossuth County, Iowa:

Melvin L Roney	Head	M	72	Ohio
Daisy D Roney	Wife	F	65	Iowa
Kenneth P Roney	Son	M	34	Iowa [thier adopted son]
Inez B Roney	Daughter-in-law	F	33	Minnesota
Shirley M Roney	Granddaughter	F	14	Iowa
Nina M Schichtl	Sister-in-law	F	67	Iowa (widowed)

Melvin, 75, died August 17, 1943. He was found dead in the field on his farm near Irvington in Kossuth County, Iowa, and was buried in the Laurel Hill Cemetery in Irvington Township of Kossuth County, Iowa. He was survived by Dasie, his wife of 49 years, and Kenneth, their adopted son.

Notes for Daisy Dean Robison:

Daisy "Dasie" Dean Robison was born June 15, 1874 in Kossuth County, Iowa, one of four children born to John Brinton Robison and Alida E. Smith. Alida may have been

Notes for Harry Cushman Willett:

Dr. Harry Cushman Willett was born October 8, 1870 in Illinois, perhaps in the city of Rochester in Sangamon County, the son and first born of Eli L. Willett and Sophia Moss. Harry became a physician. Sometime after 1880 Harry, and perhaps his family, moved to Iowa.

On February 11, 1895 in Iowa, Harry married Lulu Carey Roney. The couple had three children. Harry was a dermatologist. His youngest child and only son, Wendell, followed in his footsteps.

Harry, 75, preceded his wife in death on October 17, 1941 in Iowa and was buried in the Norwalk Cemetery in Norwalk, Warren County, Iowa. He was survived by his wife and their three children.

- iv. MAUDE BELLE RONEY was born on 16 Nov 1878 in Union Twp., Knox Co., Ohio. She died on 06 Oct 1956 in Pasadena, Los Angeles Co., Calif. (age 77). She married (1) RICHARD JOHN BLANCHE, son of Richard George Blanche and Elizabeth Hornby, on 25 Jan 1899 in Conrad, Grundy Co., Iowa. He was born on 31 Jul 1872 in Chicago, Cook Co., Ill.. He died on 18 Sep 1910 in Blairstown, Grundy Co., Iowa (age 38). She married (2) THEODORE LAWRENCE SYVERTSON, son of Henry Hans Syvertson and Augusta Sophia Christenson, on 10 Dec 1924 in California. He was born on 13 Oct 1878 in Illinois. He died on 14 Oct 1961 in Pasadena, Los Angeles Co., Calif. (age 83).

Notes for Maude Belle Roney:

Maude "Mande" Belle Roney was born November 16, 1878 in Knox County, Ohio, the fourth of five children born to John Roney and Samantha Jane Rolston. Only the first couple of years of her life were spent in Ohio. After the 1880 census, her father moved the family to Conrad, Grundy County, Iowa, where Maude grew to adulthood. She reached a height of only 5 feet, 2 inches. In her later years, she was described as short and stocky.

Maude, in her later years as she relayed the family oral history to her grandchildren, spoke of her parents as being very frugal. "When the home got electricity ... there was a lightbulb hanging on a cord from the center of the ceiling in every room. She said that they always used the light in only 1 room at a time and there was real trouble for you if you left a room and did not turn off the light." {source: Family History of Richard Keith Blanche, Sr., page 4}

On January 25, 1899 in Conrad, Grundy County, Iowa, Maude married Richard John Blanche, the son of English emigrants. The couple moved to Arkansas City, Kansas, where Maud gave birth to their first child on July 17, 1900. By 1903 they had returned to Iowa and were living in Marshalltown, where their second child was born. In 1910 the family moved from Conrad, Grundy County, Iowa, to Blairstown, where months later Maude's husband of ten years died at the age of 38, leaving her with two small children, ages 7 and 10. The following year Maude's in-laws moved to Pasadena, California. Maude was suffering from tuberculosis, and after her husband's death, she also moved to Pasadena, California, where she sought treatment for her disease. She spent two years at a sanitarium, where she was treated for tuberculosis; the sanitarium may have been in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

In Pasadena about 1915, Maude met Theodore Lawrence Syvertson, his wife and their children. Theodore's wife died, and on December 10, 1924, fourteen years after her first husband's death, and their children having grown up, Maude married Theodore "Teddy" Lawrence Syvertson. Maude and Theodore were both 46 years of age, and each had children from their previous marriages. There would be no issues from their marriage.

Maude, 78, died October 6, 1956 in Pasadena, Los Angeles County, California. Her remains were cremated and buried in the Mountin View Cemetery in Altadena, Los Angeles County, California. She was survived by Theodore, her second husband, and her two children from her first marriage.

Notes for Richard John Blanche:

Dr. Richard "Dick" John Blanche was born July 31, 1872 in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, the son of Richard George Blanche and Elizabeth Hornby. His parents had emigrated to the United States from Coleford, England, in April of 1871, prior to Richard's birth, and lived in Chicago at the time of The Great Chicago Fire of October 8, 1871. Richard and his family remained in Chicago until about 1880 when his father moved the family West to Conrad, Grundy County, Iowa. There Richard grew up on the family farm. As a child he was called Dickey, shortened to Dick as he grew older.

He completed his schooling and decided that he wanted to go to college. In his mother's memoirs, she (Elizabeth Hornby Blanche) writes--- "In the spring of 1892 we decided to buy a rubber tired buggy and in order to obtain the money they bought a whole lot of baby turkeys, learned how to raise them, and sold 107 of them just before Christmas for $5.00 a bird." It was at that time that Richard told them he wanted to go to Ames college. His mother said that since he was not ever going to be a farmer, they would use the buggy money and send him to college and the buggy could wait awhile. Between the years of 1894 and 1895, Richard attended Iowa State University located in Ames, Iowa, where he would become a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine. "R.J. Blanche ... the veterinary, is kept busy, these days, trotting over the country with his medicine case, and he seems to be having a good practice.-- {The Conrad Record (Newspaper), May 1, 1896}

While at college Richard played football at the Left Guard position. He was quite good and was named as one of the all time great football players for the Cyclones during the two years he was there. From Ames he went to Georgia Tech where he was paid to play football.

On January 25, 1899 in Conrad, Grundy County, Iowa, Richard married Maude Belle Roney. Sometime after their marriage he began spelling his surname as Blanche, adding an 'e' to the end of his name. The couple moved to Arkansas City, Cowley County, Kansas, shortly after their marriage, and their first child was born there. Richard and Maud had two children, the second of which was born in Marshalltown, Iowa.

Richard, 38, died September 18, 1910 in Grundy County, Iowa. "I know that my father told me that Richard John Blanche died in 1910 because of football injuries. I sort of remember that he had punctured lungs from broken ribs." {source: grandson Dr. Robert Blanche} Richard was buried in the Conrad Cemetery in Conrad, Grundy County, Iowa. He was survived by Maude, his wife of eleven years, and their two sons.

Notes for Theodore Lawrence Syvertson:

Theodore "Teddy" Lawrence Syvertson (Sr.) was born October 13, 1878 in Illinois, the youngest of seven children born to Henry Hans Syvertson and Augusta Sophia Christenson, both of Denmark. He was known as Theo. Theodore was a Spanish American War Vet and owned a store and cabins in the Arroyo Seco canyon of Pasadena.

On Febraury 11, 1903 in Los Angeles County, California, Theodore, age 23, married Minnie Rebecca Missall, age 20. Four children are known to have been born to their union before her death in January of 1924.

On December 10, 1924 in California, the widowed Theodore married the widow Mrs. Maude Blanch, the former Miss Maude Belle Roney. The family was enumerated in the 1930 census of Pasadena, Los Angeles County, California:

Theo L Syvertson	Head	M	51	Illinois
Maude L Syvertson	Wife	F	52	Ohio
Laurence Syvertson	Son	M	28	California
Arthur Syvertson	Son	M	26	California
Helen Syvertson	Daughter	F	20	California
June Syvertson	Daughter	F	16	California

No children were born to the couple. Maude preceded him in death in 1956.

Theodore, 83, died October 14, 1961 in Pasadena, Los Angeles County, California and was buried in the Foothill Cemetery in Altadena, Los Angeles County, California.

- v. BYRLE C. RONEY was born on 27 May 1884 in Conrad, Grundy Co., Iowa. He died on 23 Oct 1957 in Roswell, Chaves Co., N.M. (age 73). He married Marion McClellan on 07 Feb 1917. She was born on 24 Jan 1891 in Texas. She died on 01 Jan 1969 in Guymas, Mexico (age 77).

Notes for Byrle C. Roney:

Byrle C. Roney was born May 27, 1884 in Conrad, Grundy County, Iowa, the youngest of five children born to John Roney and Samantha Jane Rolston.

On February 7, 1917, Byrle married Marion McClellan. The couple had two children. The family lived in Roswell, Chaves County, New Mexico for some period of time.

"Byrle was a millionaire 3 times as he talked about it. The first 2 times he made it with sheep and lost it with sheep. In the early days he and a bask sheep header camped out and lived with the sheep on the open ranges of New Mexico. He said the last time, to get a restart, he borrowed money at 12% which was unheard of in the 30's. He diversified and not only bought sheep but also raised both cotton, and cattle, and never went broke again.

When I saw him, he and [son] Wirt not only had a big ranch in Artesia, but were running cattle up in Colorado. He was retired in 1952 but still had some kind of an interest in the ranch which Wirt was running. Byrles daughter Marion was living with them and I am fairly certain that she never married." {Robert Blanche}

Byrle, 73, died October 23, 1957 in Roswell, Chaves County, New Mexico and was buried in the South Park Cemetery in Roswell. He was survived by his wife and their two children.

Notes for Marion McClellan:

Marion McClellan was born January 24, 1891 in Texas. Her parentage is unknown, but according to the 1910 census, both of her parents were born in Florida. Marion was enumerated as a roomer with the Bassett family in the 1910 census of Roswell, Chaves County, New Mexico:

Ben H Bassett	Head	M	38	Texas
Ethel Bassett	Wife	F	33	Texas
John W Bassett		Son	M	10 Texas
Marion McClellan	Roomer	F	19	Texas
Annie Debose	Servant	F	46	Texas (black female)

Marion married Byrle C. Roney on February 7, 1917. Two children were born to the couple. In 1957 her husband preceded her in death.

Marion was vacationing in Guymas, Mexico, when she suffered a heart attack on New Year's Day. {Roswell Daily Record, Thurs, Jan. 2, 1969, p. 2, c. 5} On the following day the newspaper reported her death as the 2nd of January, adding that she had been vacationing in Mexico with family at the time of her death. Marion died at the age of 77, just a few weeks before her 78th birthday. Her body was returned to Roswell, Chaves County, New Mexico, and buried in the South Park Cemetery in Roswell. She was survived by her daughter Marion. Her son Wirt had preceded her in death the previous year.

351. SILAS HINTON<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON JR. (Silas Hinton<sup>4</sup>, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 15 Aug 1847 in Knox Co., Ohio. He died on 17 Nov 1925 in Liscomb, Marshall Co., Iowa (age 78). He married Hulda Catherine Hauser, daughter of John H. Hauser and Eliza Ann Middleton, on 17 Jan 1869 in Marshall Co., Iowa. She was born on 16 Jun 1850 in Owen Co., Ind.. She died on 21 Oct 1935 in Marshall Co., Iowa (age 85).

Notes for Silas Hinton Rolston Jr.:

Silas Hinton "Hint" Rolston Jr. was born August 15, 1847 in Knox County, Ohio, the youngest of ten children born to Silas Hinton Rolston and Lydia Burkholder. Silas was known by his middle name Hinton or some times just Hint.

Hinton came to Marshall County, Iowa in the fall of 1867, shortly after the death of his father, and joined up with his brothers who had moved there some seven years earlier. A year had barely passed before his marriage to Hulda Hauser on January 17, 1869. He was age 21 and Hulda just 18. Their first home was a farm northeast of Albion in Marshall County, Iowa. There they started their family of five children; a sixth child died in infancy. They resided at their first farm for five years (1869-1875) before moving to what would later be called the Rolston Farm, some 5 1/2 miles east of Liscomb. Silas and his family were enumerated in the 1880 census of Liscomb Township in Marshall County, Iowa:

Henton Rolston	Self	M	Male	W	32	OH	Farmer		VA	VA
Hulda Rolston	Wife	M	Female		W	30	IN	Keeping House		NC
Laura Rolston	Dau	S	Female		W	7	IA	At Home	OH	IN
Clyde Rolston	Son	S	Male	W	4	IA	At Home	OH	IN
Maud Rolston	Dau	S	Female		W	2	IA	At Home	OH	IN

They lived and worked on the farm for 32 years, from 1875 to about 1907, before turning the farm over to their son George. From the Rolston Farm they retired to Liscomb for the remaining 18 years of their life together. Amongst family members, the farm had become known as The Home Place, and it would be the location of the many family reunions that were to follow.

Hinton was in declining health during the last years of his life. On November 17, 1925 at the age of 78, he died at his home in Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa, with his wife and all four of his surviving children present. He was buried in the Liscomb Cemetery in Liscomb.

Notes for Hulda Catherine Hauser:

Hulda Catherine Hauser was born June 16, 1850 in Owen County, Indiana, the daughter of John H. Hauser and Eliza Ann Middleton. Her parents were both from North Carolina but married in Indiana. Her father moved the family from Indiana to Iowa after 1864.

On January 17, 1869 in Marshall County, Iowa, Hulda, age 18, married Silas Hinton Rolston Jr., age 21. The majority of their life together was spent on the farm where Hulda and Silas brought five children into the world. A sixth child was either stillborn or died in infancy. Their first-born child, Laura, died in 1902 at the age of 32. About 1907 Hulda and Silas retired from farming, turning the farm over to one of the sons, and moved into the city of Liscomb. The couple was enumerated in the 1910 census of Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa:

Hulda Rolston	Wife	Female	59	Indiana (6/4)
John Hauser	Father-in-law	Male	88	North Carolina (widowed)

Her father died the following year.

On November 17, 1925, Hinton, her husband of 56 years, died at the age of 78. In the 1930 census Hulda was enumerated twice. Once at her home in Marshall County, Iowa, and again with her daughter, Mrs. Maud Steelsmith, in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa.

Hulda, 85, died October 21, 1935 in Marshall County, Iowa, and was buried in the Liscomb Cemetery in Liscomb. She was survived by four of her six children.

Silas Hinton Rolston Jr. and Hulda Catherine Hauser had the following children:

- i. LAURA ESTELLA<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 01 Oct 1872 in Marshall Co., Iowa. She died on 21 Jun 1902 in Marshalltown, Marshall Co., Iowa (age 29). She married Fredrick Perkins Lierle, son of I. Albert Lierle and Elvira Kathrine Perkins, on 15 Jun 1894 in Marshall Co., Iowa. He was born on 23 Dec 1871 in Adams Co., Illinois. He died on 10 Sep 1919 in Cherokee, Cherokee Co., Iowa (age 47).

Notes for Laura Estella Rolston:

Laura Estella Rolston was born October 1, 1872 in Marshall County, Iowa, the eldest of six children born to Silas Hinton Rolston Jr. and Hulda Catherine Hauser. Her childhood was spent on the family farm. The first farm was located near Albion. The family lived there until 1875 when they moved to a farm outside of Liscomb.

On June 15, 1894 in Marshall County, Iowa, Laura, age 21, married Dr. Fredrick "Fred" Perkins Lierle. Two children were born to the couple.

Laura, 29, died June 21, 1902 in Marshalltown, Marshall County, Iowa. A lifelong resident of the Marshall County area, Laura was buried in the Riverside Cemetery in Marshalltown. She was survived by her husband and their two children. Also surviving were her parents, three brothers: Clyde, George and John, and one sister, Miss Maude Rolston. She was preceded in death by one unknown sibling who died in infancy or early childhood.

Notes for Fredrick Perkins Lierle:

Dr. Fredrick "Fred" Perkins Lierle, MD was born December 23, 1871 in Adams County, Illinois, the eldest of four children born to I. Albert Lierle and Elvira Kathrine Perkins. One of his three siblings died in childhood. By 1877 his father had moved the family to Iowa. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Greenfield Township of Warren County, Iowa:

Albert Lierle	Self	M	Male	W	34	IL	Farmer

Daniel, about age 72, died in 1950 in Liscomb, Marshall County, Iowa and was buried in the Conrad Cemetery in Conrad, Grundy County, Iowa.

- iv. UNKNOWN ROLSTON was born about 1880 in Marshall Co., Iowa. Unknown died before 1900 in Marshall Co., Iowa.

Notes for Unknown Rolston:

This unknown child was born between 1878 and 1881 (or about 1880) in Marshall County, Iowa, the fourth of six children born to Silas Hinton Rolston, Jr. and Hulda Catherine Hauser. There was a five year span between the births of their third and fourth child. There was another five year span between their fifth and sixth child (1883-1886) in which this child could have been born.

This unknown child died prior to the 1900 census. In that census Hulda reported having given birth to six children, five still living.

- v. GEORGE BURDETTE ROLSTON was born on 28 Jul 1882 in Marshall Co., Iowa. He died on 05 Sep 1944 in Marshalltown, Marshall Co., Iowa (age 62). He married Lenora Sarah Wiley, daughter of Allen Dolly Wiley and Mariah Frances Conrad, on 13 Feb 1908 in Chicago, Cook Co., Ill.. She was born on 25 Jun 1883 in Conrad, Grundy Co., Iowa. She died on 29 Nov 1954 in Marshalltown, Marshall Co., Iowa (age 71).

Notes for George Burdette Rolston:

George Burdette Rolston was born July 28, 1882 on the family farm in Marshall County, Iowa, the fifth of six children born to Silas Hinton Rolston Jr. and Hulda Catherine Hauser. Silas and Hulda lived in Marshall County, but the town of Conrad in Grundy County was closer. George went by his middle name, Burdette, or G.B. and some called him Dette.

On February 13, 1908 in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, George married Lenora "Nora" Sarah Wiley. Six children were born to the couple; the first of which died in infancy. George and his wife lived all of their married life on the Rolston Farm about two miles southwest of Conrad, Iowa in neighboring Marshall County. It was not George's intent initially to be a farmer. "He didn't like farming (actually he had his entrance papers for dental school) but his father talked him into staying on the farm because it was [for the] good of the family ...", says George's daughter Mrs. Betty R. Silverman. (source: letter dated Nov. 9, 1999) She went on to say that, "He was good at farming however, and also was into politics as trustee of Liscomb Twsp., president of the Conrad School Board for 14 years and in 1935 was closely affiliated with the Pioneer Seed Corn Company."

Burdette paid extra to have the Iowa Light and Power run an electric line to his farm. This was around 1930. Soon after, he went to Conrad's hardware store, Dastel and Roebok, and bought a refrigerator for $90. This was about the first one in the neighborhood. Not long after at some neighborhood work session, one farmer criticized Burdette for extravaganza because he couldn't afford such a luxury. Another neighbor answered back, "Nora Rolston has five kids to feed and take care of and that refrigerator will sure help out a lot!" {source: newspaper article in the Conrad Record, Grundy County, Iowa published in

Irena M Rolston		Wife	F	50	Iowa
Lois Faith Rolston		Daughter	F	21	Nebraska
Almyra Whorrall		Aunt	F	68	Iowa [Irena's widowed aunt]

In 1940 Earle was working as an electrical engineer. Sometime before 1944 the couple moved to Richmond, Wayne County, Indiana. They lived in Indiana for the remainder of their lives.

John, 79, died January 8, 1967 in Wayne County, Indiana, and was buried as "J. Earle Rolston" in the Earlham Cemetery in Richmond, Wayne County, Indiana. He was survived by his wife and their five children. Also surviving was one brother, Clyde Antone Rolston.

Notes for Irma May McClain:

Irma May McClain was born August 19, 1889 in Grundy County, Iowa, the eldest child of Dr. William Henry McClain and Ada Cornella Wiley. Her parents were Presbyterians.

On February 11, 1909 in Conrad, Grundy County, Iowa, Irma, age 19, married John Earl Rolston, age 21. Five children were born to their union. They resided in Iowa until about 1944 when they removed to Indiana. There in January of 1967 her husband of almost 58 years died. Irma remained in Indiana.

Irma, 91, died June 24, 1981 in Wayne County, Indiana and was buried next to her husband in the Earlham Cemetery in Richmond, Wayne County, Indiana.

Notes for Elizabeth Rolston:

Elizabeth "Betsy" Rolston was born September 16, 1823 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of three children to be born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston and his first wife, Catharine Beery. Elizabeth's mother died when she was a young child. Her father married Barbara Ann Burkholder in 1834. From her father's second marriage, Elizabeth had five half-brothers and four half-sisters.

On April 7, 1842 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Elizabeth married her 1st cousin, William Rolston, son of Jesse Rolston Sr. and Jane Hinton, Elizabeth's aunt and uncle. Elizabeth's brother, Abraham, later married William's sister, Hannah. Elizabeth and William had twelve children. Only eight of the twelve children lived to adulthood. On May 5, 1887, William, her husband of 44 years, died at the age of 67.

Mary, 75, died July 11, 1899 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and joined her husband in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

Notes for William Rolston:

William Rolston was born February 5, 1820 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of ten children born to Jesse Rolston Sr. and Jane Hinton.

On April 7, 1842 in Rockingham County, Virginia, William married his 1st cousin, Elizabeth Rolston, the daughter of Benjamin F. Rolston and Catharine Beery, who were William's uncle and aunt. The couple lived their entire lives in Rockingham County and raised 12 children. Four children died in early childhood. During the 1850 Rockingham census, William and his family of six children were found living next door to his parents, Jesse and Jane Rolston. William was listed as a laborer and likely worked on his father's farm. William's brother Benjamin also lived next door.

In 1869 their youngest child died at age 1-1/2. The place of death was listed as Joe's Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia. William and Elizabeth's residence was likely located along Joe's Creek.

William, 67, died May 5, 1887 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried as William Rolston in the Cooks Creek Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. He was survived by Elizabeth, his wife of 45 years, and eight of their twelve children.

William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston had the following children:

- i. LUCRETIA J.<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 07 Sep 1842 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 15 Nov 1911 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 69). She married Joseph Howver, son of John Howver and Barbary Funk, on 05 Jul 1863 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 21 Dec 1841 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 28 Jun 1900 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 58).

Notes for Lucretia J. Rolston:

Lucretia J. Rolston was born September 7, 1842 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of twelve children born to 1st cousins, William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston.

On July 5, 1863 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, Lucretia married Joseph Howver. Joseph was of the United Brethren faith. Lucretia left the Presbyterian church and join the faith of her husband. The couple had six children. Their fifth child died at the age of two days. The remaining five children were all brought up in the Brethren faith. Lucretia and Joseph were lifelong residents of the Rockingham area, farming in the Linville area.

In January of 1891 their daughter Leana, Mrs. Simon Kagey, died. Leana's daughters, Bertha and Manola, lived with Lucretia and her husband after their mother's death. Two years later in January of 1893, Lucretia's daughter Sallie died. Joseph, Lucretia's husband of nearly thirty-seven years, died June 28, 1900 at the age of 58. After her husband's death, Lucretia lived with her eldest son, John.

Lucretia, 69, died November 15, 1911 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and joined her husband in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia. Four of Lucretia's six children had preceded her in death; she was survived by son John Perry Howver and daughter Siddle, Mrs. David Ralston Deavers.

Notes for Joseph Howver:

Joseph Howver was born December 21, 1841 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the the second of four sons born to John Howver and Barbara Funk. His mother died in 1850 when Joseph was eight years old. His father later remarried but died during the Civil War.

On July 5, 1863 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, Joseph married Lucretia J. Rolston. Joseph was a farmer and member of the Brethren faith. Lucretia was pregnant with their sixth child at the time of the 1880 census. Living with the family during that census was Joseph's stepmother, Mary.

Joseph, 58, died June 28, 1900 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen. He was survived by Lucretia, his wife of 36 years, and three of their six children.

- ii. SARAH CATHERINE ROLSTON was born on 27 Dec 1843 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died in 1901 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 57). She married Benjamin Franklin Dove, son of George Dove III and Melvina Peach, on 15 Oct 1866 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 26 Nov 1843 in Virginia. He died in 1901 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 57).

Notes for Sarah Catherine Rolston:

Sarah "Sallie" Catherine Rolston was born December 27, 1843 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of twelve children to be born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. Her middle initial, "C" or sometimes found as "K", was likely for Catherine or Katherine. In 1860 Sarah's family was residing next door to the Dove family.

On October 15, 1866 Sarah married her neighbor, Benjamin Franklin Dove. The couple resided in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, where they farmed and raised a

Sarah and her husband, both age 57, died in 1901 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and were buried at the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia. Sarah was a lifelong resident of Rockingham County. Two of her seven children preceded her in death.

Notes for Benjamin Franklin Dove:

Benjamin Franklin "Frank" Dove was born November 26, 1843 in Virginia, the second of twelve children known to have been born to George Dove III and Melvina Peach. He was known as Franklin and later as Frank. In 1860 Franklin was 17, living in Harrisonburg and working on his father's farm. They lived next door to the Rolston family.

On October 15, 1866 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Benjamin married his neighbor, Sarah C. Rolston. Seven children were born to the couple, but one died in infancy. Benjamin was a farmer and carpenter.

Benjamin and his wife both die in 1901 and were buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singer Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- iii. ANN E. ROLSTON was born on 25 Nov 1845 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 18 Jan 1912 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 66). She married John Frederick Wright, son of Lawson Wright and Nancy B. Redner, on 29 Dec 1887 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 15 May 1860 in Augusta Co., Va.. He died on 03 Mar 1913 in Linville Dist., Rockingham Co., Va. (age 52).

Notes for Ann E. Rolston:

Ann "Annie" E. Rolston was born November 25, 1845 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of twelve children born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. She was known as Annie. Her middle initial 'E' was probably for Elizabeth after her mother. Ann was a lifelong resident of Rockingham County. She lived a spinster's life at the home of her parents until the death of her father in 1887.

On December 29, 1887 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Annie, age 42, married John Frederick Wright, age 27. No children were born to the couple.

Ann, 66, died January 18, 1912 in Harrisonburg, Virginia, and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by her husband of 25 years; he died the following year. Besides her husband, Ann was survived by sisters, Alice and Hanna, and brothers, Abraham and John.

Notes for John Frederick Wright:

John Frederick Wright was born May 15, 1860 in Augusta County, Virginia, the son of Lawson Wright and Nancy B. Redner.

On December 29, 1887 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John, age 27, married Ann E. Rolston, age 42. No children were born to the couple. Ann, his wife of 24 years, preceded him in death on January 18, 1912 at the age of 66.

On December 18, 1912 in Rockingham County, Virginia, John, age 52, married Mrs. Hettie L. Kenney, the former Miss Hettie Lou Ritchie, age 32.

John, 52, died of stomach cancer the following year on March 3, 1913 in the Linville District of Rockingham County, Virginia, and joined his first wife in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia. Informant on his death certificate was Alice Wright, Harrisonburg.

- iv. SILAS W. ROLSTON was born on 19 Oct 1847 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 09 Sep 1904 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 56). He married Julia Ann Johnson, daughter of William B. Johnson and Mary Horne, on 03 Oct 1872 in Linville Creek, Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 23 Jan 1848 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 05 Jun 1877 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 29).

Notes for Silas W. Rolston:

Silas W. Rolston was born October 19, 1847 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fourth of twelve children born to 1st cousins, William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. Silas, like his ancestors before him, grew up to become a farmer.

On October 3, 1872 in Linville Creek of Rockingham County, Virginia, Silas married Julia Ann Johnson. The couple had three children, but only their first child survived to adulthood. On June 5, 1877, days after the stillbirth of their third child, Silas's wife of five years died from complications from her recent stillbirth. Silas was 29 at that time of her death. His only surviving child was his daughter Lucy who was then age three. There is no record of Silas remarrying.

Silas, 56, died September 9, 1904 in Singes Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen. He had been a lifelong resident of Rockingham County.

Notes for Julia Ann Johnson:

Julia Ann Johnson was born January 23, 1848 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of William B. Johnson and Mary Horne. She was enumerated in the 1870 census living with Silas and his family.

On October 3, 1872 in Linville Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia, Julia married Silas W. Rolston. Julia conceived three children of which only one survived.

Julia, 29, died June 5, 1877 in Rockingham County, Virginia, a week after giving birth to the couple's third child, William. This son died the same day as his birth, possibly a still birth, and Julia's death was likely from complications arising from this birth. Both were buried at the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia. Julia was survived by Silas, her husband of but five years, and their first child, daughter Lucy, who was but three years old.

- v. SAMANTHA ROLSTON was born on 28 Dec 1848 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 04 Dec 1851 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 2).

Notes for Samantha Rolston:

Samantha Rolston was born December 28, 1848 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of twelve children born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. In the 1850 census of Rockingham County, Virginia, Samantha appears as Mary, age six months.

According to the research of Robert Swank, Samantha died December 4, 1851, three weeks before her third birthday. Her place of burial is unknown.

- vi. ABRAHAM D. ROLSTON was born on 16 Nov 1852 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 13 Oct 1944 in Monmouth Twp., Warren Co., Ill. (age 91). Virginia, the sixth of twelve children born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. Growing up on his father's farm, Abraham would also become a farmer.

On November 15, 1877 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Abraham married Alberta "Bertie" Elizabeth Nisewarner. The couple had six children over the course of the next twenty years. They started their family in Rockingham County where Abraham, and his young family were enumerated during the 1880 census along with Abraham's brother John who was living with them. Within a year or so after the census, Abraham moved the family West to Kansas and then pushed on into Illinois. By 1895 they resided in Phelps, Warren County, Illinois, where their last two children were born. In the 1900 census, Abraham's widowed older brother, Silas, was living with them. Abram, as he was then known, had put aside farming and had gone into business as a coal dealer. He then went into general merchandise. Bertie, Abraham's wife of nearly 60 years, preceded him in death on May 16, 1935 at the age of 78.

Abraham, 91, died October 13, 1944 in Monmouth Township of Warren County, Illinois, and was buried as Abram D. Ralston in the Monmouth Cemetery in Monmouth.

On December 22, 1881 in Rockingham County, John married Martha "Mattie" Jane Huston. The couple moved to Illinois where they raised five children, three daughters and two sons. According to the census of Lenox Township in Warren County, Illinois, where the family was enumerated in 1900 and 1910, their second child Minnie was born in Virginia in 1886. All the other children were born in Illinois. It seems that the family left Illinois and returned to Virginia for some period of time, only to go back to Illinois.

John, 79, preceded his wife in death on July 5, 1935 in Tompkins, Warren County, Illinois, and was buried as John D. Ralston in the Monmouth Cemetery in Monmouth, Warren County, Illinois.

Notes for Martha Jane Huston:

Martha "Mattie" J. Huston was born September 27, 1859 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of Nathan Huston and Mary Hill. Martha was enumerated in Linville, Rockingham county, Virginia during the 1880 census. She was living with her widowed mother. Martha's maternal uncle, John Hill was living with them.

The following year on December 22, 1881 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Mattie, age 22, married John David Rolston, age 25. The couple moved to Illinois where they farmed. All their five children were born in Illinois except for their second child who, according to the 1900 and 1910 census, was born in Virginia. In 1900 four children had been born to the couple and four were living. In the 1910 census Martha states she has had five children and all five are still living. Whether there were really only five births is curious as there is a seven year gap between the birth of their second and third child. John, Martha's husband of 53 years, preceded her in death on July 5, 1935.

Martha, 88, died April 3, 1948 in Monmouth, Warren County, Illinois and was buried as Martha J. Ralston in the Monmouth Cemetery in Monmouth.

- ix. JESSE M. ROLSTON was born on 19 Mar 1858 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 15 Sep 1862 in Joe's Creek, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 4).

Notes for Jesse M. Rolston:

Jesse M. Rolston was born March 19, 1858 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the ninth of twelve children born to 1st cousins William Rolston and Elizabeth Rolston. [Some sources list him as Jesse Marion Byrd Rolston, born March 21, 1858 in Brush Land, Virginia.]

Jesse died September 15, 1862 at Joe's Creek, Rockingham County at the age of four. Cause of death, unknown. His place of burial in Rockingham County is unknown.

- x. ALICE E. ROLSTON was born on 13 Apr 1860 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 18 Nov 1922 in Monmouth, Warren Co., Ill. (age 62). She married William Henry Rinker, son of Jonathan Rinker and Anna, on 20 Dec 1883 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born in Jun 1861 in Virginia. He died on 21 Aug 1931 in Monmouth, Warren Co., Ill. (age 70).

Notes for Abraham Rolston:

Abraham Rolston was born October 27, 1827 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of three children and only son born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston & Catharine Beery. His mother, Catharine, died during Abraham's early childhood. His father married Barbara Ann Burkholder in 1834. From his father's second marriage, Abraham had five half-brothers and four half-sisters.

On December 14, 1853 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Abraham married Hannah Jane Rolston, his 1st cousin. Abraham's sister, Elizabeth, had married Hannah's brother some years earlier. Abraham took up farming and had a place in a remote area of Rockingham County, between Linville Creek and Little North Mountain, that was known as "Bush Country." Four children were born to the couple, but their first child died at the age of two. Abraham would never live to see his last child born.

Abraham had contracted a disease while serving in the Confederate Army during the Civil War. He succumbed to this disease on August 9, 1864 at the age of 36. Abraham was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham. He was survived by his wife and two of his three children. His fourth child was born the month following his death.

Many years after Abraham's death when making repairs to the porch of his old house, a very much dried ham was found hidden in the porch ceiling. It was passed down through the family oral history that during the Civil War, Abraham would hide his salt meat in the porch ceiling.

Notes for Hannah Jane Ralston:

Hannah Jane Ralston was born June 12, 1826 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eighth of ten children born to Jesse Rolston Sr. and Jane Hinton.

On December 14, 1853 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Hannah married Abraham Rolston, a first cousin. Three children were born to the couple, but their first child, daughter Susan, died at the age of two. After ten years as husband and wife, Abraham died in August of 1864. Hannah was pregnant with their fourth child, giving birth the following month. Hannah was 38 and still a young woman at the time of Abraham's death, but she never remarried. In the 1870 census of the Linville District of Rockingham County, Hannah was living on a farm with her three surviving children. Working on the farm is her nephew David Hopkins, age 23. Hannah was living next door to William and Elizabeth Rolston.

Hannah's daughter Elizabeth married Lewis Swank. In 1900, Hannah was living with her daughter and son-in-law in the Linville District of Rockingham County. The 1900 census erroneously lists Hannah as only having one child and one child still living.

Hannah, 78, died April 12, 1905, a lifelong resident of the Rockingham County area and joined her husband in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County. She was survived by two of her four children.

Abraham Rolston and Hannah Jane Ralston had the following children:

- i. SUSAN JANE<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 19 Sep 1858 in Joe's Creek, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 02 Feb 1861 in North Mountain, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 2).

Notes for Susan Jane Rolston:

Susan Jane Rolston was born September 19, 1858 in Joe's Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of four children born to first cousins Abraham Rolston and Hannah Jane Ralston.

Susan died February 2, 1861 of the "croup" at age 2 years, 4 months and 14 days. Her place of burial is unknown.

- ii. BENJAMIN FIELDING ROLSTON was born on 12 May 1860 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 13 Dec 1946 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 86). He married Lydia Isa Dora May, daughter of John H. May and Anna Beery, on 08 Feb 1891 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 20 Jan 1868 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 11 Mar 1950 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va. (age 82).

Notes for Benjamin Fielding Rolston:

Benjamin Fielding Rolston was born May 12, 1860 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of four children born to 1st cousins Abraham Rolston and Hannah Jane Ralston. Benjamin's father died August 9, 1864 when Benjamin was four years old. His mother did not remarry. Benjamin was a lifelong resident of Rockingham County, a farmer, and a member of the United Brethren Church.

On February 8, 1891 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Benjamin, age 30, married Lydia Isa Dora May. Known by Dora, she was 8 years his junior. The couple had five children, all daughters, but two of the five daughters died in 1916 during the influenza epidemic. Like most Rolston's of the time, Benjamin was a farmer. He did, however, serve at least one term as Justice of the Peace for Rockingham County.

Benjamin, 86, died December 13, 1946 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen. He was survived by Dora, his wife of 44 years, and three of their five daughters.

Notes for Lydia Isa Dora May:

Lydia Isa Dora (or Isadora) May was born January 20, 1868 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of John H. May and Anna Beery. She was known as Dora.

On February 8, 1891 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, Dora married Benjamin Fielding Rolston. The couple farmed. Five daughters were born to the couple, two of which died in 1916, probably of influenza. Benjamin, her husband of 54 years, preceded her in death on December 13, 1946 at the age of 86.

Dora, 82, died March 11, 1950 in the Smithland Nursing Home in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried as Dora L. Rolston next to her husband in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- iii. ELIZABETH CATHARINE ROLSTON was born on 01 Jun 1862 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 08 Mar 1909 in Virginia (age 46). She married Louis Elmer Swank, son of Joseph Harvey Swank and Mary Catherine May, on 09 Oct 1892 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 20 Aug 1867 in North Mountain, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 12 Jan 1929 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 61).

Notes for Elizabeth Catharine Rolston:

Elizabeth "Bettie" Catharine Rolston was born June 1, 1862 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of four children born to cousins Abraham Rolston and Hannah Jane Ralston. Her eldest sister Susan had died four months before her birth. Elizabeth likely had no recollection of her father as he died in August of 1864 when Elizabeth was two years old. Her mother did not remarry.

On October 9, 1892 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Elizabeth married Louis Elmer Swank. Six children were born to the couple; their third child died at birth. The family was living in the Linville District of Rockingham County during the 1900 census; Elizabeth's widowed mother was living with the family, helping Elizabeth with the newborn twins that were not yet a month old. Also helping with the family was Sada Hopkins, Elizabeth's first cousin, once removed.

Elizabeth, 46, died March 8, 1909 and was buried at the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County. Her cause of death is unknown. She was survived by her husband and five of her six children. Her husband would later remarry.

Notes for Louis Elmer Swank:

Louis Elmer Swank was born August 20, 1867 in North Mountain, Rockingham County, Virginia, the son of Joseph Harvey Swank and Mary May.

On October 9, 1892 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Louis married Elizabeth Catharine Rolston. The couple had six children, one of which died at birth. His wife Elizabeth died March 8, 1909 at the age of 46, leaving him with five children.

Seven months later on November 7, 1909 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Louis married Effie Jane Hopkins; Effie was the granddaughter of John A. Hopkins and Malinda J. Rolston and second cousin of Louis's first wife. Louis and Effie had five children. The family was enumerated in the 1920 census of the Linville District of Rockingham County:

Lewis E Swank	Head	M	52	Virginia
Effie J Swank	Wife	F	42	Virginia
Edna B Swank	Daughter	F	23	Virginia
Ruth E Swank	Daughter	F	19	Virginia
Reul E Swank	Son	M	19	Virginia
Winnie J Swank	Daughter	F	16	Virginia [youngest child of Louis Swank and Elizabeth Rolston]
Dorothy V Swank	Daughter	F	9	Virginia [eldest child of Louis Swank and Effie Hopkins]
Ava E Swank	Daughter	F	7	Virginia
Glen O Swank	Son	M	5	Virginia
Ruby G Swank	Daughter	F	2-3/12	Virginia
Lois F Swank	Daughter	F	2/12	Virginia

Louis, 61, died of pneumonia on January 12, 1929 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Singers Glen Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia. Besides his second wife, he was survived by ten of his eleven children.

Tombstone had date of death as January 12 and death certificate gives January 13.

- iv. AMANDA BELLE ROLSTON was born on 30 Sep 1864 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 25 Jul 1892 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 27).

Notes for Amanda Belle Rolston:

Amanda Belle Rolston was born September 30, 1864 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of four children born to first cousins, Abraham Rolston and Hannah Jane Ralston. Amanda was born a month after her father's death.

Amanda never married.

Amanda, 27, died of a fever on July 25, 1892 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County. She was survived by her mother, brother Benjamin and sister Elizabeth. Her eldest sister Susan had died at the age of two, three years before Amanda's birth.

354. DAVID HINTON<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Benjamin Fielding<sup>4</sup>, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 07 Jan 1844 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 09 Jul 1907 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 63). He married Siddie Virginia Kite, daughter of Conrad H. Kite and Caroline S. Allenbaugh, on 21 Oct 1875 in Staunton, Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 11 Jan 1847 in Virginia. She died on 08 Sep 1915 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 68).

Notes for David Hinton Rolston:

David Hinton Rolston was born January 7, 1844 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the forth of nine children born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston and his second wife, Barbara Ann Burkholder. His middle name is also found as Hinton. David had a surviving half-brother and half-sister from his father's first marriage.

David was said to have been injured during the Civil War, the wound would not heal and eventually resulted in his death. In 1870 David was living at home with his parents. His occupation was school teacher.

There was a David Rolston, said to have been a relative to the brothers, John H. Rolston & James P. Rolston, who sign for a bond on David's behalf. The nature of the bond has not been researched nor has it been confirmed that this particular David is the "distant relative, David Rolston" referred to by the descendants of Holmes Rolston [the 1st]. Through a process of elimination, David Henton Rolston seems to be the only 'David Rolston' who both lived in the appropriate time frame and geography region. Unlike the oral history passed down through the descendants of Holmes Rolston, this David Rolston was a first cousin to the brothers, John H. & James P. Rolston, and not normally considered a 'distant' relative. From the family oral history David "...absconded with the money, to Texas" (p. 94, Rolston-Ralston Family Line). No evidence has been provided nor found to support this part of the family's oral history.

On October 21, 1875 in Staunton, Rockingham County, Virginia, David, age 31, married Siddie Virginia Kite, age 28. Four daughters were born to the couple, but their first child died in infancy. The couple and their second daughter, the first having already died, were enumerated in the 1880 census of Harrisonburg; David was the jailor and sheriff. It is not know how long he served in this capacity. In the 1900 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, David, his wife and their three daughters were residing next door to David's brother John and widowed sister, Mrs. Sarah "Sally" Hopkins.

David, 63, died July 9, 1907 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. David was survived by his wife and three of their four daughters.

Notes for Siddie Virginia Kite:

Siddie Virginia Kite was born January 11, 1847 in Virginia, the eldest child of Conrad. H. Kite and Caroline S. Allenbaugh. Her father died in 1858, and her mother married Jacob Clinedinst in 1867. The family was enumerated in the 1870 census of Elk Run Township, Rockingham County, Virginia:

Jacob Clinedinst	Head	M	54	Virginia
Carrie Clinedinst	Wife	F	43	Virginia
Siddie Kite	Daughter	F	22	Virginia
Conrad H Kite	Son	M	11	Virginia
Emma Kite	Daughter	F	19	Virginia

On October 21, 1875 in Staunton, Rockingham County, Virginia, Siddie married David Hinton Rolston.

Four daughters were born to their union, but their first daughter died in infancy. Most of their married life was spent in Harrisonburg. Her husband preceded her in death in 1907. Her three daughters had not married and remained living at home.

Siddie, 68, died September 8, 1915 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by the younger three of her four daughters.

David Hinton Rolston and Siddie Virginia Kite had the following children:

- i. ROSE<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born about 1876 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died about 1876 in Rockingham Co., Va. ((infant)).

Notes for Rose Rolston:

Rose Rolston was born about 1876 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of four daughters born to David Hinton Rolston and Siddie Virginia Kite. Given name may have been Rosa.

Rose died as an infant. There is no visible marker for her at the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, but she does appear in their records as buried in plot 220.7, grave 8.

- ii. EMMA KITE ROLSTON was born in Aug 1879 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 28 Aug 1955 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 76).

Notes for Emma Kite Rolston:

Emma Kite Rolston was born in August of 1879 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of four daughters born to David Hinton Rolston and Siddie Virginia Kite. Emma's older sister, Rose, had died in infancy.

Emma never married. She lived at her mother's home, along with her two younger sisters, until the death of her mother in 1915. The three spinster sisters were enumerated together in the 1920 census of Harrisonburg, Virginia, still living in their parent's home:

Emma K Ralston	Head	F	40	Virginia
Katie Ralston	Sister	F	37	Virginia
Carrie Ralston	Sister	F	35	Virginia

Her sister Katie died in 1927. That same year, sister Carrie married. The sisters had lived at 57 Cantrell Avenue in Harrisonburg since 1910. Sometime after her sisters' departure, Emma became a lodger at 112 Cantrell Avenue.

Emma, 75, died August 28, 1955 in Rockingham County, Virginia, a lifelong resident of the county, and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, next to her two younger sisters, both having preceded her in death.

- iii. KATIE LEE ROLSTON was born in Jan 1881 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 06 Sep 1927 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 46).

Notes for Katie Lee Rolston:

Katie Lee Rolston was born in January of 1881 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of four daughters born to David Hinton Rolston and Siddie Virginia Kite.

Katie never married. She lived at home until her parents deaths and remained there with her spinster sisters afterwards. She taught one year (1901-1902) at the North Mountain Academy. The school was located in the western part of Rockingham County near Hopkin's Mill and Singers Glen Road. She was enumerated as a school teacher in the 1910 and 1920 census.

Katie, 46, hung herself on September 6, 1927 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by two sisters: Miss Emma Rolston and Mrs. Carrie Beery.

- iv. CARRIE BURKHOLDER ROLSTON was born on 21 May 1884 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 02 Sep 1942 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 58). She married Cyrus Henry Beery, son of Henry C. Berry and Emma J. Murray, on 11 Jun 1927 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 03 May 1869 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died in 1943 in Virginia (age ~74).

Notes for Carrie Burkholder Rolston:

Carrie Burkholder Rolston was born May 21, 1884 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of four daughters born to David Hinton Rolston and Siddie Virginia Kite. Her eldest sister, Rose, died in infancy.

Her father died in 1907, and as did her two older sisters, Carrie lived at home with her widowed mother until her mother's death in 1915. In 1920 Carrie and her two older sisters, Emma and Kate, were enumerated together, still living in their parent's home. By 1920, Carrie had graduated from a nursing program.

On June 11, 1927 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Carrie, age 43, married the widower, Cyrus Henry Beery. No children were born to the couple. Later that same year, Carrie's sister Katie committed suicide at the age of 46.

Carrie, about age 58, preceded her husband Cyrus in death on September 2, 1942 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia next to her sister Katie who had preceded her in death in 1927. Her sister Emma was buried next to them in 1955. Carrie's husband, who died the year following Carrie's death, was buried in the Oak Lawn Cemetery next to his first wife.

Notes for Cyrus Henry Beery:

Cyrus Henry Beery was born May 3, 1869 in Virginia, one of nine children born to Henry C. Berry and Emma J. Murray. Cyrus and his brother Casper were living with their parents and grandparents, Henry and Lydia Berry, on the family farm in Linville, Rockingham County, Virginia at the time of the 1880 census. Cyrus was age 11 and his occupation was listed as servant. In the 1900 census, Cyrus was still living at home with his parents, and he was the only surviving child of the nine siblings.

On June 11, 1902 in the District of Columbia, Cyrus, age 33, married Rose Effie McCarthy, age 33. Children born to their union, if any, are unknown. Effie died in of lung cancer in 1926 and was buried in the Oak Lawn Cemetery.

On June 11, 1927 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Cyrus married Miss Carrie Burkholder Rolston. No children were born to the couple. Carrie preceded Cyrus in death in 1942 at the age of about 58. She was buried in the Oak Lawn Cemetery next to her sister.

Cyrus, about 74 years old, died the year following his wife's death and was buried next to his parents and his first wife, Effie, in the Oak Lawn Cemetery in Bridgewater, Rockingham County, Virginia.

Notes for Ellen Copeland Rolston:

Ellen "Ella" Copeland Rolston and her twin sister Rebecca were born September 20, 1845 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth and sixth of nine children born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston and Barbara Ann Burkholder. Ellen had a surviving half-brother and half-sister from her father's first marriage.

On May 25, 1871 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Ellen married David Newton Hopkins, her 1st cousin, once removed, Ellen and David were both descendants of David Rolstone Jr.. The couple had five children. In 1871 Ellen and her husband moved to Rappahannock, Fauquier County, Virginia, where they were enumerated during the 1880 census with one child, Fielding, age 1. David was a farmer, and perhaps a prosperous one as he has two servants in his household. The couple remained in Fauquier County until their deaths. In the 1900 census Ellen reports having had five children, all still living.

David, her husband of 58 years, preceded her in death in 1929. In the 1930 census, the widowed Ellen was enumerated in the Lee District of Fauquier County, Virginia, living with her son David and his family.

Ellen, 85, died September 29, 1930 in Lee, Fauquier County, Virginia, and joined her husband in the Remington Cemetery in Remington, Fauquier County, Virginia.

Notes for David Newton Hopkins:

David Newton Hopkins was born March 11, 1847 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of ten children born to Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston. In the 1870 census of Rockingham County, Virginia, David was residing with and working on the farm of his widowed aunt, Mrs. Hannah Rolston.

The following year on May 25, 1871 in Rockingham County, David married his 1st cousin, once removed, Ellen Copeland Rolston. The couple removed from Rockingham County sometime after their marriage and were enumerated on their farm in Fauquier County, Virginia in 1880. They remained there until their deaths. Five children were born to their union.

David, 82, preceded his wife in death on December 18, 1929 in Fauquier County, Virginia, and was buried in the Remington Cemetery in Remington, Fauquier County, Virginia.

David Newton Hopkins and Ellen Copeland Rolston had the following children:

- i. FIELDING R. HOPKINS was born on 06 Jul 1878 in Fauquier Co., Va.. He died on 12 Jun 1966 in Wetzel Co., W.V. (age 87). He married Virginia A. Steele, daughter of Alfred B. Steele and Fraauna Stansbury, on 08 Sep 1903 in Wetzel Co., W.V.. She was born on 19 Jun 1874 in West Virginia. She died on 29 Apr 1931 in Wetzel Co., W.V. (age 56).

Notes for Fielding R. Hopkins:

Fielding R. Hopkins was born July 6, 1878 in Fauquier County, Virginia, the eldest of five children born to 1st cousins, once removed, David Newton Hopkins and Ellen Copeland Rolston. He was later known as Fieldon. His middle initial 'R' was probably Rolston or perhaps Ralston. His father was the son of Thomas Gordon Hopkins and Sarah Rolston. Sometime before 1900, Fielding moved to Smithville, Wetzel County, West Virginia, where he was enumerated during the 1900 census at the age of 21.

On September 8, 1903 in Wetzel County, Fielding married Virginia "Jennie" A. Steele. The couple is known to have had one child, a son. The family left West Virginia, moving to Washington D.C. where they were enumerated in the 1910 census. Fielding's brother Gilbert was living with them there. By 1920, Fielding, his wife, and son had returned to West Virginia. The family was enumerated in Paden City of Wetzel County where Fielding owned a hardware store. Son John had married and his wife and daughter were living at Fielding's home at the time of the 1930 census. Fielding remained in Paden City for the rest of his life. Fielding's wife Virginia died on April 29, 1931. In March of 1966, their only known child, son John, died at the age of 60.

Fielding, 87, died three months later on June 12, 1966 in Wetzel County, West Virginia. He, his wife, and their son were all buried in the Northview Cemetery in New Martinsville, Wetzel County, West Virginia.

Notes for Virginia A. Steele:

Virginia A. Steele was born June 19, 1874 in West Virginia, the fourth child born to Alfred B. Steele and Fraauna Stansbury. She was known as Jennie during her childhood. She was likely born in Wetzel County where the family was enumerated during the 1880 Census of Grant, Wetzel County, West Virginia:

Notes for Catherine Sallie Hopkins:

Catherine "Kate" Sallie Hopkins was born January 20 1883 in Fauquier County, Virginia, the third of five children and only daughter born to 1st cousins, once removed, David Newton Hopkins and Ellen Copeland Rolston.

In 1899 in Fauquier County, Virginia, Catherine married James Leonard Foster. The newly weds were enumerated with her husband's maternal grandfather in 1900. The couple farmed and raised a family of five children. Her husband preceded her in death in November of 1925 from an apparent gunshot wound.

On July 10, 1936 in Fairfax County, Virginia, the widowed Catherine, age 53, married the widowed Rufus Wesley "Jim" Wren, age 58. He preceded her in death in June of 1960 at the age of 83.

Catherine, 82, died January 25, 1965 in Falls Church, Fairfax County, Virginia, and joined her first husband in the Remington Cemetery in Remington, Fairfax County, Virginia.

Notes for James Leonard Foster:

James Leonard Foster was born June 3, 1879 in Fauquier County, Virginia, the youngest of three children born to William Frederick "Fred" Foster and Mary Roena Groves. In 1880 James, his two older siblings, and their mother were enumerated with James and Virginia Groves. They were James Foster's maternal grandparents.

In 1899 in Fauquier County, Virginia, James married Catherine "Kate" Sallie Hopkins. The couple was enumerated with his maternal grandfather in the 1900 census of Remington, Fauquier County, Virginia:

James C Groves	Head	Male	75	Virginia
James L Foster	Grandson		Male	21	Virginia (married 5/12)
Kate C Foster	Granddaughter	Female	17	Virginia

The family farmed in Fauquier County until sometime around 1920 when they operated a dairy farm in Fairfax County.

James, 46, died November 17, 1925 in Remington, Fauquier County, Virginia. His death certificate states his cause of death as a "Probably Gunshot Wound." There was no indication as to whether it was self-inflicted or from foul play. No autopsy was performed. James was buried in the Remington Cemetery in Remington. James was survived by his wife and their five children.

Notes for Rufus Wesley Wren:

Rufus Wesley "Jim" Wren was born October 23, 1876 in Falls Church, Fairfax County, Virginia, the son of John Wesley Wren and Lucy Annieslina Payne.

On November 9, 1898 in Fairfax County, Virginia, Rufus married Mary Annette Phillips. Five children are known to have been born to their union. Their younger son preceded them in death in 1924. Mary, Rufus's wife of 31 years, preceded him in death in August of 1930.

On July 10, 1936 in Fairfax County, Virginia, the widowed Rufus married the widowed Catherine Sallie "Kate" Hopkins. No children were born to their union.

Rufus, 83, died June 15, 1960 in Falls Church, Fairfax County, Virginia. He was buried in the Oakwood Cemetery in Falls Church where he shares a tombstone with his sons, Joseph Eugene Wren (1917-1924) and Cline Emerson Wren (1901-1964).

His WWI Draft Card and Death certificate have his birth as 23 Oct 1876, but his tombstone has the year 1882.

- iv. GILBERT ROBERT HOPKINS was born on 03 Sep 1888 in Culpeper, Culpeper Co., Va.. He married Grace Gertrude Gay, daughter of Sidney Gay and Amanda Thomas, about 1916. She was born in Aug 1893 in Virginia.

Notes for Gilbert Robert Hopkins:

Gilbert Robert Hopkins was born September 3, 1888 in Culpeper, Culpeper County, Virginia, the fourth of five children born to 1st cousins, once removed, David Newton Hopkins and Ellen Copeland Rolston.

In the 1900 census, the census taker erased the original entry for the given name and wrote in Robert. The child's relationship of 'daughter' and the gender, 'F' for female, were left unchanged. Gilbert appears in the 1910 census of Washington, D.C. as Gilbert R. Hopkins, age 21, living with his eldest brother Fielding and family. Gilbert worked as a motorman on street cars. He later got a position as a helper at the naval shipyard in Washington, D.C..

About 1916, Gilbert married Grace Gertrude Gay. One child is known to have been born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1920 census of Washington, D.C.:

Gilbert R Hopkins	Head	Male	33	Virginia
Grace G Hopkins	Wife	Female	26	Virginia
Ellen C Hopkins	Daughter	Female	3-3/12	District of Columbia
Frank F Foster	Brother-in-law	Male	27	District of Columbia
Lennie M Foster	Sister-in-law	Female	21	Virginia [Grace's sister]
Frances M Foster	Daughter	Female	1-2/12	District of Columbia

Over the years, Gilbert worked his way up in the naval shipyard to the position of inspector.

Nothing is known of Gilbert after 1942.

Notes for Grace Gertrude Gay:

On May 21, 1968 in Arlington, Virginia, the widowed Grace, age 75, married the widower Charles Rosser Guthrie, age 67.

- v. DAVID ELMER HOPKINS was born on 10 Mar 1891 in Fauquier Co., Va.. He died on 12 Aug 1990 in Virginia (age 99). He married Mary Lillian Olinger about 1911. She was born on 16 Feb 1895 in Virginia. She died on 16 Feb 1992 in Virginia (age 97).

Notes for David Elmer Hopkins:

David Elmer Hopkins was born March 10, 1891 in Fauquier County, Virginia, the youngest of five children born to 1st cousins, once removed, David Newton Hopkins and Ellen Copeland Rolston.

About 1911 in Virginia, David married Mary Lillian Olinger. Six children were born to their union. David's father died in December of 1929, and David took over the family farm. The family was enumerated on their dairy farm in the 1930 census of the Lee District of Fauquier County, Virginia:

D E Hopkins	Head	M	39	Virginia
Mary Lee Hopkins	Wife	F	34	Virginia
Lillian Hopkins	Daughter	F	17	Virginia
Louise Hopkins	Daughter	F	15	Virginia
Elmer Hopkins	Son	M	8	Virginia
Gladys M Hopkins	Daughter	F	5	Virginia
Robert Lee Hopkins	Son	M	2	Virginia
Joseph A Hopkins	Son	M	0/12	Virginia
Ellen C Hopkins	Mother	F	85	Virginia (widowed)

David, 99, died August 12, 1990 in Virginia and was buried in the Remington Cemetery in Remington, Fauquier County, Virginia where Elmer's parents had been buried.

Notes for Mary Lillian Olinger:

The daughter of James Peyton Olinger and Adelia Rebecca Ashby. Her mother died in 1908. Mary was enumerated with her father and stepmother in the 1910 census of the Lee District of Fauquier County, Virginia. David Hopkins, Mary's future husband, also lived in the Lee District of Fauquier County.

Notes for Rebecca L. Rolston:

Rebecca L. Rolston and her twin sister Ellen were born September 20, 1845 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth and sixth of nine children born to Benjamin Feilding Rolston and Barbara Ann Burkholder. Rebecca is assumed to be the first born as she was always listed before her twin sister. Rebecca had a surviving half-brother and half-sister from her father's first marriage.

On October 31, 1878 [October 3 according to some sources] in Rockingham County, Virginia, Miss Rebecca Rolston, age 33, married the widower Isaac C. Deavers, age 46, becoming his second wife and stepmother to his children. The couple lived in Rockingham County where seven children were born to the couple. In the 1880 census the family was enumerated in the Central District of Rockingham County. They had one daughter, and Rebecca was pregnant with their second child who was born several months after the census was taken. In the 1900 census Rebecca states that she has given birth to 7 children, 6 are living.

Isaac, Rebecca's husband of 31 years, died May 8, 1910 at the age of 73. After his death Rebecca went to live with her daughter, Mrs. Barbara Ritchie, and was enumerated there in the 1920 census of Rockingham County, Virginia. She likely remained there until her death.

Rebecca, 78, died April 2, 1924 in Rockingham County, Virginia, was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. Rebecca was survived by five of her seven children. Daughter Emma had preceded her in death seven years earlier. Also surviving was Rebecca's twin sister, Mrs. Ellen Hopkins, and the youngest of the siblings, brother Calvin.

Notes for Isaac C. Deavers:

Isaac C. Deavers was born May 9, 1833 near Lacey Spring, Rockingham County, Virginia, the son of Thornton Deavers and Mary C. "Polly" Summers. His middle name may have been Carson. Isaac was a farmer.

On September 20, 1855 in Virginia, Isaac, age 22, married Amanda Messick. The couple resided in Rockingham County, Virginia where the couple is said to have had nine children; only six of the nine children are known by name. Amanda, his wife of nearly 25 years died on August 2, 1875, at the age of 41.

Three years later on October 31, 1878 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Isaac, age 45, married Rebecca L. Rolston, age 33, and she became the stepmother to his children still living at home. Isaac and Rebecca had seven children. Of these, only six are known by name. In the 1880 census, the father of his first wife, Asher Messick, was living with Isaac and his second wife Rebecca. The census also lists Elizabeth Messick, perhaps an unmarried sister-in-law of Isaac's.

Isaac died May 8, 1910, the day before his 76th birthday, in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. He was survived by his second wife, Rebecca, and numerous children from his two marriages. Son Franklin and daughter Emma from his first wife, as well as one child from his second marriage, are known to have preceded him in death.

Daily Newsrecord, Harrisonburg, Virginia, Tuesday, December 6, 1955

Miss Deavers, 76, Dies at Hospital

Miss Ella Deavers, 76, a native land former resident of Rockingham County for a number of years, who had been making her home at New Creek, W. Va., for the past 31 years, died at 6:15 Monday evening at Rockingham Memorial Hospital.

Miss Deavers had not been well for the past six weeks and had been a patient in the hospital since, Oct. 29. Little promise had been held for her recovery.

A daughter of the late Isaac Deavers and Rebecca Rolston Deavers, she was born in Rockingham County where she spent the early years of her life. She moved into the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Flemings when she was a girl of 14 years and had made her home with this family and the succeeding generations since that time. She had been residing with the Flemings family in New Creek, W, Va., since 1924.

She possessed a kind and friendly disposition and endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact. She was a member of the Methodist Church in West Virginia.

She is survived by two sisters; Miss Polly Deavers, of Timberville, and Mrs. Barbara Ritchie, of Harrisonburg; a brother, David Ft. Deavers, of Singers Glen; and a half-sister, Mrs. Laura B. Steele, of Park View. A number of nieces and nephews also survive.

She was preceded in death by a number of sisters and brothers and half-sisters and half-brothers. The body is at the Lindsey funeral home pending final funeral arrangements. Burial will be in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church cemetery.

Notes for Wylie Carson Fleming:

Wylie Carson Fleming was born August 1, 1873 in Purgitsville, Hampshire County, West Virginia, the son of Samuel Fleming and Martha Taylor. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of the Mill Creek District of Hampshire County, West Virginia:

Samuel Fleming	Self	Male	40	Virginia
Martha Fleming	Wife	Female	26	Virginia
Nettie M Fleming	Daughter		Female 8	Missouri
Wily C Fleming	Son	Male	6	West Virginia

By 1900 the family had removed to the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia. In that census Wylie's mother states she has had one child; one living. Sister Nettie, enumerated in 1880, may have been Wylie's half-sister.

Living with the family in 1900 was Ellen "Ella" Virginia Deavers. She was enumerated as a "helper." Ella moved back to her parents by 1910. By 1920 Wylie had removed to Mineral County, West Virginia. Living with him was Miss Ella Deavers. The couple never married.

In 1924 Wylie wrote his will, leaving his estate to his friend and companion, Ella Deavers. {Will Book, V. 05 (1948-1951), Page 130}

Wylie, 77, died August 3, 1950 in New Creek, Mineral County, West Virginia and was buried in the Queens Meadow Point Cemetery in Keyser, Mineral County, West Virginia.

- ii. BARBARA B. DEAVERS was born on 22 Aug 1880 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 28 Apr 1969 in Virginia (age 88). She married David Edward Ritchie, son of Isaac Franklin Ritchie and Josephine Cromer, on 04 Sep 1907 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 30 Jun 1869 in Linville Creek, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 28 Dec 1954 in Virginia (age 85).

Notes for Barbara B. Deavers:

Barbara B. Deavers was born August 22, 1880 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of seven children born to Isaac C. Deavers and Rebecca L. Rolston. She was likely named after her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Barbara Burkholder Rolston. Barbara's father had been previously married, and Barbara had four half-brothers and three half-sisters. The Deavers' family was residing in the Central District of Rockingham County during the 1880 census where Barbara was born a few months after the census.

On September 4, 1907 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Barbara, age 27, married David Edward "Ed" Ritchie. Four children are known to have been born to the couple, but son Isaac died in 1911 at the age of 3. In the 1910 census Barbara, her husband, and their children were residing with the Deavers' family. Her father died in May of that year. In the 1920 census Barbara's widowed mother was living with the family:

David E Ritchie	Head	M	50	Virginia
Barbra B Ritchie	Wife	F	39	Virginia
Virginia L Ritchie	Daughter	F	12	Virginia
Clarence N Ritchie	Son	M	8	Virginia
Carl E Ritchie	Son	M	4	Virginia
Rebecca L Deavers	Mother-in-law	F	74	Virginia (widowed)

The couple's elder years were lived out in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. David, Barbara's husband of 47 years, preceded her in death on December 28, 1954 at the age of 85. Like their son Isaac, he was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

Barbara, 88, died April 28, 1969 and join her husband and son in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

Notes for David Edward Ritchie:

David Edward "Ed" Ritchie was born June 30, 1869 in Linville Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of eight children born to Isaac Franklin Ritchie and Josephine Cromer. He was often known by his middle name, Edward. Edward quite his formal education after the sixth grade. David was enumerated with his family in the 1880 census of Linville Creek, Rockingham County, Virginia:

Isaac F. Ritchie	Self	M	Male	W	39	VA	Farmer	VA	VA

Charles M. Ritchie	Son	S	Male	W	3	VA		VA	VA
John D. Spitzer	Other	S	Male	W	20	VA	Servant	VA	VA

In the 1900 census of Linville Township of Rockingham County, Virginia, David was 30 years old, living at home, but had no occupation.

On September 4, 1907 in Rockingham County, Virginia, David married Barbara B. Deavers. Four children were born to the couple, but one child, a son, died in 1911 at the age of three. The family was enumerated in 1910 on his father-in-laws farm, but David worked as carriage upholster. By 1920 the family had moved into Harrisonburg in Rockingham County, Virginia where David worked as a carriage trimmer at an auto shop. By 1930 he had worked his way up to auto mechanic. With the onset of The Great Depression and old age, David, age 70, took a job as a school janitor.

David, 85, preceded his wife in death on December 28, 1954 in Virginia and was buried in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

Polly obtained an 8th grade education. Unlike her older siblings, Polly was never enumerated with her parents, and nothing is known of Polly from the census years of 1900 (age~14) and 1920. Perhaps she was sent off as an unwed mother. Then in 1930, Polly was enumerated with her sister, Mrs. Rose B. Bowers, in the Ashby District of Rockingham County, Virginia. Polly is assumed to have remained with her sister until her sister's death in September of 1950. Polly is not known to have married.

Polly, 88, died June 19, 1973 [death certificate date] in the Virginia Mennonite Home in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried as Pollie S. Deavers in the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Rockingham County, Virginia. Her tombstone is inscribed with her date of death as June 20, 1973.

Notes for Benjamin Fielding Rolston Jr.:

Benjamin Fielding Rolston Jr. was born March 15, 1849 [March 15, 1848 on tombstone] in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eighth of nine children born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston and Barbara Ann Burkholder. Benjamin had a surviving half-brother and half-sister from his father's first marriage. At the age of two, Benjamin contracted polio which left him crippled. He did not appear on the 1850 census and may not have been residing with the family at that time.

On May 16, 1872 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Benjamin married Eliza Rebecca Ryman. His wife had also suffered from Polio. Benjamin's disability did not prevent him from becoming a successful farmer. Five children were born to the couple.

Education and religion were important to Benjamin, and he made sure that his children were well educated. Each of his children attended the West Central Academy, a private school located at Mount Clinton, Virginia. The family was enumerated in the 1880 census of Central, Rockingham County, Virginia:

Their eldest daughter, Mrs. Elsie Blosser, died in 1895 at the age of 22 after giving birth.

Benjamin, 58, died February 21, 1908 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried as B. F. Rolston at the Cooks Creek Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County. His cause of death is unknown. Benjamin was survived by Eliza, his wife of 35 years, their daughter Mrs. Annie Shrum, and two sons, Rev. David Rolston and Samuel Rolston. Also surviving were Benjamin's brothers John and Calvin and sisters Sarah, Rebecca, and Ellen.

Notes for Eliza Rebecca Ryman:

Eliza Rebecca Ryman was born September 29, 1844 in Shenandoah County, Virginia, the daughter of Levi H. Ryman and Anna Zirkle. She was enumerated in the 1850 census of Shenandoah County as Eliza A. R. Ryman and may have been initially named Eliza Ann Rebecca Ryman.

Eliza's date of birth is calculated as November 29, 1845 based on her age (26 years, 5 months & 19 days) on the marriage license issued to Benjamin F. Rolston and Eliza on May 16, 1872. On Eliza's tombstone at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Cemetery her date of birth is shown as September 29, 1844.

Eliza had been "bound out" at age eight. She is said to have been crippled by polio. She never attended formal school but was self-educated to read, write, and perform arithmetic.

Eliza married Benjamin Fielding Rolston Jr. on May 16, 1872 in Rockingham County, Virginia. Benjamin had also been struck by polio in his childhood. The couple were successful farmers. Six children, two daughters, three sons, and one unknown were born to their union. According to the 1900 census, six children were born to their union and three had died. Their eldest son Cambysies died of diphtheria in 1880 at the age of four, and their eldest daughter, Mrs. Elsie Blosser, died in 1895 at the age of 22 after giving birth.

Benjamin, Eliza's husband of 35 years, died February 21, 1908 at the age of 58. Eliza's whereabouts in 1910 are unknown. Her son, Rev. David Rolston, died of influenza in 1917.

Eliza, 73, died March 5, 1918 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and joined her husband in the Cooks Creek Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. Eliza's cause of death is unknown. She may have also been a victim of the influenza epidemic. Eliza was survived by two of her five children, daughter, Mrs. Annie Shrum, and youngest son, Samuel Rolston.

Benjamin Fielding Rolston Jr. and Eliza Rebecca Ryman had the following children:

- i. ELSIE VIRGINIA<sup>6</sup> ROLSTON was born on 25 May 1873 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 02 Aug 1895 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 22). She married Rudolph Peter Blosser, son of Peter Blosser and Magdaline Rhodes, on 26 May 1894 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 27 Jan 1873 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 18 Oct 1950 in Beaver Twp., Mahoning Co., Ohio (age 77).

Notes for Elsie Virginia Rolston:

Elsie Virginia Rolston was born May 25, 1873 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of six children born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston, Jr. and Eliza Rebecca Ryman. Education was important to her father, and Elsie was in the first class (1890-91) of the West Central Academy.

On May 26, 1894 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Elsie married Rudolph Peter Blosser.

The following year on August 2, 1895, Elsie, 22, died after giving birth to her first and only child, a daughter named Sallie Hopkins Blosser. Elsie was buried in the Cooks Creek Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by her husband and their infant daughter.

Notes for Rudolph Peter Blosser:

Rudolph "Rudy" Peter Blosser was born January 27, 1873 near Harrisonburg in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of some ten children born to Peter Blosser and Magdaline Rhodes. As a young child he was enumerated with his family in the 1880 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

On May 26, 1894 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Rudolph married Elsie Virginia Rolston. The following year Elsie gave birth to their first child, but Elsie died five days later. Rudolph gave their daughter Sallie to one of her Rolston relatives to raise.

Three years later on December 28, 1898, Rudolph married Anna C. Wyant. He had nine children by his second wife. In 1900 he was living next door to John Rolston in the Central District of Rockingham County. Rudolph's father, Peter, was living with him at that time. About 1916 he moved his wife and children to Ohio where he remained until his death.

Rudolph, 77, died October 18, 1950 in Beaver Township of Mahoning County, Ohio, and was buried in the Midway Mennonite Church Cemetery in Mahoning County, Ohio.

Gospel Herald - Volume XLIII, Number 46 - November 14, 1950 --- 1134, 1135

Blosser. --- Rudolph Peter, son of Peter and Magdalena (Rhodes) Blosser, was born Jan. 27, 1873, at Harrisonburg, Va.; died at his home in North Lima, Ohio, Oct. 18, 1950; aged 77y. 8m. 21 d. Death resulted from a stroke. He was the last of a family of 9 children. Bedfast for twenty years, he was very patient. His Christian Testimony impressed many, though it was expressed mainly in daily living. In April, 1894, he married Elsie Virginia Rolston, of Harrisonburg, Va., who preceded him in death in November, 1896. On Dec. 27, 1898, he was married to Annie C. Wyant at Beldore, Va. He leaves his wife, 7 daughters (Sallie, Harrisonburg, Va.; Mrs. Ressie Buckwalter, East Canton, Ohio; Mrs. Mary Lehman, Mrs. Ruby Forney, Mrs. Margaret Good, and Mrs. Alma Justice, all of Columbiana, Ohio), 2 sons (Rudolph, Jr., New Waterford, Ohio, and Harold of Columbiana), 22 grandchildren, and 6 great-grandchildren. One son (Ward) preceded him in death. In early life he united with the Mennonite Church, remaining a faithful member until his death. Funeral services were conducted at the North Lima Mennonite Church by David Steiner and A. J. Steiner. Interment was made in the Midway Cemetery.

- ii. ANNIE KATHERINE ROLSTON was born on 23 Oct 1875 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 26 Dec 1950 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 75). She married George Edgar Shrum, son of Samuel Shrum and Sarah Ann Messick, on 28 Apr 1904 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 19 May 1870 in Virginia. He died on 30 Oct 1951 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 81).

Notes for Annie Katherine Rolston:

Annie Katherine Rolston was born October 23, 1875 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of six children born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston Jr. and Eliza Rebecca Ryman.

Annie's middle name is found spelled as Catherine and Katherine.

On April 28, 1904 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Annie, 28, married George Edgar Shrum. Her husband was a mason. The couple had two children, a daughter and a son, born about seven years apart.

Annie, 75, died December 26, 1950 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Dayton Cemetery in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia. She was survived by her husband and their two children. Her husband died five months later at the age of 81. Also surviving was Annie's youngest sibling, brother Samuel Henry Rolston.

Notes for George Edgar Shrum:

George Edgar Shrum was born May 19, 1870 in Virginia, the fifth of seven children born to Samuel Shrum and Sarah Ann Messick. His father was a brick layer, and George and several of his brothers would follow their father's profession. The family was enumerated in the 1880 Census of the Ashby District of Rockingham County, Virginia:

Samuel Shrum VA VA	Self	M	Male	W	55	VA	Brick Layer

On April 28, 1904 in Rockingham County, Virginia, George, age 33, married Annie Katherine Rolston, age 28. Two children were born to the couple. The family was enumerated in the 1910 census of the Ashby District of Rockingham County. Living with them was George's widowed mother. Annie, George's wife of 46 years, preceded him in death on the day after Christmas, December 26, 1950, at the age of 75.

George, 81, died the following year on October 30, 1951 in Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the Dayton Cemetery in Dayton, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- iii. CAMBYSES LEVI ROLSTON was born in 1876 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 22 Dec 1880 in near Harrisonburg, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 4).

Notes for Cambyses Levi Rolston:

Cambyses Levi Rolston was born in 1876 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of six children born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston, Jr. and Eliza Rebecca Ryman.

Cambyses, age 4, died of diphtheria on December 22, 1880 in Rockingham County, Virginia was was buried at the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

- iv. SADIE K. ROLSTON was born on 03 Sep 1877 in Fauquier Co., Va.. She died before 1880 in Virginia.

six children born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston, Jr. and Eliza Rebecca Ryman.

Virginia birth records list the birth of Sadie K. Ralston on September 3, 1877 in Fauquier County, Virginia, the daughter of Benj. F. Ralston and Eliza R. Ralston.

Sadie died before the 1880 census. Her place of death and burial are unknown.

- v. DAVID HOPKINS ROLSTON was born on 28 Oct 1878 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 21 Nov 1917 in Charlotte, Mecklenburg Co., N.C. (age 39). He married Sarah Frances Rodeffer, daughter of Conrad Rodeffer and Hannah Myers, on 14 Sep 1904 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 05 Aug 1869 in Greenmount, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 05 Feb 1958 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 88).

Notes for David Hopkins Rolston:

Rev. David Hopkins Rolston was born October 28, 1878 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of six children born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston, Jr. and Eliza Rebecca Ryman.

"David Hopkins Rolston was born October 28, 1878, on his father's plantation in Rockingham county, Va., eight or ten miles from Harrisonburg. His boyhood days were spent on the farm." {source: The Charlotte News, Nov. 22, 1917} David was known as "Hop" or "Uncle Hop" and as Rev. David.

David joined the Cooks Creek Presbyterian Church on October 1, 1892 at the age of 14. He served as a deacon there from 1899 until 1904. In 1900 he entered the Washington and Lee University at Lexington, Virginia. He graduated there in 1904, first in his class, with a Bachelor of Arts.

On September 14, 1904, after graduation, David married Miss Sarah Frances "Sallie" Rodeffer of Harrisonburg, Virginia. The couple then moved to Richmond, Virginia where David entered the Union Theological Seminary. He completed his education in 1907 and was licensed to preach on May 18, 1907 by the Lexington Presbytery.

Rev. David's first assignment was in Gladys, West Virginia, where he remained until 1908. His next assignment was as a pastor in Petersburg, Virginia. In 1911 he moved to Charlotte, North Carolina, where he was the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

David's life was tragically cut short when he contracted spinal meningitis and died November 21, 1917 in Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina at age 39. He and Sallie resided at the manse on West Trade Street. His body was returned to Virginia where he was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia.

In his obituary, The Charlotte News reports, "He loved animals, and surrounded himself with pets of many kinds. The squirrels in the church yard were his special care ...." David and Sallie never had children.

Notes for Sarah Frances Rodeffer:

Sarah "Sallie" Frances Rodeffer was born August 5, 1869 in Greenmount, Rockingham County, Virginia, the sixth of ten children born to Conrad Rodeffer and Hannah Myers. In the 1900 census Sarah's mother reports having had nine children, eight living.

On September 14, 1904 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Sarah married David Hopkins Rolston. Sallie was nearly ten years older than her husband David. Sources from the family have referred to her as a witch. The particulars that earned her the dubious title of "witch" are not known. The couple was living in Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina in 1917 when her husband died at the age 39. After David's death, Sallie returned to Rockingham County and lived at the Fielding Rolston Farm, 4 miles northwest of Harrisonburg, Virginia.

In the 1920 census of West Harrisonburg Sallie was living next door to Amanda Rolston

Knically. Sallie was enumerated as Mrs. D. H. Rolston. Living with her was her sister "Lou C. Rhodefer" (Rodeffer), age 58, and niece Sallie H. Blosser, age 24. In the 1940 census Sallie was enumerated in the Central District of Rockingham County. Living with her was a foster child, Margaret V. Rolston, age 16.

Sallie broke her hip in 1950 at the age of 80 and remained a semi-invalid there after. In 1955 she became a resident of the Virginia Mennonite Home where she died February 5, 1958 at the age of 88. She was buried in the Woodbine Cemetery in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia. Sallie and David did not have any children; however, her obituary mentions a foster daughter.

- vi. SAMUEL HENRY ROLSTON was born on 22 Jul 1881 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va.. He died on 18 Feb 1959 in Harrisburg, Dauphin Co., Penn. (age 77). He married Leora Corinth Fulk, daughter of Mathias Fulk and Sarah C. Geil, on 12 Jan 1902 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va.. She was born on 16 Jun 1881 in Amberly, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 13 Jan 1980 in Harrisburg, Dauphin Co., Penn. (age 98).

Notes for Samuel Henry Rolston:

Samuel Henry Rolston was born July 22, 1881 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of six children born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston Jr. and Eliza Rebecca Ryman. Samuel attended eight years at the Willow Run elementary school near his home in Rockingham County. He then continued his education at a private school, West Central Academy located in Mount Clinton, Virginia, graduating in 1897 at the age of 16. It was about this same year that Samuel met Leora Corinth Fulk at a birthday party where he said that he fell in love with her.

After their marriage on January 12, 1902 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the couple moved in with Leora's mother until the birth of their first child, Benjamin, on April 29, 1902. In 1906 they moved to Samuel's father's farm to care for his aging parents as well as the farm its self. Other family members, the widow Mrs. Sallie Rolston Hopkins and John Burkholder Rolston, returned to the farm to live out their final days. It was no wonder the farm was referred to by the family as "The Home Place." While residing there in 1910, Samuel became a deacon for the Presbyterian Church and retained this post until 1917. At the time of the 1910 census of the Central District of Rockingham County, Virginia, Samuel's uncle, John Burkholder Rolston age 72, was living with him. Also living with the family was Effie Fulk, age 21, a relative from his wife's family

About 1920, Samuel moved the family, including his mother Eliz, to the small community of Rockville near Harrisburg, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, and took employment at the Harrisburg Lumber Company. He remained there until 1922 when he went into the dairy business. Sons Ben, Samuel, and Henry worked in the flourishing dairy business. About 1935 Samuel was struck with influenza that is said to have left him with a great debilitating pain in his digestive system. This disability, along with the departures of his sons over the years, finally required Samuel to give up the dairy business in 1939. By 1940 the family had moved into Harrisburg, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania:

Leora Corinth Fulk was born June 16, 1881 in Amberly, Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of Mathias Fulk and Sarah C. Geil.

On January 12, 1902 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, Leora married Samuel Henry Rolston. The couple had nine children. The family, and Leora's widowed mother, were enumerated in the 1920 census of McGeheysville, Rockingham County, Virginia:

Samuel H Rolston		Head	M	38	Virginia
Lenora C Rolston		Wife	F	38	Virginia
Bennie F Rolston		Son	M	17	Virginia

After the 1920 census, the family removed to Dauphin County, Pennsylvania.

Samuel, Leora's husband of 57 years, preceded her in death on February 18, 1959 in Harrisburg, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania at the age of 77.

Leora, 98, died January 13, 1980 in Harrisburg, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania and was buried in the East Harrisburg Cemetery in Harrisburg. Leora was survived by eight of her nine children.

358. CALVIN JAMES<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (Benjamin Fielding<sup>4</sup>, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 27 Jun 1850 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 08 Jan 1929 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Co., Ok. (age 78). He married (1) SALLIE VIRGINIA CLINE, daughter of Thomas J. Cline and Francis C. Murray, on 20 Dec 1870 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She was born on 20 Oct 1852 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 22 Sep 1897 in Standing Rock, Atoka Co., Ok. (age 44). He married (2) LAURA JANE FRANCIS, daughter of Francis and Marian, on 24 Nov 1898 in Oklahoma Territory. She was born in May 1861 in Tennessee. She died on 21 May 1923 in Atoka Co., Ok. (age ~62).

Notes for Calvin James Rolston:

Calvin James Rolston/Ralston was born June 27, 1850 near Harrisburg in Rockingham County, Virginia, the youngest of nine children born to Benjamin Fielding Rolston and his second wife, Barbara Ann Burkholder. Calvin had a surviving half-brother and half-sister from his father's first marriage. Calvin was later referred to as "Uncle Cal" by members of the Rolston family. When Calvin began using the Ralston surname is unknown.

He was brought under the influence of Cook's Creek Presbyterian Church near his home, joining that church on his eighteenth birthday under the preaching of Dr. Handy. From his early childhood he was impressed with the idea to preach the Gospel and as he grew older this impression became a conviction. His opportunities for an education at that period were meager owing to the Civil War. During the Civil War he was a drummer boy on the side of the Confederacy. In the latter days of the war he was assisting in the hospital work. {Chronicles of Oklahoma, pages 213-214}

He attended the Polytechnic Institute at New Market, Virginia, and then the Richmond College at Richmond, Virginia.

On October 20, 1870, Calvin and Miss Sallie V. Cline of Rockingham County, Virginia, were married, and as a result of this union, three children were known to have been born. Calvin taught school for several years until 1873 when he entered the Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia, from which he graduated in 1875. His first pastoral charge was at Clinton, Kentucky; the second at Mossy Creek, Tennessee; and then he was sent to Denton, Texas. From this station he was called by the Committee on Home Missions of the of the Presbyterian Church to take charge of Armstrong Academy, an Indian school in the Choctaw Nation, in 1880, succeeding the late Rev. W.J.B. Lloyd as Superintendent. {Chronicles of Oklahoma, pages 213-214} Oklahoma would not become a State until 1907.

At Presbytery held at Tishhoktok in September 1894, the Rev. Ralston urged the Presbytery to purchase a lot in Durant to establish a school, as the Indian schools were to be taken over by the Indian government thereby displacing the church management. The Indians misinterpreted this speech as advocating Indian allotment and at the Council meeting the following October a bill was introduced before the Council to eject him from the Territory for advocating allotment of the Indian lands. With permission from W.N. Jones to be heard by the Council with an efficient interpreter, he was able to correct the erroneous impression. While yet speaking, Alex Durant handed him a telegram from C.A. Hancock notifying him that his son Calvin had drowned that morning at eleven o'clock. Many of the Indians present rushed to him expressing their sympathy and confidence, and the controversy there ended, the bill not being pressed further. He left at once for his home and the body of his son Calvin was taken to Denton, Texas for burial. On his return he stopped in Durant and attended a school meeting. At this meeting a controversy arose as to the management of the school which could not be reconciled. The grandmother of his son Calvin had willed the sum of $256.56 for her grandson's education when he reached the sophomore class, or if he died before such period then this money put into some institution of learning as a memorial. Rev. Ralston proposed to buy the property and establish a school within twenty days. The offer was accepted, the money paid that day and the school opened in ten days, being named Calvin Institute by the Indian Presbytery, out of which grew the present Oklahoma Presbyterian College at Durant. {Chronicles of Oklahoma, pages 213-214}

The following year he moved to Durant to be near the school and engaged in evangelistic work. In 1896 on account of his wife's failed health he moved to Standing Rock, about 9 miles west of Atoka, but Sallie only survived for a short time. {Chronicles of Oklahoma, pages 213-214} She died September 22, 1897 at the age of 44.

On November 24, 1898 in Oklahoma, Calvin, age 49, married his second wife, Laura Janie Francis, who came from Tennessee to teach in the Indian schools. There was one child attributed to this union, but this son appears to have been adopted. Laura died on May 21, 1923, after some 24 years of marriage. Calvin, now in his early 70's, did not remarry.

In 1915 he was appointed by Governor Williams as an assistant custodian at the State Capitol, holding said position until January 1919. While he resided at Caney (~1928) his eyesight was seriously impaired in endeavoring to rescue an Indian child from a burning dwelling.

Calvin, 78, died January 8, 1929 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma County, Oklahoma, after forty years of missionary work to the Indians. He was buried as Reverend C. J. Ralston in the Stewart Cemetery in Caney, Atoka County, Oklahoma. He was survived by two of his three children. Also surviving was one sister, Mrs. Ellen Hopkins.

"Reverend Calvin J. Ralston, for many years a Presbyterian minister, living at Caney, but working throughout the state, died at Oklahoma City the first of the week after a short illness. Reverend Ralston did perhaps as much toward civilizing and advancing the cause of religion in this section as any man who has lived in it. He was brought back to Caney yesterday for burial besides his wife who passed on several years ago. One by one the pioneers of this section are passing and at the present rate only a few years will any of them remain with us." {source: The Indian Citizen-Democrat [Atoka Co., Ok.] January 10, 1929}

Notes for Sallie Virginia Cline:

Sallie Virginia Cline was born October 20, 1852 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the daughter of Thomas J. Cline and Francis C. Murray.

On December 20, 1870 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Sallie married Calvin James Rolston (Ralston). Three children are known to have been born to the couple. Their first child, daughter Ava, was born in 1871. Her husband became a reverend in 1875, and the family moved to Clinton, Hickman County, Kentucky, and then they moved to Mossy Creek, Tennessee. By 1884 they had moved to the Oklahoma Territory where their second child, son Thomas, was born in 1884. 13 years had elapsed between the birth of the first two known children. Other unknown children may have been born and died during that period. Their third child, son Calvin, was born in 1888; young Calvin drowned in 1892 at the age of 3.

Sallie, 44, died September 22, 1987 in Standing Rock, Atoka County, Oklahoma. Her cause of death is unknown. She was buried in the Pioneer Cemetery in Durant, Bryan County, Oklahoma.

Calvin James Rolston and Sallie Virginia Cline had the following children:

- i. AVA LILLIAN<sup>6</sup> RALSTON was born on 20 Nov 1871 in Rockingham Co., Va.. She died in 1943 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Co., Ok. (age ~71). She married Wilbert Lee Poole, son of G. B. Poole and Mary, on 04 Jul 1893 in Indian Territory (now Oklahoma). He was born in Nov 1866 in Ohio. He died in 1916 in Bryan Co., Ok. (age ~49).

Notes for Ava Lillian Ralston:

Ava Lillian Ralston was born November 20, 1871 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the first of three children born to Calvin James Rolston and Sallie Virginia Cline. [1872 on tombstone] Her father was a Presbyterian minister. He was sent on missions by the church to many locations, taking his family with him. By 1892 her father had moved the family to Durant, Bryan County, Oklahoma.

Ava, age 21, married Wilbert Lee Pool, age 27, on July 4, 1893 in Pittsburg County of the Oklahoma Territory. Oklahoma did not become a State until 1907. Five children were born from their union; one died in infancy. Her husband preceded her in death in 1916 at the age of about 49. After her husband's death, she moved the family to Oklahoma City where she remained for some years. In 1930 she was residing with her youngest son, Ralston Poole, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. By 1940 Ava had moved to Oklahoma City; daughter Maybelle was living with her.

Ava, about age 72, died in 1943 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma County, Oklahoma and joined her husband in the Highland Cemetery in Durant, Bryan County, Oklahoma: Ava L. Poole (1872-1944) and W. L. Poole (1867-1916).

Notes for Wilbert Lee Poole:

Wilbert Lee Poole was born in November of 1866 in Ohio, the second of seven known children and only known son born to G. B. and Mary Poole. He was enumerated in the 1880 census of Amsterdam Township in Jefferson County, Ohio, at the age of 13 residing with his parents and sisters. He later removed West to the Indian Territory now known as Oklahoma.

On July 4, 1893 Eilbert married Ava Lillian Ralston. Five children were born to the couple; one died in infancy. Wilbert was a Real Estate Broker in 1900. In 1907 Oklahoma entered statehood, and Wilbert took a position with the county as a deed recorder sometime prior to 1910.

Wilbert, about age 49, died in 1916 in Bryan County, Oklahoma, and was buried in the Highland Cemetery in Durant, Bryan County, Oklahoma. He was survived by his wife and four of their five children.

- ii. THOMAS LIVINGSTON RALSTON was born on 23 Nov 1884 in Harrisonburg (city, Rockingham Co.), Va.. He died on 18 Aug 1963 in Ada, Pontotoc Co., Ok. (age 78). He married Wilhelmena Underwood, daughter of James Matthew Underwood and Epsi Lucinda Marlow, on 26 May 1912 in Caney, Atoka Co., Ok.. She was born on 10 Jan 1890 in Cooke Co., Texas. She died on 17 Feb 1975 in Ada, Pontotoc Co., Ok. (age 85).

Notes for Thomas Livingston Ralston:

Thomas "Tom" Livingston Ralston was born November 23, 1884 in Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of three children born to Rev. Calvin James Rolston and Sallie Virginia Cline. The family removed to the Indian Territory of Oklahoma soon after his birth. Tom grew up with his older sister, Ava. Their younger brother Calvin died at the age of four.

Thomas was raised among the Choctaw Indians and is said to have learned to speak Choctaw before he learned the English language. During his early adulthood, Thomas acted as a translator in the county court for the Choctaw Indians. He was highly respected by the Choctaw. In later years he avoided the Indians for a reason he never disclosed to anyone. {Oral family history from Walt Vinson}

On May 26, 1912 in a Presbyterian church in Caney, Atoka County, Oklahoma, Thomas, age 27, married Miss Mena Wilhelmena Underwood, age 22. Five children were born to their union.

Tom started out as a farmer in Atoka County. By 1930 he was working as a farm laborer in Johnston County. In 1940 he was working as a laborer for the W.P.A..

Thomas, 78, died August 18, 1963 in Ada, Ponotoc County, Oklahoma, and was buried in the Rose Hill Cemetery in Wapanucka, Oklahoma. He was survived by his wife and their five children.

Notes for Wilhelmena Underwood:

Wilhelmena "Mena" Underwood was born January 10, 1890 in Cooke County, Texas, one of nine children born to James Matthew Underwood and Epsi Lucinda Marlow. By 1900 she had moved to the Indian Territory of Oklahoma, residing in Atoka County. The territory became the state of Oklahoma in 1907.

On May 26, 1912 in a Presbyterian church in Caney, Atoka County, Oklahoma, Mena, age 22, married Thomas Livingston Ralston, age 27. Five children were born from their union. Thomas, her husband of 50 years, preceded her in death on August 18, 1963 at the age of 79.

Wilhelmena, 85, died February 17, 1975 in Ada, Ponotoc County, Oklahoma, and joined her husband in the Rose Hill Cemetery in Wapanucka, Johnston County, Oklahoma.

- iii. CALVIN CLINE RALSTON was born on 13 Sep 1888 in Oklahoma Territory. He died on 27 Oct 1892 in Durant, Choctow Nation, Oklahoma Territory (now Bryan Co., Ok.) (age 4).

Notes for Calvin Cline Ralston:

Calvin Cline Ralston was born September 13, 1888, in Oklahoma, the youngest of three children born to Rev. Calvin James Rolston and Sallie Virginia Cline. The oral family history says that his middle name was Cline, his mother's maiden name. {source: Walt Vinson}

On October 27, 1892 in the Choctow Nation of the Oklahoma Territory, Calvin, age 4, drowned in a mill pond near Durant and was buried at the Pioneer Cemetery in Durant, Bryan County, Oklahoma.

In 1894 Calvin's father opened another school for the Choctaw Indian children, naming it Calvin Institute in honor of his son. This school became the Presbyterian College of Durant in 1901, and then the Oklahoma Presbyterian College in 1908. In 1935 the college became affiliated with the Southeastern State College and became a dormitory for the college. In 1963 it became the Oklahoma Presbyterian Center.

Notes for Laura Jane Francis:

Laura Jane "Janie" Francis was born in May of 1861 in Tennessee, one of seven children born to Mr. Francis and his wife Marian. Laura came to the Chactaw Nation, Indian Territory (Oklahoma) from Tennessee to teach in the Indian schools.

On November 24, 1898 in Oklahoma Territory, Laura married the widower Rev. Calvin James Rolston. They were enumerated in the 1900 census of the Chactaw Nation in the Indian Territory, later to become the state of Oklahoma:

Calvin Ralston    Head                    M            50            Virginia

359. BARBARA ANN<sup>5</sup> ROLSTON (David H.<sup>4</sup> III, David<sup>3</sup> Rolstone Jr., David<sup>2</sup> Rolstone Sr., William<sup>1</sup> Rolstone) was born on 02 Dec 1827 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 28 Sep 1898 in Rockingham Co., Va. (age 70). She married Peter Swank, son of Joseph Swank and Elizabeth Landes, on 28 Oct 1847 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 18 Jul 1825 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 16 Sep 1875 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va. (age 50).

Notes for Barbara Ann Rolston:

Barbara Ann Rolston was born December 2, 1827 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of fifteen children born to David H. Rolston III and Francis "Fannie" Beery. Unlike her older sister and brother, she did not die from the illness that took their young lives in 1828, and she grew to adulthood, living in Rockingham County.

On October 28, 1847 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Barbara, age 19, married Peter Swank. The couple remained in the Rockingham County area and reared a family of ten children. Her husband, Peter, died September 16, 1875 at the age of fifty. Barbara was forty-eight at the time of his death, but she never remarried.

Barbara, 70, died September 28, 1898 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was buried in St. Johns Lutheran Church Cemetery in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, where her husband had been buried 23 years earlier. She was survived by seven of her ten child. Son John and daughters Amanda and Sarah had preceded her in death. Also surviving were six of Barbara's fourteen siblings: brothers Samuel and John, and sisters Ellen, Hannah, Frances, and Josephine.

Notes for Peter Swank:

Peter Swank was born July 18, 1825 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, the son of Joseph Swank and Elizabeth Landes.

On October 28, 1847 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Peter married Barbara Ann Rolston. Ten children were born to the couple. Daughter Sarah, their seventh child, died as an infant.

Peter, 50, preceded his wife in death on September 16, 1875 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia and was buried in the St. Johns Lutheran Church Cemetery in Singers Glen. Peter's cause of death is listed as Rheumatism.

Peter Swank and Barbara Ann Rolston had the following children:

- i. MARY FRANCES<sup>6</sup> SWANK was born on 22 Nov 1848 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 14 Nov 1924 in Peculiar, Cass Co., Mo. (age 75). She married Joseph Henry Funk, son of Joseph Funk and Elizabeth S. Shue, on 24 Jan 1875 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 05 Jul 1843 in Hampshire Co., Va. (now WV.). He died on 31 Dec 1925 in Fairhope, Baldwin Co., Ala. (age 82).

Notes for Mary Frances Swank:

Mary Frances Swank was born November 22, 1848 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, the eldest of ten children born to Peter Swank and Barbara Ann Rolston.

On January 24, 1875 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Mary, age 26, married Joseph H. Funk, age 31. After their marriage the couple removed to Peculiar, Cass County, Missouri, where two children were born to their union.

Mary, 75, died November 20, 1924 in Peculiar, Cass County, Missouri and was buried in the Peculiar Cemetery in Peculiar. She was survived by Joseph, her husband of 49 years, and their two children.

{contributed by Matthew Simonds}

The obituary of Mary Frances (Swank) Funk appeared in the Cass County Democrat, November 20, 1924:

Mrs. J.H. Funk, familiarly called by almost everyone, "Aunt Fannie," passed away last Friday evening at the family home, just west of town. Her going was not unexpected, as she had been in failing health for some months past. Her presence in church and Sunday School and, in fact, all gatherings of all kinds for the betterment of the community, will be greatly missed, for until her health failed she took an interest in these things. The funeral services were held at the M.E. Church South last Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and burial was made in the Peculiar Cemetery. A complete obituary appears elsewhere in these columns.

MRS JOSEPH H. FUNK
1848-1924

Mrs. Joseph H. Funk (nee Frances Swank) was born near Singer Glenn, Va., November 22, 1848, and passed away at her home near Peculiar, Mo., November 14, 1924, after several months of suffering.

In January, 1875, she was married to Joseph H. Funk. To this union two children were born - Linneus A. Funk of Fair Hope, Ala., and Mrs. Alta Simonds of Calhoun, Mo. Her husband, these two children and ten grandchildren, besides other relatives and a host of friends, mourn her going.

She was converted and united with the Methodist Church at the age of 16. From that time until the Death Angel came for her, she lived a consistent, consecrated Christian life, a life of unwavering devotion to her God, her church, her home and her innumerable friends.

Though her passing leaves a vacancy in the community life, her influence lives on and the memory of "Aunt Fannie" will not die.

The funeral services were conducted by by her pastor, the Rev. H.D. Huffine, at the Methodist Church, on Sunday afternoon, November 16, and her frail body, wasted by weary weeks of suffering, was tenderly laid to rest in the Peculiar Cemetery, but her spirit has slipped away to the Land of Endless Joy, where she will hear her Savior say: "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Notes for Joseph Henry Funk:

Joseph Henry Funk was born July 5, 1843 in Hampshire County, Virginia (now West Virginia), the son of Joseph Funk and Elizabeth S. Shue. Sometime after 1860 he moved to Missouri with his parents, and the family was enumerated in Polk Township of Cass County in 1870. Joseph returned to Rockingham County, Virginia to marry.

On January 24, 1875 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Joseph married Mary Frances Swank. The couple returned to Peculiar Township of Cass County, Missouri where their two children were born. The family was enumerated in the 1880 Census of West Peculiar Township of Cass County, Missouri:

Joseph Funk    Self    M    Male    W    35    VA    Farmer    VA    VA

The couple lived and farmed there for many years. They were last enumerated there in 1920; residing with them were two of their grandchildren:

Joseph H Funk	Head	M			76	Virginia
Mary F Funk	Wife	F			71	Virginia
Clyde M Funk	Grandson		M		18	Missouri
Harold H Funk	Grandson		M		17	Missouri

His wife preceded him in death in 1924. After her death he moved to Alabama where he resided with his son, Linneus.

"He departed this life December 31, 1925, at the home of his son in Fairhope, Ala., where he had recently gone to spend the winter." ... "Mr. Funk had spent the great part of his life in this section of Missouri, and had been closely identified with the civic and church life of this community. He was a pioneer member of the Methodist church here and loved his church and his God with a deep fervor, being of a deeply religious nature. He was closely affiliated with every phase of community life, always being an ardent supporter of the best interests of the town. In the death of Mr. Funk the church has lost a devoted, consecrated member, the community has lost a loyal, substantial citizen, the family has lost a loving, tender-hearted parent and brother, and the wide circle of his associates has lost a true friend.

Quiet and retiring, yet a man of sterling worth, reserved and unobtrusive, yet a man four square. Thus was he known to his fellow men and held in high regard and esteem by all. In the eventide of a well-spent life he has slipped away through the gates ajar to his heavenly home." {contributed by Matthew Simonds, November 2005}

Joseph was buried in the Peculiar Cemetery in Peculiar, Cass County, Missouri.

- ii. JOHN DAVID SWANK was born on 27 Nov 1850 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 24 Nov 1883 in Pendleton Co., W.V. (age 32). He married Grace Geneva Harper, daughter of George Harper and Elizabeth Jane Arbogast, on 25 Nov 1880 in Pendleton Co., W.V.. She was born on 28 Mar 1861 in Virginia (now West Virginia). She died on 23 May 1937 in Cave (unincorporated), Pendleton Co., W.V. (age 76).

Notes for John David Swank:

John David Swank was born November 27, 1850 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, the second of ten children born to Peter Swank and Barbara Ann Rolston.

John moved to Pendleton County, West Virginia sometime before 1880. There on November 25, 1880 he married Grace Geneva Harper. By the year 1883 the couple had had one child, and Grace was pregnant with their second child.

John, 32, died November 24, 1883 in Pendleton County, West Virginia prior to the birth of his second child. John's body was returned to his family home of Virginia and buried at the St. Johns Lutheran Church Cemetery in Rockingham County. His wife Grace and their two daughters remained in West Virginia, living with Grace's parents.

Notes for Grace Geneva Harper:

Grace Geneva Harper was born March 28, 1861 in Virginia (now West Virginia), the eldest known of six children born to George Harper Jr. and Elizabeth Jane Arbogast.

On November 25, 1880 in Pendleton County, West Virginia, Grace, age 17, married John David Swank, age 29. Grace's husband died at the age of 32 on November 24, 1883, the day before their 3rd wedding anniversary. The couple had one daughter, and Grace was one month pregnant with their second child. Grace was 22 years old when her husband died. After her husband's death, Grace returned to her parents' home where she and her two daughters were enumerated in the 1900 census of Franklin, Pendleton County, West Virginia.

In the 1910 census, Grace was living with her daughter, Mrs. Effie L. Middleton. Living with them was Ida, Grace's spinster sister. At the time of the 1930 census Grace was living with her daughter, Mrs. Stella G. Moyers.

Grace, 76, died of heart disease on May 23, 1937 in Cave (unincorporated), Pendleton County, West Virginia, and was buried as Gracie Swank in Harper Cemetery in Pendleton County, West Virginia, where her parents were buried. She was survived by her two daughters.

- iii. AMANDA JANE SWANK was born on 09 Jul 1852 in Singers Glen, Rockingham Co., Va.. She died on 02 Jul 1915 in Bear Creek Twp., Poweshiek Co., Iowa (age 62). She married Dewitt Cofman Lineweaver, son of David Falls Lineweaver and Esther Moffett Beard, on 24 Oct 1875 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He was born on 26 Apr 1853 in Rockingham Co., Va.. He died on 15 Nov 1945 in Poweshiek Co., Iowa (age 92).

Notes for Amanda Jane Swank:

Amanda Jane Swank was born July 9, 1852 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of ten children born to Peter Swank and Barbara Ann Rolston. [Burial records list her birth as July 8, 1852]

On October 24, 1875 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Amanda married Dewitt C. Lineweaver. The couple then removed to Brooklyn, Poweshiek County, Iowa. Amanda and Dewitt had two children, Effied born in 1881 and Walker born November 21, 1884.

Amanda, 62, died July 2, 1915 in Bear Creek Township of Poweshiek County, Iowa and was buried in the I.O.O.F. (now Brooklyn Memorial) Cemetery in Brooklyn, Poweshiek County, Iowa.

Notes for Dewitt Cofman Lineweaver:

Dewitt Cofman [Coffman] Lineweaver was born April 26, 1853 in Rockingham County, Virginia, the third of four children born to David F. Lineweaver and Esther Beard. Dewitt was the grandson of David Bell Captive Washington Beard and Ruth M. Rolston. Dewitt was too young to serve during the Civil War. In 1873 Dewitt's older brother Charles moved to Powesheik County, Iowa.

Dewitt's older brother, Jeremiah Franklin Lineweaver, married Josephine E. Rolston, thus giving Dewitt ties to the Rolston family as a brother-in-law. Then on October 24, 1875 in Rockingham County, Virginia, Dewitt married Amanda Jane Swank, the daughter of Mrs. Barbara Rolston Swank. The couple left Virginia, moving to Poweshiek County, Iowa near Dewitt's older brother Charles. Two children were born to the couple. Amanda, Dewitt's wife of 39 years, died in July of 1915.

On June 5, 1917 in Iowa, Dewitt, age 64, married Hettie C. Myers, age 53. No children were born from this second union.

Dewitt, 92, died November 15, 1945 at his home near Brookly, Poweshiek County, Iowa and joined his first wife in the I.O.O.F (now Brooklyn Memorial) Cemetery in Brooklyn, Poweshiek County, Iowa. Dewitt's second wife died the following year and was also buried next to Dewitt.

Obituary, undisclosed source:

Funeral services for D. C. Lineweaver were held last Friday afternoon at two o'clock at the Methodist church with the Rev. C. E. Thiele in charge. Music was provided by Mrs. C. H. Manatt, at the organ, and Mrs. R. R. Anthony and Mrs. C. W. Fowler, who sang two duets. Burial was in the I.O.O.F. cemetery with the following as pallbearers: Walter Uhl, C. J. Dunlap, Wm. Butts, B. F. Kensinger, Fred Gray and A. W. Scott.

Notes for Ada Ann Swank:

Ada Ann Swank was born October 13, 1856 in Singers Glen, Rockingham County, Virginia, the fifth of ten children born to Peter Swank and Barbara Ann Rolston.

On August 4, 1896 in North Carolina, Ada, age 39, married Rev. Eli Tinnin Iseley, age 44. One child was born in 1898 but was either stillborn or died shortly after birth. In the 1900 census of St. Mary's Township in Wake County, North Carolina, Ada reports that no children have been born. She accompanied her husband on a mission to Rifle, Garfield County, Colorado where Rev. Iseley died of pneumonia on December 21, 1902 at the age of 51.

On August 6, 1906 in Burlington, Alamance County, North Carolina, the widowed Ada, age 49, married the widower Edward Teague, age 73. No children were born from this second union. The couple lived in or around Burlington, Alamance County, North Carolina where Mr. Teague died on February 8, 1919 at the age of 85.

Ada, 75, died 12 years later on October 23, 1931 in Burlington, Alamance County, North Carolina and was buried as Ada Swank Teague in the Leaksville Church Cemetery in Leaksville, Page County, Virginia.

Obituary, undisclosed source, transcribed as published:

FORMER PASTOR'S WIFE BUR- IED AT LEASKVILLE

Mrs. Ada Teague, age 77 years, who by her first marriage was Mrs. E. T. Isely, wife of a pastor of the the Leaksville and Newport Christian churches, about twenty-eight years ago, died on Friday at the home of a stepdaughter at Burlington, N. C., and was buried Saturday afternoon beside her husband and infant child in the Leaksville cemetery after services by the present pastor, Rev. A. W. Andes. While not a well woman for a long time, Mrs. Teague was seriously ill only for a few weeks. Her funeral was attended by her two stepdaughters, Mrs. Kagey and Mrs. Satterwhite, of Burlington, N. C., and by a number of relatives from her native county, Rockingham. Before her first marriage she was Miss Ada Swank, of Singers Glen, Va.

Mrs. Teague was widely known as a devoted and tireless church worker. Her first husband, Rev. Mr. Iseley, had a history that was rather pathetic and unusual. About twenty-seven years ago he left his successful work at Leaksville, for Rifle, Colorado, where he was sent as a mission worker. Not a man with strong constitution he was taken with pneumonia and died after he had preached only one sermaon in his new field. During his pastorate at Leaksville, Mr. and Mrs. Iseley had conceived a deep love for the people there and his remains were shipped there for burial. The only child of the union also sleeps there. Some years after losing her husband Mrs. Iseley married Mr. Teague, a North Carolina Quaker, who died five or six years ago. She kept up her church activities to the end. At one time she was a mission worker in Carroll county, Va, near the home of the Allen clan.

The message reporting the death of Mrs. Teague came to Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rothgeb, of Luray, at whose home at Leaksville the Iseleys boarded for some time during Mr. Iseley's pastorate. The couple are very kindly remembered at Leaksville. Mr. Iseley was a tireless pastor and worker and an effective preacher.

Notes for Eli Tinnin Iseley:

Rev. Eli Tinnin Iseley was born August 13, 1851 in North Carolina. His parents were natives of North Carolina.
